The White Oaks coals are high in volatile matter—gas. Alabama coals average in this respect, 30.11.

The per-cntage [illegible] is yielded by this coal is [illegible] the general average [illegible] in the United States.

The percentage in Pennsylvania is 64, and Pa. provides four-fifths of the total amount. Colorado and West Virginia return their percentage as 63. All the other coke producing States and Territories fall below our percentage, the lowest being Illinois with 48 per cent—the next lowest, Kentucky and Tennessee, with 53 per cent each. Kansas coals produce but 53.3 per cent.

In strength, that is, capacity to lift up a charge in the smelting furnace, White Oaks coke exceeds that from the coals of Colorado and West Virginia, and is only equaled by those of the Connellsville region of Pa. It produces 5.5 per cent more coke than the New Mexican coals from which coke has hitherto been made in commercial quantities, and will bear 8 per cent. heavier charges.

In calorific power, i. e. heating capacity, our coals fall slightly behind the best coals of Pa., exceed those of Colorado, Montana and Tennessee, and equal the highest grades of W. Va.

It seems surprising to think of a firm spending over half a million dollars a year for advertising, and yet there are several business houses in the world that are doing it. They have been at it for years and they find it pays them. P. T. Barnum has always been a tremendous advertiser. He spent thousands of dollars recently to advertise his London engagement alone. He has always said that his newspaper advertising paid him best, and that posters and circulars simply benefit him by illustrating what had already been said in the newspapers. It is significant that this is the verdict of all great advertisers.

Nature in Convulsion

is terrible. Volcanic eruptions, cyclones, earthquakes are awfully and tremendously picturesque, but scarcely desirable to emulate in action and effect by the administration of remedies which produce convulsion and agony in the abnormal portion of the human frame. Such is the effect of the old fashioned violent purgatives happily falling more and more into disuse, and of which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the wholesome, pleasant and far more effective succedaneum. They weakened the intestines—the Bitters invigorates them. They left the bowels inactive, because incapacitated by ensuing feebleness. The Bitters, on the contrary, evil because it enables, not forces, them to act—a vast and fortunate difference—permanently their activity and regularity. The liver is beneficially stimulated, as the kidneys also are, by this medicine, which easily conquers, also, malaria, nervousness and rheumatism.

A Pennsylvania editor answers a corespondent who propounds the query, "Did you ever see a bald headed woman?" in the following strain: "No, we never did. Nor did we ever see a woman waltzing around town in her shirt sleeves, with a cigar between her teeth. We never saw a woman go fishing with a bottle in her hip pocket, sit around on the damp ground all day, and go home "boozed" in the evening. Neither have we seen a woman yank off her coat, spit on her hand, and swear she could whip any man in town. All of the foregoing 'privileges' are reserved for men."

WHITE OAKS ACADEMY.

The closing exercises of the Winter term of the White Oaks Academy took place on Friday of last week at the Academy building in the presence of a goodly number of our citizens. Miss Abbie Hull, the Principal, was fully prepared to meet the expectations of the most sanguine. Her methods for imparting knowledge are natural and most successful.

At 1 p. m. the school opened with the following programme:

Reading.
English Grammar.
Recitation ..... Cora Buckner
Arithmetic.
Recitation ..... Pauline Davies
Algebra.
Recitation ..... Carrie Wilson
Geography with map drawing.
Recitation ..... Amy Thorp
Higher Arithmetic.
Recitation ..... Emma Brothers
Language and Composition.
Recitation ..... Robbie Lane

On call, Rev. Dr. Lane and editor of the LEADER delivered short addresses.

The progress made during the term was marked, and considering the mixed character of the school, and the disadvantages many of the pupils had labored under, it was a matter of surprise that such progress could be made in the limited time. Especially was this feature most prominent by the complete understanding on the part of the pupils of the studies pursued.—The definitions and explanations of the classes in higher arithmetic and algebra were most satisfactory.

The Academy has had 23 pupils from the opening to the present close of the term, not constantly but as a total. This last term has numbered 21, and the satisfaction to the students and patrons has been complete and all that could be desired. Miss Hull has won laurels in the founding of this higher branch of education, and patrons, students, community and county are to be congratulated on the result thus far.

The Academy will re-open next Monday and will continue to the last of June when the first year will close. We extend hearty congratulations to teacher and pupils.

Deliberate with caution, but act with decision.

Far better is it to know every thing of a little than a little of everything.

One of the most effectual ways of pleasing and making oneself loved is to be cheerful; joy softens more hearts than tears.

The first object in all efforts must be excellence. If that be absent, the attempt to rise above others is mean and dishonorable.

Never part without loving words for your loved ones to think of during absence. It may be that you will not meet again in this [illegible]

SAD DEATH.

Mrs. J. E. Sligh Suicides

Death is Nature's chief abhorrence—it is dreaded alike by Christian and Pagan, for, philosophise as we may, the future state is to all of us as a sealed book, which we read through the lids by the eyes of faith or of unbelief. But in every case the presence of Death appals the beholder. If it be a child that is stricken, it's little hands and soft hair inspires in the looker-on wonder what the flower was given for and so quickly tak en away. If it be an aged father or mother, the bereft feel that life on this shore had lost it's most endearing charms. Yet all bide their time and exhibit no haste to experience the realities beyond, to peer into the unseen.

Occasionally, through dementia, or from having burdens placed upon their innocent backs which they feel they are unable to carry, take the life which God gave them and risk all rather than suffer longer. In such cases, the presence of the corpse freezes the blood of friends and kindred, and oftentimes, torrow, dipped in sympathy too, into stirred, crowds the heart and "the better angels of man's nature" feel their strings weakening and seemingly disposed to surrender. But by and bye the veil is lifted and the hand of Providence can be seen in the dispensation. Truly, "God works in a mysterious way His wonders to perform."

Last Sabbath our people were shocked when the intelligence was flashed upon them that Mrs. J. E. Sligh had, sometime on Saturday night, in her room and home at Nogal, taken her own life the agency being chloroform. Her husband went to his residence Sunday morning and entering his chamber there found his wife lying across the bed with none of her clothe removed from her person save her corset. He touched her, and, horror of horrors, she was dead, and he stood alone in the presence of the ever living God and the dead form of her who had been his true, tender, affectionate and indulgent partner during the best years of his life. Messengers were at once sent hither for a casket, and to the San Andreas, where the son and daughter, George Sligh and Emma Shannanhouse, were. The bereft children arrived at Nogal Monday forenoon and Mrs. S. was laid to rest Monday afternoon.

A Coronor's inquest was held before burial, and the verdict was: "Came to her death by an over dose of chloroform administered by herself."

The deceased lived several years in White Oaks, during which term not a derogatory word was ever lisped against her. She was exceptional in amiability and generous prodigality in emergent cases of suffering. Her death fell as a personal blow on the hearts of those who knew her best.

Despite the strained relations so long and openly maintained between Mr. Sligh and the writer we cannot help feeling sympathy for him now that he is so loaded, burdened with cares not devisable and which cannot be laid down in life. We do not gloat, but could easier join tears in the flood with his—tears in memory of the tired one who voluntarily laid down to rest; tears for him whose heart will never be able to purge the memory of the universally lamented partner for so many years of his joys and sorrows, ups and downs, hopes and fears. Valo.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

New York, March 24, '90.

The Legislature has voted down the proposition for a new East River bridge, and now comes a project of a goat tunnel. This is to reach from 42d street on the west side, cross the city to the east side, and then pass under the East River th Long Island City, which is the upper part of Brooklyn. The tunnel will connect the New York Central with the Long Island Railroad. It will pass along 42d street, 100 feet below the surface and will have openings at Ninth sixth and Second avenue and at the Grand Central Depot. It will be bored though solid rock the entire distance, and be lined with brick wall. A double track railroad will be laid in the tunnel and cars with electric motors will be used. It will be lighted by electricity, and steam fans will be used for ventilating. Freight trains drawn by ordinry locomotives will run through the tunnel between midnight and 5 a. m. It will be five miles long and built entirely at private expense. The Chamber of Commerce and other bodies have endorsed the scheme and are urging the Board of Aldermen to take favorable action.

INVESTIGATING A SEA CAPTAIN.

The proceedings the past week of the Court of Inquiry at the Brooklyn Navy Yard concerning the conduct of Commander McCalla, of the corvette Enterprise, have unearthed a large number of acts which go to show that life on board a man-of-war is not delightful as it might be. The main charge against the Commander is that he struck one of the sailors with his sword while the sailor was in irons; but the inquiry has become more general and several other complaints have been made and several other officers are implicated. The use of fists, swords and oaths against the men seems to have been quite common, one of the results being that more than seventy deserted. Men were often put in irons and abused. for the slightest offence and for no offence at all, and in fact, McCalla is show up as the veriest tyrant. The report of the Court's proceedings will be submitted to the Secretary of the Navy and its probable that McCalla will be dismissed.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, supports nature, and regulates the bowels, and wind colic, by giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c. a bottle.

PUBLIC SCHOOL.

During the five month's term which closed March 14, the enrollment was 70, average daily attendance, 42. Those maintaining an average above 75 per cent. in recitations, reviews and examinations, are as follows:

Grade V.—Daisie Nabours, Albert Sepulver.

Grade IV.—Jodie Biggs, Cody Kempton and Geo. Sepulver.

Grade III.—Anna Wallace, M. Hice, Lois Anderson, Irene Chew, John Gallacher and Margie Mc. Court.

Grade II.—John Sepulver, Leopoldo Parheco, and Nick Brill.

Grade I.—May Lee, Jose Torres, Blythe Biggs, Eddie Queen, Willie Sepulver, Albert Hice and Guasita Kastler.

Those maintaining the highest average in deportment are Jodie Biggs and Geo. Sepulver, each having 98 per cent.

Though there are many obstacles in the way of regular and prompt attendance, the interest manifested by pupils seems never for a moment to lag. I desire to say to the parents of these dear children entrusted to my care, that I have given them at all times my best thought and endeavor, and have received from them in return prompt and loving obedience.

M. M. RUDISILLE,

THERE will be a dime sociable held at the Congregational Church this, Friday evening, to which everybody is invited. A general good time is expected, as each lady will take some kind of bonnet and trimmings, also needle and thread, and the gentlemen will have the pleasure of trimming the bonnets. After they are all trimmed, competent judges will decide as to whom the prize shall be given for the best taste displayed, as well as the best earned booby prize.

SINCE General Order No. 7 was published the A. T. & S. F. R. R. has agreed upon the usual reduction to delegates who wish to attend the G. A. R. Recitation.

Our school is considerably larger than it was last term. It now numbers 21. Since the School had been in session but two months when we had our first public exercises, they consisted largely of recitations and compositions. The exercises of March 28th, will be principally class reviews of various studies, and will show some of the results of our winter's work.

All friends of the School are cordially invited to attend.

COAL.

One of our readers writes to know something about White Oaks Coking Coal, therefore, for his benefit, and that of the general public, we append certain information.

Analysis of our coals have been made by experts in New York, San Francisco and St. Louis, by Mr. Dye, Col. Jewett and others here. Careful tests of their coking capacity and percentage of production have also been made. All the numerous gentlemen, who at different times, in different places, and without communication with each other, have tested our coals and have reached substantially the same results.

We have now before us the report of an analysis made in St. Louis by very high authority, which we give, that will serve to show an average of a very large number of tests:

Constituent.	Per cent
Moisture	2.35
Volatile matter	35.53
Fixed carbon	50.24
Ash	11.88
	100.00
Sulphur	0.61

Calorific power....11,756 British Thermal Units per # of coal.

It makes a strong silvery coke, with a yield of 63 per cent. of the original coal.

The percentage of ash is high, but not in excess of the percentage in many of the most desirable coals in the U. S. The percentage in Jaggers (Alabama,) coal is 11.38. In the Bozeman seam, in Montana, 12.88 is the per cent.—In the Maxey, Montana, it is 13.90 and 14. In the old bank of the "Wheeler," Colorado, the per cent is 20.4. In the lower seam of the "Little Book" field, Colorado, 11.5. In the famous George's Creek coals of the Cumberland region of Pa., the ash rises to 9.09 per cent.

The White Oaks coals are high in volatile matter—gas. Alabama coals average in this respect, 30.11.

Arkansas	12.66
Wheeler's banks, Colorado	33.65
Four Mile Creek	32.56
Grand River	32.70
Highland	36.50
[illegible]	[illegible]
Bituminous [illegible]	[illegible]
Average coal field	[illegible]

In sulphur, White Oaks coals are below the average of valuable coals of the U. S.

Of phosphorus, the [illegible] trace.

The percentage of coke which is yielded by this coal is greater than the general average of the yield in the United States.

The percentage in Pennsylvania is 64, and Pa. provides four-fifths of the total amount. Colorado and West Virginia return their percentage as 63. All the other coke producing States and Territories fall below our percentage, the lowest being Illinois with 48 per cent—the next lowest, Kentucky and Tennessee, with 53 per cent each. Kansas coals produce but 53.3 per cent.

In strength, that is, capacity to hold up a charge in the smelting furnace, White Oaks coke exceeds that from the coals of Colorado and West Virginia, and is only equaled by those of the Connellsville region of Pa. It produces 5.5 per cent more coke than the New Mexican coals from which coke has hitherto been made in commercial quantities, and will bear 8 per cent. heavier charges.

In calorific power, i. e. heating capacity, our coals fall slightly behind the best coals of Pa., exceed those of Colorado, Montana and Tennessee, and equal the highest grades of W. Va.

It seems surprising to think of a firm spending over half a million dollars a year for advertising, and yet there are several business houses in the world that are doing it. They have been at it for years and they find it pays them. P. T. Barnum has always been a tremendous advertiser. He spent thousands of dollars recently to advertise his London engagement alone. He has always said that his newspaper advertising paid him best, and that posters and circulars simply benefit him by illustrating what had already been said in the newspapers. It is significant that this is the verdict of all great advertisers.

Nature in Convulsion

Is terrible. Volcanic eruptions, cyclones, earthquakes are awfully and tremendously picturesque, but scarcely desirable to encounter. A action and effect by the similar violent remedies which produce convulsion and agony in the abnormal portion of the human frame. Such is the effect of the old fashioned violent purgatives happily falling more and more into disuse, and of which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the wholesome, pleasant and far more effective succedaneum. They weakened the intestines—the bitters invigorates them. They left the bowels inactive, because incapacitated by causing feeblenesss. The bitters, on the contrary, evil because it enables, not forces, them to act—a vast and fortunate difference—perpetuates their activity and regularity. The liver is beneficially stimulated, as the kidneys also are, by this medicine, which easily conquers, also, malaria, nervousness and rheumatism.

A Pennsylvania editor answers a correspondent who propounds the query, "Did you ever see a bald headed woman?" in the following strain: "No, we never did. Nor did we ever see a woman waltzing around town in her shirt sleeves with a cigar between her teeth. We never saw a woman go fishing with a bottle in her hip pocket, sit around on the damp ground all day, and go home "boozed" in the evening. Neither have we seen a woman yank off her coat, spit on her hand, and swear she could whip any man in town. All of the foregoing 'privileges' are reserved for men."

WHITE OAKS ACADEMY.

The closing exercises of the Winter term of the White Oaks Academy took place on Friday of last week at the Academy building in the presence of a goodly number of our citizens. Miss Abbie Hull, the Principal, was fully prepared to meet the expectations of the most sanguine. Her methods for imparting knowledge are natural and most successful.

At 1 p. m. the school opened with the following programme:

Reading.
English Grammar.
Recitation.....Cora Buckner
Arithmetic.
Recitation.....Pauline Davies
Algebra.
Recitation.....Carrie Wilson
Geography with map drawing.
Recitation.....Amy Thorp
Higher Arithmetic.
Recitation.....Emma Brothers
Language and Composition.
Recitation.....Robbie Lane

On call, Rev. Dr. Lane and editor of the LEADER delivered short addresses.

The progress made during the term was marked, and considering the mixed character of the school, and the disadvantages many of the pupils had labored under, it was a matter of surprise that such progress could be made in the limited time. Especially was this feature most prominent by the complete understanding on the part of the pupils of the studies pursued.—The definitions and explanations of the classes in higher arithmetic and algebra were most satisfactory.

The Academy has had 23 pupils from the opening to the present close of the term, not constantly but as a total. This last term has numbered 21, and the satisfaction to the students and patrons has been complete and all that could be desired. Miss Hull has won laurels in the founding of this higher branch of education, and patrons, students, community and county are to be congratulated on the result thus far.

The Academy will re-open next Monday and will continue to the last of June when the first year will close. We extend hearty congratulations to teacher and pupils.

Deliberate with caution, but act with decision.

Far better is it to know every thing of a little than a little of everything.

One of the most effectual ways of pleasing and making oneself loved is to be cheerful; joy softens more hearts than tears.

The first object in all efforts must be excellence. If that be absent, the attempt to rise above others is mean and dishonorable.

Never part without loving words for your loved ones to think of during absence. It may be that you will not meet again in this life.

SAD DEATH.

Mrs. J. E. Sligh Suicides

Death is Nature's chief abhorrence—it is dreaded alike by Christian and Pagan, for, philosophise as we may, the future state is to all of us as a sealed book, which we read through the lids by the eyes of faith or of unbelief. But in every case the presence of Death appals the beholder. If it be a child that is stricken, it's little hands and soft hair inspires in the looker-on wonder what the flower was given for and so quickly taken away. If it be an aged father or mother, the bereft feel that life on this shore had lost it's most endearing charms. Yet all bide their time and exhibit no haste to experience the realities beyond, to peer into the unseen.

Occasionally, through dementia, or from having burdens placed upon their innocent backs which they feel they are unable to carry, take the life which God gave them and risk all rather than suffer longer. In such cases, the presence of the corpse freezes the blood of friends and kindred, and oftentimes, sorrow, dipped in sympathy too late stirred, crowds the heart and "the better angels of man's nature" feel their strings weakening and seemingly disposed to surrender. But by and bye the veil is lifted and the hand of Providence can be seen in the dispensation. Truly, "God works in a mysterious way His wonders to perform."

Last Sabbath our people were shocked when the intelligence was flashed upon them that Mrs. J. E. Sligh had, sometime on Saturday night, in her room and home at Nogal, taken her own life the agency being chloroform. Her husband went to his residence Sunday morning and entering his chamber there found his wife lying across the bed with none of her clothes removed from her person save her corset. He touched her, and, horror of horrors, she was dead, and he stood alone in the presence of the ever living God and the dead form of her who had been his true, tender, affectionate and indulgent partner during the best years of his life. Messengers were at once sent hither for a casket, and to the San Andreas, where the son and daughter, George Sligh and Emma Shaunanhouse, were. The bereft children arrived at Nogal Monday forenoon and Mrs. S. was laid to rest Monday afternoon.

A Coronor's inquest was held before burial, and the verdict was: "Came to her death by an over dose of chloroform administered by herself."

The deceased lived several years in White Oaks, during which term not a derogatory word was ever lisped against her. She was exceptional in amiability and generous to a prodigality in emergent cases of suffering. Her death fell as a personal blow on the hearts of those who knew her best.

Despite the strained relations so long and openly maintained between Mr. Sligh and the writer we cannot help feeling sympathy for him now that he is so loaded, burdened with cares not devisable and which cannot be laid down in life. We do not gloat, but could easier join tears in the flood with his—tears in memory of the tired one who voluntarily laid down to rest; tears for him whose heart will never be able to purge the memory of the universally lamented partner for so many years of his joys and sorrows, ups and downs, hopes and fears. Vale.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

New York, March 24, '90.

The Legislature has voted down the proposition for a new East River bridge, and now comes a project of a goat tunnel. This is to reach from 42d street on the west side, cross the city to the east side, and then pass under the East River to Long Island City, which is the upper part of Brooklyn. The tunnel will connect the New York Central with the Long Island Railroad. It will pass along 42d street, 100 feet below the surface and will have openings at Ninth, sixth and Second avenue and at the Grand Central Depot. It will be bored though solid rock the entire distance, and be lined with brick wall. A double track railroad will be laid in the tunnel and cars with electric motors will be used. It will be lighted by electricity, and steam fans will be used for ventilating. Freight trains drawn by ordinry locomotives will run through the tunnel between midnight and 5 a. m. It will be five miles long and built entirely at private expense. The Chamber of Commerce and other bodies have endorsed the scheme and are urging the Board of Aldermen to take favorable action.

INVESTIGATING A SEA CAPTAIN.

The proceedings the past week of the Court of Inquiry at the Brooklyn Navy Yard concerning the conduct of Commander McCalla, of the corvette Enterprise, have unearthed a large number of acts which go to show that life on board a man-of-war is not delightful as it might be. The main charge against the Commander is that he struck one of the sailors with his sword, while the sailor was in irons; but the inquiry has become more general and several other complaints have been made and several other officers are implicated. The use of fists, swords and oaths against the men seems to have been quite common, one of the results being that more than seventy deserted. Men were often put in irons and abused for the slightest offence and for no offence at all, and in fact, McCalla is show up as the veriest tryant. The report of the Court's proceedings will be submitted to the Secretary of the Navy and its probable that McCalla will be dismissed.

AVICK TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the bowels, and wind colic, by giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c. a bottle.

Headquarters, Dept. N. M.
Grand Army of the Republic,
Socorro, March 15, '90.

General Orders No. 7:

The Seventh Annual Encampment of this Department will assemble at Headquarters of Slough Post No. 6, in the city of Socorro at 10 o'clock a. m., April 10, 1890. The Commander of Slough Post is instructed to detail an Officer of the Day and Officer of Guard and two Comrades, who will report at Post Headquarters for duty at 9 o'clock on that day, subject to the orders of the Assistant Adjutant General of Department. Headquarters during the Encampment will be at the Windsor Hotel Parlors, where comrades and friends will find a soldier's welcome when off duty.

A meeting of the Council of Administration is called for 8 o'clock on the evening of the 9th, and it is earnestly desired that every member be present at time, and that expedite business very much. The reports of officers and other important matters coming before that body, can be acted upon before the meeting of the Encampment. Post Commanders are instructed to have made a complete list of all comrades who have died within the past year, together with a short sketch of the life of each, and to forward the same at once to Rev. Thos Harwood, at Socorro, N M., Chaplain of the Department. It is imperative that this Department keep a more complete record of its comrades "Mustered Out."

Post Commanders see to it that the quarterly reports of their respective Posts together with the names of the delegates and others entitled to a vote in the Encampment, are promptly forwarded to these Headquarters on April 1st to enable the Assistant Adjutant General to make up his list.

Ample accommodations, reasonable rates are guaranteed all comrades attending the Encampment and the comrades of Slough Post at Lodgers of Socorro do their utmost to entertain the guests.

The Acting Department Commander expects to announce that the Railroad Companies have yet failed to answer as to whether special rates will be given to comrades wishing to attend the Encampment but should an answer be received prior to April 10, Post Commanders will be notified.

By order of
LEE H. RUDULPH,
Acting Department Commander.

Interest to Subscribers.

A Postmaster is required to give official notice (returning a paper does not satisfy the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper from the office, and states the reason of its not being taken, and a neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for the payment.

Any person who takes a paper from the postoffice, whether directed in his name or that of another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the office. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the office is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

Mrs. Lee. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. Lee. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen,—and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I lack, of course."

Mrs. Lee. "What is that?"

Mrs. Lee. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

Mrs. Lee. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

Mrs. Lee. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 20 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year, and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

PRINTERS' INK.
A JOURNAL FOR ADVERTISERS.

Is issued on the first and fifteenth days of each month, and is the representative journal—the journal of American advertisers. It editorially discusses the management of advertising, when, and where to advertise; how to write an advertisement; how to display one; what newspapers to use; how much money to expend—in fact, discusses every point that stands of profitable discussion. Advertising is an art practiced by many but understood by few. The readers of PRINTERS' INK understand it, and their advertising is based on an experience of more than twenty-five years in giving advertising counsel to many of the largest and most successful advertisers. A year's subscription costs but five dollars; sample copies Free. Address:—

IN THE REPAIR SHOPS:

VISIT TO THE PLACE WHERE SICK ENGINES ARE CURED.

Doctoring Locomotives Afflicted with Asthma, Hot Boxes and Lame Backs. Engines of All Ages and Descriptions. Facts Concerning Boilers—"Strippers."

West of Topeka lies a wide stretch of prairie inclosed by a tight board fence and within the inclosure stand thirteen main structures beside a multitude of smaller ones. On the six miles of side along the main track of the Topeka division the first and largest one, with wide doors opening to the west and surmounted by a huge chimney whose volumes of smoke would give the place, if it needed to distinction, is the machine and construction shop—the surgical ward of the Northwestern road.

The shop itself is a cluster of shops connected by a system of parallel tracks, diverging fan-like, devoted to the repair of passenger coaches. The two longitudinal half-bays, parallel with the former, are the shops where the rough woodwork for cars is made ready. Two other structures, [illegible] are warehouses, and behind them are the varnishing shops and [illegible] such as can be repaired, but are not used. Old, worn out cars, or those which are [illegible] and old, free of charge, were have only lived their goodness in [illegible], every [illegible] appliance and in connection with rolling stock generally.

To the ordinary visitor, who has obtained the privilege of a ride through the shops, the locomotive department is no doubt the most interesting. In its workings it is at the same time the most difficult to describe. To begin with, the locomotive is not of the neuter; last wonderful piece of mechanism is of the feminine gender. Like the vessel to the sailor, the locomotive is "she" to every one that has anything to do with her. The engineer's sweetheart is a stanch, peerless and yet complicated being, like all females, given to the most incomprehensible and perplexing complaints, though most everything about her is of iron—gray or cast iron, wrought iron and sheet iron.

[illegible] Our mines are working [illegible] stamps, and we have one 20 stamp, and mill in operation, also 2 [illegible] Kington Centennial [illegible] good mill.

The great Highest-Ketch Mines are one mile [illegible] and around them are [illegible] developed. Almost adjoining the town on the S. E. are inexhaustible mines of coal, varying in [illegible] from [illegible] feet in thickness. From four to [illegible] miles N. White Oaks is a town of about 1,200 people, and is situated on Sec. 26, Town 6, Range 13 east, in the western part of Lincoln County, New Mexico. At the last general election there were cast in the town, 292 votes, while the Registration was 345. During the year 1885 there was expended in various improvements upwards of $200,000. The distance from Carthage, on the A. T. & S. F. R.R., 84 miles; 103 miles from Socorro on the main line; 155 miles from El Paso, Texas, and 42 from Lincoln, the County seat. The distance from Liberal, Kansas, the terminus of the Rock Island system in Kan., is 334 miles. R. R. lines are now being constructed hither from El Paso, Texas, and Liberal, Kansas. Both lines will be completed before Jan. 1st 1890.

White Oaks is the largest town in the county, and the seat of an important supply trade. It is finely situated in a valley, among the spurs of the Carizo range, at an elevation of 6,470 feet above sea level. It has two religious organizations, Methodist and Congregational, large and prosperous school, and an Academy; [illegible] in newspapers supply [illegible]. Dobbins' Electric Soap

THE BEST FAMILY SOAP IN THE WORLD.

It is Strictly Pure. Uniform in Quality.

THE original formula for which we paid $5,000 twenty years ago has never been modified or changed in the slightest. This soap is identical in quality to-day with that made twenty years ago.

It contains nothing that can injure colors and bleaches white.

It washes flannels and blankets as no other soap in the world does—without shrinking—leaving them soft and white and like new.

READ THIS TWICE

THERE is a great saving of time, of labor, of soap, of fuel, and of the fabric, where Dobbins' Electric Soap is used according to directions.

ONE trial will demonstrate its great worth. It will pay you to make that trial.

LIKE all best things, it is extensively imitated and counterfeited.

Beware of Imitations.

INSIST upon Dobbins' Electric. Don't take Magnetic, Electro-Magic, Philadelphia Electric, or any other kind, simply because it is cheap. They will ruin clothes, and are dear at any price. Ask for

Headquarters, Dept. N. M.
Grand Army of the Republic
Socorro, March 15, '90.

General Orders No. 7.

The Seventh Annual Encampment of this Department will assemble at Headquarters of Slough Post No. 6, in the city of Socorro at 10 o'clock a. m. April 9, 1890. The Commander of Slough Post is instructed to detail an Officer of the Day and Officer of Guard and two Comrades, who will report at 2 at Headquarters for duty at 9 o'clock on that day, subject to the orders of the Assistant Adjutant General of Department. Headquarters during the Encampment will be at the Windsor Hotel Parlors, where comrades and friends will find a soldier's welcome when off duty.

A meeting of the Council of Administration is called for 8 o'clock on the evening of the 9th, and it is earnestly desired that every member be present at time, as it will expedite business very much, if the reports of officers and other important matters coming before that body, can be acted upon before the meeting of the Encampment. Post Commanders are instructed to have made a complete list of all comrades who have died within the past year, together with a short sketch of the life of each, and to forward the same at once to Rev. Thos. Harwood, at Socorro, N. M., Chaplain of the Department. It is imperative that this Department keep a more complete record of its comrades "Mustered Out."

Post Commanders see to it that the quarterly reports of their respective Posts, together with the names of the delegates and others entitled to a vote in the Encampment, are promptly forwarded to these Headquarters on April 1st to enable the Assistant Adjutant General to make up his list.

Ample accommodations, reasonable rates are guaranteed all comrades attending the Encampment and the comrades of Slough Post and citizens of Socorro do their utmost towards entertaining the guests.

The Acting Department Commander regrets to announce that the Railroad Co. has as yet failed to answer as to whether special rates will be given to comrades wishing to attend the Encampment but should an answer be received prior to April 10, Post Commanders will be notified.

By order of
LEE H. RUDULPH,
Acting Department Commander.

Interest to Subscribers.

A Postmaster is required to give official notice (returning a paper does not satisfy the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper from the office, and states the reason of its not being taken, and is neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for the payment.

Any person who takes a paper from the postoffice, whether directed in his name or that of another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the office. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the office is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

Mrs. Lee. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. Lee. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen,—and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I have not."

Mr. Lee. "What is that?"

Mrs. Lee. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional visits with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

"Mr. Lee." "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

Mrs. Lee. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 16th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I don't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

A JOURNAL FOR ADVERTISERS.

Is issued on the first and fifteenth days of each month, and is the representative journal—the leading journal of American advertising. It indicates to the inexperienced advertiser how, when, and where he should advertise; how to write an advertisement that will display well; what newspapers to use; how much money to expend—in fact, discusses in every point that admits of profitable discussion. Advertising is not practiced by many but advocated by few. The conductors of PRINTERS' INK understand it, and their advice is based on an experience of more than twenty-five years in placing advertising contracts for many of the largest and most successful advertisers. West of Purtis lies yet a wide stretch of prairie inclosed by a high board fence and within the inclosure stand thirteen main structures beside a curious of smaller ones. On the six tracks side by side along the main track of the Galena division the first and tenth side, with wide doors open, lies to the east and surmounted by a huge chimney whose volumes of smoke would drive the passenger to distraction, is the building and contractor shop—the principal shop of the Northwestern road.

The other twelve of the cluster of shops connected by a system of parallel tracks are exclusively devoted to the repair of passenger coaches. LOCAL ROUNDUPS

Look sometimes makes a name,
But printers ink as black and solemn,
Will give a man peculiar fame,
When put in this peculiar column.

On the 21st inst., the district court for this county will convene at Lincoln.

A slip of the foot may soon be recovered; but that of the tongue perhaps never.

Langston and Bellomy, after a week's visit to the Las Cruces court, returned last Tuesday.

J. M. Buck, deputy assessor, has been in town all week trying to ascertain what everybody was or is worth.

MILK—Sam Wells is now prepared to sell and deliver cow's milk to customers at the rate of 12 quarts for $1.

The wife of Jones Tallaferro played a huge joke on her liege lord on April fool's day—she filled his arms with a brand new baby boy.

Prof. Loisette's Memory System is creating greater interest than ever in all parts of the country, and persons wishing to improve their memory should send for his prospectus free as advertised in another column.

The first day of the first Spring month was more wintrish than any day in Winter. It was cold, windy and altogether mean. November was meaner than any winter month, and April seems to have entered for sweepstakes.

Dr. Beaver wishes those whom it may concern to know that he can be found at Dr. Peden's office on the 12th inst., (Saturday of next week,) where he will remain until demand for dental work is fully satisfied.

The following named White Oaks people attended the funeral of Mrs. Sligh at Nogal on Monday last: Mrs. Annie Reed, Miss Bruce Lane, Will. Lane and wife, H. S. Comery, Mrs. and Miss Eaums Brothers, Mrs. and Miss Pauline Davies, Mr. Jas. Redman and Mrs. J. A. Alcock.

Married—On the 2nd inst., at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. Dr. N. W. Lane, George McClellan Brown and Miss Lizzie B. Collier. Probably no couple in town are better known than this couple. The groom is the junior partner of Jno. A. Brown & Bro. and commands not only the respect but esteem of everybody. The bride has grown in this town from the condition of innocent childhood to that of cultivated and refined womanhood. Long may they live to revel in each others holy love.

Rev. E. Lyman Hood, Superintendent of the American Home Missionary Society of New York, and also Superintendent of the New West Education Commission for Arizona and New Mexico, will leave his field of labor on the 1st of May for the annual meeting of the A. H. M. S. at Saratoga, N. Y., and will then go abroad for a brief vacation. Dr. Hood is an earnest, eloquent speaker, and an indefatigable worker in his field, and as an educator has no superior. His scholastic attainments eminently fit him for the responsible position he has held for the last three years, and which we hope he will continue to fill long into the future. As he leaves for his vacation he will carry the best wishes of his wide circle of acquaintances in both of those Territories and he will be a most worthy representative of this south-west Territory abroad. He will receive a right royal welcome on his return.

April-Fool Day was duly observed in White Oaks. People were very busy for the first day of the month. Mr. John Woodland was an important personage that day. It seemed so strange that so many of our citizens had such important business relations with him. While sitting in his office for only a few moments the callers were numerous, and when it was found that in each case the visit was the result of the 1st day of April, Webster would have been astonished at the abundant and emphatic language employed to express the visitor's sentiments.

The Congregational Church will be dedicated May 4th, when several ministers and interested parties from a distance will be present. A programme will soon be promulgated when the Leader will give it's readers full information.

The Messrs Conger and Reid returned a few days since, after a few week's absence in developing their property at Leadville, Dona Ana County. The boys brought back some fine specimens of ore and feel sure they have an excellent prospect in their new find. May it's reality far exceed their fondest expectation.

A busy life with good principles, strong purposes, and wisdom enough to secure cultivation of the different ideas of the nature, is one the most important factors for securing a ripe and happy old age.

Senator Sherman in an able argument in favor of his bill against trusts said: "If this country will not endure a king in political power it should not endure a king over the production, transportation and sale of the necessaries of life. If it will not submit to an emperor it should not submit to an autocrat in trade." He alluded to the Standard Oil company, the Diamond Match company and the sugar trust as the kind of organizations the measure was aimed at.

Look out for bogus clocks.—Two of our merchants were recently caught by a Las Vegas gent named Mendenhall.

The base ball season was opened in White Oaks on last Sunday afternoon by a game between two picked nines. The winners were managed by Oscar Hill and the defeated nine by George Lee. Owing to the high wind it was mutually agreed to play seven innings, which resulted in a victory for Mr. Hill's team by a score of 22 to 20. Of the individual play special mention should be made of the work of Otero and Hunter, and George Lee and P. Gumm, the batteries of the two nines, and the faultless playing of S. J. Woodland on 1st, and R. Lee on 3rd base. The outfield had very little to do except chase grounders.

The following is the score:

	Pos.	O	R		Pos.	O	R
Otero,	P	2	3	P. Gumm	C	1	4
Kane,	2nd B	1	4	G. Lee,	P	3	3
Conger,	L F	4	2	Grumbles,	2n b	2	4
Woodland,	1st B	2	3	J Gumm,	1st B	2	2
