Bonito Road Work is Discussed By County Commissioners in Joint Session with Alamogordo Officials

Lincoln County Commisioners met last week with Alamogordo City Council to discuss improving the road from State Road 37 to Bonito Lake.

City Water Dept. Supt. Bob Pender and Harvey Talley, Bonito caretaker, were to meet again at the scene to go over the proposed removal of several trees and blasting of points alng the road so that it can be widened.

Charles Jones, Lincoln commissioner spokesman, said the local county government would like to spend $10,000 on the road and hoped that Alamogordo and the U. S. Forest Service could each provide matching funds.

But, he pointed out, any amount of assistance would be appreciated.

Mayor Wayne Phelps suggested that Lincoln commisioners and Alamogordo officials meet at the site of the Bonito-State 37 junction on Wednesday, April 24 to go over the road and discuss the project.

Lincoln commissioners pointed out the city pipeline would not be damaged and in some areas would be covered where it is exposed.

The proposed construction work is primarily on Alamogordo city property, council learned.

Lincoln Commissioners proposed removal of about 40 trees, widening of the road and creating of about 20 foot width at points where passing of two vehicles is early impossible. No paving is to be involved.

Accompanying the visitors was the Lincoln county road commisioner who expressed a desire to get the work rolling before tourist and fishing traffic becomes heavy about mid-May.

City Mgr. Stan Kennedy was to contact the Forest Service so that a representative of the FS may attend the on-site inspection.

Jones said the Forest Service was planning a road costing $170,000 which did not follow the existing road in the area of the proposed work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan D. Swearingin returned early this week from Lubbock, where Swearingin underwent ear surgery. He is reported improving.

Fire Danger In Forests Increasing

Fire weather measurements and conditions indicate a bad fire season is in the making. Winter moisture, especially the snowpack was far below normal and the month of March was the second driest in 18 years. Drying winds with above average velocities have prevailed for the past 40 days. "All of these factors serves us with advance warning the extent of our Fire Prevention job," J. H. McEuen, forest service employee here, said.

All forest users, residents, permittees and visitors are urged to begin exercising extreme precautions with all burning operations. All residents of the city of Ruidoso are urged to inquire at the city hall before doing any outside burning, be stressed.

"There have been two man-caused fires already this spring. One was caused by a resident who dumped a paper bag of hot ashes out along the Hale Lake road—this is a classic example of extreme carelessness. The other fire is believed to have started by a spark from the exhaust of a road maintainer," McEuen recounted.

The large Fire Danger Meter located near the Ruidoso Ranger Station will be carefully maintained based on accumulative weather data taken daily throughout the year. It does not indicate sudden changes in burning conditions (Forest Fire Rates of Spread) caused by intermittent high winds however, it should be helpful and will give an index reading of the overall drought conditions, he said.

The M. and D. Building Company, of Ruidoso, is a joint venture of G. D. McCarty, Jr., Lloyd Davis, Sr., and Lloyd Davis, Jr. The company is at present constructing four houses in the Country Club Estates under the supervision of Chuck Barron, general contractor, for the company. Lloyd Davis, Jr., said that the four houses under construction consist of one four bedroom, three bathroom home; one four bedroom, two bathroom home; and two, three bedroom, two bathroom homes.

Davis, Jr., said the company plans to build in Country Club Estates, Pinecliff residential area and Ponderosa Heights. Present plans call for attempting to stay four houses ahead at all times, Davis said. And he added, every attempt will be made to market these homes within the same price range found in Roswell and towns in this area.

Lincoln County Commissioner R. C. Nunez, visiting in the News office Monday, said he wanted residents of Lincoln County to write letters, or to talk with the members of the county board, about the relocation of a portion of U. S. Highway 70 east of Ruidoso Downs which is on the state highway department's calendar for improvement in the next few months. Surveying is already underway on one proposed route, which will likely follow the present U. S. 70, he said.

Nunez said he had received word from Chairman Charlie Jones that he was interested in a new proposal for the rerouting of the transcontinental highway through this area, and would like to know, as would Nunez, what the people think. Nunez added that the third member of the county board, Kenneth Necker, would likely, also welcome the people's views.

Nunez told the News he had had some residents of the area affected suggest that before the highway department's plan to rebuild the old road along the same lines as now exists, that some study be given a proposal to relocate it.

"Two residents of the valley have told me they would like to see the new highway built on top, or higher up the hillside on the north side of the present highway. They pointed out that the old road, our present U. S. Highway 70 from Biscuit Hill east, could be retained as a service road as is done in many other states," he said. Both highways could be connected with access roads at several points for safer entrance and exit than now exists on the old route.

"These people who favor this idea point out that it would relieve the new route which connects two important defense areas of the Southwest and which bears a heavy load of tourist traffic and transcontinental truck commerce, from all the local traffic of valley residents, of mail cars and school buses, and could serve the valley residents for many years with very little maintenance," Nunez said he had been told.

Among other reasons for relocating the improvements of U. S. 70 Nunez said had been told him was that it would prevent very little loss of productive land in the valley where many small and large ranches operate and where orchards and some crops are grown.

(Editor's Note: A fuller discussion of this proposal is carried in a paid advertisement published elsewhere in today's News and sponsored by Jim Tully, a longtime resident of the Ruidoso Valley.)

Other survivors include another daughter, Mrs. Norvin M. Smith of Luther, Tex., three sons, Clem Smoot of Snyder, Ivy Smoot of Hermleigh, and Hal Smoot of Merced, Calif. Seven grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren and 18 great-great grandchildren also survive.

He said a branch of the sign company, which sells and services neon, plastic, commercial outdoor and other types of signs, is being opened in Ruidoso, "so that we can better serve our customers here in this field."

Jeffco has been operating in Roswell about a dozen years, Wimberly said. He said a glass blower and equipment will be available in Ruidoso for making neon tubing for letters, and that other equipment being brought here includes service trucks and a boom truck to install signs. Besides the Ruidoso area, the local branch plant will also serve Alamogordo, Tularosa, Carrizozo and intermediate points.

SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW

Glencoe, New Mexico
April 12, 1963

A situation has come up on U. S. 70 that needs the attention of all good citizens who are interested in the growth and welfare of the great Southwest.

First, it is a well known fact that U. S. 70 is the best ALL WEATHER road across the continental United States. It is a highway over which a tremendous amount of heavy traffic must flow. It is a main artery in our defense command. It links the vast military operations of the White Sands Missile Range and Holloman to points east and west. It supplies the huge military base of Ft. Bliss with food and fiber and fuel and other military necessities. It links the all important military base at Roswell and the Intercontinental Missile sites to necessary supply points. On top of this U. S. 70 feeds untold thousands of tourists into the best year around playground in the west, namely, Ruidoso. It is fast becoming the chief artery in supplying food and fiber from east to west, and vice versa.

The Ruidoso Downs Race Track from May until up in September brings in record crowds who come in on U. S. 70. Friday, Saturday and Sunday the traffic is a reminder of the freeways feeding our big cities. It is zip, zip, zip all morning going to the races and zip, zip, zip late into the evening going home. New attendance records are set daily, year after year.

With the opening of the fantastic Sierra Blanca Sports area the chances are that U. S. 70 will be busier than anyone can visualize in the winter months. People who plan these things estimate even a greater attendance during the summer months from tourists than even the winter sports draw. New attendance records have been set for New Mexico ski activity here already, and it has barely begun.

Activity has started for a vast recreational program for the Mescalero Apaches in the White Mountain area. This will in time add to the load on U. S. 70. It is a year-long practice now for residents of many cities to run up for a breath of fresh air in the Sierra Blanca sports area any weekend, and these cities of the southwest are just beginning to grow.

With all this in mind let us give a look at U. S. 70 and see just what we are going to do about the 17 mile bottle neck from Biscuit Hill to Hondo. Preliminary surveys are under way on 12 miles of this project and the other five have been completed.

In view of the facts above as to importance and load you would naturally think we are in for a change, and a decent highway free of the existing hazards. You might think so, and you are entitled to just that, but what Mr. John Q. Public is going to get out of the highway could well be a Lot More of The Same, only magnified much worse. You people in El Paso, Roswell, Las Cruces, Alamogordo, Tularosa, Arizona, California and other points! Grab yourself an engineer and drive this stretch of U. S. 70. With a little foresight and modern, progressive thinking, it is not hard to visualize the possibility of an alignment of a new highway some distance above the present road on the side of the slope. It is a perfect location, an engineer's dream, and the old road, the present U. S. Highway 70. COULD BE LEFT FOR A SERVICE ROAD.

With the local commuters in their pick-ups, trucks and passenger cars, the school buses and the mail cars out of the hair of the through traffic we would then have a highway system that would flow normally and unhindered through our beautiful valley. There is a natural merging of points along the service road and the new highway which would serve as egress and ingress routes for all concerned.

Recently by request the location engineer started down the new location above our present road. In less than a week he was back down in the old road, crowding our fields and houses. This constitutes a widening program which can only end in a nightmare worse than the ones we now endure.

This is not information obtained from fantasy land! It is happening now! They are practically through with their preliminary work. Can anyone conceive of a choice between building this seventeen miles of new highway in the manner they are prescribing when they can go up on the hill a short ways and build the entire stretch without disrupting traffic at all, and end up with a highway that meets the needs of local, state and national interests instead of creating a worse bottle neck than we now have.

They come back on such a proposal with cost! This is chiefly side hill construction mind you. Should they be taken on U. S. 70 and driven to the Globe, Miami area over the mountains to Superior? They had a problem! In comparison this is like taking candy from a baby. Should they be reminded that U. S. 70 extends through Globe, Miami and Superior and that the State of Arizona is entitled to feel that their accomplishments shall not have been in vain?

Let us leave old U. S. 70 for a service road for the local community. Build new U. S. 70 in a position well exposed to sunlight a short ways above it. The entire length presents a nice, even uniform grade without a single sharp curve. We would have uninterrupted traffic while building the entire stretch. The service road alone could be worth well over a million dollars to the local community. When we free U. S. 70 of the local hazards we automatically create enough good will to take the place of any amount of money we could spend on advertising with bad conditions. This is what we could have, you people everywhere who pay for and use these federal highways. All you have to do in order to get the best is clamor for it. Let us awaken and demand progressive action instead of sitting idly by and ducking traffic for another 30 years.

Also of the greatest importance to our county and our state economically, is that if a new road is built along the route of the old, it will of necessity, need to retire considerable acres of rich farm, orchard and ranch land when the road is widened and straightened in some places. We can look to the Bonito valley to see what happens in the economic life of a county when such a rich area is retired from agriculture. Capitan lost the business of many families whose land was retired when water rights were bought for Bonito Lake. Capitan has made some gains lately, but has never regained the business life it once had. We have so few arrigable acres of land in our state we cannot afford to retire ANY acres from production of food and fiber. The loss, economically to retail firms and others from removing land from production in the Ruidoso Valley will cost us a great deal of money throughout the years ahead.

Another saving to a number of people if this plan is followed to retain the old U. S. 70 highway for a service road down the valley will be that very few, if any, utility lines will be disturbed. All of us who live along the old road will not be inconvenienced by removal of these lines, and the utility companies will not have the trouble nor expense of relocating them.

In closing I must say that we have some local dissenters who object to becoming progressive. Just a hand full, and generally speaking they have visions of selling something for a fortune to the right of way department. These few people are now promoting the nightmare and widening program for what may be selfish needs.

And last but not least we have history to contend with. What could better suit the northern politicians who control our state, than to bottle us up for another 30 years. They have a pretty good alibi ready too, these dissenters of ours are promoting the deal for them. We do have some choice in the mattr. We can either sit idly by and put up with this farce, or go out, get to work, and be ahead fifty years.

—JIM TULLY

Jet Age Brings Lecturer Here

The jet age is enabling Philanthropic Library of Ruidoso, owned and operated by Carmon Phillips and Mrs. Fred Gresswell, to bring a lecturer here on May 2 who could not appear in Ruidoso except for the modern miracle of swift transportation. The lecturer is to speak in Tucson the night of May 1, will fly by jet to El Paso where he will be met by the local couple, then, after his speech here, he returns to El Paso to take a jet to Tucson to speak there the night of May 3. The speaker will be Hugh Lynn Cayce, managing director of the Association for Research and Enlightenment, who has become widely known as an investigator of phychic phenomena and as a lecturer. He is the son of the late Edgar Cayce, famed clairvoyant, who made his home at Virginia Beach, Va. Hugh Lynn Cayce also lives in Virginia Beach, where is located the headquarters of the A. R. E.

He is a graduate of Washington and Lee University, holding an A. B. degree in psychology. He has become widely known as an authority on the psychic readings of Edgar Cayce, no doubt being the best-informed authority on that subject today. He has added to his orthodox knowledge of psychology the advanced insight gained from the readings pertaining to the nature and mind of man.

During the years since the death of Edgar Cayce in 1945, Hugh Lynn Cayce has guided the A. R. E. in its work for preserving and distributing the data in the readings to the public. He devotes all of his time to the organization and its subsidiaries. The organization formed during Edgar Cayce's lifetime has grown considerably publications (The A. R. E. Press), in membership, and in the extent of its conference and lecture programs throughout the country.

Cayce will speak in Ruidoso in the Gold Room of the Holiday House at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, May 2, with admission to be $1 per person. Refreshments will be served, Phillips and Mrs. Gresswell have announced.

Mrs. H. W. Crews of Lubbock, Tex. is visiting her son and family here, Mr. and Mrs. Les Crews of Horseshoe Courts for several weeks.

Visiting the S. B. Boykins over the Easter holidays were a niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Quesenberry and two sons of El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chapman and granddaughter, Janette Seltern of Lamesa, Tex., spent the week-end in their home on Second Street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fowler, form-Ruidosoans, have sold their home in Edinburg, Tex., and will be moving back to Ruidoso in May.

Among Ruidosoans attending the Denver, Colo. Ski Show and Gift Show last week-end and early this week were Mrs. Olma Newton accompanied by Mrs. Ken Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Leck Cowden, Mrs. Bernard Rooney, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brunell of Alamogordo and Ruidoso and Mrs. Weldon Garner.

Mrs. R. K. Knox, Mrs. Ike Kennedy and Mrs. Grady McCullough are attending the El Paso District conference of the Woman's Society for Christian Service. The three were representatives of the Community Methodist Church here.

Home for the Easter holidays from college were the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vance, Lana who is a sophomore in Eastern New Mexico University at Portales, majoring in Music Education, and David, a junior at New Mexico State University at Las Cruces, who is majoring in Civil Engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morris visited in Colorado during the Easter holidays.

The Jim Hine family visited in Abilene, Tex., during the holidays.

In Muleshoe, Tex., visiting friends and relatives last week-end from here were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Flanagan.

Mike Buckner, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Buckner, escaped serious injury when an Austin Healy Sprite he was driving crashed into a road barrier near Fabens, Tex., early Monday. He said he dozed off while driving. The small car did not overturn. He credited a seat belt to keeping the injuries to minor bruises.

NOBODY HURT—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Read of Lubbock were shaken up, but not hurt, when their Beechcraft overshot the runway here last Friday and ended up in rough terrain just below the landing strip. The plane's prop was bent and a flat tire resulted from skidding down the embankment.

Rio Grande ...Giver of Life

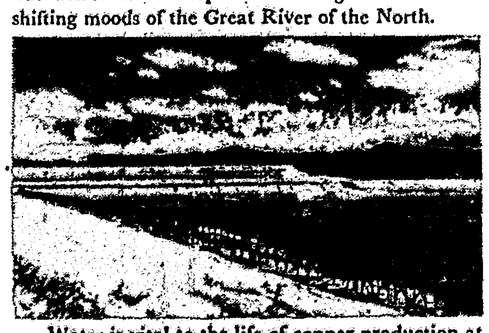
The silvery "Rye-o Grande," the poets call it ... river of romance. The Spanish saw it first in flood stage, roaring down its muddy course, tearing away its crumbling banks ... swift ... turbulent ... angry in its hurry to reach the sea. And so they named it for what they saw Rio Grande del Norte ... the Great River of the North.

Later when they came to settle, they learned its moods, enjoyed its blessings, and respected it because they could not conquer it.

As the Indians had learned to live in harmony with its vagaries, so too did the Spanish settlers ... and for most of New Mexico's history, the bulk of the population remained close to it and largely dependent upon it.

From the clear, sparkling, snow rivulets of its northern reaches to the sluggish, mud-saturated flow in the lower valleys, the Rio Grande has given life to the land as its waters are diverted to irrigation ditches as old as history.

Dams and levees, ditches and drainage canals now harness the Rio to serve the needs of agriculture — but men still must keep a constant vigil to control the shifting moods of the Great River of the North.



Water is vital to the life of copper production at Kennecott. After it is used in the milling process, it carries waste material to the tailings pond shown here. Then this vital resource is recirculated to be used again and again.

Chino has asked George Fitzpatrick, editor of New Mexico Magazine, and Harvey Caplin, an outstanding photographer of the New Mexico scene, to collaborate in a series of advertisements highlighting the qualities which have made New Mexico.

According to the provisions of Laws of New Mexico, 1901, Chapter 72, as amended, also cited as Sections 14-40-9 to 14-40-15, both inclusive, New Mexico Statutes Annotated, 1953, as amended, any owner or owners, in whole or in part, or their legal representatives, have the right on or before the 20th day of May, 1963, i. e., within ten days after the date of the last publication of this notice, to bring suit in the district court having jurisdiction according to the law then existing over the controversy, to review the action of the Board of Trustees. Said District court shall have power to consider the legality of the proceedings and fairness and justice of the assessments made against the said different lots and pieces of land, but no irregularities in the proceedings not affecting the substantial right of the plaintiffs, or any of them, shall be sufficient to annul or alter the action of the Board of Trustees, and said district court shall, as soon as it can conveniently be done, decide whether it will by injunction of other proceedings stay any further action of the Board of Trustees in proceedings further in the matter of said assessment against the lots and pieces of land.

The Board of Trustees will provide the time and terms of payment of such assessments and the rate of interest upon deferred payments thereof, which rate will not exceed seven per centum (7%) per annum, and will fix penalties to be collected upon delinquent payments.

Authentic Indian Village Proposed by Oklahoma Pair

Mr. and Mrs. James Kassanavoid of Verden, Okla., were in Ruidoso last week looking for a location to build an "authentic Indian Village". Their prepared announcement of the proposed new enterprise here was as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. James Kassanavoid will build an authentic Indian Village here in Ruidoso to open May 24. The site hasn't been selected, but there are three prospective locations and one of them will be chosen in the next few days.

"Mr. Kasanavoid is a Comanche and Mrs. Kasanavoid is a Kiowa and they are both retired with their farm at Verden.

"The Indian Village will consist of a large Navajo hogan to house the store, selling arts and crafts of the Indian; four large tee-pees, grass burial racks, Apache wickiups and a Pueblo kiva. The dance ground will be in the center where the village dancers will perform such dances as the fast and slow war dances, the shield dance, the hoop dance and the eagle dance. There will be three shows during the day and a show at 8:00 o'clock nightly. Admission will be $1 and 50c.

"This will be the first time the hoop and eagle dance will be performed before the public in this area. They are the main attractions, the boy dances with five hoops and you have to see the eagle dance to grasp the beauty.

"We are bringing the Aztec Indian dancers from Mexico here for the July 4 holiday. This troupe is famous for its costumes and they perform at Gallup every year.

"One of the teepees will house a small musuem of Indian artifacts and pictures of famous Indian chiefs. Mr. Kassanavoid has two scalps taken on raids by his ancestors that will be in the museum. Mr. Kassanavoid is a descendant of the Quahah clan of the Comanches, known for their daring horsemanship on the plains of Texas and clashes with the Texas Rangers.

"The village will have two small children's teepees in the center of the arena for the small visiting braves and princesses and the management will ask for spectator participation in the social round dance and the rabbit and buffalo dance for the tots.

"We also will honor visiting dignitaries by placing a war bonnet on him and giving him a name in Comanche. He then has to dance around the council fire with our dancers as in the old days of the chiefs. The Comanche and Kiowa tribes have a special song that is sung at this time.

"Village will be named later."

New Mescalero Home Agent Is From Alaska

Emma Georgina Widmark of Klawock, Alaska, will be the new extension home agent at Mescalero. Miss Widmark holds a bachelor of science degree in home economics from Oregon State University, Corvallis.

The new home agent said, "I am looking forward to my new assignment with the Apaches because I have always been interested in the betterment of Indian people. I want to help them to adjust to the larger American society without losing what is of value in their own society."

She explained that she is half Tlingit Indian, and that her father, Alfred Widmark, served as president of the Alaskan Native Brotherhood, which includes Eskimos as well as the various Indian tribes in the state. He is a regional vice-president of the National Congress of the American Indian. Her grandfather was a Tlingit chief and her uncle was one of the founders of the Native Brotherhood.

Miss Widmark replaces Alta Mae Tompkins, who resigned some time ago.

Citizen's Questions Answered By Zone, Plan Members

Principal Planner Albert Solnit of the New Mexico State Planning Department in Santa Fe, failed to appear Monday night for the Planning and Zoning Commission meeting here.

Although nine interested citizens appeared to specifically hear and question the Planner, the local commissioners were able to answer most of the questions asked by the guests present.

The guests included: Russell Haws, Carl DeBord, R. H. Hedgecoke, Dutch Collins, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Haist, Cy Leland, Jr., Mrs. George Fisher and Mrs. J. B. Wall.

Among the questions asked were: Would zoning take precedence over deed restrictions? The commission's answer was, no; however, it was stated that it is not the function of the municipality to enforce deed restriction, that is solely in the hands of the property owners in the area affected. Another question was asked about the State land to be auctioned early in May and which is adjacent to the Village: What would be the zoning requirements on this tract should it be bought and subdivided? Answer: Ruidoso has no zoning ordinance. The tract would be subject to subdivision regulations and requirements, should it be annexed.

Dr. Bram Vanderstok reported to the commission on the result of his committee in investigating the dispute between a resident and a developer over the graveling of Woodland Drive. Recommendation was made that developer had not fulfilled article 9.1 of Village Subdivision Regulations.

Jim Hine, Village clerk manager, who was out of the village Monday and returned Tuesday, said that he had not yet received an explanation for Solnit's failure to appear Monday night, however he presumed it was the pressure of other state business and stated that he would try to arrange another meeting for Solnit with the commissioners here.

Planning and Zoning Commissioners present Monday night were: Elmer Pirelli, chairman, Dr. Bram Vanderstok, Carl Morrison, Della Hale, Wayne Estes and Robert Hollis.

GOLD CADILLAC — Three days vacation in Ruidoso, driving this gold Cadillac, is in store for a Lubbock family, winners of a merchant's contest in the Hub City. Story about this Ruidoso publicity is in this week's C. of C. column on this page.

Family Wins Use of Gold Cadillac On Visit to Ruidoso Three Days

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Williams, 4403 A., 31st St., Lubbock, Texas, are the happy winners of a three-day all expense paid vacation for the entire family in the beautiful Ruidoso "Playground of the Southwest".

The Self Service Furniture Co., of Lubbock, Tex., announced the winner of this prize, April 10.

Sparks from Your C. of C.

A. O. Edler, president of the company was in Ruidoso last week making arrangements for entertainment of the winners May 3, 4 and 5 in Ruidoso. Edler owns a mountain home in Ruidoso where the winning family will lodge during their free vacation. They will dine wherever they wish at company expense and travel in a Gold Cadillac convertible, also furnished free for the three days in Ruidoso.

Edler states he plans to give other free trips to Ruidoso as promotional prizes if all goes well with the Williams family on this occasion. It sounds like a wonderful way to advertise Ruidoso. Thank you, Mr. Edler.

The Chamber of Commerce has acquired a new bulletin board, courtesy of Ed Lane, local philanthropist and "Man about town". Ed retired from the Santa Fe Railroad a number of years ago. He moved to Ruidoso, and since that time he has been a busy man. He divides his time between the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club, the American Legion, his church and his wife. His wife must be somewhat neglected. Ed says the only thing he does not like about being retired is that he never gets a day off, anymore.

Anyway, the bulletin board is a fine addition to the Chamber office equipment. If kept properly posted and up to date, it will enable us to keep better track of the constantly growing calendar of events in Ruidoso. This is a real need. So many things are happening so fast that we need help to stay up. Thanks, Ed.

Pat Cnubbock was the first salesman for annual banquet tickets (May 2) to report all his tickets sold and turned in his money. Nice going Pat, we have some more which have not been spoken for.

Each of the directors has tickets for sale, as does Joe Coe, George Gardenhire, June Frost and Mrs. Ruth Longabaugh. Don't wait too late to get your tickets. We only had 500 printed and we don't want anyone to miss this important annual event.

Miss Cathy Leftwich, 16 year old Queen of the American Association of Sheriff's Posses and Riding Clubs, advises us that she is available to ride in parades or rodeos in this area. Miss Leftwich is an accomplished rider. She started at age 5. Cathy has won numerous trophies and ribbons. She is also the winner of a National Music Camp Scholarship, and participated in the two-months camp program at Interlochen, Michigan, in 1961.

Cathy has her own horse "Monty" which she can bring for special events or parades, though she advises that for special short events or parades it may be better to secure a local mount. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Leftwich, 1716, 27th St., Lubbock, Texas. Her telephone number is SH 4-7884.

LOOK HOW THE THRIFT HABIT HAS SPREAD!

Though it hasn't spread that far, look away from the illustration and at the record: Americans today own some seventy billion dollars in commercial bank individual savings. That sum in dollar bills laid end to end would stretch approximately thirty times the distance from Earth to the moon!

More important, these banked savings dollars reduce distances—between each saver and his heart's desire.

Few factors count more than savings in allowing Americans to enjoy the world's highest living standard. And no other institutions hold more savings dollars for more people than banks.

There are three good reasons for all this—springing from the passage of the National Currency Act in 1863. First, by standardizing the Nation's currency, the Act helped encourage its economy, and so make substantial savings possible. Second, the Act established Federally-chartered banks, to serve beside existing state-chartered institutions; so today there are many thousands of local commercial banks where Americans can save. Third, the healthy competition of this "dual banking system" has led to the development of new savings services—"automatic savings," for example—and to the concept of the "full-scale service bank": When you save at a commercial bank, you can do all your banking under the same roof.

In 1963, some 60 million people—commercial bank savers all—agree that "the bank is the saver's best friend"!

GOD IN HISTORY

In recent years there has been talk, teachings, debates and divisions over whether God actually makes all history or has a way of causing things to come to pass and thus, influence history . . . or in some way works in and through history. I think there are two ways of writing history The one is atheistic; ignoring God's connection with all human events. In the rise and fall of empires, the growth or decay of nations, such writers hear no divine voice, acknowledge no force they cannot see They assume that the darkest problems in human history are to be solved by certain operational lines and powers within the globe Soil, climate, topography, physical conditions and circumstances are potential, but, to them, God has no power to enter in and has nothing to do with the development of any people, no part in the history of any nation. Now, it would be unwise to forget that natural laws and physical conditions play an important part in the shaping of the destinies of men and nations But there are events for which these afford no explanation

GOD HAS A PLAN

God has a plan, but the details of that plan are not revealed and so we are confounded by single items and incidents and because we see such a small part of the whole A man related that in a certain room in a gallery in Paris, the observer sees a series or a succession of frames wherein a work is being wrought by an artist in weaving The frames are crossed and re-crossed by an innumerable group of threads of varying hues, size and texture. Nothing meets the eye but a confusion of blurs, outlines and tints as the hand of the hidden workman passes the shuttle to and fro And so, the wonder grows as to what the result is to be But the workman sees what is hidden from the observer Behind the screen hangs the canvas of some great artist, whose thought and interpretation of beauty he is copying, and every bewildering thread, every shade and color, is producing some peculiarity of the marvelous original, and the completed tapestry will be the choicest treasure of a king's palace The World is God's Thought. Every man's experience is a strand in the great whole, but what the divine intent is no man knows. We have only to wait and be confident. To be used as the warp and woof in the eternal weaving is our task and privilege. Since God can do no wrong, why should we take the weaving into our own hands? The confused colors and seeming snarled outlines, that so perplex us now, will, by and by, blend in one great harmony. So, leave all to God. All the while listening, waiting, praying, and serving the Eternal. Then, you shall see, that from the beginning of time, God ruled and still rules among all nations.

"Leave all to God. He is too wise to err;
His eyes the heated furnace watch,
And seeketh only what is pure,
Be strong."

The Happy Parson,
Jimmy Saylor

Your Minister Writes . . .

BY WM. R. BROWN, II
(Episcopal Vicar, Lincoln Co.)

Well, Easter is over for another year Or is it?

Churches were filled last Sunday, filled with people who came to pay an annual tribute of joy to the fact of the resurrection of Christ. Once-a-year churchgoers bear witness to the tremendous importance of Christ's victory and that he is Lord of all things, and Lord of life.

Actually, Easter comes fifty-two times a year. Sunday is the weekly observance of the Lord's resurrection One can go to church for rejoicing and worship every Sunday.

The difference is mostly this: The person who goes once a year is witnessing to a great truth outside himself The person who goes to church steadily wants to make this great fact of Jesus' Lordship central in his own life, throughout the year.

Angus & Bonito

BY EULA CORDER

Lots of folks from all over New Mexico and West Texas took advantage of the long Easter week-end for an outing in the mountains. There were many picnickers and Easter egg hunters up Bonito Canyon. The beautiful week-end added much to the enjoyment of the folks who were spending the week-end in the mountains. Fishing was good at Nogal Lake and in the streams above Bonito Lake.

There were several families that spent the week-end at their cabins at the Nazarene Camp. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meeks and daughter from El Paso spent the week-end at their cabin there. The Meek's did some repairs on their cabin getting it ready for the summer.

Dr. G. A. Gunstream of Albuquerque is at the Nazarene Camp for a few days. They are in the process of constructing a new building at the Camp Grounds at Angus.

Mrs. L. V. Stone and friend, Mrs. George McCarty and Son Mike from El Paso spent a few days at the Stone Cabin.

Visitors one days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Kelley were Mrs. Kelley's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simmons from Spring, Tex. The Simmons have several race horses, which they brought up to run in the races, which start at Ruidoso Downs May 17.

This past week-end the Kelleys visited with Mrs. Kelley's parents at Big Spring.

Wilma Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Young, spent the Easter holidays with her parents. Wilma is a student at Amarillo College in Amarillo, Tex.

Home from college at Las Cruces for the Easter holidays was Robert Ruidoso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvel Robert.

Spending the week-end at Ruidoso were Mr. and Mrs. "Slug" Allen from Eunice, and Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O'Brian and girls from Lovington. The folks were out Saturday for a visit with the Corders.

STROLLER — Mrs. J. R. King, who operates King Motel in Kermit, Tex., was caught by the News camera taking an Easter Sunday stroll near the golf course here, and admiring Ruidoso's scenery. With her was her pet, Peppy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sparkman from Lovington spent Thursday and Friday at their "Idle Moments" cabin.

Staying at the Jal's Dude cabin in Bear Canyon over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Ely, son Steve, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hansey and family and Mr. and Mrs. Armin Mitchel and family, all of Jal, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bailey from Hobbs spent the week-end at the Porter cabins at Angus.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Pyetts and children from Roswell spent the week-end at their cabin in the Valley Heights addition.

Jimmy Corder of Roswell spent the Easter holidays with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corder.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hill and nephew from Roswell spent the week-end at the Hill's cabin.

Ruidoso Downs

By TRUDIE BALCOM

Easter week was really a week for visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Langford have been entertaining Mrs. Langford's mother, Mrs. W. C. Cavender and Mrs. Langford's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cavender, Jr. all of Pueblo, Colo.

Mrs. George T. Perry was a happy mother when her son, Cleatus Ray and a fellow roommate were home for Easter. Cleatus is attending college in Waxahatchie, Tex.

Mrs. Dude Browning and family have been visiting relatives in Lincoln, Ark.

Mrs. J. W. Stockley has returned from a visit with her mother in Fayetteville, Ark. Confidentially Mrs. Stockley, J. W. used enough gas to meeting buses to have gone to Arkansas and picked you up. Don't stay away so long next time.
next time.

The Louis Smiths had all of their family home for Easter. Their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill from Snyder, Tex., and their son, Mr. and Mrs. Mack and two children of Midland, Tex., came up to make Easter a gala event for Louis and Mary.

Visiting the Jack Shrivers for Easter were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Garrison and three children, all of Albuquerque.

What local young lady had two auto mishaps in one evening in two different cars? and within minutes. If one stayed on highways instead of "byways", it might not have happened.

The prettiest sight of the week to this reporter (and maybe I'm a wee bit prejudiced, if it sounds so, I'm sure the readers will readily understand why) was the misses Gress, Kerry Michele and Angela Leigh, looking like young debutantes in their Easter finery as they stopped by to visit their grandmother, Trudie, on their way to Green Tree Baptist Church on Easter morning.

Nice to see more familiar faces coming in for the races. One we were glad to see was "Red" Snow who has been in Anthony all winter and is back here and is glad to be. "Red" is employed by the Temulac Stables.

The Jim Roberts attended a picnic at White Sands Sunday and our spies tell us that they suffered everything from sunburn to chigger bites. What, chigger bites in the sand? Anyway a good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fulsom were in Oklahoma over the holidays and brought Minerva's mother home with them for a visit.

Miss Janie Parnell, daughter of the Jack Parnells, was home for the Easter holidays. While here, she accompanied her family to Artesia for a family reunion of the Parnell family.

Two exercize boys dropped by to say hello and to report that Jimmy Curry would be out here soon. Jimmy was leading horse trainer here last year and has done real good at Sunland this past meet.

We were wondering why we have to have the March winds in the middle of April. Heavy winds have prevailed for several days, marring otherwise beautiful sunny weather.

Visiting George Bond and Mrs. Aubrey Bond for Easter were their sister and daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Crump and three children of Carlsbad. Also visiting in the Bond home Saturday night were former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson, now of Santa Fe.

We send congratulations on the arrival of a new baby to Mr. and Mrs. "Butch" Jarvis of Ruidoso. I don't know who is the proudest, Butch and Judy or Joe and Pauline.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Vic,

The picture of the high school bus and driver "Coke" was real fun for me,—Ramon Luna, and Inice Hust. We knew most all of those school "Kids" 30 years ago. I should have known all of them—but some I couldn't remember — and some weren't there like Lois and Alvin Beavers and Edward Denton.

"Coke" was a good bus driver. He ust'a start "Honking" at the ole Scudder place, (now Mrs. Paxton's) and we would know to get out on the road or out from under the bridge where Biscuit Hill Cafe serves hot biscuits and fish dinners. Thanks for putting the picture in your paper and giving "Coke" a big hand and I don't forget Mary who was there all these years to drive while Coke was bear hunting or taking an airplane trip.

Hondo News

Former Hondo Student Receives Top Honors

Mrs. Juanita Torrez Ortiz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eloy Torrez of Hondo, has been elected to the national organization of Who's Who in American Colleges for 1962-63. Among nine other students from Highlands University at Las Vegas who were named for this honor, she ranked second. After attending Hondo High School for three years, Mrs. Ortiz was accepted at Highlands as an early admission student, majoring in English and combining French and Spanish in a major with that of a minor in secondary education. She has been active in the Student Education Association, the French Club, Spanish Club, and Phi Sigma Iota, of which she is now president.

The Highlands "Candle" of February 14, 1963, stated: "Mrs. Ortiz has been able to keep up her grade point average to a 3.75 while taking care of a husband and family. She married Tony Ortiz, a Highlands student in July after her sophomore year. Since then she has had a baby girl."

After her graduation, Mrs. Ortiz plans to teach school on the high school level.

It is to be remembered that this signal honor is among several that Mrs. Ortiz has earned, outstanding among these citations being the State P. T. A. Scholarship Award which was given to her for two consecutive years.

Episcopal Church Sponsors Three-Day Religious Rally

The Chaplain of the New Mexico House of Representatives will join with a former staff member of the New Mexico Department of Fish and Game in leading a Grassroots Religious Rally at Leck's hall in Ruidoso on April 30, May 1 and 2. "Is Religion Enough?" will be the theme of the rally. Earning a livelihood, politics, your role in the life of the community—are some of the topics that will be presented. All residents of the area are invited to attend the rally and to participate in the questions and discussion.

The Rev. William F. Crews, vicar of St. Bede's Church, Santa Fe, made news in New Mexico papers when he said that he had no intention of being a mere figurehead in his duties as chaplain of the New Mexico House of Representatives.

Formerly a member of the New Mexico Department of Fish and Game, the Rev. William H. Wolfrum is known personally to many in this area. He was the rector of St. Paul's Church, Artesia, and dean of the Episcopal churches of the Pecos Valley Convocation, of which Ruidoso is a part. The Rev. Mr. Wolfrum is now rector of Trinity-on-the-Hill, Los Alamos.

The Grassroots Religious Rally will be sponsored by the Church of the Holy Mount, Ruidoso, and St. Anne's, Glencoe, with co-operation of the Ruidoso Ministerial Alliance.

Santa Fe Visit Is Most Productive, Mayor Miller Says

Mayor E E "Brother" Miller stated Wednesday that his trip to Santa Fe last week to intervtew State Department officials on problems concerning the Village of Ruidoso Downs, was most productive

He stated that Chairman Joseph A Bursey of the New Mexico Public Service Commission in Santa Fe was very helpful and that he was able to get immediate action on matters pertaining to the Ruidoso Downs water system

The "D" Construction Company began work Tuesday on the new water system in Ruidoso Downs, Miller said.

J J DiPaolo of the "D" Construction Company, and Jack Horton, of Alamogordo, attorney for the Village of Ruidoso Downs accompanied Mayor Miller to Santa Fe

Wednesday, Mayor E E Miller issued the following notice to the citizens of Ruidoso Downs

"Now that construction has been started on the new water system for the Village of Ruidoso Downs, all persons wishing water service are urged to contact the Village Clerk to make their deposits and payment for tap and meter charges.

"The Village Trustees oted in regular session on April 16, 1963, to make a connection charge f $65 for 3-4-inch connections and to require a deposit of $10 for water service, if such payment and deposit is made before the main line is installed adjacent to a user's property.

"For all service connections made after the main line has been laid and backfilled, the charge will be $125 plus the $10 deposit

"The Mayor and the Village Trustees wish to remind all the water users within the Village of Ruidoso Downs that when the new system is completed and in operation, the present system will be abandoned and no water will be allowed in the presently existing lines.

Signed, E. E. Miller, Mayor"
