THE CAPITAN MOUNTAINEER

FIFTH YEAR NUMBER 6. CAPITAN, NEW MEXICO, MAY 31, 1919. SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1.50 A YEAR.

Wife and Mother.

Mrs. Eliza Sams Bigger was born February 27th, 1851, in Madison county, Ark., and was the daughter of John F. and Sarah Sams. In her early childhood, with her parents, moved to southwest Missouri, where she grew to young womanhood. On May 22nd, 1872, she was united in marriage to Neil H. Bigger, to which union was born five children, one of which died in infancy, the other in early youth.

Her life was one of which it may be said the world has been made better by her having lived in it. As a mother her love and sacrifice knew no bounds, and her loss is a sorrow which seems almost unbearable, but we must bow in humble submission and try to follow her wishes, many times she had expressed a desire to pass into eternity in just the manner in which she did, and always with the request that we not grieve, but rejoice that sorrow and trouble were over for her.

Mother was a woman of strong Christian character and counted her friends by the score. Her greatest pleasure was in doing something for humanity, and she will be greatly missed by all, but her example is an incentive to each upward and onward to greater things. Her passing away came very suddenly and unexpectedly to her loved ones, as she had seemed unusually cheerful and well all day, and as she sat reading her religious paper death claimed her. A diagnosis of the case showed the bursting of the large artery leading to the heart.

A singular coincidence was that her death was on her forty seventh wedding anniversary. Appropriate funeral services were held Sunday May 25th, 1919, at the Baptist church, conducted by a close personal friend, Mr. Robert A. Hurt, and Rev. R. A. Price, of the Baptist church. She is survived by her husband, Neil H. Bigger, three children, Robert L. Bigger, of Wichita Falls, Texas, Samuel J. Bigger of Capitan, New Mexico, and Mrs. W. R. Hilliard, of Seymour, Texas, and three grand children, Neil G., Lucille and Willie Hilliard, and one sister, Mrs. M. A. Bingaman, of Eureka Springs, Ark., and one brother, Levi C. Sams, of Clinton, Mo.

Mother has passed on, but to the thousands she leaves behind she is strengthened and in each of us a determination to be what she wanted us to be, and when the summons comes we expect to be ready to join her in the heavenly home where sorrows never come.

Road Meeting.

A road meeting was held at the School House Tuesday evening. It was decided to have the arroyo washes filled up and bridges repaired on the Roswell and Carrizozo road in the vicinity of Capitan. It was resolved that an effort be made to secure daily railroad service from Carrizozo to Capitan and that Capitan be made the terminus of the mail line now running from between Roswell and Carrizozo. Mr. Geo. A. Titsworth was appointed to confer with General Manager Dawkes of the E. P. & S. W. railroad looking to that end.

FORT STANTON WILL CELEBRATE.

The people of Fort Stanton will celebrate the 4th of July this year with greater festivities and amusements than they have ever done. In the first place, there will be a barbecue and a dinner for everybody who attends; there will be amusements of various kinds, a program of of which will be published in this paper in due time. One thousand dollars has been subscribed to make the occasion a great success, so arrange your affairs to take it in and have one full day of pleasure.

Let Us Give One Day in Respect to the Dead.

A number of the people of Capitan and vicinity have decided to set a part the 14th day of June to repairing and improving the cemetery. The fence needs rebuilding, the grounds are in a bad condition and many graves are sunken and need refilling, etc. Let those who can't spare the time from their business or work contribute to the expense. It is also suggested that the ladies of the community will no doubt take an interest in the matter and be willing to prepare some manner to spread on the grounds. This is a duty we not only owe our dead, but it is something that should be done to make the cemetery have an appearance of respectability. Let everybody help in this matter.

To Our Friends.

We take this occasion to express our thanks and appreciation to our many friends in Capitan and community for the kindness, help and sympathy shown us following the death of our wife and mother. We will also express our appreciation for the letters of condolence received from friends in other parts of the country. These tokens and expressions of friendship will ever abide with us.

The Tucson School Closing.

The Tucson school closed with an entertainment Saturday night May 24. Every pupil on the enrollment list took part in the programme, which was both in the English and Spanish languages. All the children acquitted themselves with grace and ease. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to every one present. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, an audience of more than seventy five was in attendance. At the conclusion of the programme promotion certificates and candy was presented to the participants.

The entertainment was a community affair, as every one in the vicinity contributed to its success.

The families of Morris, Phillips, Greene, Duran, Chisholm, Herrera and Peralto were very liberal in refreshment activities.

Geo. Clements, jr., was over yesterday from Carrizozo and will probably be here a day or two visiting old friends.

Alto News.

Brother Jones and wife, a Nazarene minister from Abilene, Texas is holding a protracted meeting in Alto. The people seem to be greatly interested, it is hoped that they will do lasting good at this place as religion is badly needed everywhere.

The farmers are still very busy sowing and planting.

The fruit in this locality is not killed as we feared some time ago.

Mrs. T. W. Linsay left for Missouri Tuesday.

From Fort Stanton.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. McKeon left for their new station at Charleston, S. C, on Wednesday. Major McKeon has been at Fort Stanton for the last six years and in the opinion of residents here has given a most successful and just administration. This is evinced by the profound regret and many tokens of esteem tendered him and his wife by the entire population of the Fort and vicinity. The amusement hall was crowded with patients, attendents and officers for a final personal hand shake and expression of good wishes. It is doubtful if a more capable, efficient or loved couplo ever presided over the station although Fort Stanton has been fortunate in that respect for serveral administrations.

The new commanding officer is Major W. A. Korn of San Francisco who arrived accompanied by Mrs. Korn the evening before Major McKeon left. Major Korn has been in charge of large and important stations for years which peculiarly fit him for duty here. Both Major and Mrs. Korn are such pleasing personality that they have already about captured the Fort and will doubtless become very popular here and elsewhere.
