By HUGH STILES

The annual BIG ONE for the Ruidoso area, ASPENCADE, is already well underway and this weekend's activities are classed at nothing short of multiple blessings for all ages of people as well as all kinds. Many area motel owners reported early this week that they had received many advance reservations for the special autumn weekend, fact of the matter, several stated that they were already completely full, can't beat that.

Several months ago we received a phone call from El Paso asking about the annual ride up to the aspens including the annual lunch in the pines and aspens. Ray Reed, one of the pioneers of Aspencade, informed me that this year a trail ride has been scheduled to leave Cowboy's Stables at 8:00 a.m., Sunday morning, ride through the scenic splendors of our area and lunch in the mountains for the annual aspen dinner. For more information call Reed at 378-5851.

Not shortly after the grandeur of Aspencade is over the Ruidoso Area will be especially stimulating with the annual Ruidoso Warrior Booster Club scholarship fund-raiser game between the Harlem Stars and the Ruidoso Ramblers. The annual hot-blood contest will be held next Tuesday, Oct. 12, in the Ruidoso High School Gym, 7:30 p.m., and will feature many Ruidoso dignitaries, some as gift as the aspens. It is good that our community, as internationally famous as it is, that we can still get together as a community for such events. Proceeds from the game go towards the Ruidoso High School athletic program.

The line-up of Ruidoso Rambler team members is really something to behold and the athletic and cheerleaders are most positively bound to make for a real evening of fun and pleasure for the townspeople.

Now in the Silver Anniversary year of the incorporation of the village of Ruidoso, warranty deed to Ruidoso is now at [illegible] of government was definitely established in the very [illegible] of the village in the manner in the fact that the village initiated a record one million dollar G. O. Water Bond [illegible] to insure more people and underlying fact our village elected officials and administration must be commended for their leadership. These truly dedicated individuals, although [illegible] and dismissed by the critics, really have proven time and time again that they have the total village at heart. It is also good for the Ruidoso residents that their governing body are not puppets for special interest or political groups, they have proven that they dare and have minds of their own regarding village matters but that togetherness in what is best for the village is their sincere premise. We sincerely commend them for their efforts towards insisting on promoting what is best for our community.

The Ruidoso News' annual Football Contest Page, as explained, has attracted additional contest players as in comparison to previous years. This year's out of state contest players have increased over past years and scoring the page really takes more time than ever before. We do apologize for the numerous problems we have created within families as they compete for the prize money but we are happy that some of our local women have become avid sport fans with many of them now extremely knowledgeable of the game of football.

Ruidoso Council Asks Change In Ordinance

The Ruidoso Village council, during a regular council meeting, Thursday, Sept. 30, agreed that strict enforcement of the village Cut Design Standards regarding cutting village streets was necessary.

The matter of contractors cutting streets for utility lines and improperly repairing the cuts was brought to the attention of the council by Trustee Warren Tucker. Numerous complaints by area residents reportedly have been received by council members.

After a lengthy discussion and reading of the existing village ordinance No. 1984-126 by Mayor Pro-tem, Elmer Pirelli, the council requested village attorney John Thompson to prepare a revision of the existing ordinance. The revised ordinance is to include a requirement by contractors to secure a permit from the village before cutting a street, all finish work on street cuts will be done by the village and all street cuts or excavations shall be done according to Cut Design Standards and under the supervision of the village.

The council also agreed to lease land in the Municipal Park to a local non-profit organization to construct a youth center. A formal lease agreement will be voted on later by the governing body.

In other action the council agreed upon a Special Called Meeting, Monday, Oct. 4, to meet with Jim Wimberly, Ruidoso, to negotiate the purchase of Cherokee Well. Wimberly previously offered to sell the 18.7 acres of water for the village for $20 per acre foot. Since the original meeting with Wimberly, the village, realizing only 50 percent usage of the water rights.

Present for Tuesday's meeting were Mayor Pro-Tem, Elmer Pirelli, Mayor Albert Abel and Trustees Warren Tucker, Bill Hanley and A. B. Cottwood.

—Special Called Meeting—

The Ruidoso Village council met Monday afternoon with Jim Wimberly and agreed to purchase Wimberly's Cherokee Well for $18,000.

Prior to the agreed purchase price for the water well that reportedly will produce 250 gallons per minute, Mayor Pro-Tem Elmer Pirelli asked Wimberly what he considered to be a fair price for the well. Wimberly replied, "$16,000." Pirelli directed a question to Wimberly, "Don't you think $16,000 is too much?" To which Wimberly emphasized, "No, I don't."

Trustee Warren Tucker, in referring to the state's water usage cut back from total use of the well to only 26.7 acre feet of water as compared to the original 54.9, suggested that the village and Wimberly agree to "split the difference for a sale price of $12,500." Wimberly replied, "I won't take that." He continued, "$15,000 is my bottom price."

In the final agreement the village agreed to pay Wimberly $15,600 for the Cherokee Well which includes a fifty-foot easement access road to the well site.

WATER BOND ELECTION OFFICIALS — Election officials for the Oct. 5 Ruidoso One Million Dollar G. O. Water Bond issue took time out to pose for the News and perhaps were unaware that they officiated a history making bond election. The election proved to be a record voter response and a record value bond issuance for for the village. Pictured, left to right seated, are Mrs. Carl Jorren, Mrs. James Beall, Mrs. Jim Wimberly, Mrs. Dale Wynn and Mrs. Tom Jones. Standing is Mrs. W. O. Wooldridge. (Ruidoso News Photo)

Voters Approve A One Million Dollar Water Expansion Program

BY HUGH STILES

This is the Silver Anniversary of the incorporation of the Village of Ruidoso. The story of Ruidoso's twenty-five years of incorporation in relationship to the municipality's physical improvements is a success story all its own and very proudly noted in many aspects.

This new another credit to its Silver Anniversary of Ruidoso has been added with last Tuesday's solid voter approval of the initial General Obligation Bond Issuance [illegible] for the Village of Ruidoso.

Voters, the largest number ever to vote in a special called bond election, approved by a nine to one margin, the village council's call for a One Million Dollar G. O. water bond issuance for a major water distribution and expansion program for the village.

The Ruidoso Story is legitimately magnified by the fact that Tuesday's bond election historically added another "voter approval" to the village's total number of bond elections. The village, since its incorporation in 1946, has never failed to approve a bond election of any kind. Tuesday's bond approval now makes the score historically twenty-one approvals and no disapprovals.

The 93 voter response in Tuesday's bond election takes on greater significance when you consider our total population of five thousand plus and then subtract over a thousand who are either school age or pre-school age, and also subtract several hundreds who are not registered to vote and add others who were out of the village on Tuesday.

Also highly significant is the fact that over sixty-five percent of the improved property within the village municipality is owned by individuals who live outside of the village, most reside out of the state.

The major water distribution and expansion project for the village includes a 10 million gallon off-river raw water storage facility, five treated water storage tanks each with a capacity of 500,000 gallons and a one million gallon water tank north of Ruidoso near the entrance to the Sun Valley subdivision. Additional increased water mains and equipment is also included in the overall improvement project.

Village trustees have assured village residents that dedicated efforts are currently being made by the village to secure federal funding on a matching basis for the project. Monies received by the federal government will be deducted from the one million dollar bond election.

Ruidoso voted its first general obligation water bond, the first bond of any kind, in January, 1951 and this year, its Silver Anniversary, paid off that first $125,000 indebtedness. In 1975 and 1976 two other water bonds will be resolved, one originally totaled $92,000 and the second, $175,000.

A HYSTERICAL EXPERIENCE

Ruidoso Rambler Basketballers To Take On Famed Harlem Stars

Ruidoso area residents, young and old, are in for an exceptionally monumental treat next Tuesday night, Oct. 12, as the undefeated Ruidoso Ramblers basketball team take on the world famous Harlem Stars. The exceedingly different fun-filled game is scheduled for the Ruidoso High School gym beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The game is sponsored by the Ruidoso Warrior Booster Club and all proceeds from the basketball spectacular contest will go to the Ruidoso High School athletic program.

Early reports are that the game is sure to go down in the history of basketball as an "experience" and without question will be long remembered by hometown viewers.

In addition to the host of star and starless players on both teams the game will be grandiloquent in its officiating. Three top referees, naturally selected locally, will add a tremendous amount of comedy to the game.

Two officials for the game have already been announced with the third, a surprise non-discriminatory selection by the promoters who will be known only as the Masked Marvel of Officiating. The two referees already announced are hometown favorites Dick "Heavy" Mound and C. L. "Bones" Wright, both have been associated with sports for eons of time.

Advertised as the Greatest and Funniest Basketball Team in the country, the Harlem Stars are made up of hand picked basketball specialists who have toured the world. They are also described as a "Go Man Go" team adding their own style of razzle dazzle ball handling, intricate pass patterns, trick shooting, marathon dribbling, and impromptu comedy antics while on the court and off the court.

Reportedly one of the greatest attractions of the locally sponsored fund raising special will be the cheerleaders for the hometown Ruidoso Ramblers. The six man hurrah hustlers are all Ruidoso High School Warrior football team stars. The cheerleaders include Blane Miller, Corky Conley, Craig Horton, Kent Skarda, Reeves McGuire, and the personable "Cricket" Level.

Age being no factor for the evening's enjoyment, in the stands or on the playing court, the Ruidoso Ramblers are made up of several generations. Head player-coach-manager for the Ramblers is Dick "Pagty Hose Sales Dynamo" Pearson. Team members are Ken Newton, L. Ray "Slim" Nunley, Dave "Long Term Life" Parks, Rick Stevenson, and great scots, Gene, Rick and David. To round out the team, literally, two stalwarts in the persons of Jack Valliant and Wayne Wood are sure to assist all Ramblers in locating the hoop.

Admission to the game has been set at $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students. Pre-school children will be admitted free.

Aspencade Group Completes Plans

Final plans were completed for the 1971 Aspencade at a special called meeting held Monday evening at the Chamber of Commerce office.

It was decided that tickets to the barbecue would be sold by teams in Alamogordo and Roswell Wednesday and Thursday of this week. It was also noted that barbecue tickets would be sold by the Jaycees and Ambassadors in the immediate Ruidoso area.

The chamber office has for sale authentic Aspen leaves preserved in plastic, at $2.50 each, that may be worn in place of western clothing for the last week of the celebration. It was noted that the company which prepares the leaves will be in Ruidoso to collect Aspen leaves for manufacture into the pins.

Postmaster Named . . . For Ft. Stanton

Fred Huleen, regional postmaster general for the U. S. Postal Service, announced the appointment of 15 postmasters in the west. Among the appointees is Decl P. Britton, Fort Stanton.

All are career postal specialists who were recommended for postmaster status by regional merit selection boards established by the Postal Service. Appointments were effective Oct. 2.

Ruidoso Forest Lawn Vandalism Reported

Officials of the Ruidoso Cemetery Board recently reported that "a considerable amount of vandalism" had occurred at the village's Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Belle Clarke, president of the board, stated that a number of grave markers had been broken loose, trees cut and that vehicles reportedly have been driving at will through the cemetery. She said that "the tracks are very evident in many areas of the cemetery."

An urgent request is being made to all individuals who install grave markers and curbing around grave lots to park their vehicles on cemetery roads rather than driving to work locations.

Members of the board met with Ruidoso village officials who assured them of the complete cooperation by all involved village departments.

The SILVER LINING

By DANIEL A. STORM

One of the blessings of television is that we can all have a close-up view of two great American traditions in action. Sportsmanship and team work. Is this why we feel a lift in our spirits during the month of October with football and World Series baseball in full swing?

Team Work In The The Building of Highways

Team work has been the story of American life since the beginning of our country and to this very day this principle—though not as plain to see as on the athletic field—is very much a part of all successful accomplishments in all phases of our life as a nation.

Just here lately I have had the pleasant experience of seeing team work on a large scale on the Glencoe highway project. The other morning Joe Nail, project supervisor for the eastern half of the project, called his staff together for a combination pre-construction and safety meeting. My eyes were opened to the countless details, preparations and plans that must be taken care of before "a plough is even put into the ground," as Joe expressed the thought.

As the meeting progressed it became plain that the state highway personnel are a team with Joe as the head coach. Then the contractor, Floyd D. Haake and his men come into the picture; and the local people along the way and the driving public are part of the big team. All have their part in the success of the project.

The Vast Amount of Planning And Coordination

To the story of a highway, first comes the question of the need. Then a feasibility study group and later a pioneering and location crew comes into the area. Then comes the securing of right of way. The actual engineering of the proposed highway is then accomplished, together with a study of the soil, terrain and climatic conditions. Tests practically without number are made of soils, gravels, sands, rock and everything else that goes into the making of a highway.

Then, after the most thorough preparation the contract is let. The successful bidder and the key men of the highway department then get together in a pre-construction conference. Here every detail of the project is considered, questions are brought up, and at the end of the meeting everybody understands where his part of the project fits in with all the other phases of the work.

Once the work has begun, the contractor and the State Highway people on the job work closely so that, from the beginning of the first dirt work on to the finishing layer of asphalt on the highway, there will be a solid, safe, lasting and beautiful highway.

The three main divisions of work of the highway department are engineering, inspection and administration. Along with the construction, tests are made of the soils and gravel used; the compaction of the road bed and the fill around the concrete and corrugated metal culverts; and concrete in the bridges. These tests are on permanent record. The surveying crew is at work all through the building of the highway from start to finish. And herein lies something to be kept in mind by the driving public, you and I.

Safety During Highway Construction

Every possible precaution is taken to safeguard the lives and limbs of the traveling public. And the contractors and the highway department are asking, are urging, that Mr. and Mrs. America driving through the projects to please be careful.

In Good Hands

The taxpayers of our state and nation may rest easy in the knowledge that the Glencoe highway project (both ends) is in good hands. And the outlook is bright for a solid, safe and beautiful highway.

Chips From The Ranger's Log

The recent nip to our cool morning air indicates summer is nearly over and fall is close at hand. In fact, fall has arrived in the high country with some aspen already yellowed by the chill.

It is our deciduous trees—those which lose their leaves each year—that are the best indicators of approaching fall, incorporating the color producers are aspen, oak and maple. These trees will soon dress the hills with a red and gold splendor.

It requires no vivid imagination to picture Mother Nature going about on autumn days with a liberal supply of paint, with which she colors the leaves of the trees and other plants and thereby produces the riot of red, purple, orange, and yellow found in the woods. Every year at this time we revel in the beauty of the trees, knowing well that it is only a fleeting pleasure. Before long the leaves will flutter away from their summer home and become a part of the rich carpet that covers the forest floor.

All during spring and summer the leaves have served as factories where most of the foods necessary for the trees' growth are manufactured. This food - making process takes place in the leaf in numerous cells containing the pigment chlorophyll, which gives the leaf its color. This chlorophyll absorbs energy from sunlight and uses it in transforming carbon dioxide and water to carbohydrates, such as sugars and starch. Along with the green pigment leaves also contain yellow or orange carotenoids—which, for example, give the carrot its familiar color. Most of the year these yellowish colors are masked by the greater amount of green coloring. But in the fall, partly because of changes in the period of daylight and changes in temperature, the leaves stop their food-making process. The chlorophyll breaks down, the green color disappears, and the yellowish colors become visible and give the leaves part of their fall splendor.

Fall weather conditions favoring formation of brilliant red autumn color are warm sunny days followed by cool nights with temperatures below 45° F. Much sugar is made in the leaves during the daytime, but cool nights prevent movement of sugar from the leaves. From the sugars trapped in the leaves the red pigment called anthocyanin is formed. This month the nights are cooling slowly. With any luck the yellow-gold of aspen and oak tinged slightly with red maple will produce a riot of colors this fall, providing many hours of sightseeing enjoyment.

The degree of color may vary from tree to tree. For example, leaves directly exposed to the sun may turn red, while those on the shady side of the same tree or on other trees in the shade may be yellow. The foliage of some tree species just turns dull brown from death and decay and never shows bright colors.

As the fall colors appear, other changes are taking place. At the base of the leafstalk where it is attached to the twig, a special layer of cells develops and gradually severs the tissues that support the leaf. At the same time Nature heals the break, so that after the leaf is finally blown off by the wind or has fallen from its own weight, the place where it grew on the twig is marked by a leaf scar.

Through fallen leaves, Nature has provided for a fertile forest floor. Fallen leaves contain relatively large amounts of valuable elements, particularly calcium and potassium, which were originally a part of the the soil. Decomposition of the leaves enriches the top layers of the soil by returning part of the elements borrowed by the tree, and at the same time provides for more water-absorbing humus.

MRS. B—

By CECELIA BARRON

Mr. Storm's article on Zane Grey brought back fond memories. Even though they date us, I think there is no better reading than this great writer's books. They make you feel you are truly there. The modern books of today about war, automation, space and the moon are all educational but you want to be somewhere else; away from the confusion.

Thoughts of Zane Grey brings to mind something I had almost forgotten.

Back in nineteen hundred and fifty-eight I was on vacation with my daughter. We had been to the Grand Canyon. On the way back detoured down to Prescott and up through Oak Creek Canyon; which was about twenty miles south of Flagstaff. We came upon a resort which arrested my attention and we stopped. We were told that Zane Grey had written his book 'Call of the Canyon' while there and his cabin was up the cliff. The place seemed so pleasant we rented a cabin to stay the entire week, and a boy showed us the way up the cliff which was rather steep—I don't think I could climb it today.

The roof of the old cabin had fallen in and the doors hung askew. I thought it a shame someone had not preserved it. I believe if it had been in our state, it would have been. After I learned the way I made the climb up every day we were there. I would sit on a rock and look out over the vast canyon. Oh, what a view! It seemed God had put it there especially for someone like Zane Grey to write about. I imagined I could hear the click-click-clack of his typewriter (if he used one) and see his wild animals running about, which he surely must have had as pets, or he would not have known so much about them. It was a fascinating experience and I have often wondered if the cabin is still there.

Speaking of wild animals: I am wondering where all the bears and dogs have gone, that created so much excitement in this neighborhood during the summer. Maybe our brave hunters have disposed of these garbage can raiders; especially the bears if not the dogs.

These young bears seemed to be quite different from some of their ancestors. As an example: one particular grown cub depended on the garbage so much that he would roam around this vicinity in broad daylight looking for tasty morsels and sleeping under houses in the heat of the day.

I noticed one night while a bear was in a garbage can, that the dog next door had not barked until the can was well turned over; then he and the neighborhood dogs ran him away. They then helped themselves and later followed the bear; keeping their distance until the bear had turned another can over. They then again drove him away. What a system!

Seems to me these harmless bears should be a good drawing card for tourists to our beautiful country, such as in Yellowstone National Park. If these interesting animals are not fully protected and cared for they probably will become extinct; either by hunters or stale garbage. I know of some things that may be more dangerous than these bears. Some have only two legs and are rather ursine themselves.

One day we hiked up the mountain southwest of town. I went as far as I could then turned back; being careful to mark my trail so others could find me if I should fall by the wayside in the underbrush. I used to hike anywhere my youngsters could but not any more. We found bear tracks as large as my hand but saw no bear.

We did see many beautiful wild flowers and the higher we went the more there were. But the saddest thing we saw were beer cans and broken bottles littering along the trail blooming hideously among the flowers. They marred the entire landscape. Rub, let us please put our cans and bottles where they do not litter our beautiful mountains.

I know some folks think we oldsters should not say any thing but I am what I am and shall concoct a poem to that effect.

I Am What I Am

I wish people loved me for what
I am;
All my faults they would take,
I tried to act like dolesome
Sam
But his quirks I just could not fake.
I hope they love me for what I am;
I tried to be amiable Sue,
With skin so fair and eyes of blue;
But, lo, I am what I am.
Yes, I want to be loved for what I am;
Not my boasting or defeat;
God made you and you and me;
That's why I am what I am.

State School Study Committee Asks Aid In Local School Survey

Ruidoso News:

The Legislative School Study Committee has had a remarkable response to the enclosed survey. It was sent by the committee to over 2,000 individuals in 17 school districts.

The response is much stronger than anticipated and many persons are asking questions about how they can contribute. For this reason, and because we simply do not have the financial resources to expand our survey to cover the whole state, I would like to ask the assistance of your newspaper.

Would you, as a public service, print the text of our survey in your paper with our request that readers answer it and mail it to our office. If you would do this, it would allow many school patrons (taxpayers) an opportunity to be heard and to help develop a legislative understanding of what the public thinks of public education.

Please let me know if this is possible. If it is, please insert somewhere within the text the name of your paper and a space for the respondent to write the name of his (her) school district. With these two additions, I will be able to report response to you and also to the school districts involved.

Respectfully,
Director

Conway Talks On Amendments

Senator John Conway gave a brief resume of the constitutional amendments as the program for the weekly meeting of the Ruidoso Rotary Club at Tuesday's meet of the group. He noted that many of the amendments were poorly written and that the first issue, concerned with the 18-year-old vote, was actually already in force through action of the U. S. Congress.

Issue No. 2 would raise legislators pay from $20 per day to $40 per day and also deals with pay for interim committees.

Amendment 3 deals with the right to bear arms for lawful purposes but does not necessarily mean that the state would not require gun registration.

Amendment 4 would repeal the uniform system of textbooks which requires that textbooks can not be changed more often than each six years.

Issue 5 would offer scholarships to Vietnam veterans to state supported schools but would exclude servicemen not serving in the Vietnam theatre of operations.

No. 6 sets a maximum tax assessment at 33⅓% of market value and allows for methods of evaluating property other than market value.

No. 7 exempts domestic co-op water associations from state taxes.

No. 8 is a rather complex amendment that would require a constitutional convention and a ¾ majority vote of citizens to amend certain portions of the state constitution.

No. 9 would place responsibility for pollution control with the state legislature.

Amendment 10 deals with taxes for school funds and would allow the taxes to be set and administered by the individual school districts.

The Sunday sales of liquor option will also appear on the ballot in precincts that are wet. Citizens will vote on the option of permitting sale of liquors on Sundays.

Ray Crawford announced that all Rotarians were to meet Friday evening at the Skyland Garage to complete the Rotary float for the Aspencado parade.

Visiting Rotarians for the meet were Larry Dyvad, Billy Holder and G. M. Glover, all of Alamogordo, and Stan Davies of Scottsdale Papago Club.

Warriors Down Ft. Sumner 32-6

Ruidoso's Warriors made it four in a row last Friday night as they flattened the Ft. Sumner Foxes, 32-6.

In the first quarter the Warriors had a tough time getting their offense going. Ruidoso's tough defense held the Ft. Sumner Foxes after they received the opening kick-off and Ft. Sumner quick kicked on third down, and the Warriors found themselves taking over on their own 6-yard line. After Calderon picked up two yards, Miller was trapped back on the 2-yard line, trying to get a pass off. With a fourth down and 16, Ruidoso punted out with Ft. Sumner taking the kick on the Ruidoso 35 and running it back to the 24-yard line. Again the big blue defense of the Warriors stiffened, giving the offense the ball on the Ruidoso 19-yard line. Calderon carried three consecutive times and rammed the ball down to the Foxes' 29-yard line. Miller fired his first TD pass when he found Reeves McGuire, 122-pound, sure-handed end in the end zone. Calderon made the score 8-0 as he went into the end zone on the 2-point conversion.

Ruidoso's defense, led by Level, White, Bair, Conley and Perryman, kept the pressure on in the second period to set up another Ruidoso touchdown. Ft. Sumner's quarterback was forced to the airways, with Miller picking off another pass to add to his already nine interceptions. Miller fielded the ball on the Ruidoso 35-yard line and bullied his way down to the Foxes' 20. From 1-yard out Miller drove over for another Warrior score, upping the count to 14-0. The run for extra points was no good.

Calderon and Alan Payne set up the next counter for Ruidoso in the third quarter. Miller got off a good high punt from the Foxes' 43-yard line. Calderon was downfield fast and killed the ball on the Ft. Sumner 1-yard line. On an attempted jump pass, Payne hauled in the ball on the Ft. Sumner 11-yard stripe. On the first play from that point Miller circled around left end for the score standing up. For the second time the extra point try was stopped short.

Ruidoso's Darwin Beal thrilled the partisan crowd as he raced 65-yards, with Joe Gallegos escorting him across and throwing the last block, as Beal raced in to up the score to 20-0.

Ft. Sumner averted a shutout late in the fourth quarter after intercepting a Ruidoso pass on the Warriors' 35-yard line. From four yards out, Mike Martinez crossed Ruidoso's goal line for the Foxes' touchdown. Quarterback Joe Vick rammed in for the 2-point conversion.

Ruidoso came roaring back with two identical screen passes to Calderon that carried from the Ruidoso 45-yard line down to the Ft. Sumner 8-yard line, and again on the next play Miller again hit Calderon on the screen for the 6-pointer. Ruidoso again failed on the extra point try as they were penalized and McGuire was caught back behind the line on an end around try.

Quarterback Miller ran for two touchdown, fired for two touchdowns and intercepted a pass in leading the Warriors to the fourth straight win.

For the year, Ruidoso's defence has given up 62 points while the offense has scored a total of 126.

Friday night this week the Warriors travel to Hatch for their first conference game of the season with the Hatch Bears.

TOUCHDOWN! — Ruidoso Warrior quarterback Blane Miller, No. 10, racked up 12 points and passed for 14 points as the Warriors blasted Ft. Sumner here last Friday night, 32-8. The Warriors collected, five minutes deep in the first quarter, on a pass from Miller to Reeves McGuire on a play that covered 27 yards.

A 65-day, statewide quail season with a 15-bird bag limit was set by the State Game Commission in its meeting in Alamogordo last week. Season dates will be Oct. 30, 1971 through Jan. 2, 1972.

Season length and bag limits are the same as for the 1970 season. In recommending such a season to the Commission, Department of Game and Fish personnel said the quail population is definitely down in New Mexico from what it has been in the past few years but that they are certain that such a 1971 regulation will not harm the state's quail population.

In making the recommendation, they said extensive research in past seasons by the Department has shown that hunting plays no significant part in the fluctuation in quail population.

The Department's Modern Quail Study recently completed 10 years of research designed to determine the effects of hunting on quail populations along with other facets of quail behavior. In this project, two areas, similar in size and quail habitat quality were marked off. One was heavily hunted. The other was totally protected from hunting. Quail abundance on the two areas fluctuated similarly, indicating hunting has no significant effect on quail abundance.

In addition, quail harvest data recorded by the Department have shown that bag limits and harvests are influenced by quail density rather than by season lengths and regulation bag limits. For example, these records show that an increase in quail limit from 10 birds to 15 only increased the statewide quail harvest 0.6 percent.

Department personnel feel their data and research shows that, even in years with long quail seasons and large bag limits, all the surplus quail are not being harvested in New Mexico. The information also indicates that, even in years with low quail populations, there has been an ample supply of breeding stock left each spring.

In a random questionnaire sent to bird license holders after last season, the majority of hunters indicated a preference for the late October to early January season. As available information shows such a season has little nor no biological signifance, the Department went along with this preference in its recommendation to the Commission.

Quail trend routes, a method the Department uses to project total quail populations show the population to be down approximately 66 percent from last year. This smaller quail population will reduce quail harvest, but the season length and bag limit at the same time will provide maximum hunter opportunity.

In addition, the Commission set seasons and bag limits on pheasants and prairie chickens. The pheasant season will be Nov. 27-28, statewide with a limit of two cocks per day. The prairie chicken season is set for a section of southeast New Mexico, east of Roswell, Dec. 4-6. Bag limit will be three prairie chickens per day.

TOUCHDOWN! — Darwin Beal, No. 27, Ruidoso Warrior halfback, raced down the sideline for sixty-five yards and a TD during last Friday night's Warrior win over Ft. Sumner, 32-8. Blocking for the elusive Beal is Warrior Joe Gallegos, No. 77.

Ski Club Meeting Held On Monday

The Sierra Blanca Ski Club held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening in the conference room of the Ruidoso State Bank with about 15 members present to view a group of ski films. Due to a malfunction of the projector, only one film was seen by the club, with the others to be shown at a later meet.

Barbara Campbell gave the treasurer's report on the Junior Racers group, and noted that a Junior Racers meet would be held Thursday, Oct. 28 at the Villa Inn for registration of members.

Plans were discussed for a membership drive for the ski club with possibly a picnic or dinner to be served at the meet.

Membership fee for the Sierra Blanca Ski Club has been set at $10 per member with an additional charge to be made for membership in the Rocky Mountain Division of the U. S. Ski Association. Fees for the Junior Racers will vary with the classification of members.

All interested skiers are urged to attend the meeting of the club or to contact members of the group for information on membership.

MARINE SERGEANT PHILLIP L. SHORTER, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie L. Shorter, P. O. Box 3321, Hollywood Station, Ruidoso, receives his promotion warrant to his present rank from Lieutenant Colonel Charles H. Pitman at the New Orleans Marine Air Reserve Training Detachment. Sgt. Shorter also recently received the Navy Achievement Medal while serving with Marine Helicopter Squadron 161, Marine Aircraft Group 16, during his tour of duty in Vetinam. He was cited for outstanding initiative, and heroic and meritorious service.

Co. FB Holds Annual Meet

The annual meeting of the Lincoln County Farm Bureau was held Thursday evening at the Wortley Hotel in Lincoln with about 30 members in attendance.

Smokey Stanton, representative of the state organization, gave details of the Farm Bureau tire and battery program and also reported on the livestock marketing program sponsored by the American Farm Bureau Service Co.

It was also reported that the State Convention would be held in Albuquerque Nov. 15 and 16. One major resolution was passed by the group calling for allowance of the use of Toxaphene on BLM and Forest Service lands for control of the range caterpillar. Heavy infestation by the caterpillar, of much range land in Lincoln County has been reported.

Ralph Dunlap, Lincoln County Agent, noted that carcass and feedlot survey would be held at the Capitan School Oct. 13, 7:30 p.m. and invited members of the FB to attend.

Ken Nosker, chairman of the nominations committee, presented a slate of officers for the group's consideration for the 1972 term. Named by the committee were: President, Walt Jones; vice-president, LaMoyne Peters, and secretary-treasurer, Dorothy Bagley. It was noted that no members of the board of directors was to be elected this year. The officers were elected by acclamation. Co-chairman for the ladies will be Rosalie Dunlap.

In the drawing for door prizes, the winners were: tires, Betty Shrecengost and Larry Deming; slow moving vehicle emblems, Dorothy Bagley and Claudie Jones; fire extinguishers, Joe McKnight, Rosalie Dunlap, Harvey Bonnell and Mr. Thornton; and a battery, Mrs. Bill Edgar.

Tires for the drawing were donated by Central Welding of Carrizozo and Johnny Phillips of Ruidoso. Other prizes were donated by the state and local Farm Bureau.

It was noted that annual dues had been raised this year to $10.

Board members for Lincoln County Farm Bureau include Harvey Bonnell, Ken Nosker, Billy Stevenson, Tony Trest and John Cooper. State board member is Bud Bagley.

Chamber Chatter

By DICK MOUND.

The time is here for the shouting. The preparations are made and good weather has been ordered for the next two weekends. The parade looks a little smaller than last year in the float department, but a little larger in the specialty groups.

The noticeable decline in floats is from the utility companies. We are advocating smoke signals and kerosene lamps and burn your firep'ace.

We are planning a "Hit Alamagordo and Roswell" campaign Wednesday and Thursday. We plan on selling as many tickets as possible for the barbecue and the drawings. We have some beautiful prizes to be given away. There will be approximately 43 in all, with a grand prize of a colored TV. So get your tickets early. The barbecue sounds great. We will have a selection of three meats and two salads, pickles, chilis, straw bread. You may have to furnish your own tooth picks. You had better call for your barbecue tickets early, because I know the Roswell and Alamogordoans are big eaters.

I've been noticing some of the painted store fronts depicting super stores. They certainly look good. If more people would like some of the same, get in touch with some of the kids in school to paint up the front.

If Wyman and I live through these next two weeks, we'll be able to face about anything. We are getting people to rally to the cause. You know Ruidosans always manage to get up for the big day, but it kinda frightens the chairman by the time they start moving. We have a chance this year to have our best fund promoting year, if our local people will help those who always do the work.

If anybody would like to join our growing list of volunteers to help this weekend, our office is the same place on Sudderth and the telephone number is 257-2695.

Hope to see you some time during the Aspencade. The motorcade drill has been changed from the Plaza Del parking lot to the Ruidoso State Bank parking lot at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

We would like to welcome Goodman's Sales Agency, Great Western Realty and Buckaroo Lounge as new members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Conway Elected Vice-chmn. of Judicial Council

Republican State Senator John Conway (R-Otero & Lincoln) was elected Vice-Chairman of the New Mexico Judicial Council. Conway is an Alamogordo attorney in the firm of Shipley, Durrett, Conway & Sandenaw. He was first elected to the State Senate in the 1970 election. After his selection as Vice-Chairman Conway remarked: "I appreciate the confidence shown in my desire to serve effectively."

The Judicial Council was created in 1969 by an act of the legislature and consists of one Supreme Court Justice, one Appeals Court Judge, three District Court judges, two Bar Association Members, one Magistrate Judge, two State Senators, two State Representatives and three non-lawyers.

The purpoce of the council is to study and recommend programs for more effective administration of the court system and justice. The attempt has been made to place court operations on a business-like basis and the council has maintained monthly meetings, although it is only required to have quarterly meetings.

Conway is the only Republican State Senator who is Vice-Chairman of any State Legislative Committee. Conway, his wife and three cons reside at 1740 Buena Vista Ave., Alamogordo.

Runnels' Bill Would Repeal Phone Tax

A bill to repeal the 10 per cent telephone excise tax was introduced today by Congressman Harold Runnels, D-NM.

"The time has come to eliminate what was a temporary wartime tax back in 1941," Runnels said. "Instead of a luxury, the telephone today is a vital necessity to our entire nation."

Citing what he called a series of "broken promises" to the taxpayer, Runnels observed that the telephone excise tax had been scheduled to expire several times.

"The Revenue Act of 1943 increased the 1941 tax and specifically provided that these increases would expire six months after the end of World War II," Runnels said. "However, the Excise Tax Act of 1947 extended the rate indefinitely."

The Congressman recalled that there was a reduction in the tax in 1954, and again in 1958, but who then continued through a series of yearly extensions until 1965.

"Once again, in 1965, Congress started to reduce the tax on a gradual basis, but in 1966 decided to restore it at its 10 per cent rate," Runnels said. "Again, it was scheduled to expire in 1969, but was reinstated in the Excise, Estate and Gift Tax Adjustment of 1970."

At the present time the 10 per cent rate is scheduled to be in effect until January, 1973, Runnels said, but then a gradual reduction is planned until it is terminated in 1982.

"By that time this so-called temporary tax will have lasted over 40 years," the Congressman said.

He went on to say that the root of our economic troubles today is what he called "our antiquated and outdated patchwork of taxation measures."

"I sincerely feel that repeal of the telephone excise tax would be an ideal first step toward a complete overhaul of our entire tax system," Runnels said.

JUST TWO DOZEN YEARS AGO—The continual effort to improve the Ruidoso Municipality has had a very early beginning in the history of this mountain resort paradise. Pictured above in April, 1947, are a group of Ruidoso pioneers making plans for an all-out effort to both beautify and clean up the village of Ruidoso. An attractive Ruidoso was their goal and down through the 24 years most village fathers have had the same goal. Pictured above, left to right, are C. D. ## Sunland Races Set To Begin Saturday, Oct. 9

The equine headcount at Sunland Park expanded up to around 550 as momentum picked up for this week's start of the '71-72 racing season.

The 87-day campaign, billed by track officials as the greatest in Sunland history with an estimated record purse distribution of $1.8 million, gets off the ground on Saturday.

According to Tom Dawson of the Sunland racing office, the number of horses registered in is expected to reach 800 by midweek. The figure will swell up to 1,000 by opening day. The inaugural weekend also includes racing on Sunday. First post both days is 1:30 p.m.

Much of the pre-season attention has focused on the host of big stakes races Sunland will offer during the two-part campaign which extends through mid-May. Also rounding up interest is the modern close-circuit TV system now being installed. The equipment will provide an "instant replay" of each race.

The highpoint of opening week is Saturday's $4,000-Added Inaugural Handicap, a six-furlong run for older horses. Included among the list of likely candidates is M. Star, owned by Richard Worley of Clovis.

During last year's fall season at Sunland, M. Star waltzed away to an easy win in the Inaugural Handicap, and later went on to capture the "Horse of The Meet" honor. He was just as sharp during the summer campaign at Centennial Race Track in Denver, winning a pair of allowance sprints and the $7,000 Denver Handicap at six furlongs.

M. Star is part of a powerful string directed by the well-known conditioner, J. C. Geary. The lineup includes the hard-hitting Hoist C., who was acquired at Centennial during the summer on a five-grand claim. Also back under Geary's direction is the quick-starting gray Dancing Hank. The latter recorded three straight wins at Sunland last spring, but later ran into some rough sledding while hooking top-calibre competition.

Geary also plans to take the wraps off the brick allowance speedster, Guts-N-Feathers. His lineup also include Todo Estrella, Running Scared, Ida Lou, It Do Count, Bergit, Count C, and Elvie's Child.

Geary's toughest competition in the trainer competition looks like Bill Thompson, who set an all-time Sunland record last year while producing 92 winners out of 510 starters. Thompson's strong contingent this season includes such tough ones as Tuxo King, Raging Waters, Richardcine and Norgor.

Sunland's fall season extends through Dec. 12. After a two-week dark period, the spring meeting gets moving on Dec. 31 and winds up on May 14.

Price Freeze Questions and Answers

(Editor's Note: The following questions and answers are presented by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, administrators for the program.)

Q—Can travel agencies raise their prices on tours in foreign countries?

A.—Yes. Travel agents can raise prices on tours to the extent that the costs of foreign services offered in the tour package, such as foreign hotel rates, restaurant meals, transportation costs, etc., are increased. However, prices cannot be raised on that part of the tour package relating to services in the U. S. In addition, markup for overhead and profit cannot be raised.

The records of the travel agency must clearly establish that each increase meets this test. If it cannot be so demonstrated, this exemption will not apply to the increase.

Q—I'm a Federal employee and I'm supposed to get a within-grade increase next month. Can I still get this raise?

A.—No. Merit and longevity increases, such as Federal Government within-grade raises, are not permitted during the freeze.

Q.—My landlord is installing dishwashers in each apartment in my development. Can he use this as a reason to raise rent during the freeze?

A.—An increase in rent can be charged for property which undergoes a substantial capital improvement, such as this, if this improvement equals at least three months rent with a minimum of $250, and would be classified as a capital improvement by the Internal Revenue Service.

If these conditions are met, the unit may be treated as a new apartment, with rent no higher than that charged on comparable apartments in the market area. Also, your monthly rent must not increase by more than 1½ percent of the amount spent for capital improvement.

Q—Who is running the wage-price freeze program?

A—The new Cost of Living Council determines the policies of the freeze and the Office of Emergency Preparedness also were questions and investigates complaints. Assistance with information and complaints is provided by 360 Internal Revenue Service offices throughout the country and 2,800 offices of the Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Q—Can my union raise dues during the freeze?

A—No. Dues for professional associations, trade associations, unions, country clubs, etc., are a fee for service, and, as such, are frozen.

Q—My employer wants to give me a cash award for a suggestion I made. Can I still get the award?

A—Yes. Businesses and government can continue to make cash awards during the freeze to employees for outstanding performance, provided that such awards continue to be given under the same formula and controls that exist in the month prior to the freeze.

Employers will have to maintain records on the incidence and amount of these awards which demonstrate that these programs are not used to give employees wage increases in violation of the freeze.

Q—During the first week of August, my union reached agreement with my employer on a new contract giving me a wage increase. However, the agreement has yet to go into effect. Can I still get the additional wages?

A—The new rate can be paid if labor and management had reached an agreement and work was performed or wages accrued prior to Aug. 15 at the new wage rate.

Q—Does the Internal Revenue Service have any publications giving information on the freeze?

—Yes. Copies of "The Wage-Price Freeze: Some Questions and Answers" can be obtained without charge by dropping a postcard to your IRS District office. The booklet is also available at many post offices throughout the country and from the 10 Emergency Preparedness Regional Offices.

Q—My apartment lease specifically provides me to pay for any increases in property taxes. Can my landlord now raise rent on the basis of a property tax increase?

A—No. This is not permitted during the freeze.

Q—My employer hired me on a probationary basis. The established practice of the company is to increase wage rates at the end of the probationary period. My probationary period ends in two weeks. Can I still receive a wage increase?

Yes—The probationary period is similar to an apprenticeship or learners' program and the wage increase may be granted if the probationary period for the job does not exceed three months.

Q—Can a landlord evict a tenant for refusing to pay a rent increase during the freeze?

A—No. A landlord is in violation of the freeze if he attempts to evict a tenant for refusal to pay rent in excess of the ceiling applicable to his rental apartment or house.

A tenant threatened with eviction over an increase in rent during the freeze should immediately consult the Internal Revenue Service. The IRS has 360 officers throughout the country to investigate complaints and provide information about the freeze.

Q—Does the price freeze mean an end of special sales or reductions in prices?

A—No. The freeze simply sets a ceiling. Normal clearance sales and price reductions can take place.

Q—Are advance ticket sales for sporting events occurring during the freeze covered by the President's order?

A—Yes.

Q — I'm moving into a new apartment. How can I tell if my landlord is overcharging me for rent and violating the Freeze?

A — Check the rents charged for comparable apartments in the immediate area. The rent you pay cannot be any higher.

County Agent's Column

by RALPH DUNLAP

Looking for an enjoyable outing? Plan to visit the Hondo-Ruidoso-Tonto valleys this weekend. You can see an apple picking operation at Hondo, a spinning and weaving exhibit at Lincoln, except Saturday it will be in Ruidoso at the KRRR building, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., and view the many fall colors while touring the area. The old Lincoln County Courthouse in Lincoln will also be open.

While in the area buy a box of apples now at their peak of ripeness. You can choose a sweet apple such as a Golden Delicious or a tart apple such as a Jonathan or Stayman Winesap. Consider a Rome Beauty for cooking and good keeping apple.

In Lincoln you can see an exhibit showing the steps in making the wool into a fabric. After the wool is carded it is spun into a yarn, then it is washed and dyed with native plant dyes. From the yarn it is woven into rugs, ponchos and rugs.

Bring a picnic lunch and enjoy the wonderful outdoors of Lincoln County.

R-R-D

The Western States Feedlot and Beef Carcass Evaluation Program will be discussed on Oct. 13 at the Capitan School starting at 7:30 p.m. Wallace Cox and Bill Myers of New Mexico State University will outline the plans for the test to be carried out in a Roswell feed lot this fall. The tests are for six western states and are designed to give beef cattle breeders information on the rate of gain and feed efficiency as well as carcass evaluation. The minimum group is 20 steer calves or 20 heifer calves.

Plan to attend the meeting on Oct. 13, 7:30 p.m. at the Capitan School. Anyone interested is urged to attend.

Degrees Awarded To Local Students

New Mexico State University has awarded 180 degrees to students who completed requirements during the second summer session at the University.

The second summer session graduates, members of the 1972 class, will be recognized during the commencement exercises at NMSU May 13.

Ruidoso students awarded degrees are Diane Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, who received a Bachelor of Science in Education; and Bobby Joe Creel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Creel, earning a Master of Science degree.

SANDERSVILLE, GEORGIA, PROGRESS: "The educational level of American workers has been rapidly in the last dozen years. The proportion of workers with eight years or less of school dropped from 39 to 23 percent . . . In the same period, workers with four years of high school (or more) rose from 44 to 57 percent—a gain of almost a third. The other side of the picture shows, however, that there remained 9.6 million workers with less than five years of grade school and 8.8 million others with only five to seven years of schooling. More than 60 percent of workers with less than eight years of education were 45 years old or over."

Capitan News

By BARTLEY McDONOUGH

The Tatum Coyotes spoiled the Tigers' bid for a homecoming victory Friday night, pushing over the Tigers, 22-6. A nice homecoming crowd with plenty of alumni on hand saw the Coyotes score first in the second period. The Coyotes converted for 2-points and led the Tigers at halftime, 8-0. Tatum scored two touchdowns within a 8-minute period in the fourth quarter to sew up the victory. Capitan's only score came in the third quarter. The conversion was no good.

The Coyotes rolled up 18 first downs to Capitan's eight. The Coyotes were credited with three penetrations, the Tigers two penetrations. Think of this game — Melrose beat Dexter and received, 34-8. Dexter beat Capitan, 42-12 earlier in the season. The Tigers will have their hands full when they meet Melrose this Friday night. The game is scheduled for 7:30 in Melrose. The two Tigers that will miss the game because of injuries are Eddie Jones and Robert Barber.

In pre-game ceremonies Sophomore Roxane Wheeler was crowned the Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by Bobby Abercrombie. Last year's queen, Kaye Cornelius, was on hand to see that things were done right. The other candidates and their escorts were: Freshman Class — Rhonda Barber escorted by Ken Chase; Junior Class — Cecilia Apodaca escorted by Jimmy Chase; and Senior Class—Donna Apodaca escorted by Robert Carroll, Sandy Loomis and Jackie Jackine. A nice homecoming dance followed the game.

The bids for the new multi-purpose building were opened at a special meeting of the Capitan Board of Education, Sept. 9. The low bidder was Jordan and Nobles of El Paso, Texas. This company bid $166,364. The only other bid was from W. R. Meadows of Clovis. The bid was $18,000. The bond issue passed earlier by local voters was for $200,000. Ground will be broken in approximately two weeks. One hundred and fifty days are allowed for the completion of the building.

Band Notes: Remember to buy your magazines from members of the Senior Class. Sales begins Tuesday. —The seniors received their senior portraits last Monday from Studio of Colorado Springs. —Sept. Ira Caster was absent Fri. Sept. 28 and 29, to attend a meeting concerning drug programs in impact areas. This is under PL 874. The 88 Palomino Cafe will be closed Oct. 4 through the 10. The Herman C. Otero family invites everyone back on Oct. 20. —Too much going on this weekend — too many will be absent — as a consequence, the Tiger Band will not march in the Aspencade Parade. We cannot remember the last time the band missed this fine parade. —World Lions Service Day will be Oct. 8. —Plans are at the present time to send the report cards home on Oct. 13. —Mr. and Mrs. Cy Salas have repainted their home in Lincoln. The outside was painted a Sonora beige. —The 3rd grade has been studying the ear in health class. The five basic foods that make up a good breakfast were also studied. Most of the 3rd graders are doing well with their cursive writing.

Remember! The 7th and 8th grade Tigers recently annihilated their counterparts from Carrizozo, 38-0. Now, these young Tigers have a game scheduled with Ruidoso, Thursday, Oct. 7. The game will be played on Tiger Field and is set for 4 p.m.

The Comprehensive Test of Basic Skills, sponsored by the State Department of Education, was given to the 5th graders this week. The 8th graders will get the test next week. Myrtle Williams is administering the test.

There are eight students enrolled in the Spanish I class this year. They are: Robert Barber, Veronica Najar, Cecilia Padilla, Jimmy Lacy, Tina Goodrich, Nancy Chavez, Ian Dockery and Eddie Jones. Their teacher is Ofelia Salas.

Home from college for Homecoming: Judy Provine, Buddy Hall, Kaye Cornelius, Dave Ingalls, Myrna Pfingsten, Sandra Jobe, Sharon Jobe and others.

The Dockerey family recently moved into the home previously occupied by the Hob Lucero family in Lincoln.

School Menu: Oct. 11 — Beef stew, cabbage and pepper stew, hot rolls, butter, red gelatin squares, milk. Oct. 12 — Hamburger steaks, mashed potatoes and gravy, buttered peas, French bread, butter, pineapple upside down cake, milk. Oct. 13 — Pizza, green beans and butter, tossed salad, applesauce, brownie, milk. Oct. 14— Franks on bun, green chili, potato salad, spinach, peanut butter cake, milk. Oct. 15 — Enchilada casserole, shredded lettuce, tomatoes, pinto beans, ½ orange, cheese straws, cake, milk.

The Capitan Lions Club met Monday night and took care of the following business: 1) Heard secretary and zone chairman say that there would be a zone meeting Wednesday night, Oct. 6, 7:30 p.m. in the Ruidoso Evening Lions Club's Hut. 2) Were told that the local Cub Scout Pack had been re-organized. 3) Welcomed four guests. 4) Were told by Lion President Williams that there would be a board meeting, Tuesday night, Oct. 12. The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the school. 5) The Capitan Lions Club will meet again on Oct. 18, 7:00 p.m. at the Smokey Bear Cafe. Club members will be notified if there is a change in the meeting place.
