MAKE PLANS—Linda Jones and Cindy Harris, both of whom will be seniors at Ruidoso High School this fall, compare notes before leaving Sunday morning to attend the week-long Girls' State. The event, sponsored each year by the American Legion Auxiliary of New Mexico, is being held on the campus of the University of New Mexico. (See inside story.)

Voters To Elect Con-Con Delegate Tuesday

A light turnout of voters is expected Tuesday for the special nonpartisan election to select a delegate to the constitutional convention from the combined counties of Lincoln and Sierra.

Despite the importance and long-range implications of constitutional revision, the apathy of the general public is evident. Little discussion has been heard on the election, and the consolidation of polling places in effect for this one election only is expected to add further to the small number of ballots cast.

The consolidation, resulting from economical reasons, provides for only one polling place in each of the voting precincts.

Candidates whose names will appear on the ballot include John W. Thompson, Ralph Petty, Jr., and Robert C. Cox, in that order. Thompson and Petty both are from Ruidoso with Cox being from Winston near Truth or Consequences.

With the combined counties of Lincoln and Sierra eligible for only one delegate, local observers are pointing to the crucial need for a solid turnout from Lincoln County, if this county is to have its candidate emerge as winner. Sierra County is expected to throw its main support to Cox, while the dual candidacy in Lincoln will tend to split the voting in this county.

Thompson is a Ruidoso attorney, who has served as assistant district attorney for two years, and as village attorney. A native of Albuquerque he has resided in Lincoln County 11 years, and has been active in the New Mexico Municipal League. He received his law degree from the University of New Mexico Law School.

Petty was elected state representative in 1968 and was named as one of eight outstanding legislators of the year. He has served on numerous committees, and has just received an interim appointment by the Speaker of the House to the State Judicial Study Committee. He is vice president of Bon Sierra Corporation, and has a board background in business and ranching.

Cox, making his initial effort in politics, ranches extensively in the Black Mountain Range area near Winston.

Controversial convention issues are already emerging. The statewide education association is expected to lobby for an increase in the property tax mill limit from the present 30 mills to 30 mills. Educators were also expected to urge an increase in school bond limits from 6 to 8 per cent of assessed value in the school district.

A school of instruction for election officials and interested citizens has been set for this Friday at 1:30 p.m. in the county commissioners' room of the courthouse in Carrizozo according to County Clerk Alice Ray.

Voters are asked to keep in mind the change in polling places for Tuesday's election.

White To Leave Local School Post

George P. White, superintendent of the Ruidoso schools for the past 5½ years, tendered his resignation at a called meeting of the board of education Wednesday noon.

The surprise action followed acceptance by White that morning of the position as Indian Education Program Specialist with the Department of Education, State of New Mexico.

The resignation is effective June 30, with White to begin his new duties July 1 in Santa Fe.

Notification of the new appointment was received by White from LaMoine Langston, chairman of administrative services for the State Department of Education. The position, which has been vacant for several months, involves supervision of monies spent by public schools in the state on behalf of Indian students above and beyond operational expenses.

White said today that he will assist in any way possible the securing of a replacement for the administrative school post. Board members Wednesday voted to notify state agencies that a vacancy for the superintendency exists, and that all applications will be considered.

In accepting the position, White returns once again to Santa Fe and the SDE. He earlier served as superintendent of the city schools in Santa Fe, then was with the State Department of Education before accepting a post with the U. S. Office of Education in Washington, D. C.

A desire to return to the southwest prompted his acceptance of the superintendency of the Ruidoso schools. During his tenure, the local system has become fully accredited, and the new White Mountain elementary school planned and constructed.

He has been active in civic and community affairs, serving as president of the Ruidoso Rotary Club and the Ambassadors, and two years as County Red Cross chairman. He is a member of the White Mountain Jeep Club, chairman of the personnel committee of the Girl Scout Council, trustee of the Elks Camp, vice-president of the board for the proposed college, and a member of the parish council of St. Eleanor's Catholic Church.

White, who has spent 40 years in the education field, and his wife are parents of a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Martin, of Clovis, whose husband has returned to active duty at Cam Ranh after being shot down in Vietnam. The Whites plan to retain their home here and eventually to retire in Ruidoso.

Kansas Futurity Draws Top Field

Highlight of this weekend's racing at Ruidoso Downs will be the Kansas Futurity Sunday, for a total estimated purse of $180,000.

The Futurity is one of the most important stakes in Quarter Horse racing, the equivalent of the Kentucky Derby to thoroughbred racing, and is the first leg of the "Tres Coronas", or the Triple Crown.

Standing out in one of the greatest fields of two-year-olds ever assembled at the Downs is Walter F. Merrick's Easy Jet, who won the first division of the trials Friday with complete authority in :17.84 for the 350-yards.

The brilliant son of Jet Deck - Lena's Bar will again be ridden by Jockey Elbert Minchey, and it is altogether possible that Easy Jet may be the first winner of the Tres Coronas in the history of Quarter Horse racing.

The Kansas Futurity will be run in three divisions, with the other two run the following week. Horses registering the 10 fastest times will go into the first division.

On Friday's card, KFDA Television of Amarillo, Texas, will be honored. Going against wire-to-wire winner, All's Speed on opening weekend in Cibola, taking a sharp class drop. With Jack Wallace in the saddle, he looms the one to outrun.

Saturday's action-packed card also will be filled with exciting thoroughbred and Quarter Horse racing.

Qualifiers in the first division of the Kansas Futurity carded Sunday include:

1. Easy Jet, Ch. c. by Jet Deck - Lena's Bar. Qualifying time :17.84. Owned and trained by Walter F. Merrick, Sayre, Okla. Ridden by Elbert Minchey.

Centennial Ball Plans Underway; Workers Selected

Advance planning for the Centennial Ball, which will climax the year-long observance of the 100th anniversary of Lincoln County, got underway Tuesday at a meeting of the centennial steering committee held in the recreation hall at Carrizozo.

Tickets for the gala affair, set for Dec. 6 at the Chaparral Motor Hotel in Ruidoso Downs, will go on sale in the near future. A special door prize of the No. 100 silver centennial medallion will be awarded during the evening, and the No. 1000 medallion will be auctioned as an added attraction.

Aileen Lindamood of Alto is general chairman for the centennial ball, and reported that contacts are now underway to secure a name band for the dance, which will be a semi-formal affair. In order to accommodate the large crowd expected to attend, the American Room, Gold Room and dining room at the Chaparral have all been reserved.

Mrs. Lindamood said members of her committee will meet as soon as tickets are received from the printers to finalize plans for their distribution and to determine a decorative theme for the event. Tickets, she said, will be placed on sale throughout Lincoln County on a date yet to be decided.

The chairman announced members of her community committees to include:

STRINGING ALONG—Telephone construction crew members concentrate on stringing a 400-pair cable along Sudderth Drive, an important part of the improvement program currently underway by the Ruidoso Telephone Co. Addition of new lines to upgrade service necessitates the installation.

BY TELEPHONE COMPANY—

Expansion Program Underway

Major expansion and improvement program currently underway by the Ruidoso Telephone Co., is expected to be completed in about 45 days, according to Paul Briesh, manager.

With 400 lines being installed and 300 terminals for new telephones, many of the multiparty lines now in use by subscribers will be eliminated and one-party service made available.

To provide the additional service, company crewmen have been stringing a 400-pair cable along Sudderth Drive, and a 900-pair cable is to be installed east from the central office towards the Country Club. Each pair contains two conductor wires.

While the current expansion program, pegged at a cost of more than $200,000 in Ruidoso proper, is of prime importance to residents at this time, planned improvements of services revealed today also are of paramount interest.

Briesh said direct distance dialing is being programmed for Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs, Mescalero and Capitan by mid-1970, and plans currently are being engineered to about double the number of trunk lines out of the area through a switchover to microwave.

The manager reported plans are for DDD to be available by the second quarter of 1970. It is hoped that an automatic identification system, known as ANI, will be utilized, where the identity of the calling party is made through automatic recording of the calling number rather than by an operator.

With the number of long distance calls placed both from and into Ruidoso and area steadily increasing, delays now unavoidable would be alleviated through the planned microwave transition. The 67 trunk lines out of Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs and Mescalero in use at the present time would be expanded to 120 toll trunk lines. Briesh said the transition, now in the engineering stage, was projected to be operational by the third quarter of 1970.

The manager also reported plans of the company to add 300 more subscriber lines this fall, which, it is expected, will result in making available one party service to 90 per cent of the subscribers.

Along with the improvement program, Briesh said a considerable amount of old lead phone cables is being replaced with plastic cable. The lead cables, he explained, eventually crack through exposure to rain causing maintenance and service problems.

Briesh also reported that a new Series 300-100 line PABX has just been installed at the Ruidoso Downs race track, and cut over into operation. The PABX replaces the old-type cord board which had been utilized.

DR. JAMES BEALL

Beall Named To Judicial Council

Dr James Beall, Ruidoso dentist and civic leader, Tuesday was named as a member of the new State Judicial Council by Gov. David F. Cargo.

Dr. Beall will serve a two year term expiring July 1, 1971.

The Judicial Council was created by the 1969 Legislature to make "a continuous study of the organization, jurisdiction, procedure, practice, rules and methods of administration and operation of all courts within the state."

The council, in essence, will continue the work begun in the early 1960's by the Legislative Judicial System Study Committee, which was phased out of existence during the 1969 sessions.

It is composed of 17 members, including the Attorney General and the Dean of the University of New Mexico Law School as ex-officio members. The governor appoints three of the members, who by law cannot be lawyers.

A graduate of Baylor University, Dr. Beall has been in Ruidoso 12 years. He recently was elected vice-president of the New Mexico Dental Society, is a past president of the Southeastern Dental Society, and a charter member and past president of the Permian Basin Dental Society during the time he resided in Odessa, Texas.

He serves as a member of the Ruidoso village council, and as an elder and trustee in the Presbyterian church. A past president of the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce, he is a member of the Ambassadors and the local Lions Club, and a director of the Ruidoso State Bank.

THREE OTHERS INJURED—

One Killed In Car Accident

Killed instantly in a one-car crash shortly after midnight Tuesday on N. M. 37 was a Corona man, and three other passengers remain hospitalized with serious injuries.

Dead is John "Cope" Straley, 29, driver of the 1968 Plymouth. Funeral services are to be held Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. in the Aneho Presbyterian Church.

Listed in critical condition at the Providence Hospital in El Paso, where they were transferred by plane early Wednesday morning are Mack Cook, 25, of Ruidoso and William Welchans, 19, of West Alexander, Pa. A report Thursday morning indicated Gordon Owen, 21, of Corona, was in good condition at the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General Hospital.

According to latest information available Thursday, Cook was said to be in very critical condition suffering from extensive brain damage. Welchans, also suffering from brain damage, was said to be showing some slight improvement.

All involved are employees of the U. S. Forest Service. Straley, Welshans and Owens were stationed with the Smokey Bear (Capitan) istrict and Cook with the Ruidoso District.

An investigating State Police officer said the car in which the four were riding, was traveling south on NM 37 as it crossed the Rio Bonito and went off the lefthand side of the road at the bottom of Angus Hill, traveling 234 feet before coming to rest.

Straley was found 96 feet in front of the car, the report said. Both Cook and Welshans were thrown out of the vehicle, while Owens remained inside. State police reported the car evidently was traveling at a high rate of speed, and stated evidence indicated liquor was a contributing factor.

Straley is survived by his wife, Blanche, two sons, Joe and Clint and one daughter, Julianna, all of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Joan Barnett of Florida, and Mrs. Esther Copeland of Albuquerque; two bro-

DEATH CAR—Mute evidence of a tragic accident which claimed the life of a Corona man and seriously injured three others, is this demolished vehicle in which the four were riding. State Police investigating the crash blamed a combination of high speed and intoxication, and issued a plea for motorists to exercise caution when traveling area roads and highways.

Commissioners To Meet On Wednesday

Lincoln County Commissioners will convene in a special session next Wednesday to canvass returns of the election for delegates to the constitutional convention, chairman Don Stark said today.

Only other business on the agenda for transaction is the approval of the contract with Deason, Crocker, Singleton & Peters, auditing firm of Roswell, to conduct the yearly audit of the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital.

Stark said another special session of the commissioners will probably be called prior to the regular July 8 meeting to call a special election on general dispenser sale of liquor on Sundays. No action can be taken by the court, it was pointed out, until after June 20 when the new state law goes into effect.

Ruidoso Awarded Lions' Convention

Ruidoso has been selected as site for the state convention of Lions Clubs in 1971, it was reported today by Lions Ray Day and Sam Montgomery following their return from the state meet in Raton Sunday through Tuesday.

Delegates endorsed the selection of Ruidoso by an overwhelming vote of 112 to 45. Unsuccessful bidder for the convention was the Las Cruces club.

The local delegates also reported the Ruidoso club was highly commended at the convention by the district governor for its past year's activities.

Ruidoso Lions will join with the Capitan Club for a joint installation of officers next Wednesday, June 18, at the Parsons Hotel. A steak dinner will be served at 7 p.m., followed by installation in charge of Ray Dean, district governor. Dancing will follow with music to be furnished by a 3-piece band.

GALLERY III PRESENTS . . .

TOM KNAPP'S WESTERN BRONZES

Tom Knapp was born on a ranch near Gillette, Wyo., so it's only natural that he name Western Art his first love. He is a versatile artist having worked in various media in schools and as an animation artist with Walt Disney Productions in Los Angeles. But his favorite medium of expression is the bronze sculpture he has produced in the past few years.

Knapp's Escape Route is a beautifully proportioned mountain sheep against a mountainside. The piece is a limited series of 15 numbered copies after which the mold is destroyed.

The artist's experience as a Walt Disney artist provided the inspiration for a set of wonderfully comic bears called Executive Suite. The series of four 8-inch pieces includes the pompous Chairman-of-the-Board, the befuddled Executive Vice-President and the nonchalant and disinterested Company President and the charming, long eyelashed Private Secretary.

These wonderful bears may be purchased as a set for an executive gift or individually.

The first casting of the beautiful Demise of Little Hand was not completed for many months after work had begun. Because of the complexity of a buffalo about to unseat a mounted Sioux brave, nine sets of waxes were destroyed before Knapp was satisfied with the final result.

It is in a limited series of 25 copies and was selected for the permanent collection of the Whitney Gallery of Western Art in Cody, Wyo.

Other pieces shown in Gallery III are:

Navajo Warrior, a 12-inch high warrior poised ... spear and leather shield in battle. Desert Wash depicts an old prospector holding his hat against the hot desert wind. Old Man Winter is a new cast of Knapp's and shows the cowboy fighting the blasts of winter.

Tom Knapp's sculpture is on display at Gallery III daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on weekdays, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. on weekends.

Couple To Spend Year in Peru

Looking forward with intense anticipation to participation in a special International Year Mission Work Study are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts, who soon leave for Peru and the many challenges awaiting them.

The young couple are visiting in Ruidoso with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooper, with a portion of their time being spent absorbing a wide variety of immunizations and vaccinations.

They leave next week for DePauw University in Indiana and a missionary orientation session with other young people from across the United States who, like themselves, will be traveling to foreign fields.

Reporting July 7 at Cuernavaca, Mexico, the couple will spend a month in an intensive instructional course studying language and culture in preparation for their ultimate destination, the city of Huancayo.

Here Roberts will devote his entire time to teaching at the institute which trains Peruvians for Christian work within their country, and in seeking to determine better means of communications through music as well as ministry.

His wife, Carol, will be teaching the English language to Peruvian children in the Christian schools, and making a home for she and her husband in quarters alloted to them in the schol dormitory.

Roberts, a third-year student at the Claremont School of Theology in California, is one of 12 seminarians in the United States to be selected for this initial mission work study. On his return next summer, he plans to return to the seminary to complete requirements for his Doctorate of Religion degree, and eventually hopes to enter the field of college campus ministry.

Carol graduated from Ruidoso High School in 1965, was employed by the Ruidoso State Bank and attended the University of New Mexico prior to her marriage to Roy just two years ago.

Roy earned his B. A. degree from Western New Mexico University, was director of music for the Tularosa schools in 1966-67, and at the time worked with a Civic Boys' Club in Ruidoso and with a community choir which presented both Christmas and Easter cantatas. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Roberts, formerly lived in Ruidoso and now reside in Marysville, Calif.

Military Interested In Winter Ski Plan

Military personnel from Fort Bliss, Texas were in Ruidoso Tuesday to discuss possibilities of coordinating a winter ski program between the base and Ruidoso.

John Trubacek, Jr., special service officer, met with Chamber Manager Don Stark to discuss preliminary plans for such a project. Trubacek said the plan would involve both military and dependents in the Fort Bliss area.

He said there presently are over 1,000 Bliss personnel who are accomplished skiers, and that the overall potential was some 50,000 army-associated persons who possibly would be interested in such a program.

According to Trubacek, if such a program is developed, participants would be transported to the Ruidoso area for skiing during week days, rather than on weekends. He expressed interest in sufficient housing accommodations for such an influx of persons during the winter months, as well as the reception which would be accorded military personnel by residents of the area.

Additional conferences will be held to further explore the possibilities of the winter ski program.

Overnight Campout Held By Girl Scouts

Junior Girl Scout Troop 4 enjoyed an overnight camping trip to Bonito Lake on Monday and Tuesday, May 16-17.

They pitched tents, built fires, cooked, went on a nature hike, sang around the campfire and especially enjoyed the outdoors.

The troop would like to thank everyone who helped in any way to make this a pleasant experience.

Seventeen girls made the trip and were accompanied by Mrs. James Roberts, Mrs. Roy Mayo, Mrs. Jim Wimberly and Mrs. James Eubanks.

Fly-Up Ceremony Held by Brownies

Brownie Troops Nos. 1 and 2 held a Fly-up ceremony for 22 girls eligible to go into Junior Girl Scouts, on Tuesday, May 20, at Two Rivers Park. Twenty-one girls crossed the bridge decorated one-half in brown and orange, Brownie colors, and the other half in green and gold, Girl Scout colors. Crossing the Bridge was symbolic of leaving the Brownie level and going into the Junior Scouts, who met the two troops on the other side, in a horseshoe formation. Brownies are eligible to fly up after completing 3 years' scouting.

Fly-ups of White Mountain Troop No. 1 were Twila Clements, Elizabeth Rue, Patty Hall, Cathy Wynn, Shannon Dabbs, Sara Wimberly, Susan Karner, Dana Driver, Tina Findley, Barbara Clements, and not present Kim Kennedy. Leaders are Mrs. Aubrey Dobbs and Mrs. Herb Ford.

Nob Hill Troop No. 2 fly-ups included Paula Baird, Tawyne Carpenter, Kelly Fisher, Julie Gooch, Lisa Hawpe, Lorina Herrera, Liz Keller, Karen Marshall, Pam Parker, Brenda Perry and Tammy Scott. Leaders are Mrs. James Fitzgerald and Mrs. Dan Griffith. Junior Troop leaders are Mrs. Roy Mayo and Mrs. R. L. Annala.

Two Injured In Accident Still Are Hospitalized

Two Ruidosoans, seriously injured when a jeep in which they were riding tipped over near the top of Sierra Blanca peak, remained under treatment at midweek in an El Paso hospital.

Lou Boyer, who suffered multiple fractures, was transferred to the El Paso facility from the local hospital Saturday morning, while Ann Clough, also severely injured in the mishap, was transferred on Sunday.

Two other occupants of the jeep, C. D. Crouch and Charlie Martin, were treated at the hospital here and released. All four are employed at the Sierra Blanca Ski Area.

According to reports, the jeep flipped end over end on a steep incline, some seven times while traveling 300 feet down into a canyon.

Crouch was able to walk to the ski lodge to summon aid. The injured were removed from the area by helicopter to the Ruidoso Municipal Airport from where they were taken by ambulance to the local hospital.

Members of the White Mountain Jeep Club, dispatched to the scene, said the area was so impenetratable that they had to abandon their vehicles and make the reminder of the way to the wreckage on foot.

First Aid Course Completed by 17

Seventeen persons have completed the American National Red Cross standard course in first aid to the injured, including 13 members of the White Mountain Jeep Club search and rescue squad and four advanced Boy Scouts.

Club members completing the course were Mr. and Mrs. Don Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Craig, Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brechiesen, Ed Lane, John Harrelson and Albert Hudson.

Scouts included Larry Craig, Mike Waltrip, David Long and Rick Hall, all members of Ruidoso Troop 59. Craig is a Life Scout, Waltrip a Star, Long a First Class Scout and Hall a Second Class Scout.

The standard 10-hour course was instructed by Earl Blann and Wayne White, both employees of the U. S. Forest Service, Ruidoso District.

An advanced course in first aid to the injured is planned for this fall.

Forest Service Sets Wilderness Hike For June 26

Date for the annual wilderness hike conducted by the Ruidoso Ranger District of the Lincoln National Forest, has been set for Thursday, June 26, it was announced today.

Persons who are interested in participating in the hike, which takes participants from the 11,000 foot level to the desert grassland, are asked to contact the Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce not later than Monday, June 23.

Rangers point out that the hike is not one for the soft individual, and for that reason a doctor's permit, available at the Chamber office or at the ranger station in north Ruidoso, is required. The permit certifies that the hiker is in good physical health and capable of making the trip.

Cost of the hike will be $3.50 per person, which will cover costs of transportation for the entire trip. Maximum number participating will be limited to 30 by necessity.

The wilderness hike is described as one of rare scenic beauty, during which five life zones can be seen. Many rock formations will be visible and hikers will be helped to identify the wide assortment of wild plants and animals, as well as observe the vastness of the White Mountain Wilderness as it stretches out to the Tularosa basin. Rest stops will be scheduled during which talks by the forest naturalist will be given.

SHOW THE COLORS

June 14 is Flag Day. It marks the anniversary of the day in 1777 when the United States flag was adopted. This year it deserves more than the usual routine gestures of observance out of respect for a symbol of freedom that has been spat upon, burned and dragged in the dirt during the past year wih alarming impunity by malcontents and bums of all stripes who respect neither the flag nor the United States.

It is a sad commentary on our times that laws have had to be passed protecting the flag from desecration. Until comparatively recently, mutilating the flag, in the minds of most of us, was tantamount to treason. But somehow the fog of permissiveness that has settled miasma like over the land has obscured our vision of the flag and the deathless ideals that support the Stars and Stripes.

The easiest way to gain perspective on the meaning of the flag is to visualize for a moment the void that would surround us if there simply were no flag, no focal point on which to center the sense of purpose and principles of a nation. In common with the U. S. Constitution, The Declaration of Independence and other physical manifestations of freedom under representative government, the flag makes known to all mankind the reason for our existence. Flag Day is a good opportunity to "show the colors."

FIRST-CLASS PEOPLE

The Marshfield, Missouri Mail has expressed some thoughts on the quality of people and the quality of nations that while sounding uncomprisingly harsh, embrace a fundamental truth. It says: "Only second class people make a second class nation. People who want to be paid without working enough to earn it are second class people, not Americans. People who want to be protected without having the courage to fight, and earn their own protection, are second class citizens. People more anxious for security than self respect, comfort above accomplishment are dragging America down to the second class nation status. Run this nation once more by hard work, and for those Americans with self respect, not for whiners, and we'd sweep that scornful 'second class' sneer and all excuses for it down the rat hole where it belongs."

TIME OUT FOR POSING — Governor David Cargo took time out during last Thursday's visit to Ruidoso to pose with another group of busy people. His visit to the Ruidoso News caught the staff in their usual busy Thursday rush. Posing with the Governor are, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan, Ruidoso News publishers, the Governor, and Dr. Dale Wynn, Lincoln County Republican chairman, also a busy optometrist, in Ruidoso.

Santa Fe's Opera Season Opens July 5 With Puccini's 'Tosca'

A completely new production of Puccini's "Tosca" will inaugurate the Santa Fe Opera's thirteenth season July 5. Featured in the opera will be three artists new to the company, one making her United States debut.

Spanish soprano Mirna Lacambra will sing the title role of Tosca in her United States debut. A native of Barcelona, where she received her vocal training and sings with the Barcelona Opera, Miss Lacambra is scheduled to sing the first U. S. production of "Attila" in New Orleans this fall and to open the new Malwaukee Opera House as "Aida."

Welsh baritone Delme Bryn-Jones of the Welsh National Opera and Convent Garden, will make his debut at Scarpia, with Western Opera Theatre tenor Erik Townsend joining the company at Cavaradossi. This trio will sing the July 11 and 16 performances. Maralin Niska, last season's acclaimed "Madame Butterfly" will sing Tosca in the August 21 and 23 performances with George Shirley as Cavaradossi and Metrolopitan Opero baritone William Dooley as Scarpia.

Lotfi Mansouri, who directed the successful 'La Traviata" and "Der Rosenkavalier" productions last season, will direct "Tosca." Company founder and General Director John Crosby will conduct the work, which will be sung in Italian.

The principals' costumes for the production have been designed by Patton Campbell, who is also designing the costumes for this season's "Cosi fan tutte." The magnificent costumes in 1968's "Der Rosenkavalier" were Campbell's work. Since then he supervised the execution of his designs for "Man of La Mancha" in Brussels, and continued his teaching duties as Associate Professor of Costume Design at the Theatre Arts Department of Columbia University.

Neil Peter Jampolis designed the new sets for "Tosca" with a blend of realism and theatre fantasy.

Skeen Predicted Tough Opponent

By FRED BUCKLES

SANTA FE — Senate Majority Leader Joe Skeen, Picacho [illegible] Republican many Democrats would least like to oppose for governor next year. Big [illegible] Skeen represents Lincoln and Otero Counties.

A senator since 1961 with a term expiring in 1970, Skeen is well-liked by Senate Republicans and Democrats. His warm manner wins many [illegible]. He rates high in the GOP [illegible] a former state chairman [illegible] the powerful Legislative Council, the Conservation, Public Affairs and Commerce Committees. [illegible] with Republican Gov. David F. Cargo, [illegible] a handicap.

New Mexico Republicans may [illegible] candidate [illegible] Chairman Pete Domenici, Bernalillo County Commission [illegible] Balsalobre or State GOP Chairman Bob Davidson. [illegible] state government [illegible] a saving [illegible] and has gained [illegible] Santa Fe by intelligent service [illegible] House Minority Leader [illegible], Roswell, runs for [illegible] Skeen will likely [illegible] of the GOP primary [illegible] and Skeen share views and [illegible]. At any rate, Democrats [illegible] about the prospect of battling the popular Skeen [illegible] November 1970.

Valencia County Chairman Filo Sedillo [illegible] forged a compromise of New Mexico Democratic leaders at a state executive committee [illegible] Reorganization Committee. State party rules were amended to allot each county a state central committee member for each 1,000 votes for the Democratic [illegible] candidate in the [illegible] general election. This moved [illegible] closer to the "one man one vote" principle party [illegible] notably in Bernalillo County.

Then the 32-member executive committee composed of the county chairmen would be left unchanged. The rules drafting committee had proposed a 24-member executive panel, 4 state officers and 20 named by the state chairman. This [illegible] power in hands of [illegible] and other county chairmen who have banded together on party [illegible].

[illegible] central committee [illegible] Valencia 6, Colfax, 3, Curry, 4, De Baca 2, Guadalupe, 4, Hidalgo [illegible] Quay, 2, Taos, 3, and [illegible] committee [illegible] for each [illegible] per county. Valencia and Otero would have dropped [illegible] for example. [illegible] allotment. Otero [illegible] 107 per cent, Taos 83.9, Quay 105, Otero 93.3, Luna 116, [illegible] 124, Lea 92, Hidalgo, 220, Guadalupe, 109, DeBaca, 337, Curry, 83.3, Colfax, 103, and Catron 421. But the big factor was a [illegible] 94.5 per cent of the norm for populous Bernalillo County with 60 central committee members.

[illegible] and other liberal Albuquerque Democrats [illegible] revolt of Bernalillo [illegible] central committee [illegible] [illegible]. New state party rules will be adopted at a special state Democratic convention Saturday in Albuquerque [illegible] Oklahoma City, Fred Harris, National Democratic chairman, will be principal speaker. Young Democrats want 10 seats on the state central committee.

Much of Democrat [illegible] in 1970 hinges on the ability of leaders to forge harmony at the convention. Sedillo lost a district court challenge of State Chairman Penrod Toles' call of the special powwow but the test was [illegible] at the weekend. Toles is a Roswell lawyer and ex-state senator.

The multi-million dollar School of Medicine at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, produced 15 graduates last week. Exactly four will intern in New Mexico, all at Bernalillo County Medical Center. BCMC is closely related to the UNM School of Medicine. Others will intern in California, Washington, D. C., Oklahoma, Texas, New York and Washington State.

Last year the School of Medicine's first graduating class totaled 19. Three are interning in New Mexico, all at BCMC. Others are in Cleveland, El Paso, Denver, Dallas, San Diego, Boston, Chapel Hill, N. S.; St. Louis, California, San Antonio, Tex., the Canal Zone and Burlington, Vt. New Mexico badly needs physicians in rural counties. Whether the UNM medical graduates will return to the state to practice is a question. If they do not, much of the purpose of a multi-million dlolar investment is lost.

Kennecott Has New Mexico's
'LARGEST MAN-MADE EXCAVATION . . .

The beautiful Santa Rita Mine of the Chino Mines Division of Kennecott Copper Corporation in southwestern New Mexico had its beginning some 60 million years ago when fiery masses of boiling water and molten rock pushed their way from the interior of the earth to the surface.

Copper mining first began in 1804 and continued sporadically for the next 100 years. Then a new concept in mining — the mass production of low-grade copper ores — was considered for the Santa Rita Mine. Six years later the first ore was produced under this concept. Today, this open-pit mine is more than one and a half miles wide and reaches a depth of more than 1200 feet. It is one of the largest man made excavations on earth.

Located in Grant County near Silver City, the Santa Rita Mine, its reduction plant, smelter and refinery produce approximately 100,000 tons of copper annually.

You are cordially invited to view these operations.

There is a visitors' observation point at the mine, which is open daily during daylight hours. No reservations are needed. The wide, sweeping vista of the mine affords a photographer's delight.

A guided tour is conducted daily [illegible] July and August through the mill and the smelter at Hurley. The once-[illegible] Monday through Friday, begins at [illegible] a.m. and concludes at about 11:30 [illegible] reservations are not necessary.

We look forward to seeing you.

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED!

Invitation Issued Public To Tour Eldorado Villa Estates

With the development portion of Eldorado Villa Estates approximately 90 per cent complete, an invitation is being extended to the public to drive out and inspect the multi-million dollar project.

Issuing the invitation are Robert S. Windham, president, and J. D. Karnes, general manager. The development is located on State Road 37 and Cree Meadows Drive, across from the U. S. Forest Service ranger station in the north part of Ruidoso.

Viewers will be able to tour the attractive recreational building as well as the club house which overlooks the reservoir lake. Street paving, curbs and gutters are nearing completion, greens and tees of the nine-hole golf course are being shaped and installation of the automatic irrigation system is well underway.

Foundation for the sunken tennis court adjacent to the club house was poured early this week, and work is continuing on the elaborate recreation area.

Information and descriptive material is available for those interested at the offices temporarily located in the recreation building, centrally located on a choice site.

This structure, designed to be the focal point of community life for those residing within the Estates, has been carefully planned to provide the ultimate in facilities for family get-togethers and social gatherings in an informal but luxurious environment.

Already the Estates is being popularly referred to as "Behind the White Wall", as visitors and localities are intrigued with the eye-appealing enclosure which surrounds the entire area. The wall, illuminated after dusk, adds a special uniqueness and beauty.

Construction is expected to get underway within 30 days on 10 model single-family Townhouses to be built around the 5th green of the golf course. While all have been sold, Windham reports owners of five have agreed to delay occupancy so the homes may be used for showing.

Windham says interest is high and the unique concepts and benefits for those who select Eldorado Villa Estates are attracting additional commitments.

Design and theme of the single family Townhouses are Mediterranean Spanish, along classical lines, and follow the original villa concept so popular in southern Europe.

All of the improvements will be commonly owned by purchasers of the Townhouse Homes and lots, value of which will be included in the lots and represented by a Class A or B membership in the Eldorado Villa Golf Club Co-Owners Association. This is a non-profit association, chartered by the State of New Mexico, which owns all of the improvements.

The planned unit development when complete will total 101 Townhouse Homes, an apartment site consisting of 2½ acres, and common owned areas with commonly owned recreational facilities.

The planned unit development single family Townhouses are designed to conform with FHA's section 203 (b) program for insured financing under the National Housing Act. They will be 2, 3 and 4 bedroom, 2 and 2½ bath homes, within the $35,000 to $45,000 price range. Built in single row and cluster type design, the majority will overlook either a landscaped tee, green, fairway, stream or lake.

The apartment site designated for 'multifamily' will be developed as "condominium apartment homes". The walk-up type buildings consisting of apartment units are to be developed in accordance with the apartment ownership act of the state of New Mexico.

The unit development, it is pointed out, will result in creating a neighborhood attractive to home buyers, sound for investors and townhouse lot purchasers and creditable to the general area as well as to Ruidoso.

Care has been taken that the over-all plan meets all government approvals required by state or local law, conforms with FHA subdivision standards, and is consistent with the comprehensive planning being carried on for the area by the Lincoln County Planning and Zoning Commissio. Developers say it also is in keeping with the Village of Ruidoso's primary land uses, growth directional patterns, economic activities, and utility developments.

The Eldorado Villa Estates home "co-owners" association provides a special attraction to resident owners interested in outdoor recreational opportunities. The association will administer and maintain a man-agement program to provide the large segment of the market in the area with the quality-type living desired, at reasonable cost. This is possible through joint ownership in a multi-unit development offering amenities.

CENTER OF ACTIVITY — Designed to be the hub of activities at Eldorado Villa Estates is this recently completed recreation building. It has been designed to provide the ultimate in facilities for residents of the Estate and carries out the Mediterranean Spanish theme of architecture.

INSPECTION—Robert S. Windham, president of Eldorado Villa Estates, at left, pauses during a busy day to check progress on the foundation for the sunken tennis courts. The courts are located adjacent to the club house.

Two Leave Sunday For Girls State

Leaving Sunday morning to attend the 22nd annual New Mexico Girls' State on the University of New Mexico campus at Albuquerque are two local young ladies, Laura Jones and Cindy Harris.

Laura is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones of Ruidoso, while Cindy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Harris of Ruidoso Downs. Both will be seniors at Ruidoso High School this fall.

The local delegates to Girls' State, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, State of New Mexico, will join other delegates from the area at Carrizozo and make the remainder of the trip to Albuquerque by bus.

Comprising the group departing from Carrizozo are expected to be delegates from Alamogordo, Tularosa, Carrizozo, Capitan and Hondo.

For Laura, Girls' State will be a special highlight for the summer which will see her busy weekends at the Ruidoso Downs race track, where she is employed. Cindy will enjoy only a brief interlude before leaving in July for Fort Collins, Colo., to attend the national Future Homemakers of America convention. She currently is state FHA president.

Girls' State is a practical application of Americanism and good citizenship, designed to educate the youth of New Mexico in the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of true American citizenship and to inspire and instill a deep sense of personal responsibility and obligation which that citizenship entails. It closely parallels the objectives of Boys' State, underway this week at New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell.

The girls will form their own state and city governments, elect their own senate and house of representatives as well as city councils, where they will present and argue their own bills. The entire program is non-partisan; the political parties in Girls' State will be purely mythical.

This Volkswagen has all the sports car options as standard equipment.

Four on the floor. All synchromesh. Bucket seats. Disc brakes up front. Independent suspension, front and rear. Fuel injection, electronically controlled.

Just about everything you'd expect on a $6,000 sports car. Except a $6,000 price tag.

FREE WHEELER — The Jeep Wagoneer came to rest against the MonJeau Apartments after taking a joy ride by itself Tuesday afternoon. Parked near the Sudderth-Mechem intersection, it meandered around several turns before finally leaving the road and going over an embankment.

Wayward Vehicle Goes On Spree

A wayward vehicle, undertaking a journey by itself, was slightly damaged Tuesday when it went over a 10-ft. embankment and crashed into the side of the MonJeau Apartments.

The rather strange and mysterious happening occurred while the vehicle's erstwhile driver, John Petty of Ruidoso, was in the office of the Ruidoso Land Sales. Petty said the 1965 Jeep Wagoneer had been parked for over 30 minutes, and "was definitely in gear" when he left the vehicle.

Parked at the intersection of Sudderth and Mechem Drive, facing west, the vehicle left the curb, made a left turn as it went down Mechem Drive approximately 150 yards, rounded a second left-hand turn down an alley behind the 7-11 Store, traveled about 20 yards and around a right-hand turn before going over the embankment.

Damage to the apartment building was undetermined, and there were no reported injuries to persons within or without the structure.

Ruidoso Police Chief O. S. Montes, also puzzled by the mysterious escapade of the wayward vehicle, investigated the incident and issued a citation to Petty for an unattended vehicle.

ANOTHER "FIRST" — Boyd Driver, shown above with display at the Antique Show which has been drawing excellent crowds, will launch a new enterprise Friday as he opens the Ruidoso Auction. The Auction will be held every Friday night at the convention Center of the Chaparral Motor Hotel.

Boyd Driver To Launch Weekly Auctions Here

Boyd Driver, a Ruidosoan who returned to set up the First National Antique Show and Flea Market in the Convention Center of the Chaparral Motor Hotel, announces another near first for the area.

Premiering Friday night of this week will be the Ruidoso Auction, also at the convention center. Driver said the auction will be held each Friday night at 8 p.m. throughout the year.

Driver Productions, under which Driver operates, continues to draw outside people and interest into the area. He reported earlier this week that the antique show had its best attendance this Monday and Tuesday since the inception of the project a month ago. This weekend should be one of the best excepting the long July 4th holiday, Driver remarked.

The public is invited to attend the Ruidoso Auction and participate.

GUYS AND DOLLS—Talking over the safety program at the Ruidoso Municipal Swimming Pool prior to today's opening are these lifeguards. Gary McDonald, Alamogordo, at right, as head life guard explains his plans to Erick Hook, El Paso, left, and Betty Jo Cox of Ruidoso. Suse Pitts, also of El Paso, tries out the life guard chair. All four are holders of the WSI Red Cross certificates.

Swimming Pool Opens Thursday; Management Plans 'Free Day'

The Ruidoso municipal swimming pool officially opened at 1 p.m. today (Thursday) but the big crowd is expected Friday when swimmers and those who enjoy lazing in the sun take advantage of a "free day", compliments of the management.

Rick Vincent, pool manager, said swimmers of all ages will be admitted without charge Friday during the regular summer hours of 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The free day, Vincent explained, is being staged to help compensate for the delay in the opening of the pool, necessitated due to need for last-minute repairs.

The pool will be open to the public throughout the summer from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday. Admission is 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children under 12 years of age. Season passes are also available at the pool office.

Vincent also announced that registration currently is underway for the first of three two-week swimming instruction session scheduled for June 17-28, July 1-12 and July 15-26. Each session is comprised of eight one-hour classes, conducted between the hours of 9 a.m. and 12 noon Tuesday through Friday. Classes are limited to 10 students for maximum benefit of instruction, and include beginning, advanced beginnig, intermediate, swimmer and advanced swimmer.

During the three instructional periods, the pool will be available for public recreation use only from 1 to 7 p.m. weekdays and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sundays. Instructors will include Betty Jo Cox, Hollywood; Gary McDonald, Alamogordo, and Susie Pitt, El Paso.

'RECREATION ON THE LINCOLN'

Recreation on the Lincoln goes all the way from picnicking to overnight camping, from bag game hunting and fishing to hiking and trail riding. The above recreation takes place mostly in the spring, summer and fall. Then in the winter, the skiing takes over.

The Ruidoso District of the Lincoln has one of the best areas for all of the above recreation. In addition to deer there are bear and turkey and some day we hope to have an elk hunt. The Ski Area is one of the best and largest in the Southwest. The campgrounds on the Lincoln hosts thousands of people through the summer. They are usually full from early May 'til September. People from the major population centers near Ruidoso flock to the 'Cool-Cool" pines and to the waters of our creeks and lakes.

Guided hikes and walks are furnished by the Forest Service for the enjoyment of the public.

Special groups such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Church Groups, Flower Clubs, etc., find ample areas to camp and ample trails to walk, and an abundance of wildlife to marvel at and try to identify.

All of this requires a lot of maintenance and care. Many personnel are kept busy cleaning campgrounds, clearing trails, taking guided tours and administering the collection of fees and other projects that the public does not see.

"Inconvenience" is the key to preventing home burglaries. It simply must bt inconvenient and even difficult for the burglar to enter and leave the home undetected.

General Dynamics Consider Ruidoso As Convention Site

Ruidoso will be the site of the 1970 spring convention of the Convair Divison, General Dynamics, if negotiations now underway continue favorable.

Don Stark, manager of the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce, revealed today he is in contact with officials of General Dynamics in both New York and San Diego in regard to holding the meeting here. While previous conventions have been staged in metropolitan centers, officials appear most receptive to the Ruidoso locale, Stark said.

The convention would be expected to draw some 100 top-level executives, as well as other company personnel.

Stark said he anticipated a personal meeting with representatives of General Dynamics in the near future to further discuss the proposal.

Burglars usually "case" a home before attempting their theft. When you go on vacation this summer, be sure not to leave any tell-tale signs that you are away.

OPENS SCHOOL — Kathryne Hall Travis, noted Ruidoso artist, is opening her 13th summer school of painting July 1, she announced today, with classes open to both beginning and advanced students. She is shown above at her work in her studio.

Kathryne Travis School To Open

Kathryne Hall Travis, noted Ruidoso artist, will open her 13th summer school of painting July 1 in the Ruidoso Junior High School building, it was announced today.

Instruction is open to both beginning and advanced students, according to Mrs. Travis, who also reported that Naomi Brotherton of Dallas will conduct for the third year a watercolor painting wirkshop in conjunction with the school.

Mrs. Travis was one of the first nationally known professional artists to open an art school and gallery in Ruidoso. The school, started in 1957, was located in a building back of the Old Post Office structure, and the famous portrait painter, the late Frederick Mizen, as well as the celebrated John Meigs were associate instructors.

Since then, the school has grown each year, with students coming not only from the neighboring states but as far away as Alaska, California, Mexico, Guam, Illinois, Wisconsin and various other parts of the United States.

The Travis School is based on the highest type of fundamental instruction, as is found in all top recognized art schools. "Here we try to get the student to relate reality, to get them to look at which is actually there instead of what they think is there," Mrs. Travis explained.

Drawing is the cornerstone of the instruction. The worn-out cliche, "just go ahead and express yourself" used by many modern teachers leaves the student without technical knowledge and fundamentals of the very basis of picture construction, she asserts. The student thus becomes frustrated and helpless.

"Anybody can learn to paint", she declared. Anyone who has a deep desire to learn can do so if he is willing to work at it, is the theory of Mrs. Travis.. "There is great satisfaction and joy in store for those who desire to do good sound painting," she says.

Mrs. Travis spent 15 years in research perfecting her now well known color course, designed especially for beginners, but many professional painters also have availed themselves of the course. A number of her students have received national recognition.

For many years, Mrs. Travis was connected with the art life in Chicago. Moving to Dallas, she became co-founder of the Dallas Art Institute which later was absorbed by the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts. She was very active in art circles and her contribution to the promotion of interest in art is still evident in Dallas today.

After leaving Dallas, Mrs. Travis spent a great deal of time in the outdoors traveling and camping, becoming alert to the ever-changing moods, forms and color in nature. Her great love is for the mountain country of New Mexico, Colorado, Washington and California. She also enjoys the soft tones found in the hills of the Ozarks.

Last year, the U. S. Information Agency of Washington invited Mrs. Travis to submit reproductions of her work to be used in telling the story of cultural America to the rest of the world through the foreign press.

Reproductions of her work have appeared in magazines and international newspapers, and she has had one-man exhibition in Dallas, Seattle, Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, Denver, Chicago and numerous other cities.

Mrs. Brotherton has put aside a busy commercial art career of some 20 years in favor of teaching watercolor painting techniques. Recent honors include awards in Texas Watercolor Society Annual, and her works are represented in the collections of Baylor University, Brownsville Art Association and the Ford Motor Co. Her paintings may also be seen at the Dallas North Galleries in Dallas, Texas.

DESTROYED — Fire and smoke partially obscure the remains of a small frame cabin in the Pine Lodge Subdivision Tuesday afternoon The blaze broke out while four women and eight children, vacationing here from Lockney, Texas, were sleeping. All escaped with only minor burns, but without any personal belongings.

Visitors Unhurt; Fire Razes Cabin

A group of vacationers from Lockney, Texas escaped with only minor burns when the small frame cabin in which they were sleeping was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon.

Suffering burns on their right arms, apparently received when they left the burning cabin, were JoAnn McCormick, 12; Mrs. Ronnie Thornton and son, Ritchie Don, 2, and Mrs. Omar Burleson.

Uninjured were JoAn's mother, Mrs. Bobby McCormick, and a sister, Janet, 14; Mrs. Audrey McCormick and children, Jerri, 3, and Jeffrey, 5; Ronee Thornton, 6, and Todd Burleson, 7. Also uninjured was Linda Glasscock, 14, a house guest of the Bobby McCormicks. All were checked at the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General Hospital and released.

On a week's vacation in Ruidoso, the group was staying in a cabin belonging to the Rev. Russell McAnally of Petersburg, Texas. The cabin was located near the intersection of Fifth and D streets in the Pine Lodge subdivision.

According to Mrs. Bobby McCormick, the entire group was taking a short nap after enjoying a barbecue meal. She awakened to see flames in the cabin, and aroused the others. All their personal belongings were destroyed by the fire.

Ruidoso volunteer firemen and U. S. Forest Service personnel were able to contain the fire to the cabin, although some damage was done to a nearby cabin owned by David Evans when wind gusts whipped flames through nearby trees.

According to volunteer department fire report, the blaze evidently started when a portable charcoal grill on the wood porch was overturned by the wind, scattering live ashes on the floor.

Mrs Bobby McCormick expressed her warm appreciation to the people of Ruidoso for their many acts of kindness extended to the entire group following the incident. The visitors returned to their homes Thursday after spending the rest of their stay at the Story Book Cabins.

Sentences Given Ruidoso Youths

A Ruidoso juvenile, appearing before Juvenile Judge Richard A. Stanley at Carrizozo Monday, pleaded guilty to allowing himself to be served alcoholic liquors and to violation of the Ruidoso curfew law.

The youth was sentenced to two weeks in juvenile detention at Carrizozo, R. H. Hedgecoke, juvenile probation officer reported. However, since he was employed; Judge Stanley offered him the choice of the two weeks in detention, or spending each night for that period from 8 p.m. to 8 a.m. in the Ruidoso jail so that he could continue working.

Hedgecoke said the latter option was chosen by the juvenile, who will also be on probation for one year.

Also appearing before Judge Stanley was a Ruidoso juvenile, cited by Ruidoso police for careless driving, and by Ruidoso Downs authorities for reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident.

Judge Stanley reduced the charge of reckless driving to careless driving, and dismissed the charge of leaving the scene, since damages to the car involved was less than $25. The youth's driver's license was suspended for a period of 180 days, with no driving work permit being

The Kansas Futurity, with a purse of $150,000, is the first leg of the "Tres Coronas" or Triple Crown of Quarter Horse racing. The Kansas Futurity will be run Sunday.

Southeast-Southwest Deer Season Boundaries Established For 1969

SANTA FE — Military lands in southern New Mexico will form the major portion of the boundary between the southeast and southwest areas for the 1969 deer seasons.

There was no boundary between the two areas for deer seasons previously as the season was concurrent across the entire southern portion of the state.

The boundary for 1969 became necessary when the State Game Commission, in its recent May meeting here, established a 16-day season, Nov. 8-23, in the southeast, while the southwest season will be nine days, Nov. 8-16. The Commission established the boundary at the same meeting.

The White Sands Missile Range and Fort Bliss lands form most of the boundary, as they have no regular season and do not fit into either area. From the spot where the northern edge of the range touches U. S. 380, the boundary between the two areas becomes Highway 380 and follows it northwest to U. S. 85 at San Antonio and then follows 85 north to Bernardo, where it intersects the north-south dividing line.

A 16-day season in the north will be open Oct. 25-Nov. 9. The north-south boundary remains the same as it has been in previous years.

The commission also set the seasons for elk, antelope, turkey, bear, Barbary sheep, squirrel and grouse.

Application deadline for antelope, elk and Barbary sheep hunting are: general bull elk, Sept. 19; special elk for the Taos, Pecos, Roque, El Vado, Southwest and Guadalupe areas, Aug. 8; Tres Piedras elk, Dec. 29; antelope, Aug. 8, and Barbary sheep, Dec. 19.

Hunters should see the 1969 big game Hunting Proclamation which will be available in early July. Seasons, dates, regulations, open areas and application deadlines and procedures will be fully covered.

Sunland Park Gets 98 Days of Racing

Sunland Park has received tentative approval for 98 racing days for the 1969-70 season.

The dates were okayed by the New Mexico Racing Commission in a meeting held over the weekend at Raton.

Art Johnson, who'll shortly take the helm as Sunland Park's general manager, attended the meeting.

The 98-day request is the biggest in Sunland history. The longest meeting ever held at Sunland covered 95 days.

According to the track's '69-70 plans, the season would extend from Oct. 3 through May 10. This would provide an additional spring weekend of racing.

Last season, Sunland was granted 94 racing days between Oct. 4 and May 4.

Magazine Features Ladybugs of Capulin

Some mysterious force every summer draws millions of bright orange ladybugs to the top of the 7,000-foot Mt. Capulin cinder cone until it is impossible to see the bark of the tree trunks on which they cluster.

New Mexico Magazine's special vacation issue, now on the newsstands, features "The Ladybugs of Capulin" in its People and Places column.

What draws the ladybugs to Capulin's extinct volcano? National Park Service rangers speculate on humidity, exposure to sunlight, availability of insects and other food and absence of natural enemies—or a combination of some such circumstances.

Capitan Couple Attend Jehovah Witness Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Pat O. Coor of Capitan are making plans to attend the International Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses. It will carry the theme, "Peace on Earth" and is scheduled to last seven days, July 14 through 20, at the Los Angeles Dodger Stadium.

At such assemblies, all members of the family serve as delegates. A total of 16 persons will attend the Dodger Stadium event from the Capitan congregation.

Mr. Coor is one minister that is concerned about the current student revolt and violence that is spreading worldwide. "Young persons would do well to face up to the fact that more violence will not change the direction the world is taking," Coor asserted. "The growing rebellion and sky-rocketing lawlessness will not produce law and order. What students often overlook is that those in revolt are not proposing any workable substitute. There is much talk but enormous disagreement," he said.

"The student revolt does have a far deeper meaning. It is part of the dying gasps of this wicked system and nothing can save it. Rather it is time to consider the meaning of these events and we expect to do just that at the coming 'Peace on Earth' assembly to which all interested persons are invited," concluded Coor.

The convention of Jehovah's Witnesses are designed as a regular part of their educational program and are for all members of the family.

Picnic Prelude To Vacation Bible School

The First Baptist Church of Ruidoso held a highly successful pre-enrollment picnic, Friday, June 6 at the School House Park, to start their Vacation Bible School.

Over 60 attended the outing, according to Rev. Leon Bruce, minister.

Vacation Bible School started Monday, June 9 and will conclude Wednesday, June 18. Hours are from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m., and there are classes for all children, ages 3 to 15. A cordial welcome is extended to all children to attend.

Presbyterian Church Plans Family Night

The Presbyterian congregation will have its June family night supper and fellowship on Wednesday night, June 18.

Members and friends of the church are asked to bring a covered dish and be at the church by 7 p.m. A short report will be given by the pastor, Frank Crown, on the recent meeting of the Senate of New Mexico including reactions to the visit of Tijerina and his Alianza group. Also on the program will be a showing of the film "How Our Bible Came To Us", part two, followed by a discussion of the film.

Mrs. J. B. Wilson Is Hostess For Party

Mrs. J. B. Wilson hosted a party Saturday, June 7, in her home for members of her Sunday School class, the Intermediate Girls of the Ruidoso Baptist Church.

Present for the gala affair were Judy Armstrong, Mary Ward, Brenda Armstrong, Darlene Joyce, Cindy Taylor, Wanda Ward, Jackie Armstrong and Charlet Taylor.

Jamboree Plans Are Completed By Scout Leaders

Final details for the approaching National Jamboree of Boy Scouts of America, to be attended by 37 Scouts from the Conquistador Council, were made Friday night in Ruidoso in the fifth and last of such planning sessions.

Attending the meeting were Quincy Lee, scout executive of the council; Dick Davidson, scoutmaster of Troop 2, Ken Scott, scoutmaster of Troop 21, all of Roswell and Marvin Craig, scoutmaster of Troop 59, Ruidoso.

The trio of scoutmasters will serve as tour guides for the Boy Scouts from the council who will attend the Jamboree, set for July 16-22 at Farragut State Park, Idaho.

Prior to arriving at the Jamboree site, the Scouts will travel through the famed Philmont Scout Ranch in northern New Mexico, and will tour the U. S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., and Yellowstone National Park. Their trip home will include a tour of the Salt Lake area.

With major plans now finalized, all Scouts making the trip will join June 27-29 for a pre-Jamboree training camp on the campus of New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell. There they will be given invaluable training on what to expect upon arrival at the Jamboree site.

Services Held For Former County Man

Final rites for a former Lincoln County resident, Clyde O. Thrower, were held Tuesday afternoon at Balard Chapel in Roswell, with the Rev. Buford Coplen, pastor of the Washington Avenue Baptist Church of that city officiating.

Thrower, 78, who had been in ill health for some time, was a resident of Roswell at the time of his death.

Born and reared in Lincoln County, he moved as a young man to Idaho but returned to New Mexico prior to entering service in World War I.

He worked for a number of years on the Block Ranch, north of the Capitan Mountains, and later for the J. P. White farms. He was employed by Southwestern Public Service for 12 years, retiring in 1955.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Paul Snelson of Roswell and Mrs. Cecil Phillpott of Wilcox, Ariz.; four sisters, Mrs. Frankie Mae Davis, Roswell; Mrs. Beulah Fay Ethel of San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Gladys Brown, Pocatello, Idaho, Mrs. Vivian Rybera, Monterey, Calif.; three brothers, Roy, Ray and Vernon Thrower, all of Phoenix, Ariz.; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

CONFER ON BUDGET—Ruidoso Downs Village Clerk Alton Gray confers with assistant clerk, Hazel Lawing on the 1969-70 village budget before its submission to the State Finance office. The budget calls for an estimated expenditures of $111,000, up from the current budget of $90,935.

Pat Farrar, Vincent Cojo Among Youth Day Honorees At Holloman

Two area young men have a broader knowledge of the United States Air Force and the many opportunities as well as responsibilities the service affords following a day at Holloman Air Force Base devoted to a "Salute to the Youth of Today."

Impressed with the many experiences capsuled into one day's time and grateful for the opportunity to be among the select few to be special honoree of the Air Force last Friday are Pat Farrar of Ruidoso and Vincent Cojo of Mescalero.

The day's activities opened with selections of music by the 424th Army Band from Ft. Bliss. Col. George T. Buck, commander of the Air Force Missile Development Center at Holloman, served as master of ceremonies during the formal program, introducing each student and his or her sponsor to the large crowd.

Demonstrations by the Golden Knights began, and the two area youths craned their necks as did thousands of spectators as shifting wind caused obvious problems for the sure parachutists. Smoke grenades attached to the performers' feet enabled the crowd to watch their progress downward and to outline the designs they formed in the area.

A 45-minute program by the Thunderbirds was equally as thrilling, but neither performance matched the thrills experienced by the two young men as they, and other students so honored, were introduced to the individual performers.

As a climax to the day, the students, together with crew members of the Golden Knights and Thunderbirds, were honored at a reception at the Officer's Club hosted by the Missile Development Center and Col. James Dimel.

The day's schedule for the students also included a tour of the rocket sled area and aircraft and missile test sites. During a luncheon, held in the officers' mess, Farrar and Cojo were presented with honorary degrees of doctor of aerospaceology and each received a color photo of the Thunderbirds flying in formation, with a personally inscribed message signed by the five members of the crew.

Local officials accompanying Farrar to Holloman for the day's activities included Ruidoso Mayor Lloyd L. Davis, Jr., Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce president Don Driver and chamber manager Don Stark. Also making the trip were Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Stark.

Sen. Joe Skeen Joins Staff of Callaway Agency

Callaway Agency, Inc., 1677 Sudderth Drive, announced today the association of Joe Skeen with its real estate department. The agency handles both real estate and insurance.

Skeen, who is state senator from Lincoln and Otero counties, is extremely well acquainted with the real estate situation, not only in these two counties but state-wide as well. He extends a cordial invitation to all his friends to stop by the agency, and welcomes the opportunity to assist them with their real estate needs.

The senator will be working with all types of real estate, but will be concentrating in the area of farms and ranches.

Skeen is owner of the Buckhorn Ranch at Picacho, and of Brown Flying Service, Inc., in Ruidoso. He was elected to the Senate from Lincoln and Otero Counties in 1966, and served as Minority floor leader for the 28th Legislature. Skeen also was named this year to the Medicade investigation committee. He previously was elected to the State Senate in Nov., 1960.

Communities To Soon Receive State DOD's Development Kit

The Department of Development's "do-it-yourself" industrial development kit soon to be distributed to communities throughout New Mexico has received a "superior" award in a nation-wide competition sponsored by the American Industrial Development Council. Governor David F. Cargo, presented the award to James O. Roberson, director of Development, and Frank E. Gray, industrial development manager for the Public Service Company of New Mexico, yesterday.

Gray represented the eight public utility companies serving New Mexico that made financial contributions to publish the series.

The DOD's entry was in competition with similar publications submitted by communities and states from throughout the United States.

The industrial deevlopment kit outlines an eight-point program designed to encourage expansion and development within New Mexico on an individual community basis.

Gordon Byrd, acting chief of the DOD's Industrial Division, said that industry and DOD industrial development experts will conduct field training sessions in communities throughout New Mexico to insure maximum utilization of the kits. By using this approach, Byrd said, New Mexico communities will be able to draw on the experience of long-time industrial development experts in adapting the program to local situations.

One goal of the program is to make communities more attractive for present residents so industry already in the area will want to stay.

Byrd said the series will be used as part of a new "Blue Ribbon City" program soon to be launched by the DOD. The program is designed to rate cities according to efforts being made in the areas of tourists, industrial and community development. Each year a "Blue Ribbon City" will be selected in each of several categories based on local population.

Byrd said the first booklet in the award-winning industrial development series outlines a plan for the organization of local community development committees. The committee then develops a program, based on the seven additional booklets, to create in the community a more attractive industrial and residential climate.

Booklets in the program are designed to allow communities without the resources to employ consultants or full-time industrial development personnel to initiate industrial development programs to suit their local needs.

Booklets in the series include: How to Get Started in Community Development; How to Prepare A Community Survey; How to Prepare A Site Survey; Industrial Parks; Community Promotion; How to Find and Work With Industrial Prospects; Planning and Community Development; and Zoning and Community Development.

Participating in the program with the DOD are Southwestern Public Service Company, Community Public Service Company, Public Service Company of New Mexico, El Paso Natural Gas Comany, Plains Electric Cooperative, Southern Union Gas Company, El Paso Electric Company and New Mexico Electric Service Company.

FEATURED DUO — Entertaining Friday and Saturday night as the Inn Credible inaugurates the summer season will be Benny Hester and Steve Hilton. Singing only original tunes, the duo seeks to let "new ideas express themselves" through their music.

Talented Duo To Be Featured At Inn-Credible

Featured entertainers this Friday and Saturday night at the Inn Credible as it inaugurates the summer season, will be Benny Hester and Steve Hilton, a pair who inject a fresh note into the music world with their "conversing through music".

Operating the Inn Credible, located on Highway 37 east of the ski area turn-off, are Chuck Pankey and Delma Pepper. Chuck is the genial manager behind the bar, while Delma is in charge of the food services. Both are inviting old and new friends to join with them in launching the new season.

The entertainers, here from appearances in El Paso, are a talented pair. Benny has the mind of a "mad scientist" and is always racing towards a revolutionary new musical 'formula". Steve's a poet and more, a powerful and talented singer.

Together, they have a conversation with all people through music that is neither folk nor rock, neither classical nor jazz. It's simply Them, an offering of emotion and understanding to answer needs within people.

The boys have been at their craft for years. Steve has sung in public since grade school. Benny began study on the accordian when he was four and progressed to composing in high school.

Now, singing only original tunes written by Benny, the duo is, as Steve explains "saying what needs to be said about life in a way that people are ready for it to be said."

People are in for a treat at the Inn Credible as they listen to Steve and Benny present their own unique music, in their own unique style.

Montoya Legislation To Open Indian Health Facilities To Non-Indians

U. S. Senator Joseph M. Montoya (D. N Mex.) today announced his sponsorship of the "Remote Area Medical Facilities Act of 1969", a proposal, he said, designed to bring medical services to remote, rural areas of New Mexico where such services do not exist or are madequate

"Medical facilities and care are totally non-existent in many areas of New Mexico far removed from commercial centers," Senator Montoya stated, noting that "some counties in the State have only one or two doctors while others do not have any doctors servicing the county at all." He indicated that "the medical attention that many of us have become accustomed to and take for granted are unknown to, or beyond the reach of, residents of these remote areas."

The Senator said it would not be feasible at this time to propose building sufficient, new medical facilities to take care of these needs, although he indicated his intention to push for additional medical facilities for New Mexico through the Four Corners Commission. But he went on to state that, "we should make available existing facilities to all who need to use them."

Montoya's proposal would make available to the general public as well as to private physicians in remote areas hospitals and other medical facilities of the Indian Health Service (IHS). IHS facilities are presently available to Federal employees and their dependents under existing law, but, except for emergencies, are not available to provide for the health care of others who reside in the vicinity of these remote hospitals and health facilities of the U. S. Public Health Service.

Montoya's legislation would open up health facilities to many not now able to use them. "For example," Montoya noted, "there are approximately 1,629 non-Indians residing within a 20 mile radius of the Zuni Indian Hospital and the nearest hospital for these people is the community hospital at Gallup approximately [illegible] miles away. My bill, [illegible] 1,629 non-Indians to use the facilities at Zuni Indian Hospital."

Under the proposal, the need of the Indians [illegible] would continue to receive priority and [illegible] pay a "reasonable" charge which money would be returned to the Federal Treasury for services rendered.

There are [illegible] IHS hospitals and five IHS health centers in New Mexico. [illegible] [illegible]

Summer Tours Of Chino Mines Are Announced

The Chino Mines Division of Kennecott Copper Corporations's 1969 Summer Tour Program is underway and will continue through the end of August.

The tours are open to anyone 12 years of age or over. This age limit has been established for safety reasons.

Tours are conducted once daily, Monday through Friday, at 9:30 a.m. Visitors should allow approximately two hours for the tour.

The tour will begin at the Public Relations Office of Kennecott Copper Corporation's Chino Mines Division in the General Office Building located on Cortez Street in Hurley. Following a briefing session, visitors then will be conducted on a tour of the mill and smelter.

Trained guides will be provided and necessary safety equipment will be furnished to the visitors. It is recommended that those making the tour wear comfortable walking shoes and avoid extreme high heels.

It is not necessary to make reservations for these tours. As in the past, special groups may arrange tours at times which may be more convenient.

Kennecott's open pit copper mine at Santa Rita, has long been a favorite tourist attraction in the Silver City area and a visitor's observation point is open daily during day-light hours.

Further information can be obtained from the Public Relations Office in Turley, telephone area 505-537-3381, extension 361.

Ruidosoan Learns of Son's Return From Vietnam By Humorous Letter

A bit of humor crops up in unexpected places, and so it was not only with happiness but with a chuckle or two that Mrs. Juanita Walker of Ruidoso received notification that her son, Mike Trotter, was scheduled to leave Vietnam Monday to return state-side.

Trotter, 20, has served with the Army in Vietnam for the past year. On his return to the States, he is to be re-assigned but is expected to spend a portion of his leave here with his mother and other relatives.

The notification, a mimeographed sheet from the Commanding Officer, states as its subject the imminent return of your son and the necessary precautionary measures to be taken."

It reads:

"This is to inform you that as of June 9 a certain mud bound water soaked, slightly crazy individual known as Mike is leaving our little village security minded among the jungle and rice paddies of Qui Nhon, South Vietnam, which is located 200 miles north of Saigon, on the shores of the South China Sea, in a semi-tropical country in the far east.

Therefore your attention is invited to the following words of advice:

Get your women off the streets, hide the corn liquor, lock the cow in the barn and put a lock on your refrigerator.

This man has survived the worst that the Far East has to offer, rain, heat rats, mosquitos, loneliness, the mess hall, lack of ice, lack of soft drinks and Monsoons, not to mention a liberal sprinkling of typhoons.

Be he husband, sweetheart, friend, son or brother to you, he is still yours. He may not look like the same person who left you a year ago and he may act somewhat differently but this is to be expected after twelve grueling water soaked, ten-zapping, mud plastered months in Viet Nam.

Over the last twelve months this man has acquired such eating habits as stirring soy sauce in his potatoes, putting his catsup on his eggs (that is when they were available, which was most generally powdered eggs), jelly on his cake and mixing raw onions in his rice in hopes of making it taste better, so do not be alarmed if for awhile he continues this practice.

Resist to say anything about powdered eggs, please! Also dehydrated potatoes, fried rice, powdered milk and above all, do not mention or even hint at fresh bread and tea.

By no means should you ask, "Does it ever rain in Viet Nam?"

Do not say anything if he stares at such things as chairs, soft mattresses, fresh milk, smooth roads, or hands around muttering such phrases as Dee-Dee, Xin-Loi, Choi-Hoi, Same Same, Bou-Cou, Short-Timer, Ten P's, Hello Okay, You give me a cigarette. Do not argue with him if he asks for sulphur to put in his bath water. Just go along with him and he will get over it eventually.

If he prefers to sit cross-legged on the floor and insists on everyone eating soup with chop sticks, pay no heed to him but for your sake HUMOR him or he will tear the house down.

When he is crossing the street take care of him, for he has forgotten such things as stop signs, stop lights, traffic signs of any nature. He has become impartial and indifferent and completely oblivious to: cars, horns, cycles, water buffalo and other such things commonly found in the village of Qui Nhon.

Do not ask him as to how the mail was over there as he is liable to become quite violent.

Remember that beneath this rough and water-soaked exterior there exists a heart, sweet and pure, though a little wet. He may not look or act like it, but he is your son. Just allow him a few months to get used to being in civilization.

If anything arises that you cannot handle, please call the police in Qui-Nhon. It won't do any good but they like to use the phone as it makes them feel important.

Send no more mail to APO 96238, San Francisco, Calif., because that bloody eyed, mud soaked, idiot soldier of yours is on his way home!"

Degrees Earned

Collins, Ruidoso, Bachelor of Science in Home Economics; Mrs. Molly K. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron O. Harris, Ruidoso, Bachelor of Science in Home Economics, with honors; Jack T. Pior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Pryir, Ruidoso, Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering.

$1 Million In Social Security Benefits Goes To County Residents

"This year, residents of south-Eastern New Mexico will receive nearly $23 million in social security benefits," Bob Noble, social security field representative for this area commented. "Of this amount, over $1 million will be received by beneficiaries in Lincoln County."

Obviously social security is big business. This emphasizes the necessity of keeping social security records accurate, so that correct amounts may be paid to the individuals involved. Both employers and their employees, as well as self-employed individuals, are involved in this teamwork with the Social Security Administration. Here are a few simple tips to assure this accuracy:

(1) Each employee should SHOW his social security card to his employer—not just give it to him from memory or from a slip of paper.

(2) Each employer should make certain that the number is copied from the employee's card and recorded accurately in the employer's records.

(3) When a woman marries (and many will be doing just that this month), she should notify the Social Security Office promptly of this fact so that her social security card may be corrected.

(4) At least once every three or four years, every employee and self-employed person should request a statement of his account from the Baltimore headquarters of social security. A post card form (Form 7004) may be secred from any social security office for this purpose.

Anyone wishing assistance with his social security card or record should see Noble July 10 at the Council Room in the Ruidoso City Hall. He will be there from 10 to noon and 1 to 2.

Career Civil Servants Honor Program Started

A program to honor career civil servants for significant contribution to government has been established in New Mexico.

The New Mexico Distinguished Public Service Awards Program was initiated by the National Civil Service League.

The Program, which will be sponsored by the State of New Mexico, the Federal Executive Association, Albuquerque Santa Fe, the City of Albuquerque and other cities and counties of New Mexico in affiliation with the National Civil Service League, will recognize twelve Governmental service employees for their performance, integrity and devotion to public service.

In addition, a special category has been established in which private citizens will also be recognized for significant contributions to Government. Employees will be nominated by the local, state and federal agencies for which they work by private citizens. Nominations will be screened and winners will be selected by a committee consisting of representatives of local, state and federal governments and of participating private civic organizations. Final selection of award winners is scheduled for December of this year.

George B. Schold, Jr., personnel Director, City of Albuquerque, is chairman of the Executive Board of the New Mexico Distinguished Public Service Awards Council.

Veterans May Receive College Credit At ENMU

Eastern New Mexico University has adopted a policy to grant up to eight hours undergraduate credit for service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

The proposal, adopted by the Administrative Council, says the credit is granted upon application and presentation of adequate evidence of qualifying military experience. A veteran eligible for educational benefits under one of the public laws and who has served on continuous active duty for at least one calendar year is eligible to apply for such credit.

Eight hours of Armed Forces credit may be applied toward the baccalaureate degree, four of which may be applied to physical education activity requirements, the policy reads. Each veteran must request an evaluation from the registrar during his first academic year as a fulltime resident student. Credit assigned will be officially recorded after the student has successfully completed 12 credit hours of work, the policy further explains.

Application forms and further information about the policy are available in the Registrar's Office, Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, N. M., 88130.
