CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY.

Judge Freeman's Charge to the Grand Jury.

Gentlemen of the grand jury. You have been duly selectad and empanneldd to serve as grand jury at the present term of this court, and it now devolves upon me to charge you as to your powers and duties. No higher nor more important duty devolves upon an American citizen than that which you are now required to perform. Under our system of government, the safety and well being of society, the preservation of life and person of the citizen, and the security of his property rights, depend upon the rigid enforcement of the laws of the land, and it is made your high duty to inquire into all violations of such laws, committed within the jurisdiction of this court and if you find that there have been any such violations, to present them to this court by an accusation in writing, against the person or persons whom you believe under your oaths, to be guilty of the offense you find by he evidence to have been committed. This accusation is called an indictment. No indictments can be found without the concurrence of at least nine members of the grand jury, and when found, it must be signed by the District Attorney, endorsed "A true bill," by your foreman, and returned by you as a body into open court.

* * * * *

You can receive none but legal evidence, and the best evidence in decree, to the exclusion of hearsay or secondary evidence. You are not bound to hear evidence for the defendant, but is your duty to weigh all the evidence submitted to you, and when you have reason to believe that other evidence within your reach will explain away the charge you are investigating, you may order such evidence to be produced, and for that purpose you may order the District Attorney to issue process for the witnesses. You ought to find an indictment when all the evidence taken together is such as in your judgement would, if unexplained or uncontradicted, warrant a convicition by a trial jury.

If any member of your body knows or has reasons to believe that a public offense has been committed which is triable in this county, he must declare the same to his fellow jurors, who thereupon must investigate the same.

You are required to inquire into the condition of every prisoner on a criminal charge, triable in this county and not indicted. Into the condition and management of the public prison of the county, and into the wilful and misconduct in office of public officers of every description in the county. For the purpose of examining into the condition of the jail, and of the financial condition of the county, your foreman may appoint committees, who will be authorized to make the proper investigation, and report the same to the grand jury. If the grand jury be satisfied with such reports, they may be incorporated in their report upon their adjournment, as a part thereof. You are entitled to free access, at all reasonable times, to the public prisons, and to the examination, without charge, of all poblic records in the county.

* * * *

You have sworn to present no person through malice, hatred or ill will, nor have any unpresented through fear, favor or affection or for any reward or the promise or hope thereof. I call this to your attention again because, unfortunately, it is frequently the case persons make use of the grand jury for the purpose of satisfying some hatred or ill-will. You should not permit this. Do not let any guilty man escape, but on the other hand do not find an indictment against any man, unless you have what you consider good and sufficient evidence upon which to base your indictment. In other words, do not find an indictment against any citizen, and throw a cloud upon his character, and subject him, for the time being, to ignominy, unless you have before you such evidence as would justify you in finding him guilty, if you were sitting as a petit jury in the trial of his case.

You cannot sit longer than ten days, whether the business before you is finished or unfinished, at the expiration of ten days you must make your final report and be discharged. It is therefore necessary that you make the best use of the time you have.

I give you in charge the entire criminal code of this Territory, and charge you to present any and all persons, whoever they be who, in your opinion, under the evidence before you, have been guilty of the violation of these laws, but I am required by the statute to give you in charge certain matters. The first of these is an act to prohibit the unlawful carrying and use of deadly weapons, which has been a prolific source of crime in this Territory.

I am also required to call your attention to the provisions of an act passed by the Territorial legislature in 1890, entitled "An Act to prohibit certain persons from spec-ulting in territorial, county or municipal indebtedness, and other purposes."

These acts I give you specially in charge and ask you to rigidly investigate any violations of these laws, which may come to your knowledge, and if the evidence is sufficient, to return the same by indictment.

The OPTIC publishes in another place the protest of the New Mexican against the change in the mails. Let all the business people of Las Vegas read the article. But newspaper protest will not be sufficient remedy for the evil. The business men of Santa Fe, Albuquerque, and Las Vegas, who are as much interested in this matter as the papers are, should at once combine to lay the matter before the United States postal authorities in its true light. It makes but little difference to anybody that the mail from the far east gets here about four hours earlier, but it makes a great difference to the business interests of Las Vegas that the local mail for all the country south of here is delayed twenty-four hours.—Optic.

CLEVELAND AND SILVER.

Sometime ago the Times published Senator Vest's statement that ex-President Cleveland was a convert to free coinage of silver.—Nothing further was known of the matter until the following particulars were published last Saturday:

"Three or four days before the adjournment of the last session of congress a number of democratic senators were gathered together in their cloak room, dicussing the political outlook. Senator Barbour, Gormon, Vest, Vance and McPherson were of the party. At last three of the senators named declared that Cleveland stood no chance whatever for the nomination. Senator Vest spoke warmly of the ex-president's tariff record, and maintained that he was the most available man in the party, and would be nominated by acclamation in 1892. One of the party said that Cleveland could never get an electoral vote in the west on account of his silver record. At this, Senator Vest pulled from his pocket a letter which he had received that morning from Mr. Cleveland. In it the ex-president stated that the writer had read carefully all the arguments advanced in both houses in regard to the silver bill, and he freely and frankly confessed that he had been wrong on that question in the past. He declared that he was now ready to announce his conversion to the double standard theory. The story further goes that Cleve- will in the near future say publicly substantially what he said to the Missouri senator.

A DEMOCRATIC VIEW.

Chauncy M. Depew's addition to the how-not-to-do-it reciprocity dodge is to the effect that an international line of steamers to run between the United States and South America should be established and operated "under the most liberal and intelligent government assistance." In other and plainer words, Dr. Depew would subsidize steamships. Our foreign commerce is hopelessly handicapped by protective tariff taxes in the interests of monopoly. Everywhere on earth the story is the same. The nations of the world buy of us only as they are compelled to. Our navigation laws vex and destroy such commerce as the taiff leaves unscathed. The obvious remedy for a situation so clearly the result of unwise laws and so manifestly injurious to our own interests is the reformation of a system that places us at so serious a disadvantage. This system is the outgrowth of years of the grossest selfishness and injustice on the part of favored interests. To give these interests a monopolized home market the body of the people have been denied adequate foreign markets, and such foreign commerce as they have developed has sprung up only as the barriers of monopoly could be beaten down or evaded. To defeat, if possible, a rising demand of the people for reform, Mr. Blaine proposes to give the country a lttle foreign commerce in certain directions—a commerce that shall be carried on subject to the veto of the executive power at Washington, but he nowhere promises to remove a monopoly tax or take a step in the direction of freer intercourse with the wealthy nations that now take and must continue to take the great mass of our products that are to be sold abroad. Humorously enough Dr. Depew supplements this quackery with more quackery. After Dr. Blaine shall have arranged for a little commerce that will not interfere with his friends, the monopolists, Dr. Depew would have the United States government hire ships to carry it on. All such suggestions demonstrate the lamentable ignorance of our public men with the rudiments of sound economy. Commerce that must be sustained by public taxes is not worth having. To be profitable commerce must be spontaneous and free. The sagacity of the people themselves will guid them unerringly. Take down the bars.—Chicago Herald (Dem.), Nov. 20.

The Precinct election has been called by the County Commissioners at the last meeting. The election will be held January 12th, 1891. The following officers are to be elected: Justice of the Peace, Constable and School Directors. The following are the Judges of Election appointed for White Oaks and Raventon:

Precinct No. 8.—John A. Brothers, David Tinnon and Peter Reid.

Precinct No. 21.—Jose Antonio Otero, Anceto Lueres and Felipe Miranda.

Mr. Cleveland will be nominated in 1892. He must be. The democratic masses all over the country will revolt if anything else is attempted. And if he is not elected, but he will be, he will be renominated in 1896. That democrat who does most to elect him in 1892 will, after his second term is over, stand the best chance of succeeding him.—Terre Haut Gazette (Dem).

DEATH OF W. D. KISTLER.

Hon. W. D. Kistler died at Las Vegas Saturday from heart failure. His death was sudden and a shock to his many friends throughout the Territory. He was 38 years old, and apparently in good health up to the hour of his sudden summons. Mr. Kistler was a man of rare personal qualities, magnetic, genial and gifted. He numbered all mankind as his friends, and had a most lovable disposition. He came to Las Vegas from Kansas about nine years ago, and was honored by the people of San Miguel county with the position of assessor one term, and two years ago ably represented his county in the legislature. At the time of his death he was business manager of the Optic.

New Mexico loses one of her best young men by his untimely death, Las Vegas a public spirited and enterprising citizen, an aged and sorrowing mother a dutiful and loving son, and the only surviving brother a life companion, helpmate and loyal assistant. Peace to his ashes and honored may his memory be.

This is the way the Chaves Co. Herald kicks about Socorro as court headquarters.:

Socorro has about as much chance to "draw the trade of Lincoln, Chaves and Eddy counties" as it has to become the supply point of Albuquerque. Very evidently the editor of the Advertiser does not realize the extent and importance of the Pecos valley country. The commercial importance of Roswell and Eddy will, in a year or two, be so much greater than Socorro that it will be more in keeping of the fitness of things, that the former should be the supply points for the latter. and if your town was more than a good country crossroads trading place, we could not drive to the most inaccessible point in New Mexico to trade when there is Las Vegas, El Paso and Albuquerque and other cities, although farther away, are easier of access than you. This is true of the entire district, and it is just as true as to the inconvenience in judicial matters as it is in commercial matters.

The Democrats will have twenty-four majority over a two-thirds vote of the House, which will allow them at any time to suspend the rules and pass any measure they desire. Of the seventeen Alliance men elected, they are all democrats on the tariff question. Five Alliance Congressmen in Kansas, one in Minnessota, and two in Nebraska were elected over both democratic and republican candidates.—Pittsburgh Post (Dem.)

DISTRICT COURT.

Special Term, October, 1890.

The Special term of the District Court convened on the 24th ult., with Hon. A. A. Freeman, associate justice and Judge of the new 5th judicial district presiding. Mr. Meylert Bruner, the Clerk, assisted by W. E. Baker proceeded to organize by administering the oath to Pinto Pinio, the Interpreter, and Col. A. J. Fountain, as special District Attorney. The Grand Jury was called but only 4 appeared and were accepted, and the Petit Jury called and ten of the pannel present. The Court appointed W. A. Wiley, Lucio Arceletto and Francis Mestor, a jury commission, and court adjourned until 9 o'clock a. m., the 25th.

Court opened and the petit jury was first called. The following are the names of the gentlemen: Ira Sawyer, Frank Wilson, Newton McBee, Amos Eakers, Henry Mugg, Alf Wilson, Jose Otero, John Ulibanrie, Romaro Mironal, J. W. Braddock, Peter Corn, Chas. White, Ygenis Samora, Manuel. Sisneros, Frank Gonez, Bernel Macs, Jarell Sedillos, Anicete Lueras, Jose Lucero, Franguelins Montoya, Samuel Sancez, Galuel. Morgues, Geo. W. Peppin, Juan. Jose Ransaro.

The White Oaks bar fully represented. Two attorneys from Roswell, Hon. S. A. Richardson and A. C. Rogers. Hon. A. P. Fall, member elect to the Territorial legislature, from Las Cruces, is in attendance, Atty. H. B. Fergusson, of Albuquerque, is also conducting business before the court.

There were 29 cases disposed of, on the criminal docket, by continuance with alias writ, and four were continued by consent. The four cases of the Territory vs. Richmond Hurst and Geo. L. Hurst, change of venue to Socorro county. The case of the Territory vs. Dan Gilchrist, for contempt, was dismissed.

The civil docket was called and a number of cases disposed of. The Judge is pushing the business of the court in a very satisfactory manner.

The receipts of the New West Commission for the year ending June 30, 1890, were $72,940.52. The total receipts of the society since its organization September 1st, 1879, have been $501, 144.52. The society supports 75 teachers in thirty-two schools and academies, with 3,284 pupils, 967 being children of Mormon parents.

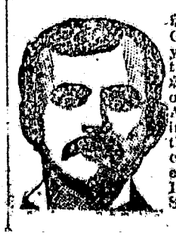
This precinct has been fortunately light on the criminal dooket at the present term of courtt White Oaks is orderly and the business of the Justice of the Peace is very light in consequence. All of which is hoped will be the condition for the year to come.

Capt. Kirby, of the firm of Kirby & Cree, has returned to Lincoln county to settle up some unfinished business. He returns to British Columbia, where he has purchased a cattle ranch. He contemplates returning with some of the imported blooded stock of the V V Co. Capt. Kirby is very favorably impressed with his new home in the far north.

Mrs. Jas. A. Alcock bid farewell to a host of friends at White Oaks and vicinity, previous to her departure for California, where she will visit relatives and friends at San Diego, Merced City and San Francisco. Mr. Alcock accompanies Mrs. A. as far on her journey as Albuquerque. The family will depart to-morrow. Bon voyage is the wish of all.

The cabin of Robinson and Ransom, at the north part of town, was entered by burglars on Thursday night last, and a gun, revolver and carpenters tools with other effects were taken. The parties committing the burglary, left without leaving any clue. Parties are suspicioned and a few days may reveal who done the business.

At the term of court the Grand jury is composed of the following named citizens: J. J. Dolan, foreman, Ed. R. Bonnell, Abram May, Camilio Nueres, Francisco Tryjillo, George Lupton, Jose Montana, Robert McGee, Julian Lopez, Thos. B. Powell, Patricio Merandelle and Roque Ernillio.



$6000.00 a year is being made by John R. Goodwin, Troy, N.Y., at work for us. Reader, you may not make as much, but we can teach you quickly how to earn from $5 to $10 a day at the start, and more as you go on. Both sexes, all ages. In any part of America, you can commence at home, giving all your time, or spare moments only to the work. All is new. Great pay SURE for every worker. We start you, furnishing everything. EASILY, SPEEDILY learned. PARTICULARS FREE. Address at once, STINSON & CO., PORTLAND, MAINE.

A few weeks ago an indignation meeting of the citizens of White Oaks was held and largely attended. The meeting was held to consider the threatened closing of the academy, which closing of the school the public were and are anxious to avoid, and with this end in view, a committee of conference or investigation cosisting of five members was selected. Charges were made that anonymous letters had been sent prominent people interested in church and school work. The committee were instructed to prosecute inquiry, and when ready, to report, the chairman was to re-call the public meeting and submit such report as they were enabled to make. This committee proceeded at once and placed themselves in communication with church and New West Commission officials. To the committee's request to forward original or copies of anonymous letters supposed to be in their possession. They replied that: "We have no anonymous letters, nor others that we could fairly allow to pass out of our hands. We do not know of anything that could be of use to you. We sincerely hope that these troubles may be speedily and satisfactorily adjusted and that the work of the church may go forward."

Signed,

L. H. CODD, Sec. &c.

The committee have thus been refused the expected co operation of those who were reported to be in possession of such material as the committee were empowered to act on. This refusal has only one result, to drop the subject for the time being. And when those in authority over the academy threaten to close that institution, we only ask again that they file with us the indictment under which we, as the public at large stand accused. From the answer now in the hands of the committee we infer that the academy is in no immediate danger of being closed. And we further hope as representatives of the public at large, that, should those in authority over the academy be harrassed by any further scandalous or anonymous communications, they preserve and turn over to to the committee their evidence, a quick and sure remedy will follow and whoever is guilty of the disrepute will be summarily dealt with.

In behalf of the general public your committee beg leave to place themselves squarely against any effort to close the academy, no matter from what source it eminates. The differences existing between the members of the church we hope will be held aloof from the academy.

INGALLS' SCHEME.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—A special from Topeka, Kansas, says an interesting complication has arisen in connection with the election of a United states Senator to succeed Senator Ingalls, and if the plan of action proposed by the republicans is successfully carried out it will seem that the Senator may succeed himself. An application has been made to the supreme court to compel the State board of canvassers to give certificates of election to nineteen delegates who were elected under the provisions of the constitution which says each county which has 250 voters is entitled to a representative. The constitution at the same time limits the number of members to 125 so that in order to seat the nineteen delegates from sparsely settled counties it would be necessary to drop an equal number of members elect from the more populous counties. If the court issues the mandamus and the nineteen delegates are seated, they will vote for Ingalls as they are so pledged, which would give him 83 votes on a joint ballot, the number to elect. If they are not seated and Senator Ingalls is defeated, the plan of the republicans is to contest the election of his successful opponent in the U. S. Senate on the ground that the delegates were entitled to their seats and their votes would have elected him. If they are seated and an equal number of members elect are not dropped, the house will number 143 members, or eighteen more than the constitution provides for and a contest will be instituted in the senate because the legislature will be an unconstitutional body.

MR. LEE. "Why, Adelie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

MRS. LEE. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen,—and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

MR. LEE. "What is that?"

MRS. LEE. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation; but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

MR. LEE. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."

MRS. LEE. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

If you have not examined the new illustrated monthly which has had so phenomenal a success during the past year, it is worth your while to do so. An increase in Circulation from 16,000 to 50,000 copies in 12 months means that there must be some attractive features about the
