THE CAPITAN MOUNTAINEER

FIFTH YEAR . NUMBER 38. CAPITAN, NEW MEXICO, NOVEMBER 7, 1919. SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1.50 A YEAR.

News from Carrizozo.

The October term of district court convened Monday the 27th of this week, Judge Mechem on the bench, with Benson Newell, stenographer, and O. S. Pearegon interpreter, and will be here this week and part of next week. Several cases have been dismissed and judgment rendered in several which will be reported later.

Col. Prichard, of Santa Fe, is attending court and greeting his many friends with his ever congenial smile and good will.

Horton Spillers spent Tuesday in Carrizozo. Mr. Spillers is the Superintendent of the Ancho school and is returning home to spend the time while his school is closed down, which the directors found necessary on account of small pox raging there.

Forty cases of small-pox are reported raging in Carrizozo, and several other are supposed to have the disease, however the schools and amusement places have not yet been closed. This is not an official report, however.

Mrs. T. A Spencer opened her spacious country home to younger set in Carrizozo Friday night, and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour; also delicious refreshments were served with good apple cider throughout the evening. Those attending were: Misses Ula Edminston, Jack Reily and Herndon, Pearl Clements, Verda Nell, Christine Gilroy, Carrie and Alma Roberts, Inez Holland, Belle Lutz, Carme Hinnon, Georgia Lassenett, Mesdames Bamberger, Zeigler, Pitts, Becoats, etc.; Messrs. Carr, Harris, Finley, Zeigler, Bamberger, Lutz Jones, Rolland, Walters, Pitts, Colunch, Reiley, Allen and many others.

E. G. Rafferty and Felon Gray of Oscuro were visitors in Carrizozo Tuesday and report that the prospects for oil are very good and that they expect to begin on other wells soon.

Modesto Chavez, of Picacho, spent a few days in Carrizozo this week and says that the range is in good condition and that they expect of stock up the old Martin Chavez ranch this winter.

Mrs. Benson Newell, of Alamogordo, is the guest of Mrs. J. B. French this week.

Mr. Oscar Patty of Patty & Hobbs grocery firm has returned from a few weeks trip on the the Ruidoso where he has been supervising the picking of apples. He purchased the entire orchard of Mr. Smith.

Judge John Y. Hewitt, of White Oaks is spending this week in Carrizozo, attending court and visiting with his friends.

Deputy Sheriff LaLone went to Corona this week and arrested Files Fuddo for over draft, but the matter was soon straightened out and Files returned in peace to his home.

Carrizozo will be real ghostly if the small-pox does not scarce them away, as there are a party booked for every night until its time for ghosties to disappear.

H. G. Norman made a business trip to Lincoln Wednesday, also, visited his new neice in Capitan on his way.

Mr. Ramon St. John and Miss Agnes Baca, of Lincoln, were married at the Baptist Parsonage last Saturday and will make their future home in Carrizozo. Mr. St John is in the employe of A. L. Burke, editor of the Outlook.

CAPITAN H. S. CHATTER.

The Lincoln County High School celebrated American day last last Friday afternoon with appropriate exercises, and in spite of the fact that the High School room is rather torn up on account of painting and kalsomining, there was a good turn out of parents and friends and an excellent program in commemoration of Roosvelt was given and a subscription of over $10 was raised.

Due to the effort of Supt. Baughman and the School Board a flag staff was raised over the school house and the entire school assembled in front of the building and under the direction of Miss Peters saluted Old Glory as it was raised and took the pledge of loyalty to the flag.

This was followed by singing the Star Spangled Banner, under the direction of Miss Mitchell.

The school and visitors then assembled in the High School room and the following program was listened to.

Song—America, by everybody

Reading—The Old Flag Forever, by Miss Frances Merchant.

Original Sketch—Theodore Roosevelt, by Miss Julia NuNis son.

Reading—Roosevelt, by Miss Bertha Werner.

Recitation—Poem on Roosevelt, by Miss Della Merryfield.

Reading—Patriotism, by Miss Geneva Coffey.

Song—America for Me, by the girls of the High school.

Roosevelt's Americanism, America for Americans, by Chas. S. Rawles.

Mr. Robert Hurt of the Board of Education being present, was called on and made a short speech and Mr. P. G. Peters was also called on for something and responded graciously. Superintendent L. B. Baughman then spoke of the voluntary subscription which every one was being given a chance to be represented in and slips were passed out, resulting in over $10 being raised for the Roosevelt Memorial Fund. The amount was sent to the state chairman, Col R. E. Twitchell, at Santa Fe and the donors were duly reported and will be duly enrolled in the archives of the state.

At last the Board of Education has secured the services of a man who will take the position of janitor this winter and keep us warm and the building properly cleaned. Every one is congratulating themselves that Mr. J. W. Bennett has accept the position.

T. C. Chamberlain and H. L. Storit, of St. Louis, Mo., are putting on weather stripping on all the doors and windows of the school building with the result that the investment thus made by the board of education will save a great deal of coal in the future. This patent is put out by the Chamberlain Weather Strip Co., and is one of the kind on the market. In addition to making the windows and doors absolutely weather proof the strips prevent the annoyance of noise and rattling of windows in windy weather.

FINALLY REACHED HIS POINT

Lawyer's Flowery Eloquence Turned Out to Be Prelude to Very Simple Request.

Norman Hapgood, the new minister to Denmark, was talking about a whitewashing case.

"The case reminds me," he said, "of Pietro Libertini, a client of mine, Italy, who was on trial for a murderous assault. His lawyer addressed him in this manner:

"'Your honor,' the lawyer began, 'my client, Signor Pietro Libertini, comes from Bella la Bella, land of romance, art and immortal literature. He comes, your honor, from the sun-blessed home of the illustrious Michelangelo Buonarotti, of the divine Raffaello and the undying Dante Alighieri. He comes from the olive-crowned birthplace of Tasso, Ariosto and the humorous Boccaccio. His home is Italia, prolific mother of art and science, progenitrix of Galvani and Galileo Galilei.'

"After the lawyer had gone on in this strain for about an hour the judge began to get impatient.

"'What has all this got to do with the case?' he finally asked.

"'My prior words,' said the lawyer, 'are by way of preface. My client, from immortal Italy, home of the painter and the sculptor, humbly prays this court to apply to him the very lowest form of pictorial art. He prays, your honor, to be whitewashed.'"

Toll of Snakes in India.

The American consul, M. M. Hexwood, stationed at Calcutta, India, states in a government report that more than 26,000 persons lost their lives in the country last year because of snakes and wild animals—the snakes claiming by far the larger number of victims.

To be exact, the consul says that 23,000 persons died in India last year as a result of snake bite, and that 2,170 persons were killed by wild animals. This is an increase of 900 over the previous year as regards fatalities from snake bite and an increase of 100 as regards the number killed by animals.
