CLIMBING HIGH

Army recruiters watch as Ruidoso High School students tackle a 30-foot high climbing wall outside the school Tuesday. Staff Sgt. Paul Camacho of El Paso said the students by far were in the best physical shape of those at the five high schools visited in southeastern New Mexico. "Maybe it's because they live in the mountains, are more physically active and do more climbing," he said. Below, an unidentified student tackles the synthetic mountain

Firefighters stay busy

Upstart blazes in Lincoln Forest limited to minimal damage

BY JAMES KALVELAGE
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

Area fire crews jumped on three nearby Lincoln National Forest fires this week, holding their sizes to minimal levels.

Five acres had burned when flames were discovered near Eagle Lake, off Ski Run Road at mid afternoon Tuesday.

Firefighters from Ruidoso, Bonito Volunteer Fire Department, the Mescalero Apache Reservation, Lincoln National Forest and New Mexico Forestry Division responded to the blaze.

At least four slurry drops were deposited by tanker aircraft, said Matt Reidy, fire management officer for the Smokey Bear Ranger District. Reidy said the cause of the fire was under investigation.

Another fire, described as suspicious, burned less than 3 acres in Kraut Canyon, near Bonito Lake, Reidy said.

"It had a lot of potential," Reidy said of the fire detected about 3 p.m. Monday. "There were some real heavy fuels there."

Two engines and two slurry bombers battled the flames about a mile into the canyon off Bonito Lake Road.

A blaze believed to have ignited Sunday afternoon near the Capitan Gap was limited to about an acre in size. The cause was determined to have been a lightning strike, Reidy said.

"They worked it Monday, Monday night and did mop up Tuesday morning," Reidy said. "They got on it before it did any damage."

The Capitan Fire was discovered about 1 p.m. Monday by an aerial reconnaissance flight to investigate plumes of smoke.

Reidy said the air observations will continue daily as long as the fire threat remains. And aircraft or helicopters capable of dropping slurry or water on flames are now stationed at the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport, near Apache Summit on the reservation and at the air field in Alamogordo.

Joseph Martin originally was placed on probation and sentenced to perform community service

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

Joseph Howard Martin, the only adult among four people involved in starting a fire that burned 8,500 acres in May 2000, was back in court Friday for revocation of his probation.

A spokesman for the district attorney's office said District Judge Karen Parsons reinstated Martin's 18-month sentence.

She suspended six months and ordered him to serve the remaining 12 months in custody, first in county jail and later with the Amity Foundation, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation program.

After being convicted July 27, the Ruidoso man was placed on probation and required to perform community service in Lincoln County for his involvement in the Cree Fire.

But the 22-year-old left the county and was arrested in Eagle County, Colo. on Feb. 20, according to information from the sheriff's department.

He was returned to the jail in Carrizozo, where he remained confined until the hearing.

Martin was convicted of contributing to the delinquency of a minor for not taking action to stop a juvenile from triggering the May 7 blaze that burned federal, state and private land. He was sentenced by Parsons to 18 months of supervised probation and 40 hours of community service weekly.

His conviction was based on his admission that he went with three juveniles to a cave, where one of the younger boys apparently set a branch on fire for light and later tossed the branch on the ground outside.

In the same case, William Smith, now 18, was sentenced to two years of probation for his conviction on negligent arson and making a false report to law enforcement officials. He pleaded no-contest to the children's court charges.

Two other juveniles also were sentenced to two years' probation.

'Stretched thin'

After 20 years in office, Corona mayor resigns

■ With his ranch, farm, service station, and mayoral duties, Ernest Lueras juggled many demands for his time

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

CORONA — Folks in Corona will need some time to adjust.

After two decades, Ernest Lueras has stepped down as mayor of the small village in northern Lincoln County.

Village Clerk Cathy Muniz said Lueras resigned because he was stretched thin with demands at his ranch, service station and mayoral duties in Corona and his farm in Santa Rosa.

"We couldn't figure out how long he's been mayor, but at least 20 years," Muniz said. "He and Lee Mulkey kind of went back and forth for a while."

Mulkey, who served on the village board of trustees, also resigned.

"I think they both felt they had given enough of their time to the community and now it was time for some others to step forward," Muniz said.

The three remaining members of the board, Bob Burrows, Sandra Purrington and Gilbert Stewart, appointed Marcus Johnson, owner of the Corona Mini-Mart, and Dan Lueras, Ernest's son who works with Central New Mexico Electric Cooperative, to fill the two empty positions on the board.

Stewart was chosen from the elected board members to serve as mayor until the next election when all but one position will be put to the voters.

Stewart received quite an initiation with the Pinatosa Fire that burned southwest of Corona last week.

The fire charred about 4,500 acres, destroying a campground and two unoccupied summer homes.

Museum's expansion needs federal help

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

A $15 million expansion of the Hubbard Museum of the American West is anticipated, if the federal government provides a portion of the needed money.

U.S. Sen. Pete Domenici, R-NM, said Tuesday he's asked for $4.5 million in federal funding toward the project that would nearly double existing exhibition space at the museum in Ruidoso Downs.

A member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Domenici formally requested the money be included in the Fiscal Year 2002 Interior Appropriations Bill, which the Senate and House will begin developing this summer.

The museum board asked the New Mexico congressional delegation to support the funding request to match its own $1.5 million for the expansion, Domenici said.

"The museum is a premier tourist draw in southeastern New Mexico, attracting more than 120,000 visitors annually," he said. "In addition to operating the well-known Hubbard Museum, the board also operates historic buildings in the National Landmark Historic District of Lincoln, Billy the Kid's old haunts."

ETZ Commission nixes motel RV park

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

A proposed recreational vehicle park as part of an existing motel property was rejected Monday by the Lincoln County-Ruidoso Extraterritorial Zoning Commission.

The application of Ron Andrews will be forwarded to the ETZ Authority, which handles appeals and consists of two county commissioners and one village councilor.

"They felt this was a viable development," said Joseph Patoskie, director of planning and zoning for the village and ETZ. "The site was not an issue. The interpretation of the code was the issue. They suggested that Ron Andrews as an individual might like to go forward to the authority and fix the problem."

The problem lies in the ETZ ordinance, says board attorney Charles Rennick. The ordinance, lifted from a Roswell draft two decades ago, doesn't mention several land uses and therefore, board members can't approve them, he has counseled.

"They felt this was a viable development."
Joseph Patoskie
planning and zoning director

Although the ETZ Commission backed his suggestion to approve an amendment allowing decisions to fall back temporarily on Ruidoso's zoning ordinance in areas where gaps occur, the ETZ Authority preferred that attorneys for the ETZ and the county draft amendments specifically to fill each gap – applying village rules, if they fit. That would remove the appearance that the county is trying to enforce village rules within the one-mile zone around the village, a situation that could involve legal complication, they said.

Andrews has said if he doesn't win approval through the ETZ process, the land will be annexed into the village. Lodgers taxes collected then will go to the village instead of the county, but property taxes on the land and improvements would go up.

The property is across the street from and adjacent to RV parks on U.S. 70 as it heads west into the Mescalero Apache reservation.

Census shows towns in area fast-growing

BY JAMES KALVELAGE
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

New Mexico's fourth, fifth and sixth fastest-growing communities over the past 10 years were Ruidoso Downs, Capitan and Ruidoso.

Numbers from the 2000 Census showed Ruidoso Downs nearly doubled in population, to 1,824 residents. The percentage increase from 1990s census was 98.3 percent.

"It's refreshing," said Bob Miller, Ruidoso Downs mayor. "We welcome the increase. We're still projecting more increases, gearing up for the future."

Miller said Ruidoso Downs' location played a big role in the near doubling of village residents.

"We're getting an influx of retired people," Miller said. "People came here years ago and bought a lot and planned on it for their retirement. Now they're here, building homes."

In Capitan, a 71.4-percent increase in residents during the 1990s put the latest population at 1,443.

Ruidoso's population was pegged at 7,698, a 67.3-percent boost from the 1990 Census.

Mayor Robert Donaldson said he believed the village's population of permanent residents was higher than the census numbers claimed. He said the growth has been evident, however.

So did the Lincoln County manager.

"I think that it's no great surprise," said Tom Stewart, Lincoln County manager. "We've known all along that the growth was there."

He said the numbers show what's been said — that the Ruidoso-to-Capitan corridor is seeing more development.

"We'll have to look at planning," Stewart said. "I think that with growth comes an increased demand for services of all types. Increased fire departments. Increased demand for all services."

The county manager said Lincoln County will also have to look at what increased revenues result from more people. He said additional revenues to the county would be needed to make county services more accessible to residents.

Not all Lincoln County municipalities registered more residents. The village of Corona realized a 23.3-percent decline in population. The 2000 Census put the number at 165.

Lincoln County overall had a 58.9-percent increase in population, with the new number at 19,411 residents. Neighboring Otero County's 20.4-percent population increase during the 1990s placed the Alamogordo-seated county ahead of Chaves County. Otero County's population was 62,298, an increase of 10,370.

Chaves County was 61,382, or 3,533 more residents, a 6.1-percent advance from 1990.

Road to close for repaving

Sierra Blanca Drive work set for Friday, Saturday

Stay clear of Sierra Blanca Drive (the road to the Links golf course and Ruidoso Convention Center) Friday and Saturday.

The village of Ruidoso is scheduled to repave the roadway and the parking lots for the convention center, golf course and new hotel.

"Those going to the post office will have to use the entrance off Mechem Drive," said Alan Briley, village manager. "Sierra Blanca Drive will be closed."

While no convention is booked during the repaving work, those needing access to the convention center or the Links at Sierra Blanca can use the overflow parking lot that is accessible from Hull Road. Briley said shuttle service will connect the parking lot with the convention center and golf course.

The two-day closure of the drive will include the portion of the golf course-circling walking path at Sierra Blanca Drive.

Briley said flyers reminding motorists of the street repaving project are also posted at the Mechem Drive Post Office.

MUSEUM: $15 million expansion planned with federal boost

Museum director Bruce Eldredge offered a broad-brush look at expansion plans Tuesday, but said it's too early for specifics.

"We have a major expansion project in the planning stages," he said.

"It will about double size of the museum and create approximately 30,000 square feet of additional exhibition space, will heighten the visibility of the museum and will allow us to do a total reinstallation of our collections around the theme of the American West.

"Plans are in the drawing stages to do this. The $4.5 million requested is only a portion of what it will take to do this project. We're anticipating raising an additional $10 million on top of that. So we're looking at a total project in the $15 million range."

The board hopes to be able to announce formal plans for the expansion this summer, he said.

"A lot will be contingent upon whether we are successful on the federal level," Eldredge said.

"We believe tourism in our area will do nothing but increase," he said. "We are trying now in our existing facility, which is about 55,000 square feet, to serve a large number of visitors. We have terrible exhibition constraints because we're basically out of space.

"To meet needs for what we have now, we need more space, let alone to meet needs as we see them in the future in terms of exhibitions for this museum."

The board wants to create major art exhibition space as well as history exhibition space, he said.

"I think the caliber of exhibitions we've had over the last four or five years – in terms of the Taos Society of Artists exhibition last year, our cowboy boot show the year before and our firearm exhibition this year – we just don't have the space to continue to do those sort of things adequately and still fulfill our role as center used for activities and events," Eldredge said.

The museum was opened in 1992 and was founded by R.D. and Joan Dale Hubbard.

High school celebrates cultures

BY SANDY SUGGITT
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

Ruidoso High School celebrates its second annual Multicultural Day today, with a talent show to pick the Indian Club princess, Ruidoso Fiesta Dancers, the dedication of a peace pole, booths, food and afternoon workshops.

The public is invited to the dedication at 11:50 a.m. of the peace pole by next year's Student Council president, Joshua Romero, in Memorial Park (in front of the high school), and to have lunch at the barbecue sponsored by Students Against Drunk Driving.

The 6-foot redwood peace pole, donated by the local Sierra Dove Project, was made by Rudy Bischof from Alamogordo. The words "Universal Peace For All" are on three sides of the pole, in English, Apache and Spanish.

The afternoon workshops are in Native American painting, sculpture, basket weaving, silversmithing and storytelling.

In the morning, the Student Council will honor outstanding students from each class "who've done an excellent job this year," said Megan Lamb, Student Council secretary. Following that will be an assembly to present academic awards and ice breakers/stretch time.

Stewardship week starts

This year's national observance of Soil and Water Stewardship Week focuses on the personal responsibility of each citizen to be a good steward of land, water, wildlife and other natural resources that enhance the quality of life.

The Upper Hondo and Carrizozo Soil and Water Conservation Districts will celebrate the special week, through Friday, by trying to increase community awareness of the need to care for natural resources.

The district will distribute educational information for teachers and students in schools in Lincoln County, as well as guides and bulletin inserts to churches.

Noxious weed infestation gets state and local attention

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

People fighting the spread of noxious weeds have two chances this month to learn more about the battle.

The 2001 Noxious Weed Summit, sponsored by the New Mexico Department of Agriculture, started Tuesday and winds down today at the Garcia Opera House in Socorro.

A Vegetation Management Workshop put together by the Lincoln County Weed Management Area Committee is planned for May 11 at the Ruidoso Convention Center.

The Socorro summit is to evaluate implementation of a plan to manage noxious weed problems in the state.

"Noxious weeds continue to spread ... at an alarming rate," said Secretary of Agriculture Frank A. DuBois. "It is imperative that we manage them before they have negative impacts on the environment and economy."

The session is open to the public. Dan Dagget, author of "Beyond the Rangelands Conflict," spoke Tuesday, but many other subjects are on the agenda for today.

Subjects to be covered, starting at 8:30 a.m., include increasing county ownership of weed programs, overcoming funding problems, statewide inventorying and mapping, invasive ornamentals, aquatic weed problems, preventing the spread of noxious weeds and, at 11:45 a.m., a group discussion on priorities for 2001.

Noxious weeds reduce plant diversity, increase soil erosion, degrade wildlife habitat and are a costly burden to the agricultural industry, said Frannie Decker, weed specialist in the NMDA Agricultural Programs and Resources Division.

For example, the yellow star thistle now infests more than 20 million acres in California and about 500 acres in New Mexico, Decker said.

During the session at 8:30 a.m.. May 11, in Ruidoso, Richard Lee will be the main speaker. Each presentation will not exceed one hour, to allow time for a question-and- answer session at the end.

The workshop will cover invasive/noxious weed identification, integrated management tools in controlling vegetation, economics of land restoration, management objectives in reducing undesirable events post-recovery, effective vegetation introduction, land appraisal and vegetation values, spread reduction and soil erosion/water penetration problems after removal.

The Garcia Opera House in Socorro is located on the corner of California and Abeyta, one block north of Manzanares.

Tribe receives housing grant

The Mescalero Apache Housing Authority will receive a $2.1 million grant from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for community housing improvements.

In announcing the award, U.S. Sen. Jeff Bingaman said, "Access to safe, afforable housing is a basic quality of life issue. This grant will allow the Mescalero Apache Housing Authority to meet many of its needs."

Hubbard water hearing moved to Roswell

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

Eye surgery on the hearing officer handling a contested application to transfer water rights for a new area golf course prompted a meeting site change from Ruidoso to Roswell.

Eileen Serna, director of the hearings division for the State Engineer's Office in Santa Fe, said Fred Allen's medical condition prohibits him from going to an elevation of 7,000 feet above sea level. Serna said Monday Allen wants the meeting in Roswell instead of waiting several months to fully heal.

Arrangements already are in place, she said. The hearing is set for 9 a.m. May 24 in the State Engineer's office, 1900 West 2nd Street.

Some protesters of the proposed transfer of water rights from the Hondo area to a golf course being developed by R.D. Hubbard near the Rio Bonito between State Highway 48 and Sierra Blanca Airport Road have sent letters complaining about the change.

Lynda Sanchez said while she and her husband are sympathetic to Allen's medical situation, the hearing should take place in the county potentially affected by any action.

She offered two alternatives: Delay the hearing until Allen is fully recovered, or move the hearing to Carrizozo, which is within the allowed elevation range and about a half-hour drive for most of those affected.

The Gonzales family would like to thank everyone for their kindness and generosity during our time of grief when we lost our son Richard. God Bless All Of You.

OUR OPINION

Commissioners man the ramparts

Change and a world of contradictions

Don't be surprised if Lincoln County's elected commissioners order construction of a stone wall around the county courthouse — one with a very high wall and loopholes for sniping at invaders from "urban" parts of the county.

That seems to be the commissioners' mindset as they stave off remarks from their appointed planning commission, and even their own lawyer. Chairman Rex Wilson seemed to reflect the commission's attitude as he talked about the Billy the Kid Scenic Byway last week — where, he said, property owners probably weren't involved in its designation, but now could see the unfettered use of their property threatened.

Perhaps it was innate fiscal conservatism that made him conclude that it wasn't a good idea to create a new layer of bureaucracy to regulate "such a small part of the population" in those urban pockets.

The issue, the commissioners seem to think, is that any effort to regulate blight along major traffic arteries would inevitably lead to zoning. And zoning, it appears, is a six-letter word as evil as rapine and murder in the farm-and-ranch-oriented world of the county commission majority.

It's no big surprise that the commission does not look kindly on growth of any kind; growth undermines a long Lincoln County tradition of good ol' boys and a kind of status quo in which those who have the political power keep the political power. If your granddad wasn't born in Lincoln County, you don't count.

Nothing new about that, of course. It was the classic confrontation as the wild West was tamed and the rule of law replaced the rule of the gun. And Lincoln County isn't that far removed from the frontier.

But the cold facts that the commissioners must face are these:

Lincoln County is growing. Those "urban pockets" are spreading like cancer into the countryside. And, like cancer, there is no cure.

The best thing the commissioners could do, in our view, is to recognize the rights of a minority that could soon be an electoral majority.

AGRICULTURAL OUTLOOK

Endangered species: farmers

BY ERIN MCGINN
AMERICAN FARM BUREAU

An editorial cartoon in the Klamath Falls (Ore.) Herald and News says it all: An upright, gun-toting fish tells a fellow "hunter"-fish that it's OK to go after crops, but he should watch out for farmers because "they're an endangered species."

Unfortunately, that's all too true this spring for farmers along the California-Oregon border who rely on water from the Klamath Basin Project to irrigate their crops. In early April, the Interior Department's Bureau of Reclamation decided to cut off the farmers' water supply to protect endangered sucker fish and Coho salmon. The region wide drought and the dictates of the Endangered Species Act forced the move, the government contends.

Under the new rule, growers will have access to 10 percent of the water in the basin, leaving 90 percent for the fish.

The decision will result in $300 million to $400 million in economic losses to farmers and the agriculture-based communities they support, according to the Siskiyou County (California) Farm Bureau. Fire departments, schools, community organizations and county and city governments will see significant revenue losses.

Ironically, the environment also will be hurt. Thousands of species, such as ducks, geese, pheasants, deer and quail will be denied food, water and shelter. Topsoil will erode. More than 180 miles of canal ecosystems and 516 miles of drainage canal ecosystems will be destroyed.

But the growers who work the 1,400 farms located in the Klamath Basin haven't been just sitting back and watching their livelihoods get sucked down a drain by the federal bureaucracy. Endangered Species Act-driven competition for water in the region has been going on for several years. Until now, compromises between various users and the government headed off any drastic measures. Farmers knew they had to be part of the solution and they acted accordingly. They devised plans to restore wetlands in wildlife refuges, reduced pesticide use to protect wildlife and worked diligently to find a solution for all of the basin's water users — but not in time to prevent the federal government from acting precipitously.

The dispute now moves to the courtroom, with possible injunctions and mediation on the horizon. Senators and congressmen from two states have visited the area and promised some sort of relief package. None are saying the farmers will actually farm this year.

As a result, farmers and community members will again urge the federal government to reconsider decisions that put creatures before the livelihood of farmers, ranchers and the communities they have built.

On May 7, more than 10,000 people will pass 50 buckets of water along the five miles between the Link River and the closed-off irrigation canal. The 50 buckets will represent the vulnerability of farmers in every state until the Endangered Species Act is amended to allow balance for all users of land and water.

Until that happens, sympathy and promises from politicians will remain nothing more than a drop in a bucket.

I would like to take time to remind people about the generous and giving community in which we live. The month of April has been a busy time for some of us trying to wind down the end of the school year. During this month, Region IX has been conducting developmental screenings along with Kindergarten Registration in preparation for the fall.

We screened over 400 children in Ruidoso and surrounding districts. The success of the screenings is only made possible by the support of local organizations, businesses, school staff, and community, professional, parent, and student volunteers.

I would like to thank all of those who helped, including the Ruidoso News, radio stations KWES, KBUY, KIDX, and KRUI, Wal-Mart, Ruidoso Noon Lions, Alamogordo Lions Club, Altrusa Club, Lincoln County Literacy Council, Lincoln County Public Health, Patty Frey, Joan Zagone, Liz Hofacket, dentists Randy Barron, Dylan Midkiff, and Dale Goad, audiologists Yuki Ybara and Dave Yegerlehner.

I would also like to thank all the wonderful schools that we work with, their staff of principals, secretaries, teachers, student volunteers, nurses, custodians, food service, and speech, physical, and occupational therapists.

This truly would not be possible without the children, so most of all I would like to thank the parents. We had a great attendance at all of our screenings.

All these volunteers come together to serve children and to give them a head start in their education. It is a pleasure to work with so many outstanding people and live in a community such as ours.

Defending the rest

To the editor:

Recently, Ruidoso village council person Linda Flack reportedly said something to the effect that nobody came to Lincoln County for anything but Ruidoso, certainly not Corona, Capitan, or Carrizozo. Now I don't know if she truly meant that or if she said it in the midst of a heated discussion or she was misquoted. However, it was noted in the paper, and it seems a rebuttal is in order.

In 1980 I moved to Carrizozo to take a job and lived there until 1984. In 1992, my family and I returned to Lincoln County, choosing Capitan to live in and for my son to finish school in the good Capitan school system. I consider Capitan home. There is a small friendly bank, a U. S. Post Office, a great grocery store, warm and inviting churches, a hardware store and several cafes, a wonderful all-volunteer library and, of course, the Shell and Taco Bell. Besides, neat events happen a the county fairgrounds often during the year and the Art Loop has several of its artists living here. My mechanic lives here. I can buy tires or car parts or wedding presents here and my doctor is here. Heck, I can even buy coffee beans here.

And, frankly, I have begun avoiding going to Ruidoso as I have begun feeling more disenfranchisement there since I don't have the type of money to spend that the village mayor and his council persons seem to be courting at every turn. While I agree Ruidoso may have things to offer visitors, I absolutely disagree with anyone believing Ruidoso is the only reason anyone would ever come here. Maybe the village council needs a little road trip.

AMERICAN LIFESTYLE

Making youth suicide a handy option

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. – Parents do a reasonably good job of making their homes safe for children with one major exception, new University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill research indicates. As a group, they don't lock guns away where kids can't get at them.

"As part of a larger study, we conducted a baseline survey to look at injury-prevention practices among 286 parents who visited a hospital emergency room," said Dr. Tamera Coyne-Beasley, assistant professor of community pediatrics and internal medicine at the UNC-CH School of Medicine. "These practices included having their children wear seat belts in cars and helmets on bicycles, maintaining functioning smoke detectors and fire extinguishers at home and keeping electrical outlets covered and water heaters not turned up too hot."

Coyne-Beasley and UNC School of Public Health graduate students Kara McGee and Renee M. Johnson, limited their current analysis to the 94 people who owned guns and also had children under age 7. Among the findings was that 36 percent of people reporting gun ownership and younger children in the home admitted to keeping their firearms loaded. Forty-five percent didn't store their guns locked, and 57 percent failed to store them in a locked compartment.

By comparison, 99 percent had a smoke alarm, 72 percent capped electrical outlets and 72 percent kept poisonous substances out of children's reach.

"This surprised me because when I designed the study, I hypothesized that people who exercised good general safety habits would also probably have good firearm safety habits as well," the physician said.

McGee, a research assistant and injury prevention counselor for the study, was scheduled to present the findings Monday at a meeting of the Ambulatory Pediatric Association at the Baltimore Convention Center.

Accidents aren't the only reason to keep children safe from guns, Coyne-Beasley said. Nationally, among young people ages 10 to 18, about 55 percent of gun deaths in 1998 were homicides, and 39 percent were suicides.

"In North Carolina, the majority of gun deaths among these youngsters are actually suicides," she said. "This has important implications for parents because most teens that age who commit suicide do it with a gun they find in the home. If it is difficult to get hold of a firearm because it is locked up, unloaded and the ammunition locked and stored separately, they will have a cooling off period before they can hurt themselves. Safe storage of firearms may be particularly important in North Carolina to prevent youth suicides."

Overall, in North Carolina in 1998, 39 percent of firearm deaths were homicides, according to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. By contrast, 48 percent of the deaths were suicides while 13 percent were preventable accidents.

CHIPPING AWAY TO CLEAN UP YARDS

Ruidoso Downs wasted no time in helping residents dispose of yard waste with the help of a new wood chipper. On Monday, village employees Frankie Gonzales, left, and Benny Sanchez were grinding away at tree limbs recently pruned from a Colorado Lane lot.

JAMES KALVELAGE/STAFF

Yard waste pick-up program launched in Downs

The Ruidoso Downs village council last week prepared guidelines for a community cleanup and fire-control initiative.

In conjunction with the move, the council authorized purchase of a wood chipper for $21,640.

The following are the guidelines for the pick-up of yard waste in Ruidoso Downs.

• Residents must call village hall to make arrangements before placing items out for pick-up.

Village employees will designate the area where items should be placed at the roadside. Village employees will not enter private property to make a pick-up.

• Only tree limbs, grass clippings and pine needles will be collected. Other items can be taken to Lincoln County Solid Waste (corner of Second Avenue and Entrance Road), Monday through Friday, or another designated area, one time per year only on an announced community cleanup day.

• Village pick-up is limited to residential yard waste only.

• The maximum size of tree limbs that will be collected is 6 inches. All limbs must be turned in the same direction, stacked neatly, with cut ends facing out. Grass clippings and pine needles should not be in bags.

Village hall's phone number is 378-4422.

Lincoln's water system needs help, but from who?

Legal limitations block support from county

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

Everyone agreed that improvements are needed in the Lincoln Mutual Domestic Water Consumers Association system, but when Lincoln County Commissioners started talking about using public money, the tone changed.

"I live in the Cedar Creek area," said Maury St. John. "Why should we pay an assessment for improvements to our well because we planned better, and you give them $20,000?"

Chairman Rex Wilson and Commissioner William Schwettmann agreed that St. John raised a good point.

"I suggest you start talking about raising rates and pledging the revenue to paying off the debt (for the improvements)," Wilson said during the meeting last month.

County Attorney Alan Morel also expressed misgivings when commissioners started to talk about kicking in $20,000 for the project.

Morel said Tuesday, "the water association is a separate nonprofit entity for which we have no responsibility. We can't give public money to the Boy Scouts either and they do good things. The county can't loan or give away public money."

If the association obtains an emergency loan or grant from another agency because of the health threat to the community of Lincoln, the county could act as its fiscal agent in the disbursement of the money, he said.

Cynthia Rex with the state finance authority, who apparently advised the association that the county could provide some money, could not be reached for comment.

At the commission meeting in March, the board awarded the contract for improvements to the Lincoln system to Jack Johnson Excavating, but limited money was an issue.

County Manager Tom Stewart was directed to work with association member Ralph Dunlap to find an affordable alternative and to look for other avenues of funding.

They came up with the possibilities of loans from the New Mexico Finance Authority or the Rural Infrastructure Program.

Stewart recommended at the April commission meeting that during a special session of the state Legislature in September, the county request a reappropriation of $40,000 left over from a sprinkler system project at New Horizons Center for the Developmentally Disabled in Carrizozo. That building is county-owned.

FUNERALS DEATHS

Manuel Miller Jr.

A memorial service for Manuel Miller Jr., 73, of Capitan will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 4 at the Christ Community Church in Capitan with the Rev. Al Lane officiating. Burial will follow at the Capitan Cemetery.

Mr. Miller died Sunday, April 29, 2001 in Ruidoso.

He was born Oct. 22, 1927 at Fort Stanton.

He lived in Lincoln County all of his life, was a retired employee of the village of Capitan and a member of Christ Church in Ruidoso Downs.

He married Lore Trujillo on Sept. 9, 1960 in Carrizozo.

Survivors include his wife, Lore, of Capitan; a daughter, Liz Montoya and her husband, Joseph, of Capitan; a grandson, Gerald Montoya; and a granddaughter, Emilia Montoya.

The family requests memorials to the American Diabetes Association.

Arrangements are under the direction of LaGrone Funeral Chapel of Ruidoso.

Frederick Besancon

Services for Frederick Joseph Besancon (Freddie Joe), 50, were held in Otis, Mass. on April 21.

Mr. Besancon died Monday, April 9, 2001.

He was born March 1, 1951.

Survivors include his wife, Patience Besancon of Ruidoso; a son, Justin Besancon; his parents Fred and Marie Besancon of Otis; a sister, Annmarie Besancon, also of Otis; and a niece, Chris Christinat from Great Barrington, Mass.

Milton W. Dean

A memorial service for "Buddy" Milton Ward Dean, 65, of Alamogordo, will be at 6 p.m. Friday, May 4 at Trinity Lutheran Church, 1505 College Avenue, Alamogordo, with the Rev. David R. Bergman officiating.

Mr. Dean died Thursday, April 26, 2001 in Alamogordo.

He was born April 3, 1936 in Minneapolis, Minn.

He was raised in Houston, Texas and moved to Alamogordo in 1980 and then to Ruidoso in 1985.

He worked as a wrecker driver in Houston for many years. After moving to New Mexico, he worked for Animal Control in Ruidoso, as a driver for Synergy Gas Company, a delivery driver for Pizza Hut in Ruidoso and as a sales clerk for Allsup's in Ruidoso.

He was an avid fisherman and bowler and enjoyed doing needlework during his last few years.

Survivors include a sister, Darlene Guinn and her partner in life, Joe Starkey; nephews Jason Gonzales and his wife, Sylvia, of Alamogordo, Jeff Gonzales and his wife, Luz, of Port Angeles, Wash., Troy Dean and his wife, Sandy, and Craig Cohen and his wife, Mindy, of League City, Texas; a niece, Kelly Weaver and her husband, Larry, of League City; great-nieces Brittni Gonzales of Alamogordo, Ashley Gonzales of Port Angeles, Nicole Dean, Kirsten and Hayley Cohen and Ashley Weaver, all of League City; great-nephews Joshua Gonzales of Port Angeles and Travis Weaver of League City; cousins Linda Walerius and her husband, John, of Gilbert, Ariz., Perry Springstead and his wife, Suzi, of Red Lodge, Mont., Bill Springstead of Durango, Colo., and Debbie Ford and her husband, Bill, of Prescott, Ariz.

He was preceded in death by his mother and father, Della and Russell Galloway; a brother, Charles H. "Sonny" Dean; and sisters Pauletta and Diana Marie. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions to the American Diabetes Association.

Flora Sanchez

Funeral Mass for Flora Sanchez, 64, of Ruidoso was Tuesday at St. Eleanor's Catholic Church, with burial at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Sanchez died Saturday, April 28, 2001 in Ruidoso.

She was born April 30, 1936 in San Patricio to Elisa and Manuel Herrera.

She had lived in Lincoln County all her life, was a homemaker and a member of St. Eleanor's Catholic Church.

Sanchez

She married Larry Sanchez on May 4, 1952 in San Patricio.

Survivors include her husband, Porfirio Sanchez; children Lawrence Sanchez and his wife, Tarla, Gary Sanchez, Irene (Cookie) Flack and her husband, Kyle; grandchildren Jake and Cody Sanchez, Adrianna, Chaveli and Yovanna Sanchez and Brendan and Ryann Flack; a sister-in-law, Bea Herrera; brothers Benito Herrera and his wife, Josie, Luis Herrera, Manuel Herrera and his wife, Sharon, Leo Herrera and his wife, Emma, Pasqual Herrera and his wife, Laura, Juan Herrera and Billy Joe Herrera; sisters Helena Herrera, Lucy Sanchez and her husband, Robert, Josephine Booky and her husband, Bobby.

She was preceded in death by her parents Manuel and Elisa Herrera; brothers Ben Herrera and Leopoldo Herrera; and a great-grandchild, Mario Sanchez.

Old jail at county courthouse formally closed by commission

Lacking money for renovations, officials decided to use the space for storage

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

The old jail in the Lincoln County Courthouse complex in Carrizozo was officially closed by the county commission last month.

Commissioners approved a resolution formally closing the old jail because no money was received from the state Legislature for renovation of the area. Instead, the space will be used for storage and administration.

County Manager Tom Stewart reported that the new jail at the Carrizozo Industrial Park came in $130,000 under budget and the money will be put toward fulfilling a required $281,833 reserve. Once the reserve is met, money collected from a gross receipts tax designated for the jail can be used to offset operational expenses, he said.

He has advertised for bids for a water softener system for the new 100-plus bed jail to prevent corrosion of pipes that has occurred at the courthouse, Stewart said.

Seven county prisoners housed at other jails are back at the new detention center, he said. The quicker the rest are moved back to the county, the less the county has to pay for their daily care. The local cost is half to a third the charge at out-of-county jails.

In other business, the commission:

• On a motion by Commissioner William Schwettmann, appointed Carl Kelly to the County-Ruidoso Extraterritorial Zoning Commission; Doug Conley to the County-Ruidoso Downs Extraterritorial Zoning Commission; Ruth Birdsong to the County Lodgers Tax Committee; Maury St. John as the at-large member of the County Planning Commission and Commissioner William Schwettmann as the county representative on the New Mexico Association of Counties.

• Announced a special meeting at 9 a.m., May 10 for a preliminary budget review, 2001-2002.

• Approved the use of $1,500 in lodgers tax to advertise the 4th Annual Mountain of Blues event June 16, requested by Cheryl Blancard; $4,200 for four-minute spots on KRUI running from April through October requested by Tim Keithley; $2,000 requested by Ron Andrews for the 32nd Golden Aspen Rally, Sept. 19-23, and the AspenCash event May 16-19; and $500 requested by Bob Edwards on behalf of the Roswell Runners Club to advertise the "Run the Mesa" 10k and 5K race June 16.

• Postponed a decision until next month whether to advertise for bids for redistricting services.

• Committed $82,240 in addition to an estimated carryover of $624,629 from a special property tax designated for county health clinics to expand the Carrizozo Health Clinic in conjunction with $196,750 allocated by the federal government through the efforts of U.S. Sen. Pete Domenici, R-NM. Stewart recommended that federal money be used for actual construction. Commissioners also went along with Stewart's recommendation on the expansion of the county substation and health clinic in Ruidoso, using $491,880 in federal funding.

White sands open for evening cyclists Fridays, Saturdays

Bicyclists can enjoy rising through the dunes of White Sands National Monument on Friday and Saturday evenings.

After all vehicles have exited the park on U.S. 70 south of Alamogordo, it will be open for the cyclists to ride under the light of the nearly full moon. Advance registration is required.

Bicyclists may park their cars at the visitors center and enter Dunes Drive between 9 p.m. and 10 p.m. They must return to the center by midnight. No motorized vehicles or pedestrians may enter Dune Drive during this time.

All bicyclists must wear helmets and have lights on their bikes. Children 16 and under must be accompanied by an adult.

A $5 per person, 17 and older, special user fee will be charged to enter the park. Children and holders of Golden Age and Golden Access cards will be charged $2.50.

Annual park entrance permits are not valid for the special event. To register, call (505) 479-6124 or (505) 679-2599, ext. 11.

Village announces street-work priorities for year

■ The Ruidoso village council has approved reconstruction and maintenance plans for streets in 11 areas.

BY JAMES KALVELAGE
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

Streets in 11 areas of Ruidoso are scheduled for improvement during the coming fiscal year.

Reconstruction and maintenance plans were approved last week by village councilors.

"We've gone through the village and rated all our gravel streets and paved streets," J.R. Baumann, street department director told councilors. "We look at things like traffic counts, residency, part-time residency, as well as the deterioration of a roadway."

Baumann said a five-year streets program looks at the unique characteristics of different areas of the village.

"Like Camelot," Baumann said. "There are a lot of roads but not a lot of residents. And the Upper Canyon. There are a lot of summer homes."

The 2002 approved projects are listed in a five-year plan that Baumann said is modified as things change.

Village Manager Alan Briley, who lifted a stack of letters for village councilors to see, said the letters were largely from property owners in the Innsbrook Village area who wanted street improvements.

"I looked at that area," Baumann said. "The roads are not brand new, they're not perfect, but they are in a lot better condition that others in the village. To do an overlay in that area would be extremely expensive because of the curbs and gutters."

> "I want to get cooperation with all utilities."
> J.R. Baumann
> street department

Baumann did say several Innsbrook Village locations that did not get an overlay years ago will be fixed, along with some sunken areas.

Baumann also said two Innsbrook Village streets, impacted by Mechem Drive construction, may also receive attention.

"I'm talking with Meadow Valley (Contractors Inc., who reconstructed Mechem Drive) to get them to do Cortina and Geneva, to slurry seal them perhaps this summer," Baumann said. "Something will definitely be done before I let them out of town."

Pavement cuts, especially as fiber optic cable is buried by a contractor and replacement water lines are installed around the community, has added to the street problems, said Councilor Bob Sterchi.

"Basically CCI (fiber optic cable contractor) has shredded the streets," Sterchi said.

Baumann said he is pushing to have road cuts, at locations where the village is replacing water lines, coordinated with other utilities to avoid multiple cuts.

"Once a street is cut one time it reduces the street's life by 25 percent," Baumann said. "Two cuts and its 50 percent. I want to get cooperation with all utilities."

Mayor Robert Donaldson said improvements in a growing community will cause conflicts.

The village street department director said ongoing maintenance will continue. He encouraged residents to call the street department when they encounter a pot hole.

"We're getting three calls a day on pot holes," the street director said. "That's great. We're addressing pot holes right away. Let get (the calls) up to six or seven a day."

Bee workshop 1 p.m. today at fairgrounds

NMSU entomologist to speak

A workshop on Africanized honeybees sponsored by the Lincoln County Family Community Educators is set for 1 p.m. today at the county fairgrounds in Capitan.

Carol Sutherland, extension entomologist at New Mexico State University and an authority on Africanized bees in New Mexico, will speak about the origins and migratory history of the bees and the threat they pose to domestic bee colonies and to livestock, pets and people.

The aggressive bees swarmed a Carlsbad woman last year, resulting in her death.

For more information, call the county extension office at (505) 648-2311.

Anyone with a disability who would like to attend the meeting but needs an auxiliary aid or service to participate, should call ahead.

Weight Loss Puzzles Doctors

ATLANTA, GA — Doctors were surprised when two separate studies found that a natural dietary supplement could help cause significant weight loss.

Although not conclusive, both studies found that patients receiving the formula called Bio-Rex 3000®, lost more than twice as much weight as those in a control group on the same fat reduced diet. Neither group was instructed to decrease the amount of food they ate or to increase their exercise levels. An article published in the American Journal of Clinical Nutrition says that you don't have to decrease the amount of food you eat to lose weight, provided that you limit the fat.

According to a spokesperson for Phillips Gulf Corporation, the exclusive North American distributor of Bio-Rex 3000, the company is considering additional studies in order to get federal approval to make pharmaceutical claims. Currently, weight loss claims for the Bio-Rex 3000 supplement are limited. However, with the requisite approval, the company could say that Bio-Rex 3000 decreases sugar cravings, increases metabolism and interferes with the body's ability to produce excess fat.

Bio-Rex 3000 is currently available as a dietary supplement and plan in pharmacies and nutrition stores or by calling 1-800-729-8446. A four week supply is just $19.99.

RUIDOSO POLICE

Student charged with felony assault

A 16-year-old Ruidoso High School student was charged with felony aggravated assault on a school employee following an April 27 incident in the parking lot of the high school.

The youth allegedly threatened to run over a security guard. The security guard had gone to investigate a car that has entered an area where school busses park to pick up students. After asking the driver to stop about 11:10 a.m., the 16-year-old allegedly made the threat.

Unsuccessful 'ride'

Ruidoso police arrested a man an officer said he saw jump the fence at the McGary Studios Expressions in Bronze. After jumping the fence just before midnight April 27, the man reportedly opened a door at the business and entered, triggering an alarm.

The man turned and made a dash for a gate when an officer told him to stop.

Francisco Jaure III, 27, Carlsbad, was charged with felony commercial burglary and misdemeanor criminal trespass. Jaure told police he had gone inside the building to obtain a ride, a police report stated.

Postal box vandalized

A residential mail box, at a home in the 100 block of Upper Terrace Drive was reported vandalized between 10 p.m. April 26 and 8 a.m. April 27.

The misdemeanor criminal damage to property incident was reported to police April 27. The value of the mail box was listed at $50, according to a police report.

Misdemeanor battery

A 17-year-old Ruidoso woman was charged April 28 with misdemeanor battery on a household member. Ruidoso police were called to a home in the 100 block of Robin Road about 5:45 p.m. Officers found the woman with her hand covered in what appeared to be blood. Police determined the woman and a man had been fighting. The woman's bloody hands were the result of punching through a rear window of a vehicle.

Property damaged

A Roswell man was cited April 29 with misdemeanor criminal damage to property after admitting he had "slapped" a passenger side mirror on an auto. The mirror was discovered dangling from a vehicle in the 2500 block of Sudderth Drive about 1:45 a.m.

A man who had left a business told officers he had heard an noise and saw the broken mirror. He provided police with a description of another man who had just walked past the damaged mirror. Stephen Cathey, 32, was issued a citation for the damage.

Carved bears stolen

The theft of two carved wood bears was reported to police over the weekend. The larceny case happened in the 2700 block of Sudderth Drive. A 4-foot-tall and a 2-foot-tall bear were reportedly taken from a porch. The value was listed at $100 and $75.

Student charged

Ruidoso police have charged a woman, who allegedly spat on two police officers, with two counts of felony battery on a police officer and a count of misdemeanor shoplifting.

Lilly Hunter, 55, Mescalero, was arrested April 25 at 6:40 p.m. after police were called to the Walgreen's drug store on Sudderth Drive. Police found Hunter intoxicated in front of the Family Dollar store. An unpaid-for can of sardines fell from the woman's pocket, prompting her arrest, according to a police report. Hunter allegedly then spat on the officers.

Ruidoso rallies into regionals over Rams

BY WES SCHWENGELS
RUIDOSO NEWS SPORTS EDITOR

The comeback is complete. The Ruidoso High School Softball team, despite being just one game from elimination since March 21, had all the chips fall into place as they earned a spot in the regional playoffs Saturday with a 9-6 victory over district rival Portales.

RUIDOSO SOFTBALL

When the Lady Warriors were swept by District 4AAA champion Lovington March 21, they were forced to win four straight games to even have a chance at the postseason. They did that by winning four in three days over Santa Teresa. The Warriors also needed Portales to lose three straight to Lovington. That also happened. As a result, Ruidoso played the Rams Saturday in Roswell in a one-game playoff for the right to go to regionals.

Warrior head coach Brian Baca credited his team's success to several factors.

"The biggest improvement I've seen over the last five games was our defense," Baca said. "We just continue to do the same things; it's starting to show in our performance. We're contacting the ball, putting it in play. And we're believing in ourselves more, getting more confidence."

"We're believing in ourselves more, getting more confidence."

Brian Baca, RHS head softball coach

The Lady Warriors took Portales out Saturday, thanks to consistent hitting from Lynda Celusniak and strong pitching from Crystal Gheer. Celusniak went 4-for-4 and was a homerun away from hitting for the cycle. She had two singles, a double and a triple, while knocking in three runs. Gheer struck out six and helped herself with two hits.

Perhaps the biggest story of the game for Ruidoso was the defense. The Warriors had just two errors after struggling much of the year with defensive and mental mistakes.

"We played a smart defensive game," Baca said.

The Lady Warriors also hit the ball well, another area that had been lacking in the latter part of the season. Ruidoso did not have a batter strike out.

The game was symbolic of the Warriors' season in some ways. Ruidoso trailed 5-3 in the fifth inning, but scored six late runs to assure themselves the victory over the Rams. This after a weeklong comeback that saw Ruidoso move from 3.5 games out of second place into a tie with Portales.

By winning the playoff,

Golf teams defeat rest of district

BY WES SCHWENGELS
RUIDOSO NEWS SPORTS EDITOR

The Ruidoso High School Lady Warrior golfers are off to State, thanks to their first sub-400 round of the year and victory at the District 2A-AAA Tournament in Socorro Monday.

The boys also won district, but after qualifying for a state leg at every tournament they played in this year, district was almost a formality for them. It was a different story for the girls, however.

RUIDOSO GOLF

Only one Lady Warrior, LeeAnne Henson, had a spot locked up in the state tournament heading into Monday. But their most solid team effort of the year gave the Ruidoso girls a 25-stroke victory over second-place Cloudcroft.

"I think we're reaching a point where we're playing pretty well," said Warrior girls coach Les Carter. "We had a good team effort from everybody. We just tried to enjoy ourselves and play a good round."

Henson once again led the way for Ruidoso with a round of 85. Landree Siddens and Courtney Gibson each shot a 99. Kelly Rigsby had a 116, followed by Aimee Powers' 117. The same five girls will travel to Isleta Lakes Golf Course in Albuquerque for the State Tournament, Monday and Tuesday.

Carter said he was proud of the effort put forth by the Lady Warriors. The girls did not go to state last year and haven't won district for a number of seasons.

"We knew we had a shot," Carter said. "We just kept working at it and it came together today."

The boys, meanwhile, continued their dominance of District 2A-AAA, finishing 39 strokes ahead of their closest competitor, Cloudcroft. The Warrior JV team actually shot well enough to finish third, just six strokes behind them. The varsity shot a 322 Monday and had the top four individual finishers.

Junior Colton English won the individual title by shooting a 77, and sophomore Ryan Shaver was close behind with a 79. Chris Duncan followed them with an 81, Todd Schrader had an 85 and Jared Leadingham shot a 90. Those five boys will represent Ruidoso in Albuquerque.

All that's left now for the Warriors is a chance to win their third straight Class A-

Lady Tigers hold form

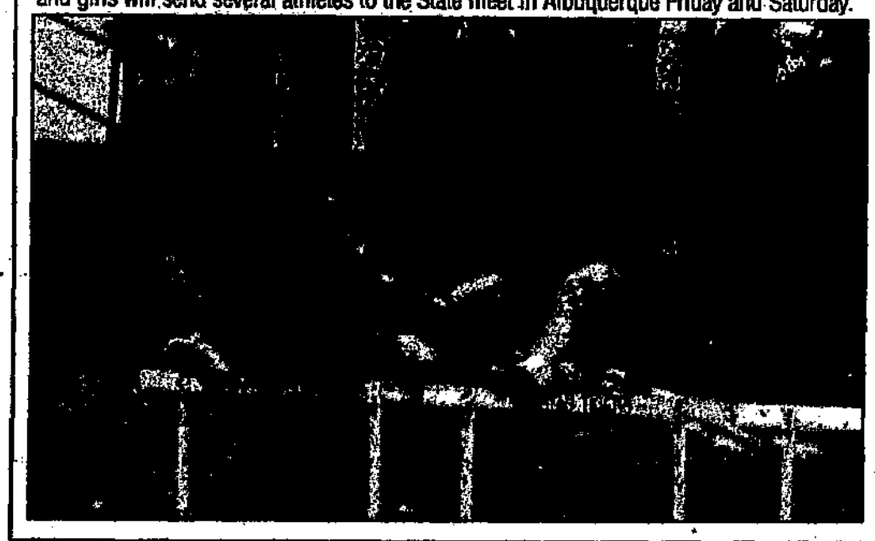
Two Lady Tigers (above) make a safe relay exchange Saturday in Capitan. The girls won the District 5AA meet over rivals Tularosa and Lordsburg. Below, a pair of Tiger boys clear their hurdles. The boys finished second as a team behind Lordsburg. Both the boys and girls will send several athletes to the State meet in Albuquerque Friday and Saturday.



Capitan's girls track coach, Zale Woodward, did some preliminary calculations before the District 5AA meet Saturday, and found that the Lady Tigers would probably score 137 points and win the event over Tularosa, which would have 122. Numbers don't lie.

The Capitan girls actually scored 139.5 points and claimed the title over Tularosa, which put together – that's right – 122.

"The girls just performed their best," Woodward said. "They didn't lose any points anywhere. They scored in all 19 events. That's what we needed."

The Tiger boys were 38 points away from completing the sweep, finishing second behind a deep Lordsburg team. The loss snapped Capitan's streak of 10 straight boys district championships. Many of the Tigers will head to State individually, though.

But the day belonged to the Capitan girls, who will send 11 girls to Albuquerque Friday and Saturday in 14 events. The Lady Tigers won three individual events at the district meet, which was held in Capitan. Jessica Neal won the 100-meter high hurdles, Jessica Castaneda took the 800 and Randi Goss won the 1,600. Jessica Becker was second in all three throwing events.

"The girls just performed their best. They didn't lose any points anywhere."

Zale Woodward, Capitan girls track coach

As a result of the girls' victory, Woodward was named district coach of the year. He said it had been decided prior to the meet that whichever team won, that coach would receive the honor.

"That belongs to the girls," Woodward said. "The girls won that."

The Lady Tigers now have just the state meet remaining, and while Woodward is not sure how good their chances are at a team title, he said, "There's some potential for us to have some (individual) state champions."

He said he looks for throwers Becker and Lindsey Bush to possibly place and for the relay teams to do well.

"Look for us to run a lot faster at State," he said.

And while the girls are not satisfied, Woodward said it was great to win the district title.

"The girls have worked hard and it pays off," he said. "It always does."

Carrizozo takes District 7A, one Cardinal gets in State

BY WES SCHWENGELS

The Carrizozo High School boys and girls track teams controlled the District 7A meet Saturday, as both teams won the event in Estancia.

Although the girls' victory came as little surprise, Grizzly coach Pat Ventura said the boys' win was easier than expected.

"They've done pretty good this year. I'm happy with what they've done."

Tommy Mulkey, Corona track coach

"The boys came around good," Ventura said. "They ran real hard. I figured if we won, it'd be by five or maybe 10 (points). In field events, they didn't do good and we did."

The win was the first of the season for the boys, who have had trouble scoring points in the majority of their meets this year.

The small Corona team also made their presence known at the track meet, placing four of their five athletes.

For Carrizozo, it was the third straight district title for both the boys and the girls. The only real challenge for the Grizzlies came from Mountainair, which had the only other full team. Other schools at the meet included New Mexico School for the Visually Handicapped, Bosque Prep and Vaughn.

The 'Zozo boys and girls took top finishes in several events, despite having young stars Ariel Vallejos and Ariel Burr hampered by injuries.

The Grizzlies have 12 girls and eight boys qualified for state competi-

ENMU athletic director gets NCAA position

PORTALES — Everett Frost, president of Eastern New Mexico University, has announced that Athletic Director Rosie Stallman has accepted a position with the National Collegiate Athletic Association as Director of Outreach Education. Her last day at Eastern will be June 8.

"During her four years as director, the Department of Athletics at Eastern has achieved some wonderful accomplishments. Our corporate sponsorship of athletics has increased dramatically during Rosie's tenure. This has greatly improved the visibility and economic stability of our athletic programs," Frost said.

"We have also had the most numerous and innovative promotions of athletic events. This has increased the enthusiasm and attendance at games.

"Rosie has always emphasized the importance of academics for our student-athletes. We are very proud of the academic accomplishments of our athletes. They have consistently excelled in the classroom, earning numerous Academic All-Conference honors as well as qualifying for the Commissioner's Honor Roll.

"We hate to lose an athletic director of Rosie's caliber, but we are proud that the NCAA is impressed with her abilities and is adding her to their national staff. It will be hard to replace her."

At the NCAA, Stallman will oversee several outreach programs relating to student welfare, gender equity, student leadership and life skills. She will also coordinate the NCAA Woman of the Year program which honors top student-athletes.

"I am excited about the opportunity to maintain and develop outreach programs for the NCAA at the national level," Stallman said. "As a former coach and administrator, I look forward to participating in projects that will benefit student-athletes."

Stallman said that "it will be difficult to leave my many friends at Eastern New Mexico University. I was given a great opportunity here, and I have enjoyed working with so many caring administrators, faculty members an staff. I'll also miss my many friends from the Portales and Clovis communities who have been so positive and supportive. I know the athletic department will continue to bring success to the Greyhounds and the Zias."

President Frost announced that an interim athletic director will be named soon.

AAA state championship. Coach Eric Eggleston said he thinks it can happen.

"The kids feel pretty good about themselves," he said. "I think they're ready. They've got an excellent chance if they can keep it all together and play well."

Eggleston said he thinks the toughest competition for Ruidoso will come from Grants, Portales and the New Mexico Military Institute. He said he thinks a two-day total of 630 at State should give them the title.

"They realize there's some competition out there," Eggleston said. "That's good. Hopefully we can go down there ... and get us a three-peat."

Ruidoso secured a game against District 1AAA champion Shiprock in regionals. Baca said that while he doesn't know a great deal about the Chieftains, he believes the Warriors have a good chance to advance on to State.

"We've played a lot of 5A and 4A teams," Baca said, referring to his team's experience. "Right now we're peaking. If we do what we're capable of doing ... we've got a pretty good chance."

The Warriors got into the playoffs by way of their two-game sweep of Santa Teresa Thursday. Ruidoso beat the Desert Warriors 14-1 and 15-8 in the doubleheader. That effort was spurred by Gheer's 17 strikeouts on the night.

The Lady Warriors will take on Shiprock at West Mesa High School in Albuquerque Saturday at 9 a.m. Shiprock has all nine starters from last year's team that went 8-0 in nondistrict play.

"They come from a softball area," Baca said.

As for his own team, Baca said he was excited about the way the season has turned out.

"I'm really proud of the last five games and the way the girls have come together," he said.

injuries that have nagged the Tigers for most of the year. Capitan did not score in the 100, 200 or 400 and, as boys coach Ed Davis said, "You don't win championships without that."

Davis went on to say that enough boys have qualified that the Tigers do have a chance to win the Class 2A state title.

"If everybody performs, you're going to have somebody in the high 40s to low 50s win," he said. Because Capitan is strong in the field and distance events and has a dozen boys headed to Albuquerque, Davis feels that they could win State based largely on those points.

Ryan Kimbrell won the pole vault and javelin, while Jared Joy, Cody Glass and Bo Sparks each took one field event. The 1,600-meter medley relay team also won at district.

The district competition was the third meet held at Capitan High School, on top of four JV meets. Davis said he felt everyone involved in the preparation and performance of those meets did an excellent job.

As for how the Tigers will prepare for State, Davis said they will focus on getting people healthy and polishing their form.

The Class 1A and 2A State Track Meet will take begin Friday at 10 a.m. Most of the finals will be held Saturday, beginning at 8 a.m.

tion Friday and Saturday. All eight of the boys qualified in Estancia.

For Corona, Albert Sanchez is the lone qualifier headed to Albuquerque, after taking second in the high jump Saturday. He also took third in the javelin and 100-meter dash. However, Sanchez injured his tailbone at the meet and will likely not be at full strength for state preliminaries Friday.

"If we can be healthy all the way through, ... anything can happen, you can't ever tell."

Pat Ventura, Carrizozo head track coach

"All he can do is keep off of it," said Cardinal coach Tommy Mulkey. "He's a competitor. He's not going to slow down for anything."

It is not known whether the injury is a fracture or simply a bruise.

Mulkey added that he was proud of all his athletes.

"They've done pretty good this year," Mulkey said. "I'm happy with what they've done."

Ventura said he feels that the girls squad, especially, has a good chance to win the Class 1A state championship, if they can perform at full strength.

"If we can be healthy all the way through – we can't be 80 percent, we have to be 100 percent – anything can happen, you can't ever tell," Ventura said.

While Ventura was less hopeful for the boys' chances as a team, he said they have a chance to take some high individual places.

The coach also added that he was pleased with the performance of both the boys and girls teams.

"This was probably the best year," he said, comparing it to the previous two district titles. "Especially for the boys because they worked so hard."

A complete list of Class A and AA track state qualifiers will run in Friday's edition of the Ruidoso News.

EDUCATION BRIEFS

Cinco de Mayo at Nob Hill Center

Nob Hill Early Childhood Center will present the first Cinco de Mayo Craft Show and Silent Auction from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, featuring many local artists, a food court and live music.

In addition to seeking funds for the support of classroom activities, the school wanted to provide an opportunity for local crafts people to exhibit and advertise their talents at a reasonable rate.

GED students get scholarships

Evelyn Sanchez and Tammie Levin, GED students at the Lincoln County Works Center, received scholarships of $200 from the New Mexico Adult Education Association. Awards were based on students overcoming difficulties, said Sandy Kashmar, GED coordinator.

Student honored

Sarah I. Monks, a senior at Ruidoso High School, was selected as a New Mexico State Department of Education Recognition Program Scholar for 2000-01, based on her high level of academic performance. Recipients of this honor must earn an ACT Assessment composite score of 26 or higher and have a verified high school grade-point average of 3.5 or higher.

Monks, daughter of Stan and Maria Monks, at age 15, is the youngest member of this year's graduating class.

Computer science deadline extended

The application deadline for New Mexico State University's third annual Native American Computer Science Camp has been extended to May 15.

Twenty students will be selected for this year's program, which will begin June 30 and run through July 21. Students may call Alicia Morales, coordinator of the program at (505) 646-3356, for an application.

The program utilizes workshops, classes and hands-on projects to teach students about computer science and the benefits of higher education, Morales said. The goal of the program is to encourage Native American students to earn degrees in computer science, she said.

The summer camp is funded by a grant from the National Science Foundation. Students will attend the camp free of charge and will live in campus housing facilities during their three-week stay at NMSU. Meals and transportation to and from the camp will be provided.

SANDY SUGGITT/STAFF

Lee Dobbs and Sarah Monks, seniors at Ruidoso High School, show the drawings of the settlements on Mars they designed with their teams at the Second Annual Mars Settlement Design Competition at Oñate High School in Las Cruces.

Mars is for students

State's brightest young people design a habitat for 2045

BY SANDY SUGGITT
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

Eight Ruidoso High School students worked with students from around the state to design a settlement on Mars — and they said they'd like to go there to live.

About 100 New Mexico high school students divided up into four companies to design Braunom, a settlement on Mars, for the fictional Foundation Society during at a weekend workshop at Oñate High School in February. It was an annual competition sponsored by NASA, The Boeing Company, Honeywell HTSI, the Las Cruces Public Schools and the National Management Association White Sands Chapter.

The students were given the parameters of the design (see box): Their aerospace company would design a settlement and make a proposal to a panel of judges. Dividing each company into marketing/sales and various engineering branches, they tackled the overall design, specifying construction methods and costs; design of facilities, utilities and infrastructure; human engineering; and automation engineering — computing and robotics support for all aspects of completion and services. The settlements were designed for a permanent population of 19,000 and a tourist population of about 2,500.

Ruidoso science teacher Carla Burns said the students spent Friday and Saturday putting that together and made their 35-minute presentations to a panel of judges, including CEOs and astronaut Bonnie Dunbar. Most teams worked through the night on Saturday and until the 7:30 a.m. Sunday deadline.

Ruidoso senior Sarah Monks and sophomore Fletcher Herring were on the first-place team, senior Lee Dobbs and sophomore Daniel Davenport were on the second-place team. Glenn Cheng, Colin Leslie and Kari Wertz, sophomores, and Deonna McNutt, a junior, also participated in the competition.

Lee Dobbs was the operations engineer on his team, and he described his settlement with enthusiasm. His team chose a crater as their settlement's location on Mars, for protection from the Martian windstorms and proximity to large tour sites.

"Olympus Mons is the largest mountain in the solar system," he said, almost as if talking about Sierra Blanca. "Valles Marineras is a huge gorge the size of the U.S."

His settlement had underground tunnels for transportation, and cars or bikes for vehicles.

For a power supply, his team had a wire receiving dish with 262 solar panels in space that converted solar power to microwave beams that could be directed toward the surface of Mars. A 10-kilometer dish collects microwave beams and after converting them to energy, these travel along a series of cables that supply power to Braunom.

The settlement consists of a central dome and six outlying domes for residences, recreational activities, parks, commerce, tourism, government and emergency services. Four science domes are located farther away so the central area can be disconnected and protected in case of malfunctions. An industrial dome is remote for the same reason, he said. There is also an eight-level agriculture dome, 45 km. in diameter, for growing food hydroponically for the population and vacationers.

Sewage is broken down in another dome by bacteria and nonobots (tiny robots that can build other robots, Dobbs said), and nutrients are extracted from the sewage to grow food.

The exterior of Dobbs's settlement would be built out of plastic polycarbohydrates in layers, pumping nitrogen and oxygen between them puncturing one layer and pumping water between, which freezes — to a total of 26 layers — for protection against meteorite impact, he said.

Monks and Herring were on the team whose design proposal won first place. Monks, a dancer, worked on human engineering for the settlement.

"Ours had parks, tours, movie theaters, theaters," Monks said.

As far as wanting to live in the settlement her team designed, she said, "I think it'd be really cool. We had practically everything — stuff we don't have in Ruidoso."

"It was a blast," Dobbs said of the weekend competition. He said members of his team were from Santa Fe, Clovis and Oñate. He added that he's thinking of going back to help out next year.

"It was great," Monks concurred. "I made a lot of friends and I'm still e-mailing to two of them. It was a good experience, learning about yourself, your 'stress personality' comes out. ... I'd freak out, and I'm a dancer so I'd dance in the background."

"If they use our designs, we should be able to go," Dobbs said.

Design parameters

Your task this weekend is to design facilities for a space settlement where thousands of people will live on the Martian surface. Your team must agree on a design that satisfies a set of requirements specified in the Request for Proposal defined by the Foundation Society. You will prepare a 35-minute presentation describing your proposed design, which will be presented by one or more of your team members. The presentation must include dimensioned drawings of your design, and define areas designated for specific activities. You will be expected to justify facility sizes and locations, explain how the structure will be built and populated, estimate cost and schedule for construction, and show systems that will enable the residents to live and work in their new community. At the conclusion of your presentation, members of the Foundation Society will have the opportunity to ask questions about your design for 10 minutes. They will then evaluate your design versus those of the three companies competing against you, and choose a winner.

Successful development of your proposal will require coordination of design details with engineers form four major disciplines in your company. Your company's management has the responsibility to ensure that communication is both effective and timely, in order to assure that all of the RFP requirements are met, and that all parts of your design are compatible.

This is much to accomplish in a short time, so GOOD LUCK!

Edwards Smith, President, 2045

Look After Your Parks

Are you and your family making plans for your summer vacation? Maybe you are thinking of visiting one of the parklands managed by the National Park Service.

These parklands include 384 national parks, monuments, battlefields, historical parks and sites, lake shores, recreation areas, scenic rivers and trails, and even the White House.

The U.S. Congress passed a law to set up the National Park Service 85 years ago. The mission of the Park Service is to preserve our natural and historical resources so everyone can enjoy them now and for years to come.

Here are some ways kids and their families can help. Make preserving our national parks your mission, too.

Discover more about your parks. The program "Parks in the Classroom" will be of special interest to teachers. National Park Service rangers work with teachers to plan field trips.

Independence Hall in Philadelphia is a National Historic Park. This is the site of the signing of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

Arches National Park, located near Moab, Utah, preserves more than 2,000 natural sandstone arches and unique formations.

What kids can do

Take only photographs. Don't take flowers or pine cones or shells.

Ride a bike or a bus. Suggest that your family not drive their car to see the park. Take public transportation.

Leave behind only footprints. Reduce, reuse and recycle trash. Save water, electricity and other resources.

Stop the aliens. Never release your pet fish, turtles or other animals into a park. They could carry diseases.

Visit and explore lesser-known parks. Crowds and traffic can be a problem in some of the more popular parks. Too many people put a strain on park resources.

Learn about the parklands online. Visit the Web site: www.nps.gov. Families and teachers will find this site to be of great use. Teachers will find the "Teaching With Historic Places" lesson plans of great value.

Become a Junior Ranger. Ask for a Junior Ranger kit when you get to the park. The kit has several projects you can do on your visit.

Volunteer with your family. Parks depend on help to keep running.

Go dot to dot and color.

Rookie Cookie's Recipe
Trail Muffins

You'll need:

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 eggs, beaten
- 3/4 cup vegetable oil
- 3 carrots, grated
- 1/2 cup pecans
- 1/2 cup crushed pineapple, undrained

What to do:

1. Combine the first five ingredients in a large bowl. Mix well.
2. In a small bowl, combine eggs and oil. Mix well.
3. Add liquid mixture to large bowl. Mix until just moistened.
4. Add remaining ingredients. Mix until just blended.
5. Fill muffin tins three-fourths full.
6. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven for 25 to 30 minutes. Makes about 15.

Goldie Goodsport's Report
Supersport: Sarah Fisher

Height: 5-2 Weight: 120 Hometown: Commercial Point, Ohio College: Butler University

Not many teen-agers can drive a car around a racetrack at speeds of more than 200 miles per hour. One who does is Sarah Fisher.

Last year, Sarah, 20, raced in the Indy 500. She was the youngest racer last year, and only the third woman ever to be in the race.

She started racing when she was just 5 years old. She used to race go-carts and small cars.

Sarah's father owns a machine shop and her mother is a schoolteacher.

In high school, she was a member of the National Honor Society. Growing up, she was also involved in swimming, soccer and playing the piano.

Sarah is studying mechanical engineering.

Meet Josh Peck

Josh Peck, 14, is one of the stars of "The Amanda Show."

He was born and raised in New York City. He began his show business career when he was 7. His first part was in the musical "The Music Man" at a dinner theater in Florida. Since then he has been in several plays and worked as a correspondent for "Kids Pick the Campaign" at the Democratic and Republican conventions.

At 9, Josh began working as a comedian and has performed at several comedy clubs.

He lives with his mother in New York City and is in the eighth grade at the Professional Performing Arts School. He will star in a movie later this year.

MIGHTY FUNNY'S Funny Phonics

It's fun to learn phonics, or the way letters sound. This week's target sound is the one made by the OA blend, as in the word boat.

Dorothy: What is the best butter on Earth?
John: A goat!

Mary: Why did the bread scream?
Dean: Someone stepped on his toast!

Jeffrey: I want to buy a summer coat!
Joy: How long?
Jeffry: For the whole summer!

Go on an OA word hunt. What other words can you find using the OA blend? What sound do you hear?

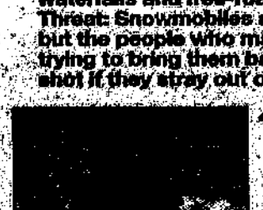
The Top 10 Endangered Parks

1. Denali National Park, Alaska
Other national parks in Alaska are endangered, too.
Attractions: volcanoes, North America's highest mountain, lakes, endangered wildlife, glaciers.
Threat: road construction; snowmobiles in park's wilderness area.

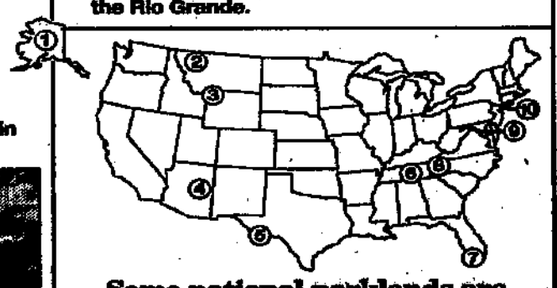
2. Glacier National Park in Montana
Attractions: lakes, waterfalls, deep valleys, peaks for 50 glaciers, bears and gray wolves.
Threat: Roads are crumbling, hotels need repairs, building development is near the park.

3. Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming, Montana and Idaho
Attraction: geysers, hot springs, lakes, waterfalls and free-roaming bison.
Threat: Snowmobiles are being phased out, but the people who make and rent them are trying to bring them back. Bison are being shot if they stray out of the park.



4. Petrified Forest National Park, Arizona
Attraction: animal and plant fossils, colorful badlands.
Threat: Visitors steal up to 12 tons of fossils each year.

5. Big Bend National Park, Texas
Attractions: desert and mountain areas, the Rio Grande River, hundreds of animal and plant species.
Threat: air pollution; poor water quality of the Rio Grande.

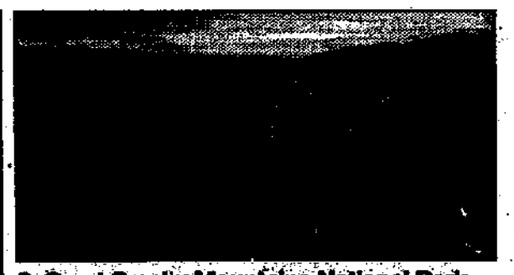


Some national parklands are endangered. They are threatened by building, air, water and noise pollution, and other dangers. You might not notice that these parks are in trouble when you visit this summer, but the dangers are there.

All of our parks need care, but here are the top 10 (from west to east) on a list that the National Parks Conservation Association makes each year.

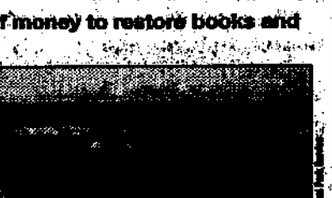
6. Stones River National Battlefield, Tennessee
Attraction: site of key Civil War battle.
Threat: road construction and development.

7. The Everglades and other south Florida national parks
Attractions: many threatened and endangered species, unique plant life.
Threat: water pollution; draining water from the parks to water lawns and irrigate farms.



8. Great Smoky Mountains National Park, North Carolina and Tennessee
Attraction: most visited park in the national park system. Beautiful mountains, rare plants and wildlife.
Threat: air pollution from coal-fired power plants.

9. Frederick Douglass National Historic Site, near Washington, D.C.
Attractions: Douglass was a famous African-American leader who fought against slavery.
Threat: lack of money to restore books and furniture.



10. Fire Island National Seashore, New York
Attractions: seashore, dunes, marshes and bays.
Threat: building and development of the sand dunes.

RUIDOSO STATE BANK, a New Mexico Banking Corporation,

Plaintiff,

CV-00-265 Div. III

vs.

JUDY MARTINEZ,

Defendant.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE UNDER FORECLOSURE DECREE

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of the Decree of Foreclosure entered by the District Court of Lincoln County, New Mexico, on April 12, 2001, in civil cause number CV-00-265, in the case of RUIDOSO STATE BANK vs. JUDY MARTINEZ, wherein Ruidoso State Bank is the plaintiff and Judy Martinez is the defendant, the undersigned will offer for public sale to the highest bidder for cash at the front entrance of the Village of Ruidoso municipal building, 313 Cree Meadows Drive, Ruidoso, Lincoln County, New Mexico on the 18th day of May, 2001 at 9:00 a.m., all rights of the defendant to the following described real property located in Lincoln County, New Mexico;

Lot 4, Block12 of RANCHO RUIDOSO VALLEY ESTATES, Lincoln County, New Mexico, as shown by the plat thereof filed in the office of the County Clerk of Lincoln County on November 30, 1982, in Cabinet D, Slides 99 through 103.

The property is located at #4 Mustang Court in Rancho Ruidoso Valley Estates.

Notice is further given that the court directed foreclosure of the mortgage on the property and that the amounts to be realized at said sale of the property, with interest calculated to date of sale, are as follows:

Amount of Ruidoso State Bank's Judgment	$77,149.78
Interest to date of sale (May 18, 2001)	$788.69
Costs	$354.06
Attorney's Fees	$2,002.30

In addition thereto there will be costs of publication of this Notice, and the Special Master's Fee fixed by the Court in the amount of $200.00.

The terms of this sale are that the purchaser must pay cash at the time the property is struck off to him, except that RUIDOSO STATE BANK may bid all or any part of its judgment, plus interest without paying cash.

for the diversion of 19.2 acre-feet (8.64 consumptive irrigation requirement) per annum of surface waters for municipal purposes within the Village of Ruidoso's municipal water distribution system.

Applicants are requesting that its diversion of water, under this filing, be increased to 24.69 acre-feet per annum to balance the move-from consumptive irrigation requirement to the move-to municipal consumptive use. The Village of Ruidoso is claiming that 65% of the water diverted into the municipal water system is metered as return flow at their waste water treatment facility discharge and 35% of the water is consumed by municipal uses. The Village of Ruidoso has reviewed their meter reports for the last ten years to determine this figure. The Village of Ruidoso then established an algebraic equation to compute the allowable diversion of water by them. Therefore, the Village of Ruidoso is requesting an increased diversion based upon the new information.

Applicants are also requesting that the aforesaid calculations be reviewed every five years, coinciding with the five year accounting period established by the order approving the "Bingaman Special Masters Report". The diversion of water by the Village of Ruidoso can be adjusted by utilizing the aforesaid procedure using previous ten years' return flow data from them.

The move-from points of diversion are located approximately 2 miles east of the Village of Ruidoso. The move-to points of diversion are located within the Village of Ruidoso limits, Lincoln County, New Mexico.

Any person, firm or corporation or other entity objecting that the granting of the application will be detrimental to the objector's water right shall have standing to file objections or protests. Any person, firm or corporation of other entity objecting that the granting of the application will be contrary to the conservation of water within the state or detrimental to the public welfare of the state and showing that the objector will be substantially and specifically affected by the granting of the application shall have standing to file objections or protests. Provided, however that the State of New Mexico or any of its branches, agencies, departments, boards, instrumentalities or institutions, and all political subdivisions of the state and their agencies, instrumentalities and institutions shall have standing to file objections or protests. The objections or protests shall be in writing and shall set forth specific reasons why the application should not be approved and must be filed, in triplicate, with Thomas C. Turney, State Engineer, 1900 W. Second St., Roswell, New Mexico 88201, no later than (10) days after the date of the last publication of this Notice. If no valid objection or protest is filed, the state engineer will evaluate the application for impairment to existing water rights, public welfare of the state, and conservation of water within the state.

Clerk's Notice of Suit by Publication and Mailing

TO EACH DEFENDANT NAMED ABOVE:

A lawsuit has been started against you in the above entitled court by the above named Plaintiff or Plaintiff's. Plaintiff's claims are stated in a written Foreclosure Petition and Complaint, a copy of which is available from the Court Clerk and/or the Plaintiff's attorney whose addresses and phone numbers are indicated above.

In order to defend against this lawsuit, you must respond to the Foreclosure Petition and Complaint by stating your defense(s) in writing and by filing same with the Clerk of the Court (by mail, if you wish) and mailing a copy to the Plaintiff's attorney. If you do not respond in writing, a default judgment may be entered against you without notice. A default judgment is one where the Plaintiff may be entitled to what they ask for because you have not responded.

Your written response must be filed (by mail, if you wish) with the Clerk of the Court and mailed to Plaintiff's attorney on or before June 8, 2001. If you wish to seek the advice of an attorney, you should do so promptly so that your written response, if any, may be served on time.

This lawsuit asks for a money judgment and involves the foreclosure of a Mortgage or Deed of Trust against and quieting title to the following Real Estate and all improvements thereto which is commonly described as: 113 Alamo Drive, Ruidoso, NM 88345.

In this lawsuit, the Plaintiff alleges that the following Defendants have personal liability on the subject Mortgage or Deed of Trust and Note and the requested money judgment: James Mark Crown.

Plaintiff,

vs.

MELVIN DOVE aka M.R. DOVE aka MELVIN R. DOVE and THE ESTATE OF NEVA DOVE, Deceased,

Defendant(s).

NOTICE OF SALE

Notice is hereby given that on May 30, 2001, at the hour of 11:45 am, the undersigned Special Master will, at the west front door of the Chaves County Courthouse, Roswell, New Mexico, sell all the right, title, and interest of the above-named Defendant(s) in and to the hereinafter described real estate to the highest bidder for cash. The property to be sold is located at 1502 North Kansas Avenue, Roswell, New Mexico and is situate in Chaves County, New Mexico, and is particularly described as follows:

LOT 12A, OF MAYWOOD SUMMARY PLAT NO. 1, IN THE CITY OF ROSWELL, COUNTY OF CHAVES AND STATE OF NEW MEXICO, AS SHOWN ON THE OFFICIAL PLAT FILED IN THE CHAVES COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE ON SEPTEMBER 15, 1994 AND RECORDED IN BOOK Q PLAT RECORDS, AT PAGE 50.

The foregoing sale will be made to satisfy a judgment rendered by the above Court in the above-entitled and numbered cause on April 16, 2001, being an action to foreclose a mortgage on the above-described property. The Plaintiff's judgment, which includes interest and costs, is $46,450.13 and the same bears interest at the current interest rate of twelve point one-two-five percent (12.125%) per annum from April 16, 2001. The amount of such interest to the date of sale will be $678.92. The Plaintiff has the right to bid at such sale and submit its bid verbally or in writing. The Plaintiff may apply all or any part of its judgment to the purchase price in lieu of cash. The sale may be postponed and rescheduled at the discretion of the Special Master.

Notice is further given that the real property and improvements concerned with herein will be sold subject to any and all patent reservations, easements, all recorded and unrecorded liens not foreclosed herein, and all recorded and unrecorded special assessments and taxes that may be due. Plaintiff and its attorneys disclaim all responsibility for, and the purchaser at the sale takes the property subject to, the valuation of the property by the County Assessor as real or personal property, affixture of any mobile or manufactured home to the land, deactivation of title to a mobile or manufactured home on the property, if any, environmental contamination on the property, if any, and zoning violations concerning the property, if any.

Notice is further given that the purchaser at such sale shall take title to the above-described real property subject to a one (1) month right of redemption.

POOP SCOOP

BY DIANNE STALLINGS
RUIDOSO NEWS STAFF WRITER

In North America, cats breed during a season that stretches from mid-January through September.

"During this period, every unspayed female cat not kept exclusively indoors will either be pregnant or nursing kittens," said Jim Riggins, manager of the Humane Society of Lincoln County's shelter.

Unfortunately, many of the adult cats and kittens end up being abandoned by owners who don't accept responsibility for their inaction, or they are dumped at the shelter.

"This is a national tragedy as animals shelters across the country begin to be flooded with unwanted kittens, many that are sick, and were not afforded the necessary veterinary care," he said.

Riggins said shelter workers prefer having the unwanted animals brought to them instead of being abandoned to a life of misery.

Because of their strong survival instincts, many of the abandoned cats, full of parasites and disease, continue to breed and produce more feral cats, he said.

Gestation spans 63 to 67 days and several litters can be produced in one year. Females are fertile mediately after weaning a litter.

Studies show that one female cat and her female offspring can produce more than 6,000 cats in a four-year period.

People who feed feral cats should keep in mind that quantity cannot replace quality of life. In fact, quantity is something about which they should be alarmed, Riggins said.

"The first step is to immediately spay any cats you own," he said. "Even if your animal already is pregnant, she can be spayed. Male cats possibly are more damaging to overpopulation because they can breed daily. Neutering males is a must and the least expensive procedure."

The shelter on Gavilan Canyon Road has a spay and neuter fund that can help owners of pets not adopted from the shelter pay for the procedures.

If people are not willing to call animal control to have stray cats picked up, they owe it to the animals to take financial responsibility for them, Riggins said.

"They should have the animals spayed, vaccinated and placed under veterinary care," he said. "Complete unwillingness to do either of the is simply a denial of an epic national and local problem."

If kittens already have arrived, before the owner should keep them long enough to have them spayed or neutered and vaccinated before giving them to responsible homes, or bring them to the shelter.

"Many shelters make the mistake of resenting, chastising or even charging owners who make the wise decision to relinquish these cats to the shelter," he said. "I am proud that we see the big picture in population control."

PSYCHIC PREDICTIONS FOR THE NEW MILLENNIUM

Judith L. Christopher

Week of May 2 – May 8, 2001

Taurus: (Apr 20 - May 20) Someone has plans for you. Take your own life back. It's okay to share your life with others, but don't lose it altogether.

Gemini: (May 21 - June 20) All fun and no work doesn't get the bills paid. Tomorrow never comes and yesterday is dead and gone. DO IT TODAY and get it over with.

Cancer: (June 21 - July 22) Your main concern is what you're eating and what's eating at you. Both are not good for your health and mental outlook. Start changing your habits.

Leo: (July 23 - Aug 22) As usual, you may be trying to burn the candle at both ends. You will be the only one to be burned when this is all through. WATCH OUT!

Virgo: (Aug 23 - Sept 22) Clean Sailing! Don't rock the boat or take on more than you're willing to do by yourself. Others will try to help but may not always be around.

Libra: (Sept 23 - Oct 22) When you think you have it all figured out, someone changes all the rules of the game. This is in business in pleasure. It's time to play hardball.

Scorpio: (Oct 23 - Nov 21) You'll find it may be in your best interests and all of those around you, for you to watch carefully before you speak out. Get all the data first.

Sagittarius: (Nov 22- Dec 21) It can't be said enough about good eating habits and exercise, Without outside stress to boot! Get up! Get out! Get with it! — or lose it all.

Capricorn: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) You need a change, but the cost could be too great. Not just money, but your feelings as well. Plan your life on paper and weigh out the consequences.

Aquarius: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Everyone could have you running everywhere all at once. Stop the insanity by just saying NO! You'll wonder why it took you so long to say it.

Pisces: (Feb.19- March 20) Lighten up and don't take what others say so seriously. You'll only make yourself crazy. What other people think of us, is not our concern.

Aries: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) You need a break - Even from yourself! Take in a movie, call an old friend, or just do nothing for awhile. If you DON'T - you're going to OVERLOAD!
