BUT HE WANTED IT

For the first time since 1882, congress has passed a local bill over the president's veto—in the house by a vote of 240 to 5, in the senate unanimously. But it was with the president's express consent, as might be imagined. The president vetoed the bill in ignorance of a cetrain material fact, and afterwards stated that he would not oppose repassage. Representative J. Adam Bede, of Minnesota, the jester of the house, explained that the president had merely vetoed the bill so that Bede, who had the bill in charge would come to the White House; and that as a result of the president having enjoyed Bede's society for a whole month, a compromise had been arrived to. The compromise, Bede explained, was that the president was not to oppose the bill, which Bede agreed to favor the president's proposal to trade the Philippines for Ireland, so that we could begin growing our own policemen.—El Paso Herald.

A COAL FIND

A vein of what is believed to be anthracite coal has been struck on the property of the Cliff Coal Mining company about two and one half miles southwest of this city and the company has a number of men at work uncovering the find with a view toward determining its extent. The vein is about four feet thick at the outcropping and dips to the southwest. If exploration develops a bed of considerable extent steps will be at once taken to begin mining on a large scale. Breakers and tipples will be created and a spur track built to connect the mine with the main line of the El Paso and Southwestern road at Carrizozo.

Those who believe that coal beds of the White Oaks district are of vast extent have been greatly encouraged by the report of the drillers engaged in sinking a well for John Y. Hewitt at his place in the village of White Oaks, that a four foot vien of coal was out by the drill at a depth of 90 feet. As the well is fully three miles to the westward of the old White Oaks workings and as the vein or bed is known to dip to the westward, the drillers find would indicate that the bed is at least three miles wide, that it is not very far under the surface and that it is free of water.

MURDER AND SUICIDE

Tucumcari, N. M., June 4.—Nepomozena Martinez, former county commissioner and one time treasurer of Union county, shot and killed himself at his ranch, near Gallegos, yesterday after shooting and killing a young woman employed in his household.

Martinez was about 60 years old and wealthy. He was prominent in Republican politics not only in this region but of the territory and was regarded as one of the leaders of the Mexican members of that party in New Mexico. His son, Juan Martinez, is at present United States court commissioner at Gallegos.

The dead man was one of the big sheep and cattlemen of the territory and his estate will foot up in the neighborhood of $100,000, it is said. A widow and several children survive him. The motive for the double crime con only be surmised.

NEW PRINTING OFFICE

The office of the Capitan News has been moved from that city to Carrizozo and from last week on the existence of such a paper as the above will be but a recollection and in it's stead will be the Carrizozo News. Editor Haley, realizing the more advantageous location and probably more lucrative field, very wisly concluded to cast his lot with the people of Carrizozo. The Outlook joins with all others in welcoming the new enterprise into our midst, and hopes for it a prosperous and pleasant career.

CELEBRATION JULY FOURTH

Not to be outdone by any of the neighboring cities, Carrizozo has has made preparations for a big celebration on July the 4th. Arrangements have been made for an elaborate program and while the committee on arrangements have not farmulated a program with enough certainty to give it out for publication as yet, it is already assured of having among the amusements of the day the following features. There will be an oration by some public man of prominence and ability, a big free barbacue, horse racing, baseball game, broncho busting, foot racing, and a grand ball at night. Music will be rendered throughout the day and during the evening, and an elaborate display of fireworks will be the feature to share the honors of the evening with the dance.

As stated no program has as yet been definitely arranged, but this much is assured—It is to be the greatest celebration of any similar nature ever pulled off in this part of the Territory, and gives promise of being visited by the largest number of people ever assembled in Carrizozo.

THE INDUSTRIOUS HEN

Collier's, weekly confesses to a weakness for the hen, and says it is not without a degree of satisfaction that it chronicles the fact that in Illinois this foul has achieved a triumph. Recently a Boston merchant sent to the Western state a rush order for a large quanity of eggs Within a single week 10,500 dozen eggs had been collected and the consigment filled. This feat reflects credit upon the individual who filled the order, and upon Woodford county, but still more upon the foul.

This humble creature, contendedly clucking through eventfull life, throws cheerful satire upon much of man,s achievements. Have all of the inhabitants of Woodford County ever performed any single deed which has had so direct an influence of the viens of the Bay State? Have all the culture and yankee shrewdness from Cape Cod, to the Berkshires conferred any larger benefit upon Illinois? Let those who will, sing of the sacred ibis, the lark or nightingale says the weekly, but we are for the hen.

REPORT FINE PROGRESS

At the meeting of the Commercial Club last Tuesday evening the committee in charge of the Fourth of July Celebration reported exceedingly good progress. The committee was increased by the addition of two members, A. H. Harvey and J. B. Baird, and made an Executive Committee. Messrs. C. L. Davis, A. H. Harvey and J. B. Baird were appointed as the Advertising Committee, Messrs. O. L. Henry and T. E. Kelloy as Racing Committee and C. H. Adams given charge of Base ball arrangements.

From indications as evidenced at Tuesday night's meeting that celebration on the 4th is going to be a hummer, and will cause the natives to take notice.

The statement of the condition of the national banks of New Mexico, published last week shows up very creditably for the finances and the business of New Mexico. In fact there are several territorial banks that make such fine showings that they can be compared very favorably with many national banks in the richer commonwealths. New Mexico will not take a back seat in this year of our Lord, it seems.—New Mexican.

Over in Belgium there was a great deal of excitement when fifty people were killed in a railroad wreck. In this country the story of a few hundred miners killed in a mine disaster attracts passing notice for a day or so. Its all according to what you are accustomed to.—Citizen.

The man who is "waiting for bargin prices" may as well make up his mind that the tendency of prices will be upward from now on. Prices are not going lower, on real estate and other sound investments in this section.—El Paso Herald.

NEW ICE PLANT

The second manufacturing establishment for Carrizozo is nearly completed and will soon be in operation. A visit to the ice factory being erected by the Carrizozo Improvement and Development company proves that it is advancing at a rapid rate and the installation of the machinery is nearly completed. The building of this factory in our town just at this time when so many places are being so seriously affected by the panic is good evidence of the healthy condition of business in our town, and should be reassuring to all who may think of investing in our valley. Today there is no safer or better paying investment than either industrial or mining enterprises in this part of New Mexico, if handled by competent conservative men, and the capitalist who has been loaning his mony in the east for low interest should investigate some of the enterprises in Carrizozo and vicinity for a better paying investment.

SALARY RAISED

Washington, May 18.—Senator Warren, who as a member of a conference committee on the legislative bill, has been making an effort to increase the salary of surveyors general in the western states, secured favorable action Saturday when the house conference receded from their disagreement to the Senate amendment.

The salaries of surveyors general will be increased from $2,000 to $3,000 in California, Colorado, Idaho Montana, Oregon, Utah, Wyoming, and Washington and to $2,500 in Arizona, Nevada and New Mexico an increased appropriation of $500 was made for clerk hire in the surveyor generals' office in New Mexico and $1,200 in Wyoming.

WE WANT IN

After half a century spent importuning congress for recognition, New Mexico is at last ready to lay aside more pacific overtures, and to demand consideration to which she is rightly entitled by rights not to be won by political subserviancy.

With a population out numbering North and South Dakota, and coequal in intelligence and wealth with many sections which have for years enjoyed the privilages guaranteed by statehood, New Mexico, still debared, has knocked submission, through oracular exhalations of a delegate to congress, who must pay taxes, but who is not permitted to cast a ballot save with a political junta in his own bailiwick.

Persons who well know of the mineral and other resources of New Mexico, where gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, fire-clay, gypsum, etc. etc., lay ready to the miners' pick are awakening to the necessity for throwing off the lethargy which has for long years held them on the dead level of recumbency.

PROPOSED ROUTE

Thorough knowledge of all the possibilities of this region has induced Gen. Grenville M. Dodge, one of the best known, successfull railroad promooters of the west, to have surveyed and located the Arkansas & Pacific railroad projected to lead southwest from Memphis, Tenn., to Roswell, New Mexico. With a proper itnerest evinced by our citizens, this route will be hastened to the Pacific coast; through sections offering greater inducements to railroad projectors than any other in the southwest, and over an entierly feasible route, presenting enormous possibilities to its builders. The route which seems to find more favor with those who have quitly disucsed it, is: In a southwesterly direction from Roswell to the Hondo; up the Hondo valley to the confluence of the Ruidoso with the Bonito, up the Bonito valley, thence via Lincoln to Capitan; thence southwestward, to cross the Rock Island railroad at Carrizozo, on its route to the east foot of the San Andreas range at the north end of the white "Sands," or a gypsum bed which is 65 miles long.

MANY FILINGS

Santa Fe, N. M., May 20.—Since July 1, of last year, the astounding number of 7,000 homesteads entries have been made in the Clayton land districts, the smallest of New Mexico's five land districts.

In the past ten months, 1,077,704 acres have been homesteaded in that district alone, a record unprecedented for any distrect in the entries of the general land office

There were besides in that period 332 final homestead entries covering 52,906 acres, and 203 desert land entries covering 35,000 acres.

In the Santa Fe land distrect half a million acres were entered, while inithe entire territory, the area taken up by homeseakers the past ten months exceeds two million acres, leaving, however, still more than 40,000,000 acres subject to homestead entries. At the present rate these lands will be all taken up in less thant 20 years.

That the work of Governor Carry and other officials and citizens of New Mexico who visited Washington during the winter in the interests of statehood, has made an impression on the Congressmen and has resulted in at least some of them realizing the need of the territories for self government, is apparent in the speach of the Hon. William Sulzer, representative from New York, made May 19, the house being in committee of the whole house and having under considerations for the legislative, judicial and executive expenses of the government. Mr. Sulzer said in part:

Let us stop treating Arizona and New Mexico like conquered provinces. Let us grant them the rights they demand. Let us permit these territories to come into the Union, so they can grovern themselves and make their own legal laws. These people are as brave, as honest, as intelligent, and as patriotic as any other citizens in our land. They want to govern themselves. They want home rule. They demand stathood. Let us be true to ourselves and grant them all their rights and all the privileges enjoyed by all the rest of the citizens of the states of the Union. New Mexico must be a state. Arizona must be a state. Now is the time to grant them this sovereign boon.

Mr. Speaker, Congress is to big a body, too busy a body, as a legislative forum with its momentous affairs of the nation to act as a board of aldermen for Alaska, for New Mexico and for Arizona. Why not give them what they are entitled to, and let them legislate for themselves. The principles of local self-government are dear to the hearts American. They sonstitute the cornerstone of the American republic. The people in Arizona, the people in New Mexico are entitled to home rule, are entitled ed to local self-government, and the only way they can get it is through the agency of statehood.

St. Peter sits by the heavenly gate, his hand on the strings of a lyre, and he sings a low song as he patiently waits for the souls of those who expire. He hears in the distance the chours of songs that swell from the foot of the throne, and he smile as the music is waited along, and sings a lay of his own.

"There is room in this region for millions of souls, who by sorrow and woe are bereft, 'tis for those who have suffered," the melody runs, "but the knocker must turn to the left. There is room here for people, who when they were young, persisted in sowing wild oats, yet boomed up their towns with sinew and tongue, but the knocker must go with the goats. There is room for people who pointed with pride to beauty and growth of their town, who kept singing its praises alowd till they died, but the knockers will please amble down. They would say that the music was all out of tune, and the angelic robes 'hand-me-down,' and they'd send for a jeweler off to the moon to sample the gold in their crowns. Now, while there is room for millions of souls who by sorrow and woe are bereft, we want no complaint of the music that rolls, so the knocker must turn to the left.—Chickasha Express.

Governor George Curry, who has returned to the Territoral Capitol from Washington D. C., where he spent six weeks looking after matters before congress which concerned the welfare of New Mexico, is sanguine of early stathood.

He is of the opinion that much legislation which will be of benefit to this territory has been secured at the present secsion of Congress and brings announcement that Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, and Representative Edward L. Hamilton, of Michigan, will be visitors to New Mexico the coming fall.

Governor Curry is much improved in health and shortly will start on a tour of a portion of the territory, following which he will pay a visit to Arizona for a conference with the governor of that territory on matters of general good.

Had O. A. Larrazolo instead of W. H. Andrews been delegate to Congress duringthe past session of that body, what a sorry spectacle he would have presented trying to secure an appropriation of $30,000 for the national irrigation congress at Albuquerque. Every Democratic member of both houses voted against the passage of the measure while it received the undivided support of the Republicans. New Mexico voters should bear this fact in mind at the next election. It takes a Republican delegate to get favors from a Republican Congress.—New Mexican.

Gee, it takes a good Republican even, and don't you worry but what the efforts and results made by W. H. will be remembered by sensible voters this fall.

New Mexico received more from the last Congress than a whole lot of states even if she had only a voteless delegate in Washington.—Ex.

Guess the reason we have to content ourselves with a "voteless delegate" is because some of those "down easterners" fear we will grow so fast and become so strong as to propose and carry a measure to bring the White House west.

"As the days pass by, it becomes more and more apparent that the Republicans will be successful in the coming campaign in this territory. Any one who imagines that the Republican party has been crippled by a few knockers, had better put on a pair of blue goggles and look again.—El Paso Herald. The above just fits conditions in New Mexico, too.

"The Sabbath was made for man," says a contemporary. There appears to be a wide diversity of opinion as to what the Sabbath was made for—it all depends on the town you live in.

Mrs. Selma Dingwall, who has been vitising with mother, Mrs. Long, of the Hotel Temple, returned to her home at Mescalero.

The masquerade ball given at Wetmores hall last night was a decided success and a highly enjoyable affair. While the worm weather deterred many from masking, several couples were in costume, and the crowd in attendance was the largest that has been at a ball in Carrizozo for many months. Excellent music was rendered by an orchestra of four pieces and a very pleasant time was experienced by all present.

There was a slight wreck near Rincon this week. One of the freight cars was derailed and drug down hill for a short distance.—San Marcial Standard.

Probably if the engineer had saw there was going to be a wreck, he might have riz up and put on the air and if he had did this there wouldn't never been no wreck.—Albuquerque Journal.

And if the wind hadn't blowed the sand in his eyes he would have went his way unabstructed and would'nt have caused the editor of the Standard to be drug into the time light of publicity.—Tucumcari News.

We reckon that taint no use talking about what mighter been, but wasn't, and a fellow's lamps aint expected to be alkali-proof, nohow.

MORE OPEN LAND

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Settlers in the Pecos valley of New Mexico win 220,000 acres of land from the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad company as a result of the decision in the letigation, which has been pending for some time. Instructions to this effect have been sent out to local land officers".

This is land lying to the north of Clovis, N. M., and opens for entry another body of as fine farming land as can be found in the territory. It is over this strip that litigation has so long been had, and its loss to the Santa Fé is a great gain for Texico, Clovis, Melrose Grady and other towns in close proximity to the land, as it will be but a very short time until there will be a family on every 160 acres of the entire area.
