TWO CHINKS DISCOVERED IN A CABOOSE.

Friday afternoon Mr. Cofer, clerk in the trainmaster's office, discovered two Chinamen in a caboose that was out of service temporarily. The doors were locked, and the occupants had evidently been assisted in through the window.

Will S. Kirby, night watchman, was notified, the celestials were arrested and searched, and the officer failing to find them in possession of certificates, escorted them to the calaboose. Immigration-Inspector Griffin was in town at the time, and Mr. Kirby turned the prisoners over to the inspector who took them to Alamogordo that night. The chinks will be required to show why they are in this country without proper credentials. This makes twelve Chinamen captured at this point by Mr. Kirby within the past four months.

Baseball Sunday.

A game of ball has been arranged for Sunday on the local diamond. John Baird has collected an aggregation with which he hopes to put to blush the record of the regular Carrizozo team. We have been unable to secure the line-up of the irregulars, for John has been somewhat reticent in the matter; yet he has vouchsafed the information that he has drafted two players from the regular nine. The regulars will have for a battery, Van Schoyck and Crow, and for the irregulars it will be Gallacher and Redding. A red hot game is anticipated.

A Pleasant Entertainment.

The musical program, prepared by the Epworth League, and presented at the Bank building Monday evening was a delightful affair. The music-loving people of Carrizozo filled the room and lent an appreciative ear to the vocal and instrumental selections that had been formerly announced. At the close of the entertainment, congratulations were showered on the participants for the pleasant and entertaining manner in which the entire program had been pulled off. It is the intention of the League to prepare a monthly program, similar to Monday night's, and the success that has crowned the efforts of the society in this last will be an encouragement for even better things in the future.

Fishing on the Doso.

A fishing party left here Sunday morning for the Ruidoso, on a ten days outing. The party consisted of Ed Long and wife, Geo. Roslington add wife, Miss Minnie Dalton, Chas. McMasters and Arthur Rolland. Two wagons, loaded with tents, bedding, cooking utensils and supplies, accompanied the party.

John R. Patton went along in the capacity of guide, chef and chaperon, and if conversation should lag around the camp fire at night, John R. can entertain the party with some personal reminiscences. He can tell them about herding Indians in that neighborhood thirty years ago, at a time when the only fish-hooks procurable were bent horseshoe nails, with which they yanked out trout as long as one's arm and twice as thick. If that story sticks, he might be induced to tell something about the noble Red Man, and maintain a lively interest until the party turns homeward.

THE SITE SELECTED.

There was a difference of opinion among the committee as to the selection of the trysting place for the Fourth of July celebration, some being in favor of holding it in town, others at some shady spot in the adjacent mountains close to Nogal, while others favored the cotton-wood grove at the Bar W ranch. In order to settle the question a petition was circulated and the voice of the people had on the matter, with the result that the cotton-wood grove was the choice of the majority. A meeting was held Saturday evening and a committee appointed to select the spot. The grounds on which the sports will be held were marked off Sunday. A more suitable place could not have been found within many miles—plenty of shade and a spring of ice-cold water bubbling out of the ground. A race track is to be laid out, also a diamond for the ball game. The pit, in which a fine fat steer is to be spitted, will be prepared for the feast. Previous to his departure for New York, W. C. McDonald gave the committee permission to use the grove for the celebration, if they so desired.

NO SCARLET FEVER ON BONITO.

The News is in receipt of a communication from Angus, in which it is stated that scarlet fever does not exist in that community. Following is the letter:

"Wish you would state in the News that the report which has been circulated that scarlet fever is raging in this vicinity is a mistake. There is no sickness of any kind here at present, and people who thought that scarlet fever existed in their families now say it was not scarlet fever."

PROMINENT PEOPLE

"TRUST BUSTER" FOR BENCH

Milton D. Purdy, assistant to the attorney-general, has been nominated by the president for United States judge at Minneapolis, and it remains to be seen whether the local political influence that has been so hostile to him in the past will be able to defeat him now. It was strong enough to prevent his being appointed district attorney for a full term, after he had served the unexpired term of his dead chief, but his abilities were not forgotten at the White House. When congress passed an act providing for an assistant to the attorney-general at $7,000 a year, in addition to the seven assistants at $5,000, Purdy was appointed to the office.

It is somewhat remarkable that a man who has made so brilliant a record as a lawyer should have been an indolent, unambitious pupil at school. His father was a potter; he learned the trade himself. He had no ambition to be anything else and would have remained a potter all his life but for his mother, who insisted on his going through the high school and then to the University of Minnesota. When he finished his course he was glad to take a position at $24 a month, although his board cost him $5 a week. For a year he was perfectly miserable and often wondered if it was worth while keeping up the struggle.

Then came the happiest moment of his life. He was appointed assistant city attorney of Minneapolis at the magnificent salary of $25 a week. He felt that he was indeed wealthy now, and as soon as he could save enough for his wedding clothes, he was married. Then he was appointed assistant United States district attorney and succeeded his chief on the latter's death.

His first 19 cases constituted an unbroken list of successes, and he is alleged to have saved the government over $10,000.00. Among other things he brought the Minnesota timber thieves to book and helped "bust" the Northern Securities merger to the great delight of the president. Since he has been assistant to the attorney-general he has been making war upon the Standard Oil, the fertilizer, the drug, the tobacco and other trusts and has done valuable work for the government.

CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK

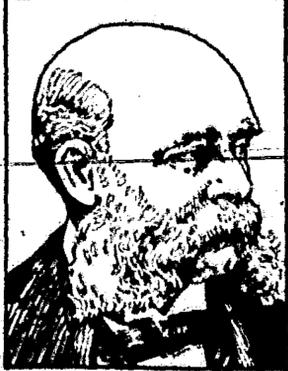

Charles G. Gates has been "bucking the tiger" in a Rawhide gambling house and come out a winner to the tune of $20,000. Gambling is to Charles as the breath of his nostrils; without it life would be unendurable, if not impossible. He came by the instinct honestly, for his father, John W. Gates, is looked upon as the most inveterate gambler in New York. It matters nothing to him whether he risks his money on stocks or at the race track; on cotton or on corn; at poker or at faro. If there is any gambling game he has not tried, Wall street men do not know what it is.

Although Charles is only 33, he has seen more of the ups and downs of life than most men of twice his age. He left college to become a clerk for the Consolidated Steel & Wire Co., of Chicago, and at 21 he was assistant to the president. He was at this time engaged in many deals of his own and he made enough money by them to buy a partnership in a stock-brokerage firm. At 24 he felt that he had earned a rest, so he gave up business and went travelling for three years. On his return he went into his father's brokerage firm in New York. One day he calmly called a meeting of the partners to tell them how they could make two millions in six months. He proposed a corner of the corn market, and these men who had been studying the market for more years than young Gates had lived, went in with him. They ran the price of corn from 65 cents up to $1, and then the crash came. It was whispered that the Gates family intended to leave the others stranded on the top of a rapidly falling market, and the partners took fright and pulled out.

Immediately afterward active in other deals. Charles is now in Rawhide engaged in mining deals.

BOOMING CAUSE OF HUGHES

Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, president of the Hughes league, is busy booming the cause of the New York governor for the Republican presidential nomination.

If Hughes fails the general would like to see the choice fall upon Uncle Joe Cannon who, he says, has prevented more bad or useless legislation from going through than any man in the country. Moreover, he and Uncle Joe entered congress the same year and are exactly the same age, which probably helped to make them the staunch friends they have always been.

Gen. Woodford was born in New York 72 years ago, and was practicing law there more than half a century ago. He was messenger for the famous electoral college of 1860, and was afterward United States attorney for the southern district, which position he threw up to enter the army. At the close of the war he was brevet brigadier-general of volunteers. He was lieutenant-governor of New York in 1866, but was defeated for governor at the following election. He was president of the electoral college in 1872 and a congressman the following year. He has filled some important positions, having been a member of the commission to draft the charter for Greater New York and president of the Hudson Fulton commission.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Treatmentals free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

This woman says that sick women should not fail to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she did.

Mrs. A. Gregory, of 2355 Lawrence St., Denver, Col., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was practically an invalid for six years, on account of female troubles. I underwent an operation by the doctor's advice, but in a few months I was worse than before. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it restored me to perfect health, such as I have not enjoyed in many years. Any woman suffering as I did with backache, bearing-down pains, and periodic pains, should not fail to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

FOR DINNER CARDS

SOME APT QUOTATIONS TO SUIT THE MENU.

Sentiments from Writers That Will Give the Feast a Literary Flavor—Are Appropriate to All the Courses Served.

Here are quotations suitable for hors d'oeuvre, or for the head of the menu: Taste it first.

—Shakespeare, King Richard II., V. v. 39.

A morsel for a monarch: —Shakespeare, Antony and Cleopatra, I. v. 31.

I am resolved to grow fat. —Dryden, Maiden Queen, 3:1.

Since Eve ate apples, much depends on dinner. —Byron, Don Juan, ca. xiii. st. 99.

Sometimes with oysters we combine. —Gay Fables, No. 23.

Now if you are ready, Oysters dear, we can begin to feed! —Carroll, Through the Looking-Glass.

Ladies and gentlemen, will you eat any oysters before dinner? —Swift, Polite Conversations, II.

Caviare to the general. —Shakespeare, Hamlet, II. 2.

Soups may fitly be prefaced with one of the following: I will eat these broth with spoons of amber.

—Ben Jonson, The Alchemist. A genial savour of certain stews. —Byron, Don Juan, ca. v. st. 47.

To blow and swallow at the same moment isn't easy to be done. —Plautus, Mostellaria, III. 2.

For the fish course there is a large selection. Here are some examples: There will be a fish.

—Ovid, Ars Amatoria, 3. The fish was taken but this night. —Beaumont and Fletcher, Woman Hater, I. 2.

From the rude sea's enraged and foamy mouth. —Shakespeare, Twelfth Night, V. 1:31.

Some choice sous'd fish brought couchant in a dish. —Cartwright, The Ordinary, II. 2.

This trout looks lovely, it was 22 inches when it was taken. —Walton, Complete Angler.

The entree may be prefaced with: He's keeping a corner for something that's nice. —Goldsmith.

The glory of the kitchen. —Ben Jonson, Staple of News.

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. —Cervantes, Don Quixote, Pt. I., ch. 4.

Ah, nutbrown partridge! Ah, brilliant pheasants! —Byron, Don Juan, ca. 13, st. 75.

Here's pigeon so finely roasted, it cries, Come, eat me! —Swift, Polite Conversations, II.

Thou wast never with me for anything when thou wast not there for the goose. —Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet, II. 4, 78.

Many quotations might be chosen for the roast course. Here are some of them:

But to rule the roast is the matter. —Middleton, Blurt, Master Constable, III. 2.

What say you to a piece of beef and mustard? —Shakespeare, Taming of the Shrew, IV., 3:23.

A joint of mutton and any pretty little kickshaws. —Shakespeare, II. King Henry IV., V. 1:23.

The subject of vegetables offers a varied choice in the matter of literary adornment. Here are some examples:

Out of the bowels of the harmless earth. —Shakespeare, I. King Henry IV., I. 3:61.

Let the sky rain potatoes. —Shakespeare, Merry Wives of Windsor, V. v. 21.

The mushrooms show his wit. —Pope To—

How green you are and fresh! —Shakespeare, King John III. 4, 145.

The "sweets" by their very name offer suggestions for quotations. Here, for instance, is something appropriate:

Sweets to the sweet. —Shakespeare, Hamlet, V. 1, 266.

Sweets with sweets war not, joy delights in joy. —Shakespeare, Sonnet VIII.

Sweet'ner of life, and selder of society. —Blair, The Grave, I. 87.

I am glad that my Adonis has a sweet tooth in his head. —Lily, Euphues and His England.

Sin Against Light.

It is no disgrace to be mistaken; it is a crime to be a hypocrite. That is the sin against light—the worst of all.

—John Oliver Hobbs.

What is Pe-ru-na?

Is it a Catarrh Remedy, or a Tonic, or is it Both?

Some people call Peruna a great tonic. Others refer to Peruna as a great catarrh remedy.

Which of these people are right? Is it more proper to call Peruna a catarrh remedy than to call it a tonic?

Our reply is, that Peruna is both a tonic and a catarrh remedy. Indeed, there can be no effectual catarrh remedy that is not also a tonic.

In order to thoroughly relieve any case of catarrh, a remedy must not only have a specific action on the mucous membranes affected by the catarrh, but it must have a general tonic action on the nervous system.

Catarrh, even in persons who are otherwise strong, is a weakened condition of some mucous membrane. There must be something to strengthen the circulation, to give tone to the arteries, and to raise the vital forces.

Perhaps no vegetable remedy in the world has attracted so much attention from medical writers as HYDRASTIS CANADENSIS. The wonderful efficacy of this herb has been recognized many years, and is growing in its hold upon the medical profession. When joined with CUBEBS and COPAIBA a trio of medical agents is formed in Peruna which constitutes a specific remedy for catarrh that in the present state of medical progress cannot be improved upon. This action, reinforced by such renowned tonics as COLLINSIA CANADENSIS, CORYDALIS FORMOSA and CEDRON SEED, ought to make this compound an ideal remedy for catarrh in all its stages and locations in the body.

From a theoretical standpoint, therefore, Peruna is beyond criticism. The use of Peruna, confirms this opinion. Numberless testimonials from every quarter of the earth furnish ample evidence that this judgment is not over-enthusiastic. When practical experience confirms a well-grounded theory the result is a truth that cannot be shaken.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR.

The News is authorized to announce that W. H. Beatty is a candidate for re-election to the office of County Surveyor, subject to the action of the democratic party.

GROVER CLEVELAND DEAD.

Grover Cleveland, up to June 24th the only living ex-president, died at Princeton, New Jersey, last Wednesday morning. He was past seventy-one years of age, having been born in the state of New Jersey March 8, 1837. In 1884 he was elected president of the United States, on the democratic ticket, defeating James G. Blaine, of Maine. Again the same party's candidate in 1888, he was defeated by Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana. For the third time he became the standard bearer of his party, and in 1892 defeated Harrison by an overwhelming majority, both on the popular and electoral vote. Since leaving the presidency, he has resided at Princeton, and has devoted a portion of his time to Princeton University, of which institution Woodrow Wilson is president.

Taft and Sherman really make a strong pair. Taft will tell what the reformed republican party is going to do and Sherman will proclaim its past glories. Taft may declare for a revision of the tariff; Sherman will assert that our boundless wealth has come as a result of tariff taxation. Taft is supposed to be facing the elephant's head, while all the world knows that Sherman is looking over the same animal's caudal appendage. In this case, the real danger is that the tail will wag the elephant.

Secretary Taft has ordered the quartermaster general to reserve a plot in the Arlington cemetery as a site for a monument in honor of negro soldiers who died in the civil war. The order was issued immediately after his nomination for president, and is calculated to catch the negro vote. There is nothing wrong with the order, and it might, in justice, have been issued years ago; but coming just when it did, it is too transparent for even the hard-skulled negro to fail to see through it.

This office is kept busy turning out job work for the live business men of Carrizozo. We are here for business, and are getting our share of it, for obvious reasons. Our stock is of the best kind and every job sent out shows quality and artistic taste. Long-headed business men want good printing, and they know it when they see it. They do not order printing from sentiment, but from cold-blooded business motives. If you want the best in printing, this office can furnish it.

DO YOU KNOCK?

If your neighbor is prosperous, let him prosper. Don't growl or grumble. Say a good word for him and let it go at that. Don't be a knocker. Your turn will come—no one man is the whole show. If your town is moving nicely, feel good about it; help things along; show a little push. Try to get some of the benefit yourself. If you are full of bile and disposed to say something mean, keep your mouth shut. Don't be a knocker. No man ever made a dollar knocking; no man ever got rich or happy minding everybody's business but his own. No man ever assisted himself, permanently, by knocking his neighbor down. Give up a kind word; give it liberally—it won't cost you a cent, and you may want one yourself someday. Say, don't be a knocker. You can't afford it—it won't pay. If you want to throw something at somebody, throw cologne or roses; don't throw bricks, bats, or mud. If you must kick, go behind the barn and take a good kick at yourself; for if you feel that way, you're the man who needs kicking. But whatever you do, don't be a knocker.

If there is a chance to boom business, boom it. Don't pull a long face—get a smile on you; hold up your head. Get hold with both hands, then pull: bury the hatchet; drop your tomahawk. When a stranger drops in, tell him this is the greatest town on earth—it is. Don't roast. It's dead easy—help yourself along: push your friend with you. No man ever got rich trying to make people believe that he was the only man on earth. You can not climb the ladder of fame by stepping on other people's corns—they're tender.

All men are not alike. Once in-a-while you may find one who is very much alike; but some are different. You are not the only shirt in the wash. If you don't like their style, let 'em alone. Don't knock. You'll get used to it. There's no end of fun in minding your own business; and it will make other people like you better. Nobody gets stuck on a knocker—don't be one; be good.
P. C. BAIRD.

A recount of the votes cast at the last election will show that Larrazolo was far in the lead for delegate; and if Mr. Andrews can find time to grant a hearing, congress will, no doubt, seat Mr. Larrazolo.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

CAPITAN ITEMS.

The foundation is being laid for the Titsworth residence.

R. H. Box, a substantial farmer from the Little Creek district, was in town a short time Saturday.

Farmers are beginning to complain of the dry weather, yet corn is doing very well notwithstanding that no rain has fallen since April.

W. M. Ferguson and L. R. Lamay were down from the Mesa two days last week, assisting in moving a building from Coalora to Capitan.

The street-cleaning department has done a good job. Rubbish of all kinds has been removed, and the streets present a much improved appearance.

Mrs. G. A. Titsworth and little son went to Carrizozo Sunday to take the train for Sparrow's Point, Maryland, where they will remain about two months.

William Booth, road supervisor of the third district, is repairing the roads in the Ruidoso district. He intends to finish his work in the mountain country before going to the flats, except in a case of emergency.

Several residences have been moved during the past two weeks. F. M. and Hunter Hobbs, John Norton and G. A. Titsworth each had a house moved from the coal camp to town; Thos. H. Moore moved his two-story building from Fourth street to Lincoln avenue, near the depot, and B. W. Reutfrow is preparing to move one from south of the Salado to town.

An Arm Broken.

Benjamin Chavez, the 15-year-old son of Martin Chavez, of Picacho, stopped over in Carrizozo Tuesday night, on his way home from Santa Fe, where he has been attending school. Next day, with some friends, he visited the skating rink, put on the skates to take a whirl, lost his balance and came down with a crash. In attempting to protect himself, he caught on his left hand, and the impact broke both bones in the forearm, just above the wrist. He was placed on the operating table at Dr. Paden's office, and Drs. Paden and Sugg set the broken bones, affixed a cast of plaster of paris and the injured boy was able to take yesterday morning's train for Capitan, from whence he will go to Picacho.

AN AUTOMOBILE COMPANY.

Carrizozo has a new organization styled the "Carrizozo Automobile Co., Ltd." The officers are: S. L. Northlane, president; Jas. E. Hurt, vice president; F. C. Noessel, secretary and treasurer. The directors are: J. F. Kimbell, I. O. Wetmore and A. C. Wingfield. The purpose of the company is to sell, lease, and rent automobiles. A garage has been built on the corner of Third street and El Paso avenue. The company has two machines now in use. Walter Hyde is the chauffeur, and has been busy for several days breaking in his new steeds.

RAINI RAIN!!

A great rain, for the first of the season, fell over this section last night. How extensive was the fall we are, of course, unable to say; but the mountains have been enjoying local showers for several days, and it is believed last night's rain covered quite an area. The indications are that the rainy season has come in earnest, and if so, the croaker has lost a job. Get busy—the next three months will see this country bloom as a rose.

CAPITAN.

Fell Asleep.

On Sunday morning, between the hours of four and six, the gentle spirit of Mrs. Marshall Parker winged its flight to the Great Beyond. She had been gradually failing, the weight of years was beginning to tell, yet even her family was hardly prepared for such a sudden dissolution.

Mrs. Parker had just had her residence moved from White Oaks to Carrizozo, had it repaired and neatly furnished, and Mrs. Wingfield was living with her. About three o'clock on the morning of her death, Mrs. Parker seemed to be resting well, but when Mrs. Wingfield approached the bed at six she discovered the aged lady apparently sleeping—but it was the sleep that knows no waking. Her hands were folded across her breast, not a sign betokened a struggle—the machinery had worn out—and she gently slept into eternity.

Mrs. Parker was born in Orange, Massachusetts, almost eighty years ago, was married to Marshall W. Parker, and one son, Sidney M., now a resident of Alamogordo, was born to the union. The Parkers came west and arrived in White Oaks June 14, 1882. Later they moved to the Bonito, and there the husband died in February, 1890, and was buried at White Oaks. Since that time Mrs. Parker had continuously resided in White Oaks until just recently she came to Carrizozo.

The remains were interred by the side of the husband in the White Oaks cemetery Monday morning. Sidney, the son, and his family came up from Alamogordo, and were present at the last sad obsequies; and remained until yesterday, when they returned to their Alamogordo home.

It can truly be said of this dear old lady that "None knew her but to love her,
None mentioned but to praise."

Walter Land went to Bonito this week, and requested to have the News follow him. It'll go.

Perry Humphrey, the Bonito farmer and dairyman, was doing business in town the last of the week.

W. C. McDonald left Saturday for New York where he will join his wife and daughter who are visiting there.

C. F. Kauen has resigned his position as bookkeeper for the Trading Company, and will leave for Roswell next week.

Henry Lutz, one of Lincoln's hustling merchants, was in Carrizozo this week, to meet his two little daughters who have been attending school at Santa Fe.

Misses Agnes Pfingsten and Bennie Morrison, two of Capitan's popular and pleasant young ladies, visited Carrizozo this week. They returned yesterday.

The cowboy ball team and a local team had a fast and furious game last Sunday. It was hit, run, slash and miss from the word go. At the end of nine innings the score stood 16 to 15 in favor of the locals.

Holloway is the name of a new postoffice recently established in this county. It is located at the Gallinas station, ten miles this side of Corona.

J. H. Skinner, of the American hotel, has added a porch to that building which greatly improves its appearance, and which will be appreciated by the patrons.

R. Michaelis, a wealthy citizen and for years a prominent official of this county, who still maintains his residence at Picaeho, is on his way to British Columbia, on a summer vacation.

Six tuberculosis patients, en route to the marine sanatorium at Fort Stanton, arrived here Sunday evening from the east and left next morning for the Fort.

Thomas Hale, who has been in the employ of the railroad company for the past eight months, has resigned in order to attend to his farming interests near Capitan.

D. del Curto of White Oaks was in town Monday receiving medical attention for a swollen hand caused by blood poisoning. He called at this office, squared his account with the News and paid a year in advance.

The owner of the race horse who has been in town for several weeks, has taken his horse to Corona, but will return by the 4th, if the owner of any piece horse flesh in this burg wants a game.

George A. Hunt, a prominent sheepman of the Picacho country, was in Carrizozo this week. Mr. Hunt is one of the territorial sheep inspectors, and was returning home from Three Rivers where he had been assisting in dipping sheep.

J. W. Mundell, who has been in Texas the past two years, came in Tuesday and left for Capitan Thursday. Mr. Mundell settled at Capitan a number of years ago, and he, with his brothers, still hold considerable land around that town. Notwithstanding the floods, which have done much damage in portions of the state, Mr. Mundell says Texas has very fine crops.

J. I. Buckner, wife and baby, left for Denver on Monday's No. 1. Mr. Buckner has the position of clerk in the office of C. W. Fitzgerald, supervisor of the Pike's Peak National Forest. Mr. Buckner has been private secretary to Dr. P. M. Carrington, surgeon-in-command at Fort Stanton, for about seven years, and both he and wife will be greatly missed at and around Stanton. They are pleasant, and refined people, and the News heartily joins their friends in best wishes for their future happiness.

Prices will be slaughtered for the next 30 days, at the Spence Furniture Store.

TO STUDY LOST RACE

MISSOURI TEACHER GOING TO LONELY ARCTIC ISLE.

Inhabitants, a Race of Eskimos Holding Itself Aloof from Its Neighbors, Have Progressed, but Do Not Know There's a World.

Macon, Mo.—Dr. Rudolph M. Anderson, who for the last two years has occupied the chair of physiology at Bleeck Military academy, has gone to New York, where he joined the staff of the American Museum of Natural History. The express purpose in Dr. Anderson aligning himself with the museum is to take charge of an expedition to locate an unknown tribe of Esquimaux on a small island in the Arctic ocean. Dr. Anderson's associate in command will be Dr. Stefansson, also of the museum staff. The balance of the company will be natives of the far north.

A voyage lasting two years has been planned. If successful the gentlemen will devote a large part of their time to the study of the lost tribe, their language and their manner of living, and will endeavor to bring back with them some of the members, together with as large a collection of objects illustrating their forms of worship, method of hunting and of living as is possible to transport.

No white man has ever met any member of this isolated tribe, and the knowledge of its existence comes from Esquimaux picked up here and there by whaling vessels. From these it is gathered that the Islanders are a rigorously exclusive set, but that they have advanced beyond other tribes in their skill in making implements of the chase and in the construction of their habitations. Whether the tribesmen from the mainland will be able to converse with them is a question for future solution, and there is even a more important problem—whether the hermit kingdom will permit their visitors to land.

Of course the voyagers will go to them with the outstretched hand of friendship, and will endeavor in every way possible to win their good will. Then will come the interesting feature of their mission—making them understand that there is a great outside world beyond their little island, which is only a pin-point in the ocean.

Dr. Anderson and Dr. Stefansson are stalwart Norsemen, inured to the hardships of a cold climate, and thoroughly at home on snowshoes and dog sledges. They will leave New York soon for Edmonston, British Columbia. From Edmonston they will voyage down (which means northwest) the Mackenzie river to Herschel island, at the mouth of the river. This puts them into the Arctic ocean. They expect to get their supplies, dogs and sledges on the island, and will there arrange for their native company.

The next part of the journey will be made on a whaling vessel to the mouth of the Copper Mine river. From there they will cruise along the coast to the small island beyond Prince Albert island. On this small island they expect to find the queer tribe that is not aware it is lost.

The museum wishes authentic information regarding these faraway people for the purpose of building up a composite group of all the human and animal species of the world, and to illustrate the methods of living, of religion and of warfare of every class of people.

SLEEP IN A CITY TREE.

New York Boy Makes His Summer Home in a Big Walnut.

New York.—Sleeping outdoors in a rudely constructed house erected among the branches of a high walnut tree in the heart of Flatbush a young Polytechnic institute student has adopted a novel method of "getting near to nature." The tree sleeper will commence this way of sleeping just as soon as the weather begins to show signs of summer. Last year he tried this method of outdoor life, starting in the early spring and continuing until the first real snowfall of the season.

The "tree house," as the people in the neighborhood call it, is located on the lawn surrounding the home of Mrs. W. T. Lees, who lives on Flatbush avenue, near Avenue I, Flatbush. W. Thompson Lees is the tree dweller.

A wooden stairway winds around the tree's trunk leading to the single chamber above, allowing an easy ascent to be made. The entire structure is made of wood and was designed by young Lees and his chum, Vall Applegate, a freshman at Dartmouth college. The boys built the house a little more than two years ago, but it is only lately that they have converted it into a sleeping place.

At first their intention was simply to build a "crow's nest" where they could seclude themselves on rainy afternoons and days when it was too hot for active exercise. The "crow's nest" did not prove to be large enough, so the boys added a large platform which forms what they call their piazza. This piazza is roomy enough for an ordinary sized dining-room table and comfortably accommodates six or eight diners.

After Lees and Applegate had the house completed their parents took an interest in it. They recognized that it would be a fine place to sit in the warm weather. Mrs. Lees suggested that a stairway be added to enable the older folk to climb to the tree top. It took the boys three months to build it.

It was last summer that Lees and Applegate decided that they would like to see how it would feel to sleep out in the open. They covered the top of the house with panes of glass and this gave them all the light, day or night, they needed. The trial worked so well that they declared that thereafter they would, while the weather was warm, sleep in the tree.

Not Half.

Mrs.—I think it strange that your friend Tobbs never married.

Mr.—Oh, you don't know Tobbs. He isn't half such a fool as he looks!

COMPLAINTS ABOUT PAINT.

The time to complain about paint is before the painter applies it. The man who puts up the money should not shirk the responsibility of choosing the paint. True, the painter ought to know paint better than the banker, the professional man or the merchant. The trouble is, the house-owner too often deliberately bars the competent and honest painter from the job by accepting a bid which he ought to know would make an honest job impossible.

Secure your bids on the basis of National Lead Company's pure White Lead and pure Linseed Oil and see that you get these materials.

No one need be fooled by adulterated white lead. A blowpipe testing outfit will be mailed to anyone interested in paint.

Address, National Lead Company, Woodbridge Building, New York City.

THOUGHT IT NATIONAL TRAIT.

Driver Couldn't Understand American Not Being in a Hurry.

A traveler returned from Jaffa tells tale at his own expense. Having journeyed to the historical seaport on his way to Jerusalem, he succeeded in hiring a conveyance to carry him to the station. By speech and gesture he informed the native driver that he wished to be carried in a leisurely, sightseeing fashion through as many as possible of the principal thoroughfares of Jaffa, and to be delivered at the terminal just in time to take the outgoing train.

He had no sooner seated himself in the vehicle, however, than the driver whipped up his horse and whirled the dismayed traveler at a furious pace through all the dust and over all the stones of the notoriously rough streets of Jaffa. The passenger was too busily employed in saving his bones to be able to see anything of the interesting town.

Arriving at the station, he found that he still had two hours to wait.

"Why in the world," he demanded, indignantly, "did you ever hurry like that?"

"You American," responded the driver, with an expressive shrug. "All American like go very much fast."—Youth's Companion.

CHANGE IN FOOD

Works Wonders in Health.

It is worth knowing that a change in food can cure dyspepsia. "I deem it my duty to let you know how Grape-Nuts food has cured me of indigestion.

"I had been troubled with it for years, until last year my doctor recommended Grape-Nuts food to be used every morning. I followed instructions and now I am entirely well.

"The whole family like Grape-Nuts, we use four packages a week. You are welcome to use this testimonial as you see fit."

The reason this lady was helped by the use of Grape-Nuts food, is that it is predigested by natural processes and therefore does not tax the stomach as the food she had been using; it also contains the elements required for building up the nervous system. If that part of the human body is in perfect working order, there can be no dyspepsia, for nervous energy represents the steam that drives the engine.

When the nervous system is run down, the machinery of the body works badly. Grape-Nuts food can be used by small children as well as adults. It is perfectly cooked and ready for instant use.

Adam's Punishment.

Arnold Daly is responsible for this one, which happened in a school where Bible study is part of the course.

"What sin did Adam commit?"

"He ate forbidden fruit."

"Right. What tempted Adam?"

"Eve."

"Not really Eve, but the serpent. And how was Adam punished?"

The girl hesitated and looked confused. Behind her sat a little eight-year-old who raised her hand and said:

"Please, pastor, I know."

"Well, tell us; how was Adam punished?"

"He had to marry Eve."—Young's Magazine.

Well Named.

The train had stopped at a little town on the prairie.

The passenger with the skull cap stuck his head out of the window and read the name over the door of the station.

"Star View," he said. "Well, that's a good name, anyway."

"Yes, sir," responded the dejected villager on the station platform, and it fits the durned town like a glove. If you should come here to make a livin', mister, it'd starve you, all right, all right."

Horse Still Useful.

RAILROAD AND SHOP NEWS.

Machinist G. W. Sharp is laying off a few days nursing an injured hand.

The reservoir is to be fenced in order to protect the earth work from the depredations of stock.

The melon and fruit traffic has necessitated the addition of five extra crews on the line between El Paso and Duran.

The local reservoir sprang a leak a few days ago, and a force of men has since been employed repairing it. The settling of the earth possibly caused the trouble.

Bonito water—the best in the land—is hauled in tanks as far east as Tucumcari. It has produced a great saving to the company.

Agent Arnold and several of the employes of the dispatcher's office visited Capitan Monday and enjoyed the refreshing mountain breezes.

J. F. Kimbell, general foreman, has his force pretty busy lately, keeping up runs, on account of large shipments of fruit and melons.

Some monster engines are now in operation on the line. Engine and tender weigh about 175 tons, and they are capable of pulling 60 and 75 cars up grade.

W. K. Collier, clerk in the division foreman's office, will take a thirty days leave of absence, beginning July 1st. He will visit his old home in Childress, Texas.

L. U. Morris, superintendent of the eastern division, was in Carrizozo this week. His headquarters are in Tucumcari, but most of his time is spent in his car.

The passenger service from the east is much improved this week. The high waters in Kansas have receded leaving the roadbed soft, causing the trains to run a little behind schedule time; but detours are not made now as were necessary during last week's flood.

ANGUS WILL CELEBRATE.

The residents of Angus and Borito, will celebrate the Fourth in a shady dell in the mountains close to the old Fort Stanton brewery, and expect large numbers from the surrounding country to participate. There will be an abundance of barbecued meat, coffee, bread, and other good things, and the ladies are requested to bring a sample of their cooking. The programme will be opened with a national salute of 13 guns, after which will follow a sack race, potato race, egg race, three-legged race, broad jump, high jump, foot race, horse race, burro race for kids, and cigar race. Prizes will be given the winners of each event. A dancing pavillion will be put up, good music furnished and everybody welcome.

WE SET THE PACE!

The Big Store with the Big Stock.

The crowds that came to our store last week were all pleased with the values we gave them in high class merchandise. The verdict on all sides was that we made good—that our reputation for the best goods for the least money was fully maintained. Others attempt to follow, but we insist on keeping at the front of the procession.

This week we are still offering many of the Bargains of last week's Sale at the same prices, in Grocery and Dry Goods departments.
