DELEGATE ANDREWS

ACCOMPANIED BY GOV. CURRY AND OTHER DISTINGUISHED GENTLEMEN VISITS LINCOLN COUNTY

At an early hour Sunday morning, after having ridden all night and a part of Saturday coming from Eastern Roosevelt county, Senator Wm. H. Andrews, accompanied by Gov George Curry, Hon. Jose Sena, Mayor of Santa Fe, Hon. Ralph Ely, of Deming, N. M., and Hon. Harry Sims, of Pecos, N. M., arrived in Carrizozo on No. 1.

Going to the hotel the party retired for a few hours rest and were up and at breakfast at 8 o'clock. Senator Andrews, on whom the weight of age is gradually creeping, was somewhat fagged by the stringent work he has been pursuing for the past several weeks, but was in excellent spirits and cordially met a number of old as well as new acquaintances. Gov. Curry and the balance of the party were feeling fine, and while they, too, had been traveling and losing sleep, they were less fatigued than was Senator Andrews.

After breakfast the entire party accompanied by Ira O. Wetmore, H. W. Hamilton, of Lincoln, W. F. A. Gierke, Postmaster B. F. Adams, of Corona, Republican Candidate for Surveyor of Lincoln County, F. E. Theurer and E. D. Fred of "The Outlook" entered carriages and were driven to Lincoln, stopping for an hour at Nogal, Gov. Curry met a number of his old acquaintances and the Senator made a number of new ones. Leaving Nogal at about 11 o'clock the party reached Capitan, where it stopped for a late dinner and on to Lincoln, reaching that point at about 5 o'clock.

With the arrival at the later place a great number of people met the distinguished guests, and hearty indeed was the words of welcome extended to Governor Curry by his old friends and abquaintances - men and women who knew George Curry as one of them, and knew him to-day as just the same George.

The party was generously entertained by the people of Lincoln and real hospitality was evidenced on all sides. Every effort was made by the people of the county site to make all feel at home and gloriously did that effort succeed.

On Monday morning the people of the surrounding country commenced to gather at an early hour and at 10 o'clock the court chamber was crowed. Excellent order was maintained and none of the orators had any trouble making themselves heard. The metting was called to order by Chairman of the Republican County Committee, H. W. Hamilton, who in a few well chosen words introduced to the people Hon. Wm. H. Andrews.

Mr. Andrews, assisted by Hon. Jose. Sena, gave a five-minute talk to the people and was generously applauded. With no attempt to orate, the art of which the Senator notoriousls lacks, he gave a straightforward business talk and it seemed to be just to the liking of the people.

Following Senator Andrews, Gov. Curry was introcuced. We say he was introduced but we realize that probably must people in the hall knew him as well and many far better than did the worthy chairman of the meeting. The hearty and spontaneous applause as Governor stepped out on the platform was really touching. Old men and aderly ladies who knew him as a young man and a business man among them were loud in their demonstration of welcome. The younger generation, having so many times heard his name spoken in their homes, and always in a manner to cause them to reverence its bearer, joined in the welcome. Touched, and noticably so, by this evidence of esteem, the Governor thanked them and assured them of the still living spirit of love he bore for his old home town and its people. He then told them in has own peculiar way of why he was out advocating the electoin of Senator Andrews for reelection. He gave them his reasons and told of the relative value, in his estimation, of Delegate Andrews to any other man we might select. His words were weighed, every one of them, and he spoke exactly what he thought, with no effort to make his subject an idol. The cheering at the close of his address was greater, if possible, than that at the time of his ascending the platform.

The next gentleman to address the assembly was Mr. Sena, who spoke in Spanish, and while we are not familiar with that tongue, we opine that he made a very favorable and telling talk being interrupted every little bit by applause. The native people were very much pleased and evidenced that pleasure in a very decided manner.

Following Mr. Sena the chairman introduced the Hon. Ralph Ely, of Deming, N. M., who delivered the principal talk of the day. Mr. Ely went into an exhaustive diagnosis of the political situation of the day and clearly defined his reason for favoring the election of Mr. Andrews, showing in a very intelligent manner his reason for believing our chances for the securing of statehood better with that gentleman's re-election than would it be were we to send Larrazolo or any other Democrat to represent us in Washington.

At the close of Mr. Ely's remarks everybody was invited to come forward and meet the Senator and Gov. Curry and no more welcome invitation could have been voiced. Men women and children came forward and these two gentlemem certainly experienced a busy half hour at handshaking.

After dinner the party, excepting Gov. Curry who remained behind and returned to Carrizozo Tuesday morning, drove to Capitan where a short meeting was held at Welch & Titsworth's store. Mr. Sims addressed the people and quite a pleasant hour was spent in a friendly general talk.

The crowd then boarded the waiting train and returned to Carrizozo arriving here for supper

In the evening at 8 o'clock a meeting was held at Wetmore's Hall. The committee on decoration had done itself proud and the hall was beautifully dressed in evergreens, pictures, and the good old stars and stripes. Music was furnished by the Carrizozo band and a chorus of some 12 or 14 voices. E. D. Fred was chairman of the evening and opened the program by asking the audiance to stand and join with the choir in singing that grand old song "America," which was done with a will.

Senator Andrews was introduced and in a few moments talk thanked his hearers for past favors, explained to a limited extent some of his actions of a political nature during the past two and a hal years, and asked to be excused. The people of Carrizozo, knowing the Senato, to be no orato, were not in the least disappointed, and were there to hear whoever was accompanying Mr. Andrews and certain it is that the following speaker was giten attention and appreciated. As soon as the chairman had introduced Mr. Ely and that gentleman had stepped forth the people were alert and in anticipation of something — and they got it. In one of the most clear, concise, forceful and convincing speeches ever delivered in Carrizozo by a man of either faith, devoid of gestures or belittling no one, Mr. Ely gave his audiance a plain and convincing talk on the statehood queston as he viewed it. Not once during his occupancy of the floor did he say one word deregatory to or casting reflection on any one. It was logic and common sence from beginning to end and an unanswerable argument in favor of Senator Andrews' election.

Next the Honorable Jose Sena, Mayor of Santa Fe, was introduced and after a few remarks in English, in which he cordially invited our people to visit his home town, he addressed the assembly in Spanish again eliciting much applause and approval to the native people present.

Following Mr. Sena came the Hon. Harry Sims, of Pecos, N. M., who in a few choice words and witty saying begged leave to be excused as the assembly had been well entertained and he was suffering from a severe cold.

The audiance was again requested to rise and sing "The Star Spangled Banner." Led by the chior this was handsomly done and the meeting closed by a vote of thanks to the choirsters.

As a fitting conclusion to the evenings entertainment, the seats were soon cleared from the floor, and a good old fashioned, free for all, dancing party convened. Carrizozo had the real article when it comes in young ladies who are congenial, and they certainly gave our guests a chance to enjoy themselves. Introductions over, everybody commingling with everybody else, with music from the Mexican orchestra the two step and waltz was given their turn in fact many turns. At about 12 o'clock the party broke up and disbanded.

This, in general is the story of Senator Andrews' visit to our county on this trip. Certain it is that our visitors were highly satisfied with our treatment of them. On Tuesday noon they took the train for Alamogordo, and mid hearty farewells at the depot bid good-bye to their friends.

No more pleasant or more congenial a crowd of politicians ever visited us, and it will be a long time before another such crowd of good fellows are with us again. We wish them every one good luck and heartily hope for and fully expect victory to crown their efforts.

SHOULD BE NON-POLITICAL

The office of Superintendent of Schools should be taken out of politics. There should be a law allowing the chairman of the district school boards to meet and elect the Superintendent. Politics is not allowed to be brought into the schools and it should not be required to trouble the mind of the head of the schools. His time and attention may much better be occupied in the actual duties of bettering the educational conditions for the children of the people.

Among the gentlemen who visited Lincoln county with Senator Andrews at the first of the week was Hon. Harry Sims, of Pecos, New Mexico. Mr. Sims is a young ranchman who is interested from a personal business point of view and is a strong and consistent worker for statehood. While he may be no more fluent as a talker than are many others, and while he may not have altogether original views of the matter, he has a decidedly characteristic and truly beneficial construction and delivery of his ideas. Not only does he bring forth some brilliant argument while delivering his talks, but he was distributing the following terse sentences on the back of his cards, handed out while on the trip.

ARE you a democrat? What good does it do you to be a democrat or republican either for that matter if you can't vote? Except for a few minor offices, you have no vote in a Territory.

NOW get into the band wagon and help us get Andrews so we can get statehood. Then you can be a democrat if you want to and your vote will count. Without statehood your vote count little.

DON'T believe anyone who says Andrews will not get statehood for us this winter. Enough Senators and Congressmen are pledged already to pass the statehood bill. The President says he will sign it.

REMEMBER this is no political fight. It is a fight for statehood. A democratic delegate can't get statehood from a republican House, Senate and President. A republican delegate can.

EVEN if Bryan should be elected the Senate will be republican and cannot be changed for six years. The republican Senate would not give statehood to a democratic delegate.

WE republicans want a chance to fight you democrats for the office of Governor and for all other offices out here. Neither of us are any good until we get statehood and can vote.

SO forget politics, boys, and help us get statehood. Then we will have politics. You know what statehood means to us all, so take a chance. Andrews, Governor Curry and President Roosevelt say we will get it this winter. Isn't their word good? You can't lose, anyway, so vote for ANDREWS!

A Democratic contemporary in one of the larger towns of the territory quotes one of our editorials and then in their comments on it refer to us as being a "little six months old sheet, edited by a broken down school-teacher." We feel honored to think that the "Big Blowhard" will notice us, but if he had as much gray matter under his hat as is in the head of the Jackass whose picture he runs at the head of his so-called editorial column, the editor would learn a few facts before attempting to roast us. While we are many times six-months old we don't care about our age, and as for being a broken-down school teacher, we have never had the honor of being a teacher at all, but if our "cub" with three months experience at sweeping and press cleaning couldn't get up a more readable paper than the above-said wooden head we would fire him. Bray, your male mule, bray. You noise is loud but dosn't bother the nerves. We like your attempt at writing, for we are compiling a book on "Asses Who Wear Clothes," and you will be the first one mentioned in the first chapter.

With election day but ten days off, and after having gone over the county in a very thorough manner, the candidates on the Republican ticket seem very well pleased with the appearance of things and sanquine of election. From all appearances visible from our point of view we are hopeful of the election of the ticket from top to bottom, and it certainly looks as if the people were going to vote for the candinate best qualified to fill the office. Naturally, "The Outlook" is prejudiced in favor of the Republican ticket, and just as natually, may allow itself to be a little too optimistic of the result, but we have striven to get at what will be the result and have accepted reports with what we considered the proper discount, and can conscientiously say that we believe that the election of the Republicans will occur on the third of next month. Such men as Stevens, Riegle, Watson, Hurt, Ortiz and Davis are not to be denied office, for their merit and worthiness is too well know. They are the men we want and the men we need.

Whether New Mexico has a Republican or a Democratic Delegate to Congress it will make a fight for statehood, and whether it is granted that honor or not, it is going to make great headway in the next few years, but its chances for advancement will be much greater as a state than at present, and the probabilities of its being granted a place among the sisterhood of states will be far more likely under the election of Mr. Andrews than if Larrazolo is elected. Every man who has a vote in this territory owes it to the territory, owes it to his neighbor, owes it to his family and friends, owes it to himself to go the polls on the third day of next month and vote for Andrews. It isn't politics, it isn't a personal matter, it isn't sentiment, it is business and sound judgement.

With every evidence of approaching defeat staring them in the face, with the last desperate effort characteristic of a drowning man, with a determination to "die a trying," the managers of the Democratic Territorial campaign are now resorting to their old and dastestible methods of trying to be smirch the character of the Republican nominee. Their malicious and and willful lies will make them no net gain, as more self-respecting Democrats will desert them than voters of less self-esteem will hover around them on account of their wild stories. However, this line of campaign is not new to them as they worked it here in this territory two years ago. Larrazolo and gang of managers recognise nothing as being below their plane if it will make them a vote.

Messrs. H. H. Meldon, of Ishpeming, Mich., and L. S. Newton, of Chicago, who were in Carrizozo for several days last week attending the meeting of the Michigan and New Mexico Mining Co., and assisting in settling up the estate of the late Wm. A. McIvers, have returned to their homes These gentlemen are mine promoters of no mean ability, and while here visited numerous sections of the surrounding mountain country prospecting. Among other places visited by them were the coal fields south os town, of which they were very favorably impressed. From remarks made by one of the gentlemen we are of the opinion they may locate a claim or two before a great length of time.

There seems to be almost universal demand for return to the old system of precinct road supervisions. The present arrangement of the business is pronounced a total failure. A man can scarcely ride over his field of labor in a week in this county, a whole commissioner district. One of the districts in Lincoln county is as large as the state of Deleware The roads are in the worst condition they ever have been.

A vote for Andrews is a vote for statehood.

A GOOD MAN

Note the least important office to be filled by the November election is that of a Councilman for 38th Legislative Assembly, and a good man is much needed for the position. The Republican party may well feel proud of its candidate for this office, and can rest assured of the duties of the office being well looked after in case of the election of its candidate. Mr. Henry Lutz, the Republican nominee is a man well qualified for the position and one who will do credit to the place. He is a successfull business man, he has a vast amount of experience to draw from, and is a practical man in every way.

Mr. Lutz is not a politician. He is a business man, standing high in his own community, and highly regarded by all who come to know him. He has, altogether through his efforts and honest dealing, acquired considerable of this world's goods and we can rest assured that if he is successful in being elected of having this particular office well fortified.
