LITTLE LOCAL ITEMS

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE PEOPLE OF THE COMMUNITY.

Mr. and Mrs. "Si" Perkins are in El Paso for a few days shopping.

George Roslington was out of town for a few days during the week.

Buy your Christmas candies, nuts and fruits at Peoples Bros. Cash Store.

Frank Rolland, of Alamogordo spent a day or two of this week in Carrizozo.

Conductor Eugene Schaeffer was in El Paso for a few days during the week on business.

Mrs. Andy Anderson returned on Wednesday evening from a visit of a few days in El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Whittingham are in El Paso for a few days doing their Christmas shopping.

The world loves a cheerful liar a whole lot better than it does a grouchy, melancholy saint.

Johnny Baird was over from Fort Stanton to spend Sunday with the folks and meeting old friends.

Ira O. Wetmore was a business visitor to Alamogordo for a couple of days during the past week.

Italy has a surplus in her treasury. Probably that is why so many Italians prefer to pay taxes in America.

Mrs. A.H. Harvey entertained Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pearce and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Fred at dinner on Wednesday.

Remember that your $$ will buy more Christmas goods at Peoples Bros. Store than in any other store in town.

Francis Canning, who has been attending college at Mesilla Park, has been at home for the past ten days on a visit.

Is Roosevelt the only honest man in public life? Anxiously inquires the New York World. Such a question, and from Pulitzer, too!

The

Pastime Club

Are preparing to show everybody a good time at their dance at Wetmore's Hall on Christmas night. Some lucky person will draw a One Hundred Dollar Phonograph.

Come Join Us

General Foreman J. F. Kimbell and wife were in El Paso for a few days during the past week, returning home Wednesday night.

Are you going to see the Loaf? What Loaf? "The Last Loaf," At Wetmore's Hall. Wednesday night Dec 23. Prices 25 and 35 cents.

The Reflectoscope—the great home entertainer. A magic lantern that needs no slides. On exhibition at the Pioneer Jewelry Store.

The Wild Cat Leasing Company, of White Oaks, unloaded from the cars at this place a fine big steel smoke stack for use at their property.

Miss Francis McDonald, who has been attending school at Denver, Colo., returned home the first of the week to spend the Christmas holidays.

There is nothing in the world more conducive to real happiness than knowing what you do not need and then making no effort to get it.

We are authorized to announce that from this time on the services of the Methodist church will be held the upstairs west room of the school building.

Those young folks up at White Oaks are preparing to hold another of their famous dancing parties in their hall on Christmas night. They invite all to attend.

The new depot is now partially occup'ed but it will be a few days yet before it will be filled. We now have the finest depot between Tucumcari and El Paso.

H. W. Kelly, representing the New Mexico Wool Growers Association, claims that the cost of raising sheep has increased and asks to have the tariff on wool retained.

The New York World is to be pitied. Having opened its guns on the president, it suddenly finds itself very short of ammunition with the Ananias club stealing upon its rear guard.

An Edison Phonograph or a Victor Talking machine makes a Christmas present good all the year round. Prices range from $10 to $200.

Stop in at Humphrey's and hear the latest records.

President-elect Taft has said in terms which leave no doubt that the Republican party must redeem its pledge and make a revision of the tariff system, and Big Bill usually means what he says.

It will be pleasing to most people to hear that the good, old American hen has recovered from her grouch and is laying eggs as of yore. However we still pay enough for the "fruit" to make the task irksome.

As we are ready to go to press we are informed of the sudden death of Mr. Frank Colfee, of Three Rivers, who has been for the past few weeks in Mexico. We have been unable to learn any of the particulars.

The many friends of Squire H. B. Tompkins were more than pained to learn of his serious affliction with Pneumonia during the past week. We are informed of his being in a serious condition at this time.

Arthur Rolland and Mrs. Margaret Roslington were married in El Paso, Texas, on last Monday afternoon. Rev. Mr. McCloud, of the First Presbyterian church, of that city performed the ceremony.

Passengers who have been in the habit of using Nos. 3 and 4 between here and El Paso now miss the chair cars on those trains. Since the 16th of the month these trains have been running as solid vestibuled trains. There is nothing significant in the action of the road in taking these cars off at this time, as they do so every winter, placing them back on when spring comes.

Among those who have filed on homesteads at the local land office during the past week were Willie E. Smith, of El Paso, Texas, and Charles E. Britton, of Ancho. These gentlemen filed on adjoining claims in the vincinty of Ancho.

Mrs. Ed Coe has undertaken the task of organizing a local Rebekah Lodge. There is some good timber for such in Carrizozo and Mrs. Coe will doubtless succeed in organizing a fine branch of the Odd Fellows auxialliary here.

From all indications the boys of the Pastime Club are going to have the biggest and best dance on Christmas night that Carrizozo has ever had. Everybody is invited to attend and help in making this a good time long to be remembered.

The Christmas exercises of the Methodist Sunday School will be held at the school building on Thursday night, December 24th. Every body caring to place presents on the tree for the children are cordially invited to avail themselves of that privilege.

J. K. Martin during the past week purchased a fine lot of Wm. Kahler on the corner of Fifth street and Alamogordo avenue and has started the erection of a building on it. When completed the building will be occupied by Mr. Martin as a blacksmith shop.

R. M. Parsons, of Roswell, came in on No. 1 this morning. Mr. Parsons is Deputy Grand Lecturer of the Masonic Order of New Mexico, and comes here for the purpose of examining the principal officers of the local lodge of that order as to their proficiency.

Don't allow yourself to miss the big free Christmas tree to be held in Wetmore's hall on Christmas eve. All arrangements have been made for music by the band and everybody is invited to attend and bring along any presents they may wish to give any of their friends.

The Womens Home Mission Society will hold a Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, December 19th, at the old Ziegler building, on Alamogordo Ave. Many dainty and useful articles, suitable for Christmas gifts will be displayed and for sale and one and all are requested to attend the sale.

At the earnest solicitation of his many friends Mr. S. W. Perry, the genial and accommodating manager of the Foxworth Galbraith Lumber yard, has consented to become a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace at the coming election. Mr. Perry is well a favorably know to all of our people and, if elected, would doubtless make a good official.

SCHOOL BENEFIT

The school board has put forth every effort to make the new building one of the best in New Mexico, but for the lack of funds has been unable to properly equip it. The teachers are surely in need of some maps, a globe, a dictionary and a small reference library, and to supply these necessities a Dramatic Club has been organized and will give a series of plays during the year.

The first number will be given Dec. 23 at Wetmore's Hall. Make up materials and costumes have been ordered and a stage is being erected that the final rehearsals may be held there

The entertainment will last about two and one half hours. And is headed by a bright college play by five of the school girls. Following this will be an eight character Drama entitled "The Last Loaf." General admission will be 25 and 35c but a number of seats have been reserved and will be placed on sale at Rolland's Drug Store and Ziegler Bros'. Store.

The Club extends to all a cordial invitation and hopes to give value received.

SCHOOL NOTES

Some of the shool girls have organized a basket ball team and will begin practicing in the near future.

There have been 208 enrolled in the Carrizozo Schools with an average attendance, the past month, of 177. All grades are represented from the 1st to the 8th. Let the people boost for the first year High School work next year. Quite a nice sized class are going to prepare for it by the close of of this term.

Prof. Collins is thinking of starting an elocution class the first of the year. The course will include drills in breathing, voice exercises and pantomimic expression as well as a study of choice selections of literature, and will consist of a general class for drills and private instruction on the literary selections.

Schools will close Dec. 24 and take up again the first Monday in January.

THE NEWSPAPER GUY

"I see a man pushing his way through the lines of cops where the 'fire fiends' shines." "The Chief?" I inquire—but a fireman replies, "Oh no! He's one of those newspaper guys."

I see a man walk through the door of a show, where great throngs are blocked by the sign "S. R. O." "Is this man the star that no ticket he buys?" "Star nothing! He's one of these newspaper guys."

I see a man start on the trail of a crook, and he scorns the police, but he brings him to book; "Sherlock Holmes?" I inquire — someone scornfully cries, "Sherlock H——! Naw, he's one of dese newspaper guys."

And some day I'll pass by the "Gates of Gold," and see a man pass through unquestioned and bold. "A saint?" I'll ask, and old Peter'll reply: "No, he carries a pass—he's a newspaper guy."

The windows of the local stores are now displaying nice lines of christmas things. Everything from the wooley little sheep on wheels, for the baby, to a big muffler for grandpa and a yarn nucba for grandma is there on exhibition.

Oklahoma may have its good points, but with floods in winter and floods in spring and cyclones in summer and fall, the lot of the average Oklahoman is a delightfully uncertain one, even at its best.

When a bit of sunshine hits ye, after passin of a cloud, When a fit of laughter gits ye, an yer spine is feelin proud, Dont fergit to up an fling it, at a soul thats feelin blue, For the minit that ye sling it its a boomerang to you."

—Capt. Jack Crawford.

Say, now, deer peopul, let's try it. Wotjersay.

Major General Bell says the army is unprepared for war. This is the same old story we heard before the late war, before the Civil war, before the Revolution, yet and nothwithstanding the old army has never been licked, except in the newspapers or by the war department. The one peculiar thing about the boys in blue is that they are seemingly always ready for a scrap, yet never seeking one.

During the past week our citizens have been subjected to a game of "Tag, you're it," by the Road Tax Collector. Of course this is all right, but we should be allowed to know what becomes of the cash collected. After the collector turns it over to the proper authorities one never hears from it, and as the collections this year will amount to about $700 or $800 in this district, it is worth looking after. If this money is really expended in bettering the condition of the surrounding roads, all well and good, but there is great need for such work and if this $3.00 per man is switched in another course it is unjust.

We shall see what we shall see.

Moriarity is to have a bank of its own within sixty days, the fourth bank to be established in the Estancia valley in the past year. Ten years ago the man who would have predicted a dozen prosperous settlements for the Estancia valley and four banks in its principal towns would have been looked at as either a visionary or a fool. The New Mexican remembers well when it sent a special correspondent over the Santa Fe Central Railway as it was being built and how its exchanges ridiculed it for the glowing pictures it drew of the future of the Estancia valley. And yet, every one of these predictions have become true in the course of less than half a decade and the country seems only to have commenced growing.—New Mexican. Correct you are Max, but this is New Mexico, and you can't just always tell what will happen.

Just at this time, when congress seems to be disposed to open the door and let us come in—the door at which the territory has been knocking for fifty-eight years—the following paragraph from the history of New Mexico will be read with interest:

"A move for state government was made early in 1850, and in June a legislative assembly, a member of congress and state officers were elected. The state officers qualified, and the legislature met on the first day of July and entered upon the performance of the duties indicated. Pending a controversy between the new government thus attempted to be organized, and the existing military government, news arrived of the long awaited and expected action of congress granting an organic act for the territory of New Mexico. The action of congress was in accord with the peoples' wishes, as represented in the convention of 1848; the state government at once lost its force and was dropped. Wm. S. Messervy, who had been elected a member of Congress under the state movement, was admitted to a seat in congress as a delegate, thus becoming the first delegate in congress from the territory of New Mexico. Under the organic act enacted by congress September 9, 1850, James S. Calhoun was formally inaugurated governor of the territory, on the third day of March, 1851."

When the end of all things have come, and Gabriel bloweth his horn, it is generally supposed that there will be a "grand reckoning" and each of us poor mortals will be given his just deserts. Then Oh joy, the poor country editor will "get his'n." If there is a one position or vocation followed by mankind that is more trying or more harassed we have failed to have been "put next." If the country editor fails to announce the arrival of a new baby at Jones' he is prejudiced. If he doesn't put a scare head over Smith's wedding notice it is because he is a friend of Brown's and Brown and Smith are on the outs. If he tells about Johnson being kicked by a mule Williams gets sore, Johnson and Williams are not the best of friends. Last week we published a little article of news that was news. It was an item that had some significance and concern. We run it under the head of "Wetmore Wins," and then went on and stated that Mr. Wetmore had been re-appointed as postmaster here. Two or three of our friends who are not personal friends of Mr. Wetmore, took exception to our writings and took us to task for our item. They immediately sought us out and told us we should be more careful in "boosting" one man and "knocking" another. Now the truth of the matter is that we were neither boosting nor knocking either. We were doing our best to publish the news. We have no more reason to try to advance the purposes or cause of Mr. Wetmore's interests than we have in that of any other citizens (general opinion to the contrary notwithstanding) and if you think we wont publish good news about you or your friends, regardless of who you are, you just phone us the article and try us. We are glad to "boost" every one of you and will refrain from "knocking" on any one. We want a united support and all the news we can get and if your share is not here it is not because we are prejudiced against you but from the lack of hearing the news. Just try us and don't holler until you give us a test.

N. M. THE BEST YET

The following is from the columns of the Roswell Register-Tribune:

Col. Max Frost, editor of the Santa Fe New Mexican and chief booster for New Mexico has returned from a trip to Chicago, New York, and other eastern cities whither he went on business and to recieve medical treatment. Col. Frost gives a very lenghty very interesting description of his trip in the New Mexican of Saturday. He says that the great eastern cities are all right in their way but he is glad to be back in La Villa Rael de Santa Fe. He says:

"Here the sunshine is of the finest quality on God's green earth, the air is ozonic, pure, health-preserving. The scenery is the grandest on the North American continent; the historical, ethnological, and archaeological objects are more interesting and more in number than in any other part of Uncle Sam's dominions.

"Most of the people in Santa Fe are very genial, courteous, kindly, public-spirited and nice to meet. As there must be drawbacks in all human affairs there are some backbiters, tax dodgers and knockers here also, whose presence could well be dispensed with. As there is no rose without its thorns Santa Fe must have some of these disagreeable classes."

NEW MEXICO'S COAL

New Mexico has eight thousand square miles of coal lands, representing wealth of which figures can convey no adequate idea to mind. These coal lands are the key to a future industrial developement that will cause this territory to rival any of the manufacturing states of the east. Had New Mexico nothing else to fall back upon but the coal she possesses, her future is assured. But this territory is so indefinitely blessed in many other respects that it is bound to become one of the most important states in the Union industrially, in population and in wealth.—Tucumcari Sun.

MORE CAPITAL

New Mexico is again the gainer in a big land deal. Another big irrigation project within her borders is under way. The Denver Times says: "David H. Moffat, who for the past nine years has been half owner of the old Costilla land grant, in northern New Mexico, has sold his interests to Charles J. Hughes, Jr., a syndicate of Boston bankers and well known Colorado capitalists. The new owners are preparing to spend $2,000,000 in developing the land, which comprises 500,000 acres of the richest soil in the west. The Costilla Estates Land Development company was incorporated yesterday for that purpose.

The land lies on the northern border of New Mexico, adjoining Colorado, in Taos county.

When Mr. Moffatt sold his interests a party of Boston capitalists became interested in the deal. Ches J. Hughes, J., increased his holdings, and former Congressman Franklin J. Brooks of Colorado Springs, became a part owner. The plans were then made to develope the land, put in irrigation projects, construct power plants and put the estate on the market. It will be done under a Colorado and Nevada corporation. The incorporators are Gerald Hughes, Fred G. Moffat, Franklin Brooks, Horace G. Lunt and H. Alexander Smith.

The windows of the local stores are now displaying nice lines of christmas things. Everything from the wooley little sheep on wheels, for the baby, to a big muffler for grandpa and a yarn nueba for grandma is there on exhibition.

FOR LARGER HOMESTEADS.

A wiseacre congressman from Wyoming is doing all in his power to get a revision of the Homestead Laws. The following item concerning the matter is self-explanatory:

"Washington, Dec. 15.—Efforts are being made by Mondell, of Wyoming, to smooth the way this session for the passage of his bill which would increase the quantity of land that may be taken for a homestead from 160 to 320 acres. At present this bill is on the speaker's table where it was left last session, but the Wyoming representative is considering ways to revive it. An effort is being made to prevail upon Howland, who as a member of the committee on public lands, led the fight against the bill, to withdraw his opposition, but he has manifested a disposition to stand firm.

It is nauseating to read, day after day, in the territorial press, "What would be a suitable name for New Mexico when it becomes a state?" Some suggest Lincoln as an appropriate name. But why Lincoln? What did Lincoln ever do for New Mexico? Why change the name, state or no state? However, it is not a state yet, anyway, which reminds us of the old-time recipe of how to cook a rabbit. You first catch your rabbit, and then——:—Carrizozo News. Correct, Bro. Haley. And we don't care whether the rabbit is fried, stewed, fricaceed, hashed, baked, smothered in onions, well done or rare, so long as we have "rabbit" and its good.
