PROPOSED LEGISLATION.

Among the bills recently introduced in our Territorial legislature are several which should be killed without delay.

Among these are the Herrera bill, imposing a tax upon drummers beyond New Mexico lines.—This, being in conflict with the interstate commerce clause of the U. S. Constitution, will, if passed, be held void, as was the meat inspection law of 1889, for the self [illegible]

[illegible] Council Bill, No. 90, [illegible] license and occupation [illegible], should be an[illegible] [illegible]inter. [illegible] title of all such [illegible] be, "An Act for [illegible] of trade."— [illegible] of the tax must al[illegible] into the price of the [illegible] twentieths must [illegible] appear in the shape [illegible] for the necessaries [illegible]

[illegible] license—whisky bill, [illegible] in which it was finally [illegible] with the general ap[illegible]

[illegible] the times of hold[illegible] terms of court is [illegible] accepted as satisfactory. [illegible] School Bill is gener[illegible] except in a few mi[illegible] The Council bill, sub[illegible] the original "Mill's [illegible] excellent features. [illegible] satisfactory features [illegible] lemen, and make it a [illegible]

[illegible]cipal defect in the [illegible] is the hydra-headed [illegible] head of the system, [illegible] all fully occu[illegible] duties of their sev[illegible] Eastern experience [illegible] all sorts of gov[illegible] "boards." Under [illegible] body is responsible. [illegible] Tweed ring—it is [illegible] "that other fel[illegible] the devil. Give [illegible] system an executive [illegible] of a Territorial superintendent, who shall have no other official business. Then we shall have an officer whom we can hold responsible for shortcomings. And pay him what his services are worth. We want no Territorial officer who will serve in a position so responsible for the wages of a clerk in a feed mill. Good work is with good pay, and we cannot afford to have anything else but good work in the organization of our school system.

The County Surveyor bill has passed and meets a general demand.

A bill is pending abolishing the district attorneyship and creating the office of county attorney.—This should pass. The district attorney cannot properly attend to the duties required of them. In our present district attorney district, for instance, term at Lincoln and term at Socorro have begun on the same day. The district attorney cannot attend both courts consequently he has always been represented in this county by a special prosecuting officer.

The district attorney is legally the legal adviser of the county boards in his district and the boards are forbidden to obtain other advice at the public expense. Except in the county where the district attorney lives the boards have no opportunity to consult him and have to act without the aid of any legal adviser at all, pay for it out of their own pockets or depend upon the good nature of the profession. Many a violator of the law goes unwhipt of Justice because there is no prosecuting officer in the county.

All these defects of the present system will be cared if the pending bill becomes a law. The expense of the new system will be somewhat greater than now but we shall get what we pay for, whereas now we pay for what we don't get.

The new municipal incorporation bill, extending the benefits of itself and existing laws to towns of 500 inhabitants or more, is all right except as to one provision. It is provided that the county commissioners shall act in the matter upon a petition "signed by a majority of the voters," etc., etc. No election is provided for. Except by an election it cannot be satisfactorily ascertained who and what constitute a majority of the voters. Many people will sign any petition without knowledge of it's contents. In a matter affecting the future status of an entire community and a necessary increase of taxation, the people should have an opportunity to deliberately express their will at the ballot box.

The Perea finance bill is before the Council making the necessary appropriations for the 42nd and 43rd fiscal years. It has been drawn with the same care and is being considered with the same jealous regard for economy which made the "Perea Bill" of 1889 such a boom to the people of New Mexico. Our financial interests are in safe hands.

A measure reducing the [illegible] mous fees of county assessors and giving a compensation graduated according to the size and wealth of the several counties, will pass the present session. It is a much needed measure of reform. We favor liberal payment for actual service to the people. But we do not believe in a rate of compensation which makes a two year's tenure of office worth a small fortune. It is unjust to the men who have to pay the money, it demoralizes parties and is a fruitful source of corruption, treachery and bad faith in local politics. Every interest, public and partizan, is sacrificed to the securing these over paid offices to the favorites of the "rings."

It is wicked to steal, but when the girl is demure and pretty, and moonlight is soft and romantic, and you can almost see the kiss upon her lips, it sometimes seems a good deal more wicked not to.

One line fills this column.

Secretary Windom

At a Board of Trade banquet held at Delmonico's N. Y. City, a few nights since, a large number of [illegible] persons, including Secretaries Windom and Tracey, representing the Treasury and Naval Departments of the Federal Government. All who sat at the banquet table were invited guests, save one, who stalked in and waiting until Secretary Windom concluded his response to an appropriate toast when he struck him lifeless. The name of the assassin was Death.

The editor of this paper had the honor of a long and very intimate acquaintance with the ex-Secretary. Before the war we published a paper in Sterling Ills., where resided Hezekiah and Jonas Windom, father and brother of the deceased, and in '57 he and his wife partook of a bridal dinner at our table.—Since then we have oftentimes met him at home and abroad and partaken of his hospitalities, hence his death strikes upon our senses as would a personal visitation.—He was an ideal man and the ideal member of Harrison's Cabinet.

William Windom will long live in history. He did not, as a soldier, conduct wars, nor as a diplomat, acquire territory, neither did he erect fanes to art or temples to charity. But he went through the wilderness of this life faithful to his every obligation to God, country and his fellow man. [illegible] great [illegible] character [illegible] [illegible]

A rough count and estimate gives the number of mortgages on record for the decade through the country as 8,172,065. While this is evidence of heavy indebtedness it is also proof of wealth. In order to borrow there must be given security and in most cases the security is several times larger than the mortgage. This feature of the census is too one side to be of much practical value if it were carefully taken while the fact is that it is the showing made in the roughest kind of an estimate.

THE HIGH LICENSE BILL.

The much talked of high license bill is now a law, it having passed both branches of the legislature a week ago. It's distinguishing features are:

1. In unincorporated communities applications for liquor license must be made to the board of county commissioners.

2. For dram-shop license a tax is imposed $100 in precincts containing less than 500 inhabitants; $200 over 500; $400 over a 1,000. This would make the liquor license in White Oaks $200. It is now (Territorial,) $40.

3. Such liquor license shall be paid over to the county treasurer, to be by him covered into the general school fund of the county.

4. Severe penalties against such as evade, or attempt to evade the law.

4. Any person seeking to profit by evading this license law thro' selling liquor without license shall be fined from $100 to $500 and be imprisoned from thirty days to one year.

5. License under this law only carries with it authority to sell at one place in a precinct.

6. Any dealer selling liquor to drunkards after notification by kin folk shall be subject to fine and imprisonment.

7. Any place disposing of alcoholic liquors contrary to the provisions of this law shall be abated as a public nuisance.

8. Any shift or device to evade the provisions of this law is punishable.

9. Any person becoming intoxicated or disorderly shall be fined from $5 to $25.

10. Licenses under this law shall commence May 1, 1891.

11. The last census shall govern as to precinct population.

17. Saloons shall be closed at midnight before election day and not re-opened until midnight following election.

The death of Hon. George A. Crawford, of Grand Junction, Col. is reported as having occurred on the 26th ult. He was one of the founders of Ft. Scott, Kansas, and was at one time quite wealthy. In [illegible] he instituted a law [illegible] against the editor of this paper which impoverished both of [illegible]. Judge McGowan, afterwards [illegible] near Kingston, N. M., was our attorney, and [illegible] A. Tomlinson, now of Eddy, was one of our witnesses—Tom Hughes, editor of the Albuquerque Citizen, was then picking type on our daily paper. It would seem as though the lines were being drawn pretty tight around us. We often told the deceased that we would write his obituary. He thought we were joking. Well, George, you made so many apologies for your blunder let our promise go as a joke. Where'ere you are we wish you the best in the shop. Au revoir.

We read in a newspaper that 250,000 women are married annually in London. The average American women thinks she's lucky if she gets married every 10 years.

Two lines completes this column.

WE like fun as well as anyone, and can take a joke as well as give one, but everybody ain't built that way. For instance, our friend and Councilman, G. A. Richardson, would laugh heartily at a joke perpetrated at the expense of another but if fired at himself he would'nt see anything to laugh at. Apropos: The other day Mr. Perea, in response to a random shot to the effect that all Republican officials were peculators and those of the opposite persuasion were immaculate, fired back that a late sheriff of Lincoln County had put his arm full length into the Territorial safe. Richardson, in his innocence, supposing reference was made to our late sheriff, D. C. Nowlin, frankly acknowledged the corn, but said that the peculating sheriff was a Republican. The next day Perea renewed his charge and to Richardson's chagrin brought forth the fact that Sheriff J. R. Brent, and not Sheriff D. C. Nowlin was the duck aimed at and everybody who knows Jim would as soon think of calling him a thief as a Republican—he would have neither. But let us copy the official report:

Mr. Perea showed the facts from the official records to prove what he had stated at the morning session in answer to the gentleman from Chaves county (Mr. Richardson) that the sheriff of Lincoln county (James Brent) presented an account to the auditor for $4,000 for eleven days of court and that he had employed eleven horses and from the mileage charged each horse had traveled 484 miles each day; and that James Brent was a Democratic sheriff in a Democratic county instead of being a Republican sheriff, as charged by Mr. Richardson, at the morning session.

EUROPE is under a mantle of snow. The water pipes in the streets of London are choked with ice, the Seine at Paris is frozen to the thickness of sixteen inches, the coasts are blockaded, the roads in Spain are impassable on account of the snow, and in some districts of Southern Europe the wolves and wild beasts have been driven down from the hills by the cold to ravage the farms and harry the domestic animals.

The cold snap in France is estimated to have cost Paris the sum of $10,000,000 in stoppage of work and trade interruptions; 50,0000 workmen are in idleness because of the intense cold. In Germany travel and traffic has been greatly interfered with by the snow.

Such a winter has not been known within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and some of the people over there have had many seasons of experience on this earth over and above the three score years and ten allotted to man.

Five hundred thousand immigrants came to this country in '90. This is 16 per cent more than arrived in 1889. Of the half million one fifth came from Germany; Austria-Hungary furnished 80,000; Italy about the same. England 55,000; Sweden and Norway 45,000; and Russia 40,000. The total immigration since the beginning of the century is in round numbers 15,000,000 of which 4,500,000 have come from Germany, 3,500,000 from Ireland, and 2,000,000 from England and Scotland.

THE new bank [illegible] White Oaks is now an established fact and institution. That it is and will be a credit to the town in which it is located and the county after which it is named, "Lincoln County Bank," goes without saying. As yet we have neither borrowed money from said institution nor deposited from our wealth in it's coffers, but we feel a sort of paternal affection therefor inasmuch as it's propogator, Mr. A. H. Raynolds, assures us that were it not for a fugitive copy of the LEADER which he came across at a R. R. point, presenting advantages and opportunities presented by White Oaks he never would have come here. Attracted by our alluring article he came hither and satisfied himself that we had not exagerated, indeed had not told half the fullness of the truth, hence we feel a special pride in the success of the "Lincoln County Bank of White Oaks."

W. H. WEED returned on last Monday from a short trip to points in New Mexico and Kansas. He is a close observer and keen business man. He is now more enthusiastic than ever in his faith in the future of White Oaks. He says he did not see any place in his travels that he would trade White Oaks for, either as a business point or the value of it's realty. Mr. Weed is a large owner of real estate in this town and well knows it's true value, and with the bright prospects now before this section he does well to hold on knowing that it will soon produce him a rich reward.

THE Old Abe Mine is doing excellently well. The north drift from the shaft, now more than 100 feet, is nearly filled with ore of a very rich quality, better than any heretofore reported. The shaft is now down a little over 100 feet to the third level and the ore is excellent. 170 north of the new shaft is an old shaft which this north drift will cut when the ventilation will be perfect. A large body of ore is in sight in the south drift at a depth of 70 feet, and altogether there is a bonanza already in view. How is that, ye croakers? Take off your old coats and go to work.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION.

Among the bills recently introduced in our Territorial legislature are several which should be killed without delay.

Among these are the Herrera bill, imposing a tax upon drummers beyond New Mexico lines.—This, being in conflict with the interstate commerce clause of the U. S. Constitution, will, if passed, be held void, as was the meat inspection law of 1889, for the self same reason.

Jaramillo's Council Bill, No. 90, being a drag-net license and occupation tax measure, should be annihilated instanter.

The proper title of all such measures should be, "An Act for the discouragement of trade."—The amount of the tax must always enter into the price of the goods and nineteen-twentieths must be paid by the poor in the shape of higher prices for the necessaries of life.

The high license—whisky bill, in the shape in which it was finally passed, meets with the general approval.

The bill fixing the times of holding the various terms of court is generally accepted as satisfactory.

The Paulin School Bill is generally approved except in a few minor points. The Council bill, substitute for the original "Mill's bill," has some excellent features. Combine the satisfactory features of both, gentlemen, and make it a law.

The principal defect in the Council bill is the hydra-headed board at the head of the system, composed of men all fully occupied with the duties of their several positions. Eastern experience has condemned all sorts of government by "boards." Under "boards" nobody is responsible. Like the old Tweed ring—it is never "I," but "that other fellow" who played the devil. Give our school system an executive head in the shape of a Territorial superintendent, who shall have no other official business. Then we shall have an officer whom we can hold responsible for shortcomings. And pay him what his services are worth. We want no Territorial officer who will serve in a position so responsible for the wages of a clerk in a feed mill. Good work is with good pay, and we cannot afford to have anything else but good work in the organization of our school system.

The County Surveyor bill has passed and meets a general demand.

A bill is pending abolishing the district attorneyship and creating the office of county attorney.—This should pass. The district attorney cannot properly attend to the duties required of them. In our present district attorney district, for instance, term at Lincoln and term at Socorro have begun on the same day. The district attorney cannot attend both courts consequently he has always been represented in this county by a special prosecuting officer.

The district attorney is legally the legal adviser of the county boards in his district and the boards are forbidden to obtain other advice at the public expense. Except in the county where the district attorney lives the boards have no opportunity to consult him and have to act without the aid of any legal adviser at all, pay for it out of their own pockets or depend upon the good nature of the profession. Many a violator of the law goes unwhipt of Justice because there is no prosecuting officer in the county.

All these defects of the present system will be cured if the pending bill becomes a law. The expense of the new system will be somewhat greater than now but we shall get what we pay for, whereas now we pay for what we don't get.

The new municipal incorporation bill, extending the benefits of itself and existing laws to towns of 500 inhabitants or more, is all right except as to one provision. It is provided that the county commissioners shall act in the matter upon a petition "signed by a majority of the voters," etc., etc. No election is provided for. Except by an election it cannot be satisfactorily ascertained who and what constitute a majority of the voters. Many people will sign any petition without knowledge of it's contents. In a matter affecting the future status of an entire community and a necessary increase of taxation, the people should have an opportunity to deliberately express their will at the ballot-box.

The Perea finance bill is before the Council making the necessary appropriations for the 42d and 43rd fiscal years. It has been drawn with the same care and is being considered with the same jealous regard for economy which made the "Perea bill" of 18[illegible] such a boon to the people of New Mexico. Our financial interests are in safe hands.

A measure reducing the enormous fees of county assessors and giving a compensation graduated according to the size and wealth of the several counties, will pass the present session. It is a much needed measure of reform. We favor liberal payment for actual service to the people. But we do not believe in a rate of compensation which makes a two year's tenure of office worth a small fortune. It is unjust to the men who have to pay the money, it demoralizes parties and is a fruitful source of corruption, treachery and bad faith in local politics. Every interest, public and partizan, is sacrificed to the securing these over paid offices to the favorites of the "rings."

It is wicked to steal, but when the girl is demure and pretty, and moonlight is soft and romantic, and you can almost see the kiss upon her lips, it sometimes seems a good deal more wicked not to.

ONE line fills this column.

Secretary Windom

DEAD.

At a Board of Trade banquet held at Delmonico's, N. Y. City, a few nights since, a large number of [illegible] persons, including Secretaries Windom and Tracey, representing the Treasury and Naval Departments of the Federal Government. All who sat at the banquet table were invited guests, save one, who stalked in and waiting until Secretary Windom concluded his response to an appropriate toast when he struck him lifeless. The name of the assassin was Death.

The editor of this paper had the honor of a long and very intimate acquaintance with the ex-Secretary. Before the war we published a paper in Sterling Ills., where resided Hezekiah and Jonas Windom, father and brother of the deceased, and in '57 he and his wife partook of a bridal dinner at our table.—Since then we have oftentimes met him at home and abroad and partaken of his hospitalities, hence his death strikes upon our senses as would a personal visitation.—He was an ideal man and the ideal member of Harrison's Cabinet.

William Windom will long live in history. He did not, as a soldier, conduct wars, nor as a diplomat, acquire territory, neither did he erect fanes to art or temples to charity. But he went through the wilderness of this life faithful to his every obligation to God, country and his fellow man. [illegible] a great [illegible] character [illegible] had [illegible] all the depths [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] spirit will not [illegible] but will forever [illegible] along the [illegible] which mortal [illegible] are not permitted to peer.

A rough count and estimate gives the number of mortgages on record for the decade through the country as 8,?72,065. While this is evidence of heavy indebtedness it is also proof of wealth. In order to borrow there must be given security and in most cases the security is several times larger than the mortgage. This feature of the census is too one sided to be of much practical value if it were carefully taken while the fact is that it is the showing made in the roughest kind of an estimate.

THE HIGH LICENSE BILL.

The much talked of high license bill is now a law, it having passed both branches of the legislature a week ago. It's distinguishing features are:

1. In unincorporated communities applications for liquor license must be made to the board of county commissioners.

2. For dram-shop license a tax is imposed $100 in precincts containing less than 500 inhabitants; $200 over 500; $400 over 1,000 This would make the liquor license in White Oaks $200. It is now (Territorial,) $40.

3. Such liquor license shall be paid over to the county treasurer, to be by him covered into the general school fund of the county.

4. Severe penalties against such as evade, or attempt to evade the law.

4. Any person seeking to profit by evading this license law thro' selling liquor without license shall be fined from $100 to $500 and be imprisoned from thirty days to one year.

5. License under this law only carries with it authority to sell at one place in a precinct.

6. Any dealer selling liquor to drunkards after notification by kin folk shall be subject to fine and imprisonment.

7. Any place disposing of alcoholic liquors contrary to the provisions of this law shall be abated as a public nuisance.

8. Any shift or device to evade the provisions of this law is punishable.

9. Any person becoming intoxicated or disorderly shall be fined from $5 to $25.

10. Licenses under this law shall commence May 1, 1891.

11. The last census shall govern as to precinct population.

17. Saloons shall be closed at midnight before election day and not re-opened until midnight following election.

THE death of Hon. George A. Crawford, of Grand Junction, Col. is reported as having occurred on the [illegible] ult. He was one of the founders of Ft. Scott, Kansas, and was at one time quite wealthy. In [illegible] he instituted a law [illegible] against the editor of this paper which impoverished both of us. Judge McComas, afterwards killed by the Indians near Kingston, N. M., was our attorney, and Jas. A. Tomlinson, now of Eddy, was one of our witnesses—Tom Hughes, editor of the Albuquerque Citizen, was then picking type on our daily paper. It would seem as though the lines were being drawn pretty tight around us. We often told the deceased that we would write his obituary. He thought we were joking. Well, George, you made so many apologies for your blunder let our promise go as a joke. Where'ere you are we wish you the best in the shop. Au revoir.

We read in a newspaper that 250,000 women are married annually in London. The average American women thinks she's lucky if she gets married every 10 years

Two lines completes this dismal column.

WE like fun as well as anyone, and can take a joke as well as give one, but everybody ain't built that way. For instance, our friend and Councilman, G. A. Richardson, would laugh heartily at a joke perpetrated at the expense of another but if fired at himself he would'nt see anything to laugh at. Apropos: The other day Mr. Perea, in response to a random shot to the effect that all Republican officials were peculators and those of the opposite persuasion were immaculate, fired back that a late sheriff of Lincoln County had put his arm full length into the Territorial safe. Richardson, in his innocence, supposing reference was made to our late sheriff, D. C. Nowlin, frankly acknowledged the corn, but said that the peculating sheriff was a Republican. The next day Perea renewed his charge and to Richardson's chagrin brought forth the fact that Sheriff J. R. Brent, and not Sheriff D. C. Nowlin was the duck aimed at and everybody who knows Jim would as soon think of calling him a thief as a Republican—he would have neither. But let us copy the official report:

Mr. Perea showed the facts from the official records to prove what he had stated at the morning session in answer to the gentleman from Chaves county (Mr. Richardson) that the sheriff of Lincoln county (James Brent) presented an account to the auditor for $4,000 for eleven days of court and that he had employed eleven horses and from the mileage charged each horse had traveled 484 miles each day; and that James Brent was a Democratic sheriff in a Democratic county instead of being a Republican sheriff, as charged by Mr. Richardson, at the morning session.

EUROPE is under a mantle of snow. The water pipes in the streets of London are choked with ice, the Seine at Paris is frozen to the thickness of sixteen inches, the coasts are blockaded, the roads in Spain are impassable on account of the snow, and in some districts of Southern Europe the wolves and wild beasts have been driven down from the hills by the cold to ravage the farms and harry the domestic animals.

The cold snap in France is estimated to have cost Paris the sum of $10,000,000 in stoppage of work and trade interruptions; 50,000 workmen are in idleness because of the intense cold. In Germany travel and traffic has been greatly interfered with by the snow.

Such a winter has not been known within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and some of the people over there have had many seasons of experience on this earth over and above the three score years and ten allotted to man.

Five hundred thousand immigrants came to this country in '90. This is 10 per cent more than arrived in 1889. Of the half million one fifth came from Germany; Austria-Hungary furnished 60,000; Italy about the same, England 55,000; Sweden and Norway 45,000; and Russia 40,000. The total immigration since the beginning of the century is in round numbers 16,000,000 of which 4,500,000 have come from Germany, 3,500,000 from Ireland, and 2,000,000 from England and Scotland.

Excellent Train Service.

The present schedule of train service on A. T. & S. F. R. R. from New Mexico is an excellent one.

The train from San Francisco (with palace sleepers to Kansas City and tourist sleepers to Chicago) leaves Albuquerque daily [illegible] both [illegible], strikes darkness near W[illegible] Mound, arriving in Kansas City evening of [illegible] day, and in Chicago the following morning. An additional Pullman sleeper is [illegible] at Las Vegas, running through without change to Denver via La Junta and Trinidad. [illegible] the Santa Fe Route [illegible] first time [illegible] reasonable rates, to meet [illegible] use of the traveling public.

Newspaper Laws.

[illegible]

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine the same as for theft.

HUMOROUS.

—"Pa," said a lad to his father, "I have often read of people poor but honest; why don't they sometimes say rich but honest?" "Tut, tut, my son, nobody would believe them," answered the father.—Liverpool Post.

—Miss Langham—"You Americans use the name of George Washington very frequently, do you not?" Mr. de Yank—"Yes, indeed. Why, 'George Washington' has been on every one's tongue since postage stamps were invented."—N. Y. Sun.

—"Blinkins is a nice fellow." "Yes; but he shows such a marked disposition to exaggerate." "To be sure; but that is counterbalanced by one thing." "What is that?" "The general indisposition to believe him."—Merchant Traveler.

—Visitor—"Your pastor seems to be a very earnest man. His voice trembled with emotion when he read the lessons this morning." Soprano—"Oh, it wasn't that; he had just had a row with the choir-leader, and he was mad clear through!"—Puck.

—When the teacher of the grammar class asked: "What is a kiss?" a young lady candidate for graduation honors replied: "It is what a young man gives you when he says good-night at the front door." The teacher blushed, and said that wasn't the right answer.—N. Y. Ledger.

—Young Mr. Green—"Really, my dear, you must get rid of that cook of ours. This dinner is particularly dreadful!" Young Mrs. Green—"I don't dare to, Richard. I must give her a week's notice, you know, and there is no telling what she might do in that time."—Munsey's Weekly.

—Too Amiable.—Adjutant, who has just knocked his cigar ashes into the eyes of a Prince in front of him—"Pardon, your Highness; I am inconsolable." Prince (rubbing his eyes)—"I beg you will not trouble yourself. There are occasions when it is quite pleasant to have cigar ashes in one's eyes."—Fliegende Blatter.

—Spot Cash—"I say, Hardup, hear you're going to be married next week. Now, I thought you told me the other day that you were awfully down on your luck!" Hardup—"Know I did. I've been engaged two years and steadily getting worse off. At this rate if I don't marry now I never shall be able to."—Time.

—Mrs. Gad—"Oh, Mr. Shrill, stop a moment; I want to speak to you. Have you been home since morning?" Mr. Shrill—"No." "Heard any thing?" "Why, no. What do you mean?" "Oh, I can't be the first to tell you of it; indeed I can't. The neighbors are saying that your wife and Mr. Hannah have eloped." "Well, well! It's his own fault. I warned him to keep away from her."—N. Y. Weekly.

THE LOVE OF HOME.

It Is the Saving Principle of a Republican Form of Government.

The man who kindles the fire on the hearthstone of an honest and righteous home burns the best incense of liberty. He does not love mankind less who loves his neighbor most. George Eliot has said: "A human life should be well rooted in some spot of a native land where it may get the love of tender kinship for the face of the earth, for the sounds and accents that haunt it, a spot where the definiteness of early memories may be inwrought with affection and spread, not by sentimental effort or reflection, but as the sweet habit of the blest."

The germ of the best patriotism is in the love a man has for the home he inhabits, for the soil he tills, for the trees that give him shade, and the hills that stand in his pathway. I teach my son to love Georgia—to love the soil that he stands on—the body of my old mother—the mountains that are her springing breasts, the broad acres that hold her substance, the dimpling valleys in which her beauty rests, the forests that sing her songs of lullaby and of praise, and the brooks that run with her rippling laughter.

The love of home, deep-rooted and abiding, that blurs the eyes of the dying soldier with the vision of an old homestead amid green fields and clustering trees, that follows the busy man through the clamoring world, persistent, though put aside, and at last draws his tired feet from the highway and leads him through shady lanes and well-remembered paths until amid the scenes of his boyhood he gathers up the broken threads of his life and owns the soil his conqueror—this, lodged in the heart of the citizen, is the saving principle of our Government. We note the barracks of our standing army with its rolling drum and its fluttering flag as points of strength and protection. But the citizen standing in the doorway of his home, contented on his threshold, his family gathered about his hearthstone, while the evening of a well-spent day closes in scenes and sounds that are dearest—he shall save the republic when the drum tap is futile and the barracks are exhausted.—Henry Grady, of the Atlanta Constitution.

A JOURNAL FOR ADVERTISERS.

Is issued on the first and fifteenth days of each month, and is the representative journal—the trade journal of American advertisers. It indicates to the inexperienced advertiser how, when, and where he should advertise; how to write an advertisement; how to display one; what newspapers to use; how much money to expend—in fact, discourses on every point that admits of profitable discussion. Advertising is an art practiced by many but understood by few. The conductors of PRINTERS' INK understand it, and their advice is based on an experience of more than twenty-five years in placing advertising contracts for many of the largest and most successful advertisers. TANSILL'S PUNCH 5¢

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down; let's have an experience meeting. How's the wife?"

"Oh! she's so-so, same as usual,—always wanting something I can't afford."

"Well, we all want something more than we've got. Don't you?"

"Yes; but I guess 'want' will be my master. I started to keep down expenses; and now Lil says I'm 'mean,' and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!"

"I think she is; and we are economical, too,—have to be. My wife can make a little go farther than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word: the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitarian Department. But I can't tell you half!"

"What wonderful Magazine is it?"

"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that's what Lil wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."

"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'sub.' right here, on my wife's account: she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our tin wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List for clubs,—the biggest thing out! If you don't see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it is a tack hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either for a club, or for part cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mrs. Tom. Only $2.00 a year—will save fifty times that in six months. Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been ... in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

Lincoln County LEADER, one year and full set of Dickens, for $2.75

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused" and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine, the same as for theft.

HUMOROUS.

—"Pa," said a lad to his father, "I have often read of people poor but honest; why don't they sometimes say rich but honest?" "Tut, tut, my son, nobody would believe them," answered the father.—Liverpool Post.

—Miss Laugham—"You Americans use the name of George Washington very frequently, do you not?" Mr. de Yank—"Yes, indeed. Why, 'George Washington' has been on every one's tongue since postage stamps were invented."—N. Y. Sun.

—"Blinkins is a nice fellow." "Yes; but he shows such a marked disposition to exaggerate." "To be sure; but that is counterbalanced by one thing." "What is that?" "The general indisposition to believe him."—Merchant Traveler.

—Visitor—"Your pastor seems to be a very earnest man. His voice trembled with emotion when he read the lessons this morning." Soprano—"Oh, it wasn't that; he had just had a row with the choir-leader, and he was mad clear through!"—Puck.

—When the teacher of the grammar class asked: "What is a kiss?" a young lady candidate for graduation honors replied: "It is what a young man gives you when he says good-night at the front door." The teacher blushed, and said that wasn't the right answer.—N. Y. Ledger.

—Young Mr. Green—"Really, my dear, you must get rid of that cook of ours. This dinner is particularly dreadful!" Young Mrs. Green—"I don't dare to, Richard. I must give her a week's notice, you know, and there is no telling what she might do in that time."—Munsey's Weekly.

—Too Amiable.—Adjutant, who has just knocked his cigar ashes into the eyes of a Prince in front of him—"Pardon, your Highness; I am inconsolable." Prince (rubbing his eyes)—"I beg you will not trouble yourself. There are occasions when it is quite pleasant to have cigar ashes in one's eyes."—Fliegende Blatter.

—Spot Cash—"I say, Hardup, hear you're going to be married next week. Now, I thought you told me the other day that you were awfully down on your luck!" Hardup—"Know I did. But I've been engaged two years and steadily getting worse off. At this rate if I don't marry now I never shall be able to."—Time.

—Mrs. Gad—"Oh, Mr. Shrill, stop a moment; I want to speak to you. Have you been home since morning?" Mr. Shrill—"No." "Heard any thing?" "Why, no. What do you mean?" "Oh, I can't be the first to tell you of it. Indeed I can't. The neighbors are saying that your wife and Mr. Hanson have eloped." "Well, well! It's his own fault. I warned him to keep away from her."—N. Y. Weekly.

THE LOVE OF HOME.

The man who kindles the fire on the hearthstone of an honest and righteous home burns the best incense of liberty. He does not love mankind less who loves his neighbor most. George Eliot has said: "A human life should be well rooted in some spot of a native land where it may get the love of tender kinship for the face of the earth, for the sounds and accents that haunt it, a spot where the definiteness of early memories may be inwrought with affection and spread, not by sentimental effort or reflection, but as the sweet habit of the blood."

The germ of the best patriotism is in the love a man has for the home he inhabits, for the soil he tills, for the trees that give him shade, and the hills that stand in his pathway. I teach my son to love Georgia—to love the soil that he stands on—the body of my old mother—the mountains that are her springing breasts, the broad acres that hold her substance, the dimpling valleys in which her beauty rests, the forests that sing her songs of lullaby and of praise, and the brooks that run with her rippling laughter.

The love of home, deep-rooted and abiding, that blurs the eyes of the dying soldier with the vision of an old homestead amid green fields and clustering trees, that follows the busy man through the clamoring world, persistent, though put aside, and at last draws his tired feet from the highway and leads him through shady lanes and well-remembered paths until amid the scenes of his boyhood he gathers up the broken threads of his life and owns the soil his conqueror—this, lodged in the heart of the citizen, is the saving principle of our Government. We note the barracks of our standing army, with its rolling drum and its fluttering flag, as points of strength and protection. But the citizen standing on the doorway of his home, contented on his threshold, his family gathered about his hearthstone, while the evening of a well-spent day closes in scenes and sounds that are dearest—he shall save the republic when the drum tap is futile and the barracks are exhausted.—Henry Grady, of the Atlanta Constitution.

A VOICE from Ohio. Here is a portrait of Mr. Garrison, of Salem, Ohio. He writes: "Was at work on a farm for $20 a month; I now have an agency for E. C. Allen & Co.'s albums and publications and often make $20 a day." (Signed) W. H. Garrison.

William Kline, Harrisburg, Pa., writes: "I have never known anything to sell like your album. Yesterday I took orders enough to pay me over $25." W. J. Elmore, Bangor, Me., writes: "I take an order for your album at almost every house I visit. My profit is often as much as $20 for a single day's work." Others are doing quite as well; we have not space to give extracts from their letters. Every one who takes hold of this grand business piles up grand profits.

Shall we start YOU in this business, reader? Write to us and learn all about it for yourself. We are starting many; we will start you if you don't delay until another gets ahead of you in your part of the country. If you take hold you will be able to pick up gold fast. PRINTERS' INK.

A JOURNAL FOR ADVERTISERS.

Is issued on the first and fifteenth days of each month, and is the representative journal—the trade journal of American advertisers. It indicates to the inexperienced advertiser how, when, and where he should advertise; how to write an advertisement; how to display one; what newspapers to use; how much money to expend—in fact, discourses on every point that admits of profitable discussion. Advertising is an art practised by many but understood by few. The conductors of PRINTERS' INK understand it, and their advice is based on an experience of more than twenty-five years in placing advertising contracts for many of the largest and most successful advertisers. TANSILL'S PUNCH 5c

[illegible]

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down; let's have an experience meeting. How's the wife?"

"Oh! she's so-so, same as usual,—always wanting something I can't afford."

"Well, we all want something more than we've got. Don't you?"

"Yes; but I guess 'want' will be my master. I started to keep down expenses; and now Lil says I'm 'mean,' and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen."

"I think she is; and we are economical, too,—have to be. My wife can make a little go farther than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitarian Department. But I can't tell you half!"

"What wonderful Magazine is it?"

"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that's what Lil wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."

"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'sub.' right here, on my wife's account: she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our tin wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List for clubs,—the biggest thing out! If you don't see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it is a tack hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either for a club, or for part cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mrs. Tom. Only $2.00 a year—will save fifty times that in six months. Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

Dobbins' Electric Soap

THE BEST FAMILY SOAP —IN THE WORLD.—

It Is Strictly Pure. Uniform in Quality.

THE original formula for which we paid $50,000 twenty years ago has never been modified or changed in the slightest. This soap is identical in quality to-day with that made twenty years ago.

IT contains nothing that can injure the finest fabric. It brightens colors and bleaches whites.

IT washes flannels and blankets as no other soap in the world does—without shrinking—leaving them soft and white and like new.

READ THIS TWICE

THERE is a great saving of time, of labor, of soap, of fuel, and of the fabric, where Dobbins' Electric Soap is used according to directions.

ONE trial will demonstrate its great merit. It will pay you to make that trial.

LIKE all best things, it is extensively imitated and counterfeited.

Beware of Imitations.

INSIST upon Dobbins' Electric. Don't take Magnetic, Electro-Magic, Philadelphia Electric, or any other fraud, simply because it is cheap. They will ruin clothes, and are dear at any price. Ask for and take no other. Nearly every grocer from Maine to Mexico keeps it in stock. If yours hasn't it, he will order from his nearest wholesale grocer.

READ carefully the inside wrapper around each bar, and be careful to follow directions on each outside wrapper. You cannot afford to wait longer before trying for yourself this old, reliable, and truly wonderful

Dobbins' Electric Soap.

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

CHARLES DICKENS.

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than the Regular Subscription Price.

Our great offer ... within the past six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than the regular subscription price. ... Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The twelve volumes which we offer as a premium to our subscribers ... from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,	BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,	OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
NICHOLAS NICKLEBY,	THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
DOMBEY AND SON,	A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

Lincoln County LEADER, one year and full set of Dickens, for $2.75

In the hands of young men this great system has been so carefully managed that it has earned a reputation second to none for convenience, safety and the luxuries of travel. It is fast becoming the popular route for transcontinental travel, in connection with the Southern Pacific railroad.

It has opened up an almost unlimited field for pioneer enterprise in the far West. No other railroad can carry a man, who is seeking his fortune, to golden opportunities such as are open along a thousand miles of this great system.

Special freight rates are given to miners and immigrants.

LOCAL ROUNDUPS

Looksometimes makes a name,
But printers ink so black and solemn,
Will give a man peculiar fame,
When put in this peculiar column.

HON. W. C. MCDONALD spent a couple of days in town this week and then hied back to his legislative duties.

JOHN Y. HEWITT left on Thursday for Ohio, there to visit his mother who, it is feared, lies on her death bed.

JOHN COLLIER, of Mo., son of our old townsman, J. B. Collier, arrived in town this week on a visit to his parents. The young man is accompanied by his wife.

WHAT is the matter with Dr. Paton? He seems to have lost his grip. Last week he gave us a cluster of five births and this week only one—to Geo. E. Sligh a son.

THE South Homestake Mine recommenced work on Monday last with a good force, after a rest of several weeks. There is no doubt but what good results will be noted before many weeks elapse.

AUTOMATIC SEWING MACHINES!

Prices reduced. Every family now can have the best Automatic Sewing Machine in the market at reduced price. For particulars send for our new Illustrated Circular with samples of stitching. Our Illustrated Circular shows every part of the Machine perfectly, and is worth sending for even if you have a Machine. Kruse & Murphy Mfg. Co., 455 and 457 West 25th St., N. Y. City.

THE mining camp at Nogal, which for some weeks past has been developing the Helen [illegible] Mine, closed down last [illegible]. The work has been successful [illegible] resulted fully as well as anticipated. The ore bodies developed are of good size and quality. The [illegible] of ore on the dump proves [illegible] monstration the character of [illegible] property. The next move will [illegible] to erect a plant to reduce the ore, and then the work can be prosecuted successfully.

"We are not on to it, but the new appellation of Horace, as applied to the White Oaks LEADER, is rather a singular one. You have the floor, Major. When he takes it, Kibbee, we tremble for you.—Liberty Banner.

Had it not been that our friend of the Banner has more time to read light literature than we have knowledge that the little goat-of the Lincoln Independent had [illegible] [illegible] upon our forms would never have occurred to us. We seldom read it, and now the intelligence comes to us that it's little animation is about to suspend—however, we wouldn't kick a stick [illegible] death calf.

—Since the above was put in [illegible] the Lincoln calf has died. [illegible] the fetus it can or could say [illegible] as soon I am [illegible] for. I wonder what I was begun for." Echo answers "I [illegible]."

[illegible] his case against Sepulver in the land office at Roswell. In response to our enquiry as to whether such decision would be final, he said—"No; there's no telling where a law suit will end," which reminds us of the couple who went to a theatre, and on one remarking that he could'nt see how such a story could be drawn out into five acts responded, "It's very simple. In the first act, you see, the hero gets involved in a law suit."

SIDNEY M. PARKER is now a full fledged Justice of the Peace, he having qualified by taking the required oath this week. We have known Justices that could'nt qualify, i. e. would'nt be qualified for the position even though they took oaths every day. But Sid. ain't built that way. He is clean, and while he will not assume to know more than the Supreme Court, as some of his predecessors have, he will conscientiously abide his oath, and administer square justice without fear or favor.

Disorders which Affect the Kidneys

Are among the most formidable known. Diabetes, Bright's disease, gravel and other complaints of the urinary organs are not ordinarily cured in severe cases, but they may be averted by timely medication. A useful stimulant of the urinary glands has ever been found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine which not only affords the requisite stimulus when they become inactive, but increases their vigor and secretive power. By increasing the activity of the kidneys and bladder, this medicine has the additional effect of expelling from the blood impurities which it is the peculiar office of those organs to eliminate and pass off. The Bitters is also a purifier and strengthener of the bowels, an invigorant of the stomach, and a matchless remedy for biliousness and fever and ague. It counteracts a tendency to premature decay, and sustains and comforts the aged and infirm.

MCDOWELL, of the Nogal Banner was a welcome caller at the moral centre on Thursday. Mc. was wont to read our pencillings over twenty years ago and says he ain't tired reading them yet. Singular what taste and endurance [illegible]
