THE PERSONNEL OF THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

The democratic ticket appears at the head of our editorial page, and speaks for itself. It is scarcely necessary to say a word about it to anyone who has lived in the county long enough to become acquainted. It is composed of able and honest men, capable of performing the duties of the different offices to which they have been nominated. Even republicans acknowledge that it is the strongest ticket that has ever been placed before the people of Lincoln county for their suffrage. All are men of the highest character and integrity, whom the people can safely trust with the conduct of public affairs. The democratic party is proud of its candidates, and asks the support of the people to the end that the various offices may be filled with competent officials who will serve the people faithfully. A few words of personal mention, however, may not be amiss at this time.

The democratic nominee for the Council, John Y. Hewitt of White Oaks, has been a resident of this county for more than twenty years, and therefore needs no introduction. He is deeply learned in law, and if elected will devote himself more towards preventing vicious legislation than to introducing new laws. He may be safely depended on, however, to vote and work for any measure that, in his judgment, will work the greatest good to the greatest number.

The other democratic nominees for the legislature—James W. Mullins and Chas. R. Brice—are pledged and will work for reform legislation. Mr. Mullins was a member of the last legislature and the record he made there should re-elect him.

In the sheriff's office what the people want and demand is a good peace officer—one who is not controlled by a company—and in this particular is John Cole exceptionally well qualified. He has proved himself, during his long residence in the county, a good man, and if elected will make a good sheriff, on whom there will be no strings. Do you want a man for sheriff who will arrest evil doers, keep down lawlessness, preserve peace and order and play no favorites, then cast your ballot for John Cole.

John M. Penfield, the nominee for treasurer and collector, at present fills the office. He is a clerical and a business man of exceptional training and experience and he has given the affairs of his office his time and attention. Figures don't lie, and his well-kept books supply the "proof of the pudding." That he will be re-elected goes without saying.

The nominee for assessor, Porfirio Chavez, is also a candidate for re-election. He made one of the best assessors that the county has ever had. He has not made "flesh of one and fish of another," but has treated all the property owners fairly and squarely. During his incumbency the taxable property of the county has been increased. He is an "assessor who assesses all alike," and if he loses a vote that he received two years ago it will be because he was too conscientious an official—a small fault, by the way, in a good man.

Bernardo Salazar, who received the nomination for probate judge, has served as such for the past two years with credit to himself and satisfaction to those who had business in his court.

L. H. Dow of White Oaks received the unanimous nomination of the democratic party for probate clerk and ex-officio recorder, which was a well-merited acknowledgment of the younger element of the party, and besides was a recognition of the fitness and ability of this young man to discharge the duties of the office of county clerk, without the assistance of a deputy.

J. I. Tipton of Corona is the democratic candidate for county surveyor. He is interested in the real estate business and has been means of inducing numbers of good farmers from Missouri to take up land in this county and settle here. Mr. Tipton is an educated surveyor, equipped with one of the best surveying outfits in the southwest and, if elected, will make a good official.

While all the men on the democratic ticket are good men, and capable, the taxpayers of the county should be especially well pleased that Robt. H. Taylor was nominated for a second term. As the present chairman of the board of county commissioners, he has given the county, since he took office two years ago, a careful, honest and economical administration. Mr. Taylor is a man of strong individuality, whom no one can use when the interests of the taxpayers are at stake—a characteristic, by the way, which may lose him a few votes in this precinct but will gain him many. His actions as a commissioner have been endorsed by the taxpayers generally, without regard to party, and as he is certain to be elected by a large majority, he can easily afford to dispense with the support of those who found out that he could not be handled. This is the kind of man the people want for a commissioner.

Chas. W. Wingfield, was the unanimous choice of the democratic convention for commissioner for the third district. Mr. Wingfield lives on the Ruidosa, where he is noted for his hospitality and large-heartedness. He is educated, a man of well-developed business instincts, thoroughly familiar with county affairs, a heavy taxpayer, and is exceptionally qualified for a commissioner. He is popular with all parties, who are acquainted with his many good traits, both of head and heart, and should be elected by a very large majority. A vote for Charley Wingfield means a vote for a sound administration of county affairs.

We now leave it to the voters to say who they want to fill the various county offices during the next two years. Every man on the above ticket is personally known to the voters to be capable, honorable and honest—men on whom there is no discount. Give them your support at the polls next Tuesday.

SHALL THE PEOPLE RULE?

On Monday evening the Carrizozo Democratic Club will have a grand rally in the Skating rink hall to which everyone is invited. Some of the best speakers in Otero and Lincoln counties will be there, among whom will be the Hon. Judge J. E. Wharton of Alamogordo, who wired he would be here Monday evening without fail. The Victor Phonograph company will furnish one of their best machines with records suitable to the occasion. The voice of our peerless leader, W. J. Bryan, will be heard there, and many high-class selections and band pieces will be rendered.

THE MASTER OF THE HERD.

Jerry Dalton of Tecolote canon shot a large stag last week within a few hundred yards of his home that weighed close to 240 pounds. The antlers had eight points, which would indicate that he had dodged the hunter's rifle for more than that number of years. The head is one of the finest seen in this part of the county in many years. Howard Hall, who is something of a taxidermist, undertook to mount it, which when finished will probably be worth $75.

HOW TO REMOVE STAINS.

Obstinate Cases Can Be Remedied by Following Instructions.

All stains should be removed before the articles are washed, and the sooner the stain is treated the more readily it will yield to the treatment. Pour boiling water through fruit stains, when obstinate soak with a solution of oxalic acid. Wash petroleum ointment stains in alcohol paint in turpentine or alcohol, varnish in alcohol, grass and other green stains in alcohol, kerosene or molar. For blood stains use white of an egg in cold water or spread on raw flour paste and spread in the sun. In the case of milk, cream, sugar or syrup stains, soak in cold soft water. For wheel grease or machine oil stains should be rubbed with lard and allowed to stand a few moments, then they should be washed with soap and cold water. Tea, coffee or cocoa stains should be removed with boiling water, and if obstinate use the solution of oxalic acid.

OEUF A LA NEIGE.

Confection That is Popular with Chefs in France.

Put one pint of milk, the rind of half a lemon and half an inch of cinnamon stick into a saucepan and bring them slowly to boiling point. Remove the rind and cinnamon stick. Put the whites of three eggs on a plate and the yolks into a basin. Add a pinch of salt to the whites, and beat them to a very stiff froth. Drop tablespoonsful of this beaten white into the hot milk and poach them slowly for a few minutes.

When firm, lift the "snowballs" out on to a dish. Add one heaping tablespoonful of sugar to the yolks in the basin and mix them well together.

Pour the milk that is left in the saucepan slowly on to these, stirring all the time; return to the saucepan and stir carefully over the fire until the custard thickens.

When the custard is cool, pour it round the snow eggs in the dish and decorate with a few pieces of glace cherries. Any extract or flavoring may be added to the milk.

Cauliflower au Gratin.

Boil a fine cauliflower tender in milk and water mixed in equal proportions, and salted. Prepare a white sauce, diluted with milk to a creamy consistency. When cooked tender, break the cauliflower into clusters, put a layer into a baking dish, sprinkle with grated parmesan, and moisten with sauce. Repeat to form a second layer. Scatter bread crumbs over all, and dot with bits of butter. Bake golden brown. Meanwhile prepare a garnish of hard-boiled egg in the following manner: Boil four eggs hard separate the yolks and whites. Rub the yolks to cream with a bit of butter, and season with salt, paprika and nutmeg. Add some finely minced ham or chicken, and form the mass into little balls. When the gratin is baked, set the dish in a paper gratin holder, and garnish with the tidy egg balls, laid on pieces of chopped hard-boiled whites, and serve very hot.

Cinnamon Crisps.

Cream one-half cup butter with one of sugar and one teaspoon of cinnamon, then add one-half cup (or more) of sweet milk and two cups of flour, in which has been sifted one teaspoon of soda, two of cream of tartar. Roll the dough very thin, using more flour if required. Cut in fancy shapes and bake until crisp and brown.

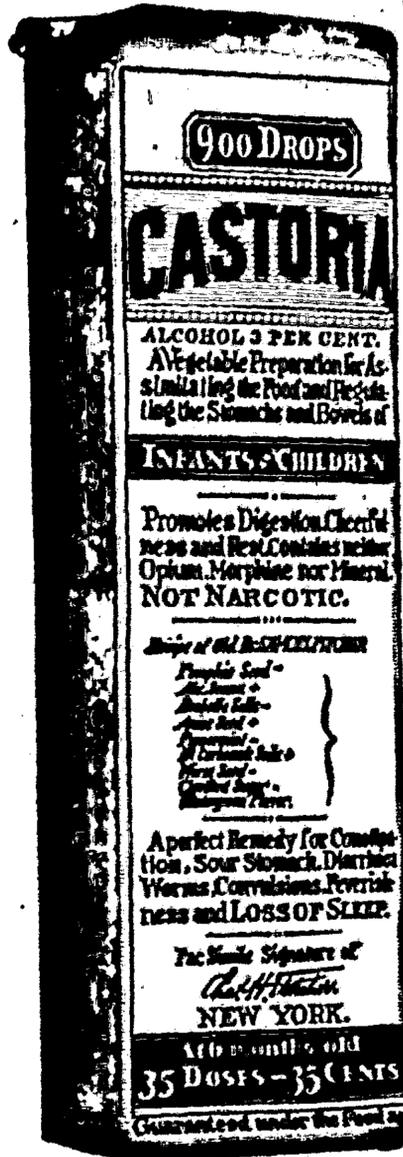

Red Currant Pie.

Pick over and wash about one pint of berries. Put on the stove with a little water, not quite enough to cover. Stew until very clear, then add a heaping cup of sugar and cook until it thickens like stewed cranberries. Let cool, add teaspoon of vanilla. Bake with strips of crusts across like check-board.

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

He must not idle on the street, and if he had been found trying to stand on his head he would have gone to jail for a week.

Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

Doan's Kidney Pills bring the quickest of relief from backache and kidney troubles. Is that relief lasting? Let Mrs. James M. Long, of 113 N. Augusta St., Staunton, Va., tell you. On June 20th, 1907, four and one-half years later, she said: "I haven't had kidney trouble since. I repeat my testimony."

BABY CRIED AND SCRATCHED

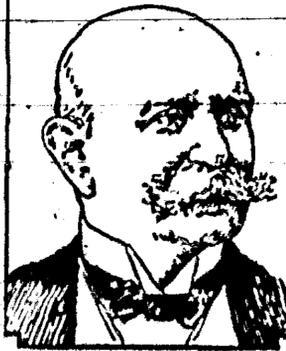

All the Time—Covered with Torturing Eczema—Doctor Said Sores Would Last for Years—Perfect Cure by Cuticura.

"My baby niece was suffering from that terrible torture, eczema. It was all over her body but the worst was on her face and hands. She cried and scratched all the time and could not sleep night or day from the scratching. I had her under the doctor's care for a year and a half and he seemed to do her no good. I took her to the best doctor in the city and he said that she would have the sores until she was six years old. But if I had depended on the doctor my baby would have lost her mind and died from the want of aid. But I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and she was cured in three months. Alice L. Dowell, 4763 Easton Ave., St. Louis, Mo., May 2 and 20, 1907."

IN THE LIMELIGHT

ZEPPELIN CONQUEROR OF AIR

Count Ferdinand Zeppelin, whose recent remarkable flight in his dirigible airship followed by the destruction of his machine by lightning at Echtingen, has resulted in arousing all Germany to his support, so that his evident misfortune may prove the best thing that could have happened to him, has devoted his life and his fortune to aeronautics.

The story of the German inventor-nobleman is one of tireless effort and unselfish devotion to an ideal. For half a century, nearly, he has worked at his airship, much of the time under the most unpromising conditions. Time after time he has seemed to have grasped success, only to have the first real experiment demonstrate a weakness that was fatal. Time after time he overcame his disappointment and went back to work with unflinching faith that the secret of the upper air should yet be his.

Count Zeppelin is a scion of one of the respected houses of the German nobility. He inherited a considerable fortune, and had an excellent place in the army. But even in that early day he was at work upon the sky-sailing idea. Long before the aeronauts of France had begun seriously to work upon the proposition, Count Zeppelin was studying, experimenting, testing. He resigned his place in the army and gave all his time and energy to his work. He spent all of his fortune in the same cause before success came. Then, when he had apparently solved the greatest obstacle, he had no money. He had a firm believer in the king of Wurttemberg, who had advanced him cash at various times for his work. Then, a year ago, the German reichstag gave more money, and now it looks as though popular subscription would place a million at his disposal for the construction of a new airship.

HOLDS THE DEMOCRATIC BARREL

Charles N. Haskell, whom the Democrats have chosen to hold the campaign barrel in the official capacity of treasurer, is governor of the state of Oklahoma, where he went eight years ago, after losing out in his home state, Ohio, in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor, John R. McLean beating him for the place by one vote.

In Oklahoma he has had better luck and will now handle the finances of the Democratic national committee.

Gov. and now Treasurer Haskell is about 46 years old and is a lawyer, also has done considerable railroad building. Once Haskell had an office in Wall street, but his stay there was very short. Haskell is generally considered a "gum shoe" statesman. He was nominated by the Democrats of Oklahoma in July last.

After his defeat in Ohio he is said to have expressed himself as dissatisfied with his political treatment there and declared that he would go to Oklahoma, where he would be appreciated, and he has made good. He has also prospered in business. His wife, said to be a shrewd business woman, has helped him to make money, and is as well known as her husband.

THE VENEZUELAN DICTATOR

Don Cipriano Castro, known by his enemies as the Andean cattle thief and by his friends as the president of Venezuela and the champion of Venezuela for Venezuelans, is now in the international limelight, having recently aroused the ire of doughty Holland, which country may administer a wholesome punishment with the Dutch wooden shoe before she is done with the irascible little South American upstart.

Ten years ago, when the present dictator of Venezuela, who so often before, as to-day, has succeeded in endangering the peace of the world, was 40 years of age, there were at least five score self-styled generals in the republic more prominent than he. Ignoring the etiquette of the revolutionary game, by assassinations, exiles, and imprisonments, he has thinned out the ranks of his competitors, and for the moment at least rules supreme over a subjugated people.

In 1898 Castro was not only unknown to fame, but his first appearance in public life as senator to the federal congress from the Andean state of El-Gachira, had been a distinct failure. His uncouth manners were remarked upon in a by no means conventional or august assembly.

Castro returned to the Andes with a great hatred of Caracas, which he denounced as a Europeanized capital, and of its society, by which he had been overlooked and snubbed.

Several of the half-hearted defenders of the Castro regime, and a few such they are, say that after all the friction which has resulted in the almost complete ostracism of Castro by the civilized world has arisen over the claims of foreign concession hunters, whose morality and observance of the law are no more admirable than those of the Andean dictator.

These advocates of Castro, or at least of non-intervention, say that it is a case which is well covered by the old axiom of international law, which reads: "Let the investor beware or take the consequences." While this view of reasoning sounds well, it is not in accord with the facts.

Is Pe-ru-na Useful for Catarrh?

Should a list of the ingredients of Peruna be submitted to any medical expert, of whatever school or nationality, he would be obliged to admit without reserve that the medicinal herbs composing Peruna are of two kinds. First, standard and well-tried catarrh remedies. Second, well-known and generally acknowledged tonic remedies. That in one or the other of these uses they have stood the test of many years' experience by physicians of different schools. There can be no dispute about this, whatever. Peruna is composed of some of the most efficacious and universally used herbal remedies for catarrhal diseases, and for such conditions of the human system as require a tonic. Each one of the principal ingredients of Peruna has a reputation of its own in the cure of some phase of catarrh or as a tonic medicine.

The fact is, chronic catarrh is a disease which is very prevalent. Many thousand people know they have chronic catarrh. They have visited doctors over and over again, and been told that their case is one of chronic catarrh. It may be of the nose, throat, lungs, stomach or some other internal organ. There is no doubt as to the nature of the disease. The only trouble is the remedy. This doctor has tried to cure them. That doctor has tried to prescribe for them.

No other household remedy so universally advertised carries upon the label the principal active constituents, showing that Peruna invites the full inspection of the critics.

Cast your ballot for Larrazolo and the full democratic ticket.

The voters of New Mexico are going to "do" things to Andrews on election day.

All democratic voters should go to the polls on Tuesday, and assist in swelling the majority.

Vote the straight democratic ticket, and help defeat the man who stole the election two years ago.

The democrats ask the suffrage of the voters for their county candidates on the records made by the democratic officers during the past two years.

Let every democrat be up and doing. Take nothing for granted.
Don't be too confident. The fight will not be won until the polls close on November 3rd.

Shall the people rule? or shall the corrupt political republican machines rule? If you believe the former cast your ballot for a clean delegate to congress.

A vote for democratic candidates means a vote for lower taxes, more efficient and cleaner government and a rebuke to a corrupt gang of unprincipled political heelers.

How will you vote?

Citizens of New Mexico believe in fair play and honest elections and it is a duty incumbent upon them, irrespective of party, to roll up a majority for Mr. Larrazolo this year so great that no manipulation by the Republican tricksters can change the result.

Honestly, now, Mr. Voter, have not the democratic county officials given the people a first-class administration? Have they not given the duties of their respective offices personal, intelligent and competent attention? You are entirely satisfied, are you not?
Then vote the democratic ticket straight and continue the good work.

Let no democrat be beguiled into voting for a few men on the republican ticket. It is reasonable to suppose that the efforts of the republicans will be devoted to the election of two or three candidates, and everything sacrificed to this end. It is a game which has been worked successfully in the past, but which "don't go now." All that is necessary for complete success is for the democrats to be on their guard and vote a straight democratic ticket.

SIX MONTHS FOR WINKING.

Candidate-for-President Taft (the father of injunctions) defends his action in issuing injunctions in labor disputes, while U. S. Circuit Judge, thus. Of the Phelan case he said:

"It grew out of the attempt of the American Railway Union and Eugene Debs to compel the Pullman Company to pay higher wages to its employees. Some railroads had contracts with him for carrying his cars. They were not justified in breaking those contracts. At this time the Cincinnati Southern Railroad was being operated by a receiver under my orders as United States Circuit Judge. Phelan knew this and was warned of it. He held meetings of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad employees and advised them to strike and tie up the road, and by hints and winks and side remarks he instigated them to violence.

"On an affidavit charging him with contempt in attempting by such methods to defeat the order of the court directing the receiver to run the road, he was brought into court. The evidence clearly established his guilt. I therefore sentenced him to jail for six months."

This is the man who is now fishing for the labor vote of the country. If railway employees are satisfied to vote for the archenemy of labor, who admits sending one of their number to jail for six months for winking, then we no longer have sympathy with the wage-earner.

LABOR IS FOR BRYAN.

The importance which the labor element has assumed in the present presidential campaign is significant. Following are excerpts clipped from the Washington (D. C.) Tribune of interviews with two noted labor leaders, President Gompers and Secretary Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor:

Mr. Gompers stated: "In view of all that has gone before, remembering all that has been done and so very much that has not been done, anticipating what may be done if there is no change in dominating power—in view of all this, we agree to stand solidly for defeat this year of the Republican party. We see and feel that defeat of the Republican party this year will be a public service.
There is absolute unanimity in organized labor to contribute our votes to accomplish that public service. We know enough of the future now to be positive in the confidence that the Republican party will be defeated in the pending election. There is no question whatever that it will be.
Organized labor is united in its determination to stand by our friends and elect them, to oppose our enemies and the indifferent and defeat them, wherever they be candidates, whether for President, for Congress or for any other office or place, executive, legislative or judicial. There are enough voters in the bodies constituting the A. F. of L. to determine any national election in the United States."

Mr. Frank Morrison, when asked what he regards as the most probable result of the Presidential campaign and what the mind of organized labor is on the political issues involved, said:
"The mind of labor is one—it is a determination to elect our friends and to defeat our enemies.
When I say labor I mean labor unorganized as well as organized.
When it comes to benefits or injuries from legislation antagan-istic to labor, the man who does not belong to a Union is as much interested because as much affected as is the member of a Union.
Labor knows that the Republican party is not its friend so far as proposed legislation is concerned, and the labor vote will therefore be against candidates of that party—whether for executive, judicial or legislative positions.
As the labor vote is united, and as it is sufficient to determine results, it is very evident that the Republican party will be defeated

ACCIDENTAL KILLING AT BONITO.

An unfortunate accident, resulting in the death of R. J. Kester, occurred at Bonito last Monday afternoon. From the information at hand, it appears that John F. Greer had drawn a pistol in Kester's place of business for the purpose of demonstrating some subject under discussion, and the pistol was discharged, the bullet entering Kester's body near the lower point of the sternum, below the ribs and a little to the right, lodging in the body. Death resulted in about thirty minutes.

J. E. Koonce, justice of the peace at Nogal, was summoned to hold an inquest, as there is no justice at Bonito. A coroner's jury was summoned, evidence taken and the following verdict was returned:

"We, the undersigned active justice of the peace and jury, who sat upon the inquest held on the 27th day of October, A. D., 1908, on the body of R. J. Kester, found in precinct 12 of the county of Lincoln, N. M., find that the deceased came to his death by reason of a pistol shot wound, and that the pistol was accidentally discharged while in the hand of John F. Greer.

J. E. Koonce, J. P. (acting)
B. R. Robinson, George Killen, R. E. Wingfield, W. I. Robinson, Samuel Kelsey and C. R. Booker, jurors."

Conductor Anderson received a severe shaking up and a scalp wound five inches in length Tuesday at Ancho. He was in his caboose, when some cars that were being switched bumped into the rear end of the caboose throwing to the opposite end, where his head came in contact with the stove with the result stated. He brought his train home, had his head dressed, and is now laying off for repairs.

Arthur Rolland, Charles McMasters and Frank Nelson took a trip to the Carrizo mountains Sunday in quest of game. They returned Monday with a fine buck, but which of the party fired the fatal shot, or whether the animal was the victim of a concentrated fire, is still a mystery. Mother earth for a couch and a blanket of snow for covering cut short the hunt; otherwise more trophies might have been secured.

FOR SALE—160 acres of patented land, 6 miles from Capitan. Plenty of fine pine, juniper and prairie timber, two good shallow wells of water. Fine range for 200 cattle. Cheap for cash, or part trade. C. Hightower, Capitan, N. M. Oct. 4t

It certainly looks bright for a democratic victory. The republicans have about thrown up the sponge in New York, and the democrats have an even chance in Ohio. The people still rule.

MASONIC OFFICERS ELECTED.

Pursuant to call, the charter members of the proposed Carrizozo Lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, met at the office of Barber and Gierke, on Wednesday night at 7:30 and perfected their organization by the election of the following officers for the ensuing year: Worshipful Master, G. A. Gierke; Senior Warden, George Roslington; Junior Warden, Walter C. Miller; Secretary, George W. Spence; Treasurer, Thomas B. Meek; Tyler, Isaac I. Cavender.

The appointive officers of the lodge will be named later. Much important business was transacted and the officers hope to be able to get the lodge installed in a very short time. The following constitute the list of charter members of the new lodge:—William G. A. Gierke, George Roslington, George W. Spence, Walter C. Miller, Thomas B. Meek, Isaac I. Cavender, Harry Chant, Carrizozo; Jones Taliaferro, Wayne Van Schoyk, Elbert T. Collier, White Oaks; Edwin F. Comrey, David W. Glenn, Ancho; Mart L. Goodin, William D. Martin, Oscuro; Frank H. Calfee, Three Rivers; Green B. Greer, Parsons.

It is not unlikely that the ladies of the Masonic Fraternity will organize a Chapter of the Eastern Star in the near future.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

All members of the Democratic Club are requested to attend the final democratic rally Monday evening in the Skating Rink hall, and to invite all their friends. Good speakers will be there to discuss the important issues of the campaign.

The registration list of this precinct, which closed Saturday night, contains three hundred and eighty-five names. It is not at all unlikely that several legal voters were omitted, as there were so many new names it was almost impossible to secure them all. However, those who are not registered but are qualified voters, may vote by filing the proper affidavit with the election judges.

A masquerade ball will be held at White Oaks this evening.

Miss Grace Page came in from Chicago this week to look after her homestead.

Geo. W. Coe was in town this week from his home on the upper Ruidoso.

F. J. Sager, cashier of the Exchange Bank, returned from Kansas City this week.

Rev. Jackson of Estancia will preach in the Wetmore hall Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

F. C. Gurdley, manager of the Carrizozo Eating House, has returned from a visit in El Paso.

Jones Taliaferro was down from White Oaks to attend the Masonic meeting last Wednesday night.

G. Stokes, the barber, has purchased the fixtures and will open the postoffice barber shop next week.

Syl Anderson and family left yesterday for Lincoln where they will visit with relatives for about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Henry and son Sidney, returned Saturday from a two months' visit in Montana.

A. T. Roberts went over to Glencoe Tuesday to look over a bunch of horses with a view to purchasing them.

George G. Thorp, a Jicarilla business man, spent several days in Carrizozo this week. He returned Wednesday.

Frank Mudge is making extensive improvement on his residence on Oak street, and will soon have a cosy little home.

Dr. L. C. Frick of Fort Stanton was in Carrizozo Wednesday to meet his wife who had just returned from Georgia.

G. B. Greer, the fruit tree man came in from Parsons to attend the meeting of the Masonic fraternity last Wednesday night.

Edwin F. Comrey and David W. Glenn drove in from Ancho to participate in the election of the first officers of the local Masonic lodge last Wednesday night.

Sergeant W. H. Dudley of the Mounted Police spent a few days in this neighborhood this week on business connected with the service.

B. H. Moeller of Lincoln arrived in town Saturday and left early next morning for El Paso, where his family is visiting. He passed through Thursday on his return.

Howard Hall went out Tuesday on a surveying expedition towards the Mal Pies. Combining business with pleasure, he took a gun along and returned with a couple of dozen birds.

The Indian summer which we in this part of the domain, have been enjoying for some time, was brought to a sudden end last week by the arrival of old King Frost. Stoves were hurriedly put in place, and the wood and coal man will now hold the stage for some time.

L. C. Skinner and A. B. Zumwalt have a contract with the railroad company to do some work above Ancho, and will take their teams to that place tomorrow. They expect to be engaged about three weeks on the present contract, and when it is completed they may enter into a further contract with the same company for similar work.

The election returns from the county, territory and country will be received at the Carrizozo Bar Tuesday evening. A wire will be strung from the main line to the building and an operator will take the dispatches off the wire. The returns from New York will commence arriving by 7:00 p.m., on account of the difference in time.

S. C. Weiner, a White Oaks merchant, took a run over Sunday in his newly-purchased auto.

He was giving the machine a "try out," and covered the 12 miles in 13 mins. and 10 seconds. The machine worked perfectly, and he believes when the working parts become smoother he can make the run between towns in 12 minutes flat.

W. D. Gray, Frank Gray and P. C. Baird left Saturday for the foothills of the Oscuras with blood in their eyes, and a determination not to return empty-handed. They returned Monday evening with two black-tail, a bunch of quail and other small game. Deer are said to be plentiful in the section visited, and it is also the quail-hunter's paradise.

T. B. Meek, George Spence and another whose name we failed to learn left last Saturday on a hunting trip in the Oscura foothills. George became separated from the other members of the party, lost his bearings and reached home Monday evening tired and footsore after a hike of twenty-five or thirty miles over a rough country. George is no longer as young as he used to be, but his pedestrian feat on last Monday knocks on the head the theory of Prof. Oasler that a man is past his usefulness at forty years and should be chloroformed.

The Abuse of Servants.

Bridget and Dinah and Katrina continue to receive the censure, not to say abuse, of the public press and private individuals for their alleged unsatisfactory performances of their duties in the kitchen, in the laundry, in the dining room—in short, "up-stairs, down-stairs, and in their ladies' chambers." The abuse is sometimes extravagant and the censure undeserved. Bridget and Dinah and Katrina often do much better than the newspapers and the mistresses would have us believe. But, conceding that, upon the whole, household servants are not as efficient as they might be, is it surprising? If you found a man who had never driven a plane or handled a saw, and set him to work at the frame of a house, and presently began to berate him because he was a poor carpenter, you would make yourself more ridiculous than you would make him. If you wanted a coachman or a groom, you would hardly engage one who had never seen a horse. If you did, and your stock were badly cared for and yourself run away with, you would be laughed at if you blamed your incompetent retainers. Yet this is just what is done by housekeepers in regard to servants, says the New York Weekly. It is as unreasonable to expect women to cook or do other housework before learning how, as to expect a man to build a house or manage horses without any instruction or experience. What is needed is a school for servants, or a system of apprenticeship, or some other means of training them in household work before they are called upon to fill household positions.

When Dr. Billy James Clark, a young physician of Moreau, Saratoga county, New York, organized a temperance society in the village, in 1808, the drinking habit was much more prevalent than it is to-day. The one hundredth anniversary of Dr. Clark's society was celebrated last month in Saratoga by an international temperance convention, with delegates present representing 25 states as well as half a dozen foreign countries. Dr. Clark's society is frequently described as the first American temperance organization. The Sober society of Allentown, N. J., however, antedates it by three years. Organized temperance work on a large scale did not begin here till 1826, when the American Society for the Promotion of Temperance was formed in the Park street church in Boston. Excessive drinking is so uncommon nowadays that if the early temperance advocates could come to life and see the change they would be astounded at the progress made. Men have learned by experience and observation that if they would get on in the world they must keep sober, and the restraint upon them has been a powerful agent in the promotion of temperance.

A burglar insurance company has been organized in New York. The police department there has long been in the business of insuring against burglary, but there is still room for additional enterprise in this branch of insurance.

A little town in Kentucky is trying to attract attention with a donkey which chews tobacco. This is a very weak bid for fame, however, as every community has a number of donkeys who indulge in the same habit.

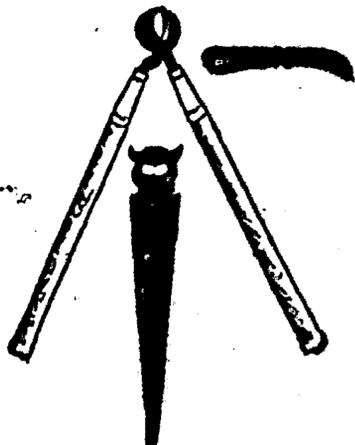

HORTICULTURE

PRUNING.

To Do Successful Work You Need Proper Tools.

One trouble with the novice in pruning is that he may not have a clear idea of what he wishes to accomplish. He may think that the tree is headed too low and so chops off the main limbs and ruins it, or, the top is too thick and proceeds to trim up the limbs, leaving a tuft of branches at the ends, destroying the fruiting spurs and leaving what fruit does grow inaccessible and exposed to the action of heavy winds. Better to have no pruning at all than such work as this. The tools needed are a saw, shears, knife, stop-ladder and occasionally a long ladder. The saw should be the ordinary, narrow, stiff-blade pruning saw, about 18 inches long and with rather coarse teeth so that it will cut freely. The right kind of shears are a great help and with them much of the work can be done easier and quicker than with any other tool, but few of those found in the hardware stores are worth much. Most of them with only one cutting blade which works against a shoulder, will spring apart after a little use and they bruise the wood more or less.

The double-cut shears with both blades alike, while high-priced are by far the best thing on the market as they cut close and do not bruise the wood. The handles are of wood and can be had from 25 to 30 inches long. For a knife, the common large pruning knife with a hooked blade is all right.

HORTICULTURAL NOTES.

The American plums are great bearers.

Plums must be protected from the curculio if they are to give satisfaction.

There is little satisfaction in trying to grow a garden on poor soil not properly enriched.

Every farmer that has a few fruit trees only should learn the science of protecting them by spraying.

An apple grower says that there is never an over-supply of good apples. The over-supply is of poor fruit.

In pruning the grape, it is necessary to have a good deal of technical knowledge. Pruning too much will prevent fruit production on account of removing the wood that should bear the fruit; while pruning too little will allow a large development of vines at the expense of fruit.

Rapid Growing Pear Trees.

The more rapidly a pear tree grows, the more likely is it to be attacked by blight. The reason seems to be that the texture of the bark is so open that the spores of the blight can get an entrance with the threadlike sprouts that are too fine to be seen by the unaided eye.

HANDLING OF GRAIN.

Hints by a Farmer Who Thinks He Can Improve on Present Methods.

Compared with former years, threshing is an easy matter. The wind-stacker and the self-feeder have greatly reduced the size of the average threshing gang. The weigher and sacker are each doing noble work. Yet, with all these advantages at hand, not more than half of us farmers make such use of them that our grain is handled in the most economical manner possible, declares a farmer in Home and Farm.

Threshing directly from the field is often a great time-saver, as it saves the time used in mowing away the sheaves. But it is in caring for the grain as it comes from the thresher where most of us lose time. Ordinarily it is sacked and carried to the granary, requiring five or six men. By using an elevator on the separator, and two tight wagon boxes, one man can easily care for the same amount of grain. If no elevator is at hand, it takes but two men. Drive the wagon alongside the machine and lift the grain into the box. One man can do this while the second unloads.

In hauling to market a large box holding 60 or 70 bushels is especially valuable. More grain can be hauled and easier, without the expense or bother of sacks, which are mighty unhandy. A box with flaring sides, holding 160 bushels of oats, was made for us at a cost of $16.

STRAWBERRIES FOR HOME USE.

How One Illinois Farmer Has Grown Good Crops.

In growing strawberries here for home use, we plant in rows and cultivate well during the first season, writes an Illinois correspondent of Farmers' Review. The plants from the matted rows are mulched the second and third seasons as often as necessary to keep the weeds and grass from smothering the vines. The kind that we have found the most useful here are the Excelsior, Haverland, Warfield, Dunlap and Gandy. While there are other good varieties, the ones I have named are among the best. In planting for an ordinary family I usually put out from two to four rows, each about 100 feet long. A new plantation should be set out once in two years. It is better to fertilize moderately than too much, for in over-fertilizing we get plants that are too rank, and, as a result of which, sometimes have plantations that are unproductive. The best fertilizer that I have ever used consisted of well rotted stable manure and wood ashes. Very few farmers in this locality raise all the strawberries their families can use. I estimate that not over two families in 100 do this.

PROTECTING TREES.

Brace Them So That Windstorms Will Not Ruin Them.

Many fine apple trees are annually destroyed by severe windstorms. When there is no wind-break around an orchard, it is not easy to keep it intact. It is a good plan to drive stakes on west side of trees, then with a piece of cord pull back the tree till it leans a little to the west or southwest or toward the prevailing winds and tie firmly to a stake as shown in the cut. The same plan can be followed where any tree is liable to be blown about by the wind. Wrap several thicknesses of burlap or an old rubber hose around the trunk of the tree so the twine will not injure the bark. In transplanting large shade trees it's a good plan to protect them for a year or two with three such stays.

This woman says that after months of suffering Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her as well as ever.

Maude E. Forgie, of Leesburg, Va., writes to Mrs. Pinkham;

"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For months I suffered from feminine ills so that I thought I could not live. I wrote you, and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and using the treatment you prescribed I felt like a new woman. I am now strong, and well as ever, and thank you for the good you have done me."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

India-Gestion.

Here is a story the bishop of London told John Morley the other day, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. They were holding an "exam." in an East-end school, and the teacher was explaining the chief products of the Indian empire. One child recited a list of comestibles. "Please, miss, India produces curries and pepper and citron and chillies and chutney and— and—" "Yes, yes, and what comes after that?" "Please, miss, I don't remember." "Yes, but think. What is India so famous for?" "Please, 'm, India-gestion."

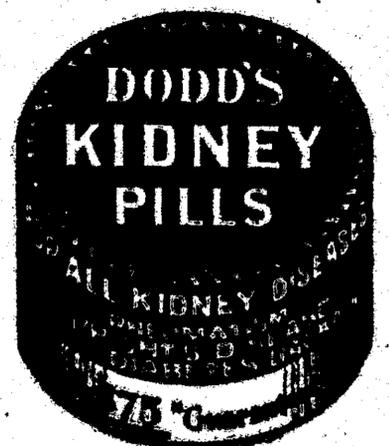

Man and Beast Alike.

Only those who have suffered the agony of eye afflictions can appreciate the blessing to humanity in Dr. Mitchell's famous Eye Salve. Introduced in this region as far back as 1849 it is found to-day in all well regulated homes hereabouts. Not alone the eyes of man but those of the dumb animals have enjoyed its comforts. Mitchell's Eye Salve. Sold everywhere. Price 25c.

PRESIDENT'S YACHT

NAVAL MEN'S IDEAS OF THE MAYFLOWER.

Boat Which Has Left on Southern Mission Will Not Rob President of Any Pleasure.

New York.—The Mayflower, which President Roosevelt has given up that it may be free to perform a mission in the turbulent waters of South America, is an elegant boat but her going brings no pang of regret to the president, for naval men who know what they are talking about say that he "hates yachting."

This may surprise you, but if you express your surprise to your naval informant he will probably start in and tell you of the president's one and only yachting trip for pleasure.

"Somebody invited him to go a few years ago, and the invitation must have struck him when his stock of excuses was phenomenally low. At any rate he couldn't seem to beg off, so he very reluctantly went abroad and the yacht started.

"But just as it left its anchorage the president suddenly declared that he had forgotten something of the utmost importance and that he'd have to go back after it. Threats, prayers, entreaties—all were vain. The mysterious something must be got and by himself.

"A small boat was called, for the president insisted on rowing himself ashore in a local boat, and off he went. Yes sir, off he went—and he never came back. And that, you understand, was his one and only yachting trip for pleasure.

"If he could whang the whole ship around maybe he'd like it better. But when he has a voyage of any consequence to make, as the cruise to Panama, he doesn't go on the Mayflower anyway. He goes on a big battleship, where there are plenty of things to keep him interested."

The Mayflower was built in 1896 at Clydebank, Scotland, for Ogden Goelet. The Thompsons were her builders and she was one of the handsomest vessels of her kind afloat when she was finished. She made her first and her only cruise under private ownership when she brought the body of Ogden Goelet to this country in 1897.

When the war with Spain began the Mayflower was bought by this government and is the largest and finest, though not the fastest, of our converted yachts. All her fine fittings were taken out of her before she was put into commission, but after the war many of them were restored.

When she was built her various rooms were finished in different woods, but they are now uniformly covered with white enamel. She has several beautiful marble mantelpieces, and her interior woodwork has some good carvings and moldings. The former library has been made over and is now transformed into two staterooms for the use of the president and his wife or his guests. The china, linen and such furnishings are different from those which the vessel would receive if she were not used by the president. But the difference is only to this degree; that they are the special linen, china, etc., provided for use by an admiral. These are all especially made for the use of our admirals, and display the emblem peculiar to that rank.

The vessel, however, is not commanded by an admiral, nor has any special rank gone with its command because of its personal use by the president. It has had a complement of eight officers and 165 men, is built of steel, is 2,690 tons displacement, has a speed of 16.8 knots, is 273 feet long, 36 feet in breadth, and has a meag draught of 17 feet 4 inches.

CAT SLIDES DOWN A POLE.

Firemen's Feline Mascot Learns the Trick by Watching Them.

Boston.—The firemen of Combination A fire station, on Canal street, in West Medford, have a mascot, a veteran fire horse and a captain in whom they take great pride, says the Globe. The mascot is Dick, a large tortoiseshell coon cat, that slides down the sliding pole like any other fireman.

The horse is Jeff, with a record of 25 years' continuous service.

The captain is Frank H. Walker, for over 27 years a member of the department.

Dick, the cat, is an unusually intelligent animal. He was presented to the company by Hosoman Chamberlain about two years ago, when a mere kitten.

He had adapted himself to the ways of the fire department, and at the present time can slide down the firemen's sliding pole from the second floor, a distance of 19 feet, with comparative ease. He attends fires occasionally, riding in the bottom of the combination chemical engine and hose wagon, and is to be found "at home"

"Dick" Coming Down the Sliding Pole.

almost any afternoon sound asleep on the broad back of the big black veteran horse, Jeff.

The First "Baedeker."

In answer to an inquiry a German paper says: "The first 'Baedeker' was published at Coblenz, on the Rhine, in 1839. Baedeker was born at Essen in 1801 and was by occupation a bookseller. There had been tourist guides before his."

No Use of It.

"Are you feeling very ill?" asked the doctor. "Let me see your tongue, please?"

"What's the use, doctor," replied the patient, "no tongue can tell how bad I feel."—Roseleaf.

LOOKED FOR OTHER TWO.

Little One Had But One Idea of Term "Fore-Handed."

Little Catherine has been boarding on a farm this summer, and many of the rural expressions are wholly unfamiliar to her. One day she chanced to hear her country hostess praising the good qualities of a certain thrifty neighbor.

"He really ain't got much, compared to some folks," said the farmer's wife, "but he makes out wonderful well; he's so fore-handed."

That evening the man thus lauded happened to drop in, and Katherine immediately sidled up to him, with curious eyes. Slowly she revolved about the chair in which he sat, and so persistently did she gaze at him that the farmer's wife finally noticed it.

"Well, Katherine," she said, "you seem to find a good deal to look at in Mr. B—; don't you?"

"Why," replied the child, her little forehead wrinkled in perplexity. "I did want to see his two uvver hands, but I can't. Is he sittin' on 'em?"

OF COURSE HE WOULDN'T.

"You certainly wouldn't marry a girl for her money, would you, Tom?"

"Of course not; neither would I have the heart to let her become an old maid because she happened to be well off."

SELF DELUSION

Many People Deceived by Coffee.

We like to defend our indulgences and habits even though we may be convinced of their actual harmfulness.

A man can convince himself that whisky is good for him on a cold morning, or beer on a hot summer day—when he wants the whisky or beer.

It's the same with coffee. Thousands of people suffer headaches and nervousness year after year but try to persuade themselves the cause is not coffee—because they like coffee.

"While yet a child I commenced using coffee and continued it," writes a Wis. man, "until I was a regular coffee fiend. I drank it every morning and in consequence had a blinding headache nearly every afternoon.

"My folks thought it was coffee that ailed me, but I liked it and would not admit it was the cause of my trouble, so I stuck to coffee and the headaches stuck to me.

"Finally, the folks stopped buying coffee and brought home some Postum. They made it right (directions on pkg.) and told me to see what difference it would make with my head, and during the first week on Postum my old affliction did not bother me once. From that day to this we have used nothing but Postum in place of coffee—headaches are a thing of the past and the whole family is in fine health."

"Postum looks good, smells good, tastes good, is good, and does good to the whole body." "There's a Reason."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

The Holy Fly.
Helen was watching some flies on the window pane, when she called to her mother, "Mamma, come and see if this is the bosom fly."
"The bosom fly, child! What kind of a fly is that?"
"Oh, the one they sang about in church last Sunday—'Let me to thy bosom fly.'—The Circle.

TO LINCOLN COUNTY VOTERS.

It had been my intention, when nominated by the democratic party for the office of superintendent of schools, to make a thorough canvass of the county, and to solicit the support of the people at the polls on the third of November. This, I believe, to be the duty of every man in whom his friends repose sufficient confidence to name him for any responsible position. Conditions, however, over which I have had no control have prevented me making such canvass, and I am compelled to appeal to friends for support by the only means at my disposal.

Naturally, any man nominated for office would like to be successful at the polls, and my desire to see the people of Lincoln county, and discuss this question that is of such vital importance to every home has only been equaled by my inability to do so. I shall, therefore, appreciate any and all assistance rendered, and assure one and all that, if elected to this responsible position, I will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability. No man can say more; and the people of Lincoln county having a knowledge of my record as a teacher in the public schools of the county, know whether or not I am justified in aspiring to the position of superintendent of schools.

With faith in human nature and confidence in the loyalty of friends, I wish again to thank all who are supporting my candidacy, and remain,

Respectfully,
JNO. A. HALBY.

REDUCTION IN GRAZING RATES ON FOREST RESERVES.

Following out a statement made a year ago at the meeting of the National Wool Growers Association in Salt Lake City, Gifford Pinchot, forester, and A. F. Potter, assistant forester in charge of the branch of grazing in the United States forest service, have just announced a reduction of 10 to 15 per cent in the rates for sheep grazing on the national forests of the west. This general reduction in schedule of grazing rates will take effect for the coming season of 1909. The new schedule does not affect the cases where the minimum charge of 5 cents per head has already been allowed or a specially low rate has been fixed on account of some local condition. In most cases the revised fees will mean a reduction of about one cent per head.

A MAJORITY FOR LARRAZOLO.

The election of Larrazolo seems assured. The most careful estimates place his majority above 2,000, and many enthusiasts predict his election by double that number.

There are twenty-five counties in the territory, and Mr. Larrazolo is credited with a majority of them. Five counties will give Andrews large majorities, viz.: Bernalillo, Colfax, Sandoval, Socorro and Valencia; but these will be overcome by Larrazolo in five democratic counties, namely: Chavez, Eddy, Quay, Grant and Roosevelt. The other fifteen counties will not give large majorities either way, but Larrazolo should receive majorities in three-fourths of them.

The following table is our estimate on the territory:

County	Larrazolo	Andrews
Bernalillo	450
Chavez	750
Colfax	400
Dona Ana	350
Eddy	900
Grant	650
Guadalupe	350
Lincoln	75
Luna	150
McKinley	50
Mora	200
Otero	175
Quay	550
Rio Arriba	250
Roosevelt	1900
Sandoval	1150
San Juan	150
San Miguel	150
Santa Fe	300
Sierra	100
Socorro	550
Taos	275
Torrance	100
Union	300
Valencia	1200
	6800	4675

This we believe will be conceded to be a very fair estimate, and gives Larrazolo a majority of 2125.
