CITY-WIDE CLEAN-UP IS SET

Plans have been worked out where residents of Ruidoso will get free trash hauling the latter part of next week to carry away the rubbish from a city-wide Clean-Up week, June 1 through 7.

Luther Bynum, city sanitation commissioner, said a city garbage truck would make the rounds of the town next week-end to haul off all trash that is put up in barrels, boxes or sacks, easy for loading on the truck.

It is hoped all home owners and business property owners, also will join in cleaning up the banks and river along the Rio Ruidoso, during the drive.

Cleaning away trash will not only be a safety precaution for fire and/or accident, it also will prove a health precaution, it is pointed out.

The clean-up week, which can also be a paint-up and fix-up period, is sponsored by the Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce.

½ and ½
WIT & WISDOM
—By Vix—

You can bet on Ruidoso tootin' her horn. In the recent Hiway 70 cavalcade to Queen Creek tunnel opening in Arizona, our representatives traveling in three cars had plenty of signs on their vehicles telling the world about the Playground of the Southwest. Enroute there, the Carl DeBords and Carmon Phillips got trapped in an Armed Forces day parade in Las Cruces—went the entire parade route boosting this Mountain Resort. How about that?

An editorial in the Ruidoso News recently standing up for keeping Ft. Stanton hospital open was reprinted in the Albuquerque Journal last week.

Last week we named 37 cafes, lodges, sandwich shops and barbecue pits in the area which would serve the public its meals during the vacation rush—and overlooked three. The total now stands at 40 here if you include Green Tree Lodge, reported by dozens of the Grays' friends as being omitted last week, Cree Meadows country club dining room, which likely will be open later in the summer, and Slim Skellett's Corn Dog stand, now being built between Marler's Bowling alley and Jerry's Village Beauty shop.

Ruidoso is to get some additional national advertising in Eastern newspapers this summer, says L. S. (Heavy) Drake, who was in Santa Fe last week. He reports the N. M. Tourist bureau is placing ads in 600 newspapers in the east, and the Day in Old Lincoln pageant, Ruidoso Downs and Lincoln county will be featured in some of the display; then the N. M. Park commission also is sending some ads to eastern newspapers in which the Lincoln national forest, Capitan, Old Lincoln and Ruidoso will be mentioned. Heavy says Duke Mayshark, the new state tourist bureau head, has indicated he will make a visit to Ruidoso this summer to see what this area looks like. Boy, will he be surprised!

Mrs. Emmett Reese has had a most moving experience. She learned for the first time not long ago that there is an International association of Indoor Sports, made up of persons physically handicapped. She met a car full of that group's members when it was stranded near here by auto trouble. The association has for members people who are gainfully employed in work of all types, even though they may be chained to a wheelchair for life, or may be afflicted in other ways. She says the hopefulness, their outlook on life, the cheer they radiated, despite their afflictions, were inspiring. She said she went around in a rosy daze for quite a while after having talked with the people in that car. Incidentally, the car was carrying the Indoor Sports members on a trip from California to some part of Texas. She has been getting their newspaper and magazine since she met them—and the publications tell of their varied activities—such as sports, meetings, projects, etc. All in all, it's a most worthy club.

[illegible] of Vagabond cabins, sponsoring the queen's visit here, said a complete time table of her appearances at various functions June 12 to 18 will be printed in next week's News.

He also is the author of a number of religious books.

Ft. Stanton Group Asks Support

Persons interested in saving Ft. Stanton U. S. Public Health Service hospital from the economy axe of the new administration are at work selling on state and national officials, urging its status be retained in the national budget.

Mrs. Louise Coe of Glencoe, one time Lincoln county state senator, is in the nation's capital this week with War Claims Commissioner Gertrude Lusk, seeking an audience with Loveta Culp Hobby, in President Eisenhower's cabinet, and other national officials to speak in behalf of Ft. Stanton. Last week, Lincoln county Senator J. G. Moore, Rep. L. S. Drake, Dist. Atty. C. C. Chase, Jr., County Treasurer Ben Greisen, County Clerk J. E. Harcrow, Carrizozo attorney Frank C. Boyce and Mrs. Coe called on state officials, including Governor Mechem, in Santa Fe, urging something be done immediately to keep the hospital in operation.

The general understanding in Lincoln County, they said, is that the surgeon general's budget contained no appropriations for the 50-year-old hospital for tuberculosis victims. No official word has been received, however, that closing is planned.

"There has been a gradual closing since last August," Moore and Drake said. "Now the hospital has only 100 patients, although it has a capacity of 240.

"The hospital employs 150 Lincoln County persons. These persons are mainly homeowners in several communities close to Fort Stanton. To close the hospital naturally would be to deal a tremendous blow to Lincoln County's economy."

TO CHECK TRAFFIC

Mechanical car checkers will be set up soon on State Highway 37, between Ruidoso and Angus, to count traffic on that road, L. S. (Heavy) Drake, Lincoln county state representative, and State Senator J. G. Moore were informed by State Highway engineer Pete Erwin in Santa Fe last week.

He said four cabins and a large amount of personal property and some of the mine's supplies were lost in the blaze. He said he was sure it was started by someone using a gasoline soaked torch which was thrown under one of the cabins.

Ruidosoans Asked To Wear a Poppy Memorial Day

By Lillie Mae Ward

On Saturday, May 30, all of us will be asked to wear a little red poppy on our coats or dresses. The day will be Poppy Day, when each year, we of America pay tribute to those who gave their lives for America during the World Wars.

The poppies which we will wear on Poppy Day are not, of course, natural flowers from the battlefields. They are flowers which have even a greater significance than any nature could produce. They have bloomed under the hands of men disabled in wars the comrades of those in whose honor they will be worn.

When you buy your poppy Saturday, think of the disabled veteran in the hospital or workshop who has fashioned the little blood red flower, and think of the brave American boys who lie beneath the waving poppies in France where it grew on the battle-fields. The poppy has become the symbol of the dead—their memorial flower. That is why we pin on the poppy and pay tribute to our dead of the two World Wars. The poppy covers the soil of France beneath which many of them lie, and on Poppy Day we place the flower over our hearts, where the memory of the great sacrifice they made for our country is forever enshrined.

Local fishermen report the stock of fish is very depleted in that region. Shaul said he believed soldiers, camped in the reservation during the winter months, had caught the fish by hand, or maybe by traps. He said on one visit to their camp, he had found fishing rods.

Golf Course Reconditioning Gets Under Way; Sale Is Set

Cree Meadows Country club, beautiful golf course north of Ruidoso, was shut down Monday this week for about three weeks while nine holes of the course are reconditioned for this summer. Work of finishing an additional nine holes on the course, laid out last year, will be completed this fall.

A. A. (Jack) Bradford, Midland oil and ranchman, one of the principal stockholders in the country club association, on a visit here last Sunday, conferred with other stockholders on plans for future development of the club.

He asked the News to announce that it was imperative to close the course for two to three weeks while replanting of grass and reconditioning the present nine holes was completed. He said the greens all are being enlarged three or four times their present size, and that shorter tees will be installed on some holes.

The driving range, operated separately by Leroy Gooch, will be open, however, it was announced.

The course will probably be placed on sale under a district court order at Carrizozo July 10. It is expected to be ordered to satisfy a mortgage foreclosure suit by Bradford, who has been named receiver for the course until the sale, and who is directing the work of improving the grounds.

Bradford said Dick Trott, widely known West Texas golf pro, who was with Ranchman Hills country club, Odessa, and also was at Midland, is in charge of reconditioning the course here.

Joe Palmer, originator and principal stockholder in Cree Meadows, has reportedly relinquished claim to the club as a means of expediting court procedure.

13-Year-Old Boy Misses Death In Electric Shock

Jerry M. Lobb, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lobb of Green Tree had the closest brush with death he'll probably ever have at 11:45 a. m. last Friday. While climbing a tree near his home, his hand brushed an electric wire carrying 7,200 volts of power. The shock stunned the youth, badly burning the hand and grounding through his shoe sole against a tree limb.

Alton Gray, Louis Smith, Jack Parnell and A. B. Munsey, state highway patrolman, aided in rescuing the boy from his perch in the tree where he had dropped to a lower limb. He received treatment here in Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General hospital.

Amputation of four fingers on the hand which touched the wire was necessary. It had been burned to a crisp. The youth is recovering rapidly, it was reported early this week.

MR. AND MRS. SHAFER INJURED IN WRECK

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shafer of Ruidoso, aged about 60, are receiving medical attention in an El Paso hospital to where they were moved from Ft. Stanton hospital Monday, for injuries they suffered when a pick-up truck in which they were riding dove off the Devil's canyon road into a rocky bluff late Sunday. Mr. Shafer has a fractured hip; his wife has both knee caps shattered.

The accident occurred as the pair was being driven home from the Capitan Kids rodeo where they had gone to sell popcorn. They were riding in a Ford pick-up owned by Roy Pior. A popcorn machine was being hauled in the rear of the pick-up. The truck and the corn popper both were damaged considerably. The young lady driving the pick-up for the Shafers told Glen Painter, state policeman investigating the crash, that the car went out of control as it went down the rocky canyon road. She suffered a cut on the arm.

LIFE-O-GRAMS

'SCENES ALONG TH' PATH O' LIFE'

By Suzanne Oliver

She climbed slowly from the taxi two small bags in her hand. She sat the bags upon the ground and paid the driver and dismissed him. She stood there for a long time just gazing at the small cabin, perched on the side of the mountain as if she had not seen it in years.

She was wearing a smart spring suit. Her red hair waved and brushed glossily back from her thin face. Only a dash of pale lipstick was on her soft mouth. The sun had dropped like a plummet behind the horizon of tall pines. Finally she picked up her bags and moved slowly up the walk, her big blue eyes glued to the heavy knotty pine front door, as if she was hesitant to enter. As if some sinister thing lurked inside or perhaps fearing that familiar surroundings there would bring back memories that she had rather forget.

An older woman opened the big door, took her bags and ushered her inside with no play of emotions. Once she glanced about the big room, waves of weakness seemed to wash over her. She looked bewildered and unhappy. She was clearly a tortured woman. Looking at her extraordinary thinness one believed she must be gnawed away by some insidious disease, inner turmoil, confusion, or the something that seemed to consume her.

She sat on the lounge before a coffee table, slender, nervous fingers played uneasily with a cigarette lighter. Then she got up and strolled unnecessarily over to the window and traced a pattern on the pane with her finger. Then she began to mutter sharp, veiled, bitter things, as if she just had to empty her mind. A very deep drama playing itself out in the struggle between her heart and her mind. Then she suddenly seemed to come to the problem that perplexed her most.

She turned and faced the older woman who had been very silent, a smile came into her face as if she had settled everything, and said:

"Thank you, dear, for being so understanding. For coming on ahead of me and opening up the cabin and being here when I came. I never could have stood to enter this house alone. It is all over now. I know there is no use trying to follow him another mile. It won't work. Please let us forget everything of the bitter past and make a new life and be happy. I'm home to stay."

The Wayne Brownd family of Sudan Tex., visited here last weekend.

News From
MESCALERO
By Mrs. E. P. Breuninger

Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Prins of Carrizo district honored their son, Floyd Prins, with a dinner at their home on Sunday. Floyd is now serving in the U. S. Marine Corps and is home on a few days leave. Mr. Prins is an employee of the Mescalero Day school, driving the school bus to and from Ruidoso transporting school children.

The Mescalero Indian Cattle Growers' association membership held a general meeting of its members on Saturday at the Agency. A dinner was also served to all members.

Victor Dolan, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Millen left for Santa Fe May 29 where they expect to spend the week-end and take in the memorial services to be held there. Mr. Dolan's son, Bernard Dolan, was killed in action in Germany during WWII and is buried in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

The William Breuninger family left for Sallisaw, Okla., on Saturday, May 23, to visit friends and relatives. William Fellman will be in charge at the Agency garage during Breuninger's absence.

The annual school Mescalero Day school picnic was held at Head Springs on Thursday, May 21. Mr. Leland Carl, principal teacher, was in charge.

Lonnie Hardin and Arthur Lusher were in Albuquerque for three days last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Boone Lacewell of Elk district Day school, will be on a week's leave this week. On June 1 they expect to leave for Brigham, Utah, where they will attend the Indian Summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Magoosh spent a few days in Tucson, Ariz., last week. They will bring home their daughter, who is attending school there.

GAS LINE CONSTRUCTION MAY START SOON

Tom Shockman and two of his assistants were in Corona last week checking on a possible camp site for around 250 men and their families, who will work on laying pipe for the El Paso Natural Gas company.

It is reported that construction of the natural gas pipeline will begin in about five weeks.

Shockman was recently in Corona for several weeks as manager of a surveying crew, and is now securing right-of-way easements from ranchers in this section for the pipeline.

The gas line will go from Texas to California across New Mexico in a southeast to northwest direction. It will pass below the Gallina station and to the south of the Gallinas mountains.

SPECIAL SHORT BOOKED

Bob Briggs of Pueblo theatre announces a special short subject, "Operation A-Bomb," has been booked for showing with the regular feature picture next Wednesday and Thursday. The short film will be on A-Bomb tests, he said. A color musical, "Sombrero," starring Ricardo Montalban and Yvonne de Carlo, will be the main attraction.

'CATTLE TOWN' NEW OUTDOOR DRAMA

Dennis Morgan and Amanda Blake share romantic roles in Warner Bros.' "Cattle Town," new outdoor drama, due tonight and tomorrow at the Pueblo theatre here.

The Mac Garners visited in Ruidoso last week-end.

Joe McLaurin accompanied them to Brewster, Tex., last week-end.

Mrs. O'Donnell for an extended stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Wooten of Wilmington, Calif., are visiting the R. H. Hedgecokes.

NEW KETTLE COMEDY

Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride make their fifth appearance in the popular Ma and Pa Kettle series in Universal-International's new comedy hit, "Ma and Pa Kettle On Vacation," showing at the Pueblo Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Joann Martin, Thomas Walker Are Wed Saturday

In a beautiful candellighted double ring ceremony performed Saturday evening in the Community Methodist church, Joann Marie Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, and Thomas Donald Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walker of Muncie, Ind., were united in marriage. Rev. Frank Matthews performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a white lace and satin ballerina length dress. She wore a fingertip veil and carried white carnations.

Miss Ann Evjen, her maid of honor, was dressed in a blue ballerina length dress and carried pink carnations. Little Miss Diane Lee, sister of the bride, was flower girl and she wore a pink satin and net ballerina length dress and wore on her head a garland of pink rosebuds.

Preceding the ceremony Jim Whiteside sang "Because" accompanied by Barbara Gazaway who played the traditional wedding music.

The church was beautifully decorated with bouquets of white gladiolas, snapdragons and chrysanthemums. Jon Matthews served as best man and ushers were Bob Potter and Bill Clemmer of Holloman Air Force Base and they and the groom were in uniform.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the church annex where the bride's table was set with a beautiful centerpiece of iris and honeysuckle. The wedding cake and punch were served.

Serving were Naomi Walton and Mrs. Dick Shumate of Clovis, an aunt of the bride. Miss Marsha Elberson presided at the bride's book. Mr. and Mrs. Walker spent their honeymoon in Ruidoso staying at Nob Hill lodge. They plan to live here this summer. Mr. Walker will drive back and forth to the air base near Alamogordo where he is currently stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Pettit, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lairick, Mr. and Mrs. Ercell Givens and son, Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Davenport and daughter, Vicki, all of Abernathy, Tex., were among visitors in Ruidoso last week-end.

Arbra Wilson, Don Alexander Wed May 16

By MARSHA ELBERSON

Miss Arbra Wilson became the bride of Don Alexander in a ceremony performed Saturday, May 16, at the Methodist parsonage in Alamogordo. The couple was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Otto L. Derra; and Miss Elva Mae Alexander.

The couple plans to make its home in San Diego.

Mrs. Nell Parks, perennial Ruidosoan, who has been teaching at San Mateo, is visiting her parents at Clarendon, Tex., she writes.

Mrs. Barbara Huntress attended the wedding and reception of Miss Peggy Jackson in El Paso Wednesday.

Calloway Huffaker and family of Tahoka, Tex., visited here last week-end.

The folders, printed by the Ruidoso News commercial printing department, gives a history of the tribe and the reservation, and some statistics on the Apaches. A sketch on the front was drawn by Ignatius Palmer, Apache.

Visiting the Herb Greggersons over the week-end from El Paso are Mr. Greggerson's sister, Mrs. May Mayo and her daughter, Sylvia; Vernon Greggerson and family; Mack Archibald, Jimmy Reagan and the Greggerson children, Hilma, who attends Texas Western, and Herb Jr., who works for the El Paso Natural Gas Co.

Santa Fe (Spl.)—New Mexico's 32 county governments are expending an average of $1 per month per capita or a total of over eight million dollars a year.

The per capita figure for Lincoln county will be $32.66 for the fiscal year ending this June 30, according to data released by the Taxpayers Association of New Mexico.

This compares to a state average of some $12.24 per capita for county government services, during the same period.

Fred and Martha Trimble, children of Mr. and Mrs. George Trimble, underwent tonsillectomies in Roswell Monday.

Different Sides

Two men, neither very bright, were helping to build a house. One kept picking up nails, looking at them, keeping some and throwing the others away.

"Why are you throwing away so many nails?" asked his companion.

"Because they are pointed the wrong way. They have the head on the wrong end."

"You fool. Those are for the other side of the house."
