Lincoln County Pioneer Lady Dies.

Mrs. Casimira Perea, an old and highly respectable lady, long a resident of Lincoln county, passed away in Carrizozo, this week. Mrs. Perea was born in the town of Manzano, Valencia county, New Mexico, August 24th, 1837. She belonged to the Lucero and Torrez families, of Spanish decent. In 1859, she was married to Jose Nicolas Perea, also a decendant of one of the most influential families in the State of New Mexico. The same family that had the honor having two of its members represent New Mexico in Congreess during Territorial days.

Mrs. Perea's husband Jose Nicolas Perea was kiled by the Mescalera Apache Indians, in 1870. Her brothers then went to Terrion, where she was living and moved her and her children to her step-father's ranch which is now Capitan, but which was then called Salado. Her step-father had many cattle on his ranch and they furnished milk to the Military Post at Fort Stanton.

In September, 1870 school was started in Lincoln by Hon. Juan B. Patron, Santa Fe. Mrs. Perea then moved there where her children could have the benefit of school for her children andcontinued to live there to the time she went to El Paso, Texas, five years ago, where she made her home with her son, Demetrio Perea. She continued to live in El Paso until her son, Octaviano, Perea then a Police there, was killed by a crazy man while in the discharge of his official duty. She then came to Carrizozo and lived with her son, Juan J. Perea up to to the time of death. Mrs. Perea had reached the great age of 84 years; was a kind mother, good to her neighbors and friends and loved by all who knew her. She leaves four sons, Demetrio, Juan, Jose and Adolfo, the latter now living in Los Angeles, California, besides many relative all over the state of New Mexico.

Old Capitan.

Dear old Capitan, with his brow kissed by the sun and dampened by the snows—mute reminders of the power of One who can elevate as well as depress. Silent sentinel of uncounted miles. Grim guardian of uncounted people. Capitan in very fact. The mountains gave us the law; gave the body of Moses' burial; gave us the beautitudes of the peerless Gallilean Teacher; gave the transfiguration of Christ with his garments of whitened splendor; gave us the Great Commission to carry the Gospel to every creature; gave us the leave taking of the Lord Jesus Christ from the scenes of His great missionary undertaking back to His Father's house and His own glory. Blessed be the mountains.

FRANK TALMAGE, SR,
In the Roswell Daily News.

Mr. Harry Comery was severely hurt Wednesday while coming to town. When passing a house the dogs ran out and frightened his team, which became unmanagable, and he was thrown from the buggy and had a rib broken, besides some bad bruises on his body.

A Fishing Excursion.

John B. Burch and A. J. Coffey made a trip to the upper Ruidoso this week and put in two of days faithful fishing. They report poor luck; in fact, John says they didn't catch enough fish to give their frying pan an appetizing odor. However, they had an enjoyable time in camp; Mr. Coffey had many interesting things to relate concerning his early life among the mountains in Ozark county, Missouri, where the editor of this paper has been many times. John had many stories, full interest and amusement, to tell about his youth in Texas, and later of his hunting experiences in the mountains of New Mexico. John had an exciting experience on the trip. Late one afternoon he shouldered his Winchester and strolled from camp, going up a deep rough canyon looking for bear, he says. While cautiously walking, looking and listening to get sight of bruin, he was suddenly startled by a low half scream and the other growl of a huge mountain lion, which was evidently within near distance to him. He says he got out of the low brush through which he was walking into an open space as quick as possible and there awaited the lion's appearance, but he never came in sight.

The Life of "Billy The Kid."

Chas. A. Siringo's Life of "Billy The Kid" is printed and ready for distribution. It is a neat little volume, containing 142 pages, with a picture of the Kid on the front page and a picture of Pat Garrett, his slayer, on the back page. The editor of the Mountaineer has read the book through and takes pleasure in saying that it is a very interesting history. It recites the life story of that noted character in a clear and straightforward style, characteristic of Mrs. Siringo's writings. A great deal of the matter in the book is taken from the author's personal acquaintance with the Kid and the rest of his information was furnished him by people who knew the Kid well, some of whom took part in what is known as the "Lincoln County War," in which the Kid was, perhaps, the most prominent figure. It gives a complete history of him and his doings from the time of his birth in New York City until was killed by Pat Garrett, at Fort Sumner, New Mexico, when only 21 years old. It is the most complete and authentic life history of the Kid that has ever been written, as Mr. Siringo has spent much time in collecting the material for book from the most reliable sources.

We call attention to a suscription offer we are making subscribers and furnish them a copy of the book.

Mr. Frank Ellis, of the Block Ranch force, and Miss Velma Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thompson, were married in Carrizozo, on last Saturday afternoon. These are well kown and popular young people and have the congratulations of many friends. Frank has been in the employ of the Block ranch people for the past sixteen years, and will continue with them. He is preparing to move to one of the company's places near Spindle.
