THE NEW PANAMA CANAL.

Scientific American.

All the world is pretty well agreed that a ship canal ought to be built somewhere across the neck of land which unites North and South America. All the world is also agreed that only one canal should be built. The points upon which it is not agreed are as to where it should be built, by whom and at what cost.

The United States has cut the Gordian knot at a stroke by declaring that it should be built at Nicaragua, by the United States government, and for a cost not to exceed $115,000,000.

One of the most distinguished and representative bodies of engineers that ever gathered to discuss an engineering problem of international importance, after examining the results of a four years' survey by 150 engineers has recently stated that the waterway should be cut through at Panama, where it finds a canal already two-fifths completed, and that the cost of its completion will be $102,000,000.

Three successive estimates, based upon preliminary surveys of the Nicaragua route, have been offered to the public. In 1895 the engineer of a private company (the Maritime Canal Company) reported that the canal could be built for $69,893,660. Then a government commission of engineers (The Ludlow Commission,) at about the same time, after examining the route, said it would cost at least $133,472,893 to do the work; but stated that the many unsolved problems could only be determined after a complete survey by a competant staff of engineers. Thereupon the government dispatched an admiral, a college professor, and an engineer to make a more detailed examination. In its frantic haste to know the truth, and before the commission had time to arrange its data and draw its final conclusions, the Senate demanded a statement of the cost. At a hearing before a committee of the Senate the college professor stated that he thought the thing could be done for "inside of $90,000,000," the gallant admiral "speaking as any body on the street might speak," thought that the canal might be put through for $125,000,000; while the engineer thought it could be built "for a maximum of about $140,000,000." The preliminary report of the Walker Commission, recently handed to the President, states that the cost will be between $123,000,000 and $140,000,000. The Senate without waiting to have the very facts which it had dispatched its commission to ascertain, lumped the three guesses above mentioned together, divided the result by three, and authorized the construction of $115,000,000 worth of ship canal!

Now, without dwelling upon the precipitancy, or shall we rather say the absurdity, of such legislation, we ask whether it would not be wise, before authorizing the construction of a new canal, to ascertain whether there is any probable competitor in the field. For we take it that if it were once proved to the people of the United States that any other canal was within measurable distance of completion, they would never countenance for a moment the folly of constructing a second in its close proximity.

If expert testimony counts anything, the unanimous report of a commission which includes the chief engineer of the Croton Dam and the chief engineers of the Manchester and of the Kiel canals, in favor of the construction of the Panama scheme, should set at rest all doubts of the feasibility of the plans as now drawn up, and lay forever the ghosts of floods, fraud and fevers, which have haunted this enterprise ever since the days of De Lesseps' catastrophe.

The Panama Canal then is feasible, and the cost and time of its construction are accurately known. Two fifths of the excavation is completed, a plant that cost originally $30,000,000 is scattered along the route, engineering surveys of the most thorough character are completed, the working plans for every structure big or little are completed, and the specifications drawn up; and a company composed of representatives of the leading financial institutions of France with $13,000,000 of paid up capital stands ready to concentrate a maximum force of labor upon the work with a view to its energetic completion.

Finally, in respect of the all-important question of control, it will surprise many of the public to know that by the articles of a treaty concluded in 1848 between this country and New Granada (which is now the United States of Columbia) this country in return for special priveleges, "guarantees" (to quote the treaty) "... the perfect neutrality of the isthmus with a view that free transit from one to the other sea may not be interrupted, ...and the United States also guarantee, in the same manner, the rights of sovereignty and property which New Granada has and possesses over the said territory."

These rights are the very essence of sovereignty, and, in accordance with their stipulations, this country has already had occasion to land its forces to protect the property of the Panama Railroad.

After consideration of the facts as set forth, the question will naturally suggest itself whether, if it is desirable for the government to participate in the construction of a canal (which we very much question), it would not be advisable for it to take such steps as will give it a strong representation in the directorate of a company whose property is by treaty pledged to protect. Should the question be decided in the affirmative, the next and most obvious move would be the appointment of an expert commission to be given all the time it needs to look carefully into both the Nicaragua and Panama schemes, and report which, all things considered, has the most features to commend it to the support of the United States.

AN OFFICIAL RULING.

Mining and Scientific press.

The following is from the general commissioner of the land office:

"I am in receipt of your letter of Dec. 15, 1898. Under the the United States placer mining laws one person may make a single location containing twenty acres of placer mining land, two persons may make a single location containing more than forty acres in a compact body, three may locate sixty acres, etc., but no single location, whether made by eight persons or more, can exceed 160 acres.

"It has been decided that a single location of placer mining ground may embrace 20, 40, 60, 80, 100, 120, 140 or 160 acres in a compact body, according to the number of locations.

"If eight persons should make eight distinct and seperate locations of twenty acres each and seven of the locaters should convey their claims to the other, it would require an annual assessment work of the value of $800 to maintain possessory right to all the claims; but in the case of a single location, embracing 160 acres of placer mining land, the owner thereof, in order to maintain his possessory right thereto, would not be required to expend $100 worth of mining labor on each twenty acres thereof, but his possessory right to the entire 160 acres might be maintained by performing thereon $100 worth of actual mining work designed in good faith for the improvement of the 160-acre location as a single mining claim."

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Notice is hereby given that I will on the 18th day of February 1899, in front of the Post Office in the town of White Oaks, New Mexico at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A. M. of said day offer for sale at public auction and sell to the highest bidder for cash all the interest of Benjamin H. Dye in and to the following described premises and real estate, to wit: The undivided one-half of Lots Two (2) Eight (8) and Eleven (11) in Section twenty five (25) and the South West quarter of the South East quarter of Section twenty four (24), all in Township six (6) South, range eleven (11) East in Lincoln County New Mexico.

That I will on said date sell same to satisfy a judgment in favor of plaintiff in a cause pending in the District Court for Lincoln County, New Mexico, wherein Ziegler Bros. are plaintiffs and Benjamin H. Dye is defendant, said judgment being for One Hundred and Ten and 07—100 Dollars ($110.07) and costs of sale.

Done by order of the District Court.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16th, 1899.

Official Paper of Lincoln County

The "Rough Riders" of New Mexico presented Gov. Otero a gold medal at Santa Fe.

The treaty of peace was ratified by the United States Senate last week by a vote of 57 for and 27 against.

Some papers have suggested for president in 1900 McKinley and Wheeler. Why not make it Alger and Eagan?

It is now the time of the Spaniards to laugh. We assumed their burden in the Philippines and the haughty Don rolls his cigarette and says "go it Aggy."

The governor has sent the following nominations to the council for the new Board of Equalization: First district, Venceslao Jaramillo; second district, Alejandro Sandoval; third district, Numa Raymond; fourth district, J. S. Duncan; fifth district, J. W. Poe.

The fighting around Manila continues from day to day, a few Americans being killed and wounded while thousands of Filipinos bite the dust. The coming month, however, will likely prove disastrous to the American troops, when they begin chasing the monkeys through swamp and jungle, not so much from the bullets of the enemy as from malaria.

The president will call an extra session of congress, so it is said, if the present congress fails to pass the bill increasing the army to 100,000 men. The president remembers the thousands of Spaniards that died in Cuba, not in combat with insurgents, but from miasmatic fevers, and does not propose to see our army in the Philippines dwindle down without the means to replenish it.

IS IT ANDRE?

Krasnoyarsk, Siberia, Feb. 10.—A gold mine owner named Monastyrschin has received a letter saying that a tribe of Turguses, inhabiting the Timur Peninsula, North Siberia, recently informed the Russian Police Chief of that district that on January 7 last, between Bomo and Pit, in the province of Yeniseisk, they found a cabin composed of cloth and cordage apparently belonging to a ballon.

Close by were the bodies of three men the head of one being badly crushed. Around them were a number of instruments, the use of which were not understood by the Turguses.

The Police chief has started for the spot to investigate, as it is believed that the bodies are those of the aeronaut Herr Andree, and companions.

The balloon Eagle, with Prof. Andree and two companions, Strindeberge and Fronkel, in the car, left Danes island, of the Spitzbergen group, on July 11, 1897, in an attempt to cross the north polar point. No definite news of the aeronauts has been received beyond the message, attached to a carrier pigeon, found by the whaling ship Falken, which arrived at Copenhagen on September 2. The Message read: "July 13, 12:30 p. m., lat. 82.02 north; longitude 12:05 east. Good voyage eastward. All well."

Chaves county has received a notable addition by the receipt of the strip of land from Lincoln county embracing the Elk Springs canyon country. This strip was acquired under the act which recently created the new county of Otero, and that clause in the law was principally due to the active efforts of Ex-Assemblyman J. F. Hinkle, whose cattle ranch headquarters are embraced within its boundaries. It is a decided acquisition to Chaves county's already great cattle interests and adds about $200,000 to the tax roll.—Pecos Valley Argus.

A committee has been appointed by the president to investigate the beef scandal, and, incidentally, to give Gen. Miles a whack if there is the least opportunity. The administration must be vindicated at all hazards if it takes all its friends to do it.

What has become of the statehood boomers? Has the recent cold weather chilled their ardor, or are they too busy looking after the fat jobs that are always to be found at the territorial capital when the legislature is in session?

VOLUNTEER VICTORY.

St. Louis Republic.

The American Volunteer has certainly made a most impressive bow in our new theater in the Far East. With the exception of the Fourteenth Infantry, and the Sixth Artillery, the regulars were not engaged in the battle which raged around Manila Saturday night and Sunday. It was fought and won by volunteers in a manner which will open the eyes of Europe and Asia to the real merits of the American soldier.

In all her long years of contention with rebellious islanders, Spain has never fought, much less gained so signal a battle. England herself has not made her presence felt as quickly nor as effectively in the new lands which she has overrun. More than ten years of campaigning elapsed between Chinese Gordon's fall and Sirdar Kitchener's rise; and the troops which slew and routed the Dervishes at Khartoum were the flower of British armies inured to the hardships of tropical life and re-inforced by multitudes of native allies who fought the fanatics in their own way and with their own weapons.

The performance of the American Volunteer troops in the Philippines is extraordinary, measured by any standard or any precedent. The attack of the hostile natives was sudden, if not unexpected. More than half the Filipinos were armed with Mauser or Remington rifles, intrenched in defensible redoubts and trained in past conflicts with the armies of Spain. There seems to have been no lack of ammunition among the riflemen of Luzon, for the official dispatches relate that the "insurgents fired great quantities of cartridges." There was neither hesitation nor doubt in the conduct of the Americans, and the brief reports of General Otis and Admiral Dewey celebrate the Soldiery demeanor of the volunteers.

The West is doubly proud of the achievements of our army in the Philippines. With the exception of Pennsylvania, every volunteer regiment hails from a Western State. California, Washington, Idaho, Colorado, Nebraska South Dakota and Montana were represented. The list of the dead and wounded prove that every regiment did its duty. The chapter enacted at Manila this week is a worthy supplement to the victories of our soldiers and sailors and a crowning vindication of the American citizen-soldier.

The appropriation committee has recommended the construction of twelve new warships.

ILOILO CAPTURED.

Manila, Feb. 14, 9.25 a. m.—The United States forces under Brigadier-General Miller captured Iloilo, capital of the island of Panay, and the seat of the so-called government of Visayas federation, on Saturday last after bombardment. The rebels set the town on fire before evacuating, but the American troops extinguished the flames.

There were no casualties on the American side.

Aguinaldo May Flee.

Washington, Feb. 11.—General Otis had another victory to record this morning and though the action before Caloocan did not result as easily for the American side as did the battle of last Saturday night and Sunday morning, it is believed to be quite as important in results. Caloocan is on the line of railroad connecting Manila with Malolos, the insurgent capital and it may be that the capture of the first named town will make it possible to advance rapidly by rail upon the insurgent headquarters if it shall be deemed necessary to force the fighting and undertake the capture of Aguinaldo.

Officials here were encouraged today by General Otis' quotation of the opinions of credible persons among the Filipinos. It is understood to be to the effect that Aguinaldo no longer has the power to keep the insurgents under his lead, and this points to the early submission of the insurgents to the American government. None will be allowed to come into Manila, however, until they have laid down arms for good. As for Aguinaldo, it is now believed that he will refuse to the last to make terms that will meet with the approval of General Otis, and that when the insurrection falls through he will make his escape to the continent rather than remain in Luzon.

A favorable vote on the treaty was secured by some of the administration senators promising to support a subsequent resolution that it was not the intention of the United States to hold the Philippines. The men who supported the treaty on this promise, however, are begining to feel that they have been tricked as the resolution has been side-tracked.

The Sentence of the court martial in the celebrated Eagan case has been modified by the president, and the comissary general, instead of being summarily dismissed, will be suspended for six years and at the same time draw his regular salary. This is punishment with a vengance!

Forty skilled workmen were expected to arrive today from Pennsylvania and go north tomorrow morning over the E. P. & N. E. to work in the big lumber mill of the Alamogordo Lumber company. This number, with those already employed at that point, will be sufficient to work the mill to its utmost capacity.—El Paso Herald.

WORK HAS BEGUN.

F. C. Hitchcock, of the firm of Geo. S. Good and Co., left for the front this morning in connection with the construction of the El Paso and North Eastern railway from Alamogordo to the coal fields.

Mr. Hitchcock stated to a Herald representative that work had already begun on the extension and would be pushed to an early completion. He said that there was some heavy work about thirty miles out in the vicinity of Three Rivers also some near the coal fields, which would be given immediate attention so as not to delay track laying when they get that far along.—El Paso Herald.

S. M. Wharton started for Alamogordo Friday on one of Lane's stages. He goes to meet his wife, who has been visiting in Brownwood, Texas, the past three months, and will escort her home.

James Brent, the whole-souled ex-sheriff of this county, arrived in White Oaks last week from Silver City and will remain several days. Mr. Brent came to White Oaks seventeen years ago, served two terms as sheriff of Lincoln county, and, as a matter of course, meets many old friends in this place who remember him in the early eighties.

An Enterprising Druggist.

There are few men more wide awake and enterprising than Dr. M. G. Paden who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line for his many customers. He now has the valuable agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is producing such a furor all over the country by its many startling cures. It absolutely cures Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Call at the above drug store and get a trial bottle free or a regular size for 50 cents and $1 00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

S. A. Shyler, a Chaves county sheep man, came in from Lincoln Monday evening, accompanied by Sheriff Perea. They were in pursuit of a man who had appropriated Mr. S's. saddle and some spare cash; but the bird had not come this way, and Mr. Shyler started for the Pecos Tuesday where he thinks he will find his man. Mr. Shyler is making preparations to move his flock to Lincoln county and will become one of our citizens.

DIRECT TO EL PASO.

A special dispatch to the Globe-Democrat from Santa Fe says: Additional information has reached here that the Rock Island railway management is arranging to make an early move in the direction of this territory from Liberal, Kan., to connect with the El Paso and Northeastern in Lincoln or Guadalupe counties, and run transcontinental traffic from Chicago direct to El Paso. Reports from the southern part of the territory intimate that there is a proposition on foot down there to organize a new territory out of the southern half of New Mexico, part of Arizona, and the western tongue of Texas with El Paso as the capital city.—El Paso Herald.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills. Mailed for 25 cents by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell Mass.

Notice the clubbing proposition on the fourth page—the Eagle and Cosmopolitan for $2.10. This offer applies only to new subscribers, or to old ones who pay up arrears and renew subscription.

The Eagle contains a communication from Lincoln this week which shows that our sister city does not propose to be behind the procession. We are glad to note the "new industries" at that point.

REVIVAL SERVICE.

We are to begin a revival meeting at the Methodist church on Friday evening, the 17th inst.

Rev. L. L. Gladney, of Magdalena, N. M., will do the preaching. We earnestly ask the cooperation of all Christians, and invite everybody to attend and enjoy the good preaching. T. L. Adams pastor.

Deafness Cannot be cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

J. W. McFarland,
J. S. Casey
J. W. Dale.

Deputy John Owen received word Saturday that some badly wanted parties were encamped in Bernado Canyon, beyond Carizo. He gathered a posse Sunday morning and started for the rendezvous of the banditti. The posse was John Owen, James Brent, Al Highfil, Dave Tinnon, C. O. Heyser and Fred Smith. When nearing the enemy's camp Owen and men made a rush, but their approach had been witnessed, as was evidenced by the report of a rifle, by one stationed on a point of vantage, and was, apparently, a preconcerted signal to depart in haste, and the sentinel's pals stood not on the order of going, but skedaddled immediately. The attacking party found some beef, just cooked, and other food, all going to show that a meal had been suddenly and violently interrupted. A pair of spurs were found, also a horse, tied near, that was branded O K on left shoulder. Two more camps were discovered, while scouting the brush for the fugitives, each overlooking some approach to the retreat. The officers never got a view of the robbers; nevertheless, the precipitate flight was all that prevented a meeting there and then; and the thick brush and rough country aided the pursued and foiled what came very near being a fight or a big capture.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver is inactive, you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered, you have a dispeptic look; if your kidneys are affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alterative and Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at M. G. Paden's Drug Store. 50 cents per bottle.

Joseph D. McGrath and R. Lerander, two gentlemen who have been stopping in White Oaks, started yesterday morning for the Klondyke. They expect to examine the minerals in different localities in this territory, however, before going to Alaska, and do not expect to reach Dyea before about the middle of April. Through Mr. John Lee we expect to hear from them occasionally when they reach the Klondyke.

NOTICE.

To all whom it may concern:

On receipt of ten cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever Cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate the great merits of the remedy.

ELY BROTHERS,
56 Warren St., New York City.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Pres. Church, Helena, Mont.

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

More Fighting at Manila.

Manila, Feb. 8 (5:00 a. m.).—Last evening as the Filipinos at Caloocan were evidently massing for a night attack upon the American left wing. Companies B C and I of the 20th Kansas Infantry were ordered to attack and drive the sharpshooters from the bamboo jungle in front of the firing line, where they had caused considerable annoyance all the afternoon. The battalion charged brilliantly, driving the enemy like chaff and penetrating to the very heart of Caloocan.

First Lieutenant A. O. Alford, as cabled last night, was killed while leading his company. He was shot in the forehead. Sergeant Jay Sheldon of Company I seriously wounded, Privates Daniel Hewitt, Ernest Fritz, John Gibbian and two other members of Company B were also slightly wounded. Thirty dead Filipinos were counted in the brush and many more were wounded.

The gunboats Concord and Calloo kept up an incessant fire from the bay, the Concord dropping many shells into to town with telling effect. In order to avoid accidents from this source, General Otis was compelled to recall the Kansas battalion, after burning the out skirts of the town. Either the shells from American warships or the natives themselves fired a number of buildings within the town limits. Presumably this was the result of the shelling. No further attempt to attack during the night was made by either side.

The situation today is practically unchanged. The American line has been appreciably extended and the troops generally are taking much needed rest. Reconnoissances show the Filipinos are in force in the villages of Pasig and Paranaque, probably 7,000 men at the latter place with strong fortifications. All is quiet along the line when this dispatch is filed at noon.

The provost guard is in absolute control of Manila. All fears of a native uprising in the city is dispelled by the promptitude which quelled the outbreak Monday evening. The streets were deserted last evening by 9 o'clock and not a light was to be seen in the native quarter. The Filipinos accustomed to Spanish methods, are constantly inquiring of the American soldiers when the prisoners are to be executed. They seem unable to realize that orders have not already been issued for their execution. Indeed, headquarters are besieged by women anxious to plead for the lives of their relatives and friends.

General King's brigade, which includes the First California Infantry, the First Idaho Infantry, the First Wyoming Infantry and the First Infantry, has been compelled to destroy the village of San Pedro Macbete, as natives, moving from house to house, fired from windows as the Americans advanced. The Fourth cavalry has hugely enjoyed foraging for food. All that is left of Paco and Santa Ana is occupied by the Californians.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Notice is hereby given that I will on February 18th, 1899, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day in front of the Post-Office in White Oaks, New Mexico, Lincoln County, offer for sale and sell to the highest bidder for cash, at public auction, all the right, title, and interest of Benjamin H. Dye in and to the Mining Claim known as the Compromise situated in White Oaks Mining District, Lincoln County, New Mexico, on Baxter Mountain, which said property was by me attached to a cause pending in the District Court for Lincoln County, New Mexico, wherein Jesus Talafofro is plaintiff and Benjamin H. Dye is defendant.

Said property will be sold as before stated by order of the District Court to satisfy a judgment in said cause in favor of the plaintiff for Two Hundred and 93--100 Dollars ($200.93) and costs of sale.

This January 10th, 1899.

HUNTING SEASON.

The season for hunting deer began September 1, and remains open during the months of September, October and November, during which the killing of deer with horns only will be allowed. The season for the killing of quail, grouse, prairie chicken, pheasant, partridge and turkey, "with gun only," is during the months of September, October, November, December, January and February. The trout fishing season ends on the last day of October, and remains closed until May 21.

NEWSPAPER LAWS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscription.

2. If the subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice; with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest anyone for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for sometime unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster mark it "refused" and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine, the same as for theft.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE

THE delights of an evening spent around a well-lighted reading table are not half understood. An illustrated magazine with its wealth of illustrations, its stories of adventure and love, its descriptions of travel which carry you to the remotest ends of the earth, and its instructive articles for young and old—these are the first requisites for your own enjoyment and the entertainment and proper education of your children.

To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal,

Both Together One Year for Only $2.10

In this way you secure your own home paper and an illustrated magazine at a price that is only about a fourth of what some of the illustrated magazines sell for. For three years The Cosmopolitan has undisputedly claimed that it reached the largest clientele possessed by any periodical, daily, weekly or monthly, in the world. It was The Cosmopolitan which sent Julian Hawthorne to India to let the world know the real horrors of famine and plague. It was The Cosmopolitan which established at its own cost a great Free Correspondence University which now has over 20,000 students on its rolls. It was The Cosmopolitan which offered a prize of $5,000 for the best horseless carriage and prizes for best plans for public baths, and best arrangement of sewer and pipe systems for cities. It was The Cosmopolitan which set the presidents of great schools and universities seriously discussing the defects of existing educational systems. It is The Cosmopolitan whose enterprise is always in the lead in advancing the world's civilization.
