FEELING IS GROWING AGAINST AMERICANS

THREE RAIDERS ON AMERICAN TERRITORY KILLED AND TWO CAPTURED.

1,500 MORE TROOPS SENT

New Raids In Laredo Region Are Believed to Have Serious Purpose Behind Them.

Laredo, Tex.—Three Mexican bandits are dead and two have been captured following raids on two ranches on the Texas side of the international line, west and northwest of Laredo, Sunday. Deputy Sheriff Dolores of Laredo, at the head of a posse, surprised the gang, which included several Japanese, while they were attempting to burn the I. & G. N. bridge at Webb, and it was here that two were killed and three captured. Two other bandits fled.

One of the bandits killed, supposedly the leader, was Lieutenant Colonel Villareal of Carranza's army. He wore the uniform of his rank. His identity was learned from one of the captured bandits. Deputy Sheriff Dolores fired the shot which killed Villareal.

Anti-American Feeling Growing.

Washington.—With 1,500 additional regular troops ordered to the Mexican border and reports of the rapid spread of anti-American feeling continuing to pour in from consuls all over northern Mexico, administration officials made no attempt to disguise their uneasiness. It was officially admitted that there is growing alarm over what the agitation may produce and the possibility of an attack on General Pershing's expedition.

Part of the increasing apprehension here is due to the renewed raids in the Laredo region. Officials declined to reveal details, but they gave the impression of having reasons to believe a serious purpose was behind the bandit raid on the Coleman ranch.

The new force sent to join General Funston's border patrol, Secretary Baker said, was to fill in gaps in the guard, such as that near Laredo. It will be composed of ten companies of coast artillery and battalion of engineers. The artillerymen will be withdrawn from fortifications between Portland, Maine, and Sandy Hook, and engineers go from barracks in this city.

The secretary said there was no present intention of calling out additional national guard regiments for border duty.

A message from Captain Burrage, commanding the battleship Nebraska at Vera Cruz, said there was considerable unrest in that region, due apparently to the currency situation. There were no evidences of unfriendliness toward Americans, the message said. It added that the Carranza government had been sending troops and ammunition inland.

Russians Before Czernowitz.

Petrograd—Russian troops Monday approached the outskirts of Czernowitz, the capital of Bukowina, the war office announced. As the Russian troops drew near Czernowitz, the report says, there were numerous explosions caused by the Austrians within the city.

The number of Austrians captured by the Russians in the new offensive movement has been increased to more than 114,000. In many sectors of the front, the statement says, the Russians are still pursuing the defeated Austrians.

TEXAS TO VOTE ON SUBMISSION.

At Governor's Request, Executive Committee Puts Question on Ballot.

Dallas, Texas.—Prior to the meeting of the state Democratic executive committee in Dallas Monday, it was "on the unofficial program," so to speak, that a hard fight was to be made against placing either submission or the "Gibson bill" on the primary ballot. And yet, when the committee did meet, no real effort was made to prevent placing these questions on the ticket, and antis who had previously proclaimed their determination to oppose one or both questions, voted to submit them.

And back of this change in tactics there is the story of certain long-distance telephone calls from Gov. James E. Ferguson before breakfast Monday morning. He was on the job bright and early, and from Austin talked to certain members of the committee in Dallas and Fort Worth, counseling them that it would be best to submit both questions, and expressing a specific desire that the committee so act.

DEMOCRATS GATHERING TO NOMINATE WILSON

DELEGATES ARE ARRIVING FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION IN ST. LOUIS.

NO SIGN OF FIGHT IN SIGHT

"Peace, Prosperity and Preparedness" Adopted as Slogan and Outlook is for Harmony.

St. Louis, Mo.—Forerunners of the 1,092 delegates who are to nominate President Wilson and Vice President Marshall at the Democratic national convention this week, moved into St. Louis with the slogan of "Peace, Prosperity and Preparedness." The convention holds its first session at noon Wednesday.

Every one of the delegates to the convention either is instructed for or committed to the renomination of President Wilson, and the vast majority of them, according to many national committeemen, are ready to rename Vice President Marshall. A few votes are expected to be cast for some favorite sons for the vice presidential place, but the party leaders assembling here predict the other names may be withdrawn and that Marshall's renomination, like that of President Wilson, will be made by acclamation.

No Chance for a Fight.

"We are here to ratify the desire of the Democratic party," said National Chairman McCombs. "There might be a fight if we could hold the convention in Europe. It's a certainty there will be no fight here. The program is all arranged and there should be no hitch."

RUSS RE-TAKE FORTRESS DUBNO

Is Second One in Volhynian Triangle Taken From the Austrians.

London.—From the wooded region of Southwest Russia to the Roumanian frontier the Russians are keeping up their tremendous offensive against the Austro-Hungarians, who have been reinforced on several sectors by Germans.

The advance of the Russians is notable for the large number of prisoners taken and the enormous captures of guns, machine guns, ammunition and other war stores. In the week that has elapsed since they first threw their attacks against the Austrians the Russians report that they have captured approximately 108,000 officers and men and forced back the organized lines of their antagonists in the region of the Volhynian fortress triangle to Roumania.

Having previously captured Lutsk, the Russians now have retaken Dubno, the second fortress in the Volhynian triangle held by the Austrians, and are now pressing the retreating Austrians westward. In Galilia and Bukowina progress also has been made by the Russians. The Austrians admit the withdrawal of their forces in Northeastern Bukowina.

Continue Drive Against Austrians.

Petrograd.—In the fighting Saturday on the front of Volhynia and Galicia, says the official statement, the Russians took 409 officers and 25,000 men. They also captured 30 guns and an enormous quantity of booty. The statement adds that the army of General Techitskyn alone, operating in the direction of Czernowith, Bukowina, overwhelmed the Austro-Hungarians and took 18,000 prisoners. Since the present offensive was started the emperor's troops have taken about 108,000 prisoners.

MEXICANS MAKE MORE RAIDS,

Tried to Steal Horses—U. S. Troopers Drive Bandits Over Border.

Laredo, Texas.—American troops sent from here early Sunday to pursue Mexican bandits who raided the T. A. Coleman ranch near San Samuel, 40 moles northwest of Laredo, did not cross the border, according to reports received by General Mann, commanding the Fourteenth cavalry at Laredo. The Mexicans did not succeed in driving the 50-odd horses stolen from the Coleman ranch across the Rio Grande, General Mann was informed, the bandits having abandoned the animals, when within two miles of the border.

Two American cowboys were captured and taken to the Mexican side and held hostages until late at night, when they were released and came to the American side. The Americans state that they were merely held prisoners, but were not mistreated.

AN EPITOME OF EVENTS

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN HAPPENINGS SERVED UP IN ATTRACTIVE STYLE.

EUROPEAN WAR HAPPENINGS

Everything Important That Could Be Confined to a Small Space is Found Here.

The Amsterdam Telegraaf says a German destroyer struck a mine and went down off Zeebrugge on May 31.

In a Berlin official communication concerning rescues made by the German warships after the recent battle off Jutland, it says the German naval forces rescued from English battle cruisers and destroyers a total of 176 men by small cruisers and torpedo boats.

Earl Kitchener, English secretary of state for war, and his staff, proceeding to Petrograd to discuss important military and financial questions with Czar Nicholas, were lost when the cruiser Hampshire was destroyed by a mine or torpedo off the Orkney islands.

The Germans have launched a general attack along the entire front on the right bank of the Meuse and have penetrated the French line at one point, but were repulsed elsewhere with heavy loss, according to an official statement issued by the French war office.

Fort Vaux, one of the Verdun defenses, has been captured by the German troops, according to the official statement issued from Berlin. What remained of the French garrison finally surrendered and an attempt to relieve the fort resulted in the capture by the Germans of 700 unwounded prisoners.

A Berlin official statement gives the total loss of the German high seas forces during the battle off the Jutland coast and up to the present time as 11 vessels of all kinds, classified as follows: One battle cruiser, one ship of the line of older construction, four smaller cruisers and five torpedo boats.

The sudden blow struck by the Russians along the entire Galician front of 275 miles: from the Pripet to Roumania is in the unanimous opinion of the military critics a beginning of the long-waited Russian offensive. The condition of the road is perfect and with a plentiful supply o fammunition the Russian advance is expected to develop swiftly.

The captur eof Lutsk, in Volhynia, and also of a series of powerfully organized Austrian positions is announced in an official communication from Petrograd. In addition to the Austrians previously captured in the offensive movement recently inaugurated, the statement says there were captured in fighting 58 officers and 11,000 men. A large amount of war material was also taken.

A Russian official statement says of the new offensive: "The number of our prisoners is constantly increasing. In addition to the 958 officers and over 51,000 men already announced we took in the course of Thursday's fighting an additional 185 officers and 13,714 men, making our total of captures in the recent operations 1,143 officers and over 64,714 men." Five days of furious offensive by the forces of General Brussiloff has crumbled their opponents' lines from the Kovel-Sarny railway line to Bukowina, driving them back an average of 15 miles.

An allied air squadron has successfully bombarded the wharves at Hoboken, near Antwerp, according to a dispatch from Maestricht. The Germans are said to have been building destroyers at Hoboken.

The Greek commander of the port of Saloniki has been replaced by a French naval officer and entry to the port has been refused to Greek ships from Kavala. Moreover, an embargo has been placed on Greek ships in French ports.

HORRIBLE OCCURRENCE.

Two Children Burned to Death.

News has reached Capitan this (Friday afternoon) of a most horrible occurrence near Alto. Two small children, a boy and girl, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Condor, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Arnold were burned to death, at the Arnold home. The children were playing in a log corn pen, partly filled with corn and shucks, and it is supposed they started the fire with a match. Mrs. Arnold heard the screams of the children and then saw the pen was on fire, but before she could rescue them they were burned to death. Other parties soon arrived at the scene and the bodies were taken from the burning pile as soon as possible, but they were badly charred. The little girl was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, while Mr. and Mrs. Condor have several other children. The affair is a terrible schock to the whole community, and the grief stricken parents have the sympathy of the whole country. The remains of the children will be buried at Augus.

For County Commissioner.

The Mountaineer is authorized to place before its readers, in this issue, the name of Mr. Willis Hightower a candidate for County Commissioner in this district, subject to the action of the Republican county convention. Mr. Hightower has lived in Lincoln county from his boyhood and is well known by most of the voters in the county. His home is in Capitan, where nearly every body are his friends, and would like to see him made a member of the commissioners court, regardless of party affiliation. Mr. Hightower is well educated and speaks both the English and Spanish language fluently and correctly. He is at present engaged in the dairy business in Capitan, but has worked on farms and ranches and has gained a practical knowledge of the industries and needs of the country necessary for a good commissioner Mr. Hightower believes in retrenchment in the administration of county affairs where useless expenditures can be cut off, and he thinks that there can be good work done by the court along several lines. At the same time he believes in liberal appropriations for public improvements; he realizes that the revenues of the county come from the people and should be expended in a manner that will best subserve their interests. The date of the nominating convention has not yet been fixed, but it is some time off, and in the mean time Mr. Hightower will try to meet most, if not all, the voters of the district and explain to them personally his ideas as to the duties of a commissioner and how he will be governed should he be elected. He makes this unconcement, however, that the people may know he is in the field and can give his candidacy due consinderation.

The editor of the Mountaineer made an extended trip through the eastern and southern parts of the county last week, and expected to give a write-up of it in this week's paper. He has been unable to do so, however, for the reason that the columns of the paper are crowded with his country correspondence, but will try to find space for it next week.

Lute Jennings and J. S. Johnson were down from Lute's ranch yesterday getting supplies to operate his silver and lead properties, and will soon be ready to make a shipment of ore to El Paso. Mr. Johnson is a practical mining man from Roswell akd has great faith in the mines around Parsons. He is interested with Mr. Jennings in the development of his properties and we expect to be able to make some good reports from that vicinity in a short time.

It is said that County Commissioner Ramaldo Duran is strongly considering the question of becoming a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff. Mr. Duran has made an excellent commissioner, which would be greatly to his advantage in a race for the sheriff's nomination.

Lincoln Notes.

The waste basket caught last week's news, but will "try, try again.

Mrs. J. J. Aragon and little Jakie, of El Paso, Texas, are visiting in the city. Other visitors are T. C. Hulbert, of Alamogordo, Perry Hightower, of Hondo, and Mrs. Frank English and children, of Carrizozo.

Mr. Chas. Curry has moved into rooms in the Court House and can be found behind the counter in W. O. Norman's store. Charlie comes highly recommended and will no doubt bring many new customers to the already large list of this popular establishment.

Willie Walters says it was all a mistake about his going to catch Villa. He says he wouldn't know what to do with the reward.

Lieutenant Hird was in our city a short time Tuesday. The Lieutenant was recruiting for Battery A, of Roswell. He had no success, as our boys do not care to be put up as stationary targets for the friendly Carranzistas to shoot at. Our boys are all scrappers and believe in defending themselves. Should war be decared against Mexico, Lincoln's youhg men would respond to the call, but just now we believe in the Watchful, Waiting policy of our President.

Billy Sevier has thrown his hat in the ring and is an avowed candidate for County Commissioner. Let's make it unanimous.

The hills are full of candidates these days and every one of them has the glad hand for every one; wonder why?

Notes from Mountain View.

We are certainly having some warm dry weather at this writing, and are certainly needing rain. Some of the corn in this neighborhood is tasseling.

Mr. John Mobley and wife and sister, Mrs. Bessie Dale, made a trip to Capitan last Monday, Mr. Mobley having Dr. Price pull two of his teeth.

Mrs. Dr. Powler has been on the sick list for some time Bro. Webb is back in this neighborhood, but probably for only a few days.

The Christian Endeavor for Sunday night June 18th is "The Usefulness of Good Cheer," and will be led by Miss Lena Mobley; June 25th is, "What is the Purpose of Our Life on Earth," and will be led by Wm. Hayes.

The Christian Endeavor social held at Miss Lena Mobley's last Friday night was well attend.

There has been Prayer Meeting organized here, and it will be held at the Mountain View school house every Wednesday night.

Mr. Bill Evans, the old Bachelor from Paradise Valley, was in this community last Friday getting up the dance at the Paradise Valley school house Saturday night.

Quite a few in this community have quit dancing.

Mr. Rufus Coor, of Cactus Flat, passed through here Satday going for more lumber for Mr. Coor's house.

Mr. Frank McCasland went to Capitan Friday for a load of freight for Blanchard Bros.

Mrs. Artie Riggs has returned home from Arroyo Seco, where she had been visiting. It was stated that she was visiting in Paradise Valley, but was a mistake; it was Arroyo Seco.

A Mr. Williams, cousin of Mr. Hipp, is visiting Mr. Hipp and fmily.

The S. F. Gray has sold the Capitan Bar to Mr. Monroe Howard, who took charge of the business last Monday. Mr. Howard has lived in this part of the country many years and is regarded as one of the staunch citizens of the county, and has many friends wherever he is known. He has moved his family back to town.

Deputy Sheriff John B. Baird was in Crpitan the first of the week performing official duties. Mr. Baird is now attending to most of the business connected with the sheriff's office on account of Sheriff Chaves' bad health, which makes him a very busy man.

Notes from Luke's Corners.

Our merchant Prince went fishing last Friday and caught Snaky Ed in swimming in Wampus Creek. He is now getting all his fresh fish from the eastern market.

The telegraph operator from the county seat wired his auto horn to the rear of his car while in the Corners this week, so he could "honk" and let the hind wheels know the engine was running. It did no good, though, and the blame auto would not move until he threw it in gear.

Some weeks ago the Widow Stokes set a hen and called at the office of your humble and malicious Correspondent this morning and reported the hatching of eleven little ducks and two scandals.

At last the Corners will have a Railroad Clock. Our Postmaster has the grading contract for the next term of school.

Zeb Witherspoon, the village wit, and myself have both had a touch of pleurisy this week, caused from laughing so much at his witty sayings and reading Luke's Corners mostly from reading the notes.

A tourist from Pack Saddle Mountain, in Llano county, stopped over a few days in the Corners last week to rest up his his burros, and had the blacksmith to vulcanize the tires on his wagon. He was looking for a better country, of course. He expressed great surprise at not finding game plentiful, and said the only game he had seen since he left the San Saba River was a game "Seven-Up" at Nuxvomica.

As ever yours truly.
RUBE WHITE,
Official Correspondent from Luke's Corners.

LATER.

Nut Tubbs sneezed and fell over in it and broke the two bones in the frets of his banjo last evening. The old Needle Doctor reports him slowly improving in his music.

Ester and Lester Lightfoot, twins by marriage returned from the Bull Moose Convention yesterday. They are highly elated over the outlook for the re-election of Wilson.

The Chile Joint was re-opened this morning. It had been closed since twelve o'clock last night.

Your Humble Correspondent is in receipt of a letter from my first cousin "Oaks White," who writes Fixon for the "Carrie Nossy Outrage," stating that he had heard Woodrow Wilson was elected President of the United nearly four years ago and asking me if I knew whether it was a fact or not. Please answer through your valuable columns whether this is true or not, Mr. Editor. I am a little rusty on foreign matters and in fact I hav'nt looked at an Almanac since they quit putting funny pictures in them and simply can not answer Cousin Oaks' question without brushing up a little.

Rush Weatherly has written Teddy Roostfelt a letter showing him where he made an error in making the race or trying to make the political race in Chicago. Rush says that if Roostfelt had come to the Corners and made the race for School Trustee, the 18½ votes would have just exactly elected him as there are 35 votes in the district.

RUBE WHITE.

White Oaks Items.

The White Oaks Mines, Consolidated, will resume operations July 1, with Mr. Leo Von Rosenberg, an experienced mining engineer, as manager. Improvements are to be added to the mill with which to specially treat these ores.

Prof. Geo. H. Webb and his "Boy Scouts" took a two days "hike" up Water Canyon. The boys are very enthusiastic over their scout duties and privileges.

Dr. Whitacre, wife and children, took a fishing trip over on the upper Ruidoso last week, going by Capitan, where Mrs. Whitacre's brother, Dr. Price and family joined them in their car. Dr. Whitacre returned by way of Alto and Augus, coming down the Peters hill which he considers quite the limit for auto travel.

Messrs. Jones, Todd and Hubbell, are preparing to get out a car load of ore to ship for smelter treatment from the claim Black Jack, recently located by Jones and Todd. There are many prospects in this vicinity worth working, had the owners the capital to make a beginning. The coal in this section is superior to much that is being mined and used from prominent mines in different parts of this and other states. There are different minerals to be found in these ores, the leading ones being gold silver, copper, tungsten and iron.

Mrs. Paul Mayer, jr., accompanied by Miss Hattie Latill visited in El Paso this week.

Miss Gladys Street Wightman departed Saturday for her old home in Australia via San Francisco.

Born to the wife of Nathan Hobbs June 12th a daughter.

Mr. Robert Taylor and family, accompanied by Carrizozo friends, motored to South Fork Sunday to fish.

Mr. Jim Lee and family, with Mr. Roy Lemon, wife and Mr. Ed Queen and family, made a fishing trip on the Upper Ruidoso last week.

Mr. News Allen and family with his sister, Mrs. Edith Gibson and family, expect to leave this week for Lakewood, Colorado, Mrs. Allen's parents' home.

White Oaks is one of the most picturesque towns in the state, situated high among the hills which rise up all around it, as sentinels. Some beautiful homes remain to tell of the prosperity of other days, and which may be again almost any day, if some of the hidden wealth here should be uncovered. A good schools is located here, one of the oldest in the country.

The Alto Light and Power Plant is located two and one-half miles above White Oaks, which furnishes light and power for the town, light for Carrizozo, and will soon be furnishing light and power for the Parsons mines. This plant was formerly owned by the Wild Cat Co., of White Oaks, but is now owned by a Mr. Tuller, of the Parsons Mining Co., who is installing new machinery to enlarge and improve the plant.

Mrs. C. D. Mayer and daughter, Mrs. Wallace, drove over to Carrizozo Tuesday in their car.

Mrs. P. M. Wightman left Tuesday evening for New York.

Harry Allen expects to return to his ranch on the Ruidoso soon.

Parsons Nuggets.

Herbert Reddy and Ed Pfingston have been doing some assessment work up in the mountains.

T. J. Grafton and wife have returned from the Hot Springs. They do not seem much benefitted by going, but say they had a nice trip. L. A. Skinner took them in his car, and they went by way of El Paso and Las Cauces, and visited old friends who had lived in this part of the country several years ago.

F. S. Johnson has returned from Roswell and has some men at work on some silver and lead property and will ship some ore soon.

Messrs. Tomlinson and Bently of El Paso are in the vicinity looking after mining interests; they are stopping at the home of T. A. Bragg.

Dr. Dryden and wife came in Sunday from Arizona, and are guests of the Rice family; the Rices, also, have several other guests.

Mrs. B. R. Robinson has a sister and her husband, from Madison, Texas, visiting her. They had not met in 33 years. The writer has not been able to learn their name.

The Rev. Gardner, of Carrizozo, has begun a meeting at the school house, which will last till Sunday.

Austin Patty and family visited with the Jennings last week. They were on their way home from Alamogordo, where they visited relatives.

San Patricio Jottings.

Doyle Rose, of Lawn, Texas, is visiting his uncle, W. B. Rose; he is helping put up hay on the Murray & Rose farm this week—Louis Montanio has baled some very fine hay this week—Jim Reeves has returned from Roswell where he went on business—F. C. Stover is almost up with his farm work—John George is breaking broncs for Murray & Rose—Jesse Whitt has returned from Capitan where he went after coal and other material for his black smith shop—Chas. Curry and wife are visiting his mother, Mrs. Alfredo Gonzales—The Sias boys are preparing to put a new roof on their mother's house—The new jail house has just been completed; the boys aim to lock the Constable up as soon as he comes in from the sheep camps—Dave Gallegas has just returned from Roswell. He has been hauling wood for Chas. D. Bremond—C. D. Wilkins and some friends passed through from Roswell yesterday enroute to the cool shades in the White Mountains—Mrs. Silverter Anderson, from Carrizozo, is visiting friends in San Patricio this week.

Chas. Morrison has been on the sick, but he is recovering now.

GOOD FARM FOR SALE.

One of the best farms north of the Capitan Mountain, in Paradise Valley, known as the G. W. Smithson place, for sale at a bargain if taken soon. Three hundred and twenty acres patented land, 40 acres in cultivation, 12 acres in orchard, trees bearing fruit, fine well of water, wind mill and tank. Application made to purchase state land adjoining. For price and terms see or write W. H. Sellers, Capitan, New Mexico.

The Capitan Merc. Co. have this year's Irish potatoes, boiled ham and minced ham; also, fresh strawberries and fresh string beans on hand.

Books for Distribution.

Washington, D. C. May 6—Editor Mountaineer—I am sending you a copy of the "Final Report of the Commission on Industrial Relations," which I trust came to hand safely. I believe you will find it a very interesting document and no doubt there are many persons in New Mexico who like to get a copy. I suggest that you give it some mention in your paper, calling attention to the fact that I will be glad to furnish copies until the supply is exhausted.

I wish you would give further mention to the Agricultural Year Book, 1915. This publication is replete with information for the farmer and stockman and should be in the possession of every one engaged in these occupations. I have nearly a thousand copies left and will be glad to fill every call until they are gone. Senator Fall and Hon. B. C. Hernandezes likewise will be glad to furnish copies, as also copies of the report of the Commission on Industrial Relations.

Yours very truly,
T. B. CATRON.

Nogal Letter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Vincent, on the 7th inst., a fine baby girl.

Mr. Thomas Whitaker has moved back to Nogal from White Oaks.

Dynamite blasts can be heard from the mines at all hours of the night—must be something doing.

Our people were anxious to see the Rev. Lewis and if possiget him to preach in Nogal once a month, but he did not stop going to the pic-nic.

Quite a number of Sunday school pic nickers passed thro Nogal last Sunday, bound for upper Nogal canyon for an outing.

Mr. Luttrell in charge of the Vera Cruz mine came in from Chicago on the 12th inst.

FARM ANIMALS

EXCELLENT FEED FOR SWINE

Rape Is Large Succulent Plant and Grows Rapidly—One of Best Forages for Hogs.

Owing to the fact that rape grows rapidly, is a large, succulent plant and palatable to hogs, it makes one of the best swine forages. If rape is not pastured too closely it will grow up and make fall pasture. A good growth of rape will furnish pasture for about 15 to 20 hogs to the acre.

For pasture purposes the Dwarf Essex variety is most used. The seed can be bought usually for eight cents a pound, therefore seeding is done at small cost, as not more than five pounds of seed per acre is required when sown broadcast, and when sown in drills, three pounds of seed is enough.

Most soils will give good account when sown to rape. Land which is well suited to corn production makes a very excellent soil for rape. However, the heavier soils seem to produce the largest and most succulent growth. To prevent injury to the crop, hogs should not be put on rape until it is about a foot high.

It is often difficult to get hogs to eat rape at first, if they have not been accustomed to it. However, they will eat the rape and soon learn to relish it if they are turned on it and allowed no other green feed. Another difficulty is that wet and dewy rape may cause sores and scabs on the hogs. Sometimes the skin has the appearance of being blistered. This seems to be more true of white and thin-haired hogs. This may be overcome by not turning the hogs on rape until the dew has dried up.

PREVENTION OF OX WARBLES

Spraying With Kerosene Emulsion or Fish Oil Will Kill Grubs—Remove All Found.

Cattlemen estimate that the warble or common grub in the backs of cattle does from $35,000,000 to $50,000,000 damage a year. The damage comes through loss of flesh, lowered milk production, and decrease in the value of hides.

The grubs may be located under the skin on the back of cattle in late winter or early spring by the characteristic lumps or swellings. The parasite has made a little opening in the skin at the top of the swelling, and may be pressed out through it. In a small herd the grubs may be removed, and all should be destroyed.

Examine the cattle every two or three weeks, and remove all found. Spraying with kerosene emulsion, fish oil or train oil will kill the grubs, but the wounds do not heal readily unless the grubs are removed.

PROPER TEST OF BROOD SOW

Indications of Good Milker Shown in Thrift of Pigs—Beware of Fattening Animal.

The principal test of whether a sow is a good milker or not is the thrift of her pigs and her condition while suckling them. If they do well and she eats liberally and keeps up good health and digestion, and at the same time gets a little thin while nursing them, it is pretty good evidence that she is a good milker and will do to keep as long as her usefulness lasts. But look out for the sow that fattens between farrowing and weaning time. Her pigs either die off or become runts, for she is not making the use of her feed that a good mother should make.

Afternoon Suits That Are Correct Exponents of Accepted Mode—Airy Headwear for Summer.

Two afternoon suits, one of silk poplin and one of taffeta, proclaim themselves correct exponents of the accepted mode, but each has something unusual and chic to boast of.

In the suit of bronze taffeta at the right it is the clever use of shirrings that gives it its bit of distinction. The skirt is extra full and is shaped into the waist with parallel rows of shirrings set close together. This management of the skirt is familiar enough, but the same idea introduced in the coat is unusual. A short yoke and high collar are formed by shir-rings which gather up the silk and shape the garment to the figure. The collar ends in a narrow frill lined with a second frill of white organdie.

The waist line is outlined with rows of shirrings forming a belt, and shirrings confine the fullness of the sleeves at the head of flaring cuffs. The belt is clasped at the front with ornamental clasps of composition.

In the poplin suit at the left a pointed tunic and peplum suggest a flounced skirt. The underskirt is plain and only moderately wide. The tunic is finished with velvet ribbon in black, and the peplum is bordered with it.

sive as to brims has been seen since the days of the "Merry Widow" sailor. But they are of lace braids, hair braids in black or white, in gauzy crepes in pale colors, or in millinery braids of various kinds draped with the sheerest fabrics, so there is nothing heavy or cumbersome about them.

Among the loveliest of many lovely models there are hats in which white velvet and white hair braid are combined in making the shape. Occasionally black velvet and white braid are used together. Then there are hats of fine georgette crepe over the finest and least conspicuous of wire frames. Leghorns and other straws acquire extra width of brim by the addition of deep borders of crepe, and all the straws used for midsummer millinery are shown draped with shaped flounces of the sheerest crepe in white or in pale tints. Several colors in their palest tones are used together, with the flounces graduated in width. One or two of them are considerably wider than the hat brim they cover.

A hat of black hair braid is shown in the picture, in which the braid is stretched over a very fine wire frame

AIRY FOR MIDSUMMER WEAR.

In this suit a wide belt and cuffs are made of the silk, with rows of shirrings set very close together and leaving a frill at each edge. The belt and blouse fasten to one side with round silk-covered buttons in groups of threes, and they make a pretty finish for the cuffs.

Milliners declare that it is hard to get them wide enough—the hats of midsummer—and nothing so expan-

For trimming, there is a broad wing, made of black gourx feathers, that rival the braid in airiness. Black velvet ribbon in long straight loops and ends lends a touch of substantial trimming, mounted against the under brim at the back.
