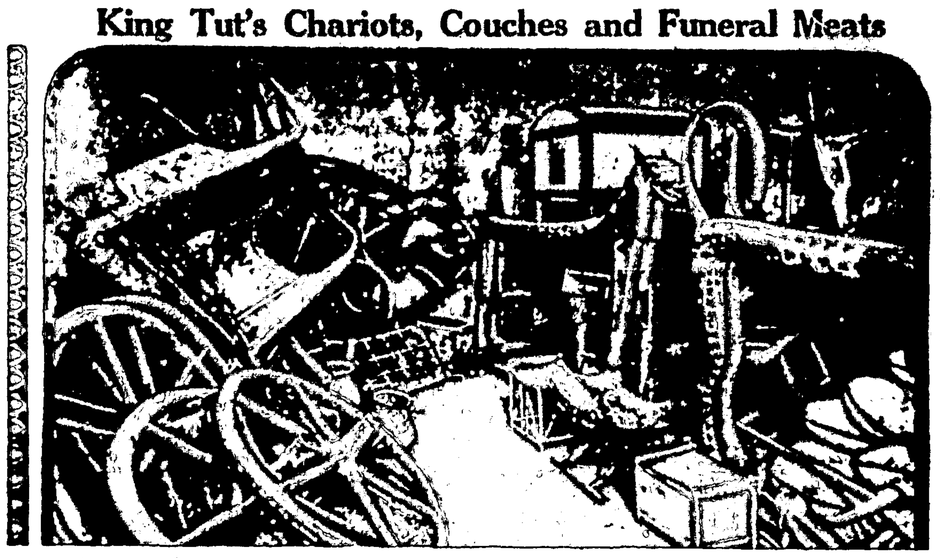
Treasures in Tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen of Egypt

London Times—New York Times copyright by arrangement with Earl of Carnarvon.

Opening of the tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen, the "heretic" king of the Eighteenth Egyptian dynasty, at Luxor, has revealed an unexampled storehouse of treasures. This photograph gives a view of the antechamber looking west. Among the articles shown are a box containing the king's undergarments and other things; a large gilt couch with supports in the form of lions; a couch with supports in the form of "hat-hor" cows; numerous boxes containing mummified meat; a painted red box containing jewelry and ornaments; a papyrus rush-work stool, much decayed; the king's stool; another couch; four alabaster unguent vases of unique type and beauty; a semi-circular veneered box having minute detail of inlaid ivory.

King Tut's Chariots, Couches and Funeral Meats



London Times—New York Times copyright by arrangement with Earl of Carnarvon.

In this photograph of the antechamber of the tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen, king of Egypt more than thirty centuries ago, the principal objects seen are the king's stool, made of solid ebony with ivory and having gold mountings; a large royal ceremonial gilt couch; the king's throne which is covered with gold and silver and inlaid with precious stones; a wood trellis stool, a large wooden casket; a carved wood and ivory chair of exquisite workmanship; wheels, bodies, poles, harness and other parts of four chariots; wood gilt trellis work from an object of unknown use.

Box of Tut-Ankh-Amen's Underwear

London Times—New York Times copyright by arrangement with Earl of Carnarvon.

Here in the antechamber of his tomb, is the long white wooden box which contained the underwear of King Tut-Ankh-Amen, who reigned in Egypt more than three thousand years ago. It also held many of his weapons. Above it is one of the ceremonial couches, and in the background one of the statues of the king at the sealed doorway of the sepulcher.

Tut-Ankh-Amen's Four Chariots

London Times—New York Times copyright by arrangement with Earl of Carnarvon.

Here are the wheels, bodies, poles and other parts of four chariots as they were found in the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen at Luxor, Egypt. They are made of various hard woods, covered with stucco gilt, leather and inlaid ivory. The floors are of hide, in one case of leopard skin. Embossed gold panels on one represent the king's prisoners of war.

GUARDS THE SEPULCHER

London Times—New York Times copyright by arrangement with Earl of Carnarvon.

One of the two statues of King Tut-Ankh-Amen guarding the sealed entrance to the sepulcher of that ancient Egyptian monarch. They are of wood, covered with a black material and richly decorated with gold.

KING'S ROBE CHEST

London Times—New York Times copyright by arrangement with Earl of Carnarvon.

This beautiful painted casket, found in the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen of Egypt, contained the king's robes, decorated with elaborate bead and gold work of lapis-lazuli and turquoise; a gilt headrest like those used in Japan today, several pairs of sandals ornamented with inlaid gold, a black amber necklace, a collarette of faience, and other objects. On the vaulted lid of the chest the scenes represent the king and his courtiers hunting lions, antelopes and other animals. On the low sides are battle scenes.

DOINGS AND HAPPENINGS THAT MARK THE PROGRESS OF THE AGE.

WESTERN

Governor Moore of Idaho vetoed the statewide direct primary bill, for the passage of which Senator William E. Borah made a spectacular campaign last fall.

Robbers obtained jewelry and money aggregating about $5,000 in value, but missed diamonds valued at $10,000 after they had forced their way into the residence of Mrs. L. Baron at Los Angeles, according to her report to the police.

"Big Tim" Murphy, who has flouted the law for many months, and who appeared to be more powerful than the United States government, is finally in the actual hands of federal officials. Incessant clamor of bondsmen who stood to lose $180,000, led him to surrender.

Bert Walls, who served in France with the Ninety-first division, was shot and killed at Butte, Mont., by his friend, Bill Jenkins. The shooting followed an argument over the Simonish-Bross boxing bout at Helena. When arrested, Jenkins said: "Take me out and hang me. I'm sorry it happened."

The state of Utah has received several million dollars worth of detrimental advertising through the arrest of smokers, declared Lester Freed, prominent business man, who acted as chairman of the downtown mass meeting of the Freeman's League of Utah, in Salt Lake City, in protest of the anti-cigarette and other so-called freak measures.

Acting as her own attorney, Margaret Jean Ramdy, 18-year-old Fresno State College co-ed, addressed a combination letter-petition to the Superior Court, seeking annulment of her marriage to William Earl Sweeney of Sparks, Nev. In her letter the girl declares that while on her honeymoon, she discovered she was No 6 in a chain of brides

Los Angeles police recently stated that they had received additional information which supported their theory that Earle Remington, slain in his own doorway, Feb. 15, was the victim of a bootleggers' war. They said they were searching for a former employé of the electrical engineer reported absent from his home and business since three days before Remington was killed.

Permission has been given the Utah Central Railroad Company, a new corporation with $1,000,000 in authorized capital stock, to proceed with construction of fifty miles of railroad in Utah, by terms of an Interstate Commerce Commission order issued in Washington. The new line will extend from Wellington to Huntington, with a branch to a Utah junction and will make available for operation of a large coal mining area.

WASHINGTON

Mrs. Harding, wife of the President, has made such progress in her recuperation from the severe illness of last year that she recently received informally at tea a group of more than thirty women in her private drawing room at the White House. The guests, with one or two exceptions, were newspaper or magazine writers.

Postponement of action until the next session of Congress upon President Harding's request for authority to enter the international court set up by the League of Nations, was decided on by the Senate foreign relations committee.

Possibility of Senate action before Congress adjourned on the administration request for authority to participate in The Hague international court of justice, under the League of Nations, was removed through conferences between Senate leaders. Leaders of all Senate factions exchanged views and, it was said, all were of the opinion that the matter would have to go over until the next Congress.

Continental American membership in the international court set up by the league of nations was proposed by President Harding. In a message to the Senate, asking that it advise and consent to such a step, the President declared participation in the tribunal offered an opportunity through which the United States could demonstrate its willingness to aid in preserving world stability without in any manner assuming "any legal relation to the league."

Failure of the administration's ship subsidy bill in Congress will result in the establishment of "radical and unexpected policy" for the operation of the American merchant marine, A. D. Lasker, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, declared after a conference with President Harding at the White House.

Selection of Postmaster General Work to succeed Albert Fall as secretary of the interior, and of Senator Harry S. New of Indiana to become postmaster general has been announced at the White House.

FOREIGN

It is reported that twenty persons were killed in a collision at Dueren, Germany. The accident was due to one train having been switched onto the wrong track.

Armed men raided the income tax offices in Nassau street, Dublin, recently and burned a number of documents. A shot fired in the street wounded a civilian.

The British debt funding arrangement is one step nearer completion, congressional approval of the act ratifying the recently negotiated settlement with Great Britain having been completed.

Seven hundred Germans have been arrested in the Bochum district. They were taken to Hattingen. There have been twenty additional deportations from the occupied areas, including several editors.

A Reuter dispatch received in London from Essen says a patrol of troops which was attacked in the streets of Essen arrested all their aggressors. A French sentry who was molested at Oberhausen by a number of Germans wounded one of his assailants.

It will take four years to clear the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen in the opinion of Sir Hercules Reed of the British museum, who has taken a deep interest in the discovery and has had ample opportunity to estimate the work yet to be done. A boom in fake antiques is now in full swing.

Sluice gates have been installed to prevent water from entering the tomb of Tutankamen of Luxor, Egypt, and ruining the antique relics in event of a cloudburst during the rainy season. Throughout the summer Egyptian military police will stand guard before the ancient burial shrine to protect it from grave robbers or from those who would destroy the mummy to prevent the "sacrilege of public exhibition."

Reduction of Argentina's wheat crop by 21,240,000 bushels is made in the second estimate of the season as received from the International Institute of Agriculture by the Department of Agriculture at Washington. The crop is now placed at 194,078,000 bushels, which is about 14,500,000 bushels larger than last season's crop. The second estimate of Argentina's flax crop reduces it from 60,270,000 bushels to 46,207,000 bushels.

The allied powers are making repeated concessions to the Turks in an effort to induce the national assembly at Angora to ratify the Lausanne peace treaty. The French and Italian high commissioners, following the action of the British, have informed Adnam Bey at Constantinople that their governments were withdrawing warships from Smyrna harbor. Great Britain, France and Italy are now maintaining only one small warship apiece in Smyrna harbor.

GENERAL

Thirteen persons were burned to death and three others were reported missing in a fire in Kansas City, Kan., which destroyed a two-story frame rooming house.

Jules W. (Nickey) Arnstein and four of the five men who were arrested with him Friday on a warrant charging suspicion of having received stolen goods, were discharged by Magistrate Levine when Assistant District Attorney Wilson admitted he had no evidence against them.

Postal inspectors and railroad police declared that the robbery of mail pouches on a Chicago train with through mail from San Francisco by a lone bandit was the third that took place on the same train within two months. The bandit escaped. Both postal inspectors and railroad police of New York city declared it their belief that the robber had boarded the train at some upstate point and had made his way into one of the steel mail cars before reaching Grand Central station. The bandit's sole haul was said to have been one registered package.

A world conference on education at which more than 400,000,000 school children will be represented has been called by the National Education Association, to be held in San Francisco and Oakland, June 28 to July 2, it was announced at a meeting of the executive committee of the department of superintendents of the association at Cleveland, Ohio.

Costs of $7,278.10 were assessed against the Coronado Coal Company at Fort Smith, Ark., by Federal Judge Frank A. Youmans, who ruled that the company must reimburse the United Mine Workers of America, defendants in the prosecution of a writ of error from a $600,000 judgment handed down Nov. 2, 1917. The original suit was filed in 1914.

Secret service men are drawing in the strings of a nation-wide net that they expect will enmesh 1,000 members of an international counterfeiting conspiracy that they believe has its tentacles gripped in every important city of the country. The ring is believed to have been maintained and distributed between $1,000,000 and $10,000,000 of the bogus bills and spurious stamps.

The outbound passenger liner Lenape, for Charleston, S. C., collided with the incoming freighter, El Sud, from Galveston, Texas, in the Hudson river recently. Both vessels were badly damaged, but were able to proceed to their piers. The Lenape had a large hole torn in her side.

Charges of conspiracy to obstruct the recruiting and enlisting of military forces against Victor Berger, Milwaukee Socialist, and four other defendants convicted with him three years ago, have been dismissed by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

Seven Points of Supremacy

1. The sole leather used in "FOOT-FITTERS" is of the best quality obtainable. Even the insoles are cut from standard outsole leather.
2. "FOOT-FITTERS" are the only shoes in the world having full length vamps and sole leather box toes. This feature prevents ripping at the tip and makes a smooth outer and inner surface.
3. The insoles are shoulder channelled so that they fit tightly against the outsole. There is no need or room for a cork filler. A small piece of duck is used to prevent squeaking.
4. The Calfskin inside counter pocket is of great value, for it saves the wear on the socks. There is no rough surface to rub against.
5. "FOOT-FITTER" heels are ¼-inch longer than generally used. They give additional support to the arch and increase the comfort and wear of the shoe.
6. The vamp is reenforced with 8-oz. duck. This absorbs the moisture from the foot, this keeps the vamp from cracking and holds the shoe in shape.
7. Edmonds' "FOOT FITTER" shoes are called "FOOT-FITTERS" because they fit the foot snugly. Built on combination lasts they support the foot like a Doctor's bandage.—"FOOT-FITTERS" give Comfort, Service and Appearance.

It seems there has been circulated a report that the county schools will close March 30th for a lack of funds. This is a false report. There are sufficient funds in the treasury to run the schools the full term. Read a note from Mrs. Louise H. Coe, County School Superintendent in this weeks paper stating there are enough money on hand to run the schools the full term, and that the report which has gone abroad is absolutely false. It is hard to understand why any person or persons would start such a story without foundation for doing so.

Judge Teased A Bull; Got Spanked for it; A Strange Court Meeting.

San Francisco, March 2.—Will Roche late of Waterford county, Ireland, is a citizen of the United States today, thanks to the man he spanked many years ago when both were boys.

Judge Michael Roche, no relation to Will, was sitting in federal court here yesterday afternoon hearing naturalization cases when a man well past his prime appeared with a petition for citizenship.

"What's your name and where are you from?" Judge Judge Roche asked.

"Will Roche, and I'm from Waterford county, Ireland," was the reply.

"How's that?" the judge asked, and the answer was repeated.

Judge Roche swallowed hard and looked more closely.

"You're face looks familiar. I wonder if I didn't know you," said the judge presently.

"Sure," said Will. "You know me well. I licked you once for teasing my father's bull."

The judge remembered how, as a lad in Ireland he used to crawl up on the fence and tease neighbor Roche's bull to make it chase him, and how neighbor Roche's son, a little older, spanked him soundly for it one day.

So the Roches, one a judge in a court of the United States and the other a immigrant, spanned the years with a handclasp, as one welcomed the other to citizenship.

"By the way, Will, what became of that bull?" Judge Roche asked.

But the remainder of the conversation was private.

Intuition.

When Miller received an autograph copy of his friend Lewis' latest book on the "Gentle Theory of Knowledge" he immediately sat down and acknowledged the gift, saying that he "anticipated great pleasure in its perusal."

"Why didn't you read it first?" asked Mrs. Miller. "Then you could have said something much nicer than that."

"Margaret," said the husband, as he gave Lewis' book a conspicuous place on the library table "I have a feeling that this is one of the times when my forethought would be better than my hindsight."

HAD "MRS. GRUNDY" IN MIND

It Is to Be Feared There Are Many in America Like This Foolish Young Wife.

George E. Baker, the New York financier and philanthropist, who has just given $1,000,000 to the Metropolitan museum, is very much opposed to the American sin of extravagance.

"Sometimes," said Mr. Baker at a recent dinner party, "the American man is driven to extravagance by his wife.

"'Deflation be darned!' young Mrs. Brown said to her husband one morning. 'If we move into that cheap house in the suburbs what will our friends think?

"'I don't care what they think,' said Mr. Brown. 'It's the only thing to do unless we want to run hopelessly into debt. Besides, it's a comfortable little joint—far more comfortable than this noisy flat.'

"'Yes, that's just like you men,' said Mrs. Brown bitterly. 'As long as you're comfortable, and can pay every wretched little bill as quick as it comes in, you don't care what the world thinks.'"

Where "Flapper" Idea Came From.

It is said that the original flapper was the Haytian girl who adopted short skirts decades ago and who used to "roll her own" as far back as 1915. The girls of that island make regular trips to market and it is their custom to ride on the back of burros. They carry their stockings and slippers under their arms until they reach the outskirts of the city and then as they ride along they don their footwear, the stockings being held in place by a deft twist about the tops just as our girls have been doing lately. As they return home the footwear is removed and laid away.

Britain's Arable Area Reduced.

The arable area of Great Britain since 1918 has been continuously reduced. Land now under the plow is not much greater in extent than immediately before the war, according to a report from the board of agriculture. The total area under crops and grass showed less change in 1922 than for several years past, the figures being 20,023,000 acres in 1922, against 20,140,000 in 1921. The arable area, however, was reduced by 300,000 acres, while the permanent grass area was increased by 160,000 acres.

Movies That Really Are Safe.

A movie picture show in the home, by the aid of a machine which has no more to do with lights or inflammable things than a typewriter or a sewing machine, is an accomplished fact.

The moviescope, the invention of an Englishman, throws pictures on to its marvelous mirror simply by means of ordinary daylight or the artificial light used to illuminate the room.

The pictures are seen with extraordinary clearness. It depends on the viewer—who is also the operator—whether the picture is a slow-motion affair or one of normal movement.

The numbers of foreign tourists in Luxor is increasing daily. They are flocking here from all parts of the world.

SINGS WITH JOY WHILE AT WORK

Mrs. Banes Says Tanlac Ended Indigestion, Sourness and Palpitations and Made Labors Light.

"Tanlac has helped me so much I wish everyone suffering like I did would follow my suggestion to use it," said Mrs. Sadie Banes, 2037 Washington St., Kansas City, Mo., the other day.

"Before I took Tanlac my appetite was so poor it seemed beyond cultivation, and the little I managed to eat gave me indigestion and caused awful sourness and palpitation. I was simply miserable from nervous headaches, dizziness and knife-like pains in my back, always slept poorly, and felt so bad that at times I just had to quit my housework and lie down.

"Tanlac was so well suited to my case that it has only taken three bottles, half of the full treatment, to restore me to perfect health. It makes me so happy to be without an ache, pain or trouble of any kind that I go about my work humming and singing. I just can't help rejoicing over what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.—Advertisement.

"ELEGY" WAS WORK OF YEARS

Thomas Gray's Masterpiece Clearly Not the Result of a Moment of Inspiration.

"It was eight years from the time Thomas Gray, English poet, began the most famous of all his poems, "Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard," until he had finished it. He began it in 1742, and it was finished in June, 1750. It attracted so much attention in manuscript that a pirate announced his intention of printing it. This caused Gray to authorize a publisher, to whom he loftily yielded all the profits, to print an edition in 1751. It attracted at once the popularity it has never lost, and was much parodied and imitated throughout the western world.

It was his love of romantic scenery and his morbid temperament which gave Gray his post of eminence among the "Churchyard Poets." He was shrinking and fastidious, and he was also depressed by the standards of his age in respect to poetry. Biographers say that he was indolent and irresolute.

Critic Confounded.

Wandering into a burlesque house, a critic spent some minutes in disapproving contemplation of a lively skit. The skit was based on the familiar theme of twin brothers. There were two pairs of them. Complications due to mistaken identity bobbed up every moment, and there was plenty of rough stuff. The author came around and the critic proceeded to read him a lecture, concluding by demanding: "Now, where did you get all this horse play?"

"I lifted it bodily from Shakespeare," replied the author quietly. "This is merely a condensed version of the 'Comedy of Errors.'"

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

VICTIM OF HIS OWN ERROR

American Tourist Really Had No Right to Complain of Extortion, Under the Circumstances.

"Ambassador Herrick," said a returned tourist, "told me in Paris that a good deal of the so-called extortion we tourists complain about is due to misunderstandings.

"He instanced the case of a tourist in Brussels who got on a tramcar to make the whole journey round the exterior boulevards. When the conductor asked him where he wanted to go he said:

"'Toute le journee.'

"He thought that this meant, 'The whole journey,' but it really meant, 'All day long'; and so the conductor, putting him down as an eccentric, gave him 15 tickets and charged him 15 francs.

"Fifteen francs! What an extortion! The tourist from that day on couldn't knock Europe and European grafters hard enough."

Falsehood's Many Faces.

If falsehood had, like truth, but one face only, we would be upon better terms; for we should then take the contrary to what the liar says for certain truth; but the reverse for truth hath a hundred figures, and is a field indefinite without bound or limit.—Montaigne.

Little larger than a man's watch, a new type of thermometer works with a special metal spring, and indicates all degrees of temperature from 10 degrees below zero to 150 degrees above.

Has Double Viewpoint.

True repentance has a double aspect; it looks upon things past with a weeping eye, and upon the future with a watchful eye.—South.

Retribution.

"Did she marry Mr. Wildotes to reform him?" "No," replied Miss Cayenne; "to punish him."

Best judges of human nature would rather make money out of it than make fun of it.

There is more resentment in being fooled by a good-hearted man than by a "slick" one.

Virtue is its own reward, but some people seem to think that it requires a lot of advertising.

CHILDLESS HOMES MADE HAPPY

Presence of Little Ones a Great Blessing

Four Interesting Letters

Cortland, N. Y.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I was weak and wanted to become strong and have a child. My husband read about it in the 'Cortland Standard' and thought it might help me. It certainly did for I now have a lovely boy fifteen months old who weighs forty pounds. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends and you can certainly use my testimonial in your little books and in the newspapers, as it might help to make some other childless home happy by the presence of little ones as it has done mine."—Mrs. CLAUDE P. CANFIELD, 10 Salisbury St., Cortland, N. Y.

A Message to Mothers

Hamilton, Ohio.—"I have known about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound since girlhood, having taken it when I was younger and suffering from a weakness and backache. Lately I have taken it again to strengthen me before the birth of my child, as I was troubled with pains in my back and a lifeless, weak feeling. I think if mothers would only take your wonderful medicine they would not dread childbirth as they do. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to every woman."—Mrs. JOE FALCONY, Jr., 652 S. 11th Street, Hamilton, Ohio.

St. Louis, Mo.—"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me seven years ago. I was run down and had a weakness such as women often have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after being married sixteen years became the mother of a sweet little girl. I now have four lovely children—three fine boys and the little girl six years old. I had longed for children all the while and wept many a day and envied every woman with a child. I was 36 years old when my first baby was born. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who is ailing with female weakness."—Mrs. J. NAUMANN, 1517 Benton St., St. Louis, Mo.

Was Weak and Run Down

St. Louis, Mo.—"My mother took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was a girl, and when I was troubled with cramps I took it, and later when I married I again took it to make me strong as the doctor said I was weak and run down and could not have children. I took it and got along fine and now I have three girls. So you know why I keep the Compound in the house. I am a well woman and do my work and sewing too."—Mrs. JULIUS HARTMAN, 2001 W. Dodier St., St. Louis, Mo.
