WIT & WISDOM
—By Vix—

Someday we're going to write an essay on our experiences in the showers that we have in some of our cabins up here in this resort land. We've lived in four different cabins in our visits to this country the last several years—and each one has a shower that is akin to a booby trap. One of them in particular left scars on us that we'll carry to our grave. The bottom was slick cement, and as round as the inside of a ball. What made it so interesting was it didn't have a place to put your soap, and its handles were so hard to turn you had to have a wrench to make the water run, or shut it off. You can imagine how frantic we'd get slipping around inside that shower with too much hot water—and being unable to cut it down. Trying to keep our balance, juggle soap and regulate the temperature of the water somewhere within reason between scalding and freezing proved quite an acrobatic stunt. Another one we had to use had the happy habit of changing its own mind every so often about whether it would run hot or cold. Never a dull moment. After each shower in that one we had to plaster band-aids all over our chest. Then there was one that we never did get quite warm enough—we'd keep experimenting with the hot water, mixing a bit of cold with it to try to get it at a reasonable temperature, and by the time we'd found just the right temperature, why the hot water would be all gone and we'd have to take our shower in cold water. (You can guess we didn't take very many in that cabin.) After staying in that one our wife started calling us B. O. Another one had the pipes arranged so that, unless we sat down, all the water we got was on our feet.

Life is a bed of roses—if your credit's good at the florists.

The piece we wrote last week about the value of publicity we'd get for Ruidoso with a song hit that would sweep the country got quite a reaction. First report on that idea was that we already had a song—that Carmon Phillips had written one that was very beautiful, and that we should hear it. We're looking forward to that. Then here came Mrs. Thelma Adams with the words to a song, which is pretty fair, too.

Here it is:

Ruidoso Calling Me

Ruidoso, I can hear you calling me,
Each night when I'm so blue.
I miss the pine trees and the valley,
And the mountains that I love, too.

Each night in dreamland I wander,
Down by the old water wheel,
Where I walk along, singing a song,
Of the land we love in the mountains.

Ruidoso keep on calling me
'Til you get me back home
In the mountains I love so faithful—
Then never again let me roam.

Ruidoso's plan for Christmas lighting all up and down the canyon is catching hold and catching hold fast. The B&PW club and the Lions are working hand in hand in urging all possible cooperation from all home owners and business houses. We have already heard of more than a dozen spectacular displays planned by home owners as well as business houses. Looks like a lot of our people are all set to try to out-do their neighbors. Such competition in a project like this is wholesome, and will pay off big. Mrs. Harry Fairbanks, Buckner Electric, Mrs. Susan Oliver, Anderson Lumber Co., the Ruidoso Osteopathic clinic, Navajo Lodge and Iva Coleman can be counted on to have something pretty wonderful, we hear.

Record Trout Is Snared On Ruidoso

What is believed to be a record-size German brown trout for Ruidoso was caught by Dr. Frank Parsons on the Lower Ruidoso River over the week-end. The fish weighed slightly over four pounds and was 24½ inches long. Dr. and Mrs. Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Sweeney made up the fishing party. They caught their limit of rainbow and native trout.

New Mexico Youths Show Skill As Printers In Father's Shop

(Editor's Note: The following clipping about our neighbor newspaper, the Hot Springs Herald, published at Truth or Consequences, N. M., appeared in the Publisher's Auxiliary, a newspaper printed for the publishing field, and is so interesting we thought we'd pass it along to our own readers, some of whom may know the family in the story.)

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES, N. M.—"Old Man" Morgan Padgett Jr.—he's 22—is plant superintendent for the Hot Springs Herald here, heading what Paul O. Tooley, publisher, believes is the youngest newspaper printing crew in the nation.

Five printers work in the plant, their combined ages being 79, and in all totaling experience of seven years.

Superintendent Padgett joined the Herald July 15, 1948, when he was 19. He handles all phases of back shop work.

Then, there are the Check brothers who expect to work their way through college in the printing industry. Jack, 17, is ad compositor and is learning the typesetting machine. He is a senior in high school and during the school term works after classes and on Saturdays. This is his second summer in the shop.

Jimmy, 16, is new in the organization, but has learned to stereotype, feed the large press and folder and is learning ad composition. He is a high school junior.

While this trio is the shop's main stay, Mr. Tooley has two sons who help out. Robert, 14, feeds the cylinder press, folder and can operate the typesetting machine, and also do hand composition. Mike, a younger son, claims the title as youngest columnist-reporter.

He writes the "Kiddy Column," usually of a dozen lines, sets it on the machine. His dad keeps hands off, neither copy reading nor proofreading the column.

Asked if he feared the draft board with such a young crew, Mr. Tooley declared that "I can train them faster than Uncle Sam can draft them."

"It is unfortunate," he continued, "that we can't take these boys until they are 16. I have found that boys 14 and 15 learn the printing business mighty fast. Boys younger than 18 can not be employed around machinery such as is used in printing establishments."

Two years ago the Herald began its apprentice training program, Mr. Tooley said, with Jack Cheek first to come in. He has taught the other youths. The quintet handles all work except the page one makeup.

All went along with Mr. Tooley to the summer convention of the New Mexico Press association and met Gov. Edwin Mechem. In fact, they did everything their elders did except they had to drink ginger ale at the cocktail party.

Jack Cheek was Boys' State representative this year, second Herald staffer in three years so honored. In 1949 Manuel Padilla, editorial department, attended.

Mr. Tooley said that Jimmy Cheek and his son, Robert, will move to the front office after mastering the back shop duties. "To be a practical newspaper man," he said, "one must also know the capacities of the back shop."

TIGERS NIP WARRIORS AGAIN, 6-0

By Benny Vaughn

Capitan defeated Ruidoso 6 to 0 last Friday in a very hard fought game. There was a good turnout of excited but half frozen spectators to watch the game. This is the second defeat that Ruidoso has suffered from their mountain foes, in their 1951 football season. The season ends for the Warriors, with five victories, and three defeats. The Warriors were the defending champions this year of the Class C conference.

Rex Whiteley of the Ruidoso Warriors doing the kicking, Ruidoso kicked off to Capitan to start the game rolling. The Warriors made a bid for pay dirt in the first quarter, when a pass to Ronald Stewart picked up 15 yards, then Billy Tucker plunged through for an additional 10 yards. This march down field was stopped when Capitan intercepted a pass. Capitan was preparing to go down field, when a fumble changed the situation. The second quarter was nearing, when both the Warriors and Tigers lost one of their men because of unnecessary roughness. The first half went in that order, ending with the Warriors having possession of the ball.

The second half started with Capitan kicking to the Warriors, who ran it back to the 25 yard line. The Tigers took the ball down to the Ruidoso 41 yard line, but the Warriors held the Tigers on the 11 yard line for the remaining downs. Ruidoso ran the ball back to the 40 yard line, in a series of short runs.

Now, we are in the fourth and final quarter, and Capitan has possession of the ball. The Tigers cross the 50 yard line, and into Ruidoso territory. Ray Clarke of the Warriors was injured, and was unable to finish the remainder of the game. Capitan's ball on the Ruidoso 30 yard line, nearing the final minutes of the game. An end run from the 30 yard line gave the Tigers the only score of the game. The extra point was attempted, but was blocked by Marion Gayden of the Warriors. Capitan now leading the game by 6 points, and with only a matter of seconds to go. Capitan kicked to Ruidoso, and the Warriors worked their way up to the 40 yard line, and then were stopped, when Capitan intercepted a pass. The final seconds now approaching, the Warriors trying hard to score, failed to reach their goal when the time ran out.

George Bonal Has Good Luck On Two Hunts

George Bonal, operator of El Taos Courts here, returned from Greede, Colo., with a 750-pound elk, then left the following day for the Sacramento mountains beyond Cloudcroft on a bear hunt after hearing that hunters had bagged four bruins in that area. He returned to Ruidoso with a 200-pound brown bear, which will make a beautiful rug. The meat has been donated to the Chamber of Commerce for the Christmas Square dance barbecue.

With deer season opening Saturday, there will be more meat available from the Bonals, we're hoping.

New Welfare Head Named For Lincoln

The appointment of Mrs. Eileen O. Whittaker, Santa Fe, as the new director of public welfare in Lincoln county, was announced. Mrs. Whittaker, whose appointment is effective Nov. 1, has been in Carrizozo for several weeks working under the supervision of Mrs. Mary A. Sands of Albuquerque, acting county director. The new director replaces Mrs. Lorene Casey who was dismissed by Alva J. Simpson, state director of public welfare, when she refused a transfer to another county. Mrs. Casey, who had held the office for six years, charged "politics" as the cause of her discharge, reported the Lincoln County News at Carrizozo.

Mrs. Whittaker is a graduate of the University of Maryland and holds an LLB degree from Columbia Law School. She held the rank of lieutenant (jg) when separated from the U. S. Navy in February, 1946, after serving as a communications and assistant legal officer from September, 1943. She was with the American Red Cross at Long Island, N. Y., from September, 1948, to April, 1949, as a social worker, and from May, 1950, to April, 1951, served in the same capacity with the New York Department of Public Welfare.

She married Sgt. Alfred P. Whittaker, a New York attorney, on July 25, 1944. The couple came to Santa Fe about May 1, 1951, and Whittaker, who is studying to be admitted to the practice of law in New Mexico, is residing there.

Mrs. Whittaker was born in New Orleans, La., the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard T. O'Neil. The family residence was not maintained long in any one place during her girlhood since her father was with the U. S. Veterans Administration and transfers occurred frequently. Other states in which she has resided include Mississippi, Washington, D. C., California, Georgia, New Jersey, Massachusetts, New York and Illinois.

Local Riflemen May Appear In Cover Photo

A color photograph, made by Carmon Phillips, during the New Mexico State Championship .30 calibre matches Sept. 16, in which several Ruidoso riflemen are included, may be used as a cover picture on the National Rifleman magazine soon, official publication of the national association. R. H. Hedgecoke, secretary of the local gun club, said he had received a letter from the editor of the magazine, which has a circulation of 250,000, indicating the picture will likely be used in an early issue.

Postoffice At Hollywood Is Repainted

Hollywood's post office building has had a face-lifting. Coy Maroney, owner of the building, hoping Uncle Sam's postal business there, had the structure repainted and a new flagpole installed. Mrs. Mabel Wimberly is postmaster at Hollywood. Patrons are very happy over the redecorating.

COSTUME WINNERS—Winners in the Hallowe'en costume contest staged in connection with the three-school second annual carnival held here Wednesday night last week are pictured above, left to right: Mannie Badillo, Jr., grade school class; Johnny Hardy, pre-school; Joe Moore, jack-o-lantern winner; Dee Dee Palmer, grade school; George Dennis, adult division; Wendy Lamb, pre-school group; Ada Lou Long, adult division. IN QUEEN CONTEST—Princesses and escorts in the Hallowe'en Carnival Queen contest are pictured here, flanking the queen, Miss Julia Ann Teeter, who was crowned to reign over the jolity by Superintendent J. H. Morris. Left to right in the picture are: Wilma Cooper and Ray Chastain, juniors; Shirley Holmes and Jack Scott, freshmen; Dale Wilson and Julia Ann Teeter, seventh graders; Linda Moore and Ronald Chastain, eighth graders; Barbara Gazaway and Johnny Barajas, sophs; Jo Ann Martin and Rex Whiteley, seniors. RATLIFF IS ADJUDGED MAYOR

A motion for a rehearing in the case of Ike Wingfield vs. Dick Ratliff was denied by the Supreme court on Nov. 6th, according to information received by Allan D. Walker and Robert J. Seller, Attorneys.

This upheld the decision of the Lincoln county district court at a hearing held in September 1951, which had been appealed.

This confirms that Ratliff has been adjudged mayor of Ruidoso.

WOMAN'S CLUB OFFICERS THANK THEATRE MEN

Officers of the Ruidoso Woman's club have asked the News to publicly thank the Eilands, father and son, for their part in assisting in the raising of funds for the club's CARE contributions for Korean children. Mrs. Pearl W. Carter said the benefit show, screened by the Eilands' Mt. Vue Drive-In theatre Tuesday night, brought a considerable sum for their project.

308 People Enjoy Free Game Supper

The largest dinner crowd ever served in formal style enjoyed free supper at Navajo Lodge Wednesday evening when bear, deer and elk meat were the main items of a menu. The game was provided free by Orville Runnels, R. H. Hedgecoke, Ben Roy, Bob Kilgore and Emmett Reese, who had good luck on recent hunting trips in Colorado, and all the trimmings were provided by the Lodge. Carl DeBord, manager of the Navajo, said 308 people enjoyed the free meal, which kept members of the Lodge staff in a high lope for three hours serving them. "We finally ran out of potato salad about 10 o'clock," he said.

MATCHED ROPING CONTEST NOV. 18

There will be a $2,000 matched Calf Roping contest staged at the De Baca County Mounted Patrol Rodeo grounds Sunday, November 18, 2:00 p. m., between Buddy Major, of Miles City, Montana, and Pat Lewis, of House, N. M.

DISTRICT B & PW MEET SET HERE

The 1952 convention of District 3 of the New Mexico Business and Professional Women's clubs will be held in Ruidoso in November of 1952. The group, in session last week-end in Roswell, accepted a bid from the Ruidoso B&PW delegation to come to this resort land for their next year's session.

Another recognition for Ruidoso came in the election of officers when Mrs. Ida Bloodworth, president of the local club, was elected District 3 chairman for next year. Other officers picked were Ruth Joss, Artesia, vice-chairman; Will Ann Wheat, Clovis and Carlsbad, recording secretary; Nona Bell Turner, Eunice, treasurer; Blanche Williamson, Portales, parliamentarian.

The local delegation reported an interesting program was held, with entertainment that was tops in the lighter sessions, and with thought provoking discussions by club leaders of the area and by Miss Beatrice Patterson, national field director of the National Federation of B&PW clubs. Miss Patterson spoke on membership expansion and projects and aims of the National Federation. Another highlight of the meeting was an address by Mrs. Thelma Mallory, assistant professor in education at Eastern New Mexico University at Portales. "Full Partnership for the Job Ahead" was her topic—and she stressed the need for everyone to be better equipped mentally, physically and spiritually for success of the B&PW aims.

Dan Storey, 94, Is Character Right Out of Western Stories

One of the most colorful pioneers to visit Lincoln county in many a day was Tom Storey, who was in San Patricio in October visiting the family of his grand daughter, Mrs. Shelton Taylor.

Mr. Storey, who will be 94 his next birthday, lived in Lincoln county in the wild old days when this county took in five present-day counties of Southeastern New Mexico. He worked as a cowboy on the John Chisum Ranch with Billy the Kid, and can tell many true stories of his experiences with him. Of the Kid Mr. Storey says:

"He was a good boy. We all liked him. They have made him out now-a-days to be such a terrible outlaw. But in those times we didn't think he was a whole lot different from the rest of us. He could shoot, sure; but plenty of the rest of us were handy with a gun too. We had to be. Those were rough days.

"One thing about the Kid," Mr. Storey added. "Children or women never kicked for a friend when he was around. He would kill you in a holy minute if you said an awkward word when ladies or children were present."

Mr. Storey is rightly named, for he holds the listener spellbound with his accounts of his early adventures. From his original home in Oklahoma, he drifted as a boy into Texas where he became first a cowboy and then a cattleman while he was still in his teens.

Coming westward as a young man he worked and ranched in the Pecos valley, later settling in Roswell. He hauled all the stone for the Roswell First Methodist church, and recalls with pride that his name is inside the cornerstone as one of the founders.

In Roswell, Mr. Storey visited the family of his granddaughter, Mrs. Dow Robinson.

Going over the names of the early figures of Lincoln county, Mr. Storey had either a good word for the people mentioned or very little word at all. He said he knew all three of the Coe's very well.

"Everybody thought a lot of the Coe's," he said.

In appearance Mr. Storey is certainly a character out of a book of Wes'ern stories. At ninety-four his memory is crystal clear; and the quick glance of his grey eye is ever so keen. Small in stature, he still gets around very well; and the evidence is there of terrific strength and agility in youth. His features are those typical of the early American frontiersman, rugged and manly, yet bearing a quiet expression of the kindness that abides deep within his nature.

Mr. Storey said he is fond of Lincoln county and hopes to come visiting around Christmas. He is especially anxious to see the Old Lincoln Pageant. In a short chat with John Davis, who plays the part of the Kid, Mr. Storey said he hoped to come to "A Day in Old Lincoln" next summer.

Many Homes, Businesses Plan Lights

Mrs. Pearl W. Carter, chairman for the Ruidoso Business and Professional Women's clubs committee on Christmas lighting, was enthusiastic in her reply to the Newsman's question: "Are you getting many people interested in the holiday lighting campaign."

"We have quite a number of home owners and business people who have already pledged to decorate live trees with lights, and are expecting a lot more," she said.

The Pierson's El Rancho Ruidoso courts and El Taos courts both have promised to decorate outside trees, she said, along with a number of others here.

L. B. Autry, Ruidoso's printer for nine years, who left last week-end for a visit in Texas, asked us just before he left what was the difference in a hill and a pill. "A hill is hard to get up," he said.

Capitan Tiger Booster Tells Us Team's Record Printed Wrong

(Editor's Note: Ordinarily we would put the following letter in our "Letter to Ye Ed" column, but such good sportsmanship and such a fine viewpoint as expressed herein by the writer deserves front page prominence. We deeply appreciate the vein in which this is written, too—for as editor we've received many letters "correcting" us—which burned our eyes to read. Incidentally, we printed the Capitan team's record as reported to us. We didn't know Capitan's record and asked a local resident we thought knew, and he made an honest mistake in his report to us.)

Capitan, New Mexico
November 2, 1951

The Editor,
Ruidoso News,
Ruidoso, New Mexico
Dear Sir:

I hate very much to have to write to you concerning an almost unforgivable error which appeared in your first issue of the Ruidoso News, concerning our wonderful football team, the Capitan Tigers. Since this is your first issue and it is quite possible that you might have been misinformed about our team, it is with pride that I inform you that the Capitan Tigers HAVE NOT BEEN DEFEATED IN FOOTBALL ENCOUNTERS for the school term 1951-52. Your article on the front page, mind you, showed record that Capitan has won 3, lost one and tied 1. This football team we have this year is one of the finest, fightingest and cleanest I have had the pleasure of watching and supporting.

My chest goes out for the boys in properly informing you that our record this year is eight wins, no losses and one tie. Our conference is five wins and one tie. Our boys have defeated Mountainair, Carrizozo twice, Ruidoso twice, Vaughn, Cloudcroft and Corona. We were luckily tied by Tularosa.

It is not my intention or desire to have you consider this as a letter for publication, but if you wish, suit yourself. My main intention and request is that you correct the error of your November 2nd issue in the next subsequent edition, and for the Lord's sake don't SINK IT DEEP IN THE MIDDLE PAGES. I THINK IT DESERVES FRONT PAGE CLARIFICATION and it is hoped that you will see fit to do so.

In ending and strictly from a "rooters" viewpoint, I make no bones in telling the Warriors that without any doubt, they, not Tularosa, was our toughest opponent this year. My hat is off to those teen age youngsters who fought the two close one hour battles they did. We, on the side lines get upset and mad on occasions, but believe you me, if most of us on the sidelines were in games like that, it would take a CORPS OF STRETCHER BEARERS to carry us off the field after every play.

Respectfully yours,
James A. Kent

October Brings 1.59 Inches Of Moisture

Mositure in October in the city of Ruidoso measured 1.59 inches, next to the greatest amount recorded the last six years for that month hereby Charlie Culver, cooperative weather observer for the weather bureau. Culver's records including temperature and snow for the month of October the last five years is as follows:

Year	High	Low	Snow	Precip.
1951	80	16	.00	1.59
1950	81	18	.00	.33
1949	77	13	.00	1.81
1948	81	14	.50	1.48
1947	80	15	.00	.76
1946	76	20	.00	.64

DIES IN JAPAN—Pvt. Jesse W. Petty, 23, of Carrizozo, died recently in a Japanese hospital from natural causes, his family learned last week. The young soldier had served a tour of duty in Korea and had escaped injury. He was the son of Mrs. Beatrice Petty of Truth or Consequences.

College Choir And Gridsters To Stop Here

The International Choir, composed of college students of Wayland Baptist college, Plainview, Texas, from many lands, will eat supper here at Navajo Lodge Friday evening this week. The choir is to sing at Alamogordo in an engagement there this week-end.

There will be 49 persons in a group stopping over at Navajo Lodge Saturday night from West Texas college. Canyon, Texas. Headed by Coach Kimbrough, the West Texas buffaloes will make this an overnight stop after their game Saturday afternoon with New Mexico A. & M. at Las Cruces.

The annual sorority party for Delta Gamma members, which will include about 25 women students of Texas Western, El Paso, will be held this week-end at the Navajo Lodge. The members will have supper, breakfast and lunch here.

Postoffice Here To Be Painted During Holiday

Ruidoso's postoffice will be repainted during the weekend, Postmaster Jack Hull announced. "We will take advantage of the Armistice Day holiday and get our paint brushes out for a general paint-up." The postoffice will be closed from 4:00 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 10, until Tuesday morning, Nov. 13, and there will be no outgoing or incoming mail put up during that time, he added.

INVASION BY 'REDS' EXPECTED

Red-shirted, red-capped hunters by the hundreds are expected to invade the Ruidoso area this week-end as the opening guns begin firing Saturday in one of the biggest deer seasons this community has ever experienced. Local stores and cafes are prepared for big business as gunners from several states are due to converge here for the good hunting in the territory.

No official census is available on the amount of deer or bear in this region this season—but from reports of persons in and about the mountains, there are lots of signs of a healthy number of targets for those after big game. Quite a few residents here have reported seeing herds of deer in all parts of the country, along with signs of bear in the rougher country.

Roy Anderson Holds Record In Fishing

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson returned Sunday night after a two-weeks' fishing trip to Elephant Butte dam, where Roy set a new record for fish caught, in size and number, for the year there.

He snared a 74-pound catfish, along with long strings of others of varying sizes, and he has photographs to prove his report.

He said he caught more than commercial fishers on the lake.

The Andersons always have excellent luck there, bringing home hundreds of pounds of fish from the western New Mexico lake time after time.

Friends of the Andersons hereabouts attest to Roy's skill with their reports of sharing his catch. For he always sees his neighbors have a heaping serving.

Mounted Patrol Holds Meeting Here Sunday

Troop Five of the New Mexico Mounted Patrol held a meeting here Sunday, highlighted by a dinner at the Navajo Lodge and rifle and pistol shooting at Ruidoso Gun club. Jack Shaw and Reynolds Jones of Ruidoso and Ralph McGuire, Glencoe, were hosts in the meeting. The New Mexico Mounted Patrol is a division of the State Police who are on horseback and called for use where mechanized units of State Police cannot operate.

Members attending Sunday's meeting were Peter Hurd, Jack Shaw, Ed Spears and guests and Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Pfingston, Wilbur McKnight, Truman Spencer, Jr., Ralph McGuire, Charles Fuller, Will Ed Harris, Ralph Bonnell, Charles Jones, Kenneth Nosker, Ambrose Guest and Reynolds Jones.

As I See It

By Lloyd P. Bloodworth

I attended the meeting of Democrats in Roswell last week and met people from all over New Mexico. It is always interesting to watch a political gathering of any kind. Of course, there are always those who are ready to state that they have no political ambition but if the public demands they will make the sacrifice to get into a race. Then there are those who have their followers to mix and mingle with the crowd and try to find how the dear public feels about their candidacy.

The Roswell meeting was sort of a get together of the county chairmen to discuss ways and means of organizing for the election next year. There was wide representation present and no doubt these boys went home with a new determination to get the job done.

It is my personal opinion that the Democrats will have to give to the voters of New Mexico a new deal as far as leadership is concerned. The old political machine that has been in the swing so long has faded out and many new faces are appearing on the horizon and if out from these new leaders one of outstanding ability and unquestionable integrity can be nominated he will be hard to beat. I am not inferring that there are not a lot of fine men among the old group but there just seems to be a feeling on the part of the voters that they want new blood.

* * *

I maintain that the youth of today are no worse than those of twenty-five or thirty years ago. In the old days Hallowe'en night was to be looked forward to with a feeling of dread. Many of the youngsters were rather rough in their pranks and did things that caused much trouble. Some of the pranksters of today still are a little rough but most of them have their fun by attending parties or carnivals. The PTA organizations and Lions Club are to be congratulated upon the very fine carnival that is held each year at the gymnasium. It gives the kids some where to go and something to do and at the same time raises a sizeable sum of money to be used by the PTA throughout the year. It was a grand party and everyone had fun.

* * *

Hunting season will start Saturday and hundreds of men from all over the Southwest will be present to make their way into our mountains. It is always good to have these visitors with us and we do want to urge everyone to be careful. There are too many tragedies during hunting season and it is usually because too many men are careless. Never take it for granted that there is a deer in every bush that moves. Be sure you know what you are shooting at before you pull the trigger.

* * *

It is good to report the Lamb and Vaughn are about the busiest men in all this country. In addition to getting out a fine paper their first issue they are already swamped with job work. But those boys are hustlers and they will keep the work moving. I predict a great future for the paper and their business. Nothing takes the place of work and they seem to have plenty of that.

* * *

Just about the time I got ready to do some real resting and visiting Ida goes and gets elected district president of the Business and Professional Women. Looks like a man never can do all the things he wants to. I'm going to Tucson next week to see those granddaughters if it kills every cat in the barn.

Letters to Ye Editor

Nov. 3, 1951

The Ruidoso News
Ruidoso, New Mexico
Dear Editors:

I read your ½ and ½ column in yesterday's paper with much interest. In next to the last paragraph you stated that you had never "heard a congregation in any church sing that third verse."

I want to invite both of you and your families to visit our Baptist Church down here in Green Tree. We sing the third verse of the hymns at least three-fourths of the time. We Baptists believe there is a message in the third verse as well as in all the other verses.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Dee Simpson.

Dear Editor:

Sampling Mud Puddles

A young man was being ridiculed by his world wise companions because he refused to go along with them to a place of questionable character.

"How do you know that it is bad?" they asked; "you have never been there."

The young man gave the pointed reply: "I don't have to fall into every mud puddle to see if it is dirty."

There are some things in life concerning which we had better not have any first hand knowledge; some things concerning which we need have no experience. We need not fall into every mud puddle to see if it is dirty.

How do we stand on this score? Have we been sampling mud puddles? Then, let us not deceive ourselves: there's mud on our record. Isaiah 64:6. Psalm 51.

There is only one cleansing power in all the world that can remove the guilty stains from our soiled garments. The Bible tells us: "The blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, cleanseth us from all sin."

Cultivate the companionship of God. Be assured of full and free forgiveness through faith in His atoning blood. Seek the company of Christian people.

"That" is the only divinely-prescribed pathway to spiritual power; power to overcome temptation, and power to live a clean Christian life. Have you been cleansed by the Blood of Jesus Christ?

Bro. Merriott,
Pastor of The First Baptist Church of Ruidoso

O. S Montes of Glencoe, representing the State Bureau of Revenue of district 3, Lincoln and Chavez counties, was in Ruidoso Monday on business.

A Day In Iva's Tea Room

Doc and Schug Furry, saying goodbyes on their way out on their vacation, they will be back for the holidays . . . must decorate and take part in the festivities . . . thought for a while there was going to be tears—but after eating, everything turned out o. k. We will miss them. Irma Pell and son George, returning from a week's stay at their cabin. The Buckners, and as usual their presence brightens any spot they choose to enter. Mrs. Buckner with a new permanent and a sly twinkle in her eye, wnoder if it's the Birthday Cake and surprise for the Mr.? He wouldn't say how old he was. Something brewing . . . I have seen that twinkle before . . . Bitsy Moore enjoying one last good home cooked meal before leaving for her mother's home in Dallas, Texas. Says she will be back about January for a little visit, and promises to be back next summer for a real stay. Jack and Mrs. Hull, from Hull's High Acres. Mrs. Hull has been painting and redecorating one of Marie Rooney's (her daughter) rooms and was too tired to cook, so says Jack, and what a happy bunch around the tables. Wish I could mention all their names, and will get around to them by and by, if the paper doesn't cut off my column. What a large family I have . . . sure nice to have them around the family table.

Why don't you join us—you're missing out on the fun and the food, and the good fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kyle, Duncan, Okla., visiting with Susie Oliver and Dr. Caylor, they were here a month last summer, and are back again enjoying those crisp cold nights and balmy fall days, if they don't watch out the Ruidoso Bug will BITE them, then they will be moving out here. It bites us all sooner or later. The Earl Browns are back from a flying trip from El Paso and will probably be here until after Thanksgiving, then El Paso a few days, then back for Christmas . . . Everybody wants to be here for Christmas, it is going to be a tragedy if everyone doesn't decorate and light up. Mrs. Will Evans from up near the Post Office, she has been a resident of Ruidoso for many years and still loves it here. We met about 17 years ago, and she is still the same sweet gracious lady, we knew in the old days, too bad we can't all stay sweet, kind and lovely as we all get older. Mr. and Mrs. Ed York of Roswell up for the week-end trying to get into something up here so they can make Ruidoso their home. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels, Mother B, and Dr. and Mrs. Lewis, in for lunch on their way home from Church. Mrs. Dr. Rowl from Roswell, entertaining some friends on a special trip for a turkey dinner. . . . Mrs. W. R. Long and daughters, from Green Tree, the school superintendent and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Morris, and a lot of other lovely people. Bonnie, you have no idea what you are missing, better hurry back, thanks for your letter . . . Thanks a lot folks, for the happiness you deal out at Iva Coleman's Tea Room.

Lions View Grid Games; Hear Governor

Ruidoso Lions club members saw motion pictures of two 1950 and two 1951 football games in which the local high school Warriors participated, in their regular Tuesday night supper session at Navajo Lodge. Coach Cy Leland of the squad made a running commentary of the four tilts as pictures, made by Carmon Phillips of this city, were screened. The games were with Roswell's B squad and Capitan last year; and with Capitan and Carrizozo this year.

Danny King, district governor of District 40-M, from Tularosa, gave a report on district activities and complimented the Ruidoso club for its very active program and its up-to-date reports mailed in by its efficient officers. He asked for a 50 cents per member increase in district dues to care for expenses of district work, and the club immediately voted his request.

Rieno Sarlin reported the Hallowe'en carnival, in which three schools of the area participated last week, was a success from a financial standpoint. More than $400 was made in the affair. Sarlin represented the Lions club as co-ordinator in the fete.

Carl DeBord, chairman of the club's Christmas lighting committee, asked members to vote on a resolution calling for all persons of the canyon to have a part in the holiday spectacle. Prize money offered by the Lions for decorations, was re-allocated so that $15 and $10 would be offered as first and second prize in two divisions; a merchants exterior division and a residence exterior division. Stress was laid on decorations of live trees wherever possible.

The Business & Professional Women's club here is working with the Lions in promoting the community wide holiday light decorations.

Holiday Party For Marines Set December 21

Plans were laid this week to stage a second annual Christmas party for the men at Ft. Stanton Marine hospital, under sponsorship of the Ruidoso News. Community workers in various parts of Lincoln county who assisted in the highly successful affair last December, have been contacted and have promised the same fine assistance. An entertaining program, along with gifts for the men, will be the highlight of the party. Dan Kusianovich will be one of the leaders in the affair, set for Dec. 21. As plans progress they will be reported from time to time in the News.

Mrs. M. E. Bannds and Gertrude Pursley of Jayton, Texas, are visiting in the home of Mrs. Eunice Huls in Skyland. Mrs. Bannds plans to spend the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shier are out of town on a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cooper are leaving Thursday for Stamford, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper own the Stamford Inn. Mrs. C. J. Leland will accompany them as far as Brownfield and will visit her daughters in Lubbock and Sundown, Texas. Mr. Leland said the object of this trip was so he could do a good job of deer hunting while she was away.

H. A. Parnell was in Roswell Saturday getting his children's eyes examined.

No use looking for George Fuchs for the next few days, he informs us that he will be on the highest mountains and lowest valleys, hunting deer.

Several people of Green Tree are attending a Workers conference in Capitan. The group includes Rev. Jesse Allen and wife, Mrs. M. J. Edwards and Mrs. J. B. Gazaway.

Ezell Clarke, Jr., of the Navy, has enlisted for a six-year period. He plans to make a career of the Navy. At present he is in the hospital branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hernandez of Hondo has moved to Ruidoso to make his home. Mr. Hernandez is employed by Sacra Bros.

The Vic Lamb family moved this week into the J. R. Rogers, Jr., house in the Palmer Gateway area, formerly occupied by the John Emde family.

Next week we'll tell what "ERTWA" means.

Johnny Raines informs us that he is the richest man in the valley, even if he did not have the price of a sack of Bull Durham in his pocket. He does not count his riches in material things, but in friendship, good will, and a feeling of well being, and living in the best country in the world, he declares.

Mrs. Lloyd Perry and son, Gary, are visiting with relatives in Glencoe this week.

Father likes us because everyone keeps on admiring his new shirts that we KEEP new with our gentle, thorough laundering! Mother is our steadfast friend—for we keep her blankets as soft and fluffy and new as when she got them in her trousseau many years ago. Junior loves us because he never gets a scolding for leaving grimy handprints on the towels any more—both mom and dad know we'll remove all traces of his carelessness!

Sandra, Rickie Simpson Honored On Birthday

Sandra and Rickie Simpson were honored with a party Saturday afternoon celebrating their fourth and third birthdays, respectively. To share the party with them were seven little friends; seven being the combined ages of the two honorees. Birthday cake and hot chocolate with marshmallows, were served to: Sandra Kay and Glenn Smith, Loretta and Danny Lawrence, Linda and Marta Shier, Billy Riley, Mrs. A. J. Smith, Mrs. Olive Riley, and Sandra, and Rickie's grandmother, Mrs. Tom Bingham, from Carrizozo.

V. A. CONTACT MAN TO BE IN ROSWELL

Richard M. Lawson, contact representative for the Veterans Administration, informs the News he will be in Roswell Tuesday, Nov. 13, at the city hall between 10 a. m. and 5 p. m., for the purpose of assisting veterans in any questions they may have on benefits.

Mrs. Mable Wimberly and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Parnell attended a dinner in Roswell given in honor of E. C. Courtney who is being transferred. The Courtneys will certainly be missed in this district and are wished lots of luck in their new assignment.

NOTICE!

Notice has been released by the New Mexico Electrical Administrative Board to the Members and consumers of the Otero County Electric Cooperative, Inc., in the village of Capitan that all old wiring must either be replaced or repairs made that will permit safe operation. The Cooperative is nearly completed the rebuilding of the electric system outside but a stop order has been placed on connection of the new system to the homes, businesses and other establishments, until repairs are made by the residents.

The electrical Administrative Board has ruled that it will not be safe in a large number of cases in Capitan to connect to the old wiring.

The Electrical Board has agreed to wait for a period of 90 days to allow the residents of the Village to have an opportunity to have their dwellings checked and repairs made if needed. The State Inspector, Mr. D. C. Horine has stated that he is of the opinion that a number of fire hazards exist in the present wiring in the dwellings and in order to prevent fires from defective wiring the foregoing stop order has been issued.

The services of Mr. Horine in checking the present wiring is available upon request. Mr. Horine, representing the State of New Mexico in this the capacity of electrical inspector, will not perform any wiring, only making a state inspection and advising what is wrong.

Gravel Road To Arabella To Be Started

The first five miles of the road to Arabella, from Highway 70 out of Tinnie, will be graveled soon. J. E. Jones and John A. Whiteman, both of the highway department, and whose offices are in Albuquerque, were in Tinnie Tuesday to locate gravel for the project. A crew of four men is to go to work to open the pit, putting it in shape for supplying gravel for the road.

Wrap Gifts Sturdy, Mail 'Em Early, Hull Says

"It's the time of year again when we need to urge our patrons to mail their Christmas packages early," Jack Hull said this week after a glance at the calendar. "Christmas is only a few short weeks away, and we cannot stress too strongly the need for wrapping all gift packages sturdily, address them plainly and get them sent early."

Overseas packages must be mailed before Nov. 15, a deadline set by the postal department to insure that servicemen and others overseas will get their packages in time for Christmas.

"Honeymoon Club"

Honeymooning in Ruidoso last month were Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Salter III, who were wed Oct. 21 at Roswell. The bride was the former Miss Ann Elizabeth Hester and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hester of Santa Fe. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Salter of Roswell. The pair will make their home in Roswell.

NOTICE

TO: Bonnell Lumber Company, Anderson Lumber Company, Harris Lumber Company, and any other person furnishing material, supplies and labor to P. A. Phillips for construction or repair of structures on these premises.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned, G. M. Bogart, is the owner of these premises described as follows:

Canyon Echoes . . .

Mrs. Larry Moore and daughter, Victoria, have moved from Ruidoso to Dallas, Texas. They left last week to make that city their new home.

Geo. L. Zimmerman, attorney of Carrizozo, was here on business last week-end. He came over to see if PeeWee Taylor had finished his red cedar desk to be used in his new office building just finished in Carrizozo. Taylor made the beautiful desk and counter in use at the News building in the Chamber of Commerce office.

Mrs. Gerald Tully of Glencoe was a Ruidoso visitor one day last week.

Shorty Mort reports he already has several orders for painting deer, Santa's sleds, etc., for lawn decorations for the Christmas lighting campaign here.

Mrs. S. R. Camfield, who operates Weatherby's cabins here, left in company with her sister, Mrs. Iva Emert, for Pecos Saturday where they will see about some business on the Emert ranch there. From Pecos they will continue on to California where Mrs. Camfield will remain this winter.

The Ben Vaughn family has moved into the residence formerly occupied by Mrs. Larry Moore in the Gateway addition.

The John R. Emde family has moved into its new home on Alto road, west of the Country Club addition.

Mail this copy of the Ruidoso News to someone in some other part of the nation—it'll help tell the story of what a fine community we have, and will show what a large number of business services can be found here.

Jack Shaw, famed all over the southwest for his roping, and who makes his home here, says this year is the first year in several he has failed to attend the big rodeo in New York City at Madison Square Garden.

Next week we'll tell you what "ERTWAY" means.

4-H Achievement Week Will Be Observed

Again it is time to give recognition to 4-H Club boys and girls for a job well done. This week, November 3 to 11, youngsters are to be given recognition for having completed 4-H projects during the 1951 4-H year.

Each member who has completed at least one project will receive a pin indicating the number of years in which they have completed a project. Bronze pins are awarded for the first four year's work completed; silver for the 5th through 7th year and gold pins are awarded for the 8th through 11th year, according to Austin A. Albert, Lincoln county extension agent.

Lincoln county will award one gold pin this year to Bobby Peebles, Nogal, for his 8th year 4-H work completed. Catherine Thomas, San Patricio, will receive a silver pin for her 6th year of 4-H work. The following pins will also be awarded to 4-H Club members:

First Year Pins

Martha Romero, Picacho; Cecilia Frequez, Tinnie; Della Joiner, Hondo; Shirley Poindexter, Hondo, and Fernando Salcido, Hondo.

Second Year Pins

Virginia Kimbrell, Picacho; Jim Casey, Tinnie; Patsy Nunez, Picacho; Herrel Fuller, Corona; Gerald Maes, Hondo, and Benny Montes, Hondo.

Third Year Pins

Fourth Year Pin

Virginia Thomas, San Patricio.

In order to receive credit for the year's work, 4-H youngsters must attend at least six 4-H Club meetings, own their own livestock, do their own work and keep records which include expenses, income, and feed records and they must turn their records into their leaders at the end of the club year.

These youngsters are to be commended for the fine job they have done this year in their 4-H Club work.

ME Conference Delegates Hold Meet Here

Rev. John C. Johnson, pastor of the Community Methodist Church, served as host Wednesday to ten ministers and laymen who will represent New Mexico at the General and Jurisdictional Conferences next year. The General Conference which is the legislative body for all Methodist churches in the United States will meet in San Francisco next April. The Jurisdictional Conference is the legislative body for the South Central states and will meet next June in Wichita, Kansas. Both conferences meet once every four years.

The delegates, elected by the New Mexico Annual conference last May, meet to discuss plans relative to their attendance at these conferences. New Mexico Methodists will be represented on every major committee set up to handle the work of these conferences.

Among the delegates meeting in Ruidoso were the following ministers: W. Carl Clement, Clovis; F. L. Willshire, Albuquerque; Orbin Turner, El Paso; L. P. Trone, Pecos, Texas; Therman Harris, Portales, and Bervin Caswell, El Paso. Since in the General and Jurisdictional Conferences there are an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates, these laymen also attended the meeting of delegates: C. T. French, Albuquerque; Frank Greathouse, Dora; A. E. Lang, El Paso; and T. O. Thomason, Anthony.

Again Operating Station, Cafe

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson are again operating their service station and cafe on Highway 70 in Hollywood, which they first opened about five years ago. They had operated it until last year when they leased it to E. L. Wilson, who is now nearing completion of a service station and garage nearby.

The cafe has been redecorated and additional remodeling and improvements are planned by the Thompsons in the next few weeks, Mrs. Thompson said.

The Thompsons lived in Roswell the year they were absent from Hollywood.

NEWS FROM—

MESCALERO

(By Mrs. Reino Sarlin

Coming events for your social calendar:

Mescalero Womans' Club Musicale at the Auditorium Nov. 14. Mrs. Reuben Ten Haken is program chairman.

Pie social and bazaar at the Mission Friday, Nov. 16, sponsored by the Ladies Aid.

Tadasto (Grandma) Coonie passed away Saturday, Nov. 3. Though her exact age is not known, it is said that Mrs. Coonie was within a few years either way of the century mark.

Another sad event was the passing of Mrs. William Magoosh, Jr., of Elk, and new-born baby at the Alamogordo hospital. Our sympathy to Mr. Magoosh and family.

Mrs. Phoebe (Chino) Klinekole and baby George are visiting her family here. She lives in Staten Island, New York.

Dan Nicholas is spending his vacation with relatives at San Carlos.

Cangratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Newton Platta. They have a son born on Oct. 28. No question about whether Newt has his income tax licked.

A son was born to Mrs. Julia Ann Sago in the ambulance on the way to the Alamogordo hospital. His name is Monroe Ward, although the nurses call him "Spooky" as he made his appearance on October 31.

Reino Sarlin attended the meeting of the Southwestern Section of the Society of American Foresters last week at Silver City. Reino was appointed a member of both the program and the finance committees for the coming year.

A public meeting was held at the Auditorium Nov. 1 to discuss a petition proposing the consolidation of all district schools in Otero county into one independent district. A large crowd attended, and entertainment was given by the Mescalero school chorus and two square dance groups.

Bartlett F. Bovay, Area Finance Officer, and Mrs. Mamie Weller, accounting clerk, from the Albuquerque office are in Mescalero this week to audit the Tribal accounts and to study a proposal to turn over some of the Individual Indian money accounts to the Tribe.

The next Business Committee meeting is scheduled for Nov. 9.

Dr. Sletzer, dentist, was at the agency this week. Not a toothache was in evidence.

Solon Sombrero is back from a visit at Jicarilla.

At an organization meeting Tuesday Reino Sarlin was elected chairman of the Mescalero Resources committee.

B&PW Projects And Programs To Be Talked

Members of the Ruidoso Business and Professional Women's club have been invited to meet with the Alamogordo club Wednesday, Nov. 14, 7:30 p. m., at the Episcopal Parish hall in Alamogordo, at which time Miss Beatrice Patterson, National Director of Field Work and Membership, will conduct a round table discussion on programs and projects, preceding a coffee hour.

Miss Patterson has had extensive experience in organizational and program planning for community groups. A graduate of Wellesley college, she came to the Federation from the National Safety council, where she was assistant director of the women's division. She was formerly the assistant executive secretary in charge of public relations and membership promotion of the American Women's association, and she also held the position of organizational director with Columbia Concerts, Inc.

As National Field Director of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., Miss Patterson works with the Federation's National Membership chairman on membership promotion. She travels throughout the country visiting state federations and local clubs, to assist in the development of methods of membership stabilization and expansion and to interpret the National Federation's program and policies.

Turkey Dinner To Be Given By Harris

Palo Verde Builders' Supply is offering a Thanksgiving Feast to customers trading there this month. Tickets for every one dollar in cash purchases will be given customers, giving them a chance on a basket of food which will include a turkey and all the trimmings.

The prize will be awarded the night of Tuesday, Nov. 20, Jess Harris, owner, said.

Extension Club Sets Meeting

The Ruidoso-Hondo Extension club will meet at the home of Mrs. B. J. Bonnell next Wednesday for a program planning and election of officers. All members are urged to be present. Roll call will be with a suggestion to increase membership and to improve club work. Mrs. Carl P. Radcliff, county extension agent, will be leader, and hostesses will be Mmes. M. D. Pior, Victoria W. Limacher and Bonnell.

You visitors, who enjoy playing Canasta and would like to meet other Canasta fans, try to attend the regular Monday parties at the Ruidoso Women's Club. The ladies are still trying to raise funds to continue improvements on their buildings, besides spending an afternoon in enjoying the Canasta party ad visiting friends and neighbors and making new friends.

Remember the day, Monday, and the time, 2 p. m.

Thanksgiving Union Service Set November 22

Again this year the churches of Ruidoso are co-operating with the Protestant Mescalero Indian Mission in a joint Thanksgiving service. Recently Reverend R. Ten Haken and Reverend W. Chino of Mescalero met with the Ruidoso Ministerial Alliance to work out the details of the service.

The Thanksgiving service will be held in Mescalero Nov. 22 at 11:00 a. m. The Reverend W. Chino, ordained Indian minister at Mescalero, will deliver the Thanksgiving message with the other ministers taking part in the service.

At noon a real traditional Thanksgiving dinner will be served. The Indians from the Reservation will provide the meat, various kinds of wild game, Indian fry bread, Irish potatoes, and coffee. People from Ruidoso are to provide the vegetables and dessert.

Those who have attended the service during the past years have been very pleased with it. You are urged to take part in this Thanksgiving service. If you have company, take them. They will enjoy it. Remember to take a generous amount of some vegetable and a dessert.

SCRAP IRON NEEDED FOR U. S. DEFENSE

The making of tanks, ships, planes, and guns to keep America strong can be found on nearly every New Mexico farm and ranch in the form of iron and steel scrap. Broken machine parts, outdated equipment, and even baling wire are some of the farm items which can yield valuable scrap, an essential ingredient in the manfacture of steel.

A special drive for rounding up farm scrap in the state has been set for the period Oct. 15 to Nov. 15, W. Leslie Martin, chairman of the State Agricultural Mobilization Committee, reminds farmers and ranchers.

Staplers and staples—News Office.

Woman's Club Will Meet Next Week

The Ruidoso Woman's club will hold its regular meeting Wednesday of next week, Nov. 14, at the club house. A covered dish luncheon will be held at 1:00 o'clock with a business session set for 2:30. The program will be on The Romance of Percelain, to be presented by Mrs. Ralph Oberholtzer.

Members are requested to bring their favorite pieces of porcelain or china and answer the roll call with a short resume of its history.

The club's yearbooks are now available, the committee in charge reports.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bates and little son, Michael, left Monday morning for Seaside, Oregon, after visiting with Robert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bates, for two weeks. It was Mrs. Bates' and Mike's first visit to Ruidoso and they seemed delighted with the friendly folks they met here.

NEWS FROM— LINCOLN

By Mrs. Jeff Dockray

Yes, we're still preparing for hunting season. In fact, there's a man in Lincoln town driving up and down the street with a deer tied to the back of his car. We all ready have them staked out.

Miss Ruth Penfield was home for the week-end, that is, visiting her mother and family. Miss Penfield attended the Art Show at the Museum Sunday, Nov. 5, 1951.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pepper of Capitan were in Lincoln Sunday also.

Mrs. Lora Giles, of the Giles Trading Post, has hunting license for sale, and also a good stock of hunters' items.

A number of people from Lincoln attended the Capitan School Carnival. Practically everyone reports a "good time."

Mrs. Annie Ramey and daughter, Maurildia, journeyed to Hot Springs, N. M., Monday of this week.

The L. S. Gipson place is very near completion now, and proves to be very well received, generally speaking, as to the people that have seen it.

Kayo and Dixie Dockray visited in Fort Stanton recently with the Bert Minter family. Of course, they always enjoy a visit away from home.

Our very good friend and neighbor, Jim Ramsey, had the misfortune of falling from an apple tree last week and in so doing broke his pelvic bone and was shaken up. At present, Jim is in the Carrizozo hospital and is reported doing very good. We are all wishing Jim a speedy recovery and hope that he will be home real soon.

The Leo Joiner family of Hondo were visitors of the Ray Taylor family Sunday, Nov. 4.

Watch this column for some information on a very talented, traveling troupe that will be in Lincoln Nov. 17th. They will be appearing at the La Paloma Bar on that night, and I will be able to furnish more "dope" on this at my next writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Maes and family attended the funeral for Lincoln county's first casualty of the Korean conflict, Junior Maes was laid to rest in Alamogordo, New Mexico, this last week-end. This is a very sad thing and all of the residents of Lincoln send their most sincere sympathy to the surviving relatives of this young man. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hilario Maes, as well as his grandmother, Rufina Maes, are very well known in this vicinity.

TAX DIVISION DISMISSES LINCOLN WOMAN

State Revenue Commissioner Charles H. Corlett announced the dismissal of Celina Irish, Lincoln, cashier in the income tax division, along with five other employes, in accordance with charges being made within the bureau.

Corlett said the effective date for dismissal of the six employes is Nov. 15, and that some of them might be replaced.

WELFARE DEPARTMENT COMPILING DIRECTORY

Mrs. Eileen O. Whittaker, Lincoln county welfare director, announced the State Department of Public Welfare is compiling a directory of social welfare resources. Officials of all organizations who extend aid in behalf of public welfare work are urged to list their groups in the directory which is being published in the interest of public information and community planning.

Names of organizations to be listed in the directory should be submitted to Mrs. Whittaker not later than Nov. 15. Her office is located in the courthouse at Carrizozo.

Mrs. M. E. Steele, post office employee here for nine years, flew with Ralph Brown this week to Plainview, Texas, where she was met by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hodell of Lockney, and with whom she will visit for a few days.

Jack Hull, postmaster here, received this note from the J. M. Conways: "Enclosed you will find our new forwarding address (1033 Dakota St., Albuquerque). We bought a new home Saturday and will be moving in this week. We surely are thrilled over it and once again I will be doing what I really like to do—keeping house and cooking. It's sure good to be back in the good old Southwest. Shorty." The Conways were formerly partners with the C. V. Robinsons in Ruidoso Club house.

NOB HILL TO CLOSE TWO WEEKS FOR REPAIRS

Nob Hill restaurant, popular dining place in the Gateway addition on Highway 70, is to be closed for two weeks for repairs beginning next Tuesday. The place will be re-opened after extensive redecoration on Tuesday, Nov. 27, the owners announce.

HOLLYWOOD STOCKYARDS WILL PREPARE MEAT FREE FOR LOCAL HOSPITAL

Hollywood Stockyards will cut and package free of charge any meat contributed to the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General hospital, officers of the hospital have announced.

News Items From— CAPITAN

(By Mary Werner

The deaded night of Hallowe'en has come and gone. While we had oodles of goblins, witches, ghosts, etc., walking streets and knocking on doors for "trick or treat" there was no damage done and on a whole very little marking of windows, tugning over buildings or other mischievous tricks. We are very proud of the way our young people behave and help to take care of the town and its property.

The high school carnival held Friday evening was a very successful one, both in entertainment and financially. Lupe Montoya, a Senior girl, won the honor of the carnival queen. Lupe is very worthy of this honor, being one of the old families of Lincoln county. She was chosen from the junior class last year to attend Girls State. The business houses of the town were very generous with their donations for door prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hobbs and sons, Joe and Bill of Cactus, Arizona, are here visiting Henry's mother, Mrs. Rose Hobbs. All three of Mrs. Hobb's boys were home over the weekend. Besides Henry, Bob of Alamogordo and family were here and Bill Hunt who lives here. They had quite a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson received word from California that they have a new grandson. The parents are Bill and Ole. Congratulations.

The P.T.A. held their monthly meeting Monday. They had a very nice attendance with women from Roswell putting on the program, which was in charge of the High School faculty.

Mrs. Gussie Titsworth went with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Titsworth to homecoming in Portales Friday and Saturday. They returned in time Saturday for the Mason's dinner in Roswell.

Our football boys played their final game of the season Friday against Ruidoso. They were again victorious with a score of 6 to 0. They won all but one of their games this season having tied with Tularosa. They lost none.

SPOT NEWS from Ruidoso-Hondo Valleys

NEWS ITEMS FROM OUR REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

Mrs. S. W. Stout and son, Raymond, were in Alamogordo one day last week.

Work is progressing nicely on the Mountainview Court expansion. Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Pior are operators of this court and are doing the construction work, and they hope to have the office and three units ready by Christmas.

Mrs. M. D. Pior will return home next week from Amarillo where she had a major operation. She became ill while in that city with a sick sister, and underwent surgery herself.

Mrs. Texa Wright is working at Fox Mercantile in Green Tree. She started there about ten days ago.

A new well and pumphouse have been installed at La Huerto Curio shop, also a new picture window in the home there, which will give the operator, Mrs. Edna Schlerenberg a view of the road.

Tom Jones had his appendix removed one day last week in the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley hospital. A brother, Paul Jones, underwent an operation in the government hospital on his injured leg. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Jones of Glencoe.

Pictures of the pageant, A Day in Old Lincoln, about 100 scenes in all, are on view at the San Patricio Trading post and are being enjoyed by the many who have been in to see them.

W. E. Gray is doing so fine in recovering from his injury that he was able to repair his water system at his farm and was able even to dig a cesspool.

H. F. Ellis at Bonnell's Ranch store did some filling in and land leveling back of the store. The area will be used for parking now, and will be a building site at some future date.

Rev. O. L. Oldham of Tinnie is helping Wilbur Coe at the apple stand—helping sell those good apples from the Coe ranch.

Ruidoso American Legion Auxiliary took to the boys at Ft. Stanton Marine hospital 1,000 magazines Wednesday. The Auxiliary has this as one of its projects this year. Members are collecting current magazines from newsstands in Ruidoso and are asking all persons interested to send their magazines to the Ruidoso News office, from where they will be transported to Ft. Stanton the first week in each month. Needless to say, the men at the hospital deeply appreciate this thoughtfulness.

The Tulleys at the Tulley ranch are very busy grading and getting the apple crop on the market.

Ramon Chavez is up on crutches after spending several weeks in the hospital at Ft. Stanton with a broken leg after being in an automobile accident near Old Lincoln.

Shelton Taylor and Howard Latham were in El Paso several days last week.

Kay Taylor is the new reporter for San Patricio, so leave all news items you have at the San Patricio Trading post for her to send us.

Mrs. Virginia Guest and Mrs. Frank Titsworth of Tinnie spent last Wednesday in Roswell.

The Workers Conference for Lincoln County Workers Association of Baptist churches met in Capitan last Tuesday. Seven churches were represented.

Cletus Gray arrived in Tinnie last Sunday from Oklahoma. He went to Carrizozo last Wednesday to enlist in the armed services.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rogers, Albuquerque, bought the Count Store in Tinnie last month. The Rogers are not strangers to Lincoln county as Mrs. Rogers was Mrs. Elma Fresquez of Picacho, daughter of Mrs. Lulario Fresquez and the late Mr. Fresquez. The new owners will maintain the same standard of business as Mr. Count did and will offer a full line of merchandise.

Mrs. W. P. Rogers is the new reporter for Tinnie for the News. See that she gets lots of notes about your activities for our paper.

The Lincoln County Historical Society's reception for new members and business meeting has been postponed until early spring. Activities are so numerous in the old courthouse it was judged not advisable to hold the meeting.

Mrs. Ruth D. Martin of Lincoln spent several days with her daughter, Ruth Penfield in El Paso.

In the meeting of the Glencoe Women's club, the group studied civilian defense on Wednesday. The group met at the club building in Glencoe. There were nine members present. Music was by Mrs. Phyllis McGuire. Mrs. Helena Lemay accompanied her on the piano. Mrs. B. J. Bonnell presided.

Mrs. T. E. Rice of Roswell has been here several days visiting Mrs. Grace Sutton.

A. L. Martinson, Indianapolis, Ind., who owns a home in the Country Club addition, was a business visitor here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oravets were in Tucson last week-end. They accompanied her mother, Mrs. Lem Coltharp there, who is to be with her husband there this winter.

T/Sgt. Cecil Manley of Forbes Air Base, Topeka, Kans., is due here this week-end on a 15-day furlough. Just in time for deer hunting.

Blondie Comedy, 'Born Yesterday' Booked at Pueblo

"Blondie Has Servant Trouble," Columbia Pictures' reprint comedy based upon the popular comic strip characters created by Chic Young, shows next Wednesday and Thursday at the Pueblo theatre here. Arthur Lake is the harassed Dagwood; Penny Singleton is his attractive wife, Larry Simms, their talkative Baby Dumpling, and Daisy the ever-wistful pooch. Others in the cast are Jonathan Hale, Danny Mummert, Arthur Hohl, Esther Dale, Irving Bacon, Ray Turner, Walter Soderling and Fay Helm. Frank R. Strayer directed, from Richard Flournoy's screen play. As the title indicates, the film is concerned with Dagwood's efforts to get a raise and provide Blondie with a servant.

Judy Holliday, who won the Academy Award as "best actress of the year" for her comedy performance in "Born Yesterday," Columbia picture at the Pueblo theatre Sunday and Monday, plays a beautiful, blonde, and dumb ex-chorine in the film, which also stars William Holden and Brod Crawford. Crawford won last year's Academy Award as "best actor" for his work in "All The King's Men" and Holden was nominated this year for a "best actor" Academy Award.

Bergstroms Lease Tinnie Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bergstrom and son of San Antonio, Texas, have leased the Tinnie Mercantile store from Mrs. Oney Raymon and are to operate the business themselves. They were in the packing business before coming to the Hondo valley.

A new line of dry goods, gifts and antiques will be added to the general merchandise stock there, the new operators announce.

The Bergstroms are not new to Lincoln county, Mrs. Bergstrom was the former Helena Fletcher and attended school for several years at Lincoln. She is a niece of Mrs. Raymon.

Ambrose and Virginia Guest, who have been operating the store, will remain in Tinnie and will continue their heavy machinery business, which they employ in dirt moving, leveling, etc.

RUIDOSO BAR PLANS FORMAL OPENING

Bob and Ruby Smith have laid out the welcome mat to their friends and customers at their newly-decorated Ruidoso Bar here. The couple plans a formal opening Saturday this week for the place, which had been closed for a few days while it was being repainted and refinished.

LAFF And You'll Live Longer

In Same Boat

"I just got out of prison this morning," a traveler told a man on the train. "It's going to be tough facing old firends."

"I can sympathize with you," commiserated the other. "I'm just getting back from the State Legislature."

Dangerous Era

In a discussion on women's styles in an American quiz show, an elderly man was one of the contestants. He was asked: "I suppose you are old enough to remember wasp waists?"

"Remember 'em," he exclaimed bitterly. "That's when I got stung!"

Foreign Element

My little grandson was having lunch with us. There was a jar of honey with the comb in it on the table.

"Grandma, is that honey?" he asked.

"Yes, it is," I told him.

"Well, Grandma, why is that wasp's nest in there?"

Dinner Banquet To Be Held By Capitan CC

The quarterly dinner banquet of the Capitan Chamber of Commerce will be held at the grade school cafeteria there Wednesday night next week, Nov. 14, at 7:30 p. m., according to an announcement from J. E. Harcrow, secretary.

Guest speakers are to be A. C. Hester, J. G. Moore and Judge E. Chavez. Subject of their discussions will be duties and responsibilities of county officials.

Reservations must be made by Sunday night, and plates are at $1.50 each. Wives of members are invited, the secretary added.

W. L. Waltrip Is Injured In Korea

Cpl. W. L. Waltrip was injured with a piece of shrapnel in his leg in the fighting in Korea on Oct. 22, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett B. Waltrip of Ruidoso, were informed by a letter from him last week-end. Wednesday of this week an official message from the Department of Defense reported the incident, also.

The parents said they did not think the injury was serious, they gathered from the letter they had received from their boy. He is in the 35th division and is with a radar detachment. "He said he wanted to hurry up and get well and get back with his outfit up front," Mrs. Waltrip reported.

He had been in Korea only about three months. Before going in the service he had been associated with his father here in the operation of the Carpenter Shop.

NAVAJO LODGE BOOKS ORCHESTRA FOR SATURDAY

"Ron" and His Chicagoans, a five-piece swing band, composed of professional musicians in the Alamogordo Air Base, have been booked by the Navajo Lodge for a dancing engagement Saturday. Carl DeBord, owner, has announced.

SPANISH FOOD ON MENU AT NAVAJO LODGE MONDAYS

Added to the famous smorgasbord suppers now being served at the Navajo Lodge each Friday night, Spanish food will be featured each Monday evening in that popular concern's dining room, Carl DeBord, manager, has announced. The Lodge serves a five-course dinner on Sundays that is proving quite popular, also.

RESIDENCE DAMAGED IN FIRE MONDAY

Speedy work by members of the Green Tree fire department prevented serious damages to the home of H. B. Hill, in Turkey canyon late Monday. The firemen extinguished the blaze before it gained any great headway. Ruidoso's fire department answered a call there, but the fire was under control by the time the local truck arrived.

BOWSER COMPANY ROBBED OF CASH AND MERCHANDISE

The Fred P. Bowser Co. in Picacho was robbed last Tuesday night. Robbers gained entrance through a rear door and escaped with a small amount of cash and an estimated $50 in merchandise.

SIX SECOND SERMON

And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters fail not.—Isaiah 11:58.

FREE THEM FROM MISERY

Freedom from aggression is not enough. The Korean people must be saved from the misery that follows war's devastation. Your Thanksgiving gift of CARE packages provides needed food and clothing for Korean war orphans and refugees. Send your contribution at once!

The nation's 1951 cotton crop estimate was reduced from 17.8 million bales to 16.9 million bales following unfavorable September weather in certain parts of the Cotton Belt.

Nearly half of all the eggs produced in the world are laid by U. S. hens. For the last six years, the average American has been eating eggs at the rate of more than one a day.

If you have iron or steel scrap that is just making a mess around your farm, you can help keep our steel mills busy by getting it to your scrap dealer. The month Oct. 15 to Nov. 15 has been designated for the national "Scrap Harvest."

7th Graders At Hondo Set Good Record

Some very good work is being done by the 7th grade class of the Hondo Valley Union High school.

The highest record of attendance for the first six weeks was won by the 7th grade. As a reward, the students were given an extra play period.

Also both the highest scholastic honor and citizenship rating was won by Rosella Gonzalez, of the 7th grade.

The class officers are: Roman Pacheco, president and class representative; Orlidia Sanchez, vice president; Stella Fresquez, secretary; Benito Montoya, treasurer; and Rebecca Richardson, reporter. Mrs. Ruby Douglass is the class sponsor.

This group of students is to be commended for the good work they are doing this year.

John M. Petrilli, father of Mrs. Elmo Barnes of this city, arrived early this week at New Orleans by ship from Guatemala City, Central America, and is to go to Washington, D. C., and San Antonio on business. He will be met in El Paso soon by his daughter and her husband and their son, Jim, for a visit later this month.

A. J. Fuchs, noted hunter, is said to carry only one bullet in his gun when he goes after game. "And, he always brings home something with that one bullet," a fan of his declared.

Rieno Sarlin says: "Douglas fir is the best heating wood we have in this country."
