—By Nosey Waters—

Lana Jordan, who graduated from Amphi High in Tucson this spring, has lost her class ring somewhere in Ruidoso. It has a blue stone, and has her initials inside and the seal of the school for its design. Miss Jordan, making her home here this summer, is enrolling in the University of Arizona at Tucson this fall . . . We have seen advance proofs of a magnificent four-color brochure to advertise the Chaparral Motor Hotel and to be printed this summer for use in going after conventions. Recreation in the area, such as horse racing, skiing, golfing, swimming, horseback riding, etc., are pictured in vivid color, along with the hotel's facilities. Another brochure, in duotone, is also being distributed now—a smaller version of the one described above . . . The Chaparral is seeking a Young Life Group convention here during the college semester breaks around year's end that may bring as many as 600 young people here from New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas schools, John Sainato of the Chaparral said . . . William Burge, 55, owner of the Chatterbox Bar in Albuquerque, slain by an armed robber in the early morning hours one day last week-end, is the same Burge who has some ponies running here at Ruidoso Downs in years past, we hear . . .

The Rev. Harvey Calsbeek, formerly pastor of the Reformed Church at Mescalero, and now at Jicarilla Apache church near Dulce, has been given a scholarship by his church to attend a summer school of alcohol studies, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J. The course he will take will be on pastoral counseling with alcoholics and their families . . . Mrs. Rex Whiteley, the News' bookkeper, says she saw a crew of roof repairmen unload materials and make ready to patch a hail-damaged roof in her neighborhood recently. Just in the nick of time, someone drove up and told them they were a couple of houses from the residence that was to be repaired, so they had to take the bulk roofing material and equipment off the roof and move to the correct site.

Work began last week on excavation of the large Indian mound at Gran Quivira National Monument. Planned for several years, the project is finally being realized through appropriations granted by Congress for the 1966 fiscal year which began July 1. On July 6, Supervisory Archeologist Alden C. Hayes was transferred to Gran Quivira to take charge of the work. He and Mrs. Hayes have lived at Mesa Verde National Park for the past seven years where Al was engaged in the excavation and stabilization of the cliff ruins on Wetherill Mesa. Archer W. Stewart has transferred from Canyon de Chelly National Monument, Ariz., to be Hayes' assistant. July 15 and 16, Carl Degen, chief of the branch of Motion Pictures and Audiovisual Services, in the National Park Service's headquarters in Washington, and photographer Tom Gray, also of Washington took motion and still pictures depicting the mound before excavation work had started. Visitors are welcome to view the excavation work while it is going on but must be accompanied by a ranger. Actual work is taking place Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. . . .

1,883 Acres of Forest Up For Swap In Area

Approximately 1,883 acres in the Ruidoso District of the Lincoln National Forest is involved in the exchange of Forest Service land for the Canon de San Diego Grant near the Santa Fe National Forest, B. H. "Bud" Starkey, Ruidoso Ranger, reported last Saturday. Transfer of the tracts here, located in Flume, Perk and Gavilan Canyons, also Cherokee Bill and a tract near the Ruidoso Downs race track and one behind Pinecliff Addition to the Village of Ruidoso, will revert to private ownership when the exchange is completed, Starkey said. Other parcels of land involved in the exchange under the Forest Service's Land Ownership Adjustment Plan are located within the Carson, Cibola, Gila, Lincoln and Santa Fe National Forests, Zane Smith, assistant regional forester for lands and recreation, reported from Albuquerque.

ROAD AID FUNDS ALLOCATED

The Village of Ruidoso has qualified for $3,267 under Public Law 875 for federal funds for debris clean-up and natural disaster from the June flood damages to areas of Hull Road and Paradise Canyon, Village Manager-Clerk Jim Hine announced this week.

The Village of Ruidoso Downs has qualified for $53,000 in such funds from the Federal Office of Emergency Planning under PL 875 for repair of damage to streets, a bridge at Spaghetti Flats and repair of damage to Ruidoso Downs water system by June floods.

Lincoln County, outside the two villages, qualified for emergency O. E. P. funds of $105,589 for repair and rebuilding of about 45 miles of county roads, the rebuilding of eight bridges and two concrete overflows, Max Oliver, Lincoln County Commission chairman, announced this week.

Oliver said that Fred Saltero of the Bureau of Public Roads and Pat Burns of the New Mexico State Highway Department assisted with estimates made to repair last June's flood damages in Lincoln County.

Approximately one-half of the road repair work in the county has been completed strictly with federal funds and without the county road department participating in the project in any way, Oliver said. Priority for the force account work on both bridges and roads is being given to school bus routes, Oliver reported.

Merchants Hit By Check Writers

Local merchants are suffering considerable losses from bad checks, Deputy Clyde Atwood reported here early this week.

He said losses have ranged as high as $125 for some stores.

Dan Cal Guthrie was sentenced to 15 days in jail on writing checks that totaled up to $300, passing them to five or six stores here, Deputy Atwood said. Atwood made the arrest.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is holding a man in Boulder City, Nev., who has used half a dozen aliases in writing bad checks. Names used included Robert L.Ische, Robert Bitz, Thomas Driscoll, Robert Snider, and others. Stores hit included Brunell's, for $125; Whispering Pine, for $75 and $125, and H. & J. Food Basket for $57. The man is reportedly a federal parole violator and is wanted on the Dyer act for auto theft, Atwood said.

Michael Pendergrass is being sought for cashing worthless checks here, one of them for rental of a Suzuki motorcycle on which he rode out of town. He is reported to be from Summerton, Ariz., Atwood said. He wrote a check for a 357 Colt Chrome Magnum at Gambles, wrote a check at Gateway Motel and to the motorcycle agency Atwood said.

News Publishers Buy Equipment Of Contract Printer

Negotiations were completed this week for the purchase of a press, two typesetting machines and some minor equipment owned by Eddie Siddens for use in his contract printing of the Ruidoso News, by the editors and publishers, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Lamb. Siddens bought the contract printing here from C. W. Miller, who moved the first newspaper press and linotype machine to Ruidoso more than 13 years ago. Siddens purchased Miller's interest in 1961 and had replaced almost all of the original equipment. The machinery the Lambs are buying, combined with a large amount that has also been accumulated by the Lambs, gives Ruidoso the most modernly equipped weekly newspaper shops in New Mexico.

Helicopter Crash Lands

The helicopter which has been based here for several weeks, operated by United Helicopters, Inc. of O'Donnell, Tex., was damaged severely when it landed a few hundred yards from the airport at Sholow, Ariz. Friday. It was approaching for a landing when the machine plummeted to earth.

Piloted by Dick Turley, the "chopper" was being flown to Nevada where it was announced the company had a three month contract with the U. S. Forest Service during the fire season there. First reports were that the machine ran out of gas, but investigation of the wreckage by owner Ralph Gary and the pilot revealed there was gas in the carburetor, in fuelines and tank. Ruidoso airport personnel said it was determined. Cause of the wreck was still being sought early this week. The pilot received only minor bruises in the wreck, it was reported here.

Slight damage to the craft was reported recently near Santa Fe where Turley was flying the machine for a motion picture producing company to assist in making a new picture in that area. The helicopter struck the ground too hard as it landed at one time, it was reported.

A LEGEND OF BILLY THE KID

The Great Broad Jumper

By DANIEL A. STORM

I wish I had listened a lot more to the old timers who knew Billy the Kid. There were quite a few still with us back in my youth when I first came into the Ruidoso valley.

As the years go by, new stories have a way of appearing like flowers on the hillside. This is easy to understand, because even the next day, after something happens, everybody has a little different story.

As the story goes on and on through time it grows, and from time to time little stories fly off from it like sparks from a shooting star.

One thing you used to hear over and over about The Kid is how light on his feet he was—how he was always jumping over things, and up onto things.

When I brought this up to my old friend Don Severo Gallegos, he said, "Oh, he could jump anywhere."

You would hear tell, back when there was just a little dirt road here winding up the vale, and the Fox Cave didn't have all those nice windows on the front of it and not quite as many curios inside — (They say the Kid used to hide out here in the cave, horse and all)— back in those days, I say, you would hear that the Kid, always laughing himself and always trying to get everybody else to laugh,

Take It Whether You Want It or Not . . .

An article by Judy Nickell in the Albuquerque Tribune makes our blood boil. She reports that Federal anti-poverty programs approved for Albuquerque are getting more money than they ask for—nearly $125,000.00 so far. It's a case of take it and toss it around whether you can use it or not. Such an attitude devalues our dollar by belittling its worth. It certainly must be soul-chilling to be working men and women who see from $2 to $8 to $20 or more per week withheld from paychecks to be thrown at some of the recipients like confetti at a carnival by our slap-happy spend-spend-spend bureaucrats.

Here is the report she wrote—and we are wondering IS THIS HAPPENING IN OTHER CITIES OF SIMILAR SIZE:

"Federal anti-poverty programs approved for Albuquerque are getting more money than they ask for—nearly $125,000 more so far.

"Of six programs already 'funded', four have been granted more than was requested. One was more than doubled because the federal anti-poverty office thought it was 'such a good idea.'

"Total asked for was $1,476,641. Total approved so far is $1,591,356.

"Here are figures for the six programs already approved for Albuquerque:

A Barelas - University of New Mexico program to teach youngsters to repair their homes asked for $9,000 but was granted $18,132 'because it was such a good idea.'

"The city's Neighborhood Youth Corps was granted $378,835, but had asked for $367,000. The additional $11,835 is for a project director.

'Albuquerque Public Schools had asked for $52,172 for a Neighborhood Youth Corps, but was asked to revise the figures in order to pay youngsters the federal minimum of $1.25 an hour. APS received $87,610.

"The State Department of Public Welfare asked for $874,469 for a training program for Bernalillo County and has been granted $926,400.

"The only proposal which appears to have been pared down in Washington is for the operation of the Economic Board Office here. The board had asked for $34,000 and received $30,600.

"And the only program which appears to have been granted just what it asked for is the Albuquerque Public School's Project Head Start. It asked for, and is getting, $149,779."

If the same increase in funds on projects is being experienced in other places, as had happened in Albuquerque, God help the United States. Money handed out in such buckets full just for the spending of it will never build our country, it will wreck it—and wreck it fast—killing initiative, ambition and the NEED for work with so much loot available for grasping hands. Who can we protest to who will put the brakes on such idiocy. No need to write your Congressman, he stopped heeding your letters long, long ago!

Reading the editor's remarks above, Newsman Dick Bennett added these observations:

"Have we lost sight of the formula that excited individual initiative and caused a handful of freedom loving people to build here, in less than 200 years, the greatest nation in the world? Was it a Federal anti-poverty give-away program that built this country? Do we now encourage thrift and industry in our children by giving them twice the allowance they figure they need or can spend? that seems to be the practice in some communities where Federal anti-poverty projects have been approved for more than twice the money asked for!"

We Owe A Debt of Gratitude . . .

The oldtimers of Ruidoso, of course, do remember, but maybe once in awhile they overlook this debt. It's the gift that Ruidoso people are enjoying in many ways—the gift of considerable valuable acreage to the Village by one of our pioneer real estate concerns—White Mountain Development Co.

With the late George McCarty, the late D. B. Morgan and Joe Palmer of the land firm making the offer—White Mountain Development Co. early in its inception realized Ruidoso's needs, and knew of the lack of funds the little community had for acquiring land for important community necessities—so it gave at no cost a large tract in the eastern part of town for a school 15 years ago. The Ruidosoans who sought the land for a high school thought they were being somewhat greedy in asking for what they did when it was offered them—but now we know it wasn't enough. Suffice to say, however, the White Mountain Development people did make the offer, and it was accepted—land that is now valued in the hundreds of thousands of dollars. The same occured about 15 years ago when the village needed an airport site. This time 155 acres were given for an airport, and the land the airport is now on is worth a very sizable fortune.

When the school system again needed a large tract for a new school complex, the company once more exercised philanthropy by selling a large acreage at a price far below the going price for land of similar nature in the same vicinity last year.

These gifts and savings to the community need be recalled by all of us, and also need to be known by some of our many new people who perhaps have never heard of the fine generosities. We say thanks, once again, to White Mountain Development Co. on behalf of our citizens.

The Ruidoso Lions Club this week agreed to get behind the drive to get work started on a $300,000 municipal water system. The club voted to take over the job of getting Ruidoso property owners to sign a water use agreement with the village. A. J. Oates, acting engineer, outlined plans for the new water system. The present village water system is privately owned and is being leased from the owner, D. B. Morgan.

Only a limited response had been noted this week to an appeal by Chamber of Commerce directors to all businessmen in Ruidoso to join the chamber and help boost the resort. About 65 individuals and firms have joined so far among 205 businesses listed in the canyon.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

July 20, 1965
754 Notre Dame
Grosse Pointe City, Mich.

Dear Vic,

This letter has been long coming because I haven't been able to sit up long enough to get it written. Now, my health is returning and the first thing I want to do is inform the people of Ruidoso of the great wealth that has been bestowed upon me. Most people live a lifetime and never acquire a great fortune. Few are as lucky as I am.

Were it possible today, I would make a will, leaving each of you an inheritance of a portion of what I have received. This is not possible, for my great wealth does not consist of money or material goods. Rather it lies in the unexpected love, generosity and acts of kindness of my neighbors. How does one repay love? Were there a price tag on love, I might work hard until my debt dwindled into nothingness. As it is, the only way to repay love, is with love, and I will have a difficult time balancing the books with the amount I have to give. All I can promise is that I will try to give back this great gift, to the best of my ability.

Since I will have much time on my hands during the recuperation period following this surgery, I will attempt to write a thank you to all individuals, churches and civic organizations who have aided me in these days of my illness. However, an ordinary thank you seems so inadequate.

As I sit here, I am looking out at the loveliness of my aunt's backyard. The yard is protected by a link chain fence and it rather symbolizes life for me. The yard in its loveliness is life, and the links in the chain are people. Right now, I am one of the weak links in the chain, but as long as the strong links take the extra stress and hold fast the fence will stand and the yard will maintain its loveliness. In a few more months I should be a strong link again and I hope I will be able to bear the stress for some of you, who may need help. Thank you and God bless you all.

Sincerely,
Mary Gieche

Brain Hemorrhage Said Cause of Death

Heraldo Modesto Chavez, 42 who was found dead in the yard of his home at San Patricio Monday evening at about 8:30 p.m. by a son, Heraldo, Jr., died from effects of a brain hemorrhage it was revealed by an autopsy ordered by a coroner's jury. The jury, summoned by Justice of the Peace Alton Gray of Ruidoso Downs, decided to withhold a verdict until an autopsy was performed. Members of the jury heard that Chavez had been involved in a family argument shortly before he was found dead.

The autopsy showed no external injuries, Sheriff Leandro Vega, who investigated the death, said this mid-week.

Chavez is survived by his wife, Eva Mae, who works at Jack's Waffle Shop in Ruidoso Downs, and eight children, Mrs. Alice Romero, Rosemary, Harold, Jr., Anna Mae, Richard, Jimmie, Betty and Lucy.

Rosary services were held Wednesday in St. Eleanor's Catholic Church in Ruidoso with funeral mass on Thursday morning, followed by burial in Hondo cemetery.

TO VIET NAM

Douglas Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bradley of Carrizozo and Hondo, has been ordered to Saigon in Viet Nam where, as a medical corpsman, he will be working in a large military hospital. He has been at William Beaumont General Hospital at El Paso, but was shipped out this week. He had been in Germany, returning earlier this year. Re-enlisting, he has been assigned to the police action theatre in the Far East.

FARWELL COUPLE BUYS HOME HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Levins of Farwell, Tex., have purchased the Robert Pearson residence in the north part of Ruidoso and will be moving here in September to make their home. The Pearsons are moving to Santa Fe then. The Levins are parents of Mrs. Sidney Miller here.

IN COURT—A few of the two dozen persons some of whom faced charges of gambling, vagrancy, contributing to delinquency of a minor, bootlegging, are shown in courtroom appearing before Justice of the Peace Alton Gray at Ruidoso Downs shortly after midnight Saturday. Bonds ranging from $50 to $1,750 were set for individuals charged after gambling and bootlegging was discovered in progress at two residences in that community.

BOOTLEG STOCK—Officers, raiding a house in Ruidoso Downs midnight Saturday, brought in this stock of beer and whiskey found where gambling was in progress. Two dozen persons were arrested and charged with a variety of infractions.

BILLY THE KID LEGEND—

would come walking up to a yard gate. He would be loaded down with maybe two cartridge belts of ammunition, rifle and pistol; and instead of opening the gate, would jump over, boots, spurs and all.

When it comes to this jumping business, I know it is possible for there to be fellows like that because I used to know one when I was in the Army. Torger Tockle, the great Norwegian ski jumper. Think back over the people you have known who were light on their feet. Does it seem to you that these folks are also light in their hearts? Torger Tokle was what they call a morale builder. We all loved this boy, and some day I would like to tell you a little something about this lad, so brave and so kind.

But what I started to tell you about the Kid—You see, there are three kinds of stories: True stories, stories half true and half made up, and the imaginary story built up tall from a little fact for a foundation. This last we call a legend.

So this is a little legend of the Kid.

When the Kid was imprisoned in the old court house, in irons, guarded by two guards armed to the teeth, the story goes that one of his guards, Bell, used to take him out once a day for exercise. Leaving the leg irons and the handcuffs on would give him that much more exercise so Bell didn't bother to take them off.

The soldiers at Fort Stanton used to come over at this exercise time to get a look at the famous gun man.

One day four or five soldiers came over, young fellows, and called out to Bell:

"Hey, we want to see the Kid."

"It's not time for his exercise," said Bell.

After the soldiers begged and wheedled Bell, he finally said, "Well, all right . . ."

So when the Kid appeared at the door on the ground floor, one of the soldiers hollered to the Kid, "Hey, Kid, let's see how far you can jump with them irons on."

The Kid, his good humor never failing, smiled his famous smile, "Fellows," he said, "I'll bet I can beat any of you fellows broad jumping, just like I am."

Bell agreed to the contest and the money was put up. The Kid took the soldiers on one at a time, losing every time, falling all over himself, keeping the soldiers in an uproar of laughing.

Bell, bored to tears with his job to begin with, turned to the side leaning against the fence leaving the ridiculous contest to itself for the moment. The Kid's ever watchful eye noticed that Bell's pistol was at just about the right angle from the holster. Could he make it? His heart, for all his steel cold nerve, pounded against his ribs.

Was this his "chance in a million"?

With the hooting and jeering of the soldiers ringing his ears, the Kid, under the disguise of a wide grin, gathered together every last ounce of his strength. Calling upon every muscle in his lithe body he made the broad jump of his life.

There was a clank of irons, a little cloud of dust. The flying tackle had just barely worked, and the soldiers stood petrified as they saw Bell, his face white as a sheet looking down the muzzle of his own pistol. Behind it as he half lay on the ground grinned the Kid—a different kind of grin.

What must the Kid have said? Maybe something like: "Well, Bell, you better do like I say—unless you are tired of living . . ."

But this, as we say, is only legend. Come over to the show August 7 and 8 and see how it really happened.

Art Show Set For Aspencade

The Lincoln County Art Association members meeting last Friday night at the Chaparral Motor Hotel, voted unanimously to hold an Art Show during the 1965 Ruidoso Aspencade. Approximately 40 members of the association were present for the Friday meeting which discussed the possibility of offering larger cash prizes for the Aspencade Art Show to encourage presentation of a higher quality of exhibits this fall.

In other business matters, association president David Travis received approval to mail mimeograph material to the membership announcing meetings and programs. Travis also appointed a nominating committee to select a slate of association officers for the coming year. Named to the committee were: Mrs. Kathryne Hall Travis, chairman, Bill Goff, Mrs. Dave Bonnell, Mrs. E. C. Erickson and Tom Loudon. RAINBOW DERBY SUNDAY; VISIT BY STARS, THOROBRED FUTURITY TRIALS ON TAP IN ACTION-PACKED WEEK-END AT DOWNS

SPORTS

A merry four-day week-end, headed by Sunday's inaugural running of the $175,000 Ruidoso Rainbow Derby, Friday's Trials for the $100,000-estimated Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity, and no less than two dozen leading contenders for the $350,000 All-American Futurity, gets underway here Thursday.

Also in attendance to help whoop it up will be such distinguished stars of television and motion pictures as Big John Hamilton, one of John Wayne's bruising buddies in "McLintock," Glenn Corbett, who plays the role of Linc Case in TV's "Route 66," and Bert Reynolds, who plays Quint Asper in "Gunsmoke."

Headlining Thursday's card will be the appearance of Albuquerque wrestling impressario Mike London, who will assist in the winner's circle honors following a well-matched 6-furlong feature headed by Noble Music, King of River, Colonel Quill, Lucky Pontotoc, Wapell, Mark K., King Noor, Que Maravilla, and Andrew, a first-time starter at the meeting.

Among the best of All-American and Rainbow Futurity candidates entered in important dashes Thursday are Savannah Jr., Baby Gain, Explosion, Bartura, Cape Canaveral, Cookies Gay Way, Suwanee Bars, Suleo's Rocket, Third Charge, Ace Hi Hank, Camptown Boy, Thor Rocket, Noorfella, Hubba Bar, Silver D'Bar, Be Sure Peggy, Gigi's Breeze, Mr. Bolero Bars, and so on.

Approximately four Trials are expected to be necessary Friday to determine the starting field for the rich Thoroughbred Futurity to be run Sunday, Aug. 8.

First post Thursday and each day this week-end will be at 1:30 p.m., with daily double play being offered on the first two races, quiniela wagering on the fifth and 12th, and the fabulous "Big Q" that has been paying off in jackpot figures on the eighth and ninth races.

When Racing Secretary Wes Meyers scanned the electric timer down to 1/100ths of a second, Owners Helen Mathieson of Las Vegas, N. M., and Clarence Scharbauer, Jr., of Midland, Tex., came up "seeing double".

Each qualified a pair of finalists for Sunday's $175,000 inaugural running of the Ruidoso Rainbow Derby, the Mathieson stable getting slightly the best of it by winning two of the three Trials with Bar Tawny, fastest of all qualifiers at 20.18 for the 400 yards, and Merry Go, fourth fastest at 20.28.

(See list of official starters in Derby elsewhere in today's sports section.)

Ironically, the Scharbauers did not win a Trial, but Double Snooper was fifth fastest qualifier at 20.30, finishing second to Go Josie Go, and Double Queen eighth fastest at 20.44 for her third-place finish to Merry Go.

Go Josie Go, winner of nine of 12 starts this year, accounted for the other Trial for A. O. Phillips of Dallas, Tex., in 20.26 to be fourth fastest qualifier behind Hugh Huntley's Nippy Bars, 20.23, runner-up to Bar Tawny.

1,000 Pounds of Fish Planted In Area

Charles Cockerell, conservationist with New Mexico State Game and Fish Department, announced this week that 1,000 pounds of catchable fish were planted last week in Bonito Lake, Rio Ruidoso and Alto Reservoir.

Cockerell also announced that during this time of year there are many fawns in the forest here that are now-born and quite tame. Cockerell warned that the baby deer should not be handled or taken from where they may be found. "They should be left alone," he said, "it is a violation of the law to try to remove a fawn or to take it as a pet."

Cockerell stated that applications are now available for big game hunting permits in New Mexico including antelope and also general bull elk. Cockerell said that special applications for antelope and anterless elk have to be filed with the State Game and Fish Department in Santa Fe prior to Aug. 9.

TRIES TO FIND LINE—Tommy Choate, local plumber, seems to be trying to find the line on this short putt or maybe he's hoping he can blow the ball in the hole. A number of local golfers are practicing for the annual Cree Meadows Invitational Tournament starting Monday and running through Thursday. A field of 160 golfers is expected for the popular tournament and most of the players entered are from Texas.

CREE MEADOWS TOURNAMENT SET FOUR DAYS NEXT WEEK

The annual Cree Meadows Invitational Golf Tournament will begin Monday next week with qualifying rounds and continue through Thursday with matches in nine flights.

After the qualifying rounds Monday the players will be paired for matches to begin Tuesday morning. The championship through the fifth flights are to be 18-hole matches while the sixth through the ninth flights will be nine hole matches, it has been announced by Stormy Edwards of Cree Meadows golf course.

Ninety players have already entered the tournament and nearly 160 are expected to enter before Monday. Tournament activities will include a dinner and calcutta pool after Monday's qualifying round.

The tournament, which is considered to be one of the finest in this area of New Mexico, is expected to be another outstanding event as the field of championship flight golfers continue to enter as tourney time nears. Last year's winner, Don Wilson of Mineral Wells, Tex., will not enter the '65 tourney. The popular golfer has turned to the pro circuit. Another outstanding golfer, Tommy Hornbuckle of Albuquerque also will not enter due to turning professional.

Top flight golfers already entered are Leon Anderson, Hobbs; Jack Williams, Plainview, Tex.; John Kuykendall, Odessa, Tex.; Graham Mackey, Midland, Tex.; Charles Edwards, Lancaster, Tex.; George Marsh, Jr., Austin, Tex.; Walter Howell, Clovis, and Ralph Petty and LeRoy Gooch of Ruidoso. Williams was the winner of the tourney in 1963.

Besides golfers from New Mexico and Texas, the entry list also includes players from Oklahoma, Arizona and Louisiana, Edwards said.

The Ruidoso Lions Club will serve the dinner Monday night at the club house and the public is invited to attend the feed. On the menu for the dinner is chicken fried steak prepared by the Lions. Wives of the golfers will be treated to a cocktail party Wednesday afternoon at the Win, Place & Show, it has been announced.

Sports Sputs

Debbie Skau, niece of Mrs. Olma Newton of Ruidoso, who lives in Seattle, Wash., will compete against the U. S. Olympic ice skating team early in August. The 13-year-old girl has hopes of being on an Olympic team someday, Mrs. Newton said, and the competition now will help prepare the youngster for competition in coming years. Several of the skating events in which she will participate, will be held in Canada, it was reported. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Skau.

RAINBOW DERBY—

the Southwest will battle it out here Friday in five Trials destined to determine the 12 qualifiers for the $100,000-estimated Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity.

The Trials will be run as the seventh through the 11th races on Friday's 12-race card, with only the first two finishers in each division guaranteed starting spots in the gigantic jackpot finale scheduled to be run a week from Sunday.

For the five third-place finishers, spots will be reserved on the also-eligible list for the Futurity championship over six furlongs, won the past two years by Trainer Jimmy Martin and Bill Ringsby's Golden Horseshoe Stable from Denver with Ringsby Rocket and Noble Music.

This time, Martin says "it don't look like my year." The combine best prospect, royally-bred Bald Native (by Bald Eagle-Jig, by Native Dancer) can't seem to get the idea of the game yet, and was not entered in the Trials.

Instead, they will be represented only by Jibble, a King Hairan filly that encountered ill racing luck on the stretch turn in her only start here.

So while the odds against this "poor man's Calumet Farm" combine figure about 1,000-1 against repeating, there is no lack of highly-regarded juveniles ready to take over for scores of other hopeful owners.

Among those that have shown the most with victories over the track are Anavacho Ranch's Shim Sham, the Walter Cluer's Ranagong, Carl Mercer's Do It Shawod, Bill Hedge's Sallicaw, Ed and Vallotta Wood's Patsy Shiprone, Joe Bassett's Velvet Bars, Georgine Redman's Clem's Alibi, Clinton and George Coons' Boot Jack, Bill Barnett's Gold Agua, Ralph Feffer's Akaking, and, perhaps, the new champion, Alan Antwell's and Damon Pollard's Disturbing Music. The latter has been one of the most impressive young winners at the meeting.

Altho the winner's circle has eluded them here, such others as Bill Addington's Car Top, D. B. Paul's Bold Rage, William Boyle's La Dinero and Terry Copenhaver's twosome of Slick Phillips and Low Tension, the latter to be ridden by Merlin Volzke, must be considered more insiders than outsiders.

THREE HORSE SPILL SEEN AT RUIDOSO

A spectacular three horse spill at the beginning of the first race Sunday at Ruidoso Downs race track resulted in only minor injuries to the jockeys.

O. Cromar and Jimmy J. fell when caught in close quarters on the stretch turn. Rodwy's Roll also stumbled and went down.

Jose Benitez, aboard O. Cromar, and Ignacio Madrid, aboard Jimmy J., escaped with only minor injuries.

Down At The DOWNS

By BILL CLARK

The parade of celebrities will be something to behold this week-end at Ruidoso Downs.

And in case they are better known by their motion picture and television roles, they will be Linc Case of "Route 66," Fauntleroy of "McClintock" fame, and Trampas of "The Virginian."

In real life, they file their income tax returns under the names of Glenn Corbett (Linc Case), Big John Hamilton (Fauntleroy) and Doug McClure (Trampas).

The trio, which will be on hand the entire week-end, starting with Thursday's racing, heads a long list of celebrated guests to follow, including Chill Wills, Charley Weaver, Jim Arness and Robert Mitchum.

An 18-year-old Spicewood, Tex. rider named Johnny Lee Cox made short work of clinching "Jockey of the Week" honors for the past week-end of Ruidoso Downs' 60-day summer race meeting.

The 114-pound, 5-5 Cox ripped off a three-bagger Thursday, four more winners in a row Friday, two Saturday for a grand total of 9 in 29 mounds that vaulted him high into the jockey standings.

Jocker-Trainer standings after 32 days of racing follow, with mounts and starts noted followed by 1st, 2nd and 3rd placings:

Larry Byers, 264-34-35-41; D. W. Whited, 228-29-20-32; Bill Rock, 144-26-21-18; Johnny Cox, 151-25-23-18; Elbert Minchey, 206-24-27-22; Lowell Kreider, 103-23-18-21; Pete Moore 180-19-29-20; Gene Brittain, 82-15-4-14; Curt Perner, 121-14-9-11; Richard Lidberg, 125-12-13-16.

Trainers—Bob Arnett, 124-24-20-17; Joe Wade, 85-20-13-14; Gerald Bloss, 69-20-7-14, Carl Wooten, 108-19-16-15; Ike Danley, 57-16-18-6; Ray Seeley, 112-13-19-14; Jake Cascio, 102-13-101-5; Bill Thompson, 93-13-15-18; Paul Smith, 117-13-12-20; Robert Cuff, 112-11-14-7.

Trainer C. L. Madden sent Call Me Bright out to win Tuesday's fastest schooling race with Jockey J. N. Orr in :16.1 for 300 yards over a slightly mushy track. Lin Howard, Jr.'s Noorfella, John "Beta Million" Kanis up, won in :16.4, and Bright Bardee completed a double for Maddon and Orr in another :16.2.

Bright Bardee is compiling quite an illustrious schooling race record for Trainer C. L. Maddon and Jockey J. N. Orr, winning two weeks in a row—in 16.2 last week over 300 yards and in 16.1 over a slightly mushy track the past Tuesday. In the day's only other educational sprint, Keith Asmussen and Jockey Ken McReynolds won in 16.5.

Jockey Ramon Figueroa took off this week to serve a couple of weeks as a reserve in the Army, returning back to Tucson.

J. E. Craig's Good Secret, a starter in Friday's third of five $100,000 Thoroughbred Futurity Trials here, scored its maiden victory at Pike's Peak Meadows, winning in :54 2/5 over 4½ furlongs.

Robert Owen Yeager, 14th leading race-winning rider in the nation last year with 193 victories, is due to come in from Centennial Park to ride Mr. Joto in a division of the five $100,000 Ruidoso Thoroughbred Trials here Friday. Yeager, at 42, is believed to be the same age as "unreported" by Merlin Volzke, also here for the Futurity Trials.

Jockey Dan Castle, one of the few lightweights in Southwest riding circles, and Joe Sherman come up this week from Mexico's Espactulos Fronterizos to handle Jibble, and Breese Devil and India Flight, respectively, in Friday's Trials for the $100,000 Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity.

Bonito Water

By LOUISE COE RUNNELS

Eddie Sanchez who runs the fish distributing truck from Park View Hatchery brought 658 pounds of fish to Bonito Lake Monday, July 19 (1704 fish).

The camp ground in Bonito will be finished by Aug. 1. The canyon has been full of campers and the bear have been having picnics. They are changing the story about getting treed—now we heard of bear treeing two different men, one in Nogal Canyon and one in upper Ruidoso.

What a pleasant surprise to have Herman Kelt and daughter Gene Hennrich and her children to come to see us at Bonito City. Herman has been out of the cast he has worn for several months for only three weeks and is getting strong fast. He promised another visit as soon as he can drive again.

Mrs. Anna Belle Elam and girls, Cindy and Theresa and Mary Lou Runnels enjoyed their two-days at Camp Meeting on the Mesa. Anna Belle brought us the very interesting true story of the 25 year Ranchman's Camp Meeting. I'm so proud of our writer, Dorothy Guck and those who have helped all through these years with this meeting. The book is for sale, contact Chloe Peters, Capitan, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Pfingsten of El Paso and friends camped above Bonito Dam over the week-end. Bobby is in the Army and is stationed at Fort Bliss. Big Bob Pfingsten (Bobby's uncle) and Dan Jones were on the Bonito this week too. They had been to the Ranchman's Camp Meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pfingsten live at Tucumcari and she, too, was here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall and granddaughter and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stratton stopped by Bonito City Sunday. They will be Lincoln County residents now as they will teach at Corona. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie have moved back to teach at Corona.

A Lincoln County pioneer, Lillie Brown, granddaughters, grandsons and great-grandchildren visited Bonito City last week.

Eighteen Texas Tech boys have made Capitan their headquarters while in this area on an Ecology study expedition (study of plant and animal life environment). They spent some time in Bonito Canyon.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Runnels and family are Mrs. Runnels' sister, Eula Poole and her niece, Wessie Altvater and son Corky from Perris, Calif. They came by way of Silver City to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Coe and family.

During Camp Meeting, Gil and Chloe Peters had relatives and friends to visit and join them at the meeting. They were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Armstrong from Ilfeld, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. John Abney from Samoa, South Pacific, where they have been doing missionary work for a year. Also, Loraine Wigley and daughter Janet from Alamogordo and F. R. Zumwalt from Artesia. Chloe reported the meeting was wonderful and rain was welcome, but this year they only had wind and dust.

Joe Sandoval from Picacho was one of the many fishermen at Bonito Dam on Sunday.

Mayor Gerald Dean and wife were on the Bonito on business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wheeler and family from Crosbyton, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Willey and children from Dallas, were on the Bonito sightseeing last week. Wheelers have a summer cabin in Flume Canyon in Ruidoso. They subscribe to the Ruidoso News each year and keep up with our growing Playground of the Great Southwest.

Walt Durr from Holloman Air Force Base, Alamogordo, and Maxine Roberts who will soon be from Albuquerque where she will live, send her sons to the University and work in a bank, visited Bonito City Sunday evening.

Ernest Key made a drive over the Nogal hill and down by Bonito City Sunday. We are always glad to see Ernest.

Fred Coe is now employed at Camp Geronimo and likes his outdoor job and working with people is a good Coe trait he inherited. Keep up the good work, Fred.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Preuit and daughter Ethelyn were week-end visitors at Capitan with son, Bunk.

At the Roy LaMay ranch during Camp Meeting days were: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McMohan and son, Randy and Mike from Ft. Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harris and sons, Barry and Chipper and Clinton Harris, all of Cleburne, Tex. Also, Mrs. R. G. Stuart and children from Alamogordo.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Rogers and sons spent a few days visiting relatives and friends recently. They spent some time with Jim and Bonnie McEuen and son.

County Agent's Report

— By — RALPH DUNLAP

I helped a rancher from the Tinnie area mail two worm samples. Let's hope they are maggots, not Screwworms. Some worms were also reported in the Corona area.

I spent a day last week, accompanied by Dr. Nour, Horticulturist, from the New Mexico State University, visiting orchards in the Hondo Valley, taking leaf samples to check the effectiveness of some iron, manganese and zinc fertilizers. The trees where iron and zinc were applied show a deep green color compared to the surrounding area The leaf sample tells what nutrients are taken up, whereas the soil sample tells if the fertilizer element is present.

At the same time, we checked hail and worm damage to orchards in the area In some orchards the hail injured the bark as well as knocked off half the apples. In other orchards, the hail damage was not as heavy.

NOTICE

It has been noted that many residence and business establishments in the Village of Ruidoso are providing adequate garbage containers and holders for the purpose of garbage storage until it can be picked up. However, garbage and debris is still being carelessly strewn about due to lack of proper containers and racks.

The Village of Ruidoso Sanitation Dept recommends that adequate garbage containers made of heavy duty gauge metal be provided for handling purposes. These containers must not exceed thirty (30) gallon in size. The proper number of containers should be provided with tight fitting lids.

Metal type racks are available on the market or racks can be constructed for storage of the cans. Careless and inadequate garbage storage naturally is an invitation for animals to scatter garbage.

Village Ordinance No. 15, Section 2, reads as follows:

"No person, firm, or corporation shall deposit, dump, place or bury within the corporate limits of the Village of Ruidoso, any garbage, dead animal, fish or fowl or any substance condemned by the State Health Dept. of the State of New Mexico, the Mayor of the Village of Ruidoso, or any of their authorized representatives; or any other deleterious or offensive substances except as herein provided."

Section 5 reads in part:

"Every owner of any premises where garbage is created or accumulated shall provide upon such premises for each tenant or occupant in a suitable place, one or more galvanized metal garbage receptacles, with tight fitting galvanized metal cover; such containers shall be no larger than 30 gallons in size and weigh no more than 50 pounds, when full."

Section 6 reads in part:

"All garbage receptacles shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition by the owner or person using the same, and all garbage receptacles shall be kept tightly covered at all times."

Let all of us as individuals do our part at our own back door in helping to keep our village clean.

WHY IS RIVER PROPERTY SO SCARCE?

Once you have gone to sleep lulled by the sound of the "Noisy" river you'll be hooked. Let the kids play for an hour and they will want to stay forever. The river appeals to all ages and that is the reason homes on its banks are hardly ever offered for sale. Our selection of river cabins has never been better than it is now.

One river retreat nestled in the pines of the beautiful upper canyon offers 184 of river footage plus a cozy cabin that sleeps 10. Have breakfast in front of the river stone fireplace and then step into your own yard and catch your trout dinner. All this enjoyment for only $32,500. On down the rio is a 2 bedroom holiday home with a porch looking out at the tumbling water, great for restful relaxation and only $10,000, and both with terms.

If you've ever considered a river place, now is the time. They never last long. Give us a call.

SMALL BUSINESS FOR SALE

You will enjoy working in this operation, especially in the income this summer of over $100 per day. Come by and we can talk terms on this excellent business.
