

and could not find one in the books, better than the one I have formulated. I hope this will be found sufficient as to form, amount, and sufficiency of securities. The case is one which, upon its face, would not seem to require a bond till motion had been made in the cause, but fearing it might be required by his honor, under it to avoid delay. If addition^d bond is desired, we will furnish it at once under penalty of injunction being dissolved if not immediately complied with.

Please file this complaint, and lay the same before his honor, with "Exhibit A," and the memoranda inclosed, and state to his honor, that I earnestly request that he give the matter his earliest action practicable. The matter is of great importance to the complainant, and delay will be of great and probably irreparable detriment to him.

Assuming that the writ of injunction will be ordered; will state, that you can send the subpoena & writ of injunction to be served upon William T. Thornton to
