Lincoln Court House Bonds

Scheme to Rob the Taxpayers out of Thousands of Dollars and Bankrupt the County.

APPALLING FIGURES.

The Board of County Commissioners have issued a proclamation for a special election to be held on the 2nd day of July next, to take a vote on the proposition of issuing the bonds of Lincoln Co. in the sum of $20,000, to run for 30 years, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, to be issued and used to defray the cost of building a new court house at the town of Lincoln.

To the impartial thinker, after reading the proclamation, the idea naturally suggests itself, what does Lincoln or Lincoln County want with a new court house?—Who are the 200 or more qualified voters who signed the petition?!—Who are the men who first suggested the nefarious scheme!!!

We have been a citizen of this county for many years and thought we were thoroughly acquainted with the characteristics of it's people; even now, with the proclamation staring us in the face, and the other fact that 200 qualified voters (God save the mark!) compelled an honest Board of Commissioners to under the law issue the call, we cannot in our mind mention the name of a single man who would deliberately filch from the pockets of the people of Lincoln County for the purpose of galvanizing life into the effete town of Lincoln save and except a few carbonarists such as subsist at all county-seats, og do vultures on carrion—to such creatures we have no argument to offer.

To the taxpayer, the merchant and miner, the ranchman and farmer, who have to foot the bills, the call for this special election can have no meaning save that of downright robbery. Hence, a few facts for those who might, perhaps be indifferent on the subject cannot be amiss.

Shortly after the organization of Lincoln County in 1869, the present building, now used for county purposes, was bought from Dowling & Murphy at a cost of $20,000; additional sums since expended for repairs, &c, has brought it's total cost to the county in the neighborhood of $27,000

This building was good enough for the whole of old Lincoln Co., and no question was ever raised by our people when Chaves and Eddy counties formed a portion of it's territory, either as to it's availability or usefulness for the purposes of a court house.

The gentry of Lincoln say that the building is shabby. It is not so shabby looking as it was when we first saw it. We have been in it at several terms of court and heard discomfitted litigants complain of everything but the shabbiness of the building; we have seen men sentenced to the pen., but never heard one kick because the court house was not gorgeous enough; we saw James tried there and saw him hang in the enclosure but while he squealed at almost everything else he didn't squeal at the shabbiness of the temple of justice in which he was tried.

When the law took effect, January 1st, 1891, taking Chaves and Eddy counties away from us, it at the same time took 58 per cent. of all the taxable property of Lincoln County. And in addition to that, after deducting what was due Lincoln County from Chaves and Eddy counties of the old county indebtedness on the 1st day of January, 1891, we still owe the sum of $15,000. Our present assessment roll (being but 42 per cent. of what it was prior to '91,) foots up something in the neighborhood of $1,700,000. Taking the rate of taxation as it was in 1890, $1.78 on the hundred, and our total revenue for all purposes would amount to the small sum of $30,260.

And to make more plain the present arduous and unpleasant position of our Board of County Commissioners, take the following figures and ask yourself, taxpayer, how can the Board make both ends meet:

|---|---|
| Taxes on $1,700,000, at $1.78 | $30,260 |
| Debt of Lincoln County. Jan 1, 1891 | $15,000 |
| Current expense account from Jan. 1, to July 1, '91 not less than | 37,000 |
| | $82,000 |
| Leaving balance for all other purposes for the year 1891, of | $9,260 |

With the exception of some smaller balances belonging to other funds, such as the jail fund, &c, there is not a single dollar in the county treasury to pay officers' salaries, keeping prisoners, and other incidental expenses pertaining to the county for the month of July, and if the Commissioners attempt to pay off or cover up the unavoidable deficiency that is bound to occur in the treasury between now and the 1st of October, when taxes for the current year become due, they must pursue one of two plans:

1st—Issue 6 per cent. coupon bonds under the act of February 10, 1889, or 2nd—Illegally convert one fund into another and thus render the whole Board as well as the County Clerk and Treasurer liable to indictment, fine of $1,000, imprisonment in the penitentiary for one year, or both, at the discretion of the Court.

Now, in the presence of Lincoln County's present financial condition we ask the sapient sapheads who are clamoring for a new court house, "what are you going to do about it?"

Again, before you cast your votes, taxpayers of Lincoln County, on the proposition which must be decided on the 2nd day of July, let us see what these $20,000 court house bonds, at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, will amount to in thirty years:

|---|---|
| Face value of court house bonds | $20,000 |
| 6 per cent per annum interest each year, with 10 per cent. cost of collection | $1,320 |
| Multiply that by 30 years | 39,600 |
| Discount at 10 per cent on $20,000 | 2,000 |
| Cost of collecting $20,000, sinking fund | 22,000 |
| Loss to County of present building | 27,000 |
| Repairs to new court house in 30 years | 3,600 |
| Total cost | $92,600 |
| Deduct value of new court house | 18,000 |
| Loss to tax payers | $75,600 |

Truly, this is a sorrowful picture for the taxpayer to contemplate. Nothing but bankruptcy could inure to the county should this perndious scheme succeed.—As it is, it is extremely doubtful if the Board of County Commissioners will not be compelled at their next meeting in July to levy a tax of $2.25 on the $100 to meet all current county expenses, and to enable them to avoid, if possible, the necessity of issuing coupon bonds under the law of '89 so as to place the county, during this and the coming year, on a cash paying basis, and if, as we fear, the rate will have to be increased to $2.25, how long will it take to run the tax up to $3.00 or even more if this contemplated robbery be not nipped in the bud.

Happily, "forewarned, forearmed," and if the men who are honestly interested in the welfare of the county do their duty impending bankruptcy will be avoided and our county saved from the rapacious clutches of the unscrupulous few.

CANADA, in the death of Sir J. A. McDonald, has lost the grandest man she ever produced save Ogle R. Gowan. The latter never achieved the reputation as a statesman that the Premier did, but he was a grand old man for a' that.

EDDY County has tried to sell it's bonds at 95 cts. on the dollar. The best offer it could get was 90 cts. With a railroad to tax and help bear it's burdens, only 90c. How is that for high yo Lincoln new court house schemers!

If you sell $7,000 at 5 per cent interest 20 year bonds at 90 cents on the dollar, how much must you tax, say the rate of taxation to pay current county expenses?—The law says you cannot exceed 5 mills on the dollar. Query—how long will it take to pay off the bonds?

The law says you cannot sell county bonds for less than 95c. on the dollar and that you can't issue over $7,000 for current expense account.

EDDY County, with all the influence of Hon. C. B. Eddy, has not been able to sell it's bonds at a decent figure.

LAST Wednesday night a public meeting of the citizens of White Oaks was held to consider the proposition of voting bonds to build a new court house at Lincoln.—The meeting was a large one representing all lines of business.—Speeches were made antagonizing the scheme and committees were appointed to frustrate the diabolical plot to bankrupt the county in the interest of a handfull of rapacious vampires who will emerge from the conflict branded with the red hot poker of public contempt and popular contumely.

MEMORIAL OF T. W. COREY.

WHEREAS—It has pleased an all-wise providence to remove by death our beloved friend and brother, Thomas W. Corey;

Therefore be it resolved by White Oaks Lodge, U. D. A. F. & A. M., that bowing in submission to His will we at the same time feel and deplore our loss of a true man, friend and brother, and we thus publicly desire to express our esteem and love, and to extend to his aged and beloved mother this token of our sincere sympathy and kindness.

We would also extend to the G. A. R. and the kind friends and public generally our thanks and gratitude for the respect and many kindnesses shown and acted.

Be it further resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be given to the mother of our deceased brother, a copy be spread upon the records of this Lodge, and published in our town papers.

Language is inadequate in which to express my profound thanks to the Masonic fraternity, the G. A. R., and neighbors and friends outside of organizations, for their devoted attention to my darling son Thos. W. Corey, during his illness, the period in which he lay waiting for burial, and for their manifestations of sympathy for the stricken one living and regrets for the one stricken dead. That God may graciously remember them during the life of the subscriber, and after she shall have taken her destined place beside her son, is the devout prayer of El Paso, Texas, June 7.—A convention is called at this place June 30, for the purpose of securing capital to build an air line from Denver to El Paso by way of White Oaks, Las Vegas, Pueblo and Trinidad. The convention is to be composed of representatives of the different cities above mentioned. The convention will elect representatives who will be fitted out with proper data to present the project to large capitalists in the East. The proposed road is an air line from El Paso to Denver, touching the points named and will run through one of the finest agricultural, mineral and cattle countries in the West, which has heretofore been a wilderness.

CHARLES S. WHEATON, one of the oldest citizens of Fort Scott, and for several terms sheriff of Bourbon county, Kansas, died at his home last week, aged 82 years. He was father in-law of James A. Tomlinson. He was a gentleman of character and possessed of ability of a high order. In common with all who knew him we deplore his death.

Little Dot: "Mamma, Dick an I got married this morning." Mamma: "You did, did you? Who performed the ceremony?" Dot: "I don't know what you's talking about." Mamma: "Well, how did you make out you were married?" Dot: "Oh why, I got my dishes, an' set the table, an' then we both sat down; an' he said there wasn't a thing fit to eat; an' I said he was ugly as he could be, an' he went out an' slammed the door!"

The Pennsylvania railroad company represents a capitalization of $700,000,000, and controls 8,000 miles of road. Last year it hauled 27,000,000 tons of freight, and carried 84,000,000 passengers.

"CAN the character be read from the handwriting? Most assuredly it can. Everyone can remember being influenced favorably or unfavorably by the penmanship of some unknown person and has been astonished to find how true the conclusions were; and some of the world's foremost thinkers have maintained that the handwriting furnishes a more exact key to the character than the head, face or form. Character reading from handwriting is a fascinating study; and if you wish to learn all about it you must read the excellent and profusely illustrated article, "How to Read Character by Handwriting," by Prof. Nelson Thorpe, published in the July number of DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE, and you will be still more interested in the subject. In the same number is a splendid article on "Chili," which is particularly apropos at present. "Foes Afield: Plants Poisonous to the Stomach," is quite, as seasonable, and everyone can recognize the plants from the accurate illustrations; in "Summer Outdoor Games: Lawn Tennis, Badminton, Colors," they are so clearly described and illustrated that the veriest novice can learn how to play them without other instruction; and the amateur china-painter may rival the professional by following the directions given in "The Use of Matt Colors." Besides, there are stories and poems, and over 200 illustrations, including a superb water-color, a French costume study under the Empire, and the numerous departments are full to overflowing with valuable matter. Briefly, this number fully maintains the justly earned prestige of being the Model Family Magazine, and it is published for $2 per year by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York.

A stranger in Maine desired to enter in negotiaions with a farmer in a town in state for the purchase of some live stock. Meeting a man driving an ox-wagon, the stranger inquired, "Can you imform me where Mr. West lives?" "They air a number of Wests living about here. Which one do you mean?" "This one owns some fine oxen." "They all own pretty fine oxens." "don't know this man's Christian name; but he has oxen for sale." "I guess any on'em would sell if they could get their price."

"Yes; but this Mr. West is wealthy." "They're all forehanded." "But this West is said to be a close-fisted man, and hard at bargain." "They air all of them kind of close fisted." "Well, I don't know that I can give any other quality by which you will know which West I am after." "Oh, yes! I did hear that there was a story afloat that this West once robbed his own brothers hen roost!" said the traveller laughing. "Of course it was only a story." The ox-driver smiled grimly. "Wall, stranger," he said slowly, "I reckon I'm the man!"

Sir Wm. Gordon Cumming entered an English court for character vindication saying if not vindicated he would commit suicide. He lost his case and kept his word by marrying a Yankee girl the day after the jury had declared he had no character to speak

THE BEAUTIFUL STEER.

Miss Ella Paxton, known as the "Cowgirl of the Panhandle," recently favored an enlightened audience with the following original production, which in her introductionary remarks she styled a "paradox" on "Beautiful Snow." She also stated that it was "paradoxed" while sitting on her horse one day while on her father's ranch one day in the Panhandle, situated about three miles from Mobeetie, Texas:

O! the steer, the beautiful steer,
Kicking the fleas from the point of his ear,
Flapping his tail in his frolicsome glee,
Hopping about like a Snake River flea,
Bellowing!
Roaring!
Thundering along!

Filling the air with his stecrical song,
Till the rumble from his lung lasts pits
Scares timid jack rabbits and wolves into fits,
To me there is nothing on earth half so dear,
As the long horned, slim bodied Texas steer

How often I wish that I was a steer,
With a long shiny horn at the but of each ear;
With a clear, fearless eye, and a tapering tail,
That would snap like a whip in the midst of a gale.
How I'd bellow!
And roar!
And paw up the ground!

And lope over the earth with a thundering sound,
And snort like a terror, and hump up my back,
When I saw the wild cowboy pursuing my track—
And I'd laugh at his cattle as we fled to the rear.

O, I'd be so doggy if I were a steer!
I once roped a beautiful steer, and I
Fell from my pony when [illegible]
Fell with the fastest [illegible]
Fell to be dragged [illegible]
with the steer.
Lumping!
Bellowing!
Groaning!
A full mile a minute, or I'm a [illegible]
cent,
The gravel and grass ye[illegible]
my nose
And ruined a pair of [illegible]
After men my hustle [illegible] with gear
By the frolic some freaks of that beautiful steer

The Physiological Ebb-Tide.

A tramp knows what it is to be [illegible] weary, a farm laborer to be [illegible] weary, a literary man to be [illegible] weary, and a surrowing man to be [illegible] weary. The sick are often [illegible] of life tired. Weariness is generally a physiological "ebb-tide" which time and patience will convert into "flow." It is never well to whip even a worn-out horse, except in the great straits. If he mends his pace in obedience to the stimulus every step is a drop drawn from his life-blood. Weariness is not one of the faults of the [illegible], weariness is one of the most [illegible] experiences. The chemistry a man draws on his physical resources are innumerable as the resources are [illegible]. Like any other ordinary [illegible] account, it is very easy to [illegible] a balance on the wrong side. Rest is one kind of [illegible] to the bank, sound [illegible] another, regular eating [illegible] digestion another. One day [illegible] in the week and one or two [illegible] the year for those who work [illegible] usually hard enough bring the [illegible] balance to a highly favorable condition; and thus with care and management physiological solvency is secured and maintained.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Free Reading Matter.

There are various schemes for supplying reading matter at a trifle above actual cost. What would you think if you could get good literature free?

Drop a postal to G. T. Nicholson, G. P. A., T. A. A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., Topeka, Kas., and ask for a copy of "To Mexico by Palace Car." You can also procure free copies of "A Santa Barbara Holiday," "Guide to San Diego Bay Region," "Las Vegas Hot Springs Guide," and folders relating to Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Newspaper Laws.

Dr. Tuckerman editor of the Workman Cleveland, has taken some pains to collect and compile the decisions of the U. S. Courts on the subject and says to the Washington Post, as the result of his investigations, the following, which may be relied upon as correct

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.

2. If the subscriber orders the discontinuance of his periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled the bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them unclaimed, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

Excellent Train Service.

The present schedule of train service on A. T. & S. F. R. R. from New Mexico is an excellent one.

A fast express leaves El Paso, Deming and Silver City every eastern morn, arriving at Wallace at 6 p. m. and from Wallace to La Junta by daylight, arriving at Kansas City evening of second day, and Chicago morning of third day after day of departure. This train carries Pullman palace sleepers from El Paso to Kansas City, and Los Angeles to Chicago, with Pullman tourist sleepers Los Angeles to Kansas City making direct connection at La Junta for Trinidad, Colorado Springs and Denver, and at Kansas City for St. Louis via the Wabash.

The train from San Francisco carries sleepers to Kansas City and tourist sleepers to Chicago. Also unequaled daily service on the Pullman sleeper line between Kansas City and Chicago, the following morning. And Pullman sleepers to Las Vegas, changing through without change to Denver via La Junta and Trinidad.

The Santa Fe is the only line running a daily through train, carrying sleepers and tourist sleepers to Chicago, and leaving there on the morning of the second day after departure of the train from Denver.

GREAT GULF

OF WORLD

Under one management.

A. T. & S. F.

In the hands of a young man this road will be found to be a great factor in the development of the Great West. Its lands are the best, its rates the lowest, its facilities the most complete, its travel the most, its time the quickest, its road the best, its connections the most direct and its locomotives the most powerful. In a word, the Santa Fe Route.

It has opened up an almost unlimited field for pioneer enterprise in the far West. No farmer will find one acre, nor a man, who is seeking a home, to go deeper into a country such as are opened along a thousand miles of this great system.

Special freight rates are given to settlers and immigrants.

THE BEAUTIFUL STEER.

Miss Ella Paxton, known as the "Cowgirl of the Panhandle," recently favored an enlightened audience with the following original production, which in her introductionary remarks she styled a "paradox" on "Beautiful Snow."—She also stated that it was "paradoxed" while sitting on her horse one day while on her father's ranch one day in the Panhandle, situated about three miles from Mobettie, Texas:

O! the steer, the beautiful steer,
Kicking the fleas from the point of his ear,
Flapping its tail in its frolicsome glee,
Hopping about like a Snake River flea,
Bellowing!
Roaring!
Thundering along!

Filling the air with its steerical song,
Till the rumble from its lung is ten miles
Scares timid jack rabbits and wolves into fits,
To me there is nothing on earth half so dear,
As the long horned, slim bellied Texas steer

How often I wish that I was a steer,
With a long shiny horn at the but of each ear;
With a clear, fearless eye, and a tapering tail
That would snap like a whip in the mad dancing gale.
How I'd bellow!
And roar!
And paw up the ground!

And lope over the earth with a thundering sound,
And snort like a terror, and hump up my back,
When I saw the wild cowboy pursuing my track—
And I'd laugh a hoble cathe so he fe[illegible] the fear.

O, I'd be a Jo dandy if I w[illegible]
I once roped a b[illegible]
Fell from my pony [illegible]
I'd fall with the latigo fast [illegible]
I'd to be dragge[illegible]
with the mule,
Lumping!
Bellowing!
Grunting!
A full mile a minute, or I [illegible]
cent,
The gravel and grass [illegible]
my rear
And ruined a pair of [illegible]
Ah, then my hustle [illegible]
gear
By the frolic some freaks of that b[illegible]

The Physiological Ebb-Tide.

A tramp knows what it is to be [illegible] weary, a farm laborer to be [illegible] weary, a literary man to be brain weary, and a surrounding man to be soul weary. The sick are often weary of life itself. Weariness is generally a physiological "ebb-tide," which time and patience will convert into "flow." It is never well to whip a tired or worn-out horse, except in the direct sense. If he mends his pace in obedience to the stimulus every step is a drop drawn from his life-blood. Fatigue is not one of the faults of the human body; weariness is one of the most natural experiences. The child is only a man drawn on his physical resources are innumerable as those resources are [illegible] like any other ordinary [illegible] account, it is very easy to [illegible] a balance on the wrong side quite out of the kind of [illegible] out to the bank, sound [illegible] another, regular eating [illegible] digestion another. One day [illegible] in the week and one or two more [illegible] the year, for those who work [illegible] totally hard usually bring the [illegible] force to a highly favorable condition; and thus with care and management physiological solvency is secured and maintained.—Philadelphia Ledger.

I believe Piso's Cure for Consumption saved my life.—A. H. Dowrie, Editor Enquirer, Edenton, N. C., April 26, 1887.

The best Cough Medicine is Piso's Cure for Consumption. Children take it without objection. By all druggists. 25c.

Free Reading Matter.

There are various schemes for supplying reading matter at a trifle above actual cost. What would you think if you could get good literature free?

Drop a postal to O. T. Nicholson, G. P. A. T. A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., Topeka, Kansas, and ask for a copy of "To Mexico by Palace Car." You can also procure free copies of "Alanda Barbara Holiday," "Guide to San Diego Bay Region," "Las Vegas Hot Springs Guide," and fishers relating to Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Newspaper Laws.

Dr. Tuckerman, editor of the Workman, Cleveland, has taken some pains to collect and compile the decisions of the U. S. Courts and the subject and prepare to the Washington Post, as the result of his investigations, the following, which may be filed up in a scrap-book:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscriptions.

2. If the subscriber orders the discontinuance of his periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed they are responsible until they have settled the bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. [illegible] to give [illegible] if they do not wish [illegible] take it, otherwise the publisher is entitled to send it [illegible] payment of all [illegible] collection.

Excellent Train Service.

The present schedule of train service on A. T. & S. F. R. R. from New Mexico is an excellent one.

A fast express leaves El Paso, Deming and Silver City early each afternoon, making the run to Lamy, and from Wallace to La Junta, by daylight, arriving at Kansas City evening of second day, and Chicago morning of third day after day of departure. This train carries Pullman palace sleepers from El Paso to Kansas City, and Los Angeles to Chicago, with Pullman tourist sleepers Los Angeles to Kansas City, making direct connection at La Junta for Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver, and at Lamy for St. Louis via the Valley.

The train from San Francisco (which carries sleepers to Kansas City and tourist sleepers to Chicago) leaves Albuquerque daily at [illegible] p. m., strikes darkness near Wagon Mound, arriving in Kansas City evening of next day, and in Chicago the following morning. An excellent Pullman sleeper is attached at Las Vegas, running through without change to Denver via La Junta and Trinidad.

The Santa Fe [illegible] has [illegible] equipment [illegible] on these lines, to meet the requirements of the travelling public. Inquiries of local agents will [illegible]

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children, during the period of teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

WHITE OAKS may not be the best place in the world to live in, but is surely the best place to which to resort with sick nerves and to die. No sooner is man or woman prostrated by disease than sympathizing friends inspire willing hands to administer relief, and when death comes authority who find officers of our people rally out in tributes to the dead and sad hearts in beautiful eulogy.

COL. Alphabet Jewles was in town this week but didn't circulate much for fear he would get caught. He is now lending his energies in behalf of the citizens to advance Lincoln at the expense of Lincoln County. On moving from here his evil destiny followed all the fellows behind him. We wish him luck, with his new love, but he should have set up reasonable grounds and secured a legitimate divorce before taking his old mother-in-law to stake.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

LAST week we spoke of a rumor previous to that John R. Wilson had struck it rich in his Silver Cliff mine. This week we have seen several specimens said to be from the report. He has now about twenty men employed in getting out ore and per week will set his mill to work converting it into bullion. Yes, Uncle John has struck it and next year will be a high [illegible]

White Oaks is coming to the front when ingenuity is in demand. We have a case in point. It seems he [illegible] with one of the Sisters on account of White Oaks. What he doesn't know isn't in the books. Under the red capillary which covers his dome of thought is a hidden wealth of resources. Amongst his other accomplishments he can so fix down any spirit as would draw water from the mouths of farrowed pigs and tears from the nostrils of those only permitted to smell of it. A few evenings since, our friend, thus favored by Nature, training and instinct, had a tooth-some kettle of soap on the stove.—While waiting for his crystals his attention was called to a couple of sticks of giant powder which had been carelessly left out in the weather until it had become frost bitten. The accomplished gentleman alluded to [illegible] the giant [illegible] for [illegible] money [illegible] to go out of doors and before he could [illegible] the powder, like the [illegible] of, with it [illegible] turned on its heel [illegible] by throwing the stove to another place, he beam through the roof and the soap all over the premises. The deed all end doesn't say so—he would see the whole world damned before he would say it—but he would have given a dollar and a half for the services of some expert profanity about that time.

The World Enriched.
The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will contribute to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited. Syrup of Figs was first produced and the world was enriched with the best perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

WE inadvertently neglected mentioning three weeks ago that Geo. W. Miles, late king of the Jicarilla, was under arrest at San Diego, Cal., charged with killing his partner, Geo. W. Miller, with a hammer, while the victim was asleep.—At the conclusion of the inquest a motion to release Miles was denied the evidence being deemed too circumstantially direct and criminal. The murdered man was an old resident of Kansas City, where we have lived many years as a gentleman of worth. Mike appears to be in for trouble.

WE have a full stock of ladies and gents slippers and low cut shoes, especially for hot weather, which we recommend to everybody. Goodman, Ziegler & Co.
