Mining and Prospecting.

Another New Company for Nogal.

W. A. McIvers, while north, organized The New Mexico Development Company for $300,000 The object of the company is to buy and sell and lease mines and operate mills and reduction works and to operate oil wells and do a general mining business. This company owns nearly one thousand acres of oil land in Lincoln county and will begin active operations within the next thirty days. The people interested in this company are from Michigan and Illinois and Iowa. The greater number being from Battle Creek Mich.

W. A. McIvers will be the manager for the new company and W W. Woodard Secretary and Treasurer, and C. R. Martin, of Battle Creek, president.

A Prospector's smelter.

The latest thing out for the use of the prospector is a pocket smelter which he can actually carry in his vest pocket—if he is so fortunate as to have a vest—or otherwise, in his overhauls. The entire outfit consists of a box of thirty small tablets and a small mortar and pestle. The tablets are composed of compressed powdered charcoal intermixed with certain fluxes. The prospector wishing to test a piece of ore pulverizes it in the mortar and spreads the powdered pulp evenly over the tablet, which he then ignites, with a lighted match. The combustion is instantaneous and the residue after trituration in the mortar. may be panned out, leaving the metal of whatever kind in the pan. The Denver paper, Ores and metals, has carefully examined the working of the tablets, and vouches for their efficiency for qualitiative tests, that is, one can discover the quality of metal carried by the particular piece of ore subjected to the test, but not the value per ton. The whole outfit can be had for $1.25 so that any prospector can own one. The next thing in order is a pocket stamp mill.

Mining location notices, fifty cents a dozen, at this office.

The Free Gold M.&M. Co., have placed two gasoline engines in their mill made by the Waterloo Gasoline Engine Company. The mill is now about completed and will soon be in shape to handle 600 tons of gravel every ten hours.

While in Chicago W. A. McIvars was a caller at the office of the American and Eagle Mining Co. Mc. says the officers are the right kind of people and they propose to push things right along. With first class business men at the eastern end and the present good management at this end there is no such thing as fail. The American is now in such ore as made Nogal famous years ago.

Manager J. M. Rice is on a business trip to Chicago and eastern points. Mr. Rice proposes to push the development of the Eagle companys property and things will hum over about Parsons. Look out for another Deadwood in that neck of the woods. No company in the southwest or any other place has as big a free gold proposition as the Hopeful and Rualto groupes owned by The Eagle company.

Since the big assays have been obtained from the Big George, old claimants have arrived on the scene and there promises to be some lively litigation over it. There is no doubt but that the Big George is a good prospect.

Work has been somewhat delayed at the American this week by the pumps getting out of order, but the gold is still coming out in chunks.

After many of the best specimens had been assorted out, 1,200 tons of ore from the Hellen Rae, milled on the American stamps gave net returns of $15,00 per ton. The Hellen Rae, like the American, has produced some very fine specimens of free gold.

The owners of the Old Spaniard mine in the Nogal district will ship a car load of ore to the El Paso smelter in order to make a test of its values. The ore from this mine has all along given good assays. The Old Spaniard is the property of C.C. Bourne, of Nogal; M. Carrier and I. K. Reeves of Lone Elm, Kansas; J.A. McLiney of Kansas City, Mo., and C. A. Clark of Horton, Kansas.

Prospects that have been run over for years and considered worthless are now located and some of them by several claimants. One prospect in particular, has been located and abandoned by several in the past twenty years, was recently relocated and the new claimant, in digging his ten foot prospect hole, found rock that pans freely and assays high, now everybody wants it and there is not less than a half dozen who claim it. This is only one instanee in a possible hundred in this camp of this kind, all which prove that "gold is where they find it."

Sounds Better.

Conditions seem favorable for a successful mining year in the Bonito country. True, the wonderful strike in that section last January, about which so much was said at the time, seems to have failed to bear out first anticipations. but considerable beneficial development work has been done by different parties, and from latest reports they have been entirely satisfactory, and J. M. Rice who is the largest operator in that section, is said to be meeting his second payments on properties as they fall due.

New machinery is going in on the American mine, and more men are being employed to work the mine and develope adjacent properties belonging to the same company. Nogal is booming as a consequence of the large amount of work that is being done in her neighbourhood, and many of the old settlers who have waited for years to get capitol interested in its promising mines feel very much enthused. Favorable reports continue to pour in from the reduction of American ore.

The two items above are from the White Oaks Eagle. We are glad to see the Eagle come in at even the eleventh hour and try to do the Nogal and Bonito districts justice. The Eagle has heretofore been considered a little selfish regarding this section and the above items are the first real good words the paper has said about it for years. Let the good work continue.

A Big Mining Enterprise.

The Eagle Mining and Development Company is undertaking the largest mining enterprise in all the southwest.

The company has purchased all the mining claims along the Rio Bonito, the famous Parsons and Rualto group of mining claims and a large number of promising prospects at the head of Nogal canyon, in all about three hundred mining claims or 6,000 acres of mineral lands.

Just below where Bonito City now stands a reservoir or dam will be built for a 500 horse power plant. A big cynide plant will be put in at the Hopeful mine near Parsons, having a capacity of five hundred tons of ore daily. The power to run the cynide plant and the powerful crusher to grind up the ore ready for treatment, will be transmitted by electric wires from the power house at Bonito City to the reduction works at Parsons, a distance of about five miles.

It is estimated that there is millions of tons of low grade ore in sight on the Hopeful groupe alone that can be quarried like rock and is easy of treatment.

This is the enterprise that J. M. Rice has been laboring so faithfully on for four years and its success is now an allmost certainty.

TORTURED HIM

TEXAS NEGRO PUT TO DEATH IN A HORRIBLE MANNER.

HIS EYES WERE BURNED OUT FIRST

Great Crowd Clamoring for a Slow Death —Mrs. McKee, the Negro's Victim, Brought to the Scene in a Carriage, but Crowd so Dense She Could Not See—Negro Confessed.

LONGVIEW, TEX.—(Special.) A man hunt which had been in progress for a week ended Friday in the burning at the stake of Dudley Morgan, colored, who assaulted Mrs. McKee, the wife of a Texas & Pacific section foreman at Lansing, Tex. When it was learned that the negro had been captured and was being taken to Lansing, the excitement of the people knew no bounds. By 11 o'clock great crowds had gathered at the Lansing switch and arrangements were made to burn the negro. Just before 11 o'clock the train bearing the prisoner and his captors arrived in Marshall and was met by a great crowd of people. Many boarded the train at Hallville, and when it arrived at Lansing every available place on it was occupied. Waiting at Lansing was another large crowd from Longview and the surrounding country.

The negro was not taken from the train on the side where the crowd was, and when the engineer started to pull out several Winchesters were leveled at him and others of the train crew. They were told that if they moved the train an inch they would all be killed. The prisoner was identified by Mrs. McKee and several negroes who worked on the section with Morgan. Mrs. McKee said they had the right man and the negro was escorted by about 200 men, armed with Winchesters, to the place of execution. As he was chained to the stake, he made a statement, in which he implicated another negro named Franklin Heard saying Heard was to get part of the money which was to be stolen.

Morgan confessed to having committed the crime and, after he had been chained to the stake, or rail, with his hands and legs free, the members of the mob began to take railroad ties from a fire already started and burn out his eyes. They then held the redhot and burning timbers to his neck and, after burning his clothes off, to other parts of his body. The negro screamed in agony. He was tortured in a slow and painful manner, with the crowd clamoring for a slow death. The negro, writhing and groaning, begged piteously to be shot.

Mrs. McKee was brought to the scene in a carriage, accompanied by four other women, and an effort was made to get the carriage close enough for her to see the negro. The crowd was so dense, however, that this was impossible. Persons held each other on their shoulders, taking turns about looking at the awful sight. The negro's head finally dropped and the ties were piled around and over him. In half an hour only the trunk of his body remained.

As soon as the heat would permit the crowd, with long sticks began a gruesome search for relics. Parts of his skull and body were gathered up by some and carried away. As the fire died down the crowd took the two men who first caught the negro and held over their heads, while they held their Winchesters in their hands and were photographed.

From the time the first fire was applied to the negro's body until the dying embers alone were left, the crowd yelled and cheered for the men who had chased the negro.

Section Foreman McKee, husband of the woman assaulted, applied the match to the faggots. Many women were present from the surrounding country, but owing to the grea rush the had very little oportunity to see the negro until the heat forced the crowd to widen the circle and the flames leaped over him.

The railroads brought crowds of people to Longview junction, where they boarded the Texas & Pacific fast train, which does not ordinarily stop at Lansing. The engineer was forced at the point of a Winchester to stop at the scene of the lynching, however, and the mob disembarked.

Scores of People Reported Killed at Goliad.

HOUSTON, TEX.—(Special.) Reports received here by telegraph and telephone indicate that the northern or western portion of the town of Goliad has been swept away by a tornado and that from fifty to 100 people have been killed.

The lon gdistance operator at Houston was in connection at Goliad, but beyond the fact that part of the town had been blown away and that many persons had been killed and injured, no other particulars were obtained.

The following is a partial list of dead:

Considerable damage has also been done at Beeville by high winds. Both towns are close to the Gulf coast and all telegraph wires by two routes are down.

A telegram from Superintendent Forbes, of the New York, Texas & Mexican, to General Manager Van Vleck, in this city, says that eight blocks of business houses were blown down at Goliad. Thirty negroes and twenty-seven white people were killed and seventy-five or eighty others injured.

PACKERS ENJOINED

Temporary Writ Asked For By the Government is Issued.

CHICAGO.—(Special.) The temporary injunction asked for by the government against the members of the so-called packers' combine is now in force. It was issued Wednesday evening by Judge Peter S. Grosscup after the close arguments in the United States circuit court room. The order gives the relief prayed for in the bill filed by District Attorney Bethea on May 10. It is so wide in its scope that if the packers or their agents continue with their present alleged uniform arrangements they will be taken into court on contempt proceedings and the burden of proof will be on them to show that they have not violated the order in any particular.

Little opposition was raised against the government's petition. Attorney John S. Miller, who was the sole representative of the packers present, pointed out some objectionable clauses in the draft of an order presented by Mr. Bethea. These concerned the alleged agreements for credit, blacklisting and cartage.

Judge Grosscup thought some of these minor clauses had been made too prominent and he himself drew a form of order that pleased both sides. At the same time the order was entered, numerous affidavits and other exhibits were filed for the government.

BOMB FOR AN EMPEROR.

Plot Against the Life of Francis Joseph of Austria, Frustrated.

LONDON.—(Special.) The correspondent of the Daily Chronicle at Budapest reports the frustration of a plot against the life of Emperor Francis Joseph. The emperor was recently going on a night train from Vienna to Budapest. In the final inspection of the imperial train at the terminus of the state railroad at Vienna, made ten minutes before his majesty's arrival there, a bomb covered with paper was found in the emperor's compartment. It was evidently calculated that this bomb would explode the moment his majesty entered the car. An investigation of the matter led to the dismissal of several railroad employes. The greatest secrecy concludes the correspondent, and the emperor forbade the newspapers of Vienna to mention the affair.

T., in order that he might demand money from the company to ward off other damage to the road from him. He stated he was engaged to marry a young lady of Bartlesville, I. T., but she postponed the wedding until he had sufficient money for housekeeping purposes. He became desperate, being out of employment, and determined to hold up the railroad company for money. He made the confession at the urgent request of his aged grandmother. He is 23 years of age, and a resident of Oswego, Kas.

Laid Up for Sixteen Weeks.

St. Jacobs Oil and Vogeler's Curative Compound Cured Him.

"I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism for many years. I was laid up with Rheumatic Fever for nine weeks in 1894, and again for sixteen (16) weeks in 1896. I tried many medicines I saw advertised and others I was recommended; finally I was induced to take Vogeler's Curative Compound, which did me more good than all other medicines. In fact, I feel quite a different man since I have been taking the Compound. All my neighbors and friends are quite surprised to see me about and looking so well. I can only say that Vogeler's Curative Compound taken internally and by using St. Jacobs Oil outwardly acted like magic in my case. I had been taking medicines for years without obtaining benefit, but Vogeler's has practically cured me. I have recommended Vogeler's Curative Compound to a lot of my acquaintances, and they tell me that it has worked wonders.

"Wishing you every success in the sale of your Vogeler's Curative Compound and St. Jacobs Oil, I remain, gentlemen, until illness came upon me three years ago. I first noticed it by being irregular and having very painful and scanty menstruation; gradually my general health failed; I could not enjoy my meals; I became languid and nervous, with griping pains frequently in the groins.

"Your obedient servant,

"I advised with our family physician who prescribed without any improvement. One day he said,—'Try Lydia Pinkham's Remedies.' I did, thank God; the next month I was better, and it gradually built me up until in four months I was cured. women in the east. She has served as vice-president of the federation and has shown unusual discrimination, tact and general wideawakefulness in dealing with the knotty question of interstate politics in the organization. She went into the convention with a strong following for the presidency.

An accomplished linguist and extemporaneous speaker, by reason of a life devoted to study, Mrs. Denison possesses all the characteristics essential in a successful leader.

A King's State Barge.

London will entertain many distinguished foreigners at the coronation in June, but King Lewanika, the paramount chief of Barotseland will surely be the strangest of them all. He is described as being an enlightened potentate, with "quite English ideas." One of his ideas hardly seems so English as it might be. He has a great state barge, which is rowed by eight rowers, all men of rank. The prime minister himself has to ply the oar as one of the eighty. This is, no doubt, most English and athletic, but the costume of these noble bargees is not yet adopted on the Thames. The unfortunate prime minister has to divest himself of his European clothes and take his place with seventy-nine others clad like himself with tiger skins round their loins and lions' manes on their heads. The barge in which these statesmen row is decorated with stuffed figures of elephants and giraffes, made by King Lewanika himself of calico and cane.

generals, were placed on the retired list after forty years' service. Both officers are now in the Philippines.

Gen. Snyder entered the military service from Pennsylvania in April, 1861, as second lieutenant of the Fifth infantry and served throughout the war of the rebellion.

Gen. Auman also is a veteran of the civil war, during which he was brevetted captain of volunteers for gallant and meritorious services before Petersburg, Va. He began his military service as a private in the Twenty-fifth Pennsylvania infantry.

Internal Fires in Russia.

There may be developing a great upheaval of the Russian people unless wise counsels prevail in the bureaucracy and concessions are made to the demand for reforms. Present conditions at least go to prove that the ambitious imperialistic and aggrandizing policy of the empire, at the sacrifice of home interests—however popular it may be with the aristocracy, the army, the Russian church and even the masses—is raising up a domestic radicalism of the socialistic and revolutionary sort that may in time convulse the land.

Persons, Places and Things

SHAFT TO MARK HISTORIC SPOT

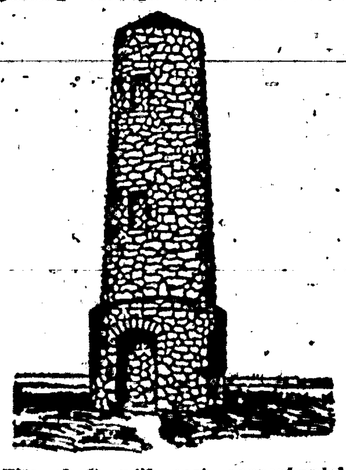
Where the First European Colony in America Was Established.

A memorial shaft is being erected on Gosnold's Island in Cuttyhunk Pond, Mass., where Bartholomew Gosnold and his companions in 1602 planted the first European colony in America. The corner-stone probably will be laid on the three hundredth anniversary of Gosnold's landing.

Gosnold first stepped ashore on Cuttyhunk Island, but it was on a small islet (now known as Gosnold's Island) in a fresh water pond at the west end of the island, where he built a fort and storehouse, and traded with the Indians. This storehouse is supposed to have been the first habitation built on this coast by Europeans.

Gosnold was accompanied by thirty-two men, eight of whom were mariners. Among the others a clergyman, Gabriel Archer, a journalist and James Rosier, who wrote an account of the voyage and presented it to Sir Walter Raleigh. Gosnold discovered the islands known as the Elizabeth Islands and named them in honor of the queen of England.

The memorial is to be a plain shaft, sixty feet high, so high above the surrounding objects at the wedge-like point of land between Buzzard's Bay and Vineyard Sound as to be an inevitable landmark for every vessel passing through those waterways.



The shaft will cost approximately $3,000. After its completion and dedication the memorial will be turned over to the Massachusetts Historical Society.

WHERE DEADLY INSECTS LURK

Palms and Other Tropical Trees and Plants Infected with Them.

It may surprise some casual visitors to Horticultural Hall, in Fairmont Park, Philadelphia, where trees and plants from the torrid zone are kept in tropical bloom in midwinter, to know that extreme care is exercised to keep these growths of the hot climates from becoming a source of danger to the public.

Stately palms, tall banana trees and other tropical growths are all a source of possible peril to the unwary who come in close contact with their leaves, unless precautions are taken to denude them of deadly insects. In the natural state of tropical plants there is a small venomous insect known as the red and black spider, which is found frequently adhering to the stem and leaves. It is a vicious little object and its bite has been known to be fatal.

When tropical plants arrive at Horticultural Hall, says the Philadelphia Record, they are systematically and carefully inspected for the presence of these insects, tarantulas and centipedes. Even when no members of the family of spiders are detected the stems and leaves are sprayed with a powder that destroys them or the eggs from which they breed.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, the noted lecturer and woman suffragist, is confined to a dark room at her home at Melrose, Mass., under the constant care of a physician. The aged reformer's condition is very serious and it is feared that she will become totally blind. Mrs. Livermore is one of the most widely known of American lecturers. Her life has been devoted for more than half a century to the work of social and political reform and her voice has been heard from many platforms in Europe as well as in America. She was born in Boston eighty-two years ago and until lately she has enjoyed a life of almost uninterrupted good health in spite of her continuous and exacting labors.

Senator Depew's Change of Heart.

At the dinner given at the Montauk club, Brooklyn, to celebrate the 61st birthday of Senator Depew, the senator said: "When I was 21 I thought a man of 40 very old and that he ought to retire. When I was 40 I thought a man of 60 had grown senile and worthless. When I got to be 60 I reversed my opinion and thought that 50 and 40 and 30 and 20 knew little of the pleasures of existence and the utilization of cultivated power."

Urges Women to Propose.

Rev. Thomas B. Hyde of Cincinnati urges women to take into their own hands the matter of proposing matrimony, holding that many more marriages would result from such a course. "Some men," says Mr. Hyde, "are too bashful to propose and would be grateful if women would help them out. Begin immediately, ladies. Marriage is a solemn matter, but single life is much more so."

Beginning and End.

A certain gilded youth, seriously smitten by the charm and grace of a demure-looking country damsel, ventured to remark: "How I wish you would give me that ring upon your finger. It exactly resembles my love for you—it has no end." "Excuse me, sir," replied the fair one, "I think I will keep it, for it is also emblematic of my love for you—it has no beginning."

Hobo Cleanliness.

They wash, the hoboes, says one of the fraternity, who talks very frankly about his friends in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for May; they bathe frequently and boil their "rags." Often one will stand stark naked in a cold wind while his clothes are boiling. The purpose of "boiling up" is not cleanliness alone, however, nor chiefly that.

Held on to a Chair.

Palmer, Mo., May 19th.—Mrs. Lucy Compton has for the past eight or ten years suffered a great deal of pain and sickness. She had Kidney Trouble with an awful pain in her back, which was so bad at many times that she could scarcely get about at all.

"I have been down with my back for the past eight or ten years," she says, "and sometimes so bad that I could not get around only by holding on to a chair or some other object.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills have given me more relief than anything I have ever used.

"After I had used the first box I was almost entirely cured of this dreadful trouble.

"I can truthfully recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to any woman suffering as I had suffered for so long."

Mrs. Compton's cure was certainly a remarkable one.

HEADACHE, BACKACHE, DIZZINESS

(PE-RU-NA CURES PELVIC CATARRH.)

"I am perfectly well," says Mrs. Martin, of Brooklyn. "Peruna cured me."

MRS. ANNA MARTIN.

Mrs. Anna Martin, 47 Hoyt street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"Peruna did so much for me that I feel it my duty to recommend it to others who may be similarly afflicted. About a year ago my health was completely broken down, had backache dizziness and irregularities, and life seemed dark indeed. We had used Peruna in our home as a tonic and for colds and catarrh and I decided to try it for my trouble. In less than three months I became regular, my pains had entirely disappeared, and I am now perfectly well."—Mrs. Anna Martin.

Miss Marie Johnson, 11 Columbia, East, Detroit, Mich., is Worthy Vice Templar in Hope Lodge No. 6, Independent Order Good Templars. Miss Johnson, as so many other women also have done, found in Peruna a specific for a severe case of female weakness. She writes:

"I want to do what I can to let the whole world know what a grand medicine Peruna is. For eleven years I suffered with female troubles and complications arising therefrom. Doctors failed to cure me, and I despaired of being helped. Peruna cured me in three short months. I can hardly believe it myself, but it is a blessed fact. I am perfectly well now, and have not had an ache or pain for months. I want my suffering sisters to know what Peruna has done for me."—Miss Marie Johnson.

Miss Ruth Emerson, 72 Sycamore St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I suffered for two years with irregular and painful menstruation, and Peruna cured me within six weeks. I cannot tell you how grateful I feel. Any agency which brings health and strength to the afflicted is always a welcome friend, and to-day the market is so filled with useless and injurious medicines that it is a pleasure to know of so reliable a remedy as you place before the public."—Miss Ruth Emerson.

It is no longer a question as to whether Peruna can be relied on to cure all such cases. During the many years in which Peruna has been put to test in all forms and stages of acute and chronic catarrh no one year has put this remedy to greater test than the past year.

Peruna is the acknowledged catarrh remedy of the age. Dr. Hartman, the compounder of Peruna, has written a book on the phases of catarrh peculiar to women, entitled, "Health and Beauty." It will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Announcement.

FOR PROBATE CLERK.

We are authorized to announce the name of L. L. ANALLA for re-nomination to the office of Probate Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the choice of the Republican County Convention.

If you are a candidate for office announce it in the REPUBLICAN that all the voters may know it.

The Philadelphia Times suggests that the name of New Mexico be changed to that of Lincoln.

Delegate Rodey has introduced a bill in Congress which has good chances to pass, creating the sixth judicial district to be comprised of Lincoln, Chavez and Eddy counties. Ex Judge A. A. Freeman is said to be slated for the first judge in case the bill becomes a law.

The postal authorities at Washington, recognizing the liability of postmasters to make mistakes in getting letters in the wrong boxes, has fixed a penalty of $200 on persons taking mail out of the office and not returning it. The law is to have people look at their mail before taking it out of the office, and if they should have mail other than their own they must return it at once. -Carlsbad Argus

A correspondent back east wants to know how a mining camp out west is first started. It is about this way: The first thing is a saloon bearing a sign something like this: "Open all night," with a restaurant attached, "we never sleep," Pies like your Mama cooked;" then comes "Wa Chuck Washee house," with the sign: "Me Wakee, Too." Then the town is started on its boom but will hardly prosper until first class shooting scrape takes place, the latter being an essential part of the boom.

Betting the Other Fellow's Money.

The San Marcial Bee says. "E W Brown, of San Marcial, has instituted proceedings against the Santa Fe railway company asking for $10,000 damages for breach of contract. The railway company agreed to deliver 300 horses in Denver in good condition. From San Marcial to Denver so much time was consumed in the transfer of the stock, and that when the animals reached their destination they was in such bad shape that the British broke all negotiations with Mr. Brown for their puchase.

Most of the shipment are being pastured near Denver and Mr. Brown is a heavy looser in consequence."

Mr. Brown is not the only looser in this deal as a number of stockmen in the vicinity of Alamogordo will testify. A number of the horses he shipped to Denver were bought in this vicinity, some of which were paid for with worthless checks. If the same plan was followed at all points where he purchased horses, Mr. Brown won't be such a heavy looser as it may appear.—Alamogordo Advertiser.

A number of stockmen in Lincoln county hold Brown's worthless checks for about one hundred of that three hundred head of horses.
