—By Nosey Waters—

A new business for Ruidoso is the Home Clinic, operated by Charles S. White who now owns Rock Ridge Cabins. He has a house full of tools of all kinds—being one of these "do it yourself" fellows, and claims he can fix that leaky water faucet, that loose door hinge, that little welding job; do painting, carpenter work of all kinds—you just name it. (Most wives will say 'I shoulda' married that guy!') . . . Be sure to register by Sat., Mar. 5 if you want to vote

White likes to work on heirlooms and antiques, having done some of that on old Chinese pieces, early European table settings and other such items. . . .

Carl Ross says he thanks these folks kind enough to drive by his bread truck slowly so they won't splash mud on him and his bread when he is servicing grocery stores and other customers, haw! . . . To register to vote, you must have lived in the state of New Mexico a year, in Lincoln County six months and in the village of Ruidoso three months. . . . We hear W. P. Ben Sanchez, down at San Patricio, who has been interested in our youngsters all his life, and who with his good wife has raised a mighty wonderful family of kids, has been talking over an idea he has with some of the peace officers and school leaders of the county. He says that he believes a curfew on dances for teen-agers should be rung at midnight—that none should be allowed out later than that at dances. "About midnight they get hungry, get tired, get touchy and quite often some of them get in fights." He cited the example of a knife-fight down at Hondo over the week-end in which some young people were hurt. "I believe if they were sent home no later than midnight, they might not end up in gang fights as we often hear about," he declares. . . .

Paul Brown, newcomer to Ruidoso, who recently acquired a home here, is now associated with Whitlock's Jewelry as a watch repairman. Retired, he will serve in this capacity as needed. W. G. (GLEN) BRADLEY

Glen Bradley Files For Sheriff

After filing for the office of sheriff of Lincoln County, which position he has held for two terms prior to going to the state legislature, W. G. (Glen) Bradley, a Republican, issued this statement this week in regard to his candidacy:

"I moved to New Mexico in 1915 with my parents, and I have lived in Lincoln County for 23 years. I am married and have three sons; W. G. Bradley, Jr., who is head of the Biological Department at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas; Douglas Bradley, who is a junior at Hondo and Quill Bradley, who is in the third grade at Hondo.

"I am a member of the New Mexico Sheriff and Police Association and have served as first vice-president; a member of Troop 5 of the New Mexico Mounted Patrol, also a member of Carrizozo Lodge 41 A. F. and A. M.

"At the present I hold the position of State Representative of Lincoln County. I served as sheriff of this county for 4 years, 1953 through 1956, and was elected to the House of Representatives while serving my last year as sheriff. I was re-elected in 1958. During the 24th Legislature of 1959, I was Minority Floor Leader and a member of Rules and Order of Business, Taxation and Revenue committee and Transportation committee.

"I feel like I am qualified to hold the office of sheriff with my experience as sheriff and as a law maker in the Legislature. I promise the people of Lincoln County if I am elected sheriff, I will give everyone a square deal."

DAN D. SWEARINGIN

Dan D. Swearingin Files Candidacy For State Senate

Filing at the county seat this week for the office of State Senator from Lincoln County, subject to the Democratic primary in May, was Dan D. Swearingin of Ruidoso, prominent realtor, insurance agent and trained property appraiser.

Swearingin is a native New Mexican, having been born in Roswell. He attended schools there, including New Mexico Military Institute. He became interested in Ruidoso and its business life in 1939 when he operated Dan D. Cabins, and moved here to become a permanent resident in 1945, shortly after his discharge from the Army. In World War II he served with the 104th Infantry in the European Theatre of Operations, and experienced 10¼ months of combat.

He was elected to the village council in 1946, and served as Ruidoso's mayor from 1954 to 1956. His primary concern in serving in city office here was securing of additional water sources for Ruidoso. He is still engaged in that pursuit, having served for more than five years on the Eagle Creek Inter-Community Water Supply Association filling the offices of president, vice-president and board member during that time. At present he is chairman of the new Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission which is studying Ruidoso's needs for a growing future.

Civic organizations with which he has been connected include the Rotary Club here, of which he served as president; member of the Ruidoso Board of Realtors, of which he has served as vice-president; and a member of the New Mexico Board of Realtors, serving on the board of directors. He has also held office in the New Mexico Municipal League, and once was a delegate to the Conference on State Government, held at the University of New Mexico. He is a student of New Mexico history and government, which qualifies him for the office of state senator, he feels.

He married the former Corinne Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Kennedy of this city. Mrs. Swearingin once was a teacher in the Capitan school system. They are the parents of a son who is attending Ruidoso elementary school. In his church here, Community Methodist, he is charge lay leader, and has served in other capacities in the church during his residence in Ruidoso.

Saturday, Mar. 5 is final date to register to vote in municipal election.

TRUSTEES CALL ROAD BOND ELECTION

Ruidoso's Village Board of Trustees passed an ordinance in its last regular meeting calling for an election on April 5, coinciding with the biennial municipal election, in which property owners of the community will be asked to vote on issuance of $100,000.00 in general obligation bonds. The bonds, to bear no more than 6% interest, will aid in financing improvement of Main Road, which is to receive some state aid in the overall widening, installation of curbing, gutter and sidewalk. The city employed Jack Kennedy, local engineer, to proceed recently with surveying the street here to determine rights-of-way needed, cuts and fills necessary, and approximate cost, to inform the State Highway Department. The department is to aid in the road's construction up to one third of the cost for the section where two-lane traffic and angle parking will be planned, and half the cost of the road where four-lane traffic and parallel parking is planned.

(When discussion began here for need for a bond issue for road improvement, the trustees said an issue of $130,000.00 would likely be called for. State statutes limit the amount to $100,000.00 for towns under 15,000 population, however. Mayor Pro-Tem Tom Hood this week said, "We feel the $100,000.00 issue will be sufficient for our needs."

The ordinance calling for the bond election appears elsewhere in today's News.

WINTER'S ICY GRIP WEAKENING?

Winter's icy grip seemed to be moderating this mid-week in Ruidoso even though there were some snow flurries and below freezing temperatures. This is the tenth week of wintry weather here with only a very few sunny days thrown in between snow storms, cold waves, freezing conditions and general discomfort. Construction work and all lines of the building trade have suffered considerable losses in missing days at work. Real estate business has also been affected with inclement weather in all parts of the Southwest preventing visitors to the area from shopping for lots and homes. Business establishments which serve the tourist trade, such as cafes, motels, service stations, etc., also report that with fewer tourists in the area because of the weather, their trade has suffered a considerable lag.

Sunshine for two days now, and somewhat warmer temperature may mean we're in for some milder weather (maybe.)

Rites Are Held For H. C. Brown

Friends paid a final tribute here early this week to Horace E. Brown, 60, longtime Ruidoso cafe operator, who died Saturday morning in Albuquerque. He had been in ill health for several months. In Albuquerque at the time of Brown's death in the Veterans Administration hospital were his wife, Flora, and their son.

Ruidoso lost one of its main spark plugs with the passing of "Okie" Brown, noted for his sharp wit and ready answer to anyone's wisecrack.

He was born in Wynnewood, Okla., April 27, 1899, and on July 31, 1923, he and Flora were married. They operated cafes in Pawhuska and in Norman, coming here from Oklahoma City in February of 1946 to open a cafe here, now known as Wattie's Chat 'n' Chew and which they sold about three years ago.

Brown was a veteran of both World Wars, serving as a doughboy in the infantry in War I and in the Air Corp. as a ground crewman in War II. He was a member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans. His other affiliations included membership in Siloam Lodge No. 276, A. F. & A. M., Oklahoma City, and Consistory Indian Temple, Norman.

The Rev. Frank E. Taylor conducted last rites in First Christian Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. Masonic graveside services were conducted at Forest Lawn cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, Flora, two daughters, Mrs. Cecil Barton, Oklahoma City, Mrs. Ruby Mattox, El Monte, Calif., a son, Charles, Oklahoma City, and five grandchildren and one great grandchild. A brother, Allen A. Brown, Leavenworth, Kans., also survives. One of the grandsons, Mike of Oklahoma City, was here for the services. Two cousins, Mrs. Floy Barfoot, Lamesa, Tex., and Jerry Langston, Big Spring, were prevented by a severe snow and ice storm, from being here for the funeral.

WORDS BUY KING HOME

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Word, formerly of Ruidoso, and who have recently returned from California, have purchased the three bedroom home located in the Pine Lodge addition from Mr. and Mrs. Wade King. The Words will be moving to their new home within the next few days. Luther Bynum, local realtor, reported the transaction.

ON PROGRESSIVE TICKET—Drafted for a Progressive Ticket for three offices in Ruidoso were these three local businessmen, from left, Robert Pearson, realtor, for mayor, Lloyd Leslie Davis, Jr., realtor and insurance man, and Warren Tucker, operator of Ruidoso Food Mart, Self Service Grocery and the Ben Franklin Store here, both for village trustees for four year terms.

KENNETH NOSKER

Kenneth Nosker Seeks Nomination For Commissioner

Kenneth Nosker of Glencoe this week formally announced that he will be a candidate on the Republican ticket for Lincoln County Commissioner, District No. 3.

Engaged in farming and ranching, Nosker has been a resident of the county since 1924. He was graduated in 1944 as a second lieutenant in the Air Force, serving as a pilot until December 1947.

He is married to the former Miss Irene Bennell. The couple live on their ranch home. They have two children, Dennis 10 and Renee Susan 8.

Nosker helped organize the Lincoln County Farm Bureau in 1952 and served as its first president.

"Lincoln County is growing and has a bright future," he says. "We need to be looking ahead toward future development and try and guide our county's affairs to take advantage of every opportunity. This applies to both road development and encouraging private enterprise."

O'Day said there would be a slight change only in station personnel and in programming coming up in the next few weeks.

Reporter, Jim Carpenter

We had a real good time at the Leap Year Dance Saturday. There were about 32 kids there.

We had our six weeks tests last week. We have been studying about sewage disposal in our health books the past six weeks. We also studied about water supply and the proper location of a well and the importance of fluorine in the water to protect teeth from decay. Mr. Park's and Mr. Williams' rooms visited the city's new sewage disposal plant last week.

These people went out of town last week-end: Jackie and Janet Crockett went to Abilene, Tex.; Doris Winchester and Lou Smith went to Alamogordo; Doug Connelly went to Tularosa.

The following made 100 in spelling for the last 6-weeks period: Tim Donnelly, Michael Locke, Ellen Gardenhire, Cynthia Hickam, Paula Williams, Jane Cochran, Wesley Holt and Sharon Alvis.

When we start learning about our 50th state, Hawaii, Cynthia will bring us some pictures and books to show us more about it. Jackie and Janet moved Sunday. Diane Mastin was an aunt for the third time Sunday, Feb. 28. It was a girl.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Vic:

I am interested in hearing from all persons who might be interested in living in a home where they might have some pleasant home life, palatable food and some personal care if needed.

There might also be retired persons who can not live comfortably on their retirement pay, but by living in a home with some others similarly situated, might have more pleasant living conditions.

I can be reached at CL 7-5313 or P. O. Box 1061, Ruidoso.

Ethel H. Smith.

(Editor's Note: In discussing the prospects of such a project in Ruidoso with the editor, the writer said also that there is the possibility there might be an elderly person here who owns a home of some size in which a home for others might be operated, in exchange for care. Even a small income in rental could be arranged, it was suggested. VL.)

College Day Program In Ruidoso Makes A Hit With Visiting Students

Typical of the many complimentary remarks made about the recent College Day program, held in Ruidoso for seniors of the five high schools in Lincoln County, were letters from Ann Nanninga, dean of women, and Ray A. Farmer, dean of students, both of New Mexico Highlands University, Las Vegas, who were among the several faculty members of more than a dozen colleges and universities of this area attending the event. The letters came to Truett Shults, guidance counsellor in the high school here, and to Principal Dwight Watkins.

Shults said many verbal compliments were made by not only faculty members but by students of neighboring schools as well. He added that the food served in the school cafeteria to the visitors, the new facilities of the gym, the band's performance and the band room and science lab, the welcome and co-operativeness of the Ruidoso students and the local faculty were all highly praised.

Seniors of Ruidoso were hosts, with Ella Ruth Jackson, Judy Beall and Mike Shults handling the registration.

Purpose of the conference here, which is held at some high school in the county annually, was to let seniors discuss with the various representatives of schools of higher education the advantages of those institutions in the various sciences and arts.

Seventy-eight students registered for the College Day here, and they were accompanied by half a dozen faculty members from their own high schools. Concensus of opinion, Shults said, was that the visiting seniors from the county's four other high schools, would like to see succeeding seniors come here for future such conferences.

Students from Corona were: Wayne Lindsey, Sammy Stoneman, Rusty Wade, Inita Carnell, Patricia Thomas, Marjorie Wade, Sharon Dayton, Betty Flores, Sharon Chaldon, Mildred McCloud, Monnette Baisey, Judy Ray, Blanche Reeves, Leon Tally, Wilfred Lackey, Sunny Lucero and Daniel Lackey.

Students from Carrizozo were: Jean Galt, Louisa Juan, Robert Ortiz, Manuel Ortiz, Bill Harman, Robert Richerson, Dexter Seay, Fred Vega, Benny Herrera, Luciano Gallegos.

Students from Capitan were: Ellen Taylor, Betty Bernice Walker, Barbara E. McGrew, Carol Allyn Bonnell, Christina Josephine Kossage, Juanita Griego, Benny Trujillo, Cecilia Griego, Savella Jay, Arcenia Trujillo, Joe Lee Smith, Jim Kerr, Clara Lujan, Kenneth Huey, Sonny Gavi, Fernando Montoya, Rudy Zamora, C. R. Montoya, J. E. Tillman and Bob Sprosg.

From Hondo were: Bud McCrady, Douglas McKnight, Annie Nunez, Evangeline Montes, Effie Marie Chavez, John Blea and David Chavez.

From Ruidoso were: Judy Beavers, Paula Donnelly, Jerry Fuchs, Amos Hale, Wilson Howard, Ella Ruth Jackson, Jeralynne Massey, Shelby Miller, Brian Nocker, Kletis Perry, Lorena Sanchez, Mike Shults, Eleanor Spears, Gerald Tully, Beverly Watkins, Carol Wilson, Judy Beall, Carol Harrsch, Dixie Looten, Eleanor McDaniel, Raynell Smith and Phil White.

Can Your Ads Pass These 3 Acid Tests?

Before you decide you've finished with the writing of your next advertisement—ask yourself whether it lives up to these three tests of good ads:

1) Does it really inform the reader about something that can help him (or her) live better, work better, or enjoy life more? 2) Does it talk about something the reader wants—instead of just talking about you and your company? 3) Does it say anything that your competitor couldn't also say?

Unless you answered "yes" three times—you'll be money ahead by putting in some more work on that ad!

New Jewelry, Gift Store To Open Here

Announcement was made here this week of the opening early this spring of a new jewelry and gift store in Ruidoso, to be located in the Clarke building next door to Clarke Insurance Agency. The new business will be operated by Don Tripp of El Paso, brother of Mrs. Fred Gresswell of Ruidoso, and who once had a business here. He has been interested in Ruidoso for several years.

He will open the store to feature fine lines of watches, diamonds and costume jewelry, and will also do watch and jewelry repair. He comes from a family that has been in the jewelry business for several generations. Tripp himself has been a jeweler for 20 years, and is currently engaged in closing out a similar business in El Paso to come here. He has serviced watches and jewelry items for several Ruidosoans, through a pick-up station at the Old Mill.

Tripp's family will be moving here as soon as school has ended in El Paso. A daughter, Karen is to graduate from a high school there this spring. A son, Donnie, will enter the local schools this fall.

Besides watch repairing, Tripp is a skilled silversmith and goldsmith and can size rings, or make repairs on anything in the jewelry line.

Las Cruces Attorney Announces For District Judge

LaFel Oman, prominent attorney from Dona Ana County, will be a candidate for election to Division II of the Third Judicial District, consisting of Dona Ana, Lincoln and Otero Counties in opposition to Allan Walker in the Democratic primary, it was announced by fellow attorneys and friends, immediately undertaking the formation of a Committee for the Improvement of Judicial Administration.

This Committee considers Mr. Oman eminently qualified for the post, not only from the standpoint of his experience and varied trial practice but also from the viewpoint of his own unimpeachable personal qualities and attributes of judicial temperament. It is the position of this Committee that the election of Mr. Oman will represent a definite improvement to the judiciary and that the public should conduct a careful and close examination of the personal records, background and characteristics of the candidates involved for this important post so that the voter may independently determine for himself.

Oman, who is presently in private practice in Las Cruces, has established an enviable reputation as one of the most industrious, painstaking and thorough trial and appellate attorneys in the profession. Presently he is in practice with Garnett Burks, Jr. Previously and since December, 1949, he had been associated with W. C. Whatley, one of the outstanding trial lawyers of the southwest and has handled every known type of litigation.

He received his legal education at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City, from which he graduated with an L. L. B. degree in 1936. Admitted to the bar in Utah in 1937, he practiced there until 1940 and still has his license in that state in good standing. When war broke out he volunteered for naval service at the University of New Mexico in April, 1943 and was immediately accepted.

Sent to the Naval Officers School at the University of Arizona, he was commissioned an Ensign and served in the Pacific area as gunnery and communications officer on cargo ships. In January, 1946, he was separated from the naval service with the rank of Lieutenant.

He worked in Washington, D. C., and Denver, Colorado, as an investigator and oral examiner for the U. S. Civil Service Commission from April 1941 to 1943, including a period of service in 1942 in Albuquerque, making loyalty and other personnel investigations; after the service he returned to Denver and then moved in April 1946 to Albuquerque, where he served in the office of Chief Attorney of the Veterans Administration.

Admitted to the New Mexico bar in April, 1947, he decided upon private practice, locating in Las Cruces, "which he considered a logical place"; and he and his family then moved there during the summer of 1948, where he has engaged in private practice, as well as in previous association with W. C. Whatley.

He is married to Arlie Giles Oman, who grew up in Salt Lake City and graduated from the University of Utah. They have four children, Sharon, Phyllis, Conrad and Kester.

Sharon and Phyllis graduated from Las Cruces High School and Sharon resides with her husband, Ossie Beck, and her family in Los Angeles. Phyllis graduated from Brigham Young University last spring and is a registered nurse in Mesa, Arizona. Conrad is attending Las Cruces High and Kester is in the 7th grade at Mesilla Park.

In addition to being active in private practice, Mr. Oman has always been active in civic affairs. He is a member of the Rotary Club and a past president of that organization and has been an active worker in the Crippled Children's program in the county.

Supporters of Mr. Oman pointed out they recognize some contentions may be made by the opposition as to geographical consideration and in this connection they invite the public to consider whether or not any savings have actually been effected and particularly of the paramount and over-riding consideration as to the respective record of the individuals involved in the race with respect to the qualities most in keeping with judicial administration.

"A worthy District Judge must be devoted to the principle of equal justice under the law," Mr. Oman was quoted by supporters, adding, "He must have no deep group prejudices, must not be given to personal animosities, and must be capable of putting aside personal likes and dislikes. He must be generally well founded in the law, but must appreciate the greatness of the law, its demands, and the necessity for constant study and the application of his time and capacities to its understanding. He must display and apply understanding, courage, industry and humility in the discharge of his judicial duties."

Case Nears Court On Theft Of Trees In Capitan Area

The federal law enforcement net was closing this week on persons charged with the theft of more than 700 Christmas trees from the Lincoln National Forest during the pre-Christmas 1959 season.

A complaint was filed last week-end before U. S. Commissioner Mrs. Tom Charles and a warrant was issued for a man identified as Duane Graham, 36, whose last known address was Houston, Tex., who has been charged with the theft of government property consisting of 735 Christmas trees.

The complaint alleges the trees were cut from the Pippin Canyon area of the Capitan District of the national forest on or about Nov. 30, 1959. The trees then were trucked to Houston and subsequently sold, the government charges.

Local law enforcement authorities said Graham's arrest was expected soon. He probably will be arraigned in Houston before a U. S. court on the charges, a spokesman said.

The warrant issued climaxes a long investigation of alleged illegal cutting of trees in the national forest.

FIRE TRUCK, PICK-UP COLLIDE AT FIRE SCENE

No one was injured when the Ruidoso Volunteer Fire Department truck and a late model Jeep cab-over pick-up, owned and driven by Bob Moore, crashed together at the scene of a fire at the Clovis Crawford residence about noon last Thursday. Both vehicles suffered serious damage. An improperly working gas heater was cause of the alarm. Its threat of fire was under control before any damage was done at the Crawford home.

McKinney To Build New Station In Gateway

Announcement was made here last week-end that Fina gasoline is coming to Ruidoso. Barney McKinney of McKinney Oil Co. has secured dealership for American Petrofina Co. of Texas, manufacturers of Fina gasoline and other fine petroleum products, and his service station on Main Road and Mechem Drive is to be re-painted and equipment converted to handle the new line.

He also reported construction will start within a few days on a new service station, also to feature Fina products, in Palmer Gateway in the "Y" between Main Road and the new paved street that leads out of here towards El Paso, and opposite the new bowling alley. He said it should be completed in time for use late this spring.

McKinney's Fina distributorship will include Las Cruces, Alamogordo, Ruidoso, Lordsburg and Deming. Transport trucks now are serving stations in these cities, but a bulk station may be erected in this area sometime later for better service, he added. At present the Fina products are trucked here from Artesia.

By DIXIE SPARKS

Hi! I was off last week but we, Granny and I, spent the week-end in Carlsbad with my brother, Billy and family. The whole country side was sorry to hear of the loss of one of Capitan's most beloved ladies. But as I have heard so many of her friends (me too) say she had suffered enough, more than enough, for one person; so we all are glad you are at last at peace. Rest well, Mary Werner, in your resting place for cons and cons; for you have certainly earned your rest. The Peace of God be with the loved ones you have left behind.

The weather man missed this week-end for Capitan and vicinity were due for more snow but at this writing (Sunday) it has almost been like a spring day. However, tomorrow (Monday) may bring some more snow Quien Sabe?

Chamber of Commerce of Capitan had its regular meeting last Monday night. George Crawford was elected to take the chair of president vacated by the late Joseph E. Hunter. Virgil Wallace was elected as a member of the board of directors. Margaret Rench, of course, will remain as secretary and treasurer. Main issue confronting the chamber was the bond for the Village sewage, however, this issue was not discussed at this meeting.

Jack Aldrich has returned home from the Ruidoso hospital where he has been recuperating from a heart attack. At this writing Jack is still too weak to be allowed out and is still a bed patient.

Most of Capitan and vicinity have been home ill of the flu and mumps. The flu and mumps have taken their toll of the adults here and quite a few of them have been abed for a couple of weeks or more. So to all, flu or mumps, speedy recovery and take care.

The Capitan Woman's Club had its annual membership party last Monday night at the school cafeteria. Members with their husbands, and guests were present for an evening of games including canasta, "42" bridge and hearts. Refreshments of hot spiced apple cider and cookies were served those attending.

The Capitan Chamber of Commerce starts its fiscal membership drive next month. Come on in folks and get your feet wet, let's ALL join the Chamber and help Capitan GROW.

Dr. H. C. Jernigan returned last Monday from a week's workshop in New York City on tuberculosis. Mrs. Jernigan spent the week in Roswell with their son Jack, who is attending school there.

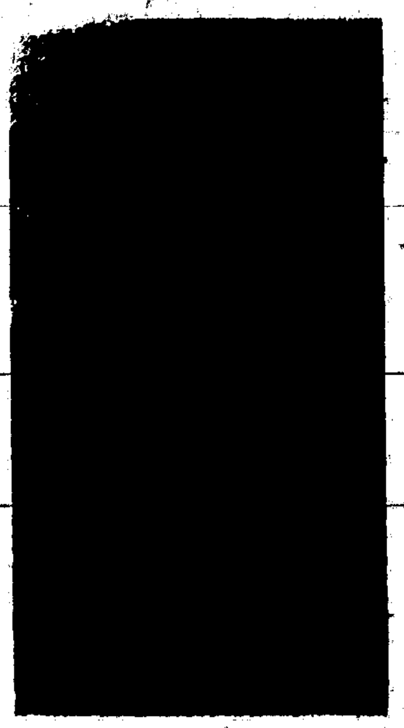
Fort Stanton was host to the meeting of the State Tuberculosis Hospitals' Board Feb. 26. Dr. McQuigg of Albuquerque presided as chairman at the meeting. Fort Stanton was represented by Col. L. W. Varner. Mrs. Varner entertained the ladies present, wives of the attending board members.

Spiro, medical clerk at Fort Stanton, has been in St. Mary's Hospital for the past week. Spiro has been seriously ill of the flu.

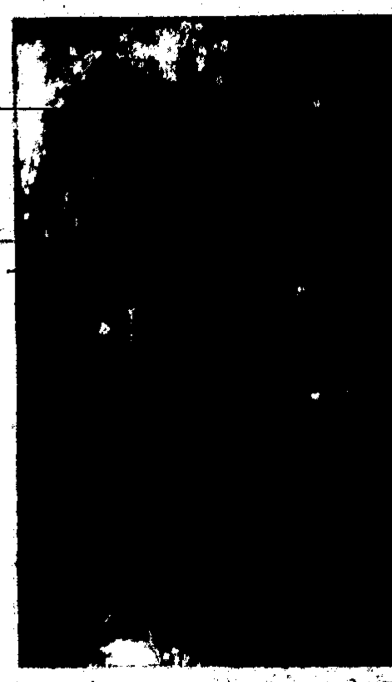
Have you heard George C. in the early hours of the morning over station KYAP? If you haven't you should—not only does he sing once in a while but he gives out with some good (Texan?) recipes for preparing food. He plays good records, if you like western music (and who doesn't?). George hails from Capitan and ARE we glad and proud of him. After listening to some others (like canned applause) George is good, tune in on him sometime. You will enjoy him—betcha.

Items are short this week folks, and I have generalized too, hope to have more next week. Before I sign off, may I leave you with this thought? "Thoughts are secretive things 'til voiced then they have the power of Almighty behind them." Many an innocent person has been hurt beyond redemption because of some careless person's idle "dattling on." It would behoove all of us to practice the adage—stop and think and then speak. It may be YOUR OWN doorstep some one will try to clean off next week.

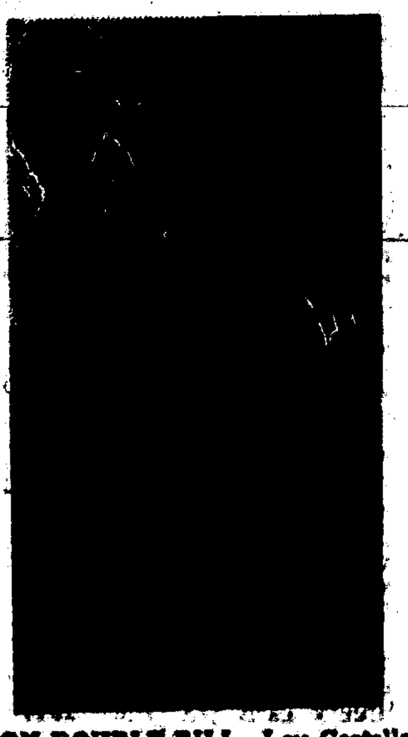
See you next week, God willing, Dixie.



ON TWIN BILL—The Three Stooges portray maintenance men in the rocket laboratory headed by Jerome Cowan, right, in their first full-length film, Columbia Pictures' "Have Rocket, Will Travel." The Stooges will be seen with another show, "The 30-Ft. Bride of Candy Rock," on a double bill Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Mt. Vue Sho-Dyn & Indorama on Mechem Drive.



AT PUEBLO—Starring in "Beloved Infidel," showing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Pueblo in downtown Ruidoso, is Deborah Kerr, above, with Gregory Peck.



ON DOUBLE BILL—Lou Costello and Max, the Wonder Machine, create one of the funniest films in rear-fare, Columbia Pictures' "The 30 Foot Bride of Candy Rock," filmed in Amazescope. On the same show at the Mt. Vue Sho-Dyn & Indorama on Mechem Drive will be "Have Rocket, Will Travel" Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The U. S. Navy Recruiting Station in Roswell announces that a recruiting representative will visit Ruidoso March 11 at 1:30 a. m. until 2:30 p. m. at the City Hall. All interested persons will be able to obtain information for enlistment during this period.

Ruidoso News, Ruidoso, N. M.
Dear Mr. Vic Lamb:

I want to thank you for sending me, without a hitch, the Ruidoso News all winter. Eleanor, my daughter, has enjoyed it a lot with me. We made up our minds we had missed a pretty severe winter. But dear old Ruidoso will always be "Dear old Ruidoso." It's the only one of its kind, and one of the best. I think its personality and friendliness stands out and beyond.

I expect to be back on the seventh of March and so switch my copy to me there at that time, please.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Olita Calvert

"Daddy," sobbed Jessica as she ran crying into her father's arms, "Mommy just drowned one of my kittens."

"Oh, that's too bad," said her father consolingly, "but maybe she had to do it."

"No, she didn't," she sobbed, "she promised me I could."

Two women who had not seen each other for a long time, met on the street one day.

"Why, Mary," said one of them, "I see you got your new fur coat after all. I thought you said your husband couldn't afford it this year."

"So I did," replied the other, "but we had a stroke of luck. My husband fell and broke his leg, and the insurance company paid him $400."

A hitch hiker was picked up by a car driven by an obviously wealthy Texan. Seeing a pair of horn-rimmed glasses on the seat between them, the hitch hiker remarked, "Shouldn't you be wearing your glasses while driving, sir?"

"Don't give it no mind, son," replied the Texan. "It's no trouble drivin' this way. The windshield is ground to my prescription."

Shopping at a supermarket, I was standing near a mother and her young son when he picked up a box of something from a shelf and brought it over to her.

"Oh, no, honey," she exclaimed. "Put it back. You have to cook that."

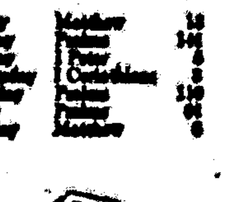
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Matthew	18	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]



A child's faith is beautiful in its simplicity and in the little things it encompasses. Like, for instance, the nightly ritual that comes at the end of prayer. "God bless Mommy and Daddy and Cousin Peter and Kitty Kat and my blue teddy bear."

To a child, there is no reason why God should not bless also a crumpled and slightly soiled teddy bear, and a pet kitty. For God is goodness and love and kindness and tolerance . . . not perhaps in those words, but in the feeling this child has as she says her prayers.

Prayer, to the child who has been taught to pray, is a natural thing. It should be as much a part of everyday life as eating and sleeping and playing. To pray for what is good . . . to give thanks for what one has is an all-important step in that all-important right direction on the road of life.

Dan Sosa To Run For Re-Election As District Attorney

Dan Sosa, Jr., announced his candidacy for re-election as District Attorney for the Third Judicial District, in a statement issued today. Sosa, who was born and reared in Dona Ana County, New Mexico, is presently serving his first term as District Attorney for the counties of Dona Ana, Lincoln and Otero.

In his statement, Sosa pointed out that law enforcement has become big business in the Third District. "The year before I took office," Sosa said, "there were 319 criminal cases and 163 juvenile cases handled in the District. Last year we handled 547 criminal and 657 juvenile cases. The increase in juvenile cases alone exceeds the total of all cases handled in 1956. In order to cope with the increased case load," Sosa said, "I have greatly expanded the facilities of the District Attorney's office during the past three years. When I took office there was only one assistant and one secretary for the entire district. Today, the District Attorney's office is comprised of the District Attorney, a full time assistant in Dona Ana County, Mr. Glenn B. Neumeyer, a full time assistant in Otero County, Mr. Lalo Garza, and in Lincoln County, Mr. John W. Thompson. In addition we have two full time secretaries, Mrs. Dama Wimberly in Dona Ana County and Mrs. Tessie Hansen in Otero County."

Besides handling criminal and juvenile cases the District Attorney's office handles dependent and neglected children cases, alcoholic cases and insanity cases, and is entrusted with representing the county officials of three counties in their official capacity and all State agencies within the jurisdiction. Other business of the District Attorney's office includes conducting preliminary hearings in felony cases, mental health commitments, uniform reciprocal support law suits, he acts in an advisory capacity to the County Commissioners and Department of Public Welfare cases, including paternity suits, guardianship of indigent persons, condemnation suits for the County, civil suits for the County and Grand Jury duties.

"This is the only district in the State," Sosa pointed out, "that has two race tracks. I believe that the problems that this situation creates demand a full time special investigator to help coordinate law enforcement in the district. I plan to ask the Legislature for special appropriation necessary to get a competent and qualified man for the job. This district has seen a tremendous growth in population and the District Attorney's office must keep pace with this growth if the public is to be fully protected."

The Third Judicial District is the second largest district in the area and the third largest district in population in the State of New Mexico.

Scoggins Explains Why Ruidoso Downs Gave Aid To Court

The often touchy subject of financing the operations of district courts was the main subject of discussion last week by judges, Supreme Court justices and legislators.

The state's Judicial Council, composed of all district judges and supreme court justices, held a joint session in Santa Fe with the Legislative Judicial-Study Committee headed by Senator Fabian Chavez.

An earlier meeting of the council produced a warm exchange in which Las Cruces District Judge William T. Scoggin defended the acceptance of race track contributions for probation purposes in his district.

Santa Fe District Judge James M. Scarborough flatly called the practice illegal in every respect.

Also under heavy discussion was the practice of assessing court costs against a defendant while placing him on probation. Court costs go into the court fund. If a defendant is fined, the money goes to the school fund.

The five Supreme Court justices and more than half of the state's 20 district judges joined the Legislative committee members for the conference in the chambers of the House of Representatives.

Scoggin explained his practice of employing contributions from race tracks and school districts for probation purposes.

The Las Cruces judge said the idea originated when the Ruidoso race track asked that a probation officer be assigned to the track to keep youths from betting. After some discussion it was agreed the track would pay half the probation man's salary and the idea proved so successful, Scoggins said, that some of the school districts asked if they could help pay the officer's salary if he was kept at the track daily.

NOTICE

Because of the lack of participation and cooperation on the part of the parents and boys in the local Boy Scout Troop, I shall discontinue the troop and will not renew the charter at the end of this month. I do not feel the council will renew a charter for five or six boys as a troop.
