Arts & Crafts Show—Aug. 21-24

Schools Employ Four Teachers; Add Art Study

Four teachers new in the local school system were employed in last Thursday's board meeting, Supt. George White reported. One of the four will introduce a new subject in the local school, he declared.

Mrs. Nell Cook will teach a course in art in the high school, and will act as advisor to teachers in the other schools in art studies. Her husband, Thomas Cook, will teach in the fifth grade at the elementary school, succeeding Mrs. David Travis who resigned. Donald Rea of Raton will teach 7th and 8th grade English, succeeding Mrs. Katherine Dean who resigned, and Jean Spurlock, Stratford, Tex., will be the new commercial teacher in high school, succeeding Linda Hammett, who also resigned.

A report was given by White on the financial fiscal year of 1963-64 in which the local schools operated on a budget of $462,000. He said at the beginning of the new fiscal year the school had a cash balance of $59,000, and it had the same amount of cash balance at the end of the year. He added that the state chief of school finance, Harry Wugalter, had commented favorably on the fine shape the report was in and the school's finances were handled in good order, White said. The superintendent added that it was commendable that the school could, and did operate within its resources this last year.

The board ordered advertising for bids to be opened Aug. 13 on milk products for the two lunchrooms.

The school's curriculum advisory committee, named by the board during the winter, is to make a report at the Aug. 13 regular board meeting on its recommendations and suggestions regarding the school's course of study, said White. Members of the committee are Jack Spall, Mrs. James Lackey, Jim Tully, Mrs. Virginia Klincole, Rufino Sanchez, A. E. Hunt and Carl Morrison.

Discussed in the meeting last week was advisability of securing a bond consultant to assist in taking first steps toward calling for a bond election for a new school that will be needed at sometime in the near future.

Also, Supt. White said, after the board held a brief discussion on the prospect, that he would be glad to hear from parents of students who might want to study driver education at some period to be set up before or after regular school hours—perhaps in the morning prior to classes, or in the afternoon after classes have ended. Driver education will continue to be offered in the regular school day, he said, but this would enable some students to add a subject to a full day's academic schedule. He said the board would welcome opinions on this proposal.

New Subdivisions Are Developed

Two new subdivisions are being opened here by White Mountain Development Co., W. G. (Bill) McCarty, sales manager for the firm, reported last week-end.

One, Pine Top Hills, was completed earlier this month and has approval of its final plat from the planning commission and the Village of Ruidoso. It is west of Town and Company, a large subdivision opened up in 1963 by the company. Several new homes are already being constructed in Town and Country, which lies in the northwestern part of the city. Pine Top Hills now has graveled streets and all utilities. It is to be paved, as Town and Country is now, McCarty said. Pine Top Hills has 25 lots, he added.

A street has been looped into another new subdivision being developed by White Mountain, formerly called Tract A, and now named Skyview Heights, south of the municipal airport. Lots are about a half-acre in size, and the preliminary plat was approved only recently by the planning commission. The street is to be paved, but at present utilities are being installed in the area, McCarty said. There are about 20 lots in this newest development, he added.

ONE IS FINED FOR DWI; ANOTHER DISMISSED

Ralph F. Freutel of Alamogordo was fined $200 in Ruidoso Municipal Court July 18, on a charge of reckless driving; other charges of DWI and leaving the scene of an accident were dismissed by the court.

Benson A. Wilson, Ruidoso Downs, was fined $125 in the Ruidoso Downs Municipal Court July 20, on a DWI charge.

Two Arrested For Break-Ins

Village Marshal Orlando Montes reported this week that two cabin break-ins that occurred here July 10, were investigated by Ruidoso officer Carl Jorren and that numerous items were found to be missing from one of them, a cabin owned by the E. W. Barbees. Through investigation it was learned that suspects had been staying in a motel on Sudderth Drive and a description of the vehicle driven was obtained, Montes said. Through the cooperation of the State Police and the Lincoln County Sheriff's department Montgomery Rucker, one of the suspects was located in Albuquerque and returned to Carrizozo by Sheriff Glen Bradley where he plead guilty in the District Court trial held July 22, Montes reported. Montes stated that Stanley Allen, another suspect, was located in Clovis and returned to Carrizozo where he was charged with breaking and entering and was released on $2,500 bond. Some of the electrical appliances and items taken from the Barbees' cabin have been located in an El Paso pawn shop, Montes reported.

Texas Physician Buys Home Here

Gardenhire stated this week that although he is selling some of his Ruidoso real estate and is moving this fall to Waxahachie, Texas, because of his wife's health, that he is retaining the skating rink and that he and his family are planning to return to Ruidoso each summer.

He is shown with Jockey Joe Sherman. (See news story page 4, Section B, today's News.)

New Funeral Home To Open

Mrs. Billie Clarke, one of three persons involved in the opening of two proposed new funeral homes in Lincoln County, reported last week-end that the New Mexico Embalmers and Funeral Directors Licensing Board had granted their company a conditional license, and that one phase of their business was available to the public now.

Planned are new funeral homes in both Carrizozo and Ruidoso, she said. A permanent license will follow construction of facilities that pass the board's requirements, she said she was told.

Name of the firm is Chapel of Roses and interested in the organization with Mrs. Clarke are Austin Wooten of Carrizozo, a longtime resident of that community, and Joseph R. Lucas of Santa Fe and Albuquerque, both of whom hold licenses in the mortuary profession.

Mrs. Clarke said workmen are busy in Carrizozo remodeling a residence on a major street purchased by the firm. The home was once the residence of a minister. It has three lots, she said, and the structure is being converted into the permanent home for the business.

In Ruidoso the firm has leased temporary offices in the Gateway Center, which will be the local headquarters until a new home can be built for the operation here. Mrs. Clarke said three firms are bidding on construction of the new home for leasing to Chapel of Roses, and that other contractors are invited to submit bids. Phone number here for the new business will be 257-2078.

She said news stories appearing in the state press last week, and which came from Roswell were incorrect in some parts. "We had hoped that we might buy some of the facilities of Talmage-Mason, and were even negotiating with them prior to the time the concern went into bankruptcy. We decided to open without buying the Talmage-Mason business. We have already bought, on condition that we are given a permanent license, a great deal of fine, new equipment.

"In fact, one part of the facilities we have bought—a Cadillac combination hearse and ambulance—is available to the public now for transporting patients to or from homes and hospitals, or between hospitals. We have a permit from the state board to do this, and will be happy to serve anyone in this way," she concluded.

She said the Ruidoso Chapel of Roses will be open in the Gateway Center as soon as workmen can complete the job of converting two store buildings in the center into proper quarters for a mortuary, and that the Carrizozo Chapel of Roses might be open sometime next week when work of converting the residence is done.

Miss Turnbough's car failed to stop after she turned into the Plaza Dee Shopping Center from Sudderth Drive and jumped a curb and hit a plate glass window in the H. & J. Food Basket. Miss Turnbough was released from the hospital after the emergency treatment.

Boys Forestry Camp Plans Talked By Board

Studies on the use of two new drugs in the treatment of tuberculosis patients were reported as successful at the State Tuberculosis Hospitals' Board meeting last week-end at Fort Stanton Hospital.

Dr. Walter Rosenblatt, associate medical director at Fort Stanton, said patients who had been resistant to other drugs are responding to the new drugs, isoxyl and ethambutol. Dr. Rosenblatt and Dr. H. C. Jernigan, medical director, have been conducting tests on 14 patients.

The board also reviewed a plan for the State Boys School's forestry camp, which will be located northeast of the hospital. The project is to provide the opportunity for boys at the Springer school to learn various skills.

George Bryan, who is supervising the transfer of surplus buildings from Moriarty to Fort Stanton, reported the dismantling is progressing rapidly.

In other action, the board decided to accept part of the responsibility of state chest clinic work at the Fort Stanton Hospital. The Health Dept., formerly had full charge of the chest clinic.

Attending their first board meeting were two new members, Mrs. Eleanor Jones of Capitan and Paul Payton of Carrizozo. They replaced Mrs. Alicia Romero and Lawrence Goodell. Dr. Louis Levin of Albuquerque also was present.

Charter Members In Capitan Lions Total 25

Capitan folks celebrated a soaking rain Saturday afternoon and evening last week by attending a charter night dinner-dance for the newly organized Lions Club there. There were 100 persons in attendance to witness President Hollis Cummins receive the charter for the 10,440th club in Lions International to get its birth papers.

The presentation was by Lionel D. Haight, district governor of Lions from Las Cruces, and it came shortly before the main address on Lionism by Dr. A. Eugene Mann, director of human relations at Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, and also serving as Lions Club International Councilor and currently the chairman of the New Mexico Tuberculosis Hospital's board. Dr. Mann's theme was based on the admonition to light at least one candle to lessen the darkness. He told of incidents in Lions International where the lighting of one candle or the origination of a new project blossomed into thousands of candles as a service to mankind. He seasoned his address with a number of anecdotes fitting to his subject. William Marr, Tularosa, past district governor, served as master of ceremonies. Capitan's Mayor Gerald Dean, Sr., who also is one of the 25 charter members for the new club, welcomed the visitors which included Lions and officials from Ruidoso, whose club sponsored Capitan's organization; Las Cruces, High Rolls, Alamogordo, Carrizozo, LaMesa and Reserve.

Giving the invocation and benediction was the Rev. Conrad Nugent, Carrizozo minister. Leading songs was George Bryan, Ft. Stanton business manager who is also secretary of the new club. Dr. C. Howard Tate, president of Ruidoso Lions Club, presented President Cummins with a United States flag and standard and base, a bell for the president's use and a gavel. Alamogordo evening Lions Club presented the club with a New Mexico flag.

Music for dancing following the program was by an orchestra from Roswell. The banquet and program was held in the Fair Grounds building.

PRACTICING PHARMACY IS AN ART

Most prescription drugs are now pre-compounded by the pharmaceutical firms. But, many of them are so potent, have such similar names, that it requires expert knowledge to always be certain that exactly what the physician prescribes is dispensed. There are still prescriptions for ointments, lotions, capsules, eye preparations, etc. which require individual compounding. We welcome these prescriptions. YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Runaway Vehicles Are On Increase

Wreck incidents involving runaway vehicles, or cars and pickups on which parking brakes have not been set properly, are on the increase, so says Ruidoso Municipal Judge H. M. Graham. He said the accidents are occurring in all parts of Ruidoso—and that there have been some very narrow escapes in the last few days by grown-ups as well as children who were in cars that were struck, or who were not in cars, but almost hit by driverless vehicles.

Most frequent cause of the runaway cars is the forgetfulness on the part of drivers who put the vehicle in gear and do not set brakes. When in gear, a car can still roll, and a driver who has left his car on an incline not infrequently returns to find that his car, pick-up or truck has moved to other parts.

Also contributing to the increase in such accidents, Graham pointed out, are parents who leave small children in parked cars and the children, playing with knobs, handles, levers, etc., often release brakes, allowing the car to roll.

AMARILLOANS BUY UNITED RENT-ALLS, OPEN NEW BUSINESS

Lonnie. Wood and son-in-law, James Hegwer, formerly of Amarillo, Tex., have moved to Ruidoso and established a new business—the Ruidoso Maintenance Co. They have also purchased the United Rent-Alls business from Jim Rhodes, who has had this service in Ruidoso for several years, and have moved to a new location in the old post office block in the building formerly housing Kathryne Hall Travis' studio and gallery, behind U-Namit Shop.

James and wife, Lou Ann, have one daughter, Kimberly, aged 2½ years. Lonnie's wife is in Amarillo receiving medical attention and will join Lonnie here with their two children, Ricki Lyn, 9, and Steven 7. They also have a married son, Wayne Wood, who lives in Carlsbad. The Lonnie Woods have bought a home here on the south side of the golf course.

COLLEGE NEED IS EXPLODING IN N. M. . . .

Governor Jack M. Campbell has said today that the continuing boom in New Mexico's college population made it especially vital that voters approve the $8 million bond issue which will be on the November state ballot.

Money from the bonds will be used only for buildings and land for the seven state institutions of higher learning.

Enrollment has increased almost a third in the past three years at the seven state colleges and is expected to more than double by the end of this decade, Campbell said.

The Governor also noted that the scientific-related industries New Mexico seeks to attract are interested in the quality of higher education available near their plants.

More New Mexico youngsters are completing high school than ever before and a larger percentage of those graduating from high school go on to college. Also, there has been a sharp increase in the percentage of New Mexico graduates who go to state schools rather than colleges in other states.

Enrollment in the seven state colleges and universities has jumped from 14,214 to 18,711 since 1960. That means that in the past three years these institutions have added enough students to more than fill New Mexico State University—the second largest in the state.

Board of Educational Finance projections indicate that enrollment in September of this year will increase 20,726. By September, 1965, this figure will reach 23,387.

Senior class enrollment in the public and private high schools of New Mexico has grown from 6,000 in the spring of 1953 to an expected 13,768 expected next spring.

More of these high school graduates are going on to college. In 1960 the ratio between seniors in June and freshmen enrolling in the state colleges in the fall was 100 to 52.9. In 1963, the ratio had risen to 62.4 freshmen for each 100 graduating high school seniors.

Enrollment booms hitting out-of-state colleges also are making it increasingly difficult for New Mexicans to enroll there.

If New Mexico youths are to have an opportunity for higher education it is becoming increasingly the responsibility of their home state to offer it, the Governor said.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Littleton, Colo.
July 17, 1964

Dear Vic:

Will you please send our paper here to the Harry McGahous, 5967 South Rapp, Apt. 6, Littleton, Colo., for the rest of this race meet, think it goes into September or 'till we let you know where we will be long enough to get it. They are the couple who rented one of our apts. at Red Top Lodge, but had to move his horses up here to have chance to enter them in races, even as bad as they hated to leave Ruidoso. Anyway, they have already had three real nice wins, seemed he just didnt have any luck there getting races.

We stopped at port entry, the fellow gave us a handful of advertising on Cool, Cool Colorado, I laughed and told him he should go to our Cool, Cool Ruidoso and he says: Is it really cool? We told him he should try it some time. Think it must have been 100 deg. or more here. Apparently they haven't had any rain yet.

If you will put a part of this letter in the paper, thanking the McGahous for a lovely day at the races and a lovely dinner, sizzling steaks. We will leave here 7:30 in the morning, on north some place in Wyoming tomorrow. Thank you a million for everything. Our regards to all our friends.

Sincerely,
Butch Anderson

A STORY OF GROWTH

(Submitted By Jeanette Browning)

You may have noticed the contractor's sign, on the site, as the new building for the Ruidoso Teleingphone co. was being erected, "Growing with Ruidoso"—These words displayed an interesting growth.

The Ruidoso Telephone Co. is an independent owned system. The U. S. telephone network is made up of two systems; Independent and Bell. Together they operate 84 million telephones. The 2,700 Independent (non-Bell) companies serve 13.5 million phones, 16 per cent of the nation's total. More than one billion long distance calls were handled jointly by the two systems in 1963. Both work closely together to provide the biggest and by far the best communications system in the world, a tribute to our American private enterprise system. With only six per cent of the world's population, this country has more than half the world's telephones.

In "Dad" Hitchens' office he has a collection of Ruidoso Telephone Directories which tell the story of the growth of the Ruidoso Telephone Co., much more than this writer will be able to. The first issue revised July 1936 with the executive office being in Carrizozo, Mr. Fulmer, owner and manager, with a branch office in Capitan, also one in Alto. Mr. Fulmer, a dedicated telephone manager, at this time is owner of the Carrizozo Telephone Co.

Many of the persons associated with and assisting the growth of this Independent Co. are still living in Ruidoso. The managers have been:

1936—Mrs. Marguritte Winkler.
1937—Mrs. Ruth Riddle.
1938, 1939 and 1940—Mrs. Ruby Morgan, deceased, mother of Lowell Morgan, formerly associated with the Ruidoso Municipal Airport.
1941—Mrs. Alma Coe. Mother of the writer of this article. (This writer is a service representative for the Independent Co.)
1942—Mrs. Ethel Baker.
1943—Mrs. Ethel Gill.
1944—Mrs. Nora M. Phillips.
1945 to 1947—Mrs. Grace Sutton, still living in Ruidoso, active and well known.
1948—Ben W. Weatherby.
1949—Mrs. G. S. Walker.
1950 and 1951—Ben W. Weatherby.
1952 to this writing—Jack Hitchens, president and manager, devoted and dedicated to independent communications progress, with accomplishments of from "ring in your ear" service to dial system—from approximately 250 customers to approximately 2,500, 1964. Responsible for a beautiful new building and newest equipment to expand with the growth of Ruidoso.

Nor can we forget the faithful operators, "Hello Girls"—one of them still living in Ruidoso, Yolanda Manley, and I understand noted for her ability of getting calls through quickly and sometimes profanely.

The year 1954 saw the end of the era of "Hello Girls" in Ruidoso as the company changed to dial system with operators in Roswell placing the long distance calls which remains the same today.

Most of us only have to think back through a few years and remember how we would have to sit on the porch and wait at least three hours for a long distance call to go through, to realize and appreciate the growth and progress of the Ruidoso Telephone Co.

Roswell, New Mexico
June 15, 1964

Mr. Victor Lamb
Editor, Ruidoso News
Ruidoso, New Mexico
Dear Mr. Lamb:

This week-end while in Ruidoso, I read in your valid paper an announcement that Jarvis Garrett, son of the Sheriff Pat Garrett, was to write something in connection with his father's book, "The Authentic Life of Billy The Kid."

I am enclosing a copy of a letter I am writing to Jarvis Garrett and which I am sending to Dan Burrows at Albuquerque to be delivered to Mr. Garrett.

Any of this letter to Jarvis which you may care to use in your valid paper would, of course, be agreeable to me.

Verly truly yours,
/s/ Cecil Bonney

June 15, 1964

Mr. Jarvis Garrett
Albuquerque, New Mexico
Dear Jarvis:

Yesterday I took from the Ruidoso News an article concerning a foreword you are writing in connection with "The Authentic Life of Billy The Kid," which book was written by Ash Upsom and was told to him by your father.

At one time I had an original of this book but lost it through the loaning process. I certainly want one of the new ones when it is published.

For your information, my mother lived with your father and mother while she taught school near Roswell and while they lived on the Hondo at a point which we now call Garrett's Dam. Moreover, your father was best man at the wedding of my mother and father in White Oaks. In later years my father and your father were very close personal friends and engaged in various business enterprises together, one of which was the building of a canal to carry irrigation water to Dexter, Hagerman, and other points in the lower Pecos Valley.

The article in the Ruidoso News says you have "the only known picture of Mrs. Garrett, your mother." For your information, I took this picture. It is an enlargement from a motion picture which I cut from the film and had enlarged and gave to your sister, Elizabeth Garrett, whom we all very affectionately knew as "Lizzie." This particular picture was taken during an old-timers reunion in Roswell when I had the pleasure and privilege of introducing her to a crowd as the widow of Patrick Floyd Garrett. Miss Elizabeth was also on this platform at this time and sang to the delight of the audience New Mexico's State song, "Oh Fair New Mexico." (Ed Note: She coomposed it.)

The Ruidoso article says that you have no personal recollections of your father since you were only 2½ years old at the time he was murdered. I saw him one time, I now recall and that was in El Paso when the Bonney family stayed the night with the Garrett family at their home. At that time your dad was Collector of Customs of the port of El Paso.

However, I feel that I knew him well, since I have a large collection of books, some partially authentic and otherwise; and since my father knew him so very well and talked to me at length concerning him many times, and since I knew and loved your sister, Elizabeth, so very well.

Since I do not have your Albuquerque address, I am sending this letter to my life-long friend, Dan Burrows, Editor of the New Mexico State Tribune, asking him to see that you receive it. Some day I hope to come to Albuquerque and have a long talk with you; I can think of nothing that would give me more genuine pleasure.

Sincerely yours,
/s/ Cecil Bonney

PARKS ARE ENJOYED — Ruidoso's several parks, and camp grounds of the Lincoln National Forest in the area were at capacity during the July 4th week-end holiday here. Photo is of Two Rivers Park which is along Rio Ruidoso at junction with Carrizo Creek northwest of chamber of commerce building on Sudderth.

PEACE OFFICERS MEET—Twenty-eight persons met for a buffet supper at Holiday House last week when the Ruidoso village police force played host in a gathering to discuss law enforcement problems. Special guests were village officials, justices of the peace, state, district and county peace officers and officers from Ruidoso Downs.

Philadelphia — Where we live in Pennsylvania we're just about three miles from New Jersey. But don't try to call there from here. I think it's impossible.

We get better results communicating with our friends in New Jersey by telegram or letter. Calling Ruidoso or Albuquerque is easier than dialing those 11 digits that connect you (hopefully) with someone in New Jersey.

I thought Pennsylvania Bell and New Jersey Bell were all Mother Bell's chilluns'. Maybe they're mad at each other.

One night recently we wanted to go to the movies in New Jersey. But first we wanted to call up and find out what time the show started.

Passing the college graduate record exam was easier.

The redhead who cooks and cleans for me tried first. Being a country girl, she naturally dialed "0" for operator. The girls at the telephone company had a good laugh at that one.

After the derisive laughter at the telephone company subsided, the operator suggested we read page three of the Camden, N. J. directory to see how to place calls there.

We don't have a Camden directory.

I took over and tried a more direct course.

I called the operator and asked, "What's the trouble? Why can't you call New Jersey for us?"

She replied "_____." (Deleted by the National Board of Censors.)

I obviously was getting nowhere that way. I tried again, using a warmer, friendlier and (hopefully) wittier approach.

"What's the trouble between here and New Jersey? Did water leak into the telephone wires where they go under the river?"

"Don't get smart, Mister," the operator snarled.

Then I remembered reading a newspaper story about how a policeman arrested a fellow on suspicion of booking bets. The most damaging evidence was a slip of paper bearing the notation, "1-609-555-1212." "Obviously he's writing his bets in code," the officer testified. It turned out, the fellow wasn't writing in code—that's the telephone number for information for New Jersey (southern division).

After using that number and going through New Jersey information, the redhead dialed the drive-in. She listened silently, then started to sob softly.

"I got a recording that said, 'all our lines are tied up at the moment. Please hang up and call back'," she sobbed.

Nogal Notes

By ROSALIE DUNLAP

Everyone enjoyed camp meeting this year with good speakers, good food and company, and good weather. The first night it was announced that there were more campers on the ground than had ever been in the past. For the first time in years it did not rain during the camp meeting.

The weather is still the main subject here. Although we have had some showers it is still terribly dry. Some parts of the county have had good rain but we haven't here in the Nogal area. Leonard Sharpe wrote sometime back that his wheat had been hailed out on Father's Day. A storm 25 miles wide and 75 miles long (from the Colorado - Nebraska border south) struck that day wiping out nearly all of the crops in that area, severely damaging the sugar beets, homes and other property. The Sharpes live in Haxtun, Colo.

Recent visitors in the Doug McNatt home were their sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Carr McNatt and family of California; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McNatt and family of Alamogordo. Others were Emmett McNatt, Alamogordo, brother of Doug, and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cates and niece of Alamogordo.

Mrs. Paul Aguayo, Chama, Mrs. Oma Nagy, El Paso, Mrs. Jeanine Johnson, Cora Dutton and Mrs. Faye Wooten were among those who visited the L. R. LaMays the past week.

Jim Robinson of Portales spent the week with the Dave Alexanders and attended the camp meetings. Also staying with the Alexanders and attending camp meetings were Mr. and Mrs. Emery Galloway of Roswell.

Dave Alexander has been on vacation the past two weeks.

The UPW of Nogal has been changed from the second Thursday of each month to the first Thursday. Please remember this new date.

Mrs. Eleanor Collins, Abilene, Tex., and Mrs. Nina Hedrick, Arlington, Tex., visited with Mrs. Molly Bosh while they were attending camp meeting.

Henry Bosh is improving but is still in the hospital at Ft. Bayard.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Shorty McCrory the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carter; Mineral Wells, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Franks and family of Arlington, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cox spent the week with Sam Cox and attended the camp meetings

Recent visitors at the Lester Greer home were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Garvey and family of Roswell. Mrs. Garvey is a niece of the Greers.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bragg and family of Elk, N. M., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Greer. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hulbert, Carrizozo and Lloyd's daughter, Mrs. Virginia Coons of Hawaii.

Lewis Greer is stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. "Sleepy" Short, Ruidoso, and Mr. and Mrs. Rook and friends of Roswell visited with the Tom Zumwalts during camp meeting. Mrs. Short is the former Pansy Mack.

Mrs. Pearl Stearns returned home over a week ago from her trip and thoroughly enjoyed it all but like all of us it was good to be home. She and Lyda Peebles visited in Oregon, saw Salt Lake City, Grand Canyon and other points of interest.

Mrs. Eva Zumwalt brought her step-father, Mr. Whitley, home from the Roswell hospital Tuesday and is getting along fine. Mr. Whitley, who is 82 years old, suffered a ruptured appendix two and a half weeks ago.

Our sincere sympathies go to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Crenshaw. Mrs. Crenshaw's father, Mr. Tac Kennedy, passed away at Ft. Sumner Saturday afternoon.

Lois Dunlap was a busy girl last week. She spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Betty Shrecengost, Monday evening Mrs. Willie Mae Hobbs and Howard picked her up to accompany them to Abernathy, Tex. Willie May brought her father, Mr. Wright back with her on Tuesday. Thursday, Lois visited with the Tom Knight family until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap, Lois and Wayne were among those from Lincoln County who attended the 4-H District contest at Clovis Friday, July 10. Lois placed first with her sportswear and also presided over the awards program in the afternoon. We are all proud of the livestock judging team. I believe this is the first time Lincoln County has had a top placing team and the second time we have had the high scoring individual. Wayne Dunlap was high point man a few years ago in Alamogordo.

The apricot crop is wonderful this year and everyone is busy a-canning and a-jamming.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herrick were their daughter, Mrs. Doris Cottay, her daughters, Cheryl Cottay and Mrs. Judy Nelson and son Billy. Of course the Herricks great-grandson was the apple of everyone's eye. He was a doll.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Dillard and Beverly visited with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dillard in Tularosa. Beverly had the misfortune to fall off a horse while there and suffered severe bruises and scratches.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herrick was Mrs. Herrick's sister-in-law, Josie Melson and son of San Diego, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wandell are leaving in their camper on a trip to Glacier Park, and then back through Oregon and California. George has a sister at Sonoma. All George's cherries are canned and jammed.

George Wandell reports he has kept a record of our moisture since April and we have had approximately two inches.

Mrs. Ralph Dunlap and Wayne were Roswell callers Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Knight and family Sunday. In the evening the Dunlaps called on the R. C. Barhams.

Edward May is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert May.

See you at the 4-H Horse Show, Saturday at Capitan.

In case of payment of damages by the surety upon such bond, the principal shall immediately give additional bond in the amount paid to the end that there shall be at all times the principal sum hereinbefore specified available for compensation as aforesaid.

Such policy shall be acceptable to and subject to the approval of the Village Board.

Mortuary Files For Bankruptcy

A petition for voluntary bankruptcy was filed in U. S. District Court Friday in Albuquerque by the Talmage-Mason Funeral Home, Inc., Roswell, whose state funeral establishment license was cancelled in May.

The funeral home petition listed $114,216 in debts and $88,827 in assets and was signed by Dayton Mills Talmage, secretary-treasurer. Other officers listed were Charles C. Stiles, Roswell, president, and Charles R. Polk, Roswell, vice-president. The firm started business in 1957 and ceased operations July 8, the petition added.

The $85,029 listed as unsecured debts included 80 names of persons who had purchased pre-need funeral plans, the petition said. Secured debts totaled $25,000, $1876 in taxes owed the United States and $620 in taxes owed the state. The assets included $29,141 due on open accounts and $8008 in stock.

The funeral home was named in a suit filed in Santa Fe County District Court earlier this month as beneficiary of pre-need funeral plans sold under contract by Memorial Foundation, Inc., Roswell. In the suit, Ralph F. Apodaca, state insurance superintendent, asked for a temporary injunction against Memorial Foundation alleging it had entered into a conspiracy to violate state insurance laws in selling funeral service contracts and insurance in New Mexico.

The firm operated a branch in Ruidoso.

Officers present at the Monday night session were: Bob Miller and Bob Thompson of the New Mexico State Police; Leandro Vega, Jr., of the Lincoln County Sheriff's office; Deputy Sheriff Clyde Atwood; Judge Alton Gray and Marshal L. L. Watley of Ruidoso Downs; Allen Luallin, Ruidoso Volunteer Fire Department; special deputy Frances Carnes; and Paul Lukens, Tom Hyde, Clovis Perry, Carl Jorren, Lucas Gallegos, John Anderson, Ab Gunter, assistant Marshal Frank Barajas and acting Marshal O. S. Montes of the Ruidoso Police Department.

JayCee President Honored On Retirement

The Ruidoso District Junior Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday and gave retiring president Larry MacGregor a gift and thanked him for his work in the JayCees. MacGregor, assistant cashier at Ruidoso State Bank, has accepted another position at a bank in East Moline, Ill. Internal Vice-President Dave McCall, with the Ruidoso Telephone Co., was installed as president and Marc Valen of K. Triple R, and Bill Easley were elected internal vice-president and director respectively.

A discussion was held on the erection of street signs in Ruidoso. Dave McCall, the new president, appointed Ben Sanchez of Ruidoso Printing Co., and LeRoy Cornelius of Pecos Valley Finance and himself to work with other civic groups in the community on putting through this project. Marc Valen, new vice-president, appointed Billy Morrison of American Auto Parts as publicity director to strengthen the publicity of the group.

Minor Injuries Reported For Two Hurt In Pick-Up Crash

An Alamogordo woman and a 15-year-old girl were treated and dismissed from Gerald Champion Hospital in Alamogordo Friday night following a one-vehicle crash near Mescalero.

Reportedly suffering possible injuries of the back and right foot was Ophelia D. Hicks, 40, 2402 Bellamah. Pamela Hicks, 15, of the same address, was listed as having received a laceration of the left ear and abrasions of the face.

The injured pair and three other children, were occupants of a 1957 Ford pickup which overturned some two miles east of Mescalero, according to a report from investigating officer Andrew Benavidez of the New Mexico State Police.

Benavidez said the pickup, driven by Mrs. Hicks, was traveling west on U. S. 70 when the driver slammed on the brakes, lost control, and overturned the vehicle. It came to rest facing south in the bar ditch, he said.

Mrs. Hicks was cited for failure to use due care on a mountain road.

Volunteer Firemen, Ruidoso Realtors Favor Clean-Up

Pictures of fire and safety hazards, and unsanitary areas where litterbugs, commercial business operators, householders or renters have left refuse of many kinds were shown by the Ruidoso News to members of Ruidoso Volunteer Fire Department Monday evening and to local realtors in a Multiple Listing Bureau breakfast session Tuesday morning when their help was asked to push for a thorough clean-up of the city.

Both groups named representatives to assist in calling for a clean-up program. They will be joined, it is hoped, by members of other civic organizations in a preliminary move to stir up interest in a wholesale campaign to rid the community of several eyesore areas that detract from the resort's natural beauty. There has been no organized, nor planned community clean-up drive here in about three years, the two groups were told.

REV SAYLOR—

in Roswell at No. 10 Morningside Drive, they reported.

Included in the announcement was a statement by the Rev. Mr. Saylor saying, "Juanita and I have had almost four years of residence in Ruidoso and they have been marked by pleasant and happy church relationships as well as rewarding and lasting friendships made over a wide area with all age groups and in all walks of life. We shall ever hold our friends in grateful remembrance and reverent prayer. We plan to engage in reading, writing, painting and filing speaking engagements. I hope to do pulpit supply preaching and interim pastoral work." The Saylors now are in the process of packing books and personal effects in readiness for the proposed change and will welcome Ruidoso friends when settled in their future home.

REV. FRANK TAYLOR TO SPEAK IN RUIDOSO FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Rev. Frank E. Taylor, minister at Spur, Tex., and formerly a minister here will fill the pulpit at the First Christian Church Sunday morning in Ruidoso in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. James E. Saylor, who has been ill.

A solo by Mrs. Patricia Fletcher Welshe of El Paso is also scheduled. Mrs. Lana Vance is to be her accompanist.

Pioneer Residents Numbered Among 350 At Coe Room Dedication

More than 350 persons attended the opening of the Frank and Helena Coe Room at the Old Lincoln County Courthouse, Lincoln, N. M., Sunday.

Ceremonies at 2 p.m. reunited many old friends of the Coe family. Col. E. L. Lusk, of Roswell, member of the Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission, which administers State restorations in Lincoln was master of ceremonies. He presented distinguished persons who reminisced on their friendship with the Coe family and their contribution to community life and cultural progress of Old Lincoln County.

Among the speakers were Hiram Dow, former lieutenant governor of New Mexico and longtime attorney of Roswell; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bonney, also of Roswell; Edward Penfield, lifelong resident of Lincoln and active member of the Lincoln County Historical Society; Mrs. Tom Charles of Alamogordo, author of the book, "Tales of the Tularosa."

Wilbur Coe, son of Frank Coe, spoke of his family's pleasure in contributing heirlooms to the new exhibit. His wife, Louise Coe, former senator in the New Mexico legislature, spoke movingly of privations of the Coe family's life on the frontier, and eventual acomplishments in bringing education and cultural projects to their community. It was Louise Coe's bill in the legislature which made the Old Lincoln County Courthouse a State Monument.

John Boylan, Curator of the Old Courthouse, spoke of the Coe Room as the first of other exhibits planned for the museum which will present history in three dimensions.

Roswell residents who attended the ceremonies included: Mrs. T. H. Boswell, W. H. Dearholt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed York, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Hial Cobean, Marietta Cobean, Henry, Charles and Susie Spencer, Jan and Paul Holland and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ginsburg.

In addition to the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Coe, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaMay, others who registered at the Old Courthouse were:

Mrs. Tom Charles, Mildred Morgan, Mrs. C. H. Willis, Margaret Rutz, Mrs. Charles Sutton and Mrs. Frances Godley, all of Alamogordo.

Louise Coe Runnels and Mary Lou Runnels of Bonito Dam; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Payton, Mrs. Faye Wooten and Mrs. Bill Baker, Carrizozo; L. R. York, Clyde, Tex.; Walter B. Holland, Post, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. James, Magdalena; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Parker, Chickasha, Okla.; Willa Marres, Ft. Stanton; Lula Runnels, Nogal; Joanna Amastae and Edward Penfield, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Slaten and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Titsworth, Tinnie; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Heavenhill, Artesia and Elizabeth Kind, Weatherford, Tex.

From Capitan came Mr. and Mrs. Claude Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cummins. From Ruidoso, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Swingle, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pearson. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and Annelle Jones were there from Glencoe, as were Mr. and Mrs. David Bonnell.

Other guests included: Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Perkins, Wichita Falls, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Milt Mabie, Roman Nunez and Dody Nunez of Picacho; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Joiner, Hondo, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lawrence, Madisonville, Ky.

Gun Death Of Pat Garrett Still Debated

The controversy that crackled across New Mexico over the killing of the famous lawman, Pat Garrett, one afternoon in 1908 about five miles from Las Cruces, is still very much alive.

Much of the evidence at the time pointed to cold-blooded murder; the jury called it self-defense.

Now the son of the legendary sheriff has pulled together the facts as he sees them and has written them down, not only "to vindicate his father's name but also as a rebuttal to the detractors and those intent on bringing discredit to his character."

The son is Jarvis Garrett, who now lives in Albuquerque after many years with the Creole Petroleum Corp. in Venezuela.

The 59-year-old Jarvis tells the story of his famous father in the long foreword of the reprinting of the senior Garrett's book, "The Authentic Life of Billy, the Kid," published originally in Santa Fe eighty-two years ago and now worth perhaps several thousand dollars a copy. The publishing firm of Horn & Wallace, Albuquerque, will soon release the Garrett book.

In his foreword, Jarvis, after detailing the story of his father's life, including the Billy the Kid narrative, devotes considerable space to the events surrounding his father's death. He builds his case on the basis that triggermen were brought to Las Cruces directly to participate in a conspiracy involving grazing land, and out of which a murder in "self-defense" could arise.

That the characters were not of the highest order seems obvious, for one of them was lynched a year later for his connection with a murder and another was sent to prison for smuggling Chinese into the United States from Mexico.

Jarvis feels that the killing was arranged because of another killing a number of years before which brought Garett back to New Mexico from his ranching operations in Texas. His investigation brought to trial a prominent rancher of the area, who was to become later one of New Mexico's leading citizens. He was acquitted. Other New Mexicans, who later were to become well known, were involved in all these events including Albert Fall, who became Secretary of the Interior under President Harding and who went to prison in connection with the Teapot Dome scandals.

How well Jarvis Garrett has succeeded in vindicating his father's name will be up to the reader to decide. But what he has done certainly is to tell an exciting story about a period in New Mexican history and about one of the men who made it that way.

Lincoln Forest Makes Major Contribution To Area

(From The Ranger's Desk Lincoln National Forest)

In 1905 when the National Forest was placed under the administration of the Department of Agriculture, the Secretary directed that "All land is to be devoted to its most productive use for the permanent good of the whole people and not for the temporary benefit of individuals or companies — and where conflicting interest must be reconciled, the question will always be decided from the standpoint of the greatest good of the greatest number in the long run."

In accordance with these directives your Lincoln National Forest is managed today to get the combination of uses best suited to the public needs. This is the essence of multiple use.

The recreation areas, such as Sierra Blanca, Cedar Creek and Bonito Lake; the timber, with an average harvest of 5.5 million board feet in 1963; more than 96,000 sportsmen hunted or fished; the range area with 11,325 cattle and 5,250 sheep are grazed under paid permits, held by 200 local ranchers, and also of prime importance to Ruidoso and area is the watershed and the program which calls for treatment of 77,000 acres of damaged watershed lands. These various of the forest make a great contribution to the economy of Ruidoso.

In addition to these activities, is the Lincoln's cash payment to counties in which the National Forest is located. These payments constitute 25 percent of all National Forest receipts and by law must be used for schools and roads. Payments by the Lincoln for fiscal year 1963 amounted to $22,356.98 and were distributed on the basis of the number of acres of National Forest land in each county. The amount for fiscal year 1964 will be available soon.

With your continued understanding and support, the Lincoln National Forest can make even greater contributions to this area's economy, than it has in the past.

Ben F. Pior Dies, Rites Held In Artesia

Friends in Ruidoso learned last week of the death June 11 at Eastern New Mexico Medical Center of Ben F. Pior, an Artesia resident who has had a summer home in Ruidoso on Meander Drive for many years. Burial was in Woodbine cemetery at Artesia June 15. He was reported to have been in ill health for the last three years.

Pior was a tire dealer and had several tire stores over the state. His brother, M. D. (Mack) Pior of Ruidoso Downs, operated one of the stores in Carlsbad for several years, and another brother, Roy Pior of Ruidoso, had operated one in Hobbs. Ben Pior also put in the first service station in Artesia, and recently Fred Cole of the First National Bank in that city recalled the early motorists appreciated free air provided for the tires on their vehicles.

Ben Pior was a veteran of World War I and was a member of the American Legion.

In his later years he bought and opened up a 14 section ranch in Colorado, known as the Holt Ranch.

He also had a ranch on the Bonito creek which he sold to Gil Peters and his son, LaMoyne in 1950. The Piors are old friends of Nora B. Pistole, formerly of Meander Drive and Artesia.

Survivors include the wife, a son, Donald of Albuquerque; a daughter, Sybil Eckman of Birmingham, Mich., and two grandchildren, Jeannie and Tony Eckman.

Preceding Mr. Pior in death were four brothers, one in Woodland, Tex.; Marshall H. Pior of Sweetwater, Tex., and Phoenix Ariz.; Garland Pior, Honey Grove, Tex., and the late C. C. Pior of Biscuit Hill, near Ruidoso Downs. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Edna King, Paonia, Colo., and Mrs. Ruth P. Brigham, Monterey Park, Calif., and the two brothers named above who live in this area.

The daughter from Michigan spent a month with her mother after coming here to attend the funeral of her father.

Mrs. Pior is spending some of her time at their summer home here. She attends the Methodist Church in Ruidoso while in this city.

Legislative Finance Committee Called 'Most Powerful'

The seven year old Interim Legislative Finance Committee (LFC) has been termed the most powerful committee in the State Legislature.

Created by the 1957 Legislature, the LFC got off to a flying start with an investigation of alleged irregularities in the operation of the office of the adjutant general and the New Mexico National Guard.

The committee found public funds had been improperly used, according to an LFC report, and recommended to the next Legislature that statutes covering vouchering of public monies be strengthened. The recommendation was adopted by the 1959 Legislature.

Many Suggestions

Since then the LFC has made literally hundreds of suggestions and reommendations, some being adopted in toto, some in part, and others ignored.

The LFC was granted broad powers to "examine the laws governing the finances and operations of departments, agencies and institutions of New Mexico and all its political subdivisions, the effect of such laws on the proper functioning of such government units, the policies and costs of governmental units as related to the laws."

In other words, if an agency requests, receives and/or spends public funds the LFC has a voice in its operations.

The LFC is composed of seven members, four from the House and three from the Senate. Three members are on the committee because of offices held in the Legislature. The chairmen of the Senate Finance Committee, the House Appropriations and Finance Committee, and the House Taxation and Revenue Committee automatically become members of the LFC.

The Speaker of the House appoints the other house members while the Senate committee's committee selects the other Senate members. All terms are for two years.

Current Members

Current members are Rep. John Mershon, D-Otero, chairman; Sen. Harold Runnels, D-Lea, vice-chairman; Reps. Stanley J. Brasher, D-Bernalillo, Bobby Mayfield, D-Dona Ana, and William Shrocengost, R-Lincoln; and Sens. Gordon Melody, D-San Miguel, and James Patton, D-Dona Ana. Both Melody and Patton were members of the first committee appointed in 1957, although Patton served as a representative from the House at that time.

The LFC does not make laws and has no power to force compliance with its wishes. All it can do is recommend but, as one capitol observer said, "A recommendation from the LFC can carry more power than a statute on the books."

QH DERBY TRIALS TO HIGHLIGHT FIRST OF 6 FOUR-DAY WEEK-ENDS

A grand total of 30 starters, making for an even three 10-horse divisions, go postward here Saturday in quest of starting spots for the $35,000-estimated Ruidoso Quarter Horse Derby.

Only the 12 fastest individually-timed finishers from the three Trials will move on to the grand finale a week from Sunday and, as usual, it would appear that Hugh Huntley's all-time money-winning champion filly, Goetta, will wind up at the head of the qualifying class.

Winner of last year's $285,000 All-American Futurity and a total of more than $207,000 in little more than a year of actual campaigning, Goetta drew the No. 1 position in the second race of the three Trials that will be programmed as the ninth, 10th and 11th races.

All three dashes will be contested over 400 yards, with each starter packing 120 pounds.

Goetta's chief opposition figures to come from Bob Weever's Levan's Question, B. M. Taylor's Go Galla Go, winner of three Texas Derbies, and Don Cannon's Miss Croton Oil. Winner of three races here, Levan's Question went on to set an unofficial 21.8 track record for 440 yards in LaMesa Park Derby Trials.

The first division of the Trials probably will find Ray Seeley's Tidy's Pleasure and W. E. Fore's That's Margie the likely candidates for post-time favoritism, each having finished stout seconds to Goetta at the meeting.

In the third and final division, Bob Weever's second ace, Big Shot Van, winner of the LaMesa Derby in 22 seconds flat, takes on such

'THE GREATEST' — The greatest quarter horse that 'ever lived!' is trainer Newt Keck's unwavering opinion of Hugh Huntley's Goetta, shown here like she was 'looking for horses' as she prepares to go postward in trials for $35,000 estimated Ruidoso Derby Saturday at Ruidoso Downs. With more than $207,000, Goetta is sports champ money-winner.

SEASON RECORDS SET IN TUESDAY SCHOOLING RACES

The juvenile quarter horses flashed intense speed in Tuesday's four schooling races here, turning in by far the fastest times of the meeting. Trainer Jerry Norwood sent Jockey Ken Chapman out to post the fastest time, :18.2, with Raffles' Passum, a Goliad, Tex. Futurity winner. Next fastest clockings were :18.4 by Dan Deal, Jr.'s Raffle Charge with Jack Wallace. Boy Weever sent Billy U. Reed, Wilbert "Big Foot" Gillum up, out to win the finale in :18.9.

Shier's and JayCees Tied For First Place In Softball League

With action entering the final week of the summer softball league at Denton Field, the possibility of a play-off to decide first place looms as Shier's and the JayCees are tied for the lead.

Should either team lose a contest in the final week a play-off will not be held, but should both Shier's and JayCees lose their final games and Foster's team picks up another victory the season could end in a three-way tie for the top spot.

In last week's games, Shier's knocked off the JayCees on Wednesday night in a tight battle, 14-12. It was the second loss for the JayCees and the win enabled the Shier's crew to move into the loop tie.

Monday night this week the JayCees bounced back after the disappointing loss and mauled C. & L. Lumber, 26-6. Tuesday night Shier's stayed in contention for the lead by dumping Foster's, 5-2.

This week Keeth Gas takes on Nob Hill Wednesday night as the final games get underway. Monday night, July 27, C. & L. goes against Foster's, Tuesday night the JayCees battle the Nob Hill squad and the final game of the season is scheduled for Wednesday night with Shier's and Keeth Gas winding up the regular season play.

STATE .30 CALIBRE MATCHES TO INAUGURATE NEW RANGE AT CAPITAN SATURDAY, SUNDAY

A newly completed rifle range three miles east of Capitan on Highway 380 will be inaugurated in full fashion this Saturday and Sunday with the opening of the New Mexico Rifle and Pistol Association's State .30 Calibre Championships.

Approximately 144 riflemen are expected for the two-day tournament with a number of military teams from all over the Southwest entered in 16 matches at the new 24-target, 1,000-yard range.

Only New Mexico residents will be eligible for the trophies in the 16 matches. If an out of state resident wins a match, he will be presented a medal for the accomplishment and the trophy for the particular match will be awarded to the New Mexico entry with the highest score.

All trophies for the 16 match tournament are floating trophies and will be kept by the individual winners for a one-year period and will be competed for next year.

The Edwin L. Mechem or Governor's Trophy will be up for grabs again this year for four-man teams of the same club and residents of New Mexico. The winning resident team will be designated as the New Mexico State Championship .30 Calibre Rifle Team.

The Governor's Trophy was installed in 1951 and has been won 11 times by the Ruidoso Gun Club. Shooting again this year for the Ruidoso Gun Club will be Tom Jones, Leck Cowden, R. H. "Coke" Hedgecoke, all of Ruidoso, and W. C. Wolf of Roswell and Grady Eldridge of Capitan.

The winner of the individual aggregate score of matches six through nine will be presented the New Mexico State Championship trophy.

Two Ruidoso men will be honored this year with trophies named in their honor in two of the matches. The R. H. Hedgecoke Trophy Match will be held Sunday in match number six and the George T. Trimble Trophy Match will be held Sunday in match number five.

Military teams on hand for the matches will be a Navy team from San Diego, Calif.; a Fourth Army team from Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.; Tinker AFB, Okla.; Ft. Carson, Colo.; Ft. Huachuca, Ariz.; Ft. Bliss, Tex.; Biggs AFB, Tex.; Manzano AFB, Sandia, and Kirtland AFB, all of Albuquerque.

In charge of the two-day matches will be Capt. Bill Stewart of LaLuz, chief range officer; Capt. J. P. Parker of Ruidoso, chief pit officer and Capt. James R. Hedgecoke, chief statistical officer.

GIANTS HOLD LEAGUE LEAD

The Little League Giants remained on top of the heap this week with five wins and four losses. The Giants moved back into the lead with a win over the Dodgers Tuesday afternoon this week at Denton Field, 13-3.

The Braves and Dodgers both have four wins and four losses, just one game behind the Giants.

Last Wednesday afternoon, July 15, the Dodgers downed the Braves in a real close contest, 8-7. Thursday the Braves bounced back to smack the Giants, 17-7. However, the Giants came back from the defeat to trounce the Dodgers Tuesday afternoon, 13-3.

The season for the Little League will continue through August 25 with the possibility of an all-star game preceding the final game.

Remember the Good Old Days . . .

1947 — Americans were back from Europe and the Pacific. Membership in the American Legion, VFW and the newly-formed AMVETS soared. Thousands of veterans went back to school, bought homes or started businesses under the GI Bill of Rights. Almost everybody did his housepainting in an old flight jacket or pair of GI khakis.

Nazi leaders stood before a Nuremberg tribunal, General George Marshall, new Secretary of State, outlined an ambitious program of aid which would heal Europe's wounds . . . In Palestine, Jews, Arabs and Britons clashed in a three-way war over the birth of a new nation . . . Mauri Rose won the Indianapolis Classic, racing along at 116.3 miles an hour . . . Ronald Coleman took an Oscar for his acting in A Double Life as did Loretta Young for The Farmers Daughter . . . Round steak was way up—76c a pound. Milk had gone to 20c a quart, butter to 81c a pound.

This cool, refreshing playground of the great Southwest, where the temperatures are ranging from the low 40's to the high 60's these days, swings into a major league schedule this week with the inauguration of Thursday racing for six consecutive weeks.

CONTENDER—Papa Ray Seeley and his son, trainer Tony Seeley, right, show off Tidy's Pleasure, which they hope can achieve monumental task of upsetting famed Goetta in trials Saturday at Ruidoso Downs for $35,000 Ruidoso Quarter Horse Derby.

In keeping with the occasion, Thursday's five and one-half furlong Apple Valley feature brings out no less than four big-league campaigners, headed by UBRR Ranch's Weldy, 1961 winner of the $50,000 Del Mar Futurity.

Also included in the field of seven are Ralph Lowe's Big Little Man, Shamel Rach's Silk Ring, and the Foster Estes-H. B. Atkinson combine's Mite Box.

Lone 3-year-old in the field, Silk Ring, a son of famed Silky Sullivan-Flower Ringa, by Alibhai, finished third in his last start at Hollywood Park and is here for a crack at the $20,000 Ruidoso Derby to be run August 23.

High weight of the field at 119 with Elbert Minchey will be Big Little Man, a 4-year-old son of Belmont Stakes winner Gallant Man, which finished unplaced in three starts at Santa Anita.

Weldy, which also campaigned the past winter at Santa Anita, likewise is scheduled to be ridden by Elbert Minchey at 117, as part of Gerald Bloss' uncoupled entry, and was most impressive first time out here July 4, when he ran a sharp second to Viva Del Rio in a brisk 47 1 seconds spin at 870 yards.

Joining Mite Box, a winner last fall at Del Mar, in completing the starting line-up for Thursday's feature will be Bobbie Campbell's Berlin, Rugged G., and Silver Peak.

Back from an "official" seven-day vacation, Kurt Minin, the up-and-coming apprentice, will be aboard Silver Peak, at 107, with Pete Moore, currently leading the riders by a comfortable margin, up on Berlin at 117; Curt Perner on Silk Ring, and Benny Roller on Rugged G., packing 111.

With racing scheduled Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday the next six weeks, first post will remain at 1:30 p.m.

Triple Feature Friday

Celebrities and fast horses galore will be in evidence here Friday when Ruidoso Downs tops its 12-race program with a triple main event.

Headed by the appearance of film star "Big John" Hamilton of "McLintock" fame, the first two features, in order of appearance, will honor Harold J. "Butch" Powers, former lieutenant governor of California and one of the Golden State's No. 1 racing enthusiasts, and Commentator Ray Winkler of KZIP radio, Amarillo.

Winding up the gala turf triple play is the six furlong Schlitz dash for 3-year-olds, with Sunland Park Derby winner Cheaper's David heading a fleet field of eight sophomores pointing for the $20,000 Ruidoso Derby to be run here Aug. 23.

Going against Cheaper's David, an impressive 1:43 mile winner here last time out, will be such hard-hitting campaigners as Dell Akin's Thinking Bonnet, Ernest St. John's Wine Cellar, Virgil Turner's Magic Brook, H. T. Smith's Oklahoma Hills, A. B. Munsey's M. Straw, Mesa Stock Farm's Squaw H., and Bud Graves' Lucky Pontotoc.

By some strange quirk of the allowance conditions for this sprint, Wine Cellar and Oklahoma Hills, both powerful winners over this popular five-eighths mile course, will share high weight of 122 pounds, three more than Cheaper's David.

Of the field of 10 named to the Ray Winkler purse, Quimby G. Demmitt's Demaco, Ralph Lowe's Open Flow and the M. R. Prestridge stable's Carbolic would appear most likely command the form player's attention.

This one, reserved for 3-and-4-year-olds, also will bring out William T. Ryan's Vantrator, W. H. Miller's Red Pic, Grantham Ranch's Bold Greek, I. N. Haddock's Hastened, J. E. Kuykendall's Dusky Dall, Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Leonard's Jolly Klay, and the Otho Cox's Izayolgirl.

The "Butch" Powers sprint will bring together such rugged warriors as Gulf Gate, Dusty Dan, Abbanally, Midnight Prowler, Regular Lady, and Little Heel. Powers, now out of the political limelight, but still instrumental in the California racing picture, will be accompanied here by Harrison Cutler, director of racing at the California State Fair, and quarter horse addicts Monroe Brown and Spencer Childers.

Racing Secretary Edgar "Red" Neal this mid-week told the Ruidoso News that, in all probability, Sunday's feature race, honoring film star "Big John" Hamilton, would attract a high calibre field of thoroughbreds going seven and one-half furlongs.

Fashioned for 3-year-olds and up under allowance conditions, it is possible that the "Big John" Hamilton, honorin tghe San Antonian for his portrayal of "Fauntleroy" in the hilarious western comedy, would attract such top thoroughbreds as Mom For Sure, Better Eye, Divine Flo, Quick Mist, Mired, Texas Bloc; and, possibly, the rejuvinated grey ghost, Jungle Dancer, first and only race horse ever owned by Phil and Dorothy McLaughlin of Phoenix.

Until after the entry box is closed, the one thing for sure about Sunday's 12-race program is that first post again will be 1:30 p.m.

WHITED BROTHERS CO-JOCKEYS O' WEEK

The riding Whited brothers—David and Danny—are such fierce competitors that they're killing their chances of collaring Pete Moore, who still leads the jockeys here with 44 winners at the 31-day halfway mark of Ruidoso Downs' 62-day meeting.

Nevertheless, both David and Danny (that's D. W.), rode with such gusto last week that they were named to a "dead heat" for "Jockey of The Week" honors. The elder, David, at 22, won four races, finished second three times and third twice, while young Danny, 20, notched five winners, two seconds and three thirds. Both were born in Houston, Tex.

Among the trainers, Joe H. Wade continues to cling to the lead with 14 winners, but the race is tightening up with the trio of Jim Curry, Paul Smith and Jake Cascio deadlocked for second at 12 winners each.

ROCK WALL FOR MUSEUM—Frankie Silva, left, and son, Frankie, Capitan are shown working on a wall around the front lawn of the Smokey Bear museum in Capitan. The men are volunteering their services and the colorful rock for the beautification job.

SMOKEY GETS A COMPANION—Smokey Bear in the Smokey Bear museum in Capitan has a companion, a tiger carved in wood and given to the Capitan High School for use in boosting the Tiger athletic teams of that school by Harry Whipple of Chaparral Hotel here. The tiger was carved and painted on order for use in the Humble Enco convention staged here in April to emphasize the company's advertising campaign of 'Tiger in your gas tank.' The tiger will remain in the museum until school opens this fall when it will be taken to the high school building. It was transported to Capitan gratis by The Ruidoso News Jeep last week.

MRS. H. H. (THEDA) SHIER

Orchids For Winning Oat Burners Supplied On Order By Local Florist

By BILL CLARK
(Ruidoso Downs Publicity Staff)

If race horses were like Ferdinand "the bull," they'd never make it to the winner's circle.

But fortunately they don't stop to smell the pretty flowers . . . they just run their legs off to bag the bouquets.

Now you ask, where do these flowers come from? Well, as far as Ruidoso Downs is concerned, Mrs. Theda Shier is the No. 1 doll in this department.

She supplies all the floral horseshoes and other beauteous buds that go to doll up the victor in the charmed enclosure reserved for steeds with superior speed.

This may sound like a routine operation to the average racing fan, but the work involved in adding to the splendor of the occasion sometimes has Theda working as much as 36 straight hours, without even a coffee break.

Now the inquisitive may ask again, who so and where do these flowers, in most cases, roses, come from? Well, just picture the width of the continental United States and you score a bingo--Mrs. Shier has flowers delivered to her Shier's shopping center headquarters from Florida, Washington and Denver, Colo.

"I never made a bouquet in my life 'til we came to Ruidoso about 14 years ago," said Theda. "In fact, the first couple of years I dealt merely in the sale of cut flowers, mostly for such occasions as Easter and corsages for junior and senior proms."

Theda estimated that a 36-inch floral horseshoe which requires some 200 roses, six white orchids, and several hours work, would cost about $150.00.

Besides doing business with the race track, Theda supplies flowers for such occasions as funerals and conventions. "They really had me hopping at two conventions here last month," she recalls. "For the bankers' convention alone, they ordered a grand total of 300 orchid corsages for their fair ladies."

The business more than pays its way, being situated smack-dab up against her hubby, H. H. Shier's, thriving pharmaceutical parlor. And it's a good bet that it will continue, since the Shiers, proud parents of five daughters, confide that three of them, Patricia, 18, Marta 15, and Linda 16, are well on their way to following in Theda's footsteps.

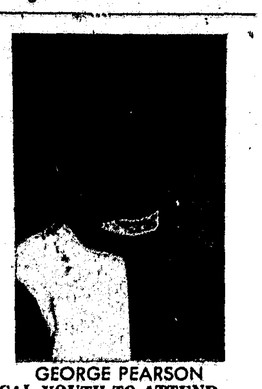
NOMINATED FOR OFFICE

Nominated as a candidate for director in the West Texas-New Mexico Floral Association is Mrs. H. H. Shier of Ruidoso Downs, operator of Theda's Flowers & Gifts on U. S. Highway 70. She and her daughters are to attend the convention of the association in Midland in mid-August when the election takes place.



GEORGE PEARSON

LOCAL YOUTH TO ATTEND NATIONAL CONVOCATION AT PURDUE UNIVERSITY

George Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Pearson, will leave Sunday to attend the National Convocation of Methodist Youth at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Ind. There will be 32 boys and girls attending from various points of New Mexico. The Rev. B. A. Justice, Socorro, New Mexico Conference Youth Director, and Mr. and Mrs. Farris McDermaid, Alamogordo, will be the counselors. A chartered bus will leave from El Paso and pick up the delegates in El Paso, Carlsbad, Artesia, Roswell, Clovis and Oklahoma City. They will return on Aug. 3.

Theme for the convocation is "God Is Love". The week of worship and training will be attended by approximately 5,000 youths.

'Big John' Hamilton To Attend Races Friday This Week

If a Southwestern seismograph should register a mild tremor in the vicinity of Ruidoso Downs this week-end, don't be alarmed friends.

It'll only be "Big John" Hamilton the mammoth film star with a castiron jaw, invading this pari-mutuel playground Friday as guest of honor for the week-end racing, featuring Saturday's Trials for the $35,000 Ruidoso Quarter Horse Derby.

For those who may have missed it, "Big John" turned in one of the hit performances of "McLintock," starring chums John Wayne and Chill Wills. Considering his part called for him to play the role of a "good guy" with the unlikely name of Fauntleroy, Hamilton, in fact, displayed more tenacity absorbing a punch than Sonny Liston, as Wayne's son, Pat, belted him on the choppers no less than six times without knocking a hair or whisker out of place.

With one swooping roundhouse right, "Big John" then put young Pat Wayne down "for the count" as one of the highlights of one of the most hilarious western hits ever filmed.

In addition to "McLintock," Hamilton also has enacted major roles in such other box-office triumphs as "The Alamo," "The Two Rode Together," "The Deadly Companion," etc., plus appearing in "Bonanza" and with Jim Arness in "Gunsmoke" on television.

Though his work demands much of his time be spent in Hollywood, Hamilton enjoys relaxing, whenever possible, in his palatial mansion in San Antonio, where he is widely known as the master of "Big John's Steak and Oyster Bar."

He also wants it to be known, gals, that "I'm an eligible bachelor!"
