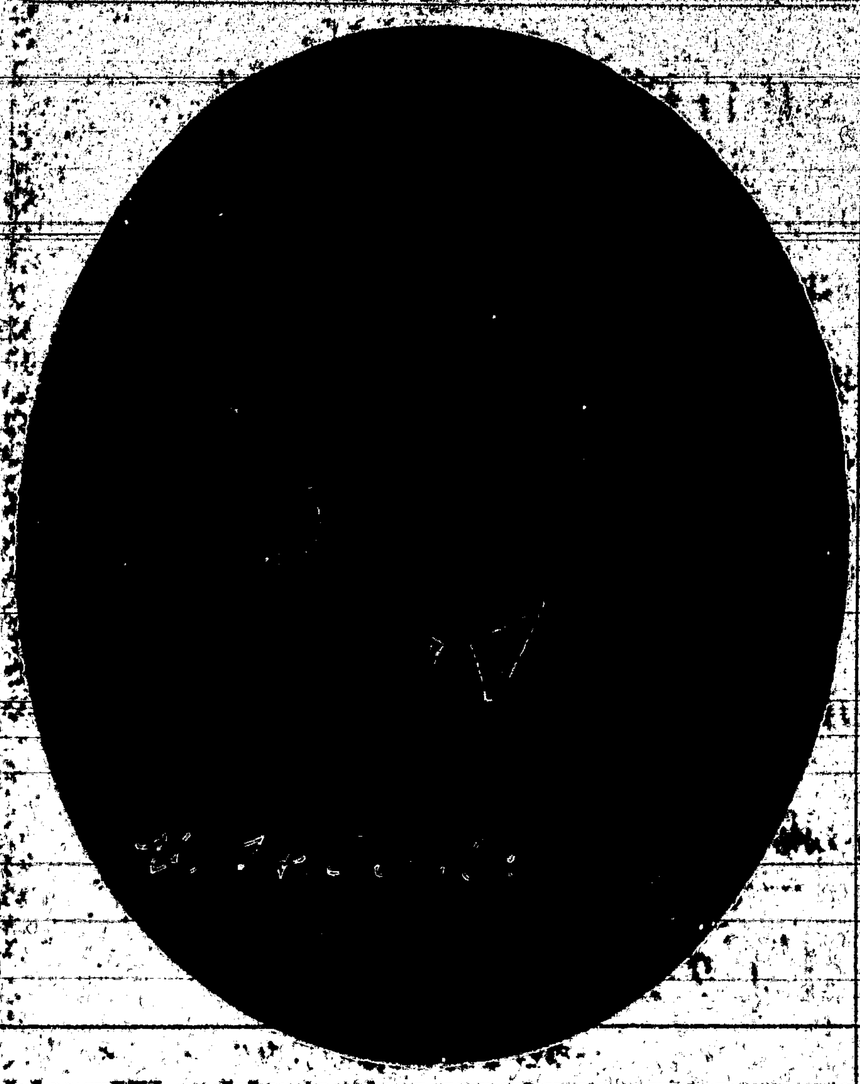
VOL. II. No. 28. CARRIZOZO, N. M., JULY 24, 1908. PRICE, $1.00 PER YEAR



Hon. Wm. H. Andrews, who visited with us yesterday, and who will in all probability succeed himself in office.

Carrizozo had the great honor yesterday and to-day of a visit from Hon. Wm. H. Andrews, Delegate to Congress, and candidate for nomination and re-election to the same office.

Mr. Andrews came in on yesterday's southbound limited train and was met at the depot by a committee of the leading Republicans of this and the White Oaks district.

He was escorted to the office of the Carrizozo Townsite Company, and here during the course of the afternoon, met and shook hands with many of the leading citizens of our town and the county. The manner of many of the greetings was evidence of his popularity and large local acquaintance. Many of our men were recognized by the Senator, and to hear him address them by their christian names, one was impressed with the fact that Mr. Andrews had met them before, and had remembered them.

Mr Andrews was feeling in fine spirits, was sanguine of his nomination and confident of re-election. His every utterance bore out the fact of his contentment with the political situation of the day.

The Senator was taken for an automobile ride during the afternoon, going all over town and stopping to meet Mr. T. B. Mack and other of our prominent business men. He expressed himself as being somewhat surprised at the forward strides of our little city since he was last here, four years ago.

All evening the Senator gave a reception to a large audience at the Wetmore Hall. Mr. Andrews, introduced as "the man who does things," laid no claim to the honor of being an orator, and his address was short and to the point. He simply stated in the briefest and most concise way that he was an avowed candidate; that his past actions and accomplishments stood open for inspection; that the result of his labors in our interest were known to all, and that if we, his constituents, approved of his administration of the affairs of his office, inviting the aid and support of our people. He assured us of his earnest conviction that we would be admitted to statehood at the next session of congress, and of how President Roosevelt had expressed a strong desire and hope of signing such a bill before his term of office as President expired next March.

After Chairman L. H. Rudiselle had introduced Mr. Andrews, and the latter had given his short address, the Chairman asked for a voice of the people in calling for the next speaker. Attorney G. W. Hall was called to the platform and gave an interesting talk, touching on, among other things, his experience in assisting to get statehood for Oklahoma, his former home. Mr. Hall gave a logical demonstration of the folly of changing our representation in congress at this time, and advocated the retention of the present incumbent. He cited parallel circumstances in Oklahoma and the disastrous results of changing delegate.

Mr. Hall was followed by Mr. Ira O. Wetmore, who in a few well-chosen words expressed himself as being perfectly satisfied with the present trend of affairs, and voiced it as his opinion, also, that we had best let well enough alone and not spoil our roseate prospect for statehood by sending an inexperienced and incompetent experiment as Delegate to Congress at this time.

Prof. C. L. Davis was called and in a short little talk gave his version of the political situation of the day, advocating the retention of Mr. Andrews and coinciding in views with the former speakers as regarding the advisability of changing horses in the middle of the stream.

After a few remarks from Mr. E. D. Fred along the same lines as the former speaker had trodden, Chairman Rudiselle dismissed the meeting and invited all who wished to meet the Senator to come forward. Probably one half hour was thus consumed, Mr. Andrews meeting and shaking hands with probably a couple of hundred people, belonging to all of the various political denominations.

Music for the evening was furnished by the East Carrizozo Mexican Band, and their rendition of popular and patriotic airs was well received.

After the meeting was over in the hall, the Senator, escorted by a company of about fifty persons, adjourned to the dining room of the Southwestern Hotel, where a banquet had been spread in honor of Mr. Andrews. Here quite an enjoyable hour was spent, and after a few toasts and an exhibition of elocution by Miss Mollie Kahler, the party disbanded for their respective homes, Mr. Andrews going to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore, as their guest.

Senator Andrews left on this afternoons train for the west, and his parting shot was a repetition of his firm belief in the ultimate success of his campaign, and in good wishes for the people of Carrizozo.

"The Outlook," since the change in management a few weeks ago, has held itself as neutral and noncommittal as regards the candidacy of the various seekers for the Republican nomination for the office of Delegate to Congress. This stand we assumed because of our not being conversant with matters to such an extent as to assure us to feel able to give the question the proper consideration.

Since our meeting with Delegate Andrews yesterday, and after feeling the pulse of leading and influential Republicans of the county, we are now an advocate of the cause of Mr. Andrews, and sincerely hope for his nomination and election. There are many things that tend to make him the logical man for the office, and absolutely no cause to succeed him with untried and doubtful timber.

BOLD AND BAD

THIS ROUGH TREATMENT OF STRANGERS IS RADICAL, ALTHOUGH EFFECTIVE.

An unknown Mexican, supposed to have been working on the section at Coyote, came on last Friday, and after filling himself up on "White Mule," or some other brand of Dutch courage, started to put on a one-man performance all by his own little self. Everything might have gone along smoothly had not fate have guided the footsteps of the inebriated individual toward the tie houses up along the tracks. But fate decreed that his muchness invade that section of the city, and finding himself there, and apparently the only man near by, he at once proceeded to terrify the women about the place, and was a mighty wicked senor until the husband of one of the women, who had been asleep inside, came forth. From here on for a short time the participants in the comedy are plural instead of singular, and the mantle of the star shifted to the new character.

Well, the way that ill-humored husband implanted hooks, jabs, uppercuts, swigs, jolts and punches on various portions of the others anatomy was truly artistic, and after the melee he of former wickedness was a humble and perfectly docile specimen of "bad actor." He was well licked and satisfactorilly convinced of his lack of pugilistic attainments, and sought no further evidence on the subject. As a fitting finale he was locked up in the jug Friday night and allowed to go forth Saturday morning. He was not strictly handsome at the raising of the curtain, but when closely inspected on Saturday morning, it was evident even to the untrained eye, that he had "got his'n."

LARAZOLO HERE

Hon. O. A. Larrazolo, Democratic nominee for Delegate to Congress, arrived here at an early hour this morning, and went on to White Oaks, where he speaks this afternoon. He will return here, speak at Wetmore's Hall tonight and go to Nogal, Capitan and Lincoln tomorrow.

AN ENJOYABLY EVENING

PLEASANT SOCIAL GATHERING AT THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. ED. R. KELLEY.

On last Saturday night, in answer to invitations issued earlier in the week, about thirty of our young people,—well, mostly young people—were in attendance at a very pleasant social gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. R. Kelley, on north El Paso Ave.

The inclemency of the weather did not dampen the ardour of the attending parties, and everyone seemed determined to have a good time. From all appearances, and from expressions we could hear it seemed that everyone gloriously succeeded.

Games and dancing were indulged in and a nice little lunch, consisting of sandwiches, cake and lemonade, was served. Partners for supper were chosen by lot, and although in nearly every case someone had someone other's "girl" or wife, no appetite seemed to suffer.

In one of the games, a "guessing contest" on pictures of well-known advertisements, Miss Jennie Brockway was the prize winner and won a box of Fudge.

The crowd was kept intact until just midnight, when it broke up and everyone went home with anticipations and hopes of another and many more such evenings, and each one avowing those Kelley's as being "it" at the art of entertaining.

Among those present were: Misses Maggie Gallacher, Nellie McMains, Ruth Gardner and Sallie Clemens, of White Oaks, and Misses Lou and Allie Johnson, Mollie Kahler, Jennie Brockway, Nettie Lee, Francis McDonald, Georgia Leanett, — Collins, Mrs. W. C. McDonald, Mrs. Ira O. Wetmore and Mrs. G. W. Hall. Messrs. Willie and Harry Gallacher, and Dick McMains, of White Oaks, and Messrs. G. W. Hall, Ira O. Wetmore, Tom Johnson, George Sharp, Arthur Johnson, Roy Trent, Mel and Brent Paden, Ray and Howard Hall, Charles Calmes, Teddy Annstoos, E. D. Fred, Walter Peck and Frank Tapp.

REPUBLICAN TICKET STRONG

GOOD MEN ARE BEING ADVANCED FOR THE NOMINATION FOR THE VARIOUS COUNTY OFFICES.

That the Republican party of our county is awake to the best interest of the ticket and party has been evidenced by rumors current during the past week or so. Candidates have been spoken of for nearly all the offices on the county ticket, and the personnel of every one spoken of as a possible candidate is above reproach. It is quite evident that the ticket as finally adopted is to be composed of men who are above the average in ability and worthiness, and Lincoln county is to be congratulated that it can interest men of such standing in the interest of her politics.

This is a Republican county and this is to be a Republican year, and by selecting men of standing and ability the party will do much to fortify itself in a place of credit at the polls this fall.

While the names of several men prominent in business affairs of the county have been mentioned as possible candidates for the various offices, "The Outlook" is not yet at liberty to announce any of them with the exception of that of Mr. Charles A. Stevens, who is an announced candidate for the nomination for the office of Sheriff, subject to the action of the Republican County Convention.

Mr. Stevens is a man in whom our party can place every confidence, and who, if nominated, can and will secure many Democratic votes. He has been a citizen of Lincoln county for seventeen years, and has a host of friends in every part of the county.

When first coming to this county Mr. Stevens located at White Oaks, and was a resident of that place for about eleven years. He was then, as now, interested in mining, and left there about six years ago to accept a position at Parsons with the Iowa Mining & Milling Co., as Manager.

Mr. Stevens has always been a staunch Republican, but is not a politician. He has never held a political job of any description and has never been a candidate for any office before. He is a man of family, having a wife and five children. He is a citizen of high standing.

"The Outlook" unreservedly applauds his candidacy and has no hesitancy in recommending him to the earnest consideration of the voters of the county. A better or more competent man it will be next to impossible to find, and if nominated, his name will add no little strength to the Republican ticket as a whole.

A cablegram has been received in New York from William Randolph Hearst in reply to a message transmitted to Mr. Hearst from Samuel Gompers, stating that, in view of the Democrats stand for labor, it would be "an act of greatest patriotism for the Indhpendence party to endorse the Democratic platform," and urging him not to run a third ticket, as it would elect Mr. Taft. Mr. Hearst's cablegram was as follows:

Paris, July 13,

"Tell Mr. Gompers that I am not authorized to speak for the membership of the Independence league, but, accord ng to my personal standards, a purer patriotism cons sts in laboring to establish a new party which will be consistently devoted to the interest of the citizenship, and particularly to the advantage and advancement of the producing classes. I do not think the path of patriotism lies in supporting a discredited and decadent old party, which has neither conscientious conviction nor honest intention, or in endorsing chameleon candidates who change the [illegible] of their political opinion with every varying hue of opportunism. [illegible] do not think the best benefit of laboring men lies in supporting that old party because of a sop of false promise, when the performance of that party while in power did more to injure labor than all the injunctions ever issued before or since. I have lost faith in the empty professions of an unregenerate Democracy. I have lost confidence n the ability, in the sincerity, and even in the integrity of its leaders. I do not consider it patriotism to pretend to support that which, as a citizen, I distrust and detest, and I earnestly hope the Independence party will give me an opportunity to vote for candidates that are both able and honest, and for a declaration of principles that is both sound and sincere.

William Randolph Hearst.

As a naval hero Richard Pearson Hobson was an imposing figure. As a more or less promiscuous kisser of young women—if that charge was really true—he was an interesting, if not admirable, phenomenon. As a congressman his earnestness at least has earned for him some consideration. But as a speaker at national conventions he is lamentable, an awful failure.

The shockingly bad taste of Mr. Hobson in repeating in a speech before the Denver convention a remark about the probability of war with Japan which he says President Roosevelt made to him, is plain enough. This bad taste is quite independent of whether or not Mr. Roosevelt ever really made such a remark. If he did, it was made in confidence, and in flaunting it before the world Mr. Hobson showed himself the worst kind of a counterfeit.

In fighting for an adequate navy, Hobson is working for a good cause. His ideas on the subject are generally exaggerated; his imagination has run riot with his judgment and he has visions, in his waking as well as in his sleeping moments, of war with Japan or Germany, or both, in the immediate future. But it is better for a nation to be too much, rather than too little prepared for national defense.

And so Hobson, fire-alarm methods and all, would have his uses if he could only hold himself down a little. He is fighting for a good cause—but his sweeping statements and his occasional bad taste unfortunately do more harm to that cause, by submitting it to ridicule and suspicion, than his better efforts can reasonably be expected to do it good.

There will be no sad disillusionment of husbands the day after in Georgia, at least, if a bill introduced by Representative Glenn, of the Whitefield district and favorably considered by the Assembly, becomes a law. It distinctly provides that an unmarried woman may use as many artificial aids to enhance her charms as she sees fit, but if she wants to get married the deception must end with the beginning of the courtship. The measure provides that, should a woman entrap a man into marriage through the "use of paints, powder, cosmetics, artificial teeth, puffs, rats, paddings, dropstitched hose, high heeled shoes, peek-a-boo waists, corsets, V-shaped lingerie, or other artifices," the marriage shall be null and void. The bill has been referred by the Speaker of the House to the committee on ways and means, and is assured of careful consideration.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Now what do you think of that? It is quite evident that Mr. Glenn either has been "stung" or has several marriageable daughters, naturally fa r of skin and with Venus-like forms. Statistics show that every decade has a greater percentage of "old maids" than the preceding one, and what in the name of Tom Brown is to be the result when the fair sex is deprived of the privilege of us ng those little illusions and subterfuges to which they have long been accustomed to resort in their endeavors to inveigle mankind into paying their board?

Well, to us this sounds good. "Announcements were recently made that the Illinois Central will put 8,000 men to work, principally on construction and improvements. The Santa Fe opened its shops with a full force, giving employment to 3,500 men who had been out since the retrenchment began. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas took 1,000 men back into its shops. The Pennsylvania opened its Altoona and Pittsburg shops. The Mobile & Ohio restored the out it had made in office salaries, and the Southern Railway abandoned its plans for a reduction of wages."—St. Paul Pioneer.

The "Outlook" acknowledges receipt of Vol 1, No. 1,—July issue—of the "Albuquerque Booster." This little booklet is working along lines deserving of commendation, and is a fine bit of the printer's art. The subscription price, 35 cents a year, being so small, and Mr. Noble's efforts so obviously determined, we predict for the new magazine a large circulation and successful career.

From northern and eastern papers we see where the thermometer is and has been bobbing around the 95 and 100 mark, and the hospitals are full of victims from heat prostrations. Meantime New Mexico people are just warm enough to be comfortable, and up near Raton they had a little snow storm on July 4th. Sunny New Mexico!

To those Americans who are already a little bit tired of politics, we would say, in the words of the poet, "Cheer up, the worst is yet to come."

An American won a cock fight in Mexico on July 4th by running in an eagle as a ringer. The losers are now probably eating crow.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

LITTLE ITEMS OF INTEREST TO PEOPLE OF THIS COMMUNITY

George Spence, Jr., is here from Corona for a few days.

Oliver Henderson, of Capitan, was here over night last Monday.

Charles Spence, of White Oaks, was here for a day or two this week.

Mrs. J. T. Dillon and Mrs. C. B. Mason were up to Capitan on Monday.

Messrs. Arthur and George Johnson spent last Sunday at Cloudcroft.

The ice plant is now on its good behavior, and is turning out a nice, clear product.

We are informed that Miss Lou Johnson is sick at her home northwest of town.

Ed. Chew, of White Oaks, was in Carrizozo yesterday shaking hands with Senator Andrews.

P. C. Baird and Charles Mason were in Ft. Stanton for a couple of days this week on business.

Chas. Stokes bought a residence lot in the McDonald Addition from J. B. Baird one day this week.

J. B. Baird returned several days ago from a business trip overland to Socorro, San Antonia and Carthage.

Ed. Kelley, in company with W. M. Stone, of Albuquerque, drove over to Lincoln on business last Monday.

Mrs. George Spence and daughter, Miss Grace, left for El Paso on Monday. They expect to stay there for several days.

Mrs. J. K. Martin, wife of the enterprising and popular blacksmith on north El Paso Ave., is quite ill with typhoid fever.

George Roslington is selling off his new addition in the Highlands at a fast rate. He has already disposed of several lots.

Miss Abbie Meeks, who has been quite sick for some time past, is in an improved condition, but is still under the doctor's care.

Sol. Wiener, of White Oaks, was through here yesterday on his way north and east, where he goes to order his winter stock of goods.

Mrs. A. D. Childers left here for Central Texas on Tuesday. She will join her husband there, and they will make that their future home.

Denny Custer, who has been employed in the Postoffice Barber Shop for nearly a year, left Monday for the north, and will probably locate in Kansas.

Johnnie and Willie Gallacher, of White Oaks, are here to take part in the ball game today. They are "regulars" and two justly popular young men.

Mrs. Mack McKenzie, who has been critically ill for some days, is reported as being much improved, and as having a good chance for ultimate recovery.

Mrs. Perea the wife of Francisco Perea, died at her home in East Carrizozo, early last Sunday morning. She was buried at the Carrizozo cemetery Monday.

Messrs. Ed. and Albert Pfingston, from near Nogal, were in Carrizozo for a day or two during the past week visiting their sister, Mrs. Mack McKinney, who has been quite ill.

Fred Brockway who has been ill for the past couple of weeks with a threatened attack of appendecitus, is convalescent to such an extent that he is once more able to be out.

Clay VanSchoyck, who suffered a broken leg in the ball game here on July Fourth, is getting along as well as could be expected. Clay says he expects to be out in a few days.

J. H. Boyd and family left yesterday for a week's outing on the Ruidoso. They expect to visit the Mescalero Indian Reservation and Tularosa before their return to Carrizozo.

Frank Coe has returned from a trip to the northern part of the territory, where he went to find a mardet for his apple crop. He will ship his first car about the first of August.

Mr. Albert Ziegler left on last night's train for his semi-annual trip east to buy goods. He expects to be gone about ten days and will visit St. Louis, Chicago and New York while gone.

Al. Roberts says there is no race suicide in his family. Another boy happened in last Sunday morning. Al says the young man speaks good Yiddish, but that as yet his English is a little jerky.

O. M. Sparks, of Tuscumbia, Ala, was here prospecting for several days recently. Mr. Sparks anticipates returning here about the first of the year with a party, all of whom will locate near here.

Messrs. Tom and George Tonjes, who are interested in the sheep business near White Oaks, left here on Tuesday for their old home in New York. They expect to stop in Chicago for a stay of a week or two.

C. E. Read has purchased a fine big range and is making preparations to open a restaurant, meals and short orders, at his place on El Paso Avenue. He expects to be in shape to open business by Tuesday of next week.

S. M. Folsom, District Manager for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee Wis., was in town on business during the first of the week. Mr. A. H. Harvey has accepted the local agency for the company.

Sheriff John Owens went through here Monday on his way to Santa Fe with three prisoners for the Territorial Penitentiary. The Sheriff also had a woman along who had been adjudged insane, and who he was taking to the asylum, at Las Vegas.

Manager Adams has received a request for dates from Manager W. R. Wayland, of the Clifton, Ariz., ball team. His team will pass through here on its way to Dawson some time next month, and he is desirous of stopping here for a series of games.

That the railroad company is about ready to do some extensive work on the water system was evidenced yesterday, when almost two carloads of mules and two cars of grading machinery went through here on their way to work on Watson Lake, at Nogal.

George Lee, two miles east of the town has one of the finest herds of pure Jersey cows we have seen for a long time. Mr. Lee conducts a dairy business, making two deliveries a day. He handles fine milk and tells us he could accommodate a few more customers.

Word has been received from Tom Crow, who is playing ball with the Carthage team. He seems to be pleased with his new berth, and says that when he isn't busy serving shoots, slants and benders to the club-swingers, he is overseeing a gang of coal diggers.

A jolly crowd composed of Misses Nellie McMain, Nettie Lee and Minnie Tapp and Messrs. Howard Hall, Harry Dawson and George Sharp, spent last Sunday in Water Canyon. They took a bountiful supply of eadibles, and spent the day climbing cliffs and taking pictures.

After several unsuccessful attempts and much expense, Mr. W. C. McDonald has succeeded in getting a dam in place across Carrizozo creek, at a point almost due west from the McDonald home. A succession of high waters and floods had greatly hampered the work ever since it started.

R. H. Rhea has entered and will from now on be permanently located in the room with Charles Estes' confectionery. Mr. Rhea is a practical tailor, and in addition to his cleaning and pressing business will do custom tailoring. He anticipates moving his family here at an early date.
