VOL. 3. CAPITAN, NEW MEXICO, AUGUST 15, 1917. NO 17.

This Is The Hour Of The Progressive Man

It is also the hour of the man who saves a part of his earnings with the realization that his earning power is gradually diminishing with every year of his life. But he is amply rewarded in the evening of life with the consulation of knowing that he has wisely accumulated a competence for this period.

Capitan Schools.

The Capitan High School will open on the third of September, with Mr. C. V. Koogler as Acting-Superintendent, during the three months leave of Mr. Belknap, who will attend the Officers' Training Camp at Leon Springs, Texas.

Other instructors in the High School will include Miss Mary G. Howard, of the staff of last term, Miss Mildred Fulghum, of State College, Miss Anna Pistor, of the University of Arizona, and a teacher of Spanish and Commercial subjects, whose name will be announced next week.

Miss Howard will be in charge of the classes in History from the Seventh Year to the Twelfth Year. Miss Fulghum has been assigned to the classes in Domestic Economy with additional work in English. The principal work of the English Department has been given to Miss Pistor, who will also have classes in Music and Drawing. Miss Pistor will be a valuable addition to the musical department of the community, as she is a talented musician with piano, violin and voice.

Following the recommendations of the Committee on the Reorganization of Secondary Education, a committee appointed by the National Educational Association, new courses in several subjects have been planned. In particular, the English and History courses have been modified to conform to the new standards. Further details will appear in a later issue of this paper regarding all of those courses. One course has received special notice, the Twelfth Year class in Problems of American Dampcracy. The Macmillian Company, publishers, have asked Mr. Belknap for permission to copy and distribute his outline for this subject.

This year will see the beginning of work on the Junior High School plan, including the Seventh and Eighth Years The courses for those years are as follows:

Seventh Year
English
Spanish
Arithmetic
European History
Geography
Physiology
Manual Training or Domestic Economy
Music and Drawing

Eighth Year
English
Spanish
Mathematics
U. S. History and Civics
Geography
Manual Training or Domestic Economy
Music and Drawing

The work in the classes listed above will be conducted on lines similar to the treatment of the subjects of the Senior High School, which will permit of a broader treatment of the work of the Seventh and Eighth Years, eliminating much of the repetition inherent in the former plan of organization of the first eighths years.

New Saw Mill.

Roy Walworth, proprietor of Pine Lodge, the well known summer resort away down on the north side of the Capitan mountain is putting in a saw mill near the "Lodge." There is a great deal of very fine pine timber in close proximity to the mill and Mr. Walworth will do a good lumber business as that country fast settling up.

Should Be Finished.

For a long time it was apparent to every one who travels the Roswell and Carrizozo road that a bridge should be put in at Hondo. When the river was up the daily mail car was frequently delayed for hours and public travel was also stopped for the time being. After long persistent effort on the part of the people, an order was made to build the bridge, the contract was let and it was built a year ago, except the approaches which have never been put in. The bridge stands there today just as the contractor left it, a fine monument to neglect and careless on the part of those who have authority to have the approaches put in. When the river is up, the mails are still delayed and travelers have to stop and wait until it runs down. This action on the part of the road authorities is a reminder of what the old fellow in the tune of the "Arkansas Traveler" said when asked why he didn't cover his house. In dry weather it didn't need a roof and when it was raining it was too wet to work. The road and bridge authorities have a similar notion about this matter. They seem to think the public don't need a bridge in dry weather and when the floods come bridge work can't be done—so just let the mail cars and the travelers take a rest on the bank of the river and wait for it to "run down."

Council of Defense.

A Council of Defense was organized at Carrizozo on the afternoon of the 13th with the following members:

W. C. McDonald
Fred Pfingston
Robert Brady
F. J. Sager
Geo. A. Titsworth
Dr. E. D. Woods
Geo. L. Ulrick
P. G. Peters
Walker Hyde
W E. Blanchard
Henry Lutz
Francisco Gomez

The members were sworn in and will receive commissions from the Governor. Their next meeting will be held at Capitan, in the school house Sept. 1st The public is cordially invited to attend and take part in this meeting, and they will be addressed by Hon. W. C. McDonald and other prominent speakers.

Red Cross Entertainment.

Capitan had its first entertainment for the purpose of raising money for Red Cross work on Tuesday evening and, considering the weather, it was a success beyond the fondest dreams of its promoters.

The rains of Sunday, Monday and Tuesday put the roads for miles about us in an almost impassable condition and it was with the greatest misgivings that the ladies went to work Tuesday decorating the Assembl Hall of the School House for the affair. To put it frankly, some of them sereriously considered postponing the gathering as late as Tuesday afternoon. Other counsel prevailed and they decided to go ahead and do the best that could be done and the results proved the move an exceedingly wise one.

The people were, on account of the weather, somewhat late in arriving but by 8:30 there was a fair crowd present and by nine the Assembly Room was comfortably full and the sale of the box lunches was begun.

There were nineteen boxes which Supt. of Schools Koogler auctioned off, while Jack Price delived them to the buyers and gathered in the money. The sale of boxes netted $56 75.

After lunch the floor was cleared and dancing begun. During the dancing the ladies served sandwiches and coffee in the Domestic Science Room and sold ice cream and grapes.

The admirers of Terpsichore held the floor until 2 a. m., while Mrs. E. C. Price, officiating at the piano, furnished the music.

When all expenses were paid and a balance sheet struck there was left to the credit of the Local Branch of the Red Cross $91 60, which will be spent with our local merchants in buying material with which to continue the work of making comforts f r the Boys in France.

White Oaks, Glencoe, Roswell, Alto, Encinoso and Fort Stanton were all represented at the affair, and the Capitan Red Cross wishes to gratefully thanks those who so cheerfully faced most uninviting weather and road conditions in order to help their first Red Cross venture such a signal success.

The refreshments, were with the exception of the bread, ice cream and the fruit which was sold, all donated by the local merchants and members of the Red Cross so that the expenses of the affair were but $10.88.

Messrs. McPherson and Rhode, proprietors of the Capitan Garage, have offered their new building, now being put under roof, for a Red Cross affair just as soon as the floor is in and before any of the machinery has been moved into it. The ladies intend to keep going the work they have begun.—Special Reporter.

New Telephone Line.

The telephone line between Encinoso and Capitan, work on which was commenced some time ago, is finished and in operation. This line was badly needed by the people of the whole north side; it put them in communication with all parts of the country.

W. H. Sexton, the Mesa garden produce man, is in Capitan today.

The People's Bargain.

"The annual increase of our wealth is estimated to be fifty billions of dollars. The American people are not asked to give anything to their goverment, but merely to invest a small percentage of the annual increment of wealth in this country and take in return from their government the strongest security on the face of God's earth; to receive in return for the money lent 3½ per cent per annum, both principal and interest exempted from all taxation except estate or inheritance taxes, and with the further provision that if the government should issue any other bonds during the period of this war at a higher rate of interest the purchaser of a Liberty Loan Bond may turn it in and get a new bond at a higher rate of interest.

"In protecting the credit of the United States government you are protecting your own credit, you are protecting your own business, you are protecting every interest you have in life and property. In doing that you are rendering a patriotic service in supplying the sinew of war to your country."—William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury.

National Forest Timber for Sale.

Sealed bids will be received by the Forest Supervisor, Alamogordo, N. M., up to and including September 15, 1917, for 320,000 feet B. M. more or less of western yellow pine, Douglas Fir and White Fir timber upon a designated area within T. 11 S., R. 16 E., N. M. P. M., Baldoso watershed, Lincoln National Forest, New Mexico. Nobids of less than $2.50 per M feet will be considered. Deposit with bid $150.00. The right to reject any and all bids reserved. Before bids are submitted full information concerning the timber, conditions of sale, and submission of bids should be obtained from the Forest Supervisor, Alamogordo, New Mexico.

Deer Killing Comes Highly at Las Vegas.

East Las Vegas, N. M., Aug. 5—Fines of $150 each and jail sentences of nine months were given by Justice of the Peace Stewart to Tomas Abeytia and Aureliano Mares, who were caught with a slaughtered buck deer and a doe in their possession. The men were captured about sixteen miles from Las Vegas in the Gallinas canyon, St ta Game Warden Theodore Rousult, Jr., who had been tipped off that deer had been illegally killed and he went to the canyon, in company with Game Wardens Lawrence Tamme and William Gordon, and lay in the brush until the two men appeared. They were brought to Las Vegas and lodged in the county jail. Stewart, after imposing sentence on the men, announced he would reduce the fine to $50 and the imprisonment to ninety days, but should the defendants be caught again killing game animals unlawfully he would compel them to serve the full jail term and pay the full amount of the fine, in addition to any other punishment that might be given them.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dunp, who have been visiting their daughter Mrs. R. C. Hammett and family for the past two weeks, left Monday for their home at Okra, Eastland county, Texas.

Public Documents for Distribution

At the request of U. S. Senator A. B. Fall, the Agricultural Department at Washington has sent to the Mountaineer office several thousand public documents for free distribution. These bulletins treat on many subjects and the information found in them is very valuable, especially to farmers and ranchmen, and some of them contain many interesting and useful suggestions to those engaged in other pursuits; and the house wives will find many useful hints to aid them in their domestic duties. We ask the people in town and country to call and get a supply of these bulletins.

HUMOROUS SELECTIONS.

By S. J. B.

Slow.

Seagirt would not lie, I know, but he is dreadfully careless with the truth. He said that that the horse he hired to go to Glenellen last summer was so slow that a spider wove its web in the wheel. Children came and made mud pies in shade of the buggy. At one point he had an exciting race with a caterpillar. A woman came out and asked him to please drive a little faster, as he was keeping the sun off her tomatoes. He said the horse was slower than a barber he knows, who isso slow that the whiskers grow faster than he can shave and by the time he is through the customer has a full beard.—Chicago News.

No Change in Health.

During one of the campaigns of Judge George H. Burckhardt he was introduced to a young attorney.

The Judge shook hands with him cordially and asked about his father.

"Father is dead," said the lawyer.

"Why, yes, I know that; I meant to ask how is your mother?"

"Judge, mother died before father did."

"Well, well! How are you?

An hour later Judge Burckhardt again met the young man.

"And how is your father?"

"He's still dead, Judge."—Case and Comment.

Shocking.

An elderly lady of very prim and severe aspect was seated next to a young couple, who were discussing the merits of their motor cars:

"What color is your body?" asked the young man of the girl at his side, meaning, of course, the body of her motor.

"Oh, mine is pink. What is yours?"

"Mine," replied the man, "is brown with wide yellow stripe."

This was too much for the old lady. Rising from the table, she exclaimed:

"When young people come to asking each other the color of their bodies at a dinner party it is time I left the room."—Tit-Bits.

What He Couldn't Understand.

In the recently published letter of a Persian envoy to the United Kingdom, written about the year 1820, occurs a description of the writer's visit to a meet of the famous Coaching club of those days which is worth quoting. "One thing I see," he writes, "but I not understand that thing good or bad, Last Thursday I see some fine carriage, I ask why for, they say me that Gentlemen on Boxes they drive their own carriage. I say why for take so much trouble? They say me, he drive very well. That very good thing. It rain very hard, some Lord, some Gentlemen he got wet. I say, why not go inside? They tell me good coachman not mind get wet every day, will be ashamed to go inside—that I not understand."

If They Were Alike.

The other day a gentleman farmer having some pigs for sale offered to dispose of them to a pork butcher. The latter called at the farm where, before proceeding to the yard, he was hospitably treated and introduced to his host's daughters. A gallant man is that porkist, and one who never lets pass an opportunity of paying a compliment.

"Now, sir," said he, on leaving the room, "I've seen your young ladies and I'm going to see your young swine, and if the two's much alike there won't be no difficulty about bringing off a deal."
