Christmas donations sought for Ft. Stanton's students

The annual appeal for Christmas gifts for students at the Ft. Stanton Mental Retardation and Training School is currently underway, fiscal officer Ervin Aldez announced Tuesday.

Collection points for gifts or cash donations are the Citizen's Bank of Carrizozo, Ruidoso State Bank, Security Bank of Ruidoso and the school's administrative office at Ft. Stanton. The appeal will continue thru Dec. 20.

"What we're concerned with here," Aldez said, "is those 60 of our 176 students who have absolutely no money, and no source of private funds, other than state funding. These 60 students are without relatives or friends . . . they are strictly alone . . . and lonely.

"With the gifts and money received in this appeal, we'll make absolutely certain that every one of our students is remembered with a present and hopefully presents, on Christmas."

Aldez said, "Cooperation in the past, with this program, has been tremendous and we need your help again in making Christmas a memorable occasion for our retarded students."

Christmas Day entertainment at the school this year will be provided by the Kiwanis of Albuquerque, who'll include their clown acts in the program. The students, Aldez said, are planning to present a talent show following the Kiwanis performance.

MAYOR DAVIS BREAKS TWO TIE VOTES AT SPECIAL MEETING

Boyle Engineering awarded water system study contract

Ruidoso mayor Lloyd Davis Jr., twice in succession at the special meeting of the village council Tuesday afternoon, cast his vote to break a 2-2 deadlock in naming an engineering firm to conduct a study of the existing water system serving the village.

The special meeting agenda included:

(1) The naming of an engineering firm to make a study of our water system and execution of an engineering contract;

(2) Resolution 74-17 calling for certain budget increases; and,

(3) Police personnel.

Boyle Engineering Co., of Los Angeles, Calif., with offices in Ruidoso, was awarded the contract, in agreement with the presentation made to the council at the Nov. 14 meeting, to make a study of the present water system, after the following action:

Trustee Sherman Atwood moved, seconded by Trustee Ab Gunter, to name Wm. Turney Engineeering Co., of Santa Fe, as engineer to conduct the water study. On roll call Atwood and Gunter voted "aye", with Trustee Don Riley and Trustee Don Driver voting "no". Mayor Lloyd Davis Jr., registered a "no" vote, to break the tie and defeat the motion.

Trustee Riley, with second by Driver, moved to award the contract to Boyle Engineering. On roll call, Riley and Driver voted "aye", Atwood and Gunter "no", with Davis casting an "aye" vote, breaking the deadlock and passing the motion.

The Boyle contract, as The News understands it, was awarded only "to make a study of our water system" and that the "execution of an engineering contract" to construct the raw water treatment plant, transmission lines and other portions of the new water system to utilize the proposed $3.3 million reservoir's storage capacity, will be at the discretion of the village council after the completion of the analysis of the present system by Boyle Engineering.

The contract to build the dam was awarded Mann Engineering Co., of Roswell, at the council's Nov. 14 meeting.

The council unanimously passed Resolution 74-17, to adjust the current fiscal budget so that additional income, not known to the council at the time of budget approval, could be included.

The extra funds include a $3,400 CETA and $3,000 Highway Safety grants involving the Ruidoso Police Department, and the change in investments from $9,000 to $59,000. Under Resolution 74-17 General Fund Expenditures in the Administration and General Capital Outlay fund was increased from $37,699 to $78,000 and PD salaries from $128,341 to $144,440.

The $50,000 involves monies from the General Fund Investment that was placed on Certificates of Deposit by the village and the Resolution gives permission to the village to use the fiscal year's beginning balance, which included this sum.

The council, after being advised that PD Officer Ira Jones had tendered an oral resignation from the department to acting Police Chief Lt. Jerry Foster, officially terminated Jones' employment as of Nov. 30.

Twelve Warriors win places on 3AA district football team

The Ruidoso Warriors have now completed a successful season, taking the district championship crown but being eliminated by a tough Clayton team for bi-district honors.

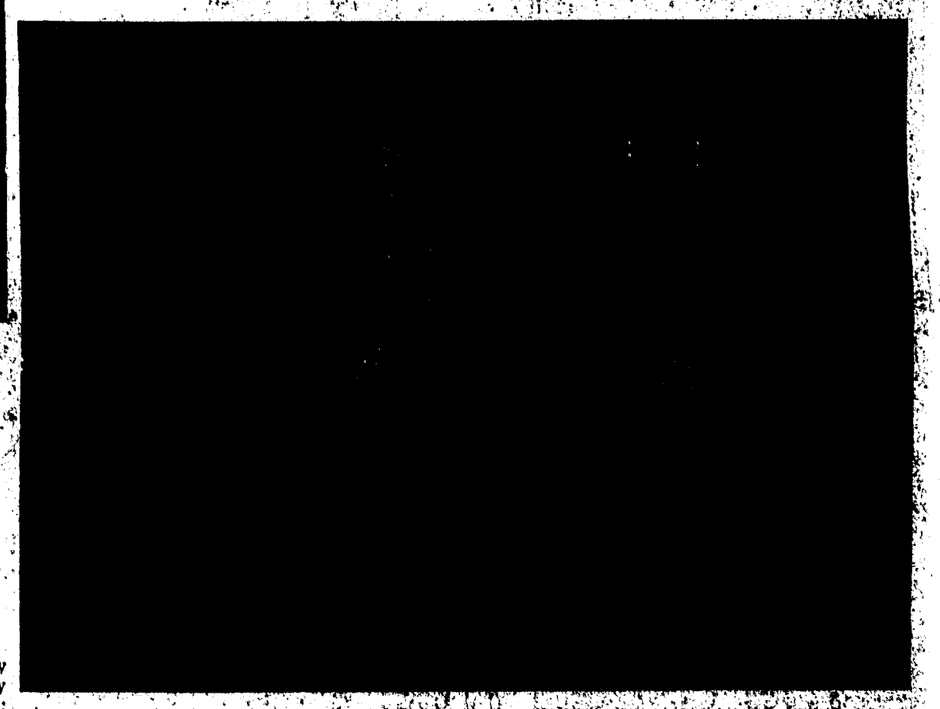
The naming of the 3AA All-District Team show the Tribe took the lion's share of honors for local gridders. Earning places on both the offensive and defensive teams were: Sonny Pool, offensive back and defensive line backer; Clifton Neal, offensive end and defensive halfback; Kelly Perryman, defensive end and honorable mention on offense; Sammy Hardwick, offensive guard and defensive tackle; Rick Tate, offensive tackle and honorable mention on defense; Teddy Durham, offensive end and honorable mention on defense; and Donny McCoy, honorable mention on both defense and offense. On the defensive team: Wayne Owen, defensive cornerback; and an honorable mention for Daryle Watkins and Kevin Mellon. On the offensive team: Colly Parks, offensive quarterback; and Danny Brown, offensive back.

In district play the Warriors defeated Hatch by a score of 26-7 and Lordsburg by 38-8.

Others named to the 3AA All-District Team include:

Offense: Michael Sedillo, back; Frank Lazano, center, Dan Gillis, guard, Gino Hinojos, tackle, Terry Porter, end, all of Hatch; and to honorable mention, Gerado Villalobes, Tony Gallegos, Manuel Gallegos, Eloy Castillo, Donald Brag, Ismal Madrid, all of Hatch; and Pat Garcia and Jeff Reeves of Lordsburg.

Defense: Mark Fonner, nose guard, Carlos Gomez, cornerback, both of Lordsburg; Anthony Gabaldon, tackle, Ambrose Gabaldon, end, George Langford, line backer, Henry Navarez, cornerback; Henry Duran, halfback, all of Hatch; and to honorable mention, Richard Silva, Dennis Torres, Gary Langes, Mike Gillis, Jesus Estrada, Eddie Terrazas, all of Hatch, and Manny Legarano and Martin Leyva of Lordsburg.



THE VILLAGE COUNCIL Tuesday gave a water survey contract, covering Ruidoso's present water system to Boyle Engineering, after mayor Lloyd Davis Jr. cast two tie-breaking votes. ## NM Health Department hears report on animal control

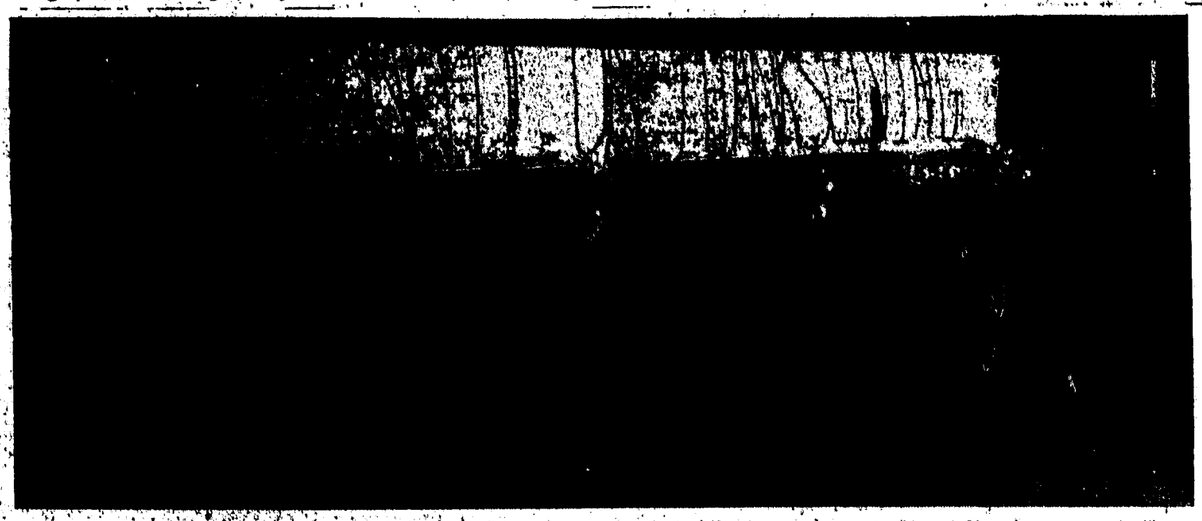
Gale Cupp, representing the New Mexico Department of Health, was in Ruidoso last Tuesday to check on the progress of local authorities in enforcement of animal control ordinances and state requirements.

Humane Society records show that a total of 139 dogs and 110 cats had been picked up from October 17 to November 19. One skunk and one bat were also reported picked up.

The village of Ruidoso has not had an enforceable ordinance for the control of animals since April, when the village attorney advised the council that the ordinance then in force was unenforceable. A new ordinance is now being prepared and, it is reported that action will be taken on the ordinance in December. Under state law, counties and municipalities are required to have such ordinances and are charged with the responsibility of enforcement. When Miss Cupp was asked what would happen if such enforcement was not accomplished by the various governing bodies, she pointed out that the state had power to step in, and accomplish the control. Action would be required through the Attorney General's office for such control. Miss Cupp also noted that the department had not, as yet, had to take such steps.

According to Jim Hine, village manager, Tom Holbrook has been named animal control officer and will retain the job until further arrangements can be made.



THAT "THANKSGIVING, RUIDOSO STYLE" SPIRIT was exemplified last Thursday when fifth and sixth grade students from Nob Hill school, in a more or less orderly fashion, decorated the Gourmet Kitchen, on Sudderth Drive. The flurry of action stemmed from a Chamber of Commerce promotion, culminating in a turkey auction at Tuesday evening's "basketball" game, that will provide each of Ruidoso's three schools with funds for projects that cannot be financed in the budget. ## A DAY IN WHICH TO BE THANKFUL . . .

Take a festive fowl, with the flesh beneath that golden, crispy, skin roasted into succulence.

Add cranberry sauce, savory stuffing, green gelatine encompassing slices of luscious pear.

Augmented with heaps of potatoes drowned in cream gravy and perhaps a generous hunk of pumpkin pie inundated with dollops and dollops of whipped cream.

Before this colorful array of comestibles, place a hungry child.

E'er long you have a thankful child. Thankful the eating's over and the playing, out of sight and hearing of the grownups, can begin.

It's the simple things in life for which a child is thankful.

Remember?

Not that a child is without problems. But these problems are almost always solved by meeting them head on. If the battle is lost, So what? There's always tomorrow. If the battle is won. So what? It wasn't important anyway

Through the eyes of a child, this is a beautiful world. There are flowers to be inspected, birds on the wing to be ogled and animals and fish and trees and sunshine and moonbeams to wonder about.

And the child is troubled not.

A child that is cared for and loved is basically a happy child. Who is there that cannot listen to the babble of children at play and not see happiness?

And when a child completes an especially odious task, what you see registered in that little face is happiness. Thankfulness. A thankfulness that that job was a job well done. Commendation is sought not. The inner peace derived is all that matters.

Perhaps this Thanksgiving Day would be an excellent time to assess ourselves, as indeed a child views us as we flounder in our uptight world of idiosyncracies.

Village of Ruidoso Downs to enforce animal licensing

The Ruidoso Downs village council heard a report from village clerk Jerry Howden, Monday evening, that license tags for the licensing of animals in the village had been received and that enforcement of such licensing would begin immediately. Cost of the licensing will be $2 per animal.

The council also directed that changes that had been approved previously for water and garbage deposits would also be enforced immediately. Water deposits were raised from $10 to $20 for residences and from $20 to $30 for businesses. Garbage service deposits will now be $15.

Brown Edwards, local environmentalist, reported that his agency was now operating under new regulations and that the solid waste disposal problem for this area would have to be considered and solved by a deadline of June 1. He pointed out that a survey of prospective sites had been made last summer and possible sites recommended at that time.

The financial statement through October 31 was presented to the council and Mayor J. J. DiPaolo noted that the village appeared to be in good financial condition.

A re-plat of the Ruidoso Gardens Subdivision was presented and accepted, pending approval of the village Planning and Zoning Commission.

The council voted to carpet and re-decorate the council meeting room, and talked of building concrete steps at the front of the village hall.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held in the village hall at 7 p.m. on Monday, December 9 and is open to the public.

Booster Club in regular meeting

The Ruidoso Athletic Booster Club's regular weekly meeting was held last Thursday, Nov. 21 in the Driver's Ed room of the high school.

The club discussed selling of bleacher seats as a money making project. The club has the folding chairs and a definite price will be determined at a later date.

It was pointed out that money can be saved by buying tickets for the season — as the tickets go for $10 each or a family can get a season ticket for $25 — regardless of the number of persons in the family. For anyone desiring more information on the season tickets, please call Janice Nelson.

Coach Thurman Sanchez gave a report on the Varsity Basketball personnel and the number of boys participating in basketball this year. Coach Barry Nelson reported on the Junior Varsity team.

It was reported that about 200 Clayton people were served by the boosters at the Hospitality Room held in the high school cafeteria the day of the Ruidoso-Clayton Regional football game.

There will be no meeting this week because of the Thanksgiving holiday. Next meeting of the Booster Club will be Thursday, Dec. 5, 7:30 p.m. in the high school driver's education room.

Donna Peebles Clark and husband at Hooks Post in Texas

(Taken from Red River Review)

Second Lieutenant Charles S. Clark Jr., and wife, Donna, work with and instruct explorer scouts of Hooks Post, Texarkana, Texas in orienteering procedure.

The Clarks led the Hooks explorers on an extensive canoe trip on Cossatot River in Arkansas, earning a 50-mile patch from the Boy Scouts of America. They took them on weekend trips to Camp Albert Pike and Elliott Lake at Red River Army Depot.

The current goal of the explorer post is working toward a Presidential Patch in Orienteering through the President's Council for Physical Fitness.

Donna is a Lincoln County gal by birth. She's the daughter of Mrs. Morgan Maxwell of Claunch and the late Lawrence Peebles of Alto. Her grandmother, Mrs. Charlie Peebles, resides on the Peebles' Ranch near Alto.

The Lieutenant is an engineer, amateur photographer and woodcraftsman at Red River Army Depot. His academic achievements at New Mexico State University, where he majored in electrical engineering, provide a good background for his depot work.

Donna is a graduate of New Mexico State University, majoring in education. She had a year's experience in teaching in the state of New Mexico.

Besides helping in the explorer scout work she devotes many hours to serving as chairman of the Thrift Shop, a non-profit activity of RRAD Wives Club. Proceeds of the shop are donated to worthwhile charitable organizations of the community.

Teachers' Sorority votes scholarships

At a meeting in the home of Carrie Lois Godley, Eta Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa (Lincoln County's chapter of the national teachers' honorary society), the Chapter voted to give a $100 scholarship to Louis Carranco, who will attend New Mexico Western University at Silver City. The Chapter also presented a $200 scholarship to Patty Otero from Capitan.

Louis Carranco is a native of Mexico who could not speak English when he went to work on a ranch near Nogal. He attended high school in Anchorage, where he made straight A's. Now, he is planning to complete his education as a teacher and go back to Chihuahua to teach. Because he started with nothing and a language barrier — and is making his own way through college — the sorority felt he deserved help.

Miss Otero is also planning to be a teacher.

Nancy McCarty was co-hostess with Mrs. Godley; and Chapter President Hazel Arthurs presided at the meeting.

Pats And Pans

Recently, we received a letter from an irate subscriber advising she had not received her paper in four weeks and if we couldn't straighten it out, she wanted her money back. Since our stencil was correct, we referred her letter to our local postmaster who promptly launched an investigation. Now we have a letter of apology from said subscriber. Having instructed the post office in the state to which she was moving, to hold her mail until she arrived — she had forgotten to advise that she had arrived.

Probably the post office is blamed for late or lost mail unjustly lots of times. We believe many postmasters and clerks are sincerely trying to do a good job and should be given credit.

However, the average mail clerk receives much more in salary and benefits than the average clerk in civilian life. Yet—

We are bombarded with demands from the Albuquerque Post Office that we meet their requirements. They "ask only that they bundle and tie because when we dump sacks, News Flats mix and turn every which way are Time Consuming to face." They enclose a regulation advising that they can revoke the meter permit of any meter holder failing to meet their requirements: That "LETTER mail must be arranged so that the addresses face the same direction. Five or more pieces of LETTER mail must be bundled if the volume is appropriate, using rubber bands which are available at the post office."

We can only assume the average postal clerk can't read — or doesn't know the difference between a newspaper and a letter. They can cancel our meter permit, if they want — since we don't have one anyway. But, as long as we pay the postage, we believe they are required by a higher law than theirs to send our papers to their destination as quickly as possible without demanding that we put on extra help to do their work for them.

As for the HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT, we think they are going a little far, when, in the name of "beautification," they demand that a church take down its sign, which is on its own property, because it can be seen from the highway.

—E. J.

The SILVER LINING

by DANIEL A. STORM

"Come, ye thankful people, come
Raise the song of Harvest home:
All is safely gathered in
Ere the winter storms begin;
God, our maker doth provide
For our wants to be supplied;
Come to God's own temple, come,
Raise the song of Harvest Home."

So goes the beloved Thanksgiving hymn, awakening in us the spirit of thankfulness this time of year.

How fast the thankful month has gone, with blessings without number showered upon us by our Heavenly Father.

It is beginning to look like Thanksgiving time. (This is being written Monday the 25th).

The colors of the autumn leaves are softening to gentle tones of bronze, old gold and amber. The little cones are appearing on the pinon trees, making very pretty holiday decorations. And the western mistletoe is showing up with the little pink berries on the older cedar trees.

Late Indian Summer Weather Makes Us Thankful

There is something about the weather this time of year that makes us thankful. The North Wind singing around the corners of the house and through the bare branches of the apricot tree near the house, that makes us thankful for a roof over our head and some pinon wood cheerily blazing in the fireplace in the evening.

The cool mornings and evenings give us a good appetite and we are grateful — as were our forefathers — for good things to eat laid by. Then, with this season being homecoming time, we draw closer in friendship, all of us.

I am ever so thankful to you, for the privilege of writing this little weekly message and for the many kind thoughts and deeds which are the blessing of my life.

Thanksgiving Day the Birthday of Brother Lynn

November 28, the birthday of our brother, Lynn, falls this year on Thanksgiving Day. This is well and good. Lynn and his wife Maxine paid me a little visit a while back and gave me a great lift.

I am grateful to God for my great brothers, Lynn and Mark, and for all my loved ones in Heaven. During Thanksgiving time, I always feel their blessed presence very near.

A Word or Two From Shady Logan

Dear Friends one and all:

I know all of you join me in wishing a happy birthday to the Ridge Runner's little brother, Lynn, which falls this year on Thanksgiving Day.

Also I wish to thank you for your friendship through the years, and for the blessing of a chance to send a word by these messages.

May the spirit of Thanksgiving abide with you this season and always.

Yours, ever the same,
Shady Logan
Five-S Ranch, Glencoe

A Note From Jack Frost

Dear Friends of Lincoln County,

So many nice visits down your way lately. Your country looks great.

There is a little shortage of frost here at North Pole City, for the time being, which accounts for the lateness of the snow. But do not worry. Things

RHS drama club attends p'ay at Texas Tech

Twenty-six members of the RHS Drama Club attended Texas Tech University's production of "Arsenic and Old Lace," last Saturday night in Lubbock, Texas.

After the production they toured the theatre facilities, lighting and sound booth, the set design shop, the costume department, where all costumes are made and stored, and the publicity room, where all programs and posters are made.

"Arsenic and Old Lace," a well-known play about two humble, yet crazy old sisters who kill lonely men with their homemade poison elderberry wine, featured students of Texas Tech Drama Department and the acting, costumes, and sets were of great interest to the Ruidoso students.

Drama Club members making the trip were: Paul Easter, Gene Garmes, Clifton Neal, Rick Tate, Bart Owen, Rickey Pritchett, Jack Walsh, Lynn Holly, Eloy Almager, Thomas Brillante, Dan Price, Frosty Latham, Susan Carrie Miller, Sarah Edwards, Patti Neal, Terri Townley, Tracey Johnson, Barbara Langford, Susan Travis, Shawn Griffith, Dawn Griffith, Georgia Griffith, Susan Johnson, Joanne Brillante, Francine Brillante and Teri Sisson.

Also attending were Mrs. Dan Griffith, Mrs. Sid Miller, Mrs. Curtis Latham, Mrs. George Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. David Travis, Gayle Travis and sponsor Mr. Ken Newsom.

Part of the group saw the movie "Airport 75", Saturday afternoon and all ate together at Furr's Cafeteria before attending the play.

Sunday morning the group ate breakfast together in a private dining room at the motel. Some students went to church while others went to see the Prairie Dog Town at Mackenzie State Park.

Before leaving on the return trip to Ruidoso, the group toured the University Museum. On display was an exhibition of paintings by Peter Rogers, local artist from the Hondo Valley, who also painted a large mural in the entrance of the museum.

The Alpine Shifters took their weekly hike to Fox Cave. Going on the hike was Mike Fannin, Eugene Champion and Mr. and Mrs. Farrington. On their way to Fox Cave, just past Ruidoso Downs, Eugene Champion punctured his tire with a rock. Even after waiting over 30 minutes for someone to stop and give him a ride, the trip took only 1 hour and 30 minutes. This hike was Mrs. Farrington's first in 6 months and the Farringtons' first experience on a 10-speed tandem.

A fistful of hopeful honor graduates met last week to decide on cap and gown colors. They decided on a white gown with white cap and gold tassel.

The selection to be an honor graduate requires a 3.3 grade point average.

There are about seven prospective honor graduates.

Letters To The Editor

P. O. Box 722

State of New Mexico
Health and Social Services Department
Mr. David L. Michaels, M.D.
District Six Health Officer
Chaves Co. Health
1120 South Grand
Roswell, N. M. 88201

Dear Dr. Michaels:

In reference to your letter of October 19, 1974: The Quarantine Order on Dogs and Cats — October 17, 1974.

I wish to give you the following report:

As of the 19th of November, as per the attached detail sheet, 139 dogs and 110 cats have been put to sleep by the Humane Society of which I am the president. According to our records, the Village of Ruidoso, through its police department has brought in to the Humane Society 36 cats and 15 dogs. The sheriff from the Capitan District has brought in 4 dogs. It is my understanding that the Village of Carrizozo has very effectively carried out the quarantine.

The Village of Ruidoso declared on April 16 of this year that our Village Ordinance 99 regarding the control of animals was not enforceable. Consequently, we have not had an animal ordinance controlling the dogs and cats since that time. The Village of Ruidoso, thru the Municipal League, has requested a codification of all of their ordinances which has been in the hands of the City Council for the past 60 days. The animal ordinance, as submitted by the Municipal League, is almost an exact copy of our Ordinance 99; but that has not been approved and as of last Wednesday, I was advised by telephone that they hope to have an approval by the council by the latter part of December.

Complaints that I have filed with the Municipal Judge have never been followed up and brought to court for the simple reason that the legal talent that we have has advised the Judge that the ordinance is unenforceable.

To sum up the situation, we have many, many dogs and cats running at large with no one designated by the police department or the city council to enforce the quarantine as issued by you. We have a very large turnover in the police department for reasons too numerous to elaborate in this letter. In as much as the Humane Society has been in existence for over ten years and has been recognized to be the only organization that has attempted to control the dogs and cats, we receive numerous calls daily and since all authority has been taken from the Humane Society by the acting Chief of Police and by the advice of City Counsel, John Thompson. Consequently, 98% of the dogs and cats that we have destroyed we are taking credit for and the other, the Villages of Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs.

If there is any way to put teeth in the enforcement of the quarantine, I would certainly recommend that it be done as it has been unheeded by the Village and I would estimate at least 1,000 dogs and cats that have not been vaccinated and are still running loose.

However, there is a bright side: the two local veterinarians from October 17 through November 18, have vaccinated 368 dogs and cats for rabies.

Very truly yours,
The Humane Society of Lincoln Co.

President

Ruidoso seniors visit NMIMT mini-courses

Seventy-nine juniors and seniors from 26 New Mexico high schools attended mini-courses last weekend at New Mexico Institute of Mining & Technology. The 2-day mini-courses provided a unique opportunity for high school students to explore college life.

Students attended a series of lectures and labs in one of 5 fields: biology; computer science; geoscience; metallurgical and materials science; or petroleum and mining engineering.

Classes began Friday afternoon and continued through Sunday morning, Nov. 15-17. In an effort to acquaint them with college life, the high school students shared dorm rooms with Tech students and ate in the Tech cafeteria.

This is the third year mini-courses have been offered at Tech. The next mini-course is tentatively scheduled for Feb. 15-17.

Don Jones and Renato Lutz from Ruidoso High School were among those who attended the mini-courses.

THE TRI-CULTURE OF NEW MEXICO, Anglo - Indian - Mexican-American, held the undivided attention of fifth graders at Nob Hill school last Friday, as well as Bonnie Coe, upper left, teacher. Directly above Helen Klinekole, director of the emergency food and medical service center at Mescalero, discusses one of the foods still dried to be used as a staple among the Mescalero Apaches as her secretary, Adele Shanta, left, and Bernadine Scott, right, Indian Liaison Officer with Nob Hill, look on. At the right Ms. Shanta and Ms. Klinekole prepared a display including mescal, dry peach, choke cherries, dry meat and Indian banana, for the edification of the class. The class was told that sun drying of food eliminated all danger of spoilage and that the practice dates back to the pre-historic period in New Mexico.

RABIES QUARANTINE

The most important aspect of the laws, rules and regulations governing dogs, cats and pets is CITIZEN RESPONSIBILITY and CITIZEN CONSIDERATION for the safety and privacy of their neighbors and other community residents. Laws protecting owners of dogs and cats and non-owners can be enforced effectively only if the citizens themselves know and understand the law, support and assist in their enforcement. Lincoln County residents must assist the County Government, animal control staffs, municipal veterinarians and humane society representatives, district health officer and Sheriff in safeguarding animals and protecting the citizenry from vicious animals and abandoned or stray pets and above all from rabies.

If every citizen assumes his appropriate responsibility — either tying his pets or reporting vicious, stray and abandoned animals, the governmental authorities will be effective in safeguarding the residents and preventing rabies.

Though the rabies problem is serious the most effective and economical approach to enforcing the law governing dogs and cats is citizen awareness and active assumption of their responsibility to tie their dogs and cats. If this is accomplished then the Sheriff and Municipal authorities will have a better opportunity to control stray and abandoned dogs, the number of which does not at this time warrant the establishment of a County dog and cat control staff, costing thousands of dollars. The Sheriff and his deputies can most likely respond to the need to control and disposal of abandoned and stray animals. However, the governmental authorities cannot assume responsibility that by law rests with the owners of dogs and cats.

At this stage in the quarantine declaration, efforts should be made to inform the County residents of their legal responsibilities of protecting their community neighbors and other residents from their dogs and cats. Many people may not realize New Mexico state law requires all citizens to vaccinate, tag and tie or confine their pets. Also Lincoln County citizens may not realize that the Sheriff may dispose of the animal after a reasonable effort to encourage a dog or cat owner to tie his pet has failed. To tie or confine a dog or cat or not to tie or confine a dog or cat is not a free choice of the pet owner. The law requires it!

On October 18, 1974, the Regional Health Director, Dr. David L. Michaels issued an order establishing a rabies quarantine for Lincoln and Otero County. The authority to establish the quarantine is section 47-1-2.6 N. M. S. A. 1953. Below is cited the State Law governing cat and dog ownership and responsibilities by agency, government unit and citizen and respective legal references:

47-1-2.5/47-1-2.6/47-1-6/47-1-9 Responsibilities — County and Sheriff.

47-1-2.6: Responsibilities — County Health Officer.

47-1-2.4/47-1-3/47-1-9: Responsibilities — Veterinarian.

47-1-2.3/47-1-2.4/47-1-2.5/47-1-3/47-1-9/47-1-4. Responsibilities — Citizen.

47-1-5/47-1-6: Responsibilities Municipal.

47-1-2.6 QUARANTINE—Any district health officer may declare a quarantine against rabies within the health district of his jurisdiction when in his judgment rabies exists to the extent that it is a danger to public health. Upon such declaration, all dogs and cats within the health district shall be confined on the premises of the owner or keeper, in a veterinary hospital, commercial dog and cat kennel or in a municipal animal shelter. After reasonable effort to apprehend any dog or cat running at large and uncontrolled by its owner or keeper during a period of quarantine, any peace officer may kill the dog or cat and properly dispose of the body. A quarantine shall not be removed except on order of the district health officer.

Dr. Michaels Quarantine Order requires Lincoln County pet owning citizens to:

a. Securely fasten pets upon a leash at all times.

47-1-2.1 — VACCINATION OF DOGS AND CATS REQUIRED — Any person who owns or keeps a dog or cat over the age of three (3) months in this state shall have the dog or cat vaccinated against rabies annually with a vaccine approved by the director of the health and social services department. All anti-rabies vaccine shall be administered by or under the supervision of a licensed veterinarian.

47-1-2.2 — VACCINATION CERTIFICATES AND TAGS — The veterinarian who administers antirabies vaccine to any dog or cat shall issue to the owner or keeper of the dog or cat a serially numbered vaccination certificate containing the name and address of the veterinarian, the type of vaccine used, the name and address of the owner or keeper of the dog or cat, a description of the dog or cat vaccinated, the date of vaccination and the expiration date of the period of immunity. The veterinarian shall also furnish the owner or keeper with a metal tag bearing the certificate number and the expiration date of the period of immunity. The tag shall be affixed by the owner or keeper to a collar or harness and shall be worn by the dog or cat for which the certificate is issued.

47-1-2.3 — VACCINATION OF DOGS AND CATS BROUGHT INTO STATE — Any dog or cat brought into the state shall be securely confined by the owner or keeper until vaccinated against rabies, which vaccination shall be administered within one (1) week after entry into the state unless the owner or keeper has a certificate of vaccination issued by a veterinarian in another state or foreign country and such vaccination conforms to the requirements of this state.

47-1-2.4. — NOTICE TO HEALTH OFFICER OF ANIMAL BITE — CONFINEMENT. — A. When any person is bitten by an animal, it is the duty of such person or his parent or guardian and of the owner or keeper of the animal immediately to notify the district health officer. Except as provided in subsection B of this section, the owner or keeper of the animal immediately and at his own expense, shall confine it securely for ten (10) days at a place designated by the district health officer. Every physician shall, within twenty-four (24) hours after his first professional attendance upon a person bitten by any animal having or suspected of having rabies, report to the district health officer the name, age, sex and address of the person bitten.

B. If the person bitten is bitten by a dog and if the owner of the dog produces a valid and unexpired certificate of vaccination for the dog issued under section 47-1-2.2 NMSA 1953 evidencing vaccination at least three (3) weeks prior to the bite, then the owner shall be permitted to keep the dog at his own premises for the required period of ten (10) days. Owner confinement shall be permitted by the district health officer if he has declared his area of jurisdiction a rabies-free area. No animal may be released from confinement except by a person designated by the district health officer.

47-1-2.5. — DOGS OR CATS BITTEN BY RABID ANIMALS. — Any dog or cat bitten by an animal known or proved to be rabid shall be killed immediately by its owner or by a peace officer, provided that any dog or cat which has been vaccinated at least three (3) weeks before being bitten shall be confined for ninety (90) days. At the end of the confinement period the dog or cat shall be released if declared free of rabies by a licensed veterinarian. If as determined by the veterinarian, the dog or cat develops rabies during the period of confinement, the owner or keeper shall have it killed and properly disposed of.

47-1-3. VICIOUS ANIMALS—RABID OR UNVACCINATED DOG AND CATS — PROCEDURE FOLLOWING DEATH FROM RABIES. — It is unlawful for any person to keep any animal known to be vicious and liable to attack and injure human beings unless such animal is securely kept so as to prevent injury to any person. It is unlawful to keep any unvaccinated dog or cat or any animal which has shown any symptom of rabies except that, if such animal has bitten a human being, it shall be confined for a ten (10) day period. If the animal dies during the confinement period, the head shall be immediately sent to a laboratory by the district health officer.

The head of any animal suspected of having died of rabies shall be immediately sent to a laboratory designated by the health and social services department under such procedures as specified by the department.

47-1-4. FAILURE TO KILL—PENALTY. — It is the duty of any person who is the owner or keeper of any animal, the keeping of which is unlawful, to cause such animal to be killed. Failure to comply with this section, after knowledge by the owner or keeper of the fact which renders such keeping unlawful, shall subject such owner or keeper to a fine of ten dollars ($10.00) and costs, and each day's failure to comply is a separate offense.

47-1-5. RUNNING AT LARGE IN MUNICIPALITIES. — Each municipal corporation shall make provision by ordinance for the seizure and killing of all dogs and cats running at large and not claimed or harbored by any person on their premises.

47-1-6. ENFORCEMENT. — Municipal corporations may provide enforcement of sections 47-1-2 through 47-1-7 NMSA 1953 by ordinance.

In any area where dogs and cats are not controlled by ordinance, the sheriff or any peace officer shall provide for the disposal of any unvaccinated dog or cat not under ownership and control.

47-1-9. ABANDONED DOGS AND CATS — NOTICE TO OWNER — DISPOSAL WITHOUT LIABILITY. — A. As used in this act (section), "custodian" means the owner or operator of a veterinary clinic or hospital, a doctor of veterinary medicine, a kennel, grooming parlor or other animal care facility.

B. Any dog or cat placed in the custody of a veterinarian, kennel, animal clinic or hospital, grooming parlor or other animal care facility shall be deemed to be abandoned if, after the term of any agreement for board or other care has expired, the dog or cat has not been reclaimed within ten (10) days after written notice has been given the owner or his agent by registered or certified mail.

C. Any dog or cat deemed abandoned under the provisions of subsection B of this section, may be disposed of by the custodian if not reclaimed. Notice of the intent to dispose of a dog or cat shall be given to the owner or his agent by registered or certified mail. Such notice when sent to the address given to the custodian by the owner, shall relieve the custodian from all liability to the owner or his agent for the disposal of the dog or cat.

D. The custodian may turn over an abandoned dog or cat to the municipal or county animal control center, pound or shelter for disposal by them. Nothing in this act shall affect the holding time or notice procedures regarding any municipal or county control facility which is owned or operated by, or is under contract or franchise to, a municipality or county.

E. Nothng in this act shall relieve the owner of a dog or cat for the payment of all reasonable charges for medical or care services rendered to the dog or cat while in the custody of a veterinarian, kennel, animal clinic or hospital, grooming parlor or other animal care facility.

Pumpkin, 62 Turkeys 67 totals $745

In a joint Chamber of Commerce-Ruidoso schools promoted Tuesday night cage thriller ... a real barn burner ... the Western States Telephone Co. "Turkeys" 67 points to the Community Public Service Co. "Pumpkins" 62 added up to $745 to be divided between the three schools.

The money was raised in a turkey auction, with Ab Gunter crying, with the result being Bill Pippin paid $165 for one bird, Jack Burgess $150, McCarty Construction-Sierra Blanca Motors $150, Hooten-Stahl, Inc. Realtors $100 and Miller Tire and Auto $150 for a $715 total. Added to this was the $100 wagered on the score at half-time, with CPS coughing up to the coffers as WST held the edge. Ab Gunter decided his efforts were worth a $5 contribution to the cause, swelling the gross total to $820. Of this amount, $75 was deducted to make the live turkeys oven-ready, leaving $745 in proceeds which was divided $447 to White Mountain, $223.50 to Nob Hill and $74.50 to the high school, with the payoff based on the number of classes in each school participating.

It seems obvious that the first of an annual promotion to celebrate "Thanksgiving, Ruidoso Style" was successful ... and, as C-C manager Richard Cothrun said Wednesday, "May it become bigger and better every year."

RUIDOSO (N. M.) NEWS — FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1974

MRS. B—

By CECELIA BARRON

Some of mother's relatives lived in Indiana, that I had never seen and after grandmother died, grandfather went there to live with them. He also had spent quite a lot of his time there, in his younger days. He later took turns living with his children. We always enjoyed his stay with us.

He was a great help to mother. He kept the yard in trim shape, chopped kindling and kept the wood box or coal bin full; helped look after the babies and many times he would churn. It was my job to churn though, most of the time. I would always sing as I lifted the dasher up and down to the time of my tune; so the task would not seem so dreary. If my tune was slow, mother called, "Sing a fast tune, so you can get through in a hurry." Which reminds me of a little story grandfather used to tell when he churned:

The misses left the mister to do the churning while she went to town. The mister finished and took up the butter. While he was working it, a thought occured to him: that it might be good to put a little spice in to flavor it. So he looked around for some nutmeg. Finding what he thought he wanted, he grated some in the butter and waited for the misses to come home. When she arrived she looked and smelled of the butter. Wrinkling her nose she asked, "What did you put in this butter?"

"A little nutmeg to flavor it, off of the plug up in the cupboard."

"My goodness! Fritz, that was assafoetida!" she shrieked.

Some time later my mother had to bring her father to live with us. I remember the day she went after him. A terrible blizzard was blowing. I could see a red wool blanket hanging up on the side of the surrey to keep the cold wind out. She had to drive about twelve miles to the railroad station. She took the two younger babies, leaving us older ones with father. She was to put the carriage and horses in the livery stable, near the station, while she went on this journey. It seemed she would never return, as she had to go to Indiana.

Now, father was a pretty good cook as he always liked to 'potter' around the kitchen, helping get breakfast even though mother was there. We loved his hot cakes with honey over them and thick slices of fried ham, swimming in red red gravy. For supper he cooked us a large bowl of cornmeal mush, with lots of butter and milk over it. So you see we managed very well while mother was gone.

Grandfather told us many stories about his life, and the Bible, as he was a devout Christian. He lived to be ninety-one years and fourteen days old before he died — never smoked, drank or cursed. He said he started smoking when he was a kid and quit fifteen minutes after he started as tobacco did not agree with him. He was never sick to speak of, or never had a doctor until he died. He read everything he could get his hands on, until he became blind, four years before he died. He was born in Tennessee, near Galbraith Springs, and was named for President Andrew Jackson, who spent the night while passing through the country, at my grandfather's home.

Don't make me laugh, as it is no laughing matter; while the larger part of the world is starving and the President is warning and urging us to be economical, he is spending the taxpayer's money, wandering over in foreign countries. He is sure to cause only animosity, as it is not likely the whole world has forgotten Hiroshima; where an entire population of more than 500,000 people were destroyed or maimed.

Then there is too much time and money spent on 'hot air' discussions about Rockefeller's money. We who have had to pinch our pennies all our lives and many who have not had to, cares very little who Rockefeller gave his money to; as we have not seen any of it. (Just a little note I found in a reference book, about J. D. Rockefeller: 'By strict economy, mergers with competitors, and 'ruthless crushing' of opponents, his Standard Oil Co., dominated U. S. oil refining industry.') Does this spell anything today?

But we do care if the money we have scraped up to pay into our government is doled out uselessly and to those who do not honestly need it. We have known there was a recession long before the 'higher ups' would admit it; and we did not have to change our ways very much, as we have always lived economically. But to top all this off the senate wants more money to waste and keep them in the way they are accustomed to. All the good we can see in this is: the money Rockefeller gives away and what the senate spends, may help the 'under dog' in some way; as we are surely going to need help soon. And their class probably will be the only ones who will have any monye to spend. Would it not be ironic if they had to feed us? I do not think, though, that this will ever happen. It will always be the poor feeding the poor; like the blind leading the blind.

I know all of Mrs. Emma Foreman's friends were glad to see her. She and her nephew, Mr. Evans and Mrs. Evans, from San Antonio, Texas made a quick visit with us. Miss Emma, as she is lovingly known, formerly lived in Ruidoso for years, but moved to Boerne, Texas to be near her loved ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hinkle dropped by for a short visit and brought me the nicest fish, and some delicious zucchini loaf. Mr. Hinkle's hobby is making little furniture from small cans and boxes, when it is too cold to fish. I wonder if anyone has thought to save their empty cans for him? You know metal cans are scarce. Mrs. Hinkle is always helping him or cooking some of her luscious dishes and caring for her lovely flowers.

I will be incommunicado for a while and you will not hear from me; but I will try to see how other parts of our country live and find some interesting things to tell you shortly.

—MRS. B.

Presbyterian pastor reports on conference

Frank Crown, pastor of the Presbyterian Churches in Ancho, Nogal and Ruidoso, attended the "Knowing and Growing" conference in Kansas City, Mo., on Nov. 11-15. He was a representative of the Synod of the Southwest of the United Presbyterian Church.

Learning, its newest forms and concepts, was studied in depth during the conference.

Creative Communication Conferences, a division of Word, Inc., of Waco, Texas, was responsible for bringing together two dozen of the nation's best educators.

Lectures, seminar sessions and participant interaction were integrated throughout the Conference to enable those attending the Conference both to hear and to implement what was being said.

As the week progressed, continuity was given to the Conference by the emphasis on such themes as the dichotomy between changers and traditionalists, the rejoining of the mind and body, and the common pilgrimage faced by teacher and learner alike.

Among those speaking were George Harris, editor of PSYCHOLOGY TODAY, Dr. William Coulson, who with Carl Rogers edited MAN AND THE SCIENCE OF MAN, and Dr. Martin Marty, associate dean of the Divinity School, University of Chicago.

Topics ranged from Harris' keynote address on "New Discoveries in the Mystery of the Body as Temple, Reflections on Learning and Psysiological Research," to Lyman Coleman's Model on "Building Community through Communication Games," to John Killinger's speech on "Liturgy and the Radical Vision."

Special program personnel were Dr. Christiane Brusselmans of Belgium, now a visiting professor at Harvard Divinity School who has taught at numerous European and American Universities and author of "WE CELEBRATE THE EUCHARIST"; Dr. Coulson, a fellow of the Center for Studies of the Person, in La Jolla, Calif.; Dr. Harley Swiggum, executive director of the Adult Christian Education Foundation and originator of the Bethel series; Dr. Sidney Simon, professor at the Center for Humanistic Studies at the University of Massachusetts and author of VALVE CLARIFICATION; Cynthia Wedel, author and former President of the National Council of Churches; and Ken Medena, composer and performer.

A highlight of the Conference was a Multi-Media show presented at the closing session. The presentation was prepared "on-the-spot" during the week's activities by Media specialists. Keith Miller participated in the presentation, giving commentary on what had occurred. Not only did the session review the conference, but also helped those attending to use effectively what they had been exposed to and had learned as they prepared to return home.

Groundbreaking set for "Hall of Fame" in Alamogordo

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the International Space Hall of Fame will coincide with the 20th anniversary of a man who earned the title, "The Fastest Man on Earth."

At 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, December 1, these ceremonies will be held at the International Space Hall of Fame site located adjacent to the Alamogordo Branch of New Mexico State University.

"Governor Bruce King, along with local, state and national dignitaries, will take part in the groundbreaking," said Dwight A. Ohlinger, Chairman of the Governor's Commission on the ISHF.

It was just twenty years ago on December 1, that Dr. John P. Stapp pioneered the initial run on a special sled at the test site at Holloman Air Force Base. Today Dr. Stapp, a resident of Alamogordo, serves on the Governor's Commission on the International Space Hall of Fame.

Following the groundbreaking, a reception will be hosted by the Board of the Women's Division of the Alamogordo Chamber of Commerce at the college.

Serving on the Governor's Commission on the ISHF with Ohlinger and Stapp are Dan King of Alamogordo; Dr. Charles Meister of Portales; Al Romero, Gallup; Mrs. Betty Burks, Las Cruces; Dr. Clayton S. White, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; David King, Santa Fe; Frank DiLuzio, Santa Fe; Fabian Chavez, Santa Fe; and Richard Hurley, Deming. Col. U. W. Hess (Ret.) is serving as Executive Director of the ISHF.

Gold talk scheduled by Chamber of Commerce

As of January 1, Americans will be allowed to own gold for the first time in 40 years. There is a tremendous interest in gold, yet it is probably the least understood of all the precious metals.

For an informative evening, the Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a talk on gold ownership by Don Miller, an account executive with Merrill, Lynch, Fenner, Pierce and Smith. The meet will be held at Nob Hill School cafeteria on December 3 at 7 p.m.

The public is invited to attend the meeting.

Your Social Security

Students, housewives, and other people planning to get holiday jobs should apply soon for a social security number if they don't have one, according to Mrs. Christine Graves, social security field representative.

"Applications from people who don't recall having had a social security number before generally are screened against central files in Baltimore to make sure a second number isn't issued to the same person. Screening takes time, so you should apply for your number several weeks before you need it for a job covered by social security," Mrs. Graves urged.

People applying for a social security number for the first time may be asked to prove their age, identity, and citizenship. Citizens should take with them their birth or baptismal certificate recorded before age 5. If no such record is available, the same type of proof used to cash a check should be furnished.

A foreign-born applicant should take with him his naturalization papers when he applies. Aliens must show proof of legal entry into the United States.

"If you've lost your social security card, you can get a duplicate by contacting any social security office. Quicker service will be secured if you can supply the stub of your original social security card, or at least furnish your number," Mrs. Graves concluded.

Ten Speed Shift

by Galen Farrington

On November 14, a very interesting gentleman and his dog spent the night with us. His name is Howard Mattice, the tricyclist who has pedaled over 4,600 miles through eighteen states since leaving St. Petersburg, Fla. last June 17. Traveling with Howard is his dog, Blackie, who makes himself at home quite readily in strange surroundings.

Mr. Mattice has become very familiar along the roads of his route due to the tremendous amount of publicity he has received. Hopefully, I will avoid much overlap in relating his story.

As we spoke, often I was reminded of the literary figure of Mark Twain, due to his anecdotal humor and long hair and beard. This 56-year-old retired army sergeant passed the hours quickly with his thought provoking answers to our questions.

Why was he traveling by tricycle? After dismissal from the service he had a brain tumor removed, which affected his equilibrium and depth perception, ruling out travel by bicycle and auto. So, it was with trike and trailer that he pedaled northward to New York last summer.

Not having any previous long-distance bicycle experience, I asked how much planning he had done before-hand. He replied, "very little formal planning. One eight-day pilot trip and I was off." And after inquiring why he left so suddenly, he replied that he wanted to leave before he changed his mind!

The tricycle gearing is very interesting in that it incorporates a new design to provide ultimately, infinitely variable gear ratios. The explanation of this transmission would take a column in itself. Suffice it to say that it would approximate a conventional 20 to 25 speed bicycle as far as possible gear combinations are concerned.

The "back seat" of the trike was Blackie's home on the road. But now that he is approaching a year old, Howard lets him run along when the going gets slow.

The "trunk" or trailer carried his sleeping bag, clothing (not much of that), tools, and spare parts. He carried no cooking gear and ate one big meal during the morning at a cafe and went through a pound of peanut butter, jelly and bread on the road. Often, he would supplement this diet with chocolate balls.

His sleeping arrangements are rather simple. After completing his miles for the day, he looks for a place to "break the wind" and throw down his sleeping bag. He beds down at sunset and gets up at dawn and is pedaling down the highway toward a breakfast before most of us are up.

During the day he may spend hours speaking with people about his trip. He reflected on his "early days"; commenting that people said he'd quit his wild dream before long. But after six months he is looking forward to another year before attaining his goal of visiting forty-eight states.

Not all of his travel is slow. One of the four world records he has set thus far, is one of the longest distance ever traveled by a tricyclist in a day — 116 miles. At one time he was keeping a record of his mileage on a bicycle speedometer but the cable snapped at 60 m.p.h., and now he uses a simple odometer. In Pennsylvania he had to talk his way out of a speeding ticket — he was doing 42 m.p.h. in a 25 mile zone! And there was the time he made it through Oklahoma City in an hour and a half during rush hour.

At the other end of the pedal are the slow days. One of his less memorable days was in Texas, fighting a head-wind, which forced him to walk 14 of the 50 miles that day. Some days no mileage is covered. Such was the case when he spent an unexpected 17 idle days in a small Virginia town as the result of an accident that totaled his first trailer and partially destroyed his trike. I commented that he must have been moving at a good clip, when he said he wasn't even moving — a car hit him from the rear while he was parked under a street lamp!

I asked him about safety equipment because it was rather obvious from his display of lights, reflectors, safety flags, rear view mirror, and light colored clothing that he had definite ideas. He summed up his ideas as, "Be seen" but he also added that traveling exposed like this is not for the nervous at heart.

It seems all of his conversations include the question: "Do you have any trouble with people?" And he would emphatically reply "No!" We then reflected upon the role of the car in our society as to how it has robbed us of our pioneer spirit and how it has made each of us aliens on the road, protected by a mass of metal and glass from nature and intruders.

As the night wore on relentlessly, we spoke about everything from religion to science fiction. He spoke with Biblical familiarty that would shame some Sunday church goers, hypothesized about science and the universe to a degree which made one stop and think, and he spoke of literary figures that would entice the literary mind.

It became increasingly obvious that this was a man who was actually experiencing his life, as periodic examples of his thought emerged from his trip discussion. The trip is providing a living education; an educaton born of books but dealing with the structural oneness of nature and fellow men.

Leaving early Friday morning, I watched his rig head up Route 70 — flags waving, reflectors shining, orange cap bobbing. And I thought of this man living the dreams of hundreds who will not take that first step of the long journey without the convenience or protection of the automobile. His reply to Chris' question as to his enjoyment of the trip played on my mind as he drove off, "I wouldn't be doing it if it wasn't fun!"

JUST FOR TODAY

Just for today I will try to live through this day only, and not tackle my whole life's problems at once. I can do something for twelve hours that would appall me if I felt that I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

Just for today I will be happy. This assumes to be true what Abraham Lincoln said about happiness, that "Most folks are as happy as they make up their minds to be."

Just for today I will adjust myself to what is, and not try to adjust everything to my own desires. I will take my "luck" as it comes, and fit myself to it.

Just for today I will try to strengthen my mind. I will study. I will do at least two things I don't want to do — just for exercise. I will not show anyone that my feelings are hurt — they may be hurt, but today I will not show it.

Just for today I will be agreeable. I will look as well as I can, dress becomingly, talk low, act courteously, criticize not one bit, not find fault with anything, and not try to improve or regulate anybody except myself.

Just for today I will have a program. I may not follow it exactly, but I will have it. I will save myself from two pests: hurry and indecision.

Just for today I will have a quiet half hour all by myself, and relax. During this half hour, sometime, I will try to get a better perspective of my life.

Just for today I will be unafraid. Epecially I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful, and to believe that as I give to the world, so the world will give to me.

STUPH & JUNK . . . by Cale Dickey

Who's to blame . . .

The world's in a mess. And where's one of the biggest messes in the world? Right in the midst of this land of plenty . . . plenty of taxes, plenty of shortages, plenty of disgruntled citizens.

Who's to blame?

The laboring man? This well muscled specimen of physical fitness doesn't look underfed . . . he generally owns a pretty fair set of wheels . . . and considers as his just desserts those conveniences to which, an eye's blink ago, only the wealthy could aspire to.

The business man? Governmental restrictions tend to hamstring a free-wheeling operation . . . and he'll be the first to so admit . . . but you don't see him trying to get out from under this intolerable burden . . because it provides those things that make life worth while.

The middle man? He's a talented squawker . . . claims the guys he deals with, on both sides, are gouging him out of existence. But how many of these middle men are quietly salvaging what they can from their operation . . . as opposed to those enjoying the fruits of their labors?

The manufacturing man? Now there is the privileged class in these sometimes United States. Behind the cold, calculating eyes of the entrepreneur, a fertile brain . . . almost calculator like in its efficiency . . . rests not in the constant pursuit of greater profits . . . like, man . . . "Full speed ahead and damn the torpedos."

The professional man? This group is as individualistic as an albino gorilla who has successfully taken over as leader of a band of chimpanzees. They do their thing . . . they serve their clientele . . . by virtue of what they know and by their ability to put this knowledge into application, they are necessary to our existence.

The producing man? He tills his fields, plucks his harvest, reaps his monetary rewards from his skills and the sweat of a grimy brow. Not necessarily his. And he bellyaches . . . to which he's entitled. But he sticks to his labors . . . ever confident that his next slice of the economic pie will be bigger than the last.

The political man? He's not necessarily a savant, but he knows from whence his next opportunity will spring . . . and he's at the right place at the right time to pounce upon said opportunity. And, oddly enough, without his back-scratching conniving we could eliminate progress from our vocabulary.

The wealthy man? The system made him what he is . . . and will make of him what he desires . . . because he doesn't have to be beholden to anyone . . . and outside of a few persistent meddlers in affairs of no concern to them, other than personal . . . they give the rest of us something to be wistful about.

The free thinking man? Harmless. Except to himself. Gentle. Loving. Though he knocks convention and all it stands for . . . he revels in the benefits accruing to him from this same society . . . in which no demands are made upon him to become a contributing member.

The voting man? It is he who screams the loudest. His ox is ever the one that is getting gored. It is he who is being deprived of those things held so dear . . . freedom . . . stature . . . opportunity. It is he who deplores the actions of the elected officials . . . it is he who bemoans the status quo in which US citizens are hopelessly enmeshed. It is he who decries governmental interference in his affairs. It is he who is first in line to demand that the government give him protection . . . protection from his enemies . . . his competitors . . . his ineptitude . . . himself. It is he who reviles the elected public servants for malfeasance. It is he who is the outstanding malcontent of our society. Could it also be he who doesn't vote?

So . . . who's to blame?

BRIEF BIT: May the lap into which you spill the bowl of gravy of your festive repast be the lap of one who loves you. Happy Thanksgiving . . . and stuff . . .

DA answers Downs Council call for juvenile case action

The Ruidoso Downs village council, at the Nov. 11 meeting, authorized a letter to the District Attorney "calling for action by his department on numerous complaints against juveniles in the village," following a report by Lt. G. M. Bowers that no action had been taken on several referrals to juvenile authorities.

In a reply to the council, dated Nov. 22, Norman D. Bloom, Jr., Twelfth Judicial District Attorney, noted action taken by Charles Shaw, assistant DA. The DA referred to "a lack of substantive evidence" and that "filing invalid delinquency charges" must be avoided and that if "the problems described continue" that "on presentation of new referrals, Court action would be considered when properly supported by sufficient evidence."

In part, the letter stated:

"The Children's Code, as applicable to this case, provides only three possible alternative dispositions. First, informal counseling and warning can be used; this has been tried and is ineffectual. Secondly, the children can be placed on probation; usually, the effectiveness of this technique with very young children is limited. Thirdly, commitment to the Girls' or Boys' School is possible; however, again, the age of the children seems to stand in the way of this as a solution.

"It might be pointed out that accusations have been made by both sides to the present controversy; this is yet another reason why Mr. Shaw suggested counseling and discussion rather than court action." (Bloom cautioned against committing possible violations of the State Human Rights Act and confidentiality provisions of the Children's Code.)

"In closing, let me state that I appreciate your concern, and I assure you that the matter will not be ignored by my staff. Mr. Shaw tells me that he has been trying to solve this particular problem for some time, and that he will continue to work with your officers in order to reach a final solution to the difficulty. It is my hope that your concern will find expression in a constructive manner; we would be most appreciative if you could see your way clear to express your discontent with the Children's Code to your legislative delegation (it is, admittedly, in drastic need of revision); and that you will provide your police with the tolls — communications, secretarial services, and investigations equipment — necessary to prepare cases that can be prosecuted in our present very difficult court environment."

Jehovah's Witnesses Convention

Delegates from the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses have returned from a circuit convention held in Alamogordo on Saturday and Sunday, November 9 and 10. Ten New Mexico congregations enjoyed a two day program built around the theme, "What Sort of Person Ought You To Be?" (2 Peter 3:11). The peak attendance at the session was 828.

"The delegates were greatly encouraged to put forth the effort to be the 'sort of person you ought to be,' said Mr. Townley, presiding overseer of the Ruidoso congregation, "underscoring the need to have God's approval in order to gain salvation."

A principal feature of the Sunday session was the talk, "Dedication and Baptism", by John R. Heckman, District Supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses, followed by the baptism of 34 new ministers.

Highlighting the assembly was the public address, "What the Near Future Holds!" delivered by Mr. Heckman. "The Bible shows that the future will bring, not destruction of the earth and those on it," said Heckman, "rather God's purpose is to rid the earth of those people who are incorrigibly wicked. That will open the way for the remaining righteously disposed individuals to transform the earth into the paradise God originally purposed it to be."

Meetings of the Ruidoso congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will return to the regular schedule this week at the Kingdom Hall, located at the Ruidoso Women's Club, Evergreen Street, Ruidoso, N. M. 88345.

In Passing . .

BY AL LANE

Good entertainment for the entire family came to Ruidoso Saturday, Nov. 16 when "Showtime Ruidoso" opened for a large crowd with a performance of Broadway hit tunes that brought a sigh of nostalgia from those attending. The community concert type entertainment marks a first for the village and points up the need for a gathering place for such events. Seems the high school gym, what with basketball practice and other activities, is the only place in the village for such performances. We tip our hats to the citizens of this community who made the program possible.

The Rio Ruidoso is still rolling along well and it sure is a pleasant sight and sound to hear it. Can remember when it was dry but with the late fall rains it would appear that it will run well all winter. . . .

The high school building trades class tells us that the house project on which they are working is nearing completion. If you are interested in purchasing the house for a summer home, you should go by as soon as it is completed. . . .

Noticed that the Episcopal Church has started what looks like an expansion of their building. Footings have been dug and workers busy there. . . .

It would appear that there will be lots of enthusiasm for the businessmen's ski project on Thursday afternoons. Have heard lots of talk about it and many schedules being re-arranged to fit the day of outing. . . .

Coming Events

December 7 — Cloudcroft at Capitan, girls and boys A-teams, 5:00 p.m. Dedication of naming of new gym between games.

This and That

The new activity bus that is on order is supposed to be delivered in November. Its arrival is anxiously awaited.

The enrollment for the Capitan Schools is now at 251. By grade the number is as follows: Seventh Grade — 25; Eighth Grade — 32; Ninth Grade — 20; Tenth Grade — 11; Eleventh Grade — 19, and Twelfth Grade — 16.

There are two new bus drivers for the school system. Driving the Lincoln bus now is Beverly LaMay. Walt Jones is now driving in from the north side of Capitan.

The Capitan Board of Education has accepted the resignation of Mr. Herschel Heinen. Mr. Heinen submitted his resignation because of the health of his wife. Heinen was the band director at Capitan. He had certainly done a tremendous job in the short time he was in charge of the band. He will be missed.

The November 29 basketball game with Corona was cancelled and has been rescheduled for February 18 in Capitan. Game time is 6 p.m.

On Nov. 12 and 13, an evaluation committee from the North Central Association was on the Capitan School Campus. An on-campus evaluation such as this occurs every seven years. Self-evaluations are made at other years. Capitan is the smallest school in the North Central Association that is approved by the association with no deficiencies up to this point. This was the preliminary observation. In the spring the second observation will be made.

Members of the evaluation team were Dr. Alvin Howard, Dr. Bonner Crawford, Dr. Joan Howard and Mr. James Little.

Add three names to the list of Tigers on the basketball team. The three are John Lucero, a senior; Kelly Lamb, sophomore, and Loyd Harper, a freshman.

Becky Renfro Wins Rifle

At 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, Nov. 16, the winning ticket was drawn for the rifle. The lucky winner of the rifle was Becky Renfro, sophomore student at Capitan High School. The winning ticket was drawn from a big box full of tickets by a two-year-old boy. Congratulations, Becky.

Tigerette Basketball

On Tuesday, Nov. 12, the Capitan Tigerette basketball season got underway. It was not a successful beginning for the Tigerettes as both the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams were defeated by two teams of Ruidoso.

Action in the Ruidoso gym got underway at 6 p.m. The starting five for the Capitan B-team were Lisa Lamb, Donna Cooper and Julia Coleman from the eighth grade, and Megan LaMay and Darlene Herrera from the ninth grade. Also seeing much action was Mary Ann Gutierrez.

The score of the game was 26-19 in favor of the Ruidoso B-team.

Scoring by quarters:

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Capitan ..... | 0 | 6 | 6 | 7—19 |
| Ruidoso | 8 | 6 | 2 | 10—26 |

Doing the scoring for Capitan was Lamb with 8 points, Gutierrez had 6, and Cooper followed with 5. From the free throw line the team was 3 for 8.

Others on the team were Reba Hardy, Debbie Dalton, Lilly Montes, Debbie Perry, Susie Shrecengost and Shirley Taylor.

The Varsity game got underway with these girls starting for Capitan: Alice Fillingim and Rhonda Barber, seniors; Susie Abercrombie and Elizabeth Jenkins, juniors; and Becky Renfro, sophomore. Coming in off the bench early in the game and doing a fine job was Debbie Burkett.

Capitan got off to a miserable start as Ruidoso rolled to a 12-0 lead before Burkett finally broke the covering over the basket and put in two points for Capitan. But Capitan was never able to get in the ball game as Ruidoso romped to an easy 46-32 victory.

The Tigerettes were plagued by bad passes all night long. The Ruidoso team wasted no time in capitalizing as they led by 23 points at halftime.

The Tigerettes got into foul trouble as two players had four fouls before halftime and one player had three. Two players were lost via the foul route midway through the fourth quarter.

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Capitan ..... | 2 | 8 | 10 | 12—32 |
| Ruidoso ..... | 14 | 19 | 8 | 5—46 |

Scoring for Capitan was Burkett with 8 points, Fillingim and Renfro with 6 each, Barber and Angie Zamora had 4 each, Abercrombie and Bernie Gomez had 2 each. Others on the Varsity team were Lisa Lamb and Donna Cooper.

On Saturday, Nov. 16, the two teams traveled to Weed and again Capitan came up with too few points. The Junior Varsity lost by a score of 43-10 and the Varsity got beat, 59-27.

Christmas tree sales to begin December 7

The Carson, Cibola, Gila, Lincoln and Santa Fe National Forests in New Mexico announced their plans for personal use Christmas tree sales, as well as special office hours in some offices to accommodate the annual rush.

As in past years, District Forest Rangers advised visitors to be prepared for cold weather and to equip their cars with snow tires or chains. Some areas may be closed if conditions warrant.

The District Rangers have selected cutting sites where Christmas tree harvesting will have a beneficial, thinning effect on the forest. The removal of some trees permits those remaining to grow faster.

Trees up to eight feet tall sell for $1 each. Following is a list of Ranger Districts, number and species of trees available and special hours.

LINCOLN NATIONAL FOREST:

Smokey Bear Ranger District (Ruidoso) — 200 Douglas and white fir, 700 pinon. Tags also available at the Capitan Administrative Site. Weekend sales December 7-22, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Cloudcroft Ranger Dstrict — 4,000 pinon, Douglas fir and ponderosa pine. Weekend sales December 7-22, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Coming Events

December 7 — Cloudcroft at Capitan, girls and boys A-teams, 5:00 p.m. Dedication of naming of new gym between games.

This and That

The new activity bus that is on order is supposed to be delivered in November. Its arrival is anxiously awaited.

The enrollment for the Capitan Schools is now at 231. By grade the number is as follows: Seventh Grade — 25; Eighth Grade — 32; Ninth Grade — 20; Tenth Grade — 11; Eleventh Grade — 19, and Twelfth Grade — 16.

There are two new bus drivers for the school system. Driving the Lincoln bus now is Beverly LaMay. Walt Jones is now driving in from the north side of Capitan.

The Capitan Board of Education has accepted the resignation of Mr. Herschel Heinen. Mr. Heinen submitted his resignation because of the health of his wife. Heinen was the band director at Capitan. He had certainly done a tremendous job in the short time he was in charge of the band. He will be missed.

The November 29 basketball game with Corona was cancelled and has been rescheduled for February 18 in Capitan. Game time is 6 p.m.

On Nov. 12 and 13, an evaluation committee from the North Central Association was on the Capitan School Campus. An on-campus evaluation such as this occurs every seven years. Self-evaluations are made at other years. Capitan is the smallest school in the North Central Association that is approved by the association with no deficiencies up to this point. This was the preliminary observation. In the spring the second observation will be made.

Members of the evaluation team were Dr. Alvin Howard, Dr. Bonner Crawford, Dr. Joan Howard and Mr. James Little.

Add three names to the list of Tigers on the basketball team. The three are John Lucero, a senior; Kelly Lamb, sophomore, and Loyd Harper, a freshman.

Becky Renfro Wins Rifle

At 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, Nov. 16, the winning ticket was drawn for the rifle. The lucky winner of the rifle was Becky Renfro, sophomore student at Capitan High School. The winning ticket was drawn from a big box full of tickets by a two-year-old boy. Congratulations, Becky.

Tigerette Basketball

On Tuesday, Nov. 12, the Capitan Tigerette basketball season got underway. It was not a successful beginning for the Tigerettes as both the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams were defeated by two teams of Ruidoso.

Action in the Ruidoso gym got underway at 6 p.m. The starting five for the Capitan B-team were Lisa Lamb, Donna Cooper and Julia Coleman from the eighth grade, and Megan LaMay and Darlene Herrera from the ninth grade. Also seeing much action was Mary Ann Gutierrez.

The score of the game was 26-19 in favor of the Ruidoso B-team.

Scoring by quarters:

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Capitan | 0 | 6 | 6 | 7—19 |
| Ruidoso | 8 | 6 | 2 | 10—26 |

Doing the scoring for Capitan was Lamb with 8 points, Gutierrez had 6, and Cooper followed with 5. From the free throw line the team was 3 for 8.

Others on the team were Reba Hardy, Debbie Dalton, Lilly Montes, Debbie Perry, Susie Shrecengost and Shirley Taylor.

The Varsity game got underway with these girls starting for Capitan: Alice Fillingim and Rhonda Barber, seniors; Susie Abercrombie and Elizabeth Jenkins, juniors; and Becky Renfro, sophomore. Coming in off the bench early in the game and doing a fine job was Debbie Burkett.

Capitan got off to a miserable start as Ruidoso rolled to a 12-0 lead before Burkett finally broke the covering over the basket and put in two points for Capitan. But Capitan was never able to get in the ball game as Ruidoso romped to an easy 46-32 victory.

The Tigerettes were plagued by bad passes all night long. The Ruidoso team wasted no time in capitalizing as they led by 23 points at halftime.

The Tigerettes got into foul trouble as two players had four fouls before halftime and one player had three. Two players were lost via the foul route midway through the fourth quarter.

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Capitan | 2 | 8 | 10 | 12—32 |
| Ruidoso | 14 | 19 | 8 | 5—46 |

Scoring for Capitan was Burkett with 8 points, Fillingim and Renfro with 6 each, Barber and Angie Zamora had 4 each, Abercrombie and Bernie Gomez had 2 each. Others on the Varsity team were Lisa Lamb and Donna Cooper.

On Saturday, Nov. 16, the two teams traveled to Weed and again Capitan came up with too few points. The Junior Varsity lost by a score of 43-10 and the Varsity got beat, 59-27.

Christmas tree sales to begin December 7

The Carson, Cibola, Gila, Lincoln and Santa Fe National Forests in New Mexico announced their plans for personal use Christmas tree sales, as well as special office hours in some offices to accommodate the annual rush.

As in past years, District Forest Rangers advised visitors to be prepared for cold weather and to equip their cars with snow tires or chains. Some areas may be closed if conditions warrant.

The District Rangers have selected cutting sites where Christmas tree harvesting will have a beneficial, thinning effect on the forest. The removal of some trees permits those remaining to grow faster.

Trees up to eight feet tall sell for $1 each. Following is a list of Ranger Districts, number and species of trees available and special hours.

LINCOLN NATIONAL FOREST:

Smokey Bear Ranger District (Ruidoso) — 200 Douglas and white fir, 700 pinon. Tags also available at the Capitan Administrative Site. Weekend sales December 7-22, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Cloudcroft Ranger Dstrict — 4,000 pinon, Douglas fir and ponderosa pine. Weekend sales December 7-22, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Guadalupe Ranger District (Carlsbad) — Unlimited pinon. No weekend sales.

Mayhill Ranger District — 500 Douglas and white fir. Weekend sales December 7-22, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.
