Ruidoso Roundup

By Mary Nell

One day this week Dorothy Kirkman handed me a "20 Years Ago In El Paso" column dated April 6, 1928 which someone had mailed to her, circled in red was the following item:

"A Summer resort town, "Skyland", near Ruidoso, N. M. is being sold in lots to readers of The Times and Herald. Purchase price of lots is $59.50 plus a six months subscription, with $8.50 down and no interest charges on the balance at $3 monthly". This almost sounds stranger than fiction knowing the prices of lots here today. BUT WHAT WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW, IS THERE ANYONE HERE WHO REMEMBERS THIS PROPOSITION, OR TOOK ADVANTAGE OF IT.?

Several people have asked the past week if the News has heard from Iva Coleman and Emma Miller who are in Alaska. We have, several wonderfully descriptive letters, they are now at the Anchorage Hotel in Anchorage, Alaska, and have had thrills and excitment from the minute they left Ruidoso. Anyone who cares to is welcome to drop by the office, read the letters, and in this way share the trip with them, for I am saving each and every one and filing them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Frame, some of the "longest term summer residents on the Ruidoso. were in the office this week talking about people firing guns within the city limits of the village. They said that last winter sometime at "head level", they dug the bullet out of the wall this spring. Also, all outside lights at their son-in-laws' house ,in Ruidoso B. E. Penix of Corona, had been shot out, both of these cabins are within the city limits. Mr. and Mrs. Frame were wondering if there isn't a fine for shooting firearms within the city limits, and if it couldn't be enforced?

Read this definition of psychiatry, and agree. "When a small boy asked his father for a definition of psychiatry, the father replied sagely, "Well, it seems that it's ordinary advice dressed in a black coat and striped trousers."

Still talking football and Warriors, but honestly, there were as many Ruidoso people in Carrizozo for the game last Friday as there were their own homefolk, maybe if there hadn't of been that one touchdown could not have been made. Some of those we saw over the mountain were Jack and Oo-Hoo Hull, Walt and Mamie Crosby, Pat Rooney, Dee-Dee Holloway Bill Coe and family from Glencoe, Mr. and Mrs. George Perry, whose oldest son "suits out" this year, Joe Palmers, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morris, and the Ruidoso Pep-Squad and Cheer Leaders were very much in evidence, don't forget the home game this afternoon, and turn out again.

The trees are turning in the mountains, the Virginia Creeper is scarlet, white violets make a carpet under foot certain places

Employment Service Discontinued Here

The New Mexico State Employment Service has discontinued itinerant service to Ruidoso for the time being. This is due to the low number of contacts being made to the office each Wednesday and will in all probability be changed if there is an appreciable increase in activity here.

In the meantime any employer from this area in need of workers or information is requested to contact the Alamogordo Local Office. Any workers in need of a job and wanting to file an unemployment insurance claim should also call at the Alamogordo office. The office is located at 801 New York Avenue and the telephone number is 382-R.

Ruidoso Plays Tatum High Here Today

The Ruidoso High School Warriors play another home game here this afternoon (Friday) at 2:30 on the Warrior Field north of the high school, meeting Tatum High School. There will be only one more home game after today—the Warriors play Artesia B here next Friday, October 14.

Ruidoso has now won three of the four games they have played, defeating Cloudcroft and Capitan by one-sided scores, and slipping by Carrizozo last Friday. Their one defeat was at the hands of the strong Eunice eleven. Eunice is the only team which has scored against the fast-charging Warrior line and alert secondary.

The game in Carrizozo last week resulted in a 6-0 victory for Ruidoso. Wade Hedgecoke carried over from within the Grizzly five yard line early in the game, and the Warriors fought off a strong Carrizozo attack for the remainder of the contest. Carrizozo outgained the Warriors in the middle of the field, but when Ruidoso was backed up against their own goal on two occasions they shoved the Grizzlies back in four downs and took the ball without being scored upon.

Coach Cy Leland said that little is known about the Tatum eleven except that this is their first year to have a football team. They have lost games to Melrose and Monument by three touchdowns.

The game next week-end with Artesia has been designated Homecoming game, and a Football Queen will be elected by the players and announced before the opening kickoff.

Canyon Echoes . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cantrell have returned to Ruidoso after a vacation in Texas. While gone, Warren played tournament golf in Amarillo and Ft. Worth . . . and did all right. Jay McClure was in charge of Cree Meadows while he was away.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oberholtzer of Midland, Texas spent last weekend in Ruidoso and were present for the Board of Directors meeting for Cree Meadows Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gaignet of Tahoka, Texas, are building a home in Cree Meadows Heights. Mrs. John Emde of Ruidoso is contractor. They have rented the Joe Palmer rock house to live in while their home is under construction and plan to be here most of the time.

Mrs. Wayne West of Ozona, Texas, who built a home here this summer, was in town this week.

Ramona Daklugie Services Read At White Tail

Ramona Chihuahua Daklugie, 75 years old, passed away at the Mescalero Hospital September 25th after a several months illness. Ramona, the wife of Asa Daklugie, outstanding member of the Mescalero Apache Tribe, one of the finest Christian women on the Reservation, will be mourned by many friends there and the surrounding area.

Ramona Chihuahua was born in 1874 in the Chihuahua Indian country, the daughter of Chief Chihuahua. This area is from the Sierra Madres in Old Mexico to the San Carlos Mountains in Arizona.

Ramona and her husband were originally from the same tribe of Apache Indians, the Chiricahua, who about 200 years ago migrated back and forth from Mexico into the Arizona territory and New Mexico and Colorado.

Ramona's father, Chihuahua, was a famous scout, the friend of the white man, and one who took part in the negotiations for surrender when the Apache war was over.

After 1885, and the surrender, Ramona along with her tribesmen was taken to Florida and Alabama, then to Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, where she was a prisoner of war.

Shortly after this Ramona went to Carlisle, Pa., to school, the largest Indian School in the United Stated. Her husband, Asa, was also among those sent. Both Ramona and Asa took ful ladvantage of the opportunity to learn and stayed there for nine years, studying English, grammar, history and all other things presented to them which would enable them to live a better life.

On June 25, 1898, Asa and Ramona were married by church law with Rev. Frank Wright performing the ceremony at Ft. Sill. Last year, June 25, 1948, they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at their home in White Tail with Indian and white friends alike there for the occasion.

In Ft. Sill Ramona accepted the Christian Reformed faith and began to take an active part in church work which she continued until the time she had to enter the hospital late this summer.

In 1913 the Daklugies came to Mescalero with other members of their tribe and settled down in the White Tail area where they founded a fine Christian home for their children. From this home Mrs. Daklugie worked hard for the improvement of conditions for her family and her tribe and fulfilled every responsibilit yof a mother and wife.

Surviving Ramona besides her husband are two daughters, Mrs. Ralph Shanta of Three Rivers and Mrs. Robert Geronimo of White Tail, and a brother, Eugene Chihuahua. She also had several grandchildren and great-grandchildren, some of whom she had helped to rear.

Services for Ramona Daklugie were held at 4:00 p. m., September 26, with burial at the White Tail Cemetery. Rev. R. Ten Haken, pastor and missionary at Mescalero, was in charge. Several of the Indian women who were her friends sang favorite hymns during the services.

Many flowers were sent, or brought by friends from surrounding towns, including Alamogordo, Ruidoso, Tularosa, Three Rivers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bounds left Ruidoso Friday night of last week by auto following an emergency call telling them that her only brother, Frank, was very ill in a Memphis, Tenn. hospital. He had suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

Announcement

The Mescalero Apache Tribe met in general session on Oct. 1 as a result of the recent action of our Business Committee in requesting the removal of the Superintendent of the reservation.

It is the opinion of the people of the reservation, after listening to the grievances of the group responsible for this action, that the Business Committee has acted without good and sufficient cause and without the knowledge and support of the people.

We regret the unfavorable publicity which the tribe has received from this irresponsible action and ask that the newspapers print this to correct the wrong impression which the previous statements may have given the public.

MESCALERO INDIAN CALL

By Mrs. Edna Shields

In the industrious Prell family at Big Chief: Paul and Carmen Brusuelas are building themselves a doll house just behind their cafe. They work by electric light, and brother-in-law Bob Hinshaw also.

The Mineers still live at Whitetail. It was the Woodwards who moved here first of September. Mr. Woodward is one of those men (like Bert) who sheds tears every time he thinks of the Grand Canyon—Soil Conservation.

Mrs. Crow, Mrs. Blazar and Mrs. Deveau were hostesses to the Woman's Club Party Wednesday night. Bridge was played, and delicious chicken salad sandwiches were served. Mr. and Mrs. Dee Botone won high prizes, and Mrs. Carl and Mr. LaRose received lows.

Our Mayor, John Hall didn't get a bridge prize, but he won a prize, as usual, for one of his jokes. It probably wouldn't pass the censor, as it contained the word "gridle" which very much resembles the word "girdle."

Mr. Jesse Campbell has been at the cow camp most of the week where he serves as cattle inspector.

Mr. Dan Nicholas working in the store again, where Barney (Chief) Naiche worked till other business required his attention. We remember Dan as an excellent clerk. We're lucky that way.

Everybody that is anybody went to the cattle sale Monday. The older school group and their teacher Mr. Carl were there, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McNatt and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Gayton have returned to Oklahoma. The missus, the former Narcissus Duffy, resigned her position as nurse. We also just heard that Miss Miller was injured this week by a fall on the stone steps, and Mr. Bahi Yazza drove her to El Paso for X-Rays.

The Victor Randalls' youngest child was quite ill Friday night, but improving.

The best people of these parts spent the day in El Paso Saturday, including the Bruengers, LaRoses, Mabel Betts and Fleta Baldonado.

The Earle Norris' entertained Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bingham of Tularosa Sunday evening.

Messrs. Blazer, Carl and Fleta Baldonado attended a meeting of the Delta Kappa Gama in Algdo Monday night.

The Eldon LaCourses entertained at dinner Sunday, the Frank Dorame family and Father Marcian.

Mr. Henry Prelo was best man at the wedding of Miss Ruthena Utter and Mr. Steve Tyler, of Tularosa and Carolina, respectively. The wedding was in Alamogordo.

The Blazers are enjoying company, the Noel Blazers of Berkeley, Calif.

Young Elder Saury, of the Mormon Church, was recently transferred to Ysleta.

Mr. Reino Sarlin made a trip to Santa Fe last week.

The Misses Emily Crow and Patsy Dorame attended the Pueblo Theater Saturday.

We heard the Mayor comment on a lady's hat thusly: "I presume that feather is sticking out of her brain!"

The Juan Baldonado Jr., family visited the Sr's, in Tularosa Sunday.

DON'T MISS SEEING CLAYTON BENNETT'S

Bounds played "Happy Birthday" on the piano and the lovely birthday cake with one candle presented to Mrs. Carroll by Mrs. Bounds, Mrs. Heinrich Lampe and Mrs. Wallace Alexander was brought in. Mrs. Verner Clayton of Tularosa also presented Mrs. Carroll with a huge bouquet of roses.

Guests for the special occasion were Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. Lampe, Mrs. Bounds, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. N. C. Calvert, Mrs. M. S. Cole, Mrs. Katina Elleboudt, Mrs. Joe Palmer, Mrs. Herbert Gough, Mrs. Tom Rigsby, Mrs. John Shipley, Miss Madeline Burdett, Miss Stella Campbell, Mrs. Bill Hart, Mrs. H. M. Evjyn, Mrs. Verner Clayton and Mrs. C. R. Jeffries of Tularosa, Mrs. C. C. Chase and Mrs. Harry Fairbanks.

Mr. Ray Dill has been in California for several weeks and Mrs. Dill in Las Cruces. They came home last week.

What Consumers Like

Various surveys have been made to find out why people quit trading at one retail store and go to another. Generally speaking, the main reasons seem to be high prices, poor quality goods, inferior service, and indifferent salespeople, in that order.

The public is fickle and demanding. It's no easy job to run a successful store of any kind. Under the competitive system, every merchant and those who work for him must continually give their best. In a period of shortages, such as a war, there are many people who will buy almost anything and pay any price asked. But that situation is artificial and short-lived—a fact which is being vividly demonstrated now, as our production of commodities is at a peak, and competition for consumer favor becomes steadily more intense.

No one can deny that American merchandising, taking it as a whole, has done a magnificent job. Low-profit, big-volume merchandising, an idea which was pioneered by the chains, has since been adopted by all sorts of retailers, and has been a strong and persistent force in improving our living standards. At the same time, there has been emphasis on better quality and better service. The fine opportunity for advancement which retailing offers has attracted a high class of personnel. And the store owner, whether he employs one clerk or an army of workers, can go as far as his ambitions and energies and abilities allow There's no arbitrary limit on progress in this country, and retailing is an especially good example of that fact.

The nation's farmers are raising 20 per cent more turkeys than last year, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

National Newspaper Week

SUNDAY, October 2, marked the beginning of National Newspaper Week. This week is only one of several "weeks" which have become a fixture of the national scene, but in the long range view it is perhaps the most important of all.

It is no mere coincidence that the United States, the bulwark of Democracy, has long been the cradle of the only truly free press known in the world. From the day of the founding fathers, the freedom of the American press has been a jealously guarded trust.

Almost without exception, the American newspapers have fought to maintain their right to remain free and uncontrolled. By their service to the people and government of this country, newspapers have earned their right to liberty.

The following statement by Joseph H. Finn is as true today as it was more than 34 years ago:

I AM THE NEWSPAPER

By Joseph H. Finn

BORN of the deep, daily need of a nation—I am the Voice of Now—the incarnate spirit of the Times—Monarch of things that Are.

My "cold type" burns with the fire-blood of human action. I am fed by arteries of wire that girdle the earth. I drink from the cup of every living joy and sorrow. I sleep not—rest not. I know not night, nor day, nor season. I know no death, yet I am born again with every morn—with every moon—with every twilight. I leap into fresh being with every new world's event.

Those who created me cease to be—the brains and heart's-blood that nourish me go the way of human dissolution. Yet I live on—and on.

I am Majestic in my Strength—Sublime in my Power—Terrible in my Potentialities—yet as democratic as the ragged boy who sells me for a penny.

I am the consort of Kings—the partner of capital—the brother of toil. The inspiration of the hopeless—the right arm of the needy—the champion of the oppressed—the conscience of the criminal. I am the epitome of the world's Comedy and Tragedy.

My responsibility is Infinite. I speak, and the world stops to listen. I say the word, and battle flames the horizon. I counsel peace, and the war-lords obey. I am greater than any individual—more powerful than any group. I am the dynamic force of Public Opinion. Rightly directed, I am a Creator of Confidence. A builder of happiness in living. I am the Backbone of Commerce, The Trail-Blazer of Prosperity. I am the teacher of Patriotism.

I am the hands of the clock of Time—the clarion voice of civilization.

I am the Newspaper.

The committee is comprised of the following: L. H. Merrell, Ray Baker, Joe Ferguson and George McBride. Lions Club Secretary-Treasurer McClain was on hand to see how the finances could be stretched.

Under the able coaching of Melvin Knox, the Fort Stanton Square Dancers had another lesson on Friday night. The team of dancers from the station names follow; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burleson, Mr. and Mrs. Bur R. S. McClain, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Merrell, Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. A good crowd of people gathered at the Bonita Club on Saturday night for the Boy Scouts card party, etc. About $30.00 was raised for the purpose of the boys going to the Fair at Roswell. Miss Mason won a bag of flour and turned it back so that it might be auctioned off, and it was "knocked down" to Henry Sanchez,

Reba Jean Luck is back on the job after several months of convalescence following her almost fatal accident, she is getting along fine now.

This week, The McClains, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Rogers and Mrs. Gladys Sutton are welcomed as new subscribers to the Ruidoso News. All new takers of the News will be welcomed through this column from this station.

Nancy Payman had a birthday on Sunday and entertained a group of friends at her folks cabin in Ruidoso. A visit to the movies was also a part of her entertainment for her several friends.

The "Front Office' said to be nice to potential advertisers so here is a "plug" for the Fort Stanton Service tSation, where "sure nuff" friendly, courteous and excellent service is dispensed as well as the very latest information on where not to go hunting.

A book on square dancing is about to hit the bookstands and can be had for the sum of $2.00. Melving Knox is the author, the book will be a MUST for all square dancers, it is profusely illustrated and easily read.

Mrs. Grace Reed visited with her sister at Midland, Texas on Tuesday last, staying overnight and returning here the next day.

A picnic under the auspices of the O. T. Department is slated for Friday, October 7th and an excellent attendance is almost sure.

Janet McKim weekended with her folks at Carlsbad, the Eddy County "Redhead" must have a reason for the many trips there.

The Misses Ruth Ostrander and Gertrude Mooney leave during the week for the Dietitian's Convention to be held at Denver. Side trips will be taken by both before their return here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanchez and their daughter, Patricia were Roswell visitors on Wednesday, I went along in case they wanted some bad advise with their business taking them there at the Chaves County seat.

In "The Mail Bag" of the October issue of the New Mexico Magazine is a wonderful picture of a twister from the camera of Bert Bonnell of Glencoe. Bert did himself proud by taking the snap and more so as it is accompanied by a very good poem, called "Stom Sunset" from the pen of Mrs. Fred Bapp of Roswell.

Quite a few folks here are talking about gaing to the Aspencade next Sunday and if all go, there should be a nice representation from the Fort.

The handsome Hubert H. Walker, Fort Stanton Press "Devil" had to check in the hospital for a few days with a cold and sore tonsils.

Stopped for a brief visit with Bert Pfingsten the other day, Bert was at his well-known fruit selling place of business and told me quite a lot about the different types of apples he had for sale.

In the story in Mary Nell's recent column about the Encinoso School's paper, she mentions, William Allen White, I think it would have been appropriate had she also put in the name of Joseph Pulitzer, the great Democratic editor of the New York World who was always in the forefront of those advocating "The Freedom of the Press."

All roads next weekend will lead to Roswell for the annual Fair and Rodeo, from this area will go many folks who each year look forward to this fine show.

On Sunday evening in the dining room, there were many little groups talking about the last and deciding game between the New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox. Joe McCarthy seemed to be getting his share of criticism for his handling of his pitchers during the game, from now on there'll be lots of talk about both the Yankees and the Brooklyn Dodgers and who will win the World Series.

Miss Ruth Sikes, teacher at the Fort's grade school is busy these days or rather evenings with a shell collection she hopes to have mounted and on exhibition at the school very soon. The shells are sea-shells from the Florida Coast.

Richard Cordes who is at present in Albuquerque with a used Automobile distributor was down for a check-up the other day, he looks fine and is doing quite well, but is looking for an opening with a distributor of new cars.

September 27th found me over in Ruidoso with a party of friends and we all had awfully good meal at Brown's Cafe. Gosh. when that man says, the steak is tender, he sure means it.

Both Mrs. Carl Ness and Mrs. Jim Howard assure you of a real friendly welcome when you come to shop at the Fort Stanton Store.

A letter will shortly go forward to Will Harrison, Editor of the Santa Fe New Mexican enlisting his aid in the fight for Highway 54. Lots of people would be going to Santa Fe from around here if the road was in good shape. Many times I have heard people say, Gee! I'd like to go to Santa Fe for the weekend if only that Highway 54 was passable.

A note from Miss Nannie Belle Cowart of Brookhaven, Mississippi revealed she was getting along fine in her new job and that though she missed Fort Stanton and its cool nights, she would prefer to be where she now is.

At the Nurses' Home on September 27th a farewell dinner was tendered to Miss Eva Fletcher, who is being transferred to the U.S. Marine Hospital, Galveston, Texas and is to report there on October 5th. A Southern meal was the order of the evening and Ham and Candied Yams was the main dish, Peach Melba was the dessert and everyone there had a nice time with the eating part that might have been excelled when Miss Pat Page broke loose with some of her marvelous collection of records to "dish" out some really wonderful music. Dancing al lthe way back to the "Charleston" was indulged" by many of those who shake a wicked "put your little foot down."

Mrs. Jack Smith who was noted back here in another column is feeling better now after some minor surgery.

Anyone who is looking forward to giving away gifts that are different should visit the Craft Shop here. Miss Barbara Howes, charming, demore and diminuative O. Mrs. Gladys Sutton who has been confined to the hospital for almost three weeks after an operation on her pedal extremities will shortly be up and around again. "Buick's the Buy"

IT'S part of every street scene—something you see every day.

Car owners in three different price classes—all happy about the same thing.

One of them drives a new Buick SPECIAL, which you see poking forth its new, bold-look forefront at the left of our picture.

Another will tell you there's nothing like the SUPER's "happy medium" of size and comfort, power and easy handling, style and standing.

And if you're looking for prestige, where is your money going to buy so much as in that handsome 18-footer, the ROADMASTER, with its 150-hp performance and really royal bearing?

But all these good folks get together on this:

There's no ride quite so soft and cushiony as the Buick ride, whatever the size and series. There's no power quite so satisfyingly lively as Buick's high-compression, high-pressure Fireball power.

Above all, there's no "buy" like a Buick—no car that gives you such a rich dollar's worth of smartness, handling, comfort and liveliness for every dollar you pay.

So why not look the whole line over? Your Buick dealer has these grand travel-mates in a baker's dozen of different body types and sizes. Start your shopping in his showroom—and you'll find that even on delivery he has exactly what you want.

BUICK alone has all these features

Silk-smooth DYNAFLOW DRIVE* • FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area • SWING-EASY DOORS and easy access • "LIVING SPACE" INTERIORS with Deep-Cradle cushions • Buoyant-riding QUADRUFLEX COIL SPRINGING • Lively FIREBALL STRAIGHT-EIGHT POWER with SELF-SETTING VALVE LIFTERS (Dynaflow Models) plus HI-POISED ENGINE MOUNTINGS • Low-pressure tires on SAFETY-RIDE RIMS • Double-Duty VENTIPORTS • DUREX BEARINGS, main and connecting rods • BODY BY FISHER *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

SAN PATRICIO SENTINEL

By Helen C. Lucas

Nellie Ruth has gone to Oklahoma City with Anne Titsworth for a visit, so I will send in the Social Items this week. They are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Doss Pulliam and Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baldwin and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holzberlien and Clare. Mrs. Titsworth expects to go on to Cleveland to visit her daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson and sons.

Miss Floripe Romero has gone on a nice trip, too. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw and family of Ruidoso to New York where Jack intends to enter the rodeo in Madison Square Garden. Mrs. Shaw is visiting her family at New Rochelle, New York.

Miss Anne Carol Hurd spent the week-end with her family. She is attending school in El Paso at Radford.

Fredda Helena came home from the dance at the Lodge with me, Saturday night. She twisted my arm so that I agreed to bake her a birthday cake. She was eight years old Sunday, Oct. 2. As our guests for dinner we had Mary Stewart of Roswell, Wilbur Coe of Glencoe, Mr. and Mrs. Elzy Perry, Jr., of Ruidoso, Mr. and Mrs. Velpo Douthitt of Roswell, and Fredda's great-grandmother, Mrs. Helena A. Coe.

Billy Babers has gone over to Oscuro, New Mexico to work for the Cunninghams. Mr. Cunningham is stocking the ranch with Brahma steers so Billy can get lots of practice bull-riding.

Tom has been working overtime all week. What with Billy gone, he is training two horses to enter in the horse show at Roswell this week, and polishing apples to enter in the Fair, too. The Arabian is going around the stakes like a veteran show horse. I don't konw about the polish on the apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Montoya have moved to Dexter, New Mexico, where they expect to work during cotton picking.

Mr. and Mrs. Adan Sanchez and Mrs. Juan Montoya have been improving their home at the E. P. Gonzales farm. Jose Montoya has been helping them with the plastering. The place looks nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Babers attended the rodeo at Carrizozo, New Mexico. They reported a good fast rodeo with Billy Stover winning first money in the average in the calf roping; Billy Roy Hardcastle took second money.

Johnny Thomas attended the rodeo, also. He won one of the first day moneys in calf roping.

Frank Coe Boyce of the firm of Brenton and Hall, Attorneys, of Carrizozo, N. M., was a visitor in San Patricio, Saturday, who has been into what, now? Where is Mocho?

I haven't heard any school news. Since it is all quite around there we will assume the news is all good. The first six week are accomplished with the tests all graded and the report cards distributed. Mr. McBride of the Hondo High School has been holding Math-help classes for all of those pupils who are interested on Thursday evenings at seven-thirty.

Nellie Ruth will probably be back next week. I hope this will do as a substitute this time.

Annual Ranch Day will be held at New Mexico A&M College Oct. 10, followed by annual Farm Day on Oct. 11.

News From Carrizozo

The Carrizozo Women's Club sponsored Family Night at the Club building Friday, September 30th. A buffet supper was served and entertainment followed. The members of the local public school system had been invited and were introduced before the program. The program included a solo by Claude O. Brewster. He sang "Asleep in the Deep," accompanied by Leslie Snider. Lewis Farris played several numbers on his harmonica and a Barber Shop Quartet representing the Lions Club sang "Margie," "I Had A Dream, Dear" and "The Lost Chord." The members of the quartet were William Nickels, Clyde Brewster, Fred Napp and Vernon Petty. Dr. Turner then showed several of his motion pictures that included scenes from some local rodeos. It was a pleasant evening and everyone attending seemed to be having a good time.

The local football team lost a heart breaker to Ruidoso here last Friday. The score was 6 to 0 in favor of the Warriors from Ruidoso. The Grizzlies take on Tularosa at Tularosa Friday, Oct. 6th.

Misses Daisy Dickenson and Lois McVicar visited the State Fair in Albuquerque this week-end.

The rodeo held here Saturday and Sunday, and the Cowboy dance held Saturday night were great successes. Everybody had a big time at the dance and though there were a few interruptions at the rodeo performances it was worth while to attend because the stock used was the best. Never had animals bucked and pitched more than the ones used in this rodeo. The Old Man's Breakaway was won by Gus Featherston both days. He caught his calf in four seconds both days. Barbara Jean Branum won the girls' barrel race on Sunday and the saddle was won by Bert Pfingsten. The Ranch Hands Club of Lincoln County is to be congratulated for keeping up the rodeo as an annual event.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Manire made a business trip to Albuquerque last Saturday. Mr. Manire made reservations for the local teachers who will attend the teachers' convention later this month.

Congratulations and best wishes have been extended this past week to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pollard who were married in El Paso recently. Mrs. Pollard was Miss Gloria Campbell, head of the English Department in Carrizozo High School and a member of a well-known Ruidoso family.

At the last meeting of the Board of Directors voted to furnish a ward at the new hospital. The hospital is nearing completion and it is expected to be dedicated about December 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Peck and son Kenneth of Amarillo, Texas, were Ruidoso visitors this past week-end. This was their first visit to this part of the state and while here made the drive up to Mon Jeau Lookout. They were guests of Mrs. Williams at Lincoln Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lockey of Sabinal, Texas, visited Dr. and Mrs. Caylor this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith of Deming, New Mexico, spent the week-end in Ruidoso.

Mr. Irvin Brand of El Paso was in town Saturday attending to business.

HONDO NEWS

By MRS. LEO JOINER

The Home School Club met at the Hondo Grade School last Thursday evening at 7:30. The main business of the evening was the election of officers for the year. Mr. Leo Joiner was elected president and Mrs. Zeke Chavez, vice-president. Mrs. Ethel Maez, secretary-treasurer last year was retained in that position by acclamation. The Club is sponsoring the hot lunch program and the financial standing so far has not gone in the red. After the business was disposed of the children from Mrs. Nason's room gave a very delightful program that was appreciated very much by the parents. Coffee and cookies were served in the hot lunch room. We are all looking forward to the next regular meeting which will be held on Nov. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell entertained visitors over the weekend. Mrs. Bell's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Killion, of Kermit, Texas, and Mr. Bell's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard from Oklahoma.

Celestino Vigil, a long time resident of the Valley passed away in the hospital at Fort Stanton Sunday afternoon. Mr. Vigil has bee in ill health for several months and recently his condition became worse so his passing was not unexpected. He leaves to survive his wife, Elena Vigil, and numerous other relatives.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Why Firemen's Houses Don't Catch Fire

At the last meeting of the Town Council, Biff Simpson brought up the subject of our Volunteer Fire Department. Claimed that our town was getting big enough to have a regular paid Department.

Judge Cunningham objected! "As long as we serve on the Volunteers, we'll keep thinking about fires and be careful about fire hazards at home. We might get careless if we just left the job up to someone else."

We figured that made good sense and decided to keep the volunteer system . . . banded together for our own protection . . . "putting fires out" before they start!

From where I sit, running a town is like running a business—and a successful businessman does his own checking up. That's why the Brewers and tavern owners cooperate in their Self-Regulation program. They know it's up to them to see that their places are clean and law-abiding. They don't leave the job to someone else because no one else can do it as well.
