NUMBER 27, IN OUR 29th YEAR | Ruidoso, Lincoln County, New Mexico — 88345 | FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1974

TWO SIDES OF THIS TRAILER HOME were blown out in an explosion occurring about 6:28 a.m., Tuesday. The Ruidoso PD report of the fire notes the trailer, owned by Tommy Whitlock of Roswell, "blew up and burned extensively" and that the Ruidoso firemen did an "outstanding job of containing the fire". The trailer, situated on the hill above the Midway area, was unoccupied at the time. Firemen suspect the explosion occurred in gas appliances in the kitchen and have called the State Fire Marshal to investigate.

WINTER FANTASY — Ruidosoans and visitors were greeted last Sunday morning with the season's largest (and probably most beautiful) snow. The snowfall lasted almost all day Sunday and left sights such as this throughout the village. (Ruidoso News Photo)

BOYLE ENGINEERING OUTLINES PLANS FOR STUDY

Water system survey in progress

The survey of the existing water facilities serving Ruidoso is now underway, with Boyle Engineering Corp. conducting the study under a contract agreement with the village.

This is the first step in implementing the $5 million General Obligation bond issue passed by Ruidoso voters October 8, to provide the village with a 1,100 million gallon water reservoir on ski run road, and a treating plant and transmission line to tie into the present system. The additional water facilities are being constructed to provide the village with an adequate supply through periods of drouth, such as experienced this past summer.

Boyle, of Irvine, CA, with offices here, will conduct the survey in eight phases.

1 — Research. Review the current status of advanced planning data and growth rate of Ruidoso with the village staff. Determine past per capita consumption, seasonal and daily use peaks. Review unique features and operational problems in the existing system.

2 — Model Existing System. Summarize data on present system, compile an inventory of all data and prepare a base map of the facilities for use in computer modeling. Input data on supply, transmission and storage facilities in the present system into the computer model. Evaluate and verify results of model for the existing system.

3 — Future Demand and Supply. Develop water demands by land-use category based on the existing village general plan and define water demands for the village's probable land use.

4 — Develop Alternatives. Analyze each alternative and test its impact on the system. Determine adequacy of storage and distribution within the total system and optimize each alternative as determined in system reviews.

5 — Cost Estimates. Prepare cost estimates for proposed facilities. Analyze alternative to develop optimal plan with regard to both quantifiable and nonquantifiable factors. Review alternatives with village to determine a recommended plan with monies available for construction.

6 — Proposed Construction Schedule. Prepare proposed construction schedules for the recommended plan based on proposed facilities and current deficiencies, if any. Prepare an estimated expenditure schedule for this plan to include inflationary trends.

7 — Prepare Report. Prepare and submit to the village a first draft of complete report with text and plates, summary and recommendations and incorporate village comments. Complete, print and bind the finalized report.

8 — Master Plan Presentation. Present study methods, findings and recommendations to the Village Council for adoption, including oral and written reports as required.

In an exclusive interview with Max Williams, managing engineer with Boyle in the Ruidoso area, he said:

"Additional consulting work has been requested in areas where the existing system is known to be inoperative. According to Village officials this work is of high priority, needing to be completed prior to heavy use next spring and summer. The Cherokee well and system serving the Pine Cliff area will be the first area to receive attention. Another special study will be made of the system in the Upper Canyon area to develop the maximum efficiency from existing facilities. These special problem areas will be further studied as the master plan study progresses and solutions to each individual problem will be determined.

"Representatives from Boyle Engineering Corp. have already started to collect data and are becoming more familiar with the existing system. It is their intent to proceed with the master plan study and extra work as directed by the Village officials, as rapidly as possible in order to correct any deficiencies in the existing system prior to heavy use next spring and summer.

"Boyle Engineering Corp. will be opening an office in Ruidoso the first of January, 1975, from which all phases of work will be administered, with specialized assistance as required from our special design staff in the main office in California."

Williams also said that an attempt will be made, through the use of the new water system, to eliminate the use of the Hollywood well.

The essence of the eight steps, Williams said, is to make a complete survey of the existing water system, to define all problem areas and develop a plan to solve the inconvenience resulting from these problem areas.

'SOOWI' skiers hit the slopes

'SOOWI' (Support Our Only Winter Industry), a Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce-Sierra Blanca Ski Resort project for C-C member owners, operators or managers of Ruidoso businesses or professions, was launched Thursday with the arrival of excellent skiing conditions on the slopes.

Eligible skiers signing up for the first day of skiing, under this program, totaled 30 by Wednesday forenoon, C-C manager Richard Cothrun said. "I want to remind everyone who will be skiing under the SOOWI plan, that they must register at the chamber office prior to leaving for the slopes and that they may register until noon Thursdays."

The offer is part of a program to develop more local interest in skiing and to encourage everyone having contact with skiers, especially those from out of town who will be using local housing and dining facilities, to acquaint themselves with the broadcast ski reports and to accurately relay this information to visitors.

Downs man dies as home burns

A Ruidoso Downs man died Wednesday night in a fire of unknown origin that destroyed his mobile home.

Ruidoso Downs firemen answered the call about 8:30 with one unit of the Ruidoso FD on standby at the scene.

The death of the 46-year-old man was attributed to asphyxiation by the Deputy Medical Investigator for Lincoln County, Lt. Jerry Foster of Ruidoso PD. The victim's name is being withheld, pending notification of next of kin.

Yule issue Dec. 24

The annual Christmas edition of The Ruidoso News will be published Tuesday, Dec. 24.

The deadline for all news items, notices and advertising for this issue will be 5 p.m., Friday, Dec. 20.

As usual this edition will contain the Letters to Santa Claus from the young pupils and the holiday greetings from the business and professional houses.

RD Council asks food stamp officials to move from hall

The board of trustees of the village of Ruidoso Downs voted Monday evening to send a letter to food stamp officials informing them that, due to lack of space and confusion on stamp days, the village hall would no longer be available to them for the program. The village has done extensive remodeling of the village hall and remaining space is needed for village business.

In answer to a request from the Village of Ruidoso to cooperate in the funding of an animal control officer for the two villages, the council tabled the matter until further information could be obtained. The request had called for Ruidoso Downs to pay the officer's salary for two days per week while Ruidoso would pick up the tab for the remaining five days. Ruidoso would also furnish the vehicle used in the program.

The council voted to sponsor a Christmas Decoration Party for village employees and council members for Friday, December 13, from 5 to 7 p.m. The village will furnish a tree and employees will furnish chip and dips and bring decorations for the village hall.

An inventory of village property and equipment was approved by the board and will be checked by the auditor.

Mayor J. J. DiPaolo reported on the village request for funds to be used for a police secretary and noted that officials in Roswell had given their tentative approval, if funds are found available.

The council heard a report on progress of the sewer project and held a brief discussion of work on the water project.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held at the Village Hall on Monday, December 23, 7 p.m. Meetings are open to the public.

GAME MEETING

It has been announced that a no-host luncheon will be held on Monday, at 12 noon at the Whispering Pine Restaurant for State Game Commissioner Huston McKenzie. McKenzie will discuss hunting problems at the meeting.

All sportsmen are invited to attend.

Lighting contest offers six prizes

This year's Christmas lighting contest, sponsored by the Ruidoso Evening Lions and Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce, is offering three cash prizes to winners in residential competition and also to commercial winners.

The prizes and the sponsors are:

COMMERCIAL—
$35, Brunell's.
$25, Chamber of Commerce.
$15, Win, Place and Show.
RESIDENTIAL—
$35, Evening Lions.
$25, Chaves Co. Savings and Loan.
$15, Mescalero Social Services.

Entrants are requested to complete and mail the entry blank in The Ruidoso News to the C-C office by Dec. 16, or entries may be made in person at the C-C.

Entries, Chamber manager Richard Cothrun said Wednesday, "are coming in well in both categories and we're encouraging anyone who is going to decorate their homes or businesses this Christmas to become a contestant."

Residential entrants are being requested to provide specific directions to their homes, to aid the judges in locating them quickly. If necessary, a hand drawn map should be included with the entry blank. In all cases it is desirable that as many landmarks as possible be included and descriptions should include the color of the home and anything on the premises that will aid identification.

Boundaries in this year's contest have been established as within 15 miles of Ruidoso and including Mescalero.

Judging, with the names of the judges to be announced after the contest, will be during the evenings of Dec. 21, 22 and 23.

A secondary purpose in this year's expanded Christmas lighting contest, Evening Lions co-chairmen Marchand McDougal and Til Watts note, is to encourage residents to tour the area with their children. "The Evening Lions feel," they said, "that viewing these displays just before Christmas will impress young minds with the importance of observing Christmas in traditional style; and besides, it's a real pleasure to view those displays that some of our residents spend so many hours perfecting."

There are, the sponsors stress, no limitations on the display theme, just so the spirit of Christmas is represented.

Ruidoso Garden Club enjoys Christmas Customs of Southwest

The Ruidoso Garden Club had the Christmas merienda at the Woman's Club building December 10 because the snow made it too difficult for the members to get to the Neuhaus home, where it had been planned.

The theme, "Cultural Heritage" was carried out in a program on Christmas customs of the southwest. The members enjoyed a luncheon of Mexican food, including tamales, empenadas, etc. Some of the members wore costumes.

Installation of officers followed the program.

Members contributed canned goods for a family for Christmas, as well as a donation for Fort Stanton.

Hostesses were Mrs. Hal Yoder, Mrs. A. J. Hart, Mrs. Ada McClendon and Mrs. C. E. Neuhaus.

Beta Sigma Phi plans party for Boys' Camp

Gamma Rho and Xi Psi Chapters of Beta Sigma Phi are planning their annual Christmas party for the young boys at Camp Sierra Blanca, Ft. Stanton.

Presently the Camp has twenty boys ranging in age from 14 through 17. Most of them have no families and will have no Christmas without the help of the sorority and friends.

Many people in the community know and understand the various problems these boys face; and Gamma Rho and Xi Psi Chapters appeal to them, and to everyone, to help make this year's party the big success it has been in the past.

Checks can be mailed to: Gamma Rho & Psi Xi Chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, Box 522, Ruidoso Downs, New Mexico 88346. Judy Beavers is Chairman of the Christmas Party Committee, with Terese Burke and Shirlene Roberts.

Xi Alpha Rho November meetings

On November 25, Xi Alpha Rho Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met in the home of Ann Scribner on the High Mesa Ranch. Handcrafted Christmas decorations made by sorority members were displayed. The decorations included tree ornaments, Christmas stockings, wreaths, table cloths, tree skirts and center pieces, all with a very professional look. Three out-of-town guests were present. Unusual and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Ann Scribner, during a most enjoyable social hour.

Sorority members met in the home of Bobby Everett Nov. 11. The program was given by Leona Mae Phillips on "Ways and Means" of saving on food costs. Secret Pal gifts were revealed and delightful refreshments were served.

The group has purchased a Micro Machine for a teaching aid in the Ruidoso Schools.

Ladies "rescued" for Weight Watchers meet

Officer Jerry Russell heads the list of "fine fellows" in the books of the Weight Watchers, after delivering two ladies from San Patricio to the meeting when their car was stranded on the icy streets of Ruidoso last Monday night. He waited while they "weighed in", then delivered them back to their car.

In spite of the hazardous driving conditions, ladies came from Mescalero, San Patricio, Capitan, Alto, Ruidoso Downs and Ruidoso. Due to the weather, only a short meeting was held, with eleven members present. Helen Craig attended a Weight Watchers work shop in Albuquerque last week.

Christmas menus and recipes are available now for all members as well as the December Weight Watchers magazine.

What kind of madness is this?

President Ford imposes a quota on the amount of beef and pork which can be shipped from Canada to the United States because Canada set quotas, last August, on the amount of beef and cattle which can be shipped from the United States to Canada! Why couldn't we both just keep our own meat and be friends?

The auto manufacturers, with the help of unions constantly demanding more money for less work, finally got the price of cars so high a new car isn't worth it to a lot of Americans. So because sales are down — Ford Motor Company raised the price another $75 to make up for their decrease in profits. They don't think it is the high price that is keeping people from buying — "it's the uncertain economy"! Then they announce they are lowering the price of their economy car by $45 — by putting on cheaper tires and leaving off some extras—which is cheapening their product — not lowering the price.

Columnist Russell Baker, a staff member of the "New York Times" says "American 'don't-know-how' seems to be prevailing in business today." He asks what has happened to the businessman with imagination; and comments that in most of their disasters, "We see executives meet trouble by plodding head-down along the predetermined courses that carried them into trouble in the first place." Seems as though our whole country is inclined to do that.

Mr. Baker suggests that the price of food will inevitably continue to rise because, since Japan and western Europe are surpassing us in the production of cars, airplanes and technological products, we will need to find something else to sell to the rest of the world in order to have the money to buy the things we need — like oil, tin, bauxite and chromium; and food seems to be the only thing we have more of than anyone else and that the rest of the world wants.

If we need money to buy the things we need from other countries — why do we keep giving it away to countries who are constantly kicking us in the teeth and gouging us every way they can? If we would cut off aid to these countries who demonstrate contempt for us, maybe we would regain some respect.

In our attempts to put a ceiling on an arms race with Russia, why don't we try to reach an agreement not to supply arms to anyone else?

Why do we continue to stay in, and support, the United Nations — when they not only vote against us on everything important — they give an ovation to a vicious murderer of innocent people like Arafat — sanctioning terrorism.

If the steelworkers succeed in setting a precedent for employees to sue their employers for all sorts of back pay and benefits, who is going to dare hire anyone in the not too distant future? We had better quit making villians out of employers — or quit complaining about unemployment.

What kind of madness is this?

Following a Monday night discussion meeting for which fifteen local business and professional women were present, formal organization for a Ruidoso Chapter to be affiliated with the National State Federations of Business and Professional Women will be organized, with the next meeting to be held at the Navajo Lodge. A group of Roswell women from their club will be on hand to act as a sponsoring group for Ruidoso.

Although the burning of Nell Parks' home cabin in upper Ruidoso early Tuesday morning was a catastrophe there is a possibility that things could have gotten completely out of hand and the fire could have spread to the fairly thickly settled neighborhood of the upper canyon if it hadn't been for the five year old Cocker Spaniel belonging to Miss Frances Douglas.

The Douglas home is about two blocks and across the main road from the Parks cabin. At about 3:45 a.m. the spaniel jumped up and roused Miss Douglas; looking out the window she saw the flames leaping toward the tall pines as the Parks cabin burned.

Mrs. Parks lost all household goods, clothing, everything she and her son Dave had with the exception of a few things they had moved to Casa Loma Courts where they are spending the winter.

Gambles Store, formerly Bonnell's Hardware & Building Supplies, is undergoing remodeling for enlarging to almost double its floor space for the retail department. Merchandise of all kinds is being added to the store, Ralph Petty, one of the partners in the concern, reported. The addition, with Wesley Russell in charge of construction, will measure 40 x 42 feet in size and is to be located in the rear of the present retail section. Attic space above the enclosed new retail area will be used for storage.

The Ruidoso Lions Club in its regular supper meeting Tuesday night at Carrizo Lodge voted to go ahead and fix up the former Catholic Church building it bought and have it ready for the club's use and also for other organizations that might want to use it.

Ruidoso Board of Trustees expressed themselves in favor of and agreed to back a project for flouridation of Ruidoso's water. The board also voted to ask for bids on a new fire truck for the Ruidoso Volunteer Fire Department and moved to ask for installation of five additional street lights in the vicinity of the high school. The board also voted to donate $100.00 to the Ruidoso Public Library from the recreation fund.

In a special meeting of the board held Nov. 23 the village entered into a contract with an aerial phtographing concern to make aerial pictures for a map of the area.

Let the door be opened

"Ask and it will be given you; seek and you will find; knock and it will be opened to you."

Matthew 7:7-8

You can stand in front of a closed door for a very long time — and if you won't knock or even turn the knob — you may never see what's on the other side. Even if someone should open it for you, you would have to look to see what is there.

You have to seek to find. If you will enter that certain door, you'll find out why Christianity has survived these centuries in spite of all the wiles of the devil. You'll find out why some of the world's most brilliant and productive people have been believers in Christ.

In his BE MY GUEST, Conrad Hilton, attributes much of his success to the fact that when he had a serious problem, he took "it to the Lord in prayer" — literally — not just by song on Sunday. If only we could do that as a country — instead of denying our living God in the name of "Separation of church and state" — which is not what our country's founders had in mind.

Knock, seek, ask — and you will be surprised at the rewards.

—E. J.

Clifton Elected

As part of the general business at the New Mexico Activities Association annual meeting, held in Albuquerque in October, elections for Regional Vice Presidents were held. Think About It!

"Except ye be converted, and become as little children . . ." Matt. 18:3.

A wise old cowboy once told me, "A man spends all his life gettin' grown, then when he does he has to die." I believe this is true. It's the high ambition of a child to get older, to grow a little taller, to get grown and do all those things he or she has dreamed of for so long.

But I believe there are certain areas of our character where we need to remain childlike. We need to remain as little children in many ways — for as a child we never grow so tall that we can look DOWN on anyone, and as a child we are never so taken up in admiration with ourselves that we fail to look up to others.

Let us see the world and those in it through the eyes of a little child. If we can face each new day as a little child — life will be a little brighter, burdens will be a little lighter and the tears we shed will soon be dried up with today's happiness. A little child accepts, today, the provisions made by the father and looks eagerly for tomorrow's promises.

Have you become a CHILD OF GOD, and is your heart set on the promises that, ". . . Eye hath not seen . . ."? "Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of Heaven."

Building Trades cabin completed

Mr. Carter's Building Trades Class has completed their cabin, built entirely by members of the class. It has 2 bedrooms, 1 bath, kitchen, and a large living area, and was wired by Mr. Sanchez's house wiring class.

The designer of the cabin is Mr. Rem Alley, School Architect, from Roswell. He designed the new library, administrative offices, the shop building, and Sierra Blanca Condominiums.

The class now builds one cabin per semester and this building will be auctioned off Dec. 17 at the school board meeting.

The members of the class are: Wayne Perry, Trankie Montoya, Gene Garms, Billy McClellan, Bobby Whitten, Bill Clair, Royce Wilson, James Hibbits, Charles Scott, Bruce Young, Allen Temple, Roy Silva, Joe Medina, Jose Sanchez, Mikey Hall, and there are also two members from the Hondo School, Eddie Chavez and Richard Herrera.

School Scoop

The Christmas season has changed the atmosphere around RHS already. Doors, bulletin boards and windows are decorated with reindeer, Santa Claus and other symbols of Christmas.

Several enterprising classes have decorated trees to add a little spirit for the coming holiday.

Many groups are busy doing their share to make this holiday a big success. Mr. Carter's 8th grade construction class is making an outdoor scene, the Learning center group cut Christmas trees for both buildings. Mrs. Travis' art classes are making stained glass windows to add a little color to the library.

The freshman roundballers lost their second game Friday, to Tularaosa. The freshman players just couldn't get it together as they lost, 63-31. High point man for the freshmen was Mark Williams, with 14 points.

The PSAT test results, which RHS Juniors took earlier this year, have been returned. James Sanchez, counselor, has been discussing the results with the students that took the test.

The Office Education Association has changed its meeting time from Thursday, Dec. 12 at 7:30 p.m. to 3:40 that afternoon. The meeting will be held in Room 8 of the Junior High building.

Ruidoso girls' basketball team took their fourth win of the season over Hondo, 61-45, Dec. 3 at Hondo.

Diane Padilla was high point scorer with 17 points with Tricia Tully following close behind with 16 points.

Student Council met last Wednesday during noon to discuss decorating a Christmas tree for the library. The tree was decorated during noon on Wednesday by student council members.

Other business discussed was the new constitution for the student body. The constitution has been completed and will be voted on later on during the school year. Janice Wood will report at the next Student Council meeting, concerning the school sign for RHS.

The RHS Student Council is planning to become more actively involved with the needs and ideas of the student body. Students who have ideas should contact their Student Council representative with their idea. The representative cannot voice the needs of his class or organization unless he or she is kept informed.

Information given to these Representatives will be presented to the Student Council at the regularly scheduled meetings. The Student Council is set up by the students and for the students and should be used in the same manner. If you as a student think something should be said or done in our school, remember that it all begins with you.

RHS girls bring home 3rd place

RHS girls' basketball team captured 3rd place in the Hagerman Invitational Tournament held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week.

The girls defeated the Hagerman Junior High Thursday night which gave them the opportunity to play Artesia.

Artesia defeated the RHS girls Friday night, putting them in the finals against Hagerman.

Ruidoso then played Floyd and captured the 3rd place title. Artesia finished first and Hagerman second.

RHS wrestlers defeat NMSVH

The RHS wrestling team defeated the NMSVH wrestling team, 48-18 in Alamogordo last Wednesday.

Coach Phil Yost says he is real happy with his team but says he doesn't think they are quite ready and probably won't really be in good condition until January.

The team wrestled seven out of the 12 matches with Ruidoso forfeiting one match and NMSVH forfeiting four.

The way a wrestler scores a team point is if a wrestler wins by a pin they get 6 points. A forfeit gets 6 team points, win by 10 points or more gets 4 team points, decision on points gets 3 team points, draw gets 2 team points.

Scores in matches according to weight classes:

98 lbs. — Jack Russell won by pin (3:10).

105 lb. — Forfeit to NMSVH.

112 lbs. — Joe Yates won by forfeit.

119 lbs. — Mike Henson lost by pin.

126 lbs. — Jim Bennett won by decision (8-0).

132 lbs. — Mark Strassburg won by decision (7-0).

138 lbs. — Sterling Rehmert lost by pin.

145 lbs. — Clay Warren won by pin (1:22*).

155 lbs. — Rick Pickett won by pin (:50*).

167 lbs. — Dale Moore won by forfeit.

185 lbs. — Charles Duncar won by forfeit.

UNM — Danny Francis, won by forfeit.

* Time it took to pin opponent.

Students register for mini-courses

Students at Ruidoso High School registered for Mini-Courses recently. Registration was held in the R. H. S. Cafeteria.

Mini-courses will be held from December 17 to December 20 just before Christmas vacation. Faculty and students of R. H. S. feel that the opportunity for new and rewarding experiences makes this a worthwhile project although no credit is offered for the classes.

This program is possible because the school exceeds the state standards for classroom instruction time each year.

Registration is similar to that used at the beginning of school with students selecting their classes on a "first come, first served" basis, beginning with seniors.

Athletic Club

The regular meeting of the Capitan Athletic Club was held on Thursday evening, Dec. 5, in the School Cafeteria. The meeting was called to order by President Norman Renfro.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by secretary Reba Barber, then approved. Authorization for paying of outstanding bills was made. Treasurer is Joan Pumphrey.

A blazer and sur-coat were on hand for inspection by the members. Responses from several supply houses were read to the group. No decision was made at this time as other prices are still being sought by the Club.

Discussion then turned to the up and coming County Basketball Tournament. An order has been placed for items to be sold at this tournament. The order is expected any day. One hundred and fifty skimmer hats have been ordered. The colors will be red, white, blue and orange. There will be hats for each group of supporters for each county school.

One hundred stadium cushions have been ordered. Fifty will have a Tiger emblem on each. Fifty will be white, with no emblem for all the teams' fans.

Also, 250 souvenir buttons have been purchased. These will say "Lincoln County Tournament — 1975". It is hoped that every one will spread the word about this tournament and make it a success for Lincoln County.

A committee was appointed to set up the schedule for workers at the Athletic Club concession at the Tournament.

On Sunday, Dec. 15, a dinner in honor of the football team and girls' volleyball team will be held at the Richard Phillips home in Lincoln. All members of these teams and the cheerleaders are cordially invited to attend. Time for dinner is set at 2:00 p.m.

During the halftime of the boys' varsity basketball game on Saturday, Dec. 7, the drawing of the lucky ticket for the winner of the Tiger was made. The winning ticket was drawn from the box by one of the basketball referees. The winner of the large Tiger was Bert Minter. A total of $33.75 was made from the sale of the tickets. The Athletic Club would like to thank everyone who purchased any of the tickets. A special thanks, also to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson for donating the lovely Tiger to the club to give away.

The next regular meeting of the Athletic Club will be Thursday, Dec. 19, at 7:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria. If you haven't joined the Athletic Club, you may still do so. The club is functioning solely to boost high school athletics in Capitan High School. Do you care enough to help?

F. H. A.

On November 25, the Capitan F. H. A. President, Bernadette Gomez, called the meeting to order at 5:30 p.m.

The highlight of the evening was having a guest speaker, Mr. Cordova who is associated with the Ft. Stanton Training School for the retarded. Mr. Cordova spoke to the girls concerning what they might do to work with the retarded. Doing this work with the retarded is the Capitan F. H. A. Chapter project for the year 1974-75. On a later date the F. H. A. members will decide on the activities to carry out this project.

The deadline for F. H. A. pins was set for Dec. 20.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:45 p.m.

Gymnasium Dedication

Before a big, enhtusiastic crowd in the gymnasium in Capitan on Saturday night, a dedication ceremony was held. The gymnasium, constructed in 1972, was named the Lewis E. Cummins Gymnasium on March 14, 1974. The ceremony on Dec. 7, officially dedicated the naming of the gym.

In March, 1971, the Capitan School Board of Education received a letter from the Capitan City Council suggesting that consideration be given to naming the gym after Mr. Lewis E. Cummins. On March 14, 1974 in regular session, the Capitan Board of Education voted overwhelmingly to name the gym the Lewis E. Cummins Gymnasium.

Those present for the ceremony from the Capitan Board of Education were Pat Huey, president; Ralph Barber, vice president; Richard Phillips, secretary; Howard Abercrombie, member, and Hollis Cummins, member. Representing the City Council was Norman Renfro. This activity was a joint endeavor by the School Board and City Council.

Serving as Master of Ceremonies for the occasion was Richard Clifton, Superintendent of Schools. Clifton recited some of the background of Mr. Cummins:

Lewis Cummins was born in Kentucky in 1897. His family came to Roswell in 1907 and three weeks later settled on a homestead 2½ miles northwest of Capitan. Mr. Cummins attend- Capitan Schools. His high school education was interrupted by service in the Navy during World War I. But in 1921 he graduated from high school. The next year he married Bessie Sellers, who still resides in Capitan.

Mr. Cummins began teaching school then, although it wasn't until 1943 that he obtained his degree from New Mexico Highlands, by going to school during the summer.

His first teaching assignment was on the mesa west of Capitan; then in the Tucson Mountains for one year. The next 33 years he taught in Capitan Schools.

He devoted 35 years teaching, plus the remaining years after his retirement, to the interest and welfare of the children in Capitan Schools. While one could speak at length of his good deeds, maybe it could be summarized by saying that the students in Capitan were his life.

Lewis and Bessie Cummins have three children—one daughter, Mrs. Jerry McClung, who resides in California; Hollis Cummins, who resides in Capitan, and Ted Cummins who lives in California, also. All three graduated from Capitan High.

A framed resolution was presented to Mrs. Bessie Cummins and Hollis Cummins. The resolution was passed by the Board of Education naming the gym the Lewis E. Cummins Gymnasium. The resolution states, also, that a bronze plaque be placed on the front of the building reflecting the name of the gym. This has already been done.

A response was given by Hollis Cummins, who mentioned several incidents concerning Lewis Cummins' love of sports and sportsmanship.

After the ceremony, the action of a basketball game soon began — just as Lewis Cummins would have probably wanted it. One of the participants in the game for Capitan is a grandson of Lewis Cummins.

Letter to Editor

Recently, we experienced difficulty obtaining water pressure at our home. We called the village, and water department employees were at our house in less than thirty minutes (a minor miracle considering most of our friends can't find it). They could not locate the problem immediately and, therefore, returned later to check meters and pumps in the area.

The fact that it was cold and dark, with over a foot of snow on the ground, did not hamper their prompt and courteous service. Therefore, we would like to thank the employees of the Ruidoso Water Department.

Sincerely,
Cheryl & Bob Palko

Capitan News

All-State

The 1974 Class A All-State Football Team, according to the Associated Press, was announced last week. Capitan placed one on the Second Team Offense — Mike Renfro. Mike was the leading rusher on the Capitan team as well as the leading scorer on the team. He rushed for a total of 1066 yards in nine games for an average of 118.4 yards per game. He scored 72 points on twelve touchdowns. Mike is a three-year letterman on offense and defense but as a senior has finished his football career for Capitan High School. Mike fiinshed that career in fine style. Congratulations, Mike.

Tigerette Basketball

The Capitan Tigerette Varsity and Junior Varsity teams had two games during the past week. On Tuesday, Dec. 3, both teams traveled to Cloudcroft.

The JV team started the action off for the week. The starting five: Lisa Lamb, Donna Cooper, Megan LaMay, Julia Coleman and Mary Gutierrez found the going rough as they could only garner 2 points in the first half. The second half was somewhat better as Capitan added 13 points. However, it wasn't enough as Cloudcroft scored a total of 32 points to a total of 15 for Capitan.

Scoring for Capitan was Lamb with 2 points, Cooper had 10, LaMay had 2, and Debbie Dalton made 1 for the 15 points. From the free throw line Capitan was 1 out of 13 while Cloudcroft was 7 for 36. Capitan committed 24 personal fouls and Cloudcroft, 20.

The varsity didn't fare any better as they came out on the short end of a 58-39 score. The officials were really calling it close as a total of 63 personal fouls were called — 32 against Capitan and 31 against Cloudcroft. Capitan cashed in on 9 of 32 attempts at the free throw line while Cloudcroft was doing 11 for 36. Not very good for either side. Capitan had four players to foul out.

Leading the offensive way for Capitan was Alice Fillingim with 5 field goals, and 5 for 5 free throws for a total of 15 points. Others scoring were Becky Renfro, 11 points; Rhonda Barber, 5 points; Goose Jenkins, 3 points; Debbie Burkett and Susie Abercrombie, 2 each, and Trina Zamora, 1 point.

Scoring by quarters:

Capitan	8	9	14	18	—39
Cloudcroft	15	14	16	11	—58

On Saturday, Dec. 7, the girls from Cloudcroft paid a return visit to Capitan with the same end results: Cloudcroft won two games.

Preliminary action got underway at 5:00 p.m., with the Junior Varsity game. The two teams opened the game by trading baskets for a 2-2 tie. Then Cloudcroft controlled the rest of the first quarter and jumped into a 13-6 lead. Second quarter action saw the Tigerettes battle back to score 6 points and trail by only one at halftime, 13-12.

Third quarter saw the trend continue as the end of the quarter saw Capitan leading for the first time, 16-15. However, the bottom fell out in the fourth quarter as Cloudcroft outscored Capitan 12-0 in the final quarter. Final score was 16-27 with the Cloudcroft JV pulling it out.

Scoring the 16 points were Julia Coleman with 10 points and Donna Cooper with 6. All points came on field goals as the team was 0 for 5 from the free throw line.

Varsity action was fast and furious. Cloudcroft appeared to have more offensive power and Capitan had more mistakes as Cloudcroft rolled to an easy 62-44 win.

Cloudcroft led by eight at the end of the first quarter. The lead had increased to 15 at the end of the half and they coasted in the second half.

The Tigerettes were bothered all over the court by Cloudcroft and made innumerable turnovers.

Three regulars fouled out in the third quarter for Capitan. In the game, Capitan was called for 25 personal fouls. Scoring the 44 points for the Tigerettes was Alice Fillingim with 14 points on 5 field goals and 4 free throws, Bernie Gomez had 6 points on 3 field goals, Rhonda Barber had 8 points on 3 field goals and 2 free throws, Becky Renfro scored 4 points on field goals; Debbie Burkett had 4 points on 1 field goal and 2 free throws, Goose Jenkins scored on 2 free throws, and Susie Abercrombie, Trina Zamora and Donna Cooper each scored a field goal. Totals were 17 field goals and 10 free throws. Cloudcroft had 26 field goals and also 10 free throws.

Scoring by quarters:

Capitan	10	12	6	16	—44
Cloudcroft	18	19	16	6	—62

Tiger Basketball

The 1974-75 season got off to a good start for the Capitan Tigers. Capitan won their first two games in the friendly confines of the Lewis E. Cummins Gymnasium.

The season opener on Friday night was against the Alamogordo Sophomore team. Final score was Capitan 48, Alamogordo 34.

Starting quintet for Capitan was Henry "Ace" Griego and Mike Renfro, seniors; Kenny Cummins, Kirk Phillips and Wayne Ware, juniors.

Opening tip-off went to Alamo who quickly went out in front 2-0. But scoring see-sawed back and forth during the first quarter. A lot of shooting was done but not a whole lot of scoring. First quarter ended at 9-9.

Second quarter scoring was good for Capitan as they popped in 16 big ones. Capitan jumped out in front in the second quarter on baskets by Ace Griego and Cummins. Then Alamo came back to tie at 13. Capitan led again at 17-15. The Tigers went up by 4 on a basket by K. Phillips. Then Capitan and Alamo traded 2 free throws each and the score was 21-17. K. Philips scored again and it was 23-17. It appeared that Alamo would score again to cut that six point lead as an Alamo Tiger was driving in for a lay-up. However, Ricky Phillips made a beautiful block of the lay-up.

Then with 9 seconds left in the half, Capitan got a defensive rebound. K. Phillips got the ball out to near mid-court, passed the ball to R. Phillips near the Tiger free throw line. As the buzzer sounded the shot was in the air. The ball popped the net and Capitan enjoyed a 25-17 half-time lead.

Third quarter began and both teams had trouble getting back in the scoring column. Finally Cummins hit a jumper from the free throw area and Capitan had a ten point lead, 27-17. Then Alamo scored 6 straight points and the score was 27-23. Ware had a chance for two from the free throw stripe but missed both. However, a lane violation against Alamo on the second shot gave Ware renewed life and this time he made it. The score was 28-23, Alamo scored to cut the lead to 3, at 28-25. The Tigers from Alamo then had several opportunities to cut the lead some more, but couldn't score. Then Ace Griego put one in for Capitan, giving the Capitan Tigers a 30-25 lead going into the fourth quarter.

The teams traded baskets twice and at 5:15 left in the game the 5 point lead was still there, at 34-29. Capitan then went 6 up on a free throw by K. Phillips. Thirty seconds later he was back at the free throw line and it was 37-29. Two more free throws by Ware made it 39-29 and the Tigers were on their way to an opening game win. Final score was 48-34.

Scoring for Capitan was K. Phillips with 14, Ware with 11, Ace Griego, 8, Renfro, 7, Cummins, 6, and R. Phillips, 2. Capitan made 18 field goals and 12 of 17 free throws for the 48 points. The team committed 14 personal fouls.

Scoring by quarters:

Capitan	9	16	5	18	—48
Alamo	9	8	8	9	—34

It was a real cliff hanger on Saturday when the Tigers from Capitan tangled with the Bears from Cloudcroft. The Tigers brought the ball down the court to their offensive zone with 1:29 left in the game. The score was tied at this point, 48-48. The Tigers kept control of the ball for 1:24 until Kirk Philips was fouled in the act of shooting. The shot was a jumper from near the free throw line. The ball banged the backboard then fell through the net. The referee set the clock with 5 seconds left in the game. Phillips was at the free throw line, and Capitan leading 50-48. The free throw was missed. Cloudcroft got the rebound and called time with 3 seconds left. However, a shot at the buzzer did not fall in and Capitan had their second win of the season.

AND NOW A WORD FROM OUR CREATOR:

Love Your Neighbor

To the voters of New Mexico's Second Congressional District—

I want to express my personal gratitude to the people of this district for your continued support in the campaign we have just completed.

The election results have now been certified . . . but the problems remain.

I pledge my continued best efforts in Congress on behalf of our district and our country. But, more importantly, I would like to hear from you. I would like to have your ideas for solving our nation's problems and how you think I can best represent you and the people of New Mexico in the U. S. Congress.

Together we can get the job done!

"Chato" McKnight

Thomas Judson McKnight has two marks in his life of being widely beloved. The old saying is that if they give you a nickname they like you. Mr. McKnight has two: one in English and one in Spanish.

He was widely known as "Judd". And both Anglo and Spanish knew him by his Spanish nick-name "Chato". (Pug Nose.) For some reason that goes back into their traditions, the people of Spanish ancestory have a warm spot in their heart for a person with a turned-up or "pug nose". On top of this the Spanish-speaking people have loved "Chato" just for himself, as we all do.

It is a great compliment to be well liked by the Spanish people. They know good folks when they see them.

In his looks "Chato" has always reminded me of the great Winston Churchill. And he has the same quality of the immortal leader of the British people of always giving you a great lift in your spirits every time you see him.

I always looked forward to seeing Chato at the services of the Church of the Holy Mount in Ruidoso. For he was a true inspiration and living fountain of joy to us all.

So now, our dear friend, the good shepherd of his sheep has been lovingly gathered to the Heavenly fold by the Great Shepherd, Our Lord and Saviour.

A Few Words On Cold Weather
By Jack Frost

Dear Friends of Lincoln County:

The creatures of the wild are prepared by Mother Nature for the cold weather of winter.

But you and I must get ready for the winter ourselves, in a number of ways: stacking firewood around the door; getting out the "long handles"; dusting off the sweaters, overcoats, mittens — and checking your car.

We are a little bit like a car in a way. Just as winter shows up the plugs, points and so on of a car — the cold weather in much the same way puts the test to our circulation system, lungs, and other organs.

So, in a way, the cold weather is a blessing in disguise, giving us pointers on where we need to bolster up our health.

If anybody is used to the cold weather, it should be yours truly: I have been with it so long that I have got to where I like it. But the main reason that I do is that I try to keep in the best possible physical shape.

This is the greatest protection we have against the cold.

My part in the show, down through the years, has been to give the advance notice, the warning, of approaching winter.

That white covering all over the world in the early mornings which bears my name — this is the tip-off for the coming of Winter. The Snow King is a very un-predictabe fellow. You are liable to wake up some morning after one of these warm days and see the children making snow men and playing snow balls.

So get some firewood ready, and the warm clothing ready at hand. And begin getting into the best possible physical condition.

One thing to remember about your area and the whole Southwest is this:

The warm days make you feel the cold when the sun goes down. I always feel it first in my feet. So a good thing is to carry an extra pair of dry socks — and some insoles in the main part of the winter — and put these on just before the sun goes down. (That is if you are out away from the house.)

Another hint, just because it is cold does not mean that you do not need to drink water. Water and fruit juices are great in winter.

The old folks used to say that you should eat things that are not much affected by the winter: garlic, onions, cabbage, lemons, oranges. Yet after all, the main rule is just good nourishing food. Also keep in a happy forward looking frame of mind.

If any of you have any tips on surviving through the winter, send them to the Ridge Runner, at Glencoe, and he can forward them on to me. I should have this cold weather business "all knowed up" as the Ridge Runner's brother, Lynn, says. But when a man thinks he can not learn any more, then he is really slipping.

So long for now, and keep smiling,

Yours for a pleasant winter,
Jack W. Frost

The Snow Birds' Friend — The Chipmunk

On the old wooden feeding table, the chipmunks were always up there feeding right with the snow birds.

Lately I put up a swanky-looking table with metal legs. The chipmunk cannot climb these table legs the way he could the old wooden ones.

So there he was this morning down on the ground. But the snow birds, ever so often would kick him some chuck down off their table.

I am going to have to make the chipmunk a little ladder, because his feelings are hurt because he can not eat breakfast on top of the table with his snow bird friends.

December, The Month of Christian Blessings

Out of November, the month in which we ourselves learn to be thankful, we now come into December, the month in which we do things which make others thankful. Begin now to spread the Christmas Joy.

Gophers are being noticed in increasing numbers in many areas of Lincoln County. There are several ways to control them. One way is to put a hose in the car exhaust pipe, find the gopher hole, put the other end of the hose in the gopher hole. Pack some dirt around the hose to keep the fumes in the hole and let the motor idle for about five minutes.

For information on trapping get the pamphlet from the County Agent's Office.

Good-tasting, economical apples come in so many varieties — over the years, more than 7,000 have been named and more than a hundred are grown commercially in the U. S. today — that you're not likely to taste them all. But you can get to know the difference between the eating varieties — Jonathans and Red or Golden Delicious — and cooking varieties — Greenings and Rome Beauty. Some, like Winesaps and McIntoshes, star in both roles.

Inside The Capital

By FRED BUCKLES

SANTA FE — Rep. Richard Carbajal, D-Belen, says the legislature should fund state government adequately and then cut taxes wherever possible.

A House leader, Carbajal supports an increase in the low income tax credit. He favors removal of the state gross receipts tax from food over exemption of prescription drugs and medical bills. He says more general income tax relief "is probably the most equitable."

Carbajal will sponsor bills tightening savings and loan associations and small loan companies regulation for the Banking Dept. He is chairman of the University Study Committee. The USC may ask the legislature to reapportion membership on the Board of Educational Finance. The governor appoints 11 members from judicial districts now.

The USC will push for continuation of an energy research fund financed with $2 million by the legislature early this year.

Rep. John Hays Jr., D-Clovis, cited $8 million in Curry County capital expenditures that could be funded from the big state surplus: Raising Ute Dam gates, $6.5 million; a new building for High Plains Vocational-Technical School, Clovis; more money to finish Bruce King State Office building, now 70 per cent complete; a new port of entry building near Texico on US-60-84-70 and another district judge in District 9 (Curry-Roosevelt).

A bill will be introduced to appoint next year three district judges now set for election in 1976. The added judges will be in Judicial Districts 9, 6 (Hidalgo-Luna-Grant) and 12 (Lincoln-Otero).

Rep. Hays said the present Texico port of entry "is a death trap." He said traffic accidents incidence is high at the port.

Senate Republcian Leader John Conway, Lincoln-Otero, favors a bill making all district attorneys fulltime prosecutors. Only part of DAs are fulltime now. Conway is on the Judicial Council which endorsed the change.

Conway favors some form of merit selection of judges to replace the present partisan election method. A lawyer, Conway said: "The main thing is that qualified people are appointed to the job regardless of political affiliation."

Conway wants assignment to the Senate Education Committee. "There's going to be more money spent on education next year," he says.

Rep. Colin McMillan, R-De-Baca-Chaves, would establish a permanent pool at Sumner Lake by appropriating money to buy water rights from individual owners in the Pecos Valley.

Rep. McMillan says: "In drought times the U. S. Corps of Engineers is draining the lake down to the point where fish are dying. They have a right to do this.

"But when the lake is drained heavy sediments damage fields in the Fort Sumner area." McMillan says the state should protect its investment in the state park in the Sumner Lake area.

Rep. Hoyt Pattison, R-Lea-Curry-Roosevelt, received a request for a special license plate for auxiliary police. Pattison, new GOP House leader, says Clovis has an effective auxiliary police unit.

Pattison was also asked for action to connect the State Game and Fish Dept. radio system to the state radio network. He says game wardens sometimes can contact State Police or sheriff's offices only via Santa Fe radio.

Cost of Republican governor candidate Joe Skeen's campaign was $334,269, reports filed here showed. The Lincoln County rancher's campaign receipts totaled $336,221 so no deficit occurred.

Lt. Gov. Robert Mondragon, Nambe Democrat, reported $143,771 in expenses but part of the total is in repayable loans. The reported Mondragon campaign deficit was $24,874 in the race for the U. S. House in District 1. Mondragon was defeated by U. S. Rep. Manuel Lujan Jr.

U. S. Rep. Harold Runnels, D-Lovington, reported $40,091 in expenditures. Runnels defeated Portales Republican Don Trubey who reported $17,272 in expenses. Democratic Gov.-elect Jerry Apodaca had reported $254,641 expenditures in the general election campaign earlier.

Capitol railbirds say Sen. C. B. Trujillo, Taos, will win the Senate majority leader's race against Albuquerquean Bob McBride.

They argue conservative, experienced senators will side with Trujillo in the Senate Democratic caucus. They hold Young Turks are outnumbered now. McBride is generally liberal. Trujillo is moderate-conservative on many issues.

Gov.-elect Apodaca is regarded by some observers as close to Sen. McBride. But Apodaca says he is keeping hands off the majority leader scrap. He could endanger his legislative program if he takes part.

Gov. King appointed Sen. Tibo Chavez, D-Belen, to the State Museum board of regents. Chavez, Senate majority leader, did not seek another Senate term this year. He was second in the Democratic governor primary to Apodaca.

Andy Nunez named demo specialist for NMSU ag service

Andrew (Andy) Nunez, Las Cruces, has been employed as an on-farm demonstration specialist for the Agriculture Services Department of New Mexico State University. Dr. Philip J. Leyendecker, dean and director of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, announced the appointment.

Nunez leaves the position as project coordinator for International Programs at NMSU to accept his new post. Nunez will work with farmers and ranchers in New Mexico in establishing "on-farm" demonstration plots for crop variety, fertilizer rate, planting date and brush-control tests. Test plot results form the basis for recommendations by Extension agents and others to farmers and ranchers.

Nunez holds both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree from NMSU. He is a graduate of the Hondo Union High School at Hondo, and has served in the U. S. Marines.

In addition to his previous employment with NMSU, Nunez has served as a social worker for the State Department of Public Welfare, as a county executive director for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, and as an assistant county manager. MRS. B—

By CECELIA BARRON

About the time I had my article ready with suggestions of feeding the starving countries with the calves they are killing, or just have a 'give away day' someone else had the same idea. Which goes to show: great minds run in the same channel.

Maybe, even their next door neighbor who does not raise cattle would like to have a calf. They could very well feed it on grass or the grain that is left by the machines. Even the cattle men are about to decide they can fatten their cows mostly on grass, as in the old days; and it seemed the beef was mighty good then. I remember years ago, some friends who had been to a cattle sale, came by to say 'hello'; and they had a calf tied down in tht trunk of their car. Some people in those days did not want to bother with the calves; therefore they were literally given away or sold for a dollar or two. I know they could be disposed of without killing them.

I am sure no one knows all the answers to the ills or troubles of our country and government; but there is one thing I am sure of: that there is an immense waste in our country. What we 'throw out' could clothe and feed entire countries who are starving. And since the U. S. has endeavored to feed the whole world, we should start saving what we waste to feed others; as we may surely get hungry ourselves.

We will do well to gather in the corners of our fields and do as Ruth did, 'And shewent, and came, and gleaned in the fields after the reapers'. Ruth 2:3.

Jesus even taught economy when he fed the five thousand people with five loaves of bread and two fishes. He said, 'Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost'. John 6:12. And they filled twelve baskets.

Then there is a verse: 'He that withholdeth corn, the people will curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it'. Prov. 11:26.

It seems now, that producing more food per acre is being stressed; but the agronomists say this depends on more fertilizer, which is very scarce. Now, if they could only find a way to use all of our waste to make fertilizer, it would be beneficial to the entire world.

Now, some have been taught to be thrifty and economical or 'clean out our plates' as the president says; but the vast majority are accustomed to discarding, burning or washing it down the garbage disposals, then buying more if we so desire, and not giving it a second thought.

One of the ways to teach a child to not waste his food is to always give him a small helping; then if he wants more he will ask for it. Mothers and those who wait on school children, should make it their business to observe and know fairly well, the amount of food each child will eat.

During the depression, many of us learned to put each child's portion of food on the plates and not in large bowls, family style; but not for the same reason as we would do it now. The purpose then: some might be inclined to take more than their share and some would not get any, as food was far more scarce than now.

Then there are ways we can save on fuel. There is nothing better than an English boiled dinner, cooked all together on the same burner. First boil three or four beef short ribs or pork if desired, until the bone slips out. (This is to make more space in the pot). Have carrots, potatoes or turnips, onions and celery cut up, ready to add. Lastly add slices of cabbage on top and let cook until tender. I like salt, pepper, a bay leaf, and pepper sauce. A chili pod may be sliced very thin and added if desired.

Also if you would boil enough meat with your dried beans and vegetables it would save cooking meat later.

As this is apple time, did you know they are delicious baked with sweet potatoes? While apples which have been cored, sweetened and with a small amount of water, are baking, parboil cut up sweet potatoes. When ready, place them around apples, sprinkle generously with sugar and cinnamon, dot with butter and bake until juicy and brown.

While these are baking you could bake a delicious pan of cornbread, bran muffins or Bishop's bread.

—MRS. B.

ARTHRITIS

Did you know that, sooner or later, your chances of being stricken with arthritis are 97 out of 100? These are the statistics that research has shown on people over sixty, and yet arthritis affects people in every age group, including babies.

Arthritis is the nation's most crippling disease and more than 50 million Americans, including some 100,000 New Mexicans, of all ages suffer from some form of it. This means that one out of every five families, and one of each 11 individuals, are affected by it.

Just what is arthritis? The word arthritis means inflammation of a joint. The symptoms of an inflammation are heat, swelling, redness, and pain. However, there are many forms of arthritis and not all involve inflammation. In fact, the term arthritis covers nearly 100 different conditions which cause aching and pain in joints and connective tissues throughout the body.

There are five very common types of arthritis. Rheumatoid arthritis is the most serious, most painful, and most crippling. It primarily attacks the joints, but it also can cause disease in the lungs, skin, blood vessels, spleen, heart, and even the eyes. This type affects women more than men, and it occurs in a form called juvenile arthritis in children.

Another common type of arthritis is osteoarthritis. This form is a general wear and tear disease of the joints which comes with getting older. It is usually mild although there can be considerable pain and gradual development of a disability.

Ankylosing spondylitis is a chronic inflammatory arthritis of the spine which affects ten times as many men as women, and usually develops in the teens or early twenties. Rheumatic fever can also cause a temporary arthritis in the joints which does not cripple. The fifth common type of arthritis is gout. This is an inherited disease which most often attacks small joints like the big toe. It can be very painful and is most common in men.

What are the symptoms of arthritis? Warning signs to watch for include:

—persistent pain and stiffness when you get up in the morning.

—pain or tenderness in one or more joints.

—swelling in one or more joints.

—recurrence of any of the above particularly involving more than one joint.

—noticeable pain and stiffness in the lower back, knees, and other joints.

—a tingling sensation in fingertips, hands, and feet.

—unexplained weight loss, fever, weakness, or tiredness.

If you have any of these symptoms, don't ignore or neglect them. With early diagnosis and modern medical treatment, crippling can be avoided and the aches and pains eased. Go to your clinic or family doctor for medical care.

Every year arthritis victims are cheated out of four hundred million dollars by phony rackets which promise sure cures for the disease. Beware of schemes that offer "home" remedies, treatments, and devices for arthritis relief. Don't take drugs for arthritis unless they are prescribed by your doctor. Don't believe in advertising which encourages self-diagnosis and treatment. This can be dangerous because arthritis can be quite serious if not correctly treated.

No two cases of arthritis are exactly the same; what's right for one patient may be wrong for another. If you think you have arthritis, see a qualified doctor. He can tell you what kind you have and what treatment is right for you. Although there is no magic cure for arthritis, the disease is never hopeless as long as it is properly controlled.

A good source for more information on the disease is the Arthritis Foundation. The Foundation is a voluntary health agency which offers a variety of services ranging from arthritis research to community services to patients and their families. The Albuquerque Chapter is at 114 Amherst, SE.

Most of us, at some point in our lives, will be stricken with some form of arthritis. But remember, through early diagnosis and correct treatment, the crippling side effects of the disease can be avoided.

JOHN SIGLER

John Sigler named CPS Ruidoso manager

John J. Sigler has been named manager of the Ruidoso district for Community Public Service Company, it has been announced by New Mexico Division Manager Ray Dean. Sigler replaces Gerald Wood who has been transferred to management of the power company's Glen Rose district in Texas.

Sigler, a native of Farwell, Texas, was educated in the public schools of Roswell, and served a seven-year hitch in the U. S. Navy before joining Community as a Ruidoso serviceman in 1948. Except for a few months in 1959 when he worked with the Ruidoso line crew, Sigler continued to fulfill the duties of serviceman until his recent promotion.

He is married to the former Dixie Mullins, and they have two daughters.

In Passing . .

BY AL LANE

The Ruidoso Hospital Pink Ladies are one of the top organizations in the village, as can be plainly seen from a visit to the Pink Shop. Over the years they have donated a tremendous amount of both money and equipment to the hospital and they help to brighten the day for those who have friends or relatives there. How they get their members to show up for work in the shop is a secret that many clubs and civic groups would like to know — but the shop is always manned. Our best to you ladies. . . .

There appears to be a great deal of interest in the up-coming school board election. Have already heard of eight or nine names mentioned for the positions and the election is well over one month away. Nice to know that our citizens are concerned with the education of our children. . . .

Many businesses now in the full swing of the holiday season with decorations sprouting all over the village. We understand that the street decorations will be installed shortly to promote the mood. After a great year businesswise, no reason to believe that we won't finish the year with a bang . . .

Time, once again, to look out your window and enjoy living in the greatest place in the world (unbiased opinion). Take a few moments to contemplate your blessings — for they are many. . . .

Thought for the day—"Am I wasting or using well this day's allotment of time?" Milton B. Robinson.

Warriors down AA Hatch after pair of AAA losses

The RHS Warriors, after a touch and go first half, put their game together in the third quarter Saturday night and topped Hatch, 56-51 in the locals' first AA tilt of the season.

The Warriors lost the year's first two starts against AAA teams, dropping the opener 50-47 to Socorro and falling to the swift moving Tularosa five, 80-43 in the Dec. 6 game on the RHS floor.

Of the loss to Tularosa, Warrior coach Thurman Sanchez said, "They completely outran us in the third quarter and controlled the ball all the way to outscore us 30 to eight."

David Stiles paced the Warriors against Hatch with 21 points with Kelly Perryman hitting for 15.

"Perryman and Steve Williams gave us a good defensive job against Hatch and helped us notch our first win of the year," Sanchez said, "and, due to first half troubles, the reserves saw some action and handled themselves well."

Stiles also paced the Warriors with 24 points against Tularosa and totaled 19 against Socorro. Kirk Eubank added 13 points against Socorro. In the scoring, Ray Chavez netted 12 and Randy Valles 10 for Socorro; R. Marrujo and P. Gutierrez topped Tularosa with 16 points each and Jerry Villabos paced Hatch with 24.

Against Socorro the Warriors held a 14-12 first quarter edge and then couldn't click as they trailed 27-19 at halftime, 40-35 and 50-47.

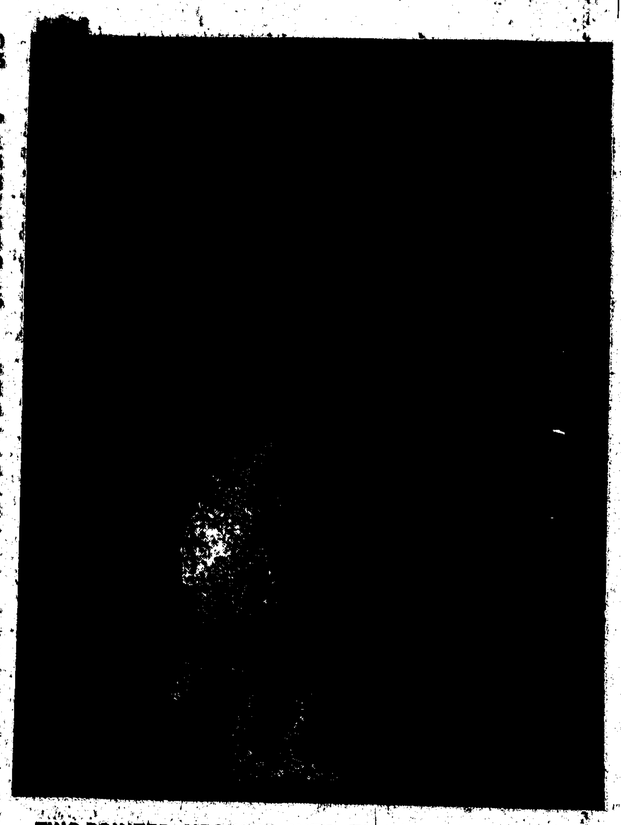
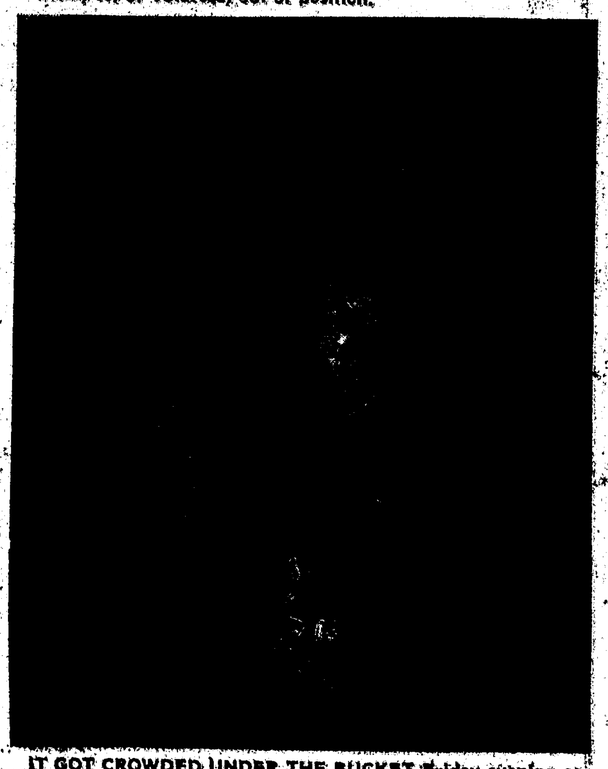
Against Socorro the locals trailed 14-6, 24-15, 32-30, and knotted the tally at 41-all in regulation play, only to lose 43-42 in an overtime period. R. Mound with 19 and M. Swain with 11 points paced the locals.

Against Tularosa the locals trailed 10-9, 20-19, 31-27 and 51-44. H. Aguilar with 13 and K. Nelson with 11 points led Ruidoso in scoring.

Against Hatch the locals trailed 6-2 at the quarter, led 18-10 at the half, went behind 20-22 at the third period and in the fourth canto pulled a 28-23 win out of the fire. A Chavez, with 10 points on five field goals was high man for Ruidoso.



TWO-POINTER HEADING INTO THE NET was tossed by Kirk Eubank, 32, Friday evening after he'd faked S. Wahlquist, 15, of Tularosa, out of position.



IT GOT CROWDED UNDER THE BUCKET Friday evening as David Stiles, 42, went high to grab a rebound of Kelly Perryman's, 44, missed shot before J. Rogers, 43, of Tularosa, could get up. (Ruidoso News Photos)

Care of Holiday plants explained

With care on your part, the blooming period of holiday season plants can be extended and the plant more completely enjoyed. To do this, a favorable environment is necessary because these plants are living organisms. They need good light, temperature and moisture to survive in the home, says Ricardo Gomez, Extension horticulturist with New Mexico State University.

When the plant arrives, check it over. If foil covers the pot, be sure a hole is punched in the bottom to allow excess water to drain from it if it is necessary to water the plant.

Below are some conditions needed to insure success with holiday plants:

Watering — Remember, do not overwater. Most plants are killed this way. Never water plants by rule of thumb, such as every other day, or twice a week. Plants should be checked daily and watered only when they need it. Once the soil is thoroughly moistened, it is not necessary to water it again until it begins to dry. Plants in a cold room need less water than those in a warm, dry atmosphere. Blooming plants and those with much foliage require more than those without bloom or with sparse foliage, Gomez says.

Watering is best done by taking plants to the sink, removing pot decorations, and applying water until it drains from the bottom of the pot. After water stops draining, replace pot decorations and bring the plant back to the viewing area.

Do not use softened water. It will kill your plants!

Light — all foliage and flower plants need light to keep them in good condition.

Plants placed in poor light will become yellow, with spindly shoots. The flowers will die off faster and the plant will react poorly to house conditions.

Temperature — Temperatures in the home are different than in the greenhouse. The hot dry atmosphere of most homes can shorten the life of flowering plants. To maintain holiday plants longer, select the spot where plants are cooler — 65 to 68 degrees would be best. Some plants, like cyclamen or begonias, need a cooler window sill to grow on.

Listed below are some details on various holiday plants:

Begonias — The begonias will continue blooming for weeks if purchased in full bud and given proper care. Place the plant in bright light and try to keep it cool at night (55-60 degrees). Proper watering will give longer and better flowering. Some include Rex, Rieger Elator, or Christmas begonia.

Christmas Pepper — Christmas pepper is decorative and fits well into the holiday color scheme. Place the plant in good light and cool temperatures. This annual is sold when in full fruit, and should be discarded when no longer attractive. Loss of leaves and fruit is often the result of insufficient watering and/or hot temperature.

Jerusalem Cherry — Jerusalem cherry is a colorful holiday plant covered with small, round, brilliant red fruit. Give it bright light and keep it at cool night temperature (45-50) degrees for extended life. Keep the soil moist.

Chrysanthemum—The potted chrysanthemum is one of the most important and popular plants because of its year-round availability, attractive range of colors and types, and lasting quality in the home. It requires bright light or full sun to produce full coloration in opening buds. Pot mums dry out quickly and therefore should be checked often for watering. Keep the plants in a cool place.

Poinsettias — Poinsettias are striking plants with various colored bracts (modified leaves) surrounding small yellow flowers. With care, they should retain their beauty for weeks. Newer varieties may stay attractive for months. Some include: Eckespont C1 variety, Mikkelson, and Annette Hegg.

When you receive a poinsettia, the main thing to remember is not to chill it, especially if you bring it home yourself. Any temperature of 50 degrees or below may cause leaves to wilt and bracts to drop.

Poinsettias are easily overwatered. This is espcially true if the pot is covered with decorative foil. Correct watering is important. Once a poinsettia is past the flowering stage, you may gradually withhold giving it water. The leaves will fall and you will have only a dormant stem left. Water it just enough to keep the stem from shriveling. Transplant it in a large pot and increase the water in April and it will produce new shoots.

Gold — will it sell?

Beginning the first of the year, citizens of this country may hold gold bullion for the first time in many years. It will be interesting to note just how well the bullion will sell — and it will probably be a good indication of the people's faith in our paper money and coins.

It has also been a good many years since our money — both paper and coin — has been backed by anything except the word of our over-spending government. Is it any wonder that many may buy gold? With our elected officials spending more than their income for several generations, we can only wonder how long it can last.

History has shown that any country that has debased its currency or coinage has been subjected to tremendous inflation. Remember the pictures of people in Europe just after World War II carrying money to the grocery store in baskets? This could happen to us if we are not careful.

As long as the money of a country is not backed by something and the printing of such money is not strictly controlled, the inflation of that economy can only continue. Perhaps it is time that our officials take a long, hard look at our fiscal system in government and attempt to correct some of the admitted problems.

While we cannot maintain that we must have gold to back our currency, (although we didn't seem to have the inflation problem then) we still hold that there must be something — goods or wealth of some sort — to back it if it is to maintain its value.

At the present time, the only countries with a stable currency are those with precious metals backing them.

Even our coinage has been debased to a point where the metal in the coin is not worth the face value, and when it reaches a point where it is almost worth the value, it is pulled from circulation and replaced with a much cheaper metal.

It will be interesting to see the results of the new gold law.

After the completion of the play, the members of the cast presented gifts of appreciation to three people. One gift was to Mrs. Maurildia Perry who stepped in to take a part in the play. Another gift was to the Senior Class sponsor, F. D. Hornbaker, for his continued support of these class activities. A third gift, along with a special "Thank You", was presented to Mrs. Emma Gene Hall. Mrs. Hall directed the play.

On Wednesday, Nov 27, the Seniors ordered their announcements, caps and gowns. With half of the year almost over, the class is getting ready for the big day of graduation.

Tiger Basketball

Friday, Dec. 6, marked the opening of the 1974-75 basketball season for the Capitan Tigers. There are eleven boys on the team who will make up the Varsity Squad. There will not be a "B" team this season.

The season opener found the Tigers playing hosts to the Alamogordo Sophomore team.

The following evening, Saturday, Dec. 7, the Bears of Cloudcroft met the Tigers. Two girls' games preceded the boys' varsity game.

Tigerette Basketball

Both the Varsity and Junior Varsity girls' basketball teams of Capitan got into the win column as they downed their Alamogordo teams.

The JV teams from both towns found scoring difficult as the first quarter ended in a 0-0 deadlock. Scoring wasn't much easier in the second quarter as halftime arrived with the score of 2-0 in favor of Capitan.

Second half action produced a little more scoring punch as Capitan popped in 4 third quarter points and 8 fourth quarter points. The final score was 16-0 with Capitan on the long end.

Starting five for the Tigerettes were Lisa Lamb, Donna Cooper, Megan LaMay, Julia Coleman and Mary Gutierrez. Others seeing action were Susie Shrecengost, Debbie Dalton, Darlene Herrera, Lilly Montes, Laura Hardy and Shirley Taylor.

Doing the scoring for Capitan was Lamb with 10 points and Cooper with 6. Capitan had a total of 10 personal fouls in the game while Carrizozo had 3.

From the free throw line, Capitan shot one time and failed to make that one.

The Tigerette Varsity team had a big night, winning 45-23. Capitan made 16 field goals and improved greatly on free throw shooting as they hit on 13 of 29 from the charity stripe. The Tigerettes were called for 25 personal fouls themselves.

Scoring for Capitan was Alice Fillingim with 13 points; Rhonda Barber, 11 points; Becky Renfro, 9 points; Susie Abercrombie, 6 points; Debbie Burkett, 4 points; Goose Jenkins, 2 points. Others seeing action were Bernie Gomez and Trina Zamora.

By quarters, Capitan's scoring was 11, 12, 9, 13 for a total of 45 points.

Broken insulators mean inconvenience and safety hazards

A few hunters may sometimes become careless and break insulators. Vandals often break them deliberately. When this happens, many people experience interrupted electrical service and possible safety hazards. And . . . it costs money to replace the broken insulators. Before you shoot or throw a rock . . . stop . . . be considerate of others. If you should notice a broken insulator or one being broken, notify Community Public Service Company.

Christmas gifts of books for children

Now is the time when parents are deciding just what little Sammy or Joan will receive for Christmas. The forces operating against parents are almost overwhelming. Advertising turns Sammy or Joan into a 24-hour salesperson to sell mom or dad on the newest, and thereby the best toy on the market this Christmas.

For some parents, Christmas poses a real problem. Rightly said, it is not Christmas that is the problem, but rather the pressure on parents to spend large sums of money for what they deep-down-inside believe to be ridiculous.

There is a strange notion or feeling among some — and we all have to guard against it — that if a large sum of money is spent on nice and expensive toys, this somehow makes up for those things that were missed during the year. Others spend large sums because they don't want to be different, or they don't want their children to think that they would slight them. Or the proverbial "Keep up with the Joneses" attitude takes over.

One very practical idea for an extremely worthwhile Christmas gift for a child came from a mother who was worried about her children's ability to read. She found out that the way to get children to read is to first read to them. Read to them very early in their lives, long before they can fully understand the words or even sit still for a very long time.

A book is an appropriate Christmas present for a number of reasons. First of all, children learn to read by being read to, and then by reading themselves. A child is naturally curious. He wants to know about the mysteries of life and death, of science and nature, of good and evil, and a thousand other things. A book helps to satisfy this curiosity.

BAHA'I

On Tuesday, Dec. 10, the Baha'is of Ruidoso joined with millions of people in communities around the world in commemorating Human Rights Day. The official observance for the Baha'is of Ruidoso was held Wednesday evening, the regular discussion night for the Baha'i community.

Human Rights Day commemorates the signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948 by the members of the United Nations including the United States. In recognition of the interdependence of the human race the Declaration of Human Rights attempted to express a common code of basic human rights applicable to all nations.

The United Nations Declaration states that the "recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and unalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice, and peace in the world."

Among the rights guaranteed by the historic UN document are the right to life, liberty and the security of person; freedom from slavery; equal protection under the law; the right to found a family; freedom of conscience, religion, opinion, and expression; the right to work; and the right to a standard of living adequate for health and well-being.

In 1967 a Declaration on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women was added, calling for measures to insure the equality of men and women in the areas of political activity, education, employment, civil law, and the family. 1975 has been designated by the UN as a year in which to focus universal attention on the elimination of discrimination against women.

The Baha'i world community has supported the basic aims of the United Nations — to keep peace, to insure universal human rights, and to provide better social and economic living conditions for humanity — since the creation of the world organization in 1945.

Baha'u'llah, the Prophet-Founder of the Baha'i Faith, called all the peoples of the world to unite. Only in one common faith could mankind find enduring peace, He said. In His teachings He stressed the need for world government, the need to eliminate prejudice of all forms, the recognition of the equality between men and women, the need for a universal auxiliary language, for unity between science and religion, and for universal compulsory education of children.

STUPH & JUNK . . . by Cale Dickey

Down 'n kicked . . .

'Tain't kosher ... kickin' a man when he's down ... and looks as though the U. S. House of Reps. will be giving Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., a kickin' the likes of which Congress hasn't seen since Sen. Tom Dodd received his comeuppance.

It's this way ... a member of Congress can do anything Joe Blow can do ... if'n he doesn't get caught and familiarize everyone with his peccadillos or his aberrations of more serious nature. Members of Congress, being human, probably play games in about the same proportion as the rest of us ... and, like us, they know the rules ... and the cost, if'n they get caught. Or do they?

Possibly, as is being said, Wilbur's "sick" and his "illness" caused him to attract unwanted attention ... but it's tragic ... considering all events ... that he did, after reelection, choose to upstage a belly dancer and to utter those words that hastened his fall into discredit ... "This won't ruin me. Nothing can ruin me."

Ah, well ... at least Wilbur can resign ... with whatever grace he can muster ... claim his pension ... assess his assets ... and launch his new career as a scenario ... or something ... writer ... without having to forgo the way of life that he apparently savors. Grab your typewriter and go get 'em ... tiger.

Who's upset now . . .

It's been a spell ... but if someone says "Martha" ... you know who.

Thinly veiled accusations ... nay more, assertions of a more positive nature ... have caused Martha Mitchell much grief ... and brought her a notoriety that few women, of late years, have enjoyed ... and if you think she isn't enjoying it ... hang tough.

It appears ... in light of Watergate developments ... that Martha did indeed know that of which she spoke ... and that it was more than idle prattle she was mouthing ... and that, indeed, one each husband John Mitchell, et al., knew much about the witches' brew in the cauldron that has caused many burned fingers ... and will probably raise blisters on a few more.

Martha may well lay claim to a niche in history ... and it looks as though she's certainly entitled to the same ... and as John reaps the fruits of his efforts ... the last laugh will be Martha's ... and this time, John can't drown her out. And a tip of the ol' Stuph & Junk hat to the victor.

Now you know . . .

Ever wonder why, out of a 33-day intellectual cycle, you're real sharp 15½ days ... flounder around ineffectually for a like number of days ... and during two days are plagued with attacks of the stupids?

Seems this is caused by biorhythm ... and it's biorhythms that give you your ups and downs ... and attacks of the stupids. Biorhythm also affects your physical condition ... and your emotions ... but I'm not going to worry about that ... until I find out how come my intellectual cycle doesn't fit into the norm. And I'm not suggesting my "real sharp" period overshadows the others ... which, considering how many of the Dickeys in my family were famous, makes sense.

On the other hand, I'm a lot happier than I'd be if I was smart. I think.

The Chief's back . . .

Chief of Police Paul M. Lukens Jr., who has been back east hobnobbing with some of the finest brains in the criminal field ... whoops! ... finest brains combatting criminals ... graduated from the FBI National Academy Dec. 5 ... and he did bone up on police management, ethics, recent court decisions, urban police problems and behavioral sciences ... amongst other things.

'Twas a select group the chief was with ... he was one of 250 from 49 states and eight foreign countries ... and his selection to be a member of this class was a high personal honor ... an achievement many aspire to, but few attain.

And by jinkies, chief, good on you ... you good ol' chief.

BRIFF BIT: Somehow that snow that is so beautiful on the trees loses a lot of appeal when it piles up chin deep to a giraffe in your driveway ...CD

Your Social Security

The 22,177 people in New Mexico who receive Supplemental Security Income checks are required to report several events that could affect their payment amount. This is not the only means used by social security offices to insure the correctness of payments, however, noted Mrs. Christine Graves, social security field representative.

Every recipient of Supplemental Security Income benefits will be contacted at least once a year by the social security office and a complete re-determination of eligible factors will be made. Social security offices are making these redeterminations now, beginning with the individuals who were converted from New Mexico public assistance programs to Supplemental Security Income benefits last January. Included in the review will be the person's income, resources, residence, marital status, and living arrangements.

Persons who are receiving Supplemental Security Income should be prepared to give the above information at the interview that will be arranged for them by the Social Security Administration, Mrs. Graves concluded.

Mrs. Graves may be contacted each Tuesday at the Lincoln County Senior Citizens Center, in Ruidoso, between the hours of 10:00 - 12:00 and 1:00 - 2:00.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING PRIOR TO THE REPEAL OF CERTAIN REGULATIONS AND THE ADOPTION OF CERTAIN OTHER REGULATIONS BY THE PROPERTY APPRAISAL DEPARTMENT OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS:

Commencing on Friday, January 10, 1975, at 9:00 A. M., there will be a public hearing before the Director of the Property Appraisal Department of the State of New Mexico, or a hearing officer designated by him, on the proposed action of the Director of the Property Appraisal Department of the State of New Mexico, and repealing certain regulations and adopting certain other regulations. The hearing will be held at the P.E.R.A. Auditorium, second floor of the Public Employees Retirement Association Building or P.E.R.A. Building, State Capitol Complex, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87503.

This hearing replaces the hearing scheduled for November 25, 1974 on the same subject which was vacated by order of the District Court of the First Judicial District, Santa Fe County.

The proposed action of the Department which will be the subject of the hearing is the repeal of all Department regulations in effect prior to January 1, 1975 which were adopted pursuant to Sections 72-25-6 through 72-25-8, N.M.S.A. 1953 (Supplement 1973), and the adoption of regulations required and authorized to be promulgated by the Department under the provisions of Article 29 of Chapter 72, N.M.S.A. 1953 (Special 1974 Supplement), of the New Mexico Property Tax Code, effective January 1, 1975. The proposed regulations have an effective date of January 1, 1975, and are retroactive to the effective date, pursuant to Section 72-31-87 (B), N.M.S.A. 1953 (Special 1974 Supplement).

The regulations to be repealed are to be repealed pursuant to the provisions of Sections 72-31-87 and 72-31-88, N. M. S. A. 1953 (Special 1974 Supplement), of the Property Tax Code, and regulations to be adopted are to be adopted pursuant to the requirements found in Section 72-31-88, N.M.S.A. 1953 (Special 1974 Supplement) of the Property Tax Code. The subject matter of the regulations to be repealed and the regulations to be adopted concerns:

1. Definitions of specific kinds of property subject to valuation for property taxation purposes by a particular method or methods;
2. Establishing taxable situs of property for purposes of property valuation;
3. Establishing a method or methods of valuation for specified kinds of property; and
4. Establishing rules and procedures for the allocation of the value of property for property taxation purposes.

The specific kind of property with which these regulations are concerned is tangible property, real and personal, whether the responsibility for valuation is with the county assessor or with the Property Appraisal Department or its successor, the Property Tax Department. Property valued by the Department includes property used in the conduct of the following businesses: 1. railroads, 2. telegraph, telephone or other transmission or reception of intelligence or information by electro-magnetic signals, 3. pipelines, 4. public utilities, 5. airlines, 6. electricity generating plants, whether or not owned by a public utility, if all or part of the electricity is generated for ultimate sale to the consuming public, 7. mineral property and property held or used in connection with mineral property, and 8. machinery, equipment and other personal property of all resident and nonresident persons customarily engaged in construction that involves the use, during the tax year, of the machinery, equipment and other personal property in more than one county.

The manner by which interested persons may present their views at the hearing follows:

1. The Director will allow all interested persons a reasonable opportunity to submit arguments and to examine witnesses testifying at the hearing.
2. The Technical Rules of Evidence and the Rules of Civil Procedure will not apply at the hearing.
3. The Director may require reasonable substantiation of statements or records offered as evidence at the hearing.
4. The Director may also require any view to be stated in writing when the circumstances justify.
5. A verbatim record will be made of the entire hearing.
6. Each regulation will be considered separately at the hearing; however, presentation by the Department or interested parties may, with approval of the Director of the Department or his designated hearing officer, be combined to cover several regulations provided the regulations with which the presentation is concerned are required to be identified at the beginning of the presentation.

The proposed regulations described above were filed, as proposed, in accordance with the State Rules Act on November 27, 1974 as required pursuant to Section 72-31-88 (F), N.M.S.A. 1953 (Special 1974 Supplement). Several changes were made in the proposed regulations between the time of their issuance on October 25, 1974, as "Proposed Regulations Promulgated by the Property Appraisal Department Under the Provisions of Article 29 of Chapter 72, N.M.S.A. 1953 and Repeal of Regulations in Effect Prior to January 1, 1975 Which were Adopted Pursuant to Sections 72-25-6 Through 72-25-8, N.M.S.A. 1953." Copies of the changes, in the form of insert pages, as well as full copies of the proposed regulations, may be obtained in the manner stated below. The statutes governing the promulgation and judicial review of the proposed regulations are Sections 72-31-87, 72-31-88 and 72-31-89, N.M.S.A. 1953 (Special 1974 Supplement).

Copies of the proposed regulations and the regulations proposed to be repealed may be obtained from the Legal Division of the Property Appraisal Department, Bataan Memorial Building, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87503. In order to offset the cost of physical preparation of reproduction of proposed regulations or regulations to be repealed and mailing, a fee of $5.00 for copies of all proposed regulations which will be considered will be charged and a fee of $10.00 for copies of all regulations which are being considered for repeal will be charged. Orders for proposed regulations will be filled, including the insert pages described above, for the $5.00 fee; however, a fee of $2.00 will be charged for separate orders for the insert pages. Checks for copies of these regulations are required to accompany orders for the regulations and should be made payable to the Property Appraisal Department of the State of New Mexico. These charges are authorized by Sections 72-25-7, N.M.S.A. 1953 (Supplement 1973) of the Property Appraisal Department Act, and 72-28-7, N.M.S.A. 1953 (Special 1974 Supplement) of the Property Tax Code.

RABIES QUARANTINE

The most important aspect of the laws, rules and regulations governing dogs, cats and pets is CITIZEN RESPONSIBILITY and CITIZEN CONSIDERATION for the safety and privacy of their neighbors and other community residents. Laws protecting owners of dogs and cats and non-owners can be enforced effectively only if the citizens themselves know and understand the law, support and assist in their enforcement. Lincoln County residents must assist the County Government, animal control staffs, municipal veterinarians and humane society representatives, district health officer and Sheriff in safeguarding animals and protecting the citizenry from vicious animals and abandoned or stray pets and above all from rabies.

If every citizen assumes his appropriate responsibility — either tying his pets or reporting vicious, stray and abandoned animals, the governmental authorities will be effective in safeguarding the residents and preventing rabies.

Though the rabies problem is serious the most effective and economical approach to enforcing the law governing dogs and cats is citizen awareness and active assumption of their responsibility to tie their dogs and cats. If this is accomplished then the Sheriff and Municipal authorities will have a better opportunity to control stray and abandoned dogs, the number of which does not at this time warrant the establishment of a County dog and cat control staff, costing thousands of dollars. The Sheriff and his deputies can most likely respond to the need to control and disposal of abandoned and stray animals. However, the governmental authorities cannot assume responsibility that by law rests with the owners of dogs and cats.

At this stage in the quarantine declaration, efforts should be made to inform the County residents of their legal responsibilities of protecting their community neighbors and other residents from their dogs and cats. Many people may not realize New Mexico state law requires all citizens to vaccinate, tag and tie or confine their pets. Also Lincoln County citizens may not realize that the Sheriff may dispose of the animal after a reasonable effort to encourage a dog or cat owner to tie his pet has failed. To tie or confine a dog or cat or not to tie or confine a dog or cat is not a free choice of the pet owner. The law requires it!

On October 18, 1974, the Regional Health Director, Dr. David L. Michaels issued an order establishing a rabies quarantine for Lincoln and Otero County. The authority to establish the quarantine is section 47-1-2.6 N. M. S. A., 1953: Below is cited the State Law governing cat and dog ownership and responsibilities by agency, government unit and citizen and respective legal references:

47-1-2.5/47-1-2.6/47-1-6/47-1-9 Responsibilities — County and Sheriff.

47-1-2.6: Responsibilities — County Health Officer.

47-1-2.4/47-1-3/47-1-9: Responsibilities — Veterinarian.

47-1-2.3/47-1-2.4/47-1-2.5/47-1-3/47-1-9/47-1-4. Responsibilities — Citizen.

47-1-5/47-1-6: Responsibilities Municipal.

47-1-2.6 QUARANTINE—Any district health officer may declare a quarantine against rabies within the health district of his jurisdiction when in his judgment rabies exists to the extent that it is a danger to public health. Upon such declaration, all dogs and cats within the health district shall be confined on the premises of the owner or keeper, in a veterinary hospital, commercial dog and cat kennel or in a municipal animal shelter. After reasonable effort to apprehend any dog or cat running at large and uncontrolled by its owner or keeper during a period of quarantine, any peace officer may kill the dog or cat and properly dispose of the body. A quarantine shall not be removed except on order of the district health officer.

Dr. Michaels Quarantine Order requires Lincoln County pet owning citizens to:

a. Securely fasten pets upon a leash at all times.

47-1-2.1 — VACCINATION OF DOGS AND CATS REQUIRED — Any person who owns or keeps a dog or cat over the age of three (3) months in this state shall have the dog or cat vaccinated against rabies annually with a vaccine approved by the director of the health and social services department. All anti-rabies vaccine shall be administered by or under the supervision of a licensed veterinarian.

47-1-2.2 — VACCINATION CERTIFICATES AND TAGS — The veterinarian who administers antirabies vaccine to any dog or cat shall issue to the owner or keeper of the dog or cat a serially numbered vaccination certificate containing the name and address of the veterinarian, the type of vaccine used, the name and address of the owner or keeper of the dog or cat, a description of the dog or cat vaccinated, the date of vaccination and the expiration date of the period of immunity. The veterinarian shall also furnish the owner or keeper with a metal tag bearing the certificate number and the expiration date of the period of immunity. The tag shall be affixed by the owner or keeper to a collar or harness and shall be worn by the dog or cat for which the certificate is issued.

47-1-2.3 — VACCINATION OF DOGS AND CATS BROUGHT INTO STATE — Any dog or cat brought into the state shall be securely confined by the owner or keeper until vaccinated against rabies, which vaccination shall be administered within one (1) week after entry into the state unless the owner or keeper has a certificate of vaccination issued by a veterinarian in another state or foreign country and such vaccination conforms to the requirements of this state.

47-1-2.4. — NOTICE TO HEALTH OFFICER OF ANIMAL BITE — CONFINEMENT. — A. When any person is bitten by an animal, it is the duty of such person or his parent or guardian and of the owner or keeper of the animal immediately to notify the district health officer. Except as provided in subsection B of this section, the owner or keeper of the animal immediately and at his own expense, shall confine it securely for ten (10) days at a place designated by the district health officer. Every physician shall, within twenty-four (24) hours after his first professional attendance upon a person bitten by any animal having or suspected of having rabies, report to the district health officer the name, age, sex and address of the person bitten.

B. If the person bitten is bitten by a dog and if the owner of the dog produces a valid and unexpired certificate of vaccination for the dog issued under section 47-1-2.2 NMSA 1953 evidencing vaccination at least three (3) weeks prior to the bite, then the owner shall be permitted to keep the dog at his own premises for the required period of ten (10) days. Owner confinement shall be permitted by the district health officer if he has declared his area of jurisdiction a rabies-free area. No animal may be released from confinement except by a person designated by the district health officer.

47-1-2.5. — DOGS OR CATS BITTEN BY RABID ANIMALS. — Any dog or cat bitten by an animal known or proved to be rabid shall be killed immediately by its owner or by a peace officer, Provided that any dog or cat which has been vaccinated at least three (3) weeks before being bitten shall be confined for ninety (90) days. At the end of the confinement period the dog or cat shall be released if declared free of rabies by a licensed veterinarian. If as determined by the veterinarian, the dog or cat develops rabies during the period of confinement, the owner or keeper shall have it killed and properly disposed of.

47-1-3. VICIOUS ANIMALS—RABID OR UNVACCINATED DOG AND CATS. — PROCEDURE FOLLOWING DEATH FROM RABIES. — It is unlawful for any person to keep any animal known to be vicious and liable to attack and injure human beings unless such animal is securely kept so as to prevent injury to any person. It is unlawful to keep any unvaccinated dog or cat or any animal which has shown any symptom of rabies except that, if such animal has bitten a human being, it shall be confined for a ten (10) day period. If the animal dies during the confinement period, the head shall be immediately sent to a laboratory by the district health officer.

The head of any animal suspected of having died of rabies shall be immediately sent to a laboratory designated by the health and social services department under such procedures as specified by the department.

47-1-4. FAILURE TO KILL—PENALTY. — It is the duty of any person who is the owner or keeper of any animal, the keeping of which is unlawful, to cause such animal to be killed. Failure to comply with this section, after knowledge by the owner or keeper of the fact which renders such keeping unlawful, shall subject such owner or keeper to a fine of ten dollars ($10.00) and costs, and each day's failure to comply is a separate offense.

47-1-5. RUNNING AT LARGE IN MUNICIPALTIES. — Each municipal corporation shall make provision by ordinance for the seizure and killing of all dogs and cats running at large and not claimed or harbored by any person on their premises.

47-1-6. ENFORCEMENT. — Municipal corporations may provide enforcement of sections 47-1-2 through 47-1-7 NMSA 1953 by ordinance.

In any area where dogs and cats are not controlled by ordinance, the sheriff or any peace officer shall provide for the disposal of any unvaccinated dog or cat not under ownership and control.

47-1-9. ABANDONED DOGS AND CATS — NOTICE TO OWNER — DISPOSAL WITHOUT LIABILITY. — A. As used in this act (section), "custodian" means the owner or operator of a veterinary clinic or hospital, a doctor of veterinary medicine, a kennel, grooming parlor or other animal care facility.

B. Any dog or cat placed in the custody of a veterinarian, kennel, animal clinic or hospital, grooming parlor or other animal care facility shall be deemed to be abandoned if, after the term of any agreement for board or other care has expired, the dog or cat has not been reclaimed within ten (10) days after written notice has been given the owner or his agent by registered or certified mail.

C. Any dog or cat deemed abandoned under the provisions of subsection B of this section, may be disposed of by the custodian if not reclaimed. Notice of the intent to dispose of a dog or cat shall be given to the owner or his agent by registered or certified mail. Such notice when sent to the address given to the custodian by the owner, shall relieve the custodian from all liability to the owner or his agent for the disposal of the dog or cat.

D. The custodian may turn over an abandoned dog or cat to the municipal or county animal control center, pound or shelter for disposal by them. Nothing in this act shall affect the holding time or notice procedures regarding any municipal or county control facility which is owned or operated by, or is under contract or franchise to, a municipality or county.

E. Nothing in this act shall relieve the owner of a dog or cat for the payment of all reasonable charges for medical or care services rendered to the dog or cat while in the custody of a veterinarian, kennel, animal clinic or hospital, grooming parlor or other animal care facility.
