To the Voters of New Mexico:

During the two months of the present campaign candidates on the Republican state ticket have been subjected to a rising flood of villification, slander and personal abuse from the Democratic candidates, their campaign managers and their newspapers. The campaign these men have made from the platform and through their newspapers has been more evil than campaigns made by the same men in former years. In the past and during the present campaign these assaults have been borne by the Republican party, its candidates and its committeemen with patience, dignity and restraint.

The campaign made by and in behalf of the Democratic candidates has been unrelieved by any record or any statement of fact. It has been a campaign of unrestrained slander. It has been a deliberately planued and a ruthlessly executed effort to ruin the characters of honorable men. Absolutely nothing has been spared. The public records of the Republican candidates, their private business affairs, their personal lives and their homes all have been assailed through the newspapers supporting the Democratic candidates, from the platform by the Democratic candidates themselves and through false statements, systematically circulated among the people by word of mouth.

The Republicans of New Mexico, their candidates and their active party workers and committeemen have endured these outrages with patience and forbearance. They have met slander with official public records. They have believed and now believe that the people of New Mexico are of sound judgement and that they cannot be tricked by distortions of facts or fooled by lies.

As this campaign has drawn toward its close the flood of Democratic abuse has risen to its crest. Within the past few days the Democratic candidates and their managers have gone beyond the limit of wrongful assault which men of honor and courage can endure in silence.

Posing as men of honest records and clean lives the heads of the Democratic ticket, assisted by their managers and their newspapers have exceeded anything heretofore done by them in the promulgation of falsehood, foul insinuation and deliberate slander.

During the past few days there has commenced to appear in the Albuquerque Morning Journal and the Santa Fe New Mexican, the principal newspaper supporters of A. A. Jones and William C. McDonald, certain fragments of alleged letters; a sentence and a half-statement, strung together ingenuously so as to make it appear that practically every man in any way connected actively with Republican party affairs during the past ten years has been connected directly with transactions, mysteriously hinted at, which, it is made to appear, have been dishonorable transactions and against the public interest.

The direct inference drawn by these men through their newspapers is that the whole active membership of the Republican party from the leaders in Colfax county to the leaders in Dona Ana county and throughout the state have been grafters, corruptionists and thieves.

The Santa Fe New Mexican, on Saturday, October 26, printed in black tpye across the top of its first page the statement that "A dead man's tale" would defeat one of the Republican candidates; and again on Monday, October 30, the statement in large display that "dead men rise to point accusing finger" at a Republican candidate.

These headings have been followed by a mass of vile insinuation, barely escaping direct statement, and always sufficiently direct to convey an implication of horrid wrongdoing.

Were there a shadow of basis for these publications and for the spoken libels of the Democratic campaigners the situation might be less revolting to men whose sense of justice and decency is sound. But the men who inspire these attacks and the newspaper owners who publish them know them to be without any foundation, without any justification; and have planned them deliberately as a part of a monstrous campaign of falsehood.

For several years A. A. Jones, the Democratic candidate for the United States Senate, has been the directing force in the Democratic party in New Mexico. He is the directing force in the present campaign. Remaining always in the background of the attack and posing always as a man of high principle and pure life, Jones has planned the Democratic campaigns and has pulled the strings which have directed the outpouring of slime. He has been careful to speak none of the libels personally. But those libels have been spoken in his presence and with his knowledge, consent and connivance. He is the real head of the Democratic organization and the campaign it has waged and is now waging is of his planning.

In justice to its candidates and its membership the Republican party cannot longer sit quiet and permit unworthy men to slander men of clean lives, square records and sterling character. It is not necessary that Republicans reply to a slander with slander. It is necessary, however, that its place before the people squarely and accurately the characters and the records of the men who are directing the campaign of villification against the Republican candidates.

The facts in the case of A. A. Jones were known to the leaders of his party when he was nominattd. Had they been known to the rank and file of his party Jones would not have been nominated. The Republicans do not charge to the rank and file of New Mexico Democrats any part of the campaign of libel which the Democratic leaders have made. The facts in the case of A. A. Jones were known to many leading Republicans. No reference has been made to those facts by any Republican holding a responsible position in the party organization up to this time. It had not been the purpose of Republicans to make any such reference, although failure to do so was an injustice to the people of New Mexico.

The statement of the facts in the case of A. A. Jones, now being made to the voters of New Mexico, has been made by the Republican State Committee with reluctance, and it has been made solely because this man, who is the directing mind in the Democratic campaign of libel, has gone so far that simple justice demands that he be placed correctly before the people in the light of the facts in his record.

The Republicans, in presenting these facts, might be justified in stating that "the letters of a dead woman will defeat A. A. Jones for the United States Senate."

There is, however, no desire for sensational statement on the part of any Republican. The facts as they are presented are sufficient. They will be permitted to speak for themselves. These facts are presented by means of photographs of letters written by a dead woman, and that woman the wife of A. A. Jones. These facts, as revealed by these tragic letters, will be left to the people of New Mexico, for their judgment upon the same.

The originals of these letters have been in possession of the Republican State Committee since the very beginning of this campaign. It was the opinion of those bringing them to the attention of the Committee that justice to the people of New Mexico demanded their publication. The task was of such a nature that the Committee hesitated and refrained, and would still refrain but for the fact that now plain justice to the Republican candidates demands that slander be met with facts, and distorted records with the records themselves, without embellishment.

The statement of this record is not a pleasant one. It is not a statement for the general public. But it is a statement of the record of A. A. Jones, to which the voters of New Mexico are entitled before they proceed to cast their ballots in the election of Tuesday next.

The letters referred to here, the originals of which are in possession of the Republican State Committee, have been photographed. From these photographs plates have been made, and from these plates a pamphlet has been printed, which pamphlet is now being distributed to the voters of New Mexico.

There will be no comment here upon these letters, or the facts therein stated. There will be no further reference to the facts in this record by the Republican party managers. This present statement is made for general circulation only in order that there may be no ground for a charge of concealment or secret attack. The record has been placed before the voters squarely, openly, after long deliberation, and because of the final conclusion that the voters of New Mexico are entitled to these facts concerning a man who has caused his opponents to be slandered without mercy, while at the same time causing himself to be placed before the people in a light that is not in accord with facts.

The record is before the voters in the case of A. A. Jones, and the decision rests with them.

CAN THE LEOPARD CHANGE ITS SPOTS?

FOR SENATOR

James A. Baird, of Alamogordo, who is making the race on the Republican ticket for State Senator from the 18th Senatorial District, comprising the counties of Lincoln and Otero, is well and favorably known in both the counties he aspires to represent. As to qualifications, he is well acquainted with the peculiar legislative needs of this immediate section, and will command the respect and support of his fellow Senators at Santa Fe, if this office is assigned him next Tuesday. His superior ability and wide acquaintance will undoubtedly assure him of victory, and a strong and capable man in the State Senate will be the result.

CAMPAIGN COMMENT

The Democratic Press Bureau has just found out that E. C. De Baca is running for Governor on their ticket.

More voters are climbing on the Bursum band-wagon every day. Torchlight processions and the largest crowds in the political history of the State have been features of the demonstrations for Mr. Bursum on his campaign trip through the southern part of the State. It is going to be a good, old-fashioned Republican victory. Holm O. Bursum will be the next Governor of New Mexico.

A. A. Jones, the "personal representative" of President Wilson at the dedication of the Elephant Butte dam, did not make any hit with the people when he announced that the name of the dam would be changed to the Wilson dam. What did President Wilson ever do for the reclamation work? Or what did Jones ever do?

It appears certain now that Charles E. Hughes, Republican, will be elected President of the United States. The people of New Mexico must elect Republican members of Congress and have a voice in the Republican majority. Vote for Frank A. Hubbell, Republican candidate for United States Senator, and for B. C. Hermandez, Republican candidate for Representative in Congress.

What has Arthur Seligman, Democratic State Chairman, done with the salaries of country postmistresses he collected for his McDonald-De Baca-Jones campaign fund?

Gov. McDonald's idea of an "efficient business administration;" State Fish and Game Warden Trinidad C. De Baca spending $42,000 for salaries and expenses and less than $2,500 for fish, game and birds.

When Holm O. Bursum is elected Governor of New Mexico he will administrate the high office for the good of all the people, and not in the interest of his own business enterprises.

In many counties the Democrats have been hoping for fusion, but the best they got was "confusion."

Republicans should keep boosting and working for their tickets—National, State and County—right up to the time the polls close. It sure looks like victory if everybody keeps working.

The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal Church will meet at the home of Mrs. H. S. Fairbanks Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

Rev. E. J. Heoring, of Tucumcari, will hold Episcopal services in the Crystal Theatre Monday, Nov. 6th, at 8 o'clock p. m. Everybody is invited to attend. There will be special music.

Vote for O. T. Nye for County Clerk. He possesses all the necessary qualifications to make a good official.

James V. Tully, of Glenco, candidate for Senator from the 15th District, was in Carrizozo Friday on his way home from a tour through Socorro, Torrance and Otero counties. Jim is well pleased with the political outlook and said the District will surely go Republican, and that Bursum will be given a big majority.

Vote for Charles E. Hughes.

LIGHTNING DID GOOD WORK

Cowboy's Indigestion Cured in Record Time as the Result of a Severe Shock.

According to Mike Keating, a cowboy employed on the ranch of J. H. Boyce near Delhart, Tex., no remedy can begin to compare with a stroke of lightning for curing indigestion and restoring a badly impaired appetite.

Keating was standing by a wire fence when a bolt came kiting along and knocked him over. He was unconscious for several hours, and it was thought for a time he was done for. Finally he opened his eyes and looked about him, and his first words were:

"Say, you all, get me something to eat mighty quick. I'm just about starving."

In the group around the cot was "cookie," who well remembered the hard time he had experienced for many months in trying to tempt Keating's dainty appetite and not arouse the pains of which the cowboy was eternally complaining.

"What'll you have—a poached egg and a piece of buttered toast?" inquired cookie.

"I want some real grub. Bring on a stew of meat, beans and as much other fodder as you can stir up."

Keating ate the first big meal he had been able to stow away for many months, and what is more, he is keeping up the gait.—New York Sun.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:—

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice,—it will be confidential.

HUGHES IS NEEDED IN THIS TREMENDOUS CRISIS.

Against Mr. Wilson's combination of grace in elocution with futility in action; against his record of words unbacked by deeds or betrayed by deeds, we set Mr. Hughes' rugged and uncompromising straightforwardness of character and action in every office he has held. We put the man who thinks and speaks directly, and whose words have always been made good, against the man whose adroit and facile elocution is used to conceal his plans or his want of plans. The next four years may well be years of tremendous national strain. Which of the two men do you, the American people, wish at the helm during those four years; the man who has been actually tried and found wanting, or the man whose whole career in public office is a guarantee of his power and good faith? But one answer is possible; and it must be given by the American people throughout the United States.—From speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

GUARDSMEN PAY THE PRICE OF WILSON'S ABASEMENT.

Having condoned the repeated murders of Americans by the Carranzistas, and having abased himself before Carranza, and having aided in placing Carranza in power, what is Mr. Wilson's reward? and who pays it? The reward is that Mr. Wilson has to place 150,000 troops on the border to partially prevent the raids and murders that his friend Mr. Carranza will not or cannot prevent; and the payment is made by the soldiers who are slain and by the families of the guardsmen who go in want because their husbands and fathers have been called to the border to make good Mr. Wilson's refusal to let the regular army administer such punishment to the bandits as to inspire in them a healthy fear.—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

ROUSING MEETINGS

The Republican candidates scored a big hit Wednesday night with a political gathering at the Crystal Theatre and a dance at Navarro's Hall. It was strictly a local affair. but full of enthusiasm. Many rousing addresses were made. We wish to call special attention to the speech of Ira O. Wetmoae, who is making a winning race for Representative in the State Legislature. Mr. Wetmore took occasion to outline his convictions and to show most conclusively why he should be elected. In his rounds through the representative district he has shown himself a ready friend-maker, and his already large circle of friends are doing all in their power to roll up a handsome majority for him next Tuesday.

During the remaining few days it is strictly "hustle" with the candidates, and political gatherings are being held almost nightly, and the candidates are keeping on the jump getting around to as many of these functions as possible and giving the glad hand to Mr. Voter. Next week's OUTLOOK will be reporting the details of the election, instead of forecasting results,

Keep busy, boys, and capture the prize beyond a shadow of a doubt.

AT NOGAL

A big Republican rally was held at Nogal Wednesday night, and much enthusiasm was displayed. Rousing speeches were made by the county candidates.

Editorial Comments.

The Democrats continue to ignore Mr. Hughes' speeches to the extent that all they do is to sputter and gasp.

Let it be conceded there are really strong grounds for the opinion that President Wilson may carry Texas next November. If these indications are taken at their full worth, some enthusiasts will soon be going out to bet that the tide will sweep on until Mississippi and Alabama are also enrolled in the Democratic column.

Many big Democrats willing and ready to speak for Wilson are careful that their money shall not say anything on his side.

President Wilson says he is utterly indifferent as to his re-election. Perhaps that explains a good many things nobody has heretofore been able to understand.

"Help me, Cassius, or I sink!" For "Cassius" read "Congress."

The notion seems to be that the Democratic national chairman is claiming more than he will get, but not any more than he will need.

As further evidence that he is warm-hearted and intensely human, Mr. Hughes likes apple pie.

No man is going to be elected—or re-elected—to high office by votes gained from States' rights declarations this late in the game. The States' rights question was settled some fifty years ago to the evident satisfaction of a considerable majority.—Kansas City Star.

"Adequate preparedness is not militarism. It is the essential assurance of security. It is a necessary safeguard of peace." Candidate Hughes has left nothing to be said on this subject. He has snuffed out counter argument at the very outset.

"Are we Americans a nation of bunglers?" asks the New York Sun. It would be very harsh to answer this in the affirmative—and, anyway, we elect a Democratic president only every once in a while.

Charles E. Hughes cannot get so far away from Washington that the men in charge of the chariot of government there do not feel the jolting of his criticisms. In fact, the Democratic leaders at the capital city show symptoms of sea-sickness from the way in which the ex justice of the Supreme court has shaken them up. Mr. Hughes is pursuing the only proper method, which is first to take the deadwood out of the way so that the path to righteous and propitious government may be made clear.

THE NEUTRALITY OF PONTIUS PILATE.

But as soon as the need for deeds arose, Mr. Wilson forgot all about "the principle he held dear." He promptly announced that we should be "neutral in fact as well as in name, in thought as well as in action," between the small, weak, unoffending nation and the large, strong nation which was robbing it of its sovereignty and independence. Such neutrality has been compared to the neutrality of Pontius Pilate. This is unjust to Pontius Pilate, who at least gently urged moderation on the wrongdoer.—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

The President gets up early during the hot spell, and there are some who think he may have to continue the practice until November if that man Hughes continues to be so undignified.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

WILSON ADMITS HE PRECIPITATED WAR

When Mr. Wilson forgets himself he admits that we have been at war; for example, on May 11, 1914, in an address over the dead marines at the navy yard in Brooklyn, he said that the marines had been engaged in "a war of service." A war of service to whom or to what? Certainly not to the United States; nor to Mexico; nor to humanity at large. Was it to Mr. Wilson?—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

WILSON'S IGNOBLE, UNSUCCESSFUL LITTLE WARS.

President Wilson tok Vera Cruz in 1914, as we were officially informed at the time, to get a salute for the flag, and to prevent the shipment of arms into Mexico. He did not get his salute. He did not prevent the shipment of arms. But several hundred men were killed or wounded; and then he brought the army home without achieving either object. President Wilson sent an army into Mexico in 1916, as we were informed at the time, to get Villa "dead or alive." They did not get him dead. They did not get him alive. Again several hundred men were killed and wounded. Again President Wilson is bringing the army home without achieving his object. Of course it is a mere play upon words to say that these were not "wars." They were wars, and nothing else; ignoble, pointless, unsuccessful little wars; but wars. They cost millions of dollars and hundreds of lives, squandered to no purpose; they accomplished nothing; but they were wars.—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

The President says he has no interest in any political party, "except as an instrument of achievement." If that's it, then how did he happen to select such a poor instrument as the Democratic party?

Carranza isn't a candidate for President of the United States, but he did more for American preparedness in three weeks than Woodrow Wilson did in three years.

Another thing you never hear of since the Democrats reduced the cost of living is the "baker's dozen."

WILSON KISSED THE HAND RED WITH AMERICAN BLOOD.

President Wilson explicitly shows that the Carranzistas, not once but repeatedly, made attacks on American towns, and killed American citizens, and mutilated them in September, 1915. Yet on October 19th, 1915, less than a month later, this same President Wilson, through his same Secretary of State, formally announced to Carranza's agent that it was his "pleasure" to take the opportunity "of extending recognition to the de facto government of Mexico, of which General Venustiano Carranza is the chief executive." President Wilson thus recognized the government which, his own Secretary of State declares, had been less than a month previously engaged in repeated assaults upon Americans, and in the invasion of American soil, the government at whose head was General Carranza, who, less than two months previously, on August 2nd, 1915, had contemptuously refused to pay any heed to any representations of President Wilson on behalf of mediation, saying that "under no consideration would I permit interference in the internal affairs of Mexico." President Wilson did not merely kiss the hand that slapped him in the face. He kissed that hand when it was red with the blood of American men, women and children, who had been murdered and mutilated with, as President Wilson, through his Secretary of State, says, "ruthless brutality."—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

VILLA AIDED BY WILSON'S FAVOR AND BACKING.

In March last, Villa made a raid into American territory. He was a bandit leader whose career of successful infamy had been greatly aided by Mr. Wilson's favor and backing. He was at the head of Mexican soldiers, whose arms and munitions had been supplied to them in consequence of Mr. Wilson's reversing Mr. Taft's policy and lifting the embargo against arms and munitions into Mexico. They attacked Columbus, New Mexico, and killed a number of civilians and a number of United States troops. On the next day the president issued an announcement that adequate forces would be sent in pursuit of Villa "with the single object of capturing him." On April 8th, the announcement was made from the White House that the troops would remain in Mexico until Villa was captured. It was furthermore announced in the press despatches from Washington that he was to be taken "dead or alive." Fine words! Only—they meant nothing. He is not dead. He has not been taken alive.—From speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

TEUTONS HALTED IN TRANSYLVANIA

BUCHAREST STATEMENT SAYS VON FALKENHAYN'S FORCES ON FRONTIER VANQUISHED.

FORCE RUMANIANS BACK

VON MACKENSEN'S TROOPS ARE KEEPING UP CLOSE PURSUIT IN DOBRUDJA REGION.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

London, Oct. 31.—Teutonic forces on the Transylvania frontier are meeting with stubborn opposition. Rumanian troops have repulsed the invaders, and have taken more than 1,800 prisoners, Bucharest announces. The Rumanians recaptured Piscul and at Tulghes and Bicaz and in the Uzul valley took 1,100 men. The attack in the Uzul valley also resulted in the repulse of Gen. von Falkenhayn's men.

North of Campulung, Bucharest says, a counter attack in the region of Dragoslavle netted 300 prisoners.

Farther west in Wallachia, in the Jiul valley, the Rumanian offensive continues successfully, with the capture of 450 prisoners. Berlin announces the taking of a height south of Kronstadt and declares that "otherwise the situation is not essentially changed."

The retreat of the Russo-Rumanian forces in Dobrudja continues and Berlin records that Field Marshal von Mackensen is meeting with little opposition. Five hundred more prisoners have been taken by the Teutons.

In the region of Dorna Watra several heights have been occupied by Austrian troops.

Petrograd says the Russo-Rumanian troops were forced to fall back in that region, abandoning two heights. French troops have captured a quarry northwest of Fort Douaumont. The repulse of French attacks there as well as Franco-British efforts on the Somme front is announced by Berlin, but London reports gains by allies.

In Volhynia the Austro-Germans repulsed a Russian attack. Otherwise there has been little activity on the Russian front. Except for a few small Italian advances there has been no change on the Austro-Italian front.

MEXICAN CRISIS LOOMS ANEW.

Luis Cabrera Assails American Neutrality and Administration of Immigration Laws as Regards Mexico.

Washington. — New complications with the Mexican de facto government threatened as a result of a statement issued here through the Mexican information bureau and attributed to Luis Cabrera. It assails in sharp language American neutrality and the administration of immigration laws as regards Mexico. Cabrera is minister of finance in Carranza's cabinet and president of the Mexican commission now participating in the joint conference over border difficulties and there are indications that his criticisms will not be ignored at the State Department.

While refusing to enter into any discussion of the statement at this time, administration officials characterized it as extraordinary. Secretary Lansing would make no comment. It is known, however, that steps to establish the authenticity of the document were taken under consideration immediately.

Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador-designate, denied himself to all callers on Saturday.

Note Offers Relief to Americans.

Washington.—Great Britain's note in reply to American representations against the commercial blacklist was received at the State Department. Arrangements regarding its publication will be made later. It is understood to reiterate the contention for the right to blacklist but offers methods of relief to Americans in certain circumstances. The British note is in reply to the American note of July 28th which denounced the blacklist as "an arbitrary interference with neutral trade."

DOING ACTIVE WORK

The republican candidates in Lincoln county are making hay while the sun shines and are determined that active campaigning shall reinforce their strong positions in the hearts of the voters against the big balloting which comes off November 7th.

H. B. Hamilton is meeting the voters man to man and convincing them that his qualifications and integrity have not slumped, but that crime and vice will keep on the run as long as he is retained as district attorney. Hamilton's majority will be enormous. Ira O. Wetmore has made his active business interests here a secondary matter and has been out to win a seat in the house of representatives. He is daily widening his large circle of friends who will support him.

The active campaign which Mrs. Grace G. De Nisson is conducting for County Superintendent of Schools, coupled with her large Spanish-American following will get results November 7th. Elardo Chaves, one of the popular Spanish-American republicans of the east side of the county stands strong to be elected probate judge and the three commissioners, Fred Lalone, Felipe Sanchez and Manuel Analla propose to show the people and efficient and sane administration of the financial affairs of the county after the verdict of the people at the polls places them in control of this important branch of the county's administration. What a strong line-up the republicans have can be ascertained by a moments careful consideration. Not only representative men but those of marked ability, each filled in an especial manner for his official duties. Upon this basis their election is practically a foregone conclusion and brighter days are in store for Lincoln county.
