THE CHICAGO WEEKLY NEWS, and LINCOLN CO. LEADER, 1 year $2.75

Editor's Round-Up.

Albuquerque, N. M.,
July 22nd, 1890.

Pursuant to calculation the LEADER man left his den on last Sabbath afternoon at 5:30, took the Stage, and at 12 o'clock, midnight, hit the bed at Hill's, 40 miles distant. The trip thither was without incident, save the noticeable fact that the disagreeable jolt of something like a mile over the Malpias is avoided by the new Stage route and the lava beds are reduced to about four feet—a desideratum devoutly to be wished for by those especially en route to White Oaks, who are wont to clamber up the crater on foot.

At 5 next morning, after a good breakfast, we again waddled into the Stage and struck out for the R. R. Soon the sun got in its work and about the same time we struck the sands. There was no Oasis until 11 o'clock, when we hit the cabin of Dick Cavanaugh, where we received an Irish welcome, with all the word implies, and cooled our parched tongue and body. At 4 o'clock, without incident or accident, we arrived at San Antonio, where we were warmly received by mine host, Duffy, and his charming wife, where we were domiciled until 11:20, when we took the train and arrived at Albuquerque this morning at 4 o'clock.

Last evening there was a rousing Republican meeting here, despite the opposition met. It was addressed by Col. A. L. Morrison, Mayor Meyert, Mr. Spencer and others. Of course we arrived too late to attend, but to hear it so well spoken of is gratifying.

To-morrow morning we will pull out for Las Vegas, where, after visting our many friends, we will steer for the Ancient City, and on Saturday hope to turn our face homeward and to next week take our position at the helm of the only truly religious journal in New Mexico.

If there is anything the people of White Oaks are in blissful ignorance of, it is heat. This Rio Grande valley is awful—it does seem as though the hottest corner of Hades would be an ice-house compared with the coolest parlor here. When we get home—will stay there. As we write a larger amount of water than we are accustomed to consume in a month, rolls from off our dome of thought.

More from somewher else.

The above was designed for last week's LEADER, but owing to the uncertainty of the mails it reached neither office nor readers in time.

Our stay in Albuquerque was a pleasant one; everybody seeming to contribute to our comfort. After spending Tuesday and Wednesday until 4 o'clock p. m., of the latter day, we pulled out, at least the R. R. did, bearing our precious person to Las Vegas, where we arrived at about 10 o'clock at night. At the Meadow City we were warmly received by Russ Kistler of the Optic and Col. Frank Forsythe, between whose catering, time until our departure on Thursday evening, was rendered blissfully brief.

Towards the witching hour of 12 on Thursday night we struck the Ancient City, where friends were waiting to receive us, and right royally did they do so.

On Friday the Territorial Republican League Convention met, and held a most agreeable and harmonious meeting. Most of the old officers were re-elected and all spoke of the political outlook as being unusually interesting and promising.

President—A. L. Morrison, of Santa Fe.

2d Vice President—Wm. Caffrey, of Lincoln.

3d Vice President—John A. Whitmore, of Socorro.

Secretary—Wm. M. Berger, of Santa Fe.

Treasurer—Mariano Barela, of Dona Ana.

The following named executive committemen were appointed by the various county delegations:

M. S. Otero, Bernalillo; Juan Santistevan, Taos; E. S. Van Patten, Dona Ana; Eugenio Romero, San Miguel; Thos. B. Catron, Santa Fe; C. B. Eddy, Eddy; C. L. Pearman, Lincoln; J. A. Irwin, Chaves; J. G. Kello, San Juan; F. O. Blood, Socorro; J. D. McGrath, Mora; J. W. Dwyer, Colfax; W. A. Leonard, Grant; J. Frank Chavez, Valencia; T. D. Burns, Rio Arriba; A. M. Story, Sierra.

At night a grand banquet was given the visiting delegates and a "feast of reason and a flow of soul," was indulged in. The LEADER representative was honored in a marked manner and was made to feel at home. At the center table of the banquet hall, was seated the honorable Presiden, Col. A. L. Morrison. At his right sat Governor Prince and at his left the LEADER boy; at whose left were seated Hon. T. B. Catron and Judge S. B. Axtell. The President acted as toastmaster and made the first response to a toast of his own making, and a right eloquent response did he make, for unquestionably he is the best speaker in the Territory. Then came responses in order—First, Judge Axtell responded to the toast, "the Presidents of the U. S." The old gentleman in his response commenced with Wm. Henry Harrison, the first President he ever met, and followed down the line, all of whom he had seen and several of whom he had served under. It was replete with historical facts and fascinating from matter and manner throughout.

"The Future State of New Mexico," was responded to by Hon. T. B. Catron. Those who know the gentleman are aware of the fact, that his tongue is set in a brainy head; that he impersonates the Talyrand of New Mexico; hence, it goes without the saying, that his speech was as good as it was an eloquent one.

"The Memory of Abraham Lincoln," response by Governor Prince, was the gem of the evening; its every sentence was well turned and the sentiment running throughout its delivery, captured the senses of his hearers.

"Veterans of the War for the Union," was responded to by Capt. Hyland, of the Kingston Shaft. He spoke with much feeling and his speech was warmly appreciated.

Jose Seyrna replied to the toast, "Our Spanish-American Citizens," in good shape, his language being translated to English ears by Hon. B. M. Reed.

The LEADER oped his mouth and showed his ears in response to the toast, "The Republican Press of New Mexico." We have addressed many audiences, but never such a tempestuous one as that. From beginning to closing all seemed to be infected with a spirit of mirth, and it appeared as though had we not subsided when we did the audience would still be sitting there and making "Rome howl."

The festivities were continued until late Friday night, or rather early Saturday morning. Saturday was agreeably spent with friends and after a pleasant and bountiful supper at the residence of Col. Morrison, Saturday night, we turned our face homeward, and are now at our desk, worn with the fatigue of our trip but buoyed up with the conviction that there is a "God in Israel," who will declare himself in New Mexico in November next. So mote it be.

THE fellow with swelled legs and head, who besmears the dirty columns of our foul contemporary, attempted to hit us several digs in the ribs during our absence last week. He intimated that we were a self-appointed delegate to the Territorial Republican League Convention, whereas, we were elected by acclamation over our protest, at a public meeting. He questions our ever giving credit to friends for helping in our editorial work. We always have—to Messrs. Hewitt and Bonnell years ago, during our absence—again to the swell head now whining, who helped us out in extremities—to E. McB. Timoney, and also to L. H. Rudisille, as now to Rev. Dr. Lane, who helped us out last week. We are always more than willing to avail ourself of editorial assistance. Then he says we take our obituaries from the Philadephia Ledger. If he can show us a single line obituary or otherwise, appearing editorialy in the LEADER as original, taken wholly or in part, from the Ledger, or any other paper, we will plead guilty. In the absence of which, nevertheless, we hold him guilty of wilful falsehood, and now brand him as a prevaricator, who not having sense enough to tell a lie from the truth, instinctively tells the lie.

It Should Be Remedied.

The U. S. mail service of New Mexico fails in two respects—rapidity and regularity. The time which should be a prominent factor, slow and the regularity is very irregular. This place fails in the regularity of its mails on an average of at least twice a week, which is a great drawback to the interests of this community and this section of country, which fails to be served. This is not the fault of the mail contractor here, or the local post-offices. The government pays for the quick and regular transmission of the mails; the railroad gets its salary for the work being done punctually and regularly. Of course there is a defect in the arrangements for such rapid transit of the mails on the railroad lines, which carry the mails for this great Territory, and there is great necessity for prompt action on the part of the postal authorities in this respect. But even at the present schedule adopted and accepted by the railroads, there is an alarming failure to meet their contract for the delivering of mails for New Mexico, by the railroad company. The excuse of being overcrowded with work, the company, does not exempt them for its habitual failure. There should be a careful looking into this matter on the part of the department and a speedy remedy should be found. The frequent failures in receiving our mails should be made a subject of thorough investigation, and the blame not only placed where it belongs but the remedy should be adequate to meet the demands of the case.

THE Democratic territorial committee will hold an important meeting in this city, on Monday, August 4th. The preliminary arrangements will then be made not only to elect the Democratic candidate for delegate, but to secure an unquestioned Democratic majority in both branches of the legislative assembly.—Santa Fe Sun, July 19th.

There is no doubt of the truth of the above statement. "The preliminary arrangements" have usually been fraud and bribery; and, when "the Ethiopian changes his skin and the Leopard its spots," then may the old Bourbon party change its tactics. They are hoary with age and wrinkled by time. Yet, true to its instincts, it yet does not know, nor can it see that the Native element of New Mexico's poulation, has so fully grasped the worthlessness of the spurious promises, so frequently made by the Democratic party of New Mexico, and never kept—will not win.

In the Tilden campaign it was the bar'l of money; now it is false promises. These have long since been discounted and the old Bourbon party, under the leadership of Ross & Co., with boodle for its motto, will find its name Dennis at the counting of the ballots this year of grace, in New Mexico.

BEN. HENRY'S LETTER.

Washington, D. C.,
July 23, 1890.

DEAR MAGG:

The amount of work in the Printing department is interesting, and our Congressmen are pushing things. Absentees have been called in and it is said Congress will adjourn about the 15th of October. The Tariff Bill and the Election Law, will be passed before adjournment.

The correspondence in regard to the Seal fisheries, between Our firm and Johnny Bull, is being prepared by the Printer, for Congress. It is very interesting, and shows that James G. Blaine is a master diplomat.

Everything is quiet here. The only question that causes a ripple, or attention is the Federal Election Law. The political leaders of the South are pouring out their wrath in eloquent efforts to stop the dark cloud that threatens to crush their political hopes.

When did Langston become a Democrat? I thought he was a Republican; "A Missouri Radical," the worst kind of a Republican.

Love to M[illegible]

Yours as ever,
HENRY.

Our White Oaks friends still hug the delusion that Lincoln will be made the headquarters of the new judicial district. Not if the Las Cruces ring control, and our observation during several years in this Territory is, that they come pretty near doing it. San Marcial Reporter.

There you go again wrong this time sure. Haven't you heard, dear Reporter, that your White Oaks friends acknowledge no allegiance to rings and cabal: They are freemen and fear not to declare themselves above all rings and oppressors. The interests of the 5th judicial district and the citizens, demand that the headquarters shall be at Lincoln; there it will doubtless be. Just bring your schooner up in the wind and take a careful reckoning and you will find we are right.

WAR horses of the democracy, who have heretofore held things their own way, are terribly exercised over the fact, that our Mexican friends are going Republican this year. As an evidence of how they feel, some of Don Apolinarpio Argüello's friends came in on Monday to buy a lot of wine for a christening party. The story is told that the wine was for a Democratic holiday. Pull your vest down gentlemen. The boy was christened, Harrison Blaine Amalia. Try again.

Deadly Lightning.

During a thunder storm on the 23d inst., deputy sheriff Marcelino M. Blancett, of Aztec, San Juan Co., N. M., was instantly killed by lightning. He was in horseback driving cattle to their ranch when the storm came on with the result as above stated. Both rider and horse were instantly killed—Mr. Blancett's neck being broken. The deceased leaves a wife and four children, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

—Countryman—"Who are they putting that statue up for?" Citizen—"That's the statue of James Brown Smith." "Did he do any thing great or wise while he lived?" "Yes, he paid for that statue before he died."

—"I married for love, Dick, and I've had about enough of it! What did you marry for?" "Well, ye see, I'm an artist; I married Jenny for her figure." "That's only natural." "No, by George, 'twasn't natural! Mostly art."—Life.

—"Been on your vacation?" "No. Why?" "I saw you riding home in a hack the other day, and thought likely you had just returned." "Do you suppose I could have afforded to ride home in a hack if I had been on my vacation?"—Lowell Citizen.

—"Is there any thing that I can do for you?" asked the hotel clerk of a seedy-looking man. "Yes, sir, you can loan me five dollars." "But I'm not going to do it." "No, I didn't think you would. I merely wanted to answer your question."—Merchant Traveler.

—Husband—"And what leads you to think that Mr. Springday and our daughter are finally engaged to be married?" Wife—"Well, he doesn't come so often as he used to, and when he calls they most always have a quarrel and say mean things to each other."—Omaha World.

—John Loss (consulting a clairvoyant)—"My watch has been stolen, and I want information that will lead to its recovery." Clairvoyant—"Cross my palm with a silver dollar." (It is done and the clairvoyant falls into a trance.) "Your watch is in the pocket of a bad man. Find him; cause his arrest, and the timepiece will again be yours."—Jeweler's Weekly.

—In New York.—A number of enthusiastic men rush to the cell of a condemned criminal. "My dear sir!" exclaimed the leader of the party, "let us congratulate you!" The criminal was staggered with joyful emotion. "Am I pardoned?" he asked. "Oh, no." "Then why do you come to congratulate me?" "Because it has been demonstrated that our electric apparatus is sure death."—Arkansaw Traveler.

—It was a suit involving a claim of fraud in the sale of a cargo of coffee, and a melancholy man was in the witness box. "You have been summoned, Mr. Ollapod, to testify as an expert in this case, I think?" said the attorney. "Yes, sir." "You are a judge of coffee?" "I think I ought to be." "What is your occupation?" demanded the judge. "I am the proprietor of a railway eating house." "You can stand aside."—Chicago Times.

Jay Gould as an Author.

The great wizard of Wall street is so distinctly fixed in the public mind as a financier that few ever think of him as an author. But authorship was, in fact, his first vocation. When he was just beginning a business career, thirty years ago, and when he had barely attained his majority, he made a survey of his native county, and not only published a history of it but accompanied it with a supplementary map. His peregrinations with a wheelbarrow over its many crooked roads are still remembered, though the financial success of his enterprise was not by any means equal to that which followed afterwards. Yet his "History of Delaware County, N. Y.," now so scarce and difficult to procure, was a most creditable performance. It cost no little labor and was exceedingly well done. The county had a stirring history and was the scene of fierce Indian, anti-rent and Tory conflicts, all of which were faithfully and graphically related by Mr. Gould. The book, however, soon went out of his mind and, it is said, has been partially extinguished through his own efforts. Whenever a copy of the volume appears it commands a pretty firmly high price, a single copy being sold at auction here once for $40. The book was dedicated to Hon. Amasa J. Parker, and a fine steel portrait of the eminent jurist precedes the title page.—N. Y. Letter.

The Physiological Ebb-Tide.

A tramp knows what it is to be legweary, a farm laborer to be bodyweary, a literary man to be brainweary, and a sorrowing man to be heartweary. The sick are often weary of themself. Weariness is generally a physiological "ebb-tide," which time and patience will convert into a "flow." It is never well to whip or spur a worn-out horse, except in the direst straits. If he mends his pace in obedience to the stimulus every step is a drop drawn from his life-blood. Idleness is not one of the faults of the present age; weariness is one of the commonest experiences. The checks that many a man draws on his physiological resources are innumerable; and, as these resources are strictly limited, like any other ordinary banking account, it is very easy to bring about a balance on the wrong side. Adequate rest is one kind of repayment to the bank, sound sleep is another, regular eating and good digestion another. One day's holiday or a week and one or two months in a year for those who work exceedingly hard usually bring the credit side to a highly favorable condition, and thus with care and management physiological solvency is secured and maintained.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Excellent Train Service.

A fast express leaves Gulf, Dodge, Lamed and Silver City early every morning, making the run to Raton and Las Vegas. Westbound to La Junta, Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver [illegible] Pullman tourist sleepers [illegible] Kansas City making direct connection at La Junta for Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver and at Barstow for St. Louis [illegible]

The train from San Francisco with palace sleepers to Kansas City and tourist sleepers to Chicago leaves Albuquerque daily at about noon, strikes darkness near Vegas Mound, arriving in Kansas City evening of next day, and in Chicago the following morning. An additional Pullman sleeper is attached at Las Vegas, running through without change to Denver via La Junta and Trinidad.

The Santa Fe Route aims by its best time, fine equipment and reasonable rates, to merit the patronage of the traveling public.

Important to Subscribers.

A Postmaster is equested to give official notice returning a paper does not satisfy the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper from the office, and states the reason of its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the post master responsible to the publisher for the payment.

Any person who takes a paper from the postoffice, whether directed in his name or that of another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay

If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made

If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the office. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the office is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud

POST-OFFICE NAMES.

Odd Cognomens Bestowed Upon Some Newly-Created Offices.

Naming a post-office is like naming a child—there is no accounting for the taste dislayed in the name selected. Usually the post-office is named after the town, and when the town is started some enterprising citizen gets in his deadly work and the town is named after him. Others take their names from surroundings and often from incidents which happened when the site was first selected. Some are good, others bad; some long and some short, but there seems to be a general disregard of the proprieties in the selection of names. For instance, Happy Camp is the name of a newly-created post-office in California, and the probabilities are that the inhabitants are constantly fighting, and the only person who is happy is the undertaker, who is growing wealthy. Mountain View is more likely to be the name of a village at the bottom of a two-hundred-foot hill than to be near a mountain, while Marble Cliff is very remote from a marble quarry.

Passing events also help decide the names of places, and with the Johnstown horror fresh in the public mind many smaller towns will select that name to emphasize the establishment of the place.

Peace and Calm are two villages where post-offices have been established in Alabama, while Rat, Rye and Urbanity have been discontinued. Sassafras is the name of a spicy Arkansas village, while people who desire to go to a new postal station in Alaska will have to have their letters addressed to Belkofsky. California has a choice collection of new names. Bitter Water, Calabash, Orosi and Simloplis make a splendid quartette. Tourtelotte and Bovina are Colorado offices. Dakota, as becomes a newly-admitted State, is selecting names for its new offices from among those who advocated its admission, and is getting rid of its old Territorial names, reminiscent as they [illegible]

[illegible] most delicate morsel of a baby, enthroned in frills, and cambric, and fine lace, can govern an establishment of men, and they feel proud of their tyrant. The tyranny of weakness is the strongest in the world. The woman who rules is really the woman who says: "Protect me." The woman who says: "I will protect you," is the sort of hybrid who may rule one man, who may always spell woman with a capital W, and prefer a stub pen, but that is the extent of her monarchy. Weak woman, daring to face the March wind; weak woman, with no idea as to her rights or her wrongs; weak woman, with strong opinions as to the value of a kiss, a smile, a pleasant word; weak woman will have all arms opened to her with a request that she will only express her wishes and they will be obeyed.—N. Y. Fashion Bazar.

Father's Qualified Consent.

"I'd like to ask you, sir," said the young man in hesitating tones, "might I—might I—marry your daughter?"

"Humph," replied her father. "You might—"

"Thank you, sir."

"You might, I repeat, but it would be one of the most inexplicable accidents that ever happened in this country."—Washington Capital.

Dobbins' Electric Soap

THE BEST FAMILY SOAP IN THE WORLD.

It is Strictly Pure. Uniform in Quality.

THE original formula for which we paid $100 twenty years ago has never been modified or changed in the slightest. This soap is identical in quality to-day with that made twenty years ago.

It contains nothing that can injure the finest fabric. It leaves no odor on the clothes.

It washes flannels and blankets as easy as any soap in the world, does not shrink, leaving them soft and white, and like new.

READ THIS TWICE

THERE is a great saving of time, of labor, of soap, of fuel, and of the fabric, where Dobbins' Electric Soap is used according to directions.

ONE trial will demonstrate its great merit. It will pay you to make that trial.

LIKE all best things, it is extensively imitated and counterfeited.

Beware of Imitations.

INSIST upon Dobbins' Electric. Don't take Mixtures, Electro Magic, Philadelphia Electric or any other cheap, [illegible] to make a cheap profit. They will rot the clothes, and are dear at any price. Ask for and take no other. Nearly every grocer from Maine to Mexico keeps it in stock. If you can't find it, let him or her know that you want Dobbins' Electric, and take no other.

REMEMBER that fully the inside or outside wrapper of each bar, and the name in full on the outside of each package. Your grocer is sure to sell Dobbins' Electric Soap, if you insist that he shall, and truly wonderful.

HUMOROUS.

—Editor—"How was it you did not acknowledge the receipt of that check we sent you the other day?" Poet—"Because you neglected to inclose stamp."—Puck.

—Countryman—"Who are they putting that statue up for?" Citizen—"That's the statue of James Brown Smith." "Did he do any thing great or wise while he lived?" "Yes, he paid for that statue before he died."

—"I married for love, Dick, and I've had about enough of it. What did you marry for?" "Well, ye see, I'm an artist; I married Jenny for her figure." "That's only natural." "No, by George, 'twasn't natural! Mostly art."—Life.

—"Been on your vacation?" "No. Why?" "I saw you riding home in a hack the other day, and thought likely you had just returned." "Do you suppose I could have afforded to ride home in a hack if I had been on my vacation?"—Lowell Citizen.

—"Is there any thing that I can do for you?" asked the hotel clerk of a seedy-looking man. "Yes, sir, you can loan me five dollars." "But I'm not going to do it." "No, I didn't think you would. I merely wanted to answer your question."—Merchant Traveler.

—Husband—"And what leads you to think that Mr. Springday and our daughter are finally engaged to be married?" Wife—"Well, he doesn't come so often as he used to, and when he calls they most always have a quarrel and say mean things to each other."—Omaha World.

—John Loss (consulting a clairvoyant)—"My watch has been stolen, and I want information that will lead to its recovery." Clairvoyant—"Cross my palm with a silver dollar." (It is done and the clairvoyant falls into a trance.) "Your watch is in the pocket of a bad man. Find him; cause his arrest, and the timepiece will again be yours."—Jeweler's Weekly.

—In New York.—A number of enthusiastic men rush to the cell of a condemned criminal. "My dear sir!" exclaimed the leader of the party, "let us congratulate you!" The criminal was staggered with joyful emotion. "Am I pardoned?" he asked. "Oh, no." "Then why do you come to congratulate me?" "Because it has been demonstrated that our electric apparatus is sure death."—Arkansaw Traveler.

—It was a suit involving a claim of fraud in the sale of a cargo of coffee, and a melancholy man was in the witness box. "You have been summoned, Mr. Ollapod, to testify as an expert in this case, I think?" said the attorney. "Yes, sir." "You are a judge of coffee?" "I think I ought to be." "What is your occupation?" demanded the judge. "I am the proprietor of a railway eating house." "You can stand aside."—Chicago Times.

Jay Gould as an Author.

The great wizard of Wall street is so distinctly fixed in the public mind as a financier that few ever think of him as an author. But authorship was, in fact, his first vocation. When he was just beginning a business career, thirty years ago, and when he had barely attained his majority, he made a survey of his native county, and not only published a history of it but accompanied it with a supplementary map. His peregrinations with a wheelbarrow over its many crooked roads are still remembered, though the financial success of his enterprise was not by any means equal to that which followed afterwards. Yet his "History of Delaware County, N. Y.," now so scarce and difficult to procure, was a most creditable performance. It cost no little labor and was exceedingly well done. The county had a stirring history and was the scene of fierce Indian, anti-rent and Tory conflicts, all of which were faithfully and graphically recorded by Mr. Gould. The book, however, soon went out of his mind and, it is said, has been partially extinguished through his own efforts. Whenever a copy volume appears it commands a [illegible] high price, a single copy [illegible] at auction here once for $[illegible]. The book was dedicated to Hon. Amasa J. Parker, and a fine steel portrait of the eminent jurist precedes the title page.—N. Y. Letter.

The Physiological Ebb-Tide.

A tramp knows what it is to be lazy, a farm laborer to be body-weary, a literary man to be brain-weary, and a sorrowing man to be [illegible] weary. The sick are often weary of life. Weariness is generally a physiological "ebb-tide," which time and patience will convert into a "flow." It is never well to whip or spur a worn-out horse, except in the direst straits. If he mends his pace in obedience to the stimulus every step is a drop drawn from his life-blood. Idleness is not one of the faults of the present age; weariness is one of the commonest experiences. The checks that many a man draws on his physiological resources are innumerable; and, as these resources are strictly limited, like any other ordinary banking account, it is very easy to bring about a balance on the wrong side. Adequate rest is one kind of repayment to the bank, sound sleep is another, regular eating and good [illegible] another. One day's holiday [illegible] week and one or two months is [illegible] for those who work exceedingly hard usually bring the credit [illegible] to a highly favorable condition, and thus with care and management physiological solvency is secured and maintained.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Excellent Train Service.

A fast express leaves Kansas City every evening and Denver City every day, making the run to Ra[illegible] and Los Angeles [illegible] Pullman tourist sleepers [illegible] to Kansas City making direct connection at La Junta for Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver, and at Barstow for Los Angeles [illegible]

The train from San Francisco with palace sleepers to Kansas City and tourist sleepers to Chicago leaves Albuquerque daily about noon, strikes darkness near Vaga Mound, arriving in Kansas City evening of next day, and in Chicago the following morning. An additional Pullman sleeper is attached at Las Vegas, running through without change to Denver via La Junta and Trinidad.

The Santa Fe Route aims by its best time, fine equipment and reasonable rates, to merit the patronage of the traveling public.

Inquire of local agent, or write to G. T. Nicholson, G. P. & T. A., Topeka, Kans.

Free Reading Matter.

There are various scheme for supplying reading matter at a trifle above actual cost. What would you think if you could get good literature free?

Drop a postal to G. T. Nicholson, G. P. and T. A., A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., Topeka, Kan., and ask for a copy of "To Mexico by Palace Car." You can also procure free copies of "A Santa Barbara Holiday," Guide to San Diego Bay Region," Las Vegas Hot Springs Guide," and folders relating to Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Important to Subscribers.

A Postmaster is requested to give official notice (returning a paper does not satisfy the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper from the office, and states the reason of its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for the payment.

Any person who takes a paper from the postoffice, whether directed in his name or that of another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the office. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the office is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

A JOURNAL FOR ADVERTISERS.

Is issued on the first and fifteenth days of each month, and is the representative journal of the trade. It indicates to the inexperienced advertiser how, when, and where to advertise; how to write an advertisement; how to display one; what newspapers to use; how much money to expend—in fact, discusses every point that admits of profitable discussion. Advertising is an art practiced by many but understood by few. The proprietors of PRINTERS' INK understand it, and their advice is based on an experience of more than twenty-five years in placing advertising contracts for many of the largest and most successful advertisers. $20 A Day Can! A VOICE from Ohio. Here is a portrait of Mr. Gerrit [illegible] of Salem, Ohio. He writes: "Was at work on a farm for $20 a month; I now work an agency for S. Alden & Co. [illegible] and publishers and offers [illegible] William Kline, Harrisburg, Pa., writes: "I have never known anything to sell like your albums. Yesterday I took orders enough to pay my rent, $25." W. J. Elliott, Bangor, Me., writes: "I take an order for your album almost every house I visit. My [illegible] average [illegible] a day." Others are doing quite as well. We have no space to give more testimony. It is a fact that anyone who takes hold of this great business will be rewarded with success. Shall we start YOU in this business, reader? Write to us and learn all about it for yourself. We explain the whole matter plainly, so that you can't fail to succeed, if you follow our plain directions. We will also furnish you with a complete outfit free, if you decide to go into the business. We do not ask you to give us your money for anything we send out of our office until we have proved to you that it is all as we represent it. We do not ask you to buy a single article until you see for yourself that it is just what we represent it to be. POST-OFFICE NAMES.

Odd Designations Bestowed Upon Some Newly-Created Offices.

Naming a post-office is like naming a child—there is no accounting for the taste displayed in the name selected. Usually the post-office is named after the town, and when the town is started some enterprising citizen gets in his deadly work and the town is named after him. Others take their names from surroundings and often from incidents which happened when the site was first selected. Some are good, others bad; some long and some short, but there seems to be a general disregard of the proprieties in the selection of names. For instance, Happy Camp is the name of a newly-created post-office in California, and the probabilities are that the inhabitants are constantly fighting, and the only person who is happy is the undertaker, who is growing wealthy. Mountain View is more likely to be the name of a village at the bottom of a two-hundred-foot hill than to be near a mountain, while Marble Cliff is very remote from a marble quarry.

Passing events also help decide the names of places, and with the Johnstown horror fresh in the public mind many smaller towns will select that name to emphasize the establishment of the place.

Peace and Calm are two villages where post-offices have been established in Alabama, while Rat, Rye and Urbanity have been discontinued. Sassafras is the name of a spicy Arkansas village, while people who desire to go to a new postal station in Alaska will have to have their letters addressed to Belkofsky. California has a choice collection of new names. Bitter Water, Calabash, Orosi and Simiopiis make a splendid quartette. Tourtelotte and Bovina are Colorado offices. Dakota, as becomes a newly-admitted State, is selecting names for its new offices from among those who advocated its admission, and is getting rid of its old Territorial names, reminiscent as they were with the names bestowed by cow-punchers whose idea of the ridiculous was very keen.

The warm climate of Georgia boasts of an Arctic town, while Sinker is the name of a village in Idaho.

The people of Illinois were so glad to get new postal facilities that they did not stop to complete the names, and sent them out as Lis and Mac. Nail and Check are two villages in the Indian Territory. Fritz, Snyder and McBrayer represent the ruling population in three Kentucky places. China is located in Michigan, and Minnesota boasts of its short Line Park. Missouri contains Lost and Clio. Raten is in Nebraska, while Redstone takes its name from the granite hills of New Hampshire. New York is provided with a Best, an Echo and a Jayville. Stem and Wharf are the names of two post-offices in North Carolina, and Scrub Ego and Twin have Ohio written after them on envelopes.

Ale and Joy, while both are in Oregon, are not in the same county, and there is no connection between the two. Peach Tree, Early, Orphan's Home and Venus are in Texas. Exit and Jos are in the neighboring State of Virginia, and Washington has a newly-created small post-office called Nickel, while Fossil and Shell complete the list for Wyoming.—Washington Post.

THE LITTLE WOMAN.

She Needs Only Express Her Wishes and They Will Be Obeyed.

A pretty little woman with soft, appealing eyes, a low voice and an air of daintiness in dress and manner. Not much force about such a little creature, you say? She will never set the world afire. My dear sir, you are mistaken. It is just such sweet, helpless-seeming little woman who have set the world afire—at least the portion of it over which their influence extended—and who will do it again. I'll wager Helen of Troy was such a woman. The dainty bit of femininity seems very helpless indeed. She sits still and lets a man attend to her fare, she takes the seat he offers, she accepts his assistance in getting out of the stage, and she accepts it all with a pleasant smile. Yes, my friends, that is the woman that rules the world. She rules it by her helplessness, just as the whitest, sweetest, daintiest morsel of a baby, enthroned in frills, and cambric, and fine lace, can govern an establishment of men, and they feel proud of their tyrant. The tyranny of weakness is the strongest in the world. The woman who rules is really the woman who says: "Protect me." The woman who says: "I will protect you," is the sort of hybrid who may rule one man, who may always spell woman with a capital W, and prefer a stub pen, but that is the extent of her monarchy. Weak woman, daring to face the March wind; weak woman, with no idea as to her rights or her wrongs; weak woman, with strong opinions as to the value of a kiss, a smile, a pleasant word; weak woman will have all arms opened to her with a request that she will only express her wishes and they will be obeyed.—N. Y. Fair Bazar.

Father's Qualified Consent.

"I'd like to ask you, sir," said the young man in hesitating tones, "might I—might I—marry your daughter?"

"Humph," replied her father. "You might—"

"Thank you, sir."

"You might, I repeat, but it would be one of the most inexplicable accidents that ever happened in this country."—Washington Capital.

WORLD
Under one management
A. T. & S. F.
An eminent example of American Enterprise, Energy and Perseverance.

In the hands of young men this great system has been so carefully managed that it has earned a reputation second to none for convenience, safety and the luxuries of travel. It is fast becoming the popular route for transcontinental travel, in connection with the Southern Pacific railroad.

It has opened up an almost unlimited field for pioneer enterprise in the far West. No other railroad can carry a man, who is seeking his fortune, to golden opportunities such as are open along the lines of this great system.

Special freight rates are given to settlers and immigrants.

Dobbins' Electric Soap
THE BEST FAMILY SOAP IN THE WORLD.
It is Strictly Pure. Uniform in Quality.
THE original formula for which we paid $5000 twenty years ago has never been modified or changed in the slightest. This soap is identical in quality to-day with that made twenty years ago.
It contains nothing that can injure the most delicate fabric. It is the best soap in the market everywhere.
If which fabric is soap blankets or any other article in the world does not shrink, leaving them soft and white, and like new.
READ THIS TWICE
THERE is a great saving of time, of labor, of soap, of fuel, and of the fabric, where Dobbins' Electric Soap is used according to directions.
ONE trial will demonstrate its great merit. It will pay you to make that trial.
LIKE all best things, it is extensively imitated and counterfeited.
Beware of Imitations.
INSIST upon Dobbins' Electric. Don't take Mammoth, Electro Magic, Philadelphia Electric, or any other fancy name that some dealers may offer as being just as good. They will injure you, and are cheap at any price. Ask for DOBBINS' ELECTRIC and take no other. Nearly every grocer from Maine to Mexico keeps it in stock. If your grocer does not keep it, he will order from his jobber some wholesale grocer.
PACKAGE contains full weight, equal to each outside package. You cannot secure full weight unless you ask for Dobbins' Electric Soap.

LOCAL ROUNDUPS.

Luck sometimes makes a name,
But printers ink in black and solemn,
Will give a man peculiar fame,
When put in this peculiar column.

A SISTER of John Y. Hewitt is the guest of her brother this week.

MRS. RUDISILL left a few days since for the East. She will return after the G. R. Carnival at Boston.

HOT weather, for this locality, still continues. But compared to other sections, both east and west, this is a veritable elysium.

ED. HOMAS, one of the best boys who ever left White Oaks for Tularosa or any other point, is visiting our town this week.

J. P. C. LANGSTON, deputy sheriff, made a flying trip to the San Andreas and returned last Monday night. He is a rustler.

THE North Homestake mine has reached the 800 foot mark in sinking the shaft; and will crowd the depth to the 1000 foot level as rapidly as possible.

WE regret to learn that T. B. McCourt is quite ill. If the kind wishes of the LEADER would do him any good, his health would be speedily restored.

JIM CURRY was liberated from the pen last week. He had received a commutation of half his term of service for the killing of Foley.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhœa, relaxing in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c. a bottle.

MRS. SCHRONTZ, who has been dangerously ill for several weeks, we are glad to learn, is rapidly improving and will soon be out of danger.

THE whole country is looking fresh, with its new coat of green. Grass is growing rapidly and stock improving faster than anticipated a few weeks since.

YE Political pot boils just now. The temperature is rising; both parties claim they will win. The G. O. P. will come out a long ways ahead. Ta, Ta! Old Bourbon!

GEO. BROWN returned from his trip to the Gran Quivera, last Tuesday week. He had a splendid time and reports an abundance of grass in that region.

ALBERT ZIEGLER and Isaac Smith, returned from a trip to the Upper Pecosco. They report that section looking very fine, with plenty of grass and the cattle fat.

MESSRS. McDONALD, Bull and Jamie Parker, returned from a business trip to the Bonito, a few days since. They report the country looking well and mountains beautiful.

W. F. HENDERSON, late Judge of this judicial district, died in Arkansas last week. This will be a surprise to his many friends here, as he was in the prime of life and of strong physique, and so far as known was not afflicted with any disease save democracy, which he had in its direst form, but that is seldom fatal except morally.

IT was held by some of our people that Seeds, of Iowa, recently appointed Judge of New Mexico, was assigned to take the place of Judge Whiteman. We have authority to state, that Mr. Seeds will preside at the next term of Court in this county, and was appointed Judge of this judicial district. He is not an old seed, being only 35 years of age.

MR. U. OZANNE returned from a trip to Roswell, Monday night last, and reports everything in that section moving along in the line of progress. Mr. Ozanne is enthusiastic in description of the present condition and the future prospects of the Pecos Valley country.

SHERIFF NOWLIN arrived in town on Friday morning from El Paso and rolled on to Lincoln. If he had any news, he carried it in his grip-sack, for he didn't give us an atom. We like to see a fellow who goes abroad come back loaded, a little, anyway. That's the way we returned.

MR. FRANK LLOYD, Superintendent of the North Homestake mine, has recently occupied the Company's house near the mill, formerly occupied by Mr. Bird and family. They now have a beautiful home—but they deserve the best there is to be had.

REV. ROBT. LAIRD COLLIER, the eminent Unitarian divine, on of the greatest pulpit orators of the age, is dead. Scotland, the land of his birth, will grieve over his death, and Chicago, where he served so long, will deeply feel his demise as a personal loss.

MRS. JAMES REID and little daughter Bessie, left for the East last Wednesday evening. They have the best wishes of the LEADER for a pleasant going and a speedy return to their old home in the Oaks.

J. H. HUNTINGTON, of Silver City, a geologist and mining expert, is visiting this place for the purpose of looking into the geology of this section, and collecting mineral specimens, to gain an intelligent idea of this part of New Mexico.

THE irrepressible Dick Cavanaugh struck town on Thursday morning, where he found many genial and congenial friends. He says he is not now connected with the "water wagon," but deals wholly in "straight goods."

FRANK E. CONOKE, the census enumerator for this and Red Cloud precincts, has been highly complimented by Supervisor Sanchez, for the excellent work done in taking the recent census.

IT has been determined to establish a U. S. Assay office at Socorro. We congratulate our sister city.

CHRIS. FINLAYSON left this week for greener pastures.

Chiropodist. Yes, I have had considerable experience. I have to do all the carving at one of the biggest hotels in this city.

Pat. Let's take a drink. I always knew yez wuz a gentleman Dennis.

MESSRS. Bonnell and Comy returned from their fishing excursion on the Ruidoso river Monday night, and complain that they had a most enjoyable time. The only cause for complaining, was that they could not remain longer. Fishing? Well to be sure;—until you could not rest—away up into the hundreds. Then one of the pleasant features of the trip consisted in the meeting of a party of Boys in Blue, from Ft. Stanton, who treated our townsmen so hospitably that they nearly captured them—if not really, surely figuratively; and, all together they had a royal time. Of course everyone whose good fortune has been to bring them in contact with the boys of Ft. Stanton, know they are a splendid and jolly crew—none better. We only wish we had been there.

DR. G. M. CHAMBERLAIN, of Chicago, passed through town Monday, in company with Mr. Bush, of the Milne & Bush Cattle Co., of Roswell, en route to Roswell, to professionally attend Col. Milne, who is and has been sick for some weeks past. Dr. Chamberlain attended Col. Milne some years since when sick, and has come all the way from Chicago, to again attempt by his skill and varied professional experience, to save, if possible, the life of this important fellow-citizen. The LEADER joins with the Colonel's many friends in wishing to soon see him out.

F. O. BLOOD, for years a respected citizen of White Oaks, who has since got married and in a nest of children, lives at San Marcial, where he holds a reputable and honorable position under the A. T. & S. F. R. R., was a delegate to the Republican League Convention at Santa Fe. Fred was always a good boy and as his years increase the man seems to follow in his rear and boy-hood to stretch out invitingly in his pathway. May he live to be a very old boy, is the hope of all who knew him here in the days of yore.

A FILE of papers received this week from the Sandwich Islands, by this office, informs us that there has recently been a change in the Cabinet of King Kalakana. How the kingdom in the midst of the Pacific gets around, politically. It would seem as if the people would have to get up early in the morning, to note all the changes on the political chess-board.

THERE is no doubt now but that the New West Academy of White Oaks, will open its [illegible] of year about October first. Those contemplating patronizing this institution should make their arrangements accordingly—especially those who live at a distance. There is no better school for boys and girls in the Territory.

MR. C. M. PEARMAN, father of C. L. Pearman, our popular hardware merchant, is visiting his son at the present time. Mr. Pearman is a hale old gentleman, and full of good level headed common sense. We bid him a hearty welcome to the Oaks.

AUTOMATIC SEWING MACHINE!

Prices reduced. Every family now can have the best Automatic Sewing Machine in the market at reduced price. For particulars send for our new Illustrated Circular with samples of stitching. Our Illustrated Circular shows every part of the Machine perfectly, and is worth reading for even if you have a Machine. Address A. Murphy, Manufacturer, [illegible] N. Y. City.

THE executive committee of the Territorial Republican party, met at Silver City last Monday, and after an harmonious session, adjourned to meet Raton next Saturday, when a call for the Territorial convention will be issued.

ELLA G. TIMONEY, P. M.

A SEVERE thunder storm visited this place on Tuesday of last week, which made its presence felt in the destruction of the flag-staff on the store of M. Whiteman, by lightning. This was the only flag-staff in town and now we are flag-staffless by this visitation of Providence, or more properly speaking, by lightning. All right, we will have a few new ones now, and then we'll see.

Take Care! There is Danger

In allowing inactivity of the kidneys to grow through neglect. The deadly shoals of Bright's disease and diabetes will wreck the goodly bark of health if it is allowed to drift rudderless upon them. The bladder, too, if inactive, and judicious medication does not speedily direct the helm toward the port of safety, will be whelmed by the quicksand of disease. In selecting a diuretic, let your choice fall upon Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which stimulates the renal organs without irritating and exciting them, two effects to be apprehended from the unmodulated stimuli largely resorted to. These have a tendency to react prejudicially. The Bitters invigorate the kidneys and bladder, in common with the nerves and the digestive organs, and so afford lasting aid. It also affords dual assistance in preventing and curing intermittent and remittent fever. Biliousness, constipation and rheumatism it also subjugates.

Old Soldiers Take Notice.

I have received a large supply of Pension blanks and will make out your applications FREE OF CHARGE, and forward them to Col. S. P. Himlim, of Washington, D. C., a thoroughly competent Pension Attorney, who will see that your claim is properly cared for.
