Richest in natural resources, the State should welcome conditions that will attract people and money.

Political Advertisement.

Consider The Facts.

(From the El Paso Times.)

The essence of Republican objections to the League of Nations is contained in the following paragraphs gleaned from a politica advertisement:

"The Republican party is unwilling to pledge now that it will protect European boundary lines and to deprive congress the power to say in each case what the action of the United States will be. * * * The American scheme of government, which has made this land of freedom and security, provides that decisions shall be made by congress. That protects the people who must act. * * * President Wilson's covenant pledges American boys to every war in Europe and Cox upholds that covenant. * * * Every war in Europe is not necessarily an American war. Let congress in each case decide, without a pledge in advance.

This sounds well. Certainly congress should not be deprived of the power to decide regarding war, and a pledge sending our boys to fight in every European is unthinkable. But how much of this Republican line of argument is sound and how much is "eratz?" Let examine into the facts.

The pledge the Republicans speak of undoubtedly is that contained in Article No. 10. It reads:

"The members of the league undertake to respect and preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league. In case of any aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression the council shall ADVISE upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."

There you are. The "council" shall advise," that is all. And tis provided in Article No. 5 the covenant that decisions in the council must be unanimous.

Thus the council could not even "advise" the use of force without the consent of the American representative. And before American military or naval forces could be used congress would have to act.

But, argue the foes of the league, suppose the American representative on the council did pledge the use of American troops, congress would be in honor bound to fulfill the pledge and declare war. We concede there is logic and force in that argument. We believe it contains the most vital objection to the covenant drafted at Versailles. It is the point we had in mind when from time to time we stated the covenant could not be and should not be ratified without proper reservation.

However, the Democratic leaders have taken proper cognizance of this defect of the covenant The so-called "Hitchcock reservations," which even President Wilson approved, contained a paragraph setting forth "the limitation in our constitution, beyond which we cannot go, and especially the limitation giving to congress and congress onty, the right to declare war."

This would seem to make it clear that the League of Nations could in no way interfere with the right of congress to judge each case on its merits, but Governor Cox has expressed himself in favor of a reservaion making things even plainer. He has said it should be put in the ratificaion that "nothing contained in the covenant should in any way supersede our constitution, or take away, or abridge, or weaken the rights of congress."

Centainly under such a reservation there could be no pledging of American boys to European wars without the consent of congress, nor could the constitution be impaired or any powers of congress be abridged or curtailed.

To Whom It May Concern.

I have learned that it is being circulated that I would be in favor of dividing Lincoln county in case I am elected to the Legislature, by detaching a portion of the north side to be added to a new county proposed to be created by the next Legisture. I take this method of denouncing such report as being absolutely false I am not in favor of dividing Lincoln county and would oppose any measure tending to that end should I be elected a member of the Legislature. I wish to see taxes reduced instead of raised. The loss of a portion of our territory would make taxes so high that it would be a great hardship on our people. I repeat that I would strenuously oppose any measure that would divide our county or take from it any part of its territory, and I ask the voters to disbelieve the report that has been circulated.

Respectfully,
A. S. McCamant.

TO THE VOTERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY

Dear Frinds:-

I wish to inform you that I have again been nominated on the Republican ticket for the office of County Sheriff and as such, would respectfully solicit your support at the coming election I have served the people of this county for the past 21 months in the capacity of Sheriff and in a short account I wish to give you a summary of my expenses during my term of office which is about to expire: All expenses for Sheriff and deputies $2,245.02 expenses during two terms of Court $893.90. If in your good judgement you conclude that these figures are a saving to the county and if your deliberations lead you to believe that I have conducted the office in a manner becoming an official in my station, I again request that you endorse the same by casting your votes for me at the election November 2, 1920.

Yours very truly,
R. A Duran.

L. R. YORK.

The attention of the voters of the county is especially called to the candidacy of L. R. York for District Attorney. Mr. York is candidate of the democratic party for that office and is making a close campaign for election and wants all the votes he can get. He lived in Capitan several years and knows a great many people throughout the county and nearly every one who knows him has a good word to say for him, especially can this be said of the people of Capitan and this immediate section. During all the time he lived here he worked continuously for the interest of the town and for the wellfare of the whole community. As we have said before, it was more due to his efforts than any one else that the Lincoln County High School was located at Capitan, and when that was accomplished he worked hard to help make the school a success and was one of the directors for several years.

Mr. York is a good lawyer and would make splendid district attorney. He is a gentleman in every sense of the word; is a genial companion and is polite and affable with all whom he comes in contact and many of his closest friends and strong supporters are republicans, and this because they know him and have confidence in him. He deserves the hearty support of the people of Lincoln county and the people of Capitan should certainly remember him on election day.

To Voters.

If voters will call at the Mountaineer office on election day or at any time between now and then we will furnish them some information in regard to filling out their tickets. We have a blank ballot on hand, and they can look it over and fully understand how to fill out their tickets in case they wish to make any changes in either of the regular party tickets. We will be glad to show them how to make them out should they want any assistance in doing so. We are not asking voters to come to us that we may tell them who to vote for, but to show them how to make out their tickets to vote for candidates of their choice.

Charles Felton Grey was born in Chicago, but remained there only long enough to secure such education as was afforded by the Public Schools, High Schools and engineering course at the Chicago University.

At the age of 17, that was 14 years ago, he came to Lincoln county. He believed that New Mexico was the land of opportunity, and he has never changed his mind.

He spent three years as an erecting engineer for the Fairbanks-Morse Manufacturing Co. and then decided that he wanted for his own a part of the land. He secured it the same way that the majority of the people setheirs, by sacrifice and labor that go with homesteading a 320 tract.

His experiences were just those of the ordinary man of this state. His opportunities for studying conditions were increased by the fact that he is a licensed surveyor and in that capacity has studied and examined much of this section of the state. He knows the extent of the natural resnurces and the possibilities for development. He knows that with the coming of capital, seeking honest investment and large retnrns, this state is destined to become one of the most prosperous in the Union.

In 1917 he went into the mercantile business in Oscuro which he is still operating. His references are those who have transacted business with him and among whom he has lived.

His platform as the Republican candidate for member of the Legislature is simple: Everything that will help, not hamper, the turning of the natural resources of the state to the use of the people that will assist in bringing more people to build and enjoy life in this favored land.

An Open Letter to the Voters of Lincoln County.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—Last week I addressed you through the columns of the county papers, calling attention to the duty of the tax-papers and voters in the matter of discrimi-crimination of the matter of selecting county officials with regard to qualifications and efficiency for the services such officials are expected to give the people. I touched lightly in that address upon my own qualifications as a reason for asking your support in the election.

At this time I will submit for your further consideration review of some of the positions of a public nature that I have held, all of which required executive and administrative ability, both in field and office, to wit:—Official translator in the Surveyor General's office at Santa Fe; Chief Clerk to the Supervisor of the Census for New Mexico in 1910; six years in the U. S. Forest Service, from Ranger to Supervisor, during which time I examined and exported upon nearly four hundred homestead and other claims in Lincoln county.

During the past 14 years I have been in the real estate business and survevor which has enbled me to familiarize myself closely with land values. This experience should be of value to you in the assessor's office. It's up to you voters. I thank you.

Clement Hightower.

You will have to register before you vote. Don't forget it.

How to Vote.

Be careful and follow these instructions:

The easiest plan for you is first, to mark a cross in the circle on the ticket under the party emblem you wish to vote. Then if you wish to vote for candidates on the other ticket, which is opposite, mark crosses in the square after the names of those you wish to vote. According to competent legal opinion there's no limit on the number of crosses you can put in the squares after the names of other candidates.

There's another system, also specifically given in the amended law, and this is putting a cross in the square after the name of each candidate for whom you wish to vote, democrat or republican. Get this straight: If you prefer the latter system don't put any cross in the circle under the party emblem.

The amended law says;

"If he wishes to vote a straight party ticket he shall make a cross in the circle beneath the name of such party and his vote shall be considered as having been cast for every candidate named in the ticket of such party upon such ballot. If the voter does not desire to vote a straight party ticket and wishes to vote for any particular candidate candidate of any other political party, the ticket of which appears upon the ballot, he may do so by making a cross in the square opposite the name of any such candiuate or by writing the name of the person for whom he desires to vote and whose name is not printed upon the ballot in blank space provided therefor; and in such case such vote shall be considered as having been cast for every candidate of the political party in the circle below the designating name of which he shall have made his cross, except those whom he has otherwise designated as herein provided.

"Each elector may prepare his ballot by omitting the cross in the circle under the designating party name and making a cross in the square opposite the name of every candidate or person for whom he desires to vote."

Some voters seem to think they should make crosses after the names of the candidate they want to vote against. Nothing could be further from the truth. The cross means "for" and emphatically it doesn't mean "against." Put crosses after the names of the candidates you want elected; not after the names of those you want defeated.

Will T. Coe for Clerk.

Will T. Coe of Glencoe, is the Republican nominee for Clerk of Lincoln county and received the nomination without opposition. Mr. Coe is a Lincoln county raised boy and is well known to the people. He has never asked for an office before and has always worked for his party ticket. He is well educated and well qualifiest in every way to fill to clerk's to the satisfaction of the people. He is a polite and affable young man and would treat every one having business in the clerk's office in a most courteous manner. Mr. Coe is a farmer and fruit grower on the Bonito and is making a success of that business. He is well liked by all who know him and deserved the recognition his party has given him. He will appreciate the support of all voters, democrats as well as republicans. Remember him at the polls on next Tuesday week.
