LITTLE LOCAL ITEMS

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE PEOPLE OF THE COMMUNITY

Train despatcher TenEyck went to El Paso Wednesday.

C. M. Deal, of Coyote, was in town on Wednesday.

The new depot is under roof and will be ready for occupancy before many days.

Master Mechanic Gordon, of the E. P. & S. W., was up from El Paso Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira O. Wetmore left on Wednesday noon for a trip of a few days to El Paso.

Geo. W. Hall made another business trip to Roswell last Saturday night returning Tuesday morning.

We are informed that there will be no regular term of court in Lincoln county until next May.

County Clerk C. P. Downs was through here Sunday on his way to Santa Rosa to attend court.

Harry Little is building a neat little four room adobe house in the west end of town for N. B. Taylor.

W. Reiley left one day this week for a trip into the Sacramento mountains. He anticipates returning in about two weeks.

George Holland is remodeling the Stokes building on El Paso avenue and will move his restaurant into that building next week.

The very lastest reports at hand, and these that will probably be made official give Delegate Andrews a majority in the Territory of 727.

Geo. Roelington, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever, is convalescent and it is hoped that he will be able to be out in a very few days.

Dr. Reynolds, the Alamogordo denlist who has been in Carrizozo for the past week or two has opened an office over the bank and is now ready to treat your bad molars.

W. J. Corbett, the engineer, returned here this week and will resume his position on the railroad. Mr. Corbett has been making a trip through old Mexico since leaving here some weeks ago.

Frank English believes in improving his property. He has just finished planting and building guards about trees in front of his home and other lots owned by him.

Wm. F. A. Gierke left on Wednesday nights train for Beggs, Oklahoma, where he was called on business. He anticipates being gone for about ten days.

Ed Chew, the Andrews booster, of White Oaks, was in Carrizozo on Tuesday. Ed is wearing one of those "Taft" smiles, and they are the kind that never fade.

Attorney George Hall and son, Howard, have purchased a fine little bunch of well bred goats from Manager Barlow, of the Vera Cruz mines. There are about seven hundred head in the bunch and are a good looking lot.

Some little stir was caused here on Tuesday, when the Immigration Inspectors caused five cars loaded with siyler bullion to be laid out here awaiting the arrival of authority for opening the cars. The officers expected to find some chinamen in the cars, but when opened Tuesday night the alarm proved to be a false one.

Fireman Gordon Gunn met with a slight accident at Capitan on Monday. While firing the engine the large King-bolt fastening the engine and tender broke, the two parts seperated and Mr. Gunn fell in between, but luckily, was not seriously hurt. A physician was called to attend him at Capitan, but he was able to fire the engine back home.

Geo. Spence was in Duran and Santa Rosa on business several days during the week.

C. T. Wright, of Greenville, Michigan, president of the Vera Cruz Mining Co., returned to his home Wednesday after a business trip of a week's duration in this community.

Engineer Frank Burke left last night for Duran and will take the switch engine in the yards there.

Manager Barlow, of the Vera Cruz mines was in town yesterday. He informs us that he expects to have the mines running by the first of the year.

Messrs. Parker, Frank Gray, P. C. Baird and W. D. Gray, spent several days of last week deer hunting in the hills west of the mal pais. They report having had a fine time and brought back a fine buck which dressed over two hundred pounds.

P. C. Baird, H. S. Campbell, Walker Hyde and Irwin Gray left yesterday on a hunting trip over in Socorro county. They expect to be gone for about four or five days.

Bert Gwin, a fireman, who worked out of this place, but was transfered to Tucumcari, was called back and will work here again.

Watchman Kirby, who had been in Tucumcari for a few days is back here again in his old position as railroad watchman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller have returned to their home, four miles east of town, after a visit of about two weeks with friends and relatives at Roswell.

Fireman C S. Stump, who has been on the extra board in El Paso, was transfered to Carrizozo and will work on the switch engine.

Dr. Sugg, who has been in Carrizozo for the past few months and who bought the practice of Dr. Bagby when the latter gentleman left Carrizozo, has in turn sold his practice to Dr. E. B. Walker, of Hagerman, N. M. Dr. Walker has been in the Pecos Valley city for about three years, having gone there from San Antonio, Texas. Dr. and Mrs. Walker have taken up thier residence in the Henry home, formerly occupied by Dr. Sugg, while the latter, accompanied by his wife will leave for the east in a few days.

Mrs. E. D. Fred was on the sick list this week.

Rumor has it that a number of Carrizozo young people are preparing to give a dramatic play some time in the near future for the benefit of the City Schools. We wish them great success in their attempt.

OFFICIAL COUNT

REPUBLICANS GAIN MATERIALLY AS OFFICIAL COUNT PROGRESSES

When the various ballot boxes were opened and the official count was made by the County Commissioners, at their meeting on last Monday, a different phase was put on the election. As a result of this count the Republicans are jubilating, as one or two officials of that political faith who were considered as being defeated, were shown to have been elected.

The one most interesting and closely run contest was between Hurt and Chavez for Assessor, the former winning out by the smallest majority of one vote.

The balance of the count shows as follows: For Andrews 50; Lucero Probate Judge, 23; J. G. Riggle, Clerk, 31; Stevens, Sheriff, 62; Watson, Treasurer, 39; Theurer, Surveyor, 41. The Democrats who were successful, and their majorities were: Taylor, Commissioner, 63; Wingfield, Commissioner, 13; Haley Superintendent of Schools, 76.

Hewitt carried this county by 43 and Otero county by 58, but lost Torrance county by 230, hence Henry Lutz is the victor in that race by a fair majority.

Taken as a whole Lincoln county has a set of officers in which she can take pride, and with such men in charge of the county business we should advance by rapid strides.

TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT

The disposition to put the liquor traffic under more rigid restraint, is steadily gaining force all the time, and in all parts of the country. Proposed laws for prohibition, local option or high license, were voted on in a number of places at the late election, and in all cases so far heard from such proposed laws have been endorsed by the voters at the polls, by very positive majorities.

A dispatch from Union, South Carolina, says prohibition carried that county by a majority of three hundred, out of a total of fifteen hundred votes cast. An Associated Press report from Columbus, Ohio, says twenty-seven saloons in Green county, nineteen in Williams county and seventy-two in Trumbull county, were closed by the result of the recent election, making 1,045 all told that have been put out of business in that state under the new county option law. And a report from Michigan tells that one of the big towns of that state now pays the whole of its municipal expenses from revenue derived from the saloons, under the high license law, having no tax upon the property of the town whatever, for municipal purposes.

The twenty-four saloons in Albuquerque now pay just one-half the expenses of running the city government, and the temperance advocates are preparing to make a campaign in favor of higher license at the next city election.

THE LABOR ISSUE

Mr. Taft's Indiana speech set forth in terms which can not be misunderstood where the next president stands on the labor question. He declaredth at the worker had the right to stop work when he pleased, for any reason or for no reason; that he could unite with his fellows and strike; that he could support with funds those who were on strike, and that it was his right to make himself as powerful, by united action, as his employer, by any lawful means. But he had no right to destroy the property of his employer and no legal or moral right to institute or to use secondary boycotts.

The administration of James Buchanan, away back in the middle of the last century, is ancient history to the men of the present day, and yet Grover Cleveland was the only man that the democratic party has been able to elect to the presidency since the election of Buchanan, fifty-two years ago. We are told by the poet that "Hope springs eternal in the human breast" and the persistency with which the democratic party postpones from term to term its long over-due interment, tends to convince the world that the line quoted is truth as well as poetry.

The best political health of the country demands that the two great parties shall be so evenly matched in strength that when the one in power goes contrary to the public will, the people will supercede it with the other, but that never can be as long as the two parties are divided by the present alignment. The southern people are prejudiced against the republican party, because that party prosecuted the war which prevented the disruption of the federal union, and while they have practically outgrown all feeling of hostillity toward the people of the north on that account, their prejudice against the republican party still exists to a sufficient extent to prevent a majority of them from voting with that party under any circumstances. And the existance in the south of this prejudice against the republican party, serves to keep alive a like prejudice in the north against the democratic party, and since the north is so much stronger than the south there is no reasonable probability that the democratic party will be able, under existing conditions, to wield any greater influence in shaping the course and policy of the nation during the next half century than it has had during the half century just past.

Therefore, for thier own good, as well as for the good of the country at large, the democratic leaders should be willing to abandon their present alignment of prejudice, and co-operate with the thousands of good men in the north who would chiefully unite with them in the work of building up a new and strong oppisition party, under some other name and upon lines of principle. But so long as the democratic party continues to force the division of the people upon lines of prejudice, it must expect to remain in the minority. Let it wake up, and recognize the fact that the war is over.

An idea of what the condition in a business sense is in various parts of the country may be had from the following dispatch to various daily papers througout the country:

New York, November 7.—A flood of buying orders which poured in on brokers last night, sent prices soaring on the stock exchange today, and brought scenes of activity, the like of which has not been witnessed for many months. So strong was the bullish movement that in some instances prices jumped upwards a point at a time on single sales.

New York Central rose five points on a few purchases and steel forced itself to 55 1-2, the highest price ever touched by that stock. Many stocks rose one and two points.

There was no definite single piece of news to account for the extreme activity, but speculation was evidently stimulated by reports from all sections of the country of the receipt of large orders by manufacturers, of the rapid expansion of wholesale and retail lines and a large number of workers being employed.

The big advance in New York Central stocks is attributed in part to the rumor that E. H. Harriman is soon to become a factor in the control of that system. Neither confirmation nor denial of the report was to be had today.

In addition to having been a year of marvelous growth for eastern New Mexico, 1908 has been noteworthy also on account of the destruction wrought by wind and water in that part of the territory, says the Santa Fe New Mexican. In Union county, Folsom and Clayton suffered fatalities and great loss of property from wind and flood, in Roosevelt county, Sunnyside was partly destroyed by a tornado, and now Tucumcari, Quay county, reports a storm that caused loss of life and property. To old-timers this appears like a climatological change for it was New Mexico's boast formely that it suffered less from floods and wind than any other commonwealth. But this is a fallacy. The eastern plains and mesas have been always swept by severe gusts of winds but formerly there were no towns and homes to destroy, no newspapers to report tornadoes and cyclones, and therefore the impression of immunity, which however, was only apparent and not real, has been prevalent.

A new plant established by the war department in New Jersey is said to possess the capacity of turning out half a ton of modern powder daily at a cost considerably less than the price demanded by the combination of powder making factories headed by the Du Ponts. The department of justice is now engaged in prosecuting a suit against the so-called "Powder Trust," and Senator Du Pont's connection with that concern is held to have been responsible for his retirement from a prominent position in the management of the Republican preidential campairn. Whether this suit is successful or not, there would seem to be good reason why the government should undertake the work of supplying at least a large portion of the powder it requires for military and naval purposes.

A postoffice has been established at Cedarvale, Torrance county to be served from Corona, twelve miles to the southwest, and Pinos Wells, seven miles to the northeast. Olive P. DeWolfe has been appointed postmaster.

"The Outlook "Company" announces, upon a chastely engraved card that "Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, will on Mar. 5, 1909, become a member of the editorial staff of the Outlook, which will thereafter be the exclusive channel for his writings on Political, Social and Industrial Topics."—Albuquerque Journal.

Now we want it understood that this don't refer to the "Carrizozo Outlook." We dont wish to be placed in any compromising position hence this denial.

LATEST AUTO RULES

The following is the new code agreed upon for the season of 1908 by the Farmer's Anti Auto Protective Society, which has just held its annual convention in the different states of the Union:

1. On discovering an approaching team, the automobilist must stop off-side and cover his machine with a tarpaulin painted to correspond with the scenery.

2. The speed limit on country roads this year will be secret, and the penalty for violation will be $10 for every mile an offender is caught going in excess of it.

3. In case an automobile makes a team run away the penalty will be $50 for the first mile, $100 for the second, $300 for the third mile, etc., that the team runs; in addition to the usual damages.

4. On approaching a corner where he cannot command a view of the road ahead, the automobilist must stop not less than 100 yards from the turn, toot horn, ring a bell, fire a revolver, haloo, and send up bombs at intervals of five minutes.

5. Automobiles must again be seasonably painted—that is, so they will merge with the pastoral ensemble and not be startling. They must be green in spring, golden in summer, red in autumn and white in winter.

6. Automobilists running on country roads at night must send up a rocket every mile and wait ten minutes for the road to clear. They may then proceed carefully, blowing their horn and shouting Roman candles.

7. In case an automobile comes up behind and wants to pass, the farmer will affect deafness until the automobilist calls him a hard name.

8. All members of the Society will give up Sunday to chasing automobiles, shouting, shooting at them, making arrests and otherwise discouraging country touring on that day.

9. In case a horse will not pass an automobile, notwithstanding the scenic tarpaulin the automobilist will take the machine apart as rapidly as possible, and conceal the parts in the grass.

10. In case an automobile approaches a farmers house when the roads are dusty, it will slow down to one mile an hour, and the chauffer will lay the dust in front of the house with a hand sprinkler worked over the dashboard.

CHINAMEN CAUGHT

IN SOUTHWESTERN DINING CAR AT CARRIZOZO

Two Chinamen were caught in a dining car of the Southwestern as the train stopped at Carrizozo Sunday night, the capture being made by immigration inspectors Johnson of El Paso, and Curtis and Sensuer, of Carrizozo.

The immigration authorities at El Paso had information when the Golden State Limited left El Paso at 1:15 Sunday afternoon that the Chinamen were secreted on the train but as there was no time then to make a search the train was allowed to go out with them, though inspector Johnson went along, carrying with him an order from the railroad officials which would permit the immigration authorities to hold the train at Carrizozo as long as might be necessary to make a satisfactory search and, after arriving, assisted by the officials stationed at Carrizozo, Inspector Johnson went through the train, finaly locating the men snugly secreted in the diner.

The Southwestern railroad officials gave the immigration officers all the assistance possible in capturing the men.

This is the first time Chinamen have been found secreted in a dining car since last summer, when a bunch was found on the Golden State Limited, and the employes of the car were promptly let out by the railroad officials.

It is said part of the dining car crew were jailed at Tucumcari.

The chinks were found hidden in a bread box and the officers held them here until early Monday morning, when they were taken to Alamogordo and jailed, pending a hearing in the near future.

CORN CULTURE IN THE VALLEY

The writer has carefully watched the growing of corn in the valley for two summers and will tell what he has observed.

That the valley will never raise corn like the middle states is certain, but that corn can be grown, and successfully too, is a fact experience has proven. However, in speaking of successful corn growing it must be remembered that we are limited to the flint corns and a few very early dent varieties.

Last spring when it was about time to plant the writer sent for all the seed catalogues and other pamphlets which gave a little light on Western corn growing. After making a careful study of the whole matter two dent varieties were decided on as giving the best chance for success, these were Swadley Field Corn and Colorado Yellow Dent as advertized by the Barteldes Seed Co., of Denver. Both of these varieties have been grown successfully in Colorado for a number of years. The writer at once ordered some of this corn for himself and some for his neighbor. This seed was planted the first week in May. Everyone knows that the month of May and June gave us anything but favorable weather, but in spite of this both kinds began to tassel about July 4th and immediately after started silks. During July and August it developed nicely and by September first almost half the Swadley corn was ready to cut and the Colorado Yellow Dent was only a week or so behind. As the soils on which the two kinds were grown were of equal fertility the writer feels positive that this is the order in which they ripen. As the weather was still favorable the Swadley was not cut until September 14th and the other until September 21 st, however, if necsary both kinds could have been cut ten days sooner with scarcely any reduction in the amount of hard corn.

The writer finds that the Swadley corn has fully matured all of its ears and the other has a very small percentage not fully matured. One great advantage is that these two corns being Western grown are thoroughly adapted to our weather conditions and on this account will not sucker.

The writers conclusions are that these corns can be planted in the valley year after year and made to produce an average of 25 to 30 bushels per acre, and on the best soils even forty or more. This does not look good as compared with 60 and 70 bushels back home but the difference in price will make up for some of the shortage.

WORKING AN OLD GAME

A man giving the name of McDonald has been operating a skin game on the people of the neighborhood of Coyote and Corona. He is representing himself as being a subscription solicitor for this paper and is collecting subscriptions.

We are in no wise responsible for his actions and he is in no manner connected with this office. He has no authority to pose as being so, and is in short a fake.

When last heard of he was among the good people of Corona and from all accounts was quite successful in working them for their money.

SOUTHWESTERN NEWS NOTES

The annual gathering of the Baptist Association of Arizona is now in progress in Tucson with a large attendance of ministers and members of the church from all over the territory.

One Juan Piñero was brought into Alamogordo Friday by Deputy Sherif Fred Crosby on the charge of exercising the inalienable American privilege of shooting up the polling place at Three Rivers. He now languishes in the jug.

The Chicago White Sox, it is said, are seeking an engagement to stop off at Tucson next Spring and do a few stunts for the pleasure of the fans of that city, and to limber up the Windy City boys during their long transcontinental drag.

Jesse Ake, a cowboy, suspected of being the man who roped Ramon Aragon off the top of a train at Lava and broke his neck, is now being pursued by officers in the vicinity of the Organ mountains of Dona Anna county. It is believed Ake was howling drunk when he lassoed the unsuspecting railroad man.

Roy Knabenshue, the famous aeronaut, who is to make ascensions at Phoenix during the territorial fair, has his gas generating apparatus already and is prepared to soar like a buzzard for the benefit of awed thousands at the fair. Mr. Knabenshue, it is understood, will take people up whenever they wish to ascend.

Miss Alice C. Fletcher and Professor Edgar L. Hewitt, both among the most prominent archaeologists of the country, have been in Santa Fe for some time past favorably considering that ancient burg as the site for the proposed national archaeological museum.

Trailing continuously for three days and three nights without stopping for rest and then finding a herd of 400 goats c aimed to have been stolen was the act accomplished by Ranger Bud Snow and Inspector William Speed of Wilcox, Ariz. As a result of the good work done by these two officers David Roberts and Con Sullivan are under arrest, charged with the theft of the herd of goats.

Some time ago while J. Lafon Jr., one of the cruising party was working near the Tonto Basin rim, he was attacked by a mountain lion. Having only one cartridge in his pistol he climbed a tree. Just as the lion was crouching to spring at him he put a bullet in her brain. Without waiting for further developments he started for camp making record time and carring his hat. Next day he returned accompanied by others of the party. While skinning the lion the cubs came up and they killed four of them.

They are three features of New Mexico's advancement during the past year and its glorious promise for the future. During the past three years over 3,000,000 acres of public land were homesteaded in New Mexico, besides this 1,000,000 acres were taken up under the desert land act. Nevertheless, there remains in the public domain 50,000,000 acres more at least, 35,000,000 of which are arable, fertile and just as good as land now under irrigation and cultivation. On these 50,000,000 acres the average rainfall each year is over 14 inches while in eastern counties of Roosevelt and Quay it is greatly in excess of this amount. Last year the factories of the territory turned out goods to the amount of value of $6,000,000, a mere pittance when it is considered that New Mexico alone consumes $60,000,000; of manufactured goods a year. It has 150,000 acres of coal seams (9,000,000 acres of coal in sight, that can be mined from 92 cents to 1.20 a ton.
