The following is from the University of New Mexico Bureau of Business Research bulletin issued periodically: "The imminent withdrawal of Fort Bliss personnel from the Red Canyon Range Camp will bring no joy to Carrizozo. During the four years the camp has been in use, more than 100 housing units have been built or moved or remodeled by Carrizozans to accommodate Red Canyon personnel. The president of the Chamber of Commerce was recently quoted by the Lincoln County News as declaring that 'complete withdrawal of all personnel from Red Canyon will deal a severe blow to the economy of our town.' The same issue of the News said editorially, 'Fort Bliss established the Red Canyon and Oscura Range Camp to train Nike-Ajax troops to handle and fire these potent arrise weapons, and Carrizozo was called on for housing, services, skilled civilian workers, and water for the camp, to mention a few of the important things. Carrizozo people responded by building or moving in over 100 units of additional housing, and the merchants increased their inventories, hired more help, and generously extended needed credit to service personnel. Now with the announced removal of all Fort Bliss personnel we are faced with vacant housing and a severe business recession.'" . . .

In the Land Use Planning Committee's road meeting in Carrizozo last week, Lincoln National Forest Supervisor gave a report to the committee and this came from the committee's minutes: "Mr. Doman gave a forest service report on the roads and maintenance in Lincoln National Forest. Since last year's road meeting, the forest service has cooperated with the state and county widening Mon Jeau road. Also in cooperation with the timber operator they plan to maintain the road on top of the Capitan mountains, also they have redecked four bridges in White Oaks, and replaced five cattle guards. This year they plan to use their $31,000 dollars allotted to road maintenance to replace ten cattle guards, six in Lincoln county, and maintain roads and erect signs in the forest. They have approximately $70,000 for road construction and restoration work and part of this will be used toward repairing the bridge south of Glencoe. They also plan to do a survey in the Ruidoso area for access road into White Mountain Park." . . .

Lots of face-lifting going on among local firms as they get ready for summer: George Gardenhire's Skateland is getting a new front. The Whipples of El Paso are up superintending an enlargement program for their restaurant at the old Y in Palmer Gateway. . . . Truett Shults tells us that six local boys, on a tour of New Mexico State U. at Las Cruces last week, were welcomed with open arms, and the faculty took especial pains to show the youths the various departments. He said one of th faculty took time out to speak a word of praise for our Water Superintendent Claudie Peterson, whom he declared was tops in the state because of his eagerness to study and learn more in the study courses held there periodically for better water department management. Boys going with Shults were: Bob Peters, Royce Lackey, Harley Parnell, Bill Easley, David Vance and Mike Shults. . . .

Mrs. Emma Redmann says in response to the appeal in this column last week for some more cash for the new C. of C. building, an anonymous professional man here gave $50, Baker Pharmacy gave $25 and Clyde McClintock, local Mobil man, gave $100—and that some more has been promised from others. . . . REAL ESTATE SALES AT ALL-TIME HIGH IN RUIDOSO AREA

Interviewing real estate sales personnel in Ruidoso the last ten days by the Ruidoso News staff has confirmed a fact suspected early this year that this area is undergoing a real estate boom. Nearly half a million dollars in real estate transactions has occurred in this region in the last 90 days—a conservative estimate arrived at from talking with almost every dealer for property here.

Further confirming the fact there is a tremendous turnover in property is the total of the escrow accounts in Ruidoso State Bank, money deposited there to establish buyers' intention of trading by a certain date. Both D. J. Sovell, cashier, and Ed Wimberly, assistant cashier, concurred in the statement that escrow money held by the bank now on real estate trading is about double any figure ever recorded before by the bank. Executive Vice-President T. B. Hood said the escrow money was from 50 to 100% above last year.

Another reason for the boom early this year was explained by W. D. Crosby and Lela Easter of Allied Realty, who said many trades were planned last fall, but purchasers wanted to wait until the new year of 1959 to complete the deals. They said their number of sales were not as many as ordinary, but that the sales they had made were much bigger in dollar volume in recent weeks. They also said there was a tremendous amount of sales between owners and buyers, not made through real estate firms here, that entered the picture early this year. They named more than half a dozen changes in ownership that had not been handled by realtors. Mrs. Easter said the area is getting a more progressive type of young families buying real estate here and more and more people are finding the winters are not as severe as they had been led to believe. She said the key to more sales here was the hospitality shown.

Luther Bynum told the News sales he has handled this year are ahead of last year, and that better residential property is moving now than in former years.

Paul Douglass says the last three weeks have erupted in an enormous jump in property sales in his office. He was high in his praise of real estate advertising in the Ruidoso News as assisting in a large degree to interesting people in buying here. He attributed a good part of the interest in Ruidoso property also to a good hospital, schools and churches.

Cy Leland, Jr., who is interested with his father, Cy, Sr., in Leland Realty, said last week sales had been fine through their office, much heavier than at the same time last year. "Folks are more interested earlier than ordinary, we believe," he said.

W. E. Munsey said his sales were 'way ahead of last year. He said his office is better established now and he said he was getting good response from his advertising in the Ruidoso News.

Dan D. Swearingin told the News his new company had handled the largest volume of business in January this year than it had since it was established, and that his firm was enjoying a large amount of inquiries. Tommy Parteet, in charge of sales, said advertising in the News was bringing replies from all over West Texas almost daily.

Both Fred Gresswell and Fred Richardson of Fred Gresswell Insurance & Real Estate, a new firm opened the last few weeks, report sales have been excellent through their agency and they were very optimistic about business the next few weeks. "We know of many people about to make up their mind to buy here," Richardson said.

Tom Jones of Ruidoso Realty Co. says sales have been very good early in 1959, but that a slack season early in the winter was felt by many realtors here. He declared property is moving at a rapid rate now.

H. T. Wicker says sales are 'way ahead of last year' and he attributes it to better roads into Ruidoso and also that Ruidoso is getting better advertised throughout the Southwest.

Lucille McCarty of White Mt. Development Co. says "I hear folks say 'I want to live in Ruidoso' more and more" and that she believes the upsurge in real estate sales is due to that more than anything else. She reported her sales were substantially up.

Iva Coleman, one of Ruidoso's pioneers in this business, told the News this week, "I've handled several sales lately, but didn't want to have you list them as being handled by our office because folks would think we were bragging."

CLAYTON BENNETT SELLS 26-YEAR-OLD BUSINESS

Clayton Bennett's Curios, 26-year-old landmark on Highway 70 near the entrance to Ruidoso, was sold this week by Helen and Clayton Bennett to B. M. Hopkins. The store, established as a sandwich shop and gas station in 1933, is the oldest business of that nature located in the same spot here, and has catered to many thousands of visitors and homefolks as it grew in size and services. Bennett had operated a business in Ruidoso prior to going to his highway location.

Involved in the trade was the curio store, the Chevron service station, the living quarters and rental cabins and two acres of land. The Bennetts retained some of the acreage they own adjoining the store.

The Bennetss said they were not going to leave this part of the country, and will still make this area their home, but were not ready to announce their future plans this week—pending a long rest.

Hopkins has been a resident of Ruidoso for several years, and at one time was associated with Johnny Anderson in operation of the H. & A. Shopping Center in Ruidoso Downs, formerly known as Shriver's Store, and later as the Village Shopping Center, now owned by Anderson.

TV Cable Change-Over Set Next Week

Melvin Knox of Ruidoso TV Cable Service announced this week the cable service will shut down Tuesday morning next week while a change-over is made from the present tower on the hill above downtown Ruidoso, to several new towers installed atop Alto Hill. He said cable service will likely be resumed Tuesday night, and subscribers then will receive pictures and sound from five television stations, two in El Paso, two in Albuquerque and one in Roswell. All five channels, listed in a special ad in today's News, will provide sharp, clear pictures and excellent sound, Knox declared.

Several Ruidosoans who have heard and seen television programs from the five channels at the cable service's new tower location have all declared there is a vast improvement in the reception at the new site.

Knox said this week that for a day or two after the change-over, there might be slight interruptions and some reception that will not be up to par—but that the inconvenience will last only a few hours as all details are completed for making the change.

Lincoln Forest Official Says Prospects Are Good For Park Development

Everett Doman, supervisor of the Lincoln National Forest, in a talk before Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Rotary Club in its noon luncheon here Tuesday in the O. E. S. Hall in Palmer Gateway said prospects are very good for development of White Mountain Park as a winter sports area, "and also as a tourist attraction for the summer months, as well."

He said the U. S. Forest Service has conducted a survey of snow conditions since December in the snow bowl, and that there has been good skiing snow since then. "We are to make one more inspection and survey in April to complete our data," he said. "Even though this has been a very dry year regarding snowfall, prospects are good, and we have two individual firms that have expressed interest in bidding on concessions in the park. We will recommend where to place ski runs, ski lifts, lodges, shelters and other such improvements, and will ask for bids of percentages from gross income on the winter sports park development." Doman said there are possibly two routes for roads into the park, one up the Rio Ruidoso north fork, the other up Eagle Creek. He said engineers of the Forest Service are due shortly to survey a proposed route into the park.

He said the beauty of the country that will be opened by a road into the park should make it as profitable to operate in summer as in winter, and that with proper facilities winter sports would attract many new enthusiasts from the wide area of the Southwest that now draws patronage to the Ruidoso Playground country.

Doman's main topic for the Rotarians was a discussion of the Forest Service's land exchange program initiated recently to try and consolidate Forest Service lands remote from thickly populated urban areas. "We want to withdraw from having to administer special land use permits and similar desk work on property adjacent to Ruidoso, Cloudcroft, High Rolls, and other places that are growing. Our policy requires that those persons who wish to acquire certain lands we have set up for exchange must trade land within forest service boundaries of equal value. We cannot sell our land; can only swap for it—and both pieces in an exchange deal must be appraised as of the same worth."

He also told the club the forest service has offered to the Village of Ruidoso to allow the city administration to reserve, or earmark, lands it may forsee a need for in future years so that it may be held for the community to get. He said the village would need lands for sanitary land fill use, possibly for future school expansion, additional parks and recreation uses and maybe other needs.

The Rotarians voted to contribute $15 to the newly formed public library here.

Visitors included Mayor Jack Hull, Morris Books, Robert Pearson, Vic Lamb, all members of the village's new planning and zoning commission; and Doman, Farris McDermaid, assistant Lincoln supervisor, and Sam Sinclair, Ruidoso Ranger.

Foresters Meet With Planning Commission

Immediately following the Rotary luncheon, the three U. S. Forest service officials held an hour and a half's meeting with members of the Village of Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission to discuss ways and means of reserving Forest Service lands for future needs of Ruidoso. Besides the planning commission members named above, Chairman Dan Swearingin and member Jim Littlefield also sat in on the latter meeting, as did R. H. Hedgecoke and Claudie Peterson of Ruidoso Gun Club.

Peace And Quiet In Capitan Shattered On Friday The 13th With Police Search For Fugitives

By DIXIE SPARKS

The morning of Friday the 13th dawned cool, clear, but windy. Capitanites went about their usual duties of a work-day, when around 9:30 the morning air was shattered by the siren on a State Police Patrol Car. I had just driven through Capitan, fixing to turn left on State Highway 48 to Ruidoso when, after turning on my turn signal, I glanced into the rear view mirror and saw a car approaching from the rear too fast for average driving through a peaceful village such as Capitan. Knowing I could not make the turn without being hit broadside by the oncoming car, I stopped halfway off the highway. The passing car continued the same speed and I saw a man and a woman in the front seat with two men in the back. The woman was looking out the back window.

I glanced into my rear view mirror and saw the State Patrol car with siren going and red light blinking. Bob Jurney, State Patrolman, was about half a block behind the speeding car. The woman must have said something to the man driving because the car lunged as though he had floorboarded the gas pedal. Thinking it was only a speeding "rap" for the driver of the first car, I proceeded on my merry way to Ruidoso.

Upon returning to Capitan I found out that the speeding car had held four people who had broken jail at Clovis Friday morning. Marcus Baez, charged with possession of narcotics, aged 30, is supposed to have been the one to break jail first, setting free Joseph Pointe, jailed for armed rob- [illegible] had previous records and Marcus Baez is said to be a three-time loser. After escaping from jail the four fled to Roswell, there abandoning the jailer's car and after tying up a salesman by the name of Acker, they changed into his clothes and took all available cash also his car and headed west on Highway 70. State Patrolman Bob Jurney, alerted of their coming, picked up their trail at Hondo. Chasing them on Highway 380 through Lincoln and Capitan. Going through Capitan Charlie Bird, of the State Fish and Game Department, tried to contact Bob on his two-way radio but too much interference. Instead Alamogordo answered telling him about the escapees but not that they were dangerous.

Approximately 2¼ miles west of Capitan they tried to take "Dead Woman's Curve" too fast. The car slid into the bank and all four took off from the car running. Bob Jurney caught three one by one, handcuffing them, then exchanged gun shots with Noel Martinez who ducked into the brush on the hillside. Charlie Bird also fired at Martinez but did not him him either. Virgil Hall arrived on the scene, and was left to guard the prisoners while Bob and Charlie had an impromptu man hunt. Bringing the prisoners back to Capitan later, a posse was formed with Lincoln County Sheriff "Sally" Ortiz in charge, which hunted Martinez all day to no avail. Around 4:30 Sheriff B. E. West and Deputy Sheriff L. B. Redwine of Clovis arrived to join the hunt, just before dark the Roswell state police [illegible] Carrizozo. The vicinity around Capitan, Nogal and Carrizozo was alerted.

Some 60 men took part in the day and night man hunt. Sheriff West and Deputy Redwine were stationed at the west end of Capitan road block all night. A posse of men was sent out Saturday at daylight and Grady Eldridge, mounted patrol trooper, and Friday Sherrel were teamed together. Grady Eldridge sighted Martinez about a mile away, through his telescope mounted on his gun. Martinez had evidently come out from under a bridge where he had spent the night to get into the sun shine and get warm.

Eldridge and Sherrel came upon Martinez from both sides. Martinez saw Sherrel first and ducked behind a bush. Sherrel ordered him to throw up his hands. Martinez started to turn and run then he saw Eldridge. He was quite docile in his arrest, that is believable after two days and one night without food also one night under the bridge with only a light jacket and an old parachute (he found) to cover him. His gun taken from him still had five bullets in it.

He was apprehended around 8:30 Saturday morning, being sent almost immediately to the Roswell jail. Talking to Sheriff West and Deputy Redwine around 10:30, I received most of my information from them. They had only gotten to bed when Martinez was caught. They picked up the three at Roswell to take them on to Clovis. I asked them if they anticipated any trouble with the prisoners and was told they were always alerted for trouble but the three would be shackled and handcuffed very strongly as only two of them (officers) and they were returning a three-time loser who would lose any way he leaped and he would leap at any chance he got. So Saturday Capitan settled slowly back to its every day life, with one exception—everyone talking about Friday the 13th which turned out to be quite unlucky for four people who thought that they could beat the law and get away with it.

MT. VUE DRIVE-IN TO INSTALL INDOOR THEATRE

Owners Ken Newton and Ed Wimberly this week announced plans for construction to start early in April on a 240-seat indoor theatre to be an enlargement of their Mt. Vue Sho-Dyn Drive-In Theatre on Mechem Drive.

The drive-in theatre will begin its 1959 season on April 2 and 3 with a free show each night. Construction likely will have begun by that date on the indoor section, to be installed in front of the present snack stand. The annex will have forced air heating to allow the show to operate 12 months. More than 500 feet of glass will be used to enclose the indoor theatre, with aluminum frames to dress it out in modern style. The seats will be the latest opera type, Wimberly said.

With the indoor taking only a minor number of stalls for cars in the drive-in section, Wimberly said the drive-in portion will still accommodate 250 automobiles. Patrons will have their choice of viewing the show from their cars, or from the enclosed theatre. There will be 50 seats provided in a dining area where customers will have unobstructed view of the screen. The projection booth, of necessity, will be raised during the improvement program. Also planned is installation of stereophonic sound in the indoor section, if it is feasible. The new theatre will be fireproof in every respect, the owners said. A separate parking area is being arranged for customers who wish to go into the indoor theatre.

Work has already begun in preparation for the new show season, with all speakers repaired and put in excellent working order; repairs have been made on the paved ramps, and a wider entrance is to be provided.

Newton and Wimberly declared the indoor annex will be the only one of its kind in the state of New Mexico. "We will continue to book only the finest quality movies for our customers, for all-family consumption, and feel this new and progressive step will attract more and more people to our community, for it is just one more addition for more

Our Gal Sal Says: Keep It Clean!

Now's the time to squeegie with the squoogie-woogie. That's the British seaman's way of saying, "Out with the sal soda concentrated and swab down the deck!" So heave-ho, ladies, start Spring cleaning... and let sal lend you a hand. Use it in solution form to wash down walls and woodwork, linoleum floors, windows, mirrors, venetian blinds and all plastic and porcelain surfaces. Use it dry as a scourer with a damp brush or sponge. Since it contains no grit or sediment and dissolves quickly in water, it can't scratch surfaces. By relying on such an all-purpose product as sal, you and your purse won't be limp, come the close of the Spring cleaning season. You haven't had to invest in a special cleanser for this, that and the next job. You haven't had to lug a great load of supplies from room to room, or waste energy trotting to and from the supply cupboard to return one lotion and pick up another for the next chore at hand.

Capitan News

By DIXIE SPARKS

Hi! Did you go to the basketball game last Friday night? If you missed it I am sorry for it was as I said a game to see. My hat (if I had one) is sure off to the mothers who got out on the gym floor and played. The score was not too bad considering the fact most of the girls had not played much either but still say my hat is off to: Mrs. Hall, Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Britton, Mrs. Otero, Mrs. Griego, Mrs. Elma Campbell and the other mothers whose names I do not know. It took nerve and you "gals" have it. One of the attractions of the game was the "imported" cheer leaders they had, Miss McKnight, a stunning brunette with a pony tail and curley bangs; Miss Stratton, curvaceous blond with braids and straight bangs. Their cheer leading was something to watch, and they had the crowd on their side in cheering all during the game. I heard by the grape vine today a rival school had offered them a handsome scholarship to go "over there" and lead the cheers. The pies donated by the P-TA members were auctioned off after the game by Miss McKnight (an added attraction) and afterwards everybody adjourned to the Home Ec room and sampled everybody's pie. Mrs. Leota Pfingsten had charge of the coffee and it was good. As I understand it they cleared around $130, which ain't hay and I think it is wonderful for the P-TA is a community minded group of people.

The last three weeks really have been busy ones for the Vance Bentons. Here's why: Mr. Raymond Clark of Mertzon, Texas, was a week long visitor and while here he and Vance sheared the sheep. Mr. and Mrs. Dyer Forbus and girls were Sunday visitors and had enchilada supper with Vance and Joy Faye. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones and Betty Lou paid them a visit when they were here visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. A. Honeycutt.

Mrs. Roy Morgan was up from Alamogordo to visit. She and Mrs. Don Murphy drove to Roswell to see Mrs. Travis (Mary) Werner. Mrs. Morgan returned to Alamogordo last Tuesday.

Mrs. Sara Fisher of El Paso is paying an extended visit to Mrs. Mayme Grieson.

Mrs. Johnny Soderback was an Albuquerque visitor last Sunday, when she drove up to see Johnny in the V. A. hospital.

Mrs. Ray Provine and children drove to Lubbock to see her parents and while there, Mrs. Provine attended a homecoming of her old classmates. This week-end she is in Las Cruces attending the district Vogue pattern contest. Mrs. Provine represents Capitan Woman's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall and Nancy drove to Morton, Tex., to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ward, nee Sara Hall.

Louise Runnels and daughter were Capitan visitors last week and I ran into them at the drug store. Jeepers, my hat is off to Louise, "whata gal." While there I also saw Mrs. Lamarr Bailey, Don and Bill. Lamarr was off to Roswell and maybe Texas before returning. Don wanted a hair cut but he refused my services and I thought my men hair cuts were so good, specially with the "pinking" shears touche.

Mrs. A. N. Spencer was a visitor last Tuesday. She was seeking help in her cancer drive for the month of April.

The I. V. Kennedys of Houston were visiting the Les Robertsons of Capitan for a while.

Three men took off from Capitan last Wednesday afternoon in an awful hurry for Las Cruces to see the basketball game between Utah and State Aggies. It turned out to be a very close and exciting game with the Aggies losing by only one point. The score was 66 to 65. The men? Oh yes, they were Fletcher Hall, Bill Hall and C. A. Botsford.

Mrs. Eltha Merrell left Capitan last Saturday for Alubuquerque to stay a while with her son and then on to Jonesboro, Ark., where she will have an extended visit with a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Murphy left Capitan for a couple of days visit in Santa Fe. Mr. Murphy will have a check-up while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hickman took off for Roswell last Saturday night to spend the week-end with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Hickman.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hill of Roswell gave the Smokey Museum a donation of $25.00. Mr. Hill is a retired attorney and is quite interested in Capitan and its progress. Thanks to you two from the Smokey Bear members.

Another donation from Mr. and Mrs. John Lacy to Smokey Museum for $5.00 each. Another reason why we have "outstanding teachers in Capitan."

Yours truly and Granny are off to Carlsbad tomorrow (Sunday), Granny to see my brother and I to a meeting. Yep, I'll see him, too.

Well, folks I guess that's all for this week. See you next week, Lord willing. Dixie.

Letter to the Editor

Roswell, New Mexico
March 11, 1959

Editor
Ruidoso News
Ruidoso, New Mexico
Dear Sir:

This is in regard to my letter of March 5, 1959, concerning speed zones on the US 70 projects. Please disregard that letter as the information it contains might mislead readers into thinking there is no legal speed zone at present on the new projects. I talked to the man in charge at your office yesterday and he made a note to delete any copy on this until it could be corrected.

The following information may be used.

The same speed zones that existed on the original roads remain on file with the New Mexico Supreme Court and are in effect on completed new projects until a traffic and speed study is made, and the resulting speed log approved by the Highway Commission and necessary signs posted. The new speeds are recorded and become legal as soon as the signs are posted.

The necessary studies and log have been prepared and approved for the US 70 projects from the Lincoln-Otero County line eastward 8.2 miles. The signs will be posted by the District 2 signing crew as soon as they are manufactured and delivered by the sign shop in Santa Fe. They will probably be in place within 4 to 6 weeks from this date. The rough speed averages will be 40 MPH and 45 MPH in urban areas; 55 MPH and 60 MPH in rural and semi-rural areas.

Sincerely,
State Highway Dept. Dist. 2,
T. H. Card
District Engineer

Angus & Bonito

By EULA CORDER

Excitement was running high in the Capitan area Friday the 13th. First there was a report from the Roswell radio station that three men and a woman had broken out of jail at Clovis, N. M., slugged the jailer and made their escape in the jailer's car. They abandoned the jailer's car at Roswell, held up a Texas man, robbed him and stole his car and headed west on Highway 70 and 380. Next report came from Capitan and said the outlaws' car came through Capitan going 100 miles an hour and the Highway Patrol behind them. Then word was flashed over the radio that the outlaws' car had turned over about seven miles west of Capitan, and two of the men and the woman had been captured, but that one man believed to be wounded, armed and extremely dangerous had escaped into the mountains. He was headed south from 380, which was towards Bonito and Angus area. All people in this area were warned to be on the lookout for this man, as he would be desperate to obtain transportation. The law officers from Lincoln County and some from Roswell were patrolling the roads and looking every place for the man. Night came and no outlaw. Road blocks were set up at different points and one here at the corner of highways 37 and 48 at Angus and manned all night. Morning came and still no signs or word of the wanted man. Early Saturday morning horses were brought into Capitan from Alamogordo, Clovis and Roswell. The officers began riding and walking the area from 380 where the man was last seen. About 8:30 Saturday morning the wanted man came out of the brush with his hands up, when the mounted partol ggot too close to him, and it turned out the outlaw was not wounded but had spent a very cold night in the mountains as he did not have a coat on. So once again all is peaceful in the mountains and no more outlaws roaming our hills.

"Zip" Franklin and son Jimmie from Lovington came up Friday night and ran into the road block at Angus. His car was stopped and flash lights thrown in his car, and there sat a young Mexican man that fit the description of the wanted man. The patrol started asking "Zip" questions fast and furious, as to where he had gotten the Mexican. "Zip" explained that he had brought the Mexican with him from Lovington to help put out his fruit trees. After all was explained "Zip" brought the much shaken man on down to his place on the Bonito.

Sunday morning "Zip's" mother, Mrs. John Graham from Lovington, came up for a short visit.

The Western Ranchers Oil Co. that is drilling Beecher No. 1 wildcat have changed over to a cable tool rig. The Miller Drilling Co. from Roswell has the cable tool rig and are doing the drilling on the Beecher Martin ranch north of Capitan. At this writing they are down 720 feet. Here's hoping for a gusher!

Mr. and Mrs. "Shortie" McCrory from Capitan have rented the Dudge LaMay ranch on the Mesa. We are proud to welcome so many new people to our area.

New Mexico wool growers produced 10,497,000 pounds of wool, grease basis, in 1958, according to the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. This is slightly smaller than the 10,666,000 pounds produced in 1957. Number of sheep shorn was up 2.5 per cent, but the pounds produced per head were less due to the lighter shrinking and cleaner fleeces shorn in 1958. Pounds per head averaged 9.0 pounds in 1957. Number of sheep shorn and pounds per head include feed-lot shearing as well as farm and ranch. Price-wise, New Mexico wools averaged .35 cents per pound in 1958, compared to .48 cents in 1957.

The young lion tamer was being interviewed on television.

"I understand your father also was a lion tamer," said the announcer.

"Yes indeed he was," said the young man.

"And do you actually put your head in the lion's mouth?" inquired the announcer.

"Only once," said the young man, "to look for Dad."

It was a middle-aged couple and the man's wife had been badgering him for months to take some "youth" pills she had been reading about. Finally he relented one night before he was going to bed and took several from a box she had bought for him. The next morning his wife kept shaking him to get up.

"Get up," she stormed, "it's time you were out of bed."

"All right, all right," he said, defiantly, squinting one eye open, "I'll get up. But I won't go to school."

She gushed: "I love goldfish. My bathtub is just full of them."

He inquired: "How do you take a bath?"

She blushed: "Oh, I just blindfold them."

"Yes, Ma'am," said the sailor, relating his experience to an old lady. "I was torpedoed in the Atlantic and lived for a week on a tin of sardines."

"Dear me," said the old lady, sympathetically. "How did you keep from falling off?"

Sunday is a Special Day

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Luke	19	28-44
Monday	John	18	1-14
Tuesday	John	18	15-27
Wednesday	John	18	28-40
Thursday	John	19	1-16
Friday	John	19	17-30
Saturday	John	19	31-42

Sunday is a special day for Sheila. She likes to go to church.

For one thing, the church is beautiful. Sheila likes to look at the soft light filtering through the colored glass windows. She likes the delicate scent of the beautiful flowers, and the majestic tones of the organ. She likes to sing, too, and she knows several hymns "all the way through," even without the hymnal to guide her.

She particularly likes this season because she knows that Palm Sunday is a time for special rejoicing in the Church.

Sheila feels the way she does because her parents have taught her that going to church is a privilege and a joy. Is Sunday just another day for your child, or is it—as it is for Sheila—a special day?

Catholic Bishops' Relief Fund Appeal

For American Catholic Bishops' relief fund appeal, his Holiness Pope John XXIII made his first address to the United States on Ash Wednesday directed to the school children and in which he asked the children to make Lenten sacrifices for the world's needy children.

The Pope is shown in a special photograph taken in the Vatican examining the 1959 Appeal poster, Its theme, "Your Charity . . . Their Hope!" Other photographs show various activities of the Bishops' overseas relief agency. Assistance programs providing clothing, surplus foods; medical supplies and other relief services are carried on in fifty-one countries.

His Holiness stated, "The message we bring to you is a message of love-God's love for all mankind, and especially for you, and your duty to love God in return and your neighbor for His sake." You can help the person-to-person relief programs with a contribution to the nearest Catholic church or the Bishops' Relief Fund, Empire State Building, New York 1, N. Y.

Red Cross Is Only Agency That Can Cope With Major Disasters

By LOCAL REPORTER

The International Red Cross today with its many thousands of members in almost every country in the world is the only agency with a large enough scope to carry on its activities in the event of the outbreak of hostilities. The International Red Cross headquarters are in Switzerland because of its traditional neutrality and the team of men who inspect the conditions of prisoner of war camps is made up of Swiss, because they can go into any nation.

The Red Cross spent millions of dollars during wartime to relieve as much human suffering as is possible. During a war, conditions are not ideal to say the least and there have been cases of misunderstanding connected with the Red Cross work, but any worker can explain this misunderstanding. You can become a Red Cross member for a contribution of a dollar or more but all contributions are welcome. Won't you join and serve?

Rotarians in their luncheon meet Tuesday this week heard a report from one team of membership drive workers here, stating $106 had been raised in one tour of part of the business section last week.

APPLE COUNCIL SCHEDULES MEETING IN ALBUQUERQUE

The newly organized New Mexico Apple Council will hold its first meeting in the Bernalillo County 4-H Club Building, Albuquerque, March 23, W. G. Shreccengost, Hondo, president, announced today. The meeting will convene at 1:00 p. m.

Council members will discuss plans for initiating the survey of the number of apple trees in the state. The inventory is expected to be made by different varieties.

About 150 apple growers in nine counties comprise the membership of the council. Shrecengost urged growers and others interested in the apple industry to attend the Duke City meeting.

Village Accepts CPS Offer On Vapor Lighting

The Village of Ruidoso in its last board of trustees meeting accepted a proposal by Community Public Service Co. to install mercury vapor lighting in the Palmer Gateway region, to include 13 poles and lights from Hollywood to the hospital, and five on the road leading into Ruidoso from U. S. Highway 70 on the south.

Meeting with the board was Bud Axline, project engineer for Ruidoso for the local sewer system, and Claudie Peterson, newly appointed village sanitation system supervisor, who outlined some of the procedures for local residents to tie on to the new sewer system. (Some of the questions and answers relative to this are given elsewhere in today's News.)

While at the meeting, Axline also suggested a representative from the new planning and zoning commission should attend the April 2 meeting of the state highway commission in Santa Fe, and at that time express a request for Ruidoso to receive some state assistance on street improvements here.

Appearing before the trustees was Carl Morrison, local Chevron station operator and owner of Ruidoso Auto Parts, who reported he planned a modern style service station on the lot now occupied by the station he has on Main Road in downtown Ruidoso.

The board has established a new policy of leases at the airport, to be $25 per year for the first year and $25 per year each year thereafter on a ten-year period. Leases will be for storage of aircraft only. Leases now in existence will continue at the old rate until expiration of same, it was decided.

FIRE DANGER IN WOODS REACHES HIGHEST POINT IN TWO YEARS SATURDAY

Instruments that indicate fire danger in our forests, as observed by the Ruidoso Ranger station personnel, reached the highest point in two years last Saturday during a wind and sand storm that buffeted the area. The instrument has a drouth index of 72, and the highest spread it had recorded in the last two years until last Saturday had been 20. Saturday it reached the rate of spread of 40, along with winds that averaged 25 miles an hour and reached gusts up to 40 mph, according to Ranger Sam Sinclair. Fire watchers are being posted now in some portions of Lincoln National Forest, and the word has been spread to all concerned to be very cautious with fires at this season.
