From reports coming from the the seat of war, General Kuropatkin does not show up well as a stand-patter.

Since it has gone the rounds Judge Parker's letter of acceptance has proven to be nothing but a dead letter after all.

How doth the busy candidate
Improve each shining hour,
And buzz the voters on the wing,
Through sunshine and in shower.

The democrats during this campaign seem to have a sort of revrential awe for the constitution, Teddy and his club. How about that hypnotic eye of Parker's.

Judging from the editorials in the democratic papers at this present time it would be hard to tell whether that party was running Rodey or Money for Delegate to Congress.

This week THE OUTLOOK publishes a very good half tone, as well as the letter of acceptance, of our candidate for Delegate to Congress. The one is an index to the other—both are strong and forceful and inspire confidence in the man who is to represent this growing territory for the next few years.

Two very important incidents seem to be left out of this present campaign. Grover Cleveland's ponderous platitudes in furtherance of the Parker boom, and Uncle Jerry Simpson's Money musk to the music sawed off by democratic nominee for Delegate to Congress.

It must be a peculiar kind of republican who this year can find all manner of fault with the candidates on that ticket and nothing but good words for those on the other side. And yet we have them among us. 'Pears like dar was a little nigger pokin' his haid outen de cohn shucks, an' somebody's goin' to craik it, shore.

The latest dispatches coming from the Russo-Japanese war is that General Kuropatkin, with 619 members of his staff and a detachment of the Okotsk regiment under General Skipoutaloftsky had about 87,000 Japanese surrounded in a redout on the Fun Shun Scout Shinny Kio road about midway between Taidiumowze and Shampintaidze and were planning a masterly horse du combat in order to throw themselves sooner die on the Japanese left flummix some 80 miles south of Mukden on the Schilli river.

William S. Prager was nominated by the republican convention held at Roswell October 1st, to represent this district in the lower house of the next territorial legislature. Mr. Prager has a wide acquaintance and has been in business at Lincoln and at Roswell for many years. He is one of the most reliable and well informed men of this district and if elected will do us good, honest service, putting the same kind of energy and work into legislative affairs that he has in his own private business. This section of New Mexico is badly in need of a wide-awake, energetic man in the territorial legislature and he would fill the bill.

General Baldwin, Commander of the Department of Colorado, wants to test the automobile as an engine of war. He being enthusiastic and courageous is willing to take the run from Denver to Washington city just to test the concern, provided the government will foot the bill of expenses, and pay all damages done to people and property along the line of travel. If the machine proves half as destructive in war as it has in the piping times of peace, its adoption might not be a bad idea. If it once got to going in the direction of a hostile line there would certainly be a stampede and a panic all in one. However, until its striking qualities are thoroughly tested would it not be better for the venturesome general to stick to the old reliable army mule.

Carl Schurz, who once had "General" tacked to his name, who was one time a member of the Hayes Cabinet, who was once upon a time Chairman of the National Republican Committee, way back in its infancy, who then went over to the Liberal-Republicans, then went back to the Republicans, then deserted to the Cleveland Democrats, then deserted to the Republicans to aid McKinley, whom he venomously deserted on the acquisition of the Philippines, is now "carrying the German-American vote in his pocket for the Democrats," so they do say. Well, he isn't. Mr. Schurz can't carry his own vote without wobbling, so it isn't at all likely that anybody is going to trust him with another vote. He'd lose both before he got to the polls.

G. F. Ellis, of Roosevelt county, has been nominated by the democrats to represent this Fifteenth Legislative District in the next Territorial Assembly. He is said to have made a talk in the convention which nominated him and in the course of his remarks, which were not many, that he had not lived just the right kind of life, but that he had resolved to reform. This may be something like the fellow that promised his sweetheart to reform if she would marry him, and then went out and got beastly drunk, celebrating the compact. Great Cæsar! The idea of sending a man to the territorial legislature, and above all, to Santa Fe, in order to reform him. Come to think of it there is one public reformatory institution at Santa Fe, outside the walls of the Capitol building, so the case is not so hopeless as it might seem.

An American citizen by the name of Platzek made a democratic speech in Tammany Hall not long since, during which, after accusing President Roosevelt of all manner of usurpations and misdemeanors, relieved himself of the following statement:

"All the money panics which have occurred since the birth of the Nation, were the result of republican inflation, legislation on the money question and the tariff."

This is so villainously raw that it reminds one of a convention between two citizens who met the other day.

"Say, Tom. There goes a boy down the street who says he has five sisters at home and each sister has three brothers and none of those kids are brothers of his. How do you make that out?"

"Oh, that is easy enough Dick," replied the other. "The boy lied."

THE LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE OF WM. H. ANDREWS.

SANTA FE, N. M., Sept. 17, 1904.

To the Notification Committee of the Republican Convention and the Voters of New Mexico:

In accepting the high honor of the nomination for Delegate to Congress from the republican party of New Mexico, I pledge myself firmly to the maintenance of the principles laid down by the platform adopted at the republican convention held at Albuquerque on September 12, 1904.

If elected I will have introduced and will work earnestly for the passage by congress of a bill granting statehood to New Mexico, under its present name and within its present boundaries and donating to the territory a liberal amount of public land and money for its public schools, institutions and other public purposes.

Any effort to deprive the people of New Mexico of any right to the appropriated or unappropriated waters within the territory shall meet my determined opposition. On the other hand I will strive assiduously to obtain for New Mexico the aid of the reclamation service to the fullest extent possible in the building of irrigation works.

I will labor for the passage of a measure providing for the selection of lieu lands by the territory in place of school sections lost by reason of their location within the limits of land grants and reservations.

A bill for the creation of a Seventh Judicial District with headquarters at Socorro, will receive my earliest attention and continued support.

Every measure for the furtherance of the industries, the interests and the welfare of the people of New Mexico shall have in me a warm friend and indefatigable advocate. I will be at the service of all my constituents, irrespective of party affiliations, race, creed or station, in any business they may have with the authorities at Washington, and they may at all times count upon my advice and active aid. Especially will I be interested in securing pensions for the veterans of the Indian wars, between 1850 and 1860, and thereafter, in the campaigns against the Navajos and Apaches from 1860 to 1863, as well as the [illegible] of the Civil and the [illegible] diligently refute all attacks and slanders upon the territory and its people, and will proclaim upon every possible occasion its advantages, attractions and resources.

While not strictly within the line of legislative duty, I will continue to induce capital to come into New Mexico, to build railroads, to aid in the development of its wonderful resources, to give employment to its people and to establish permanently, prosperity in every county, city and town.

It is upon this brief declaration of principles that I seek the support of the voters of our grand, historic and glorious commonwealth.

Respectfully,
WM. H. ANDREWS.

MR. MONEY'S VISIT.

Mr. George P. Money, the democratic legal tender, whom the party organs are running for congress in this territory on the strength of his father's reputation, paid this county a short visit last week. He made a speech at Lincoln one night and repeated the performance at Capitan the next, besides dropping a few morsels of it from the upper side of a good republican dry goods box at Nogal the next morning, as he passed through. The burden of his complaint here, as well as elsewhere, was republican extravagance and high taxes as compared with democratic economy. This somehow had a sort of familiar sound to those who have listened to democratic speeches for the past twenty years or more, and one ought to expect it on all such occasions.

He showed how much more the Otero administration had disbursed than the preceeding democratic one, but forgot to tell his audience how much of that had been paid out to make good the deficiencies of the Thornton regime or meet the additional appropriations in aid of normal schools and colleges throughout the territory. This was positively Mr. Money's last engagement in this part of the country.

RODEY'S LATEST WRINKLE.

The Rodey boomlet does not seem to be making much headway, except through the democratic newspapers. No doubt Mr. Rodey feels very much flattered by the notoriety he is receiving through his attempted independent movement, but his real friends can feel nothing but sorrow and regret to see so good a man locate his own political graveyard.

The republicans of this territory took Mr. Rodey up when he was comparatively but little known, and gave him his opportunity. So long as he represented the wishes of a majority of the members of his party and the majority of the people of the territory, and kept himself free from questionable cliques and combinations, that long they continued him in office. But when he failed to interpret the wishes of the better part of his constituency, and chose for his chief fugleman a person whose methods were not only a brazen affront, to Mr. Rodey's own immediate bailwick but a stench to the whole territory, then the representatives of his party in convention assembled—many of them up to that time unaware of the true state of affairs—saw fit to set him aside, as well they might, as one who had been weighed and found wanting.

Should Mr. Rodey persevere in this attempt to disrupt his party because of disappointed ambition or personal revenge, then he will himself furnish ample proof that he was not deserving of the high trust confided to him, and that the convention acted with unerring judgment in setting him aside, for a man of Mr. Andrews' known integrity.

Kuropatkin found his Japs, William Jennings Bryan his St. Louis convention, and our delegate his statehood question. We all find our level when we're laid on the shelf.

Sic Semper, Rodey! Can't you be quiet?

WRECK NEAR ALBUQUERQUE.

Believed to Have Been the Work of Criminal Gang.

The Albuquerque Journal of September 28th says:

"One of the luckiest wrecks in the history of the Santa Fe railway took place at about 2 o'clock this morning when passenger train No. 7, for the west, went into the ditch about three miles below this city. Spreading rails caused two baggage cars and a mail car and a tourist sleeper to leave the track and pile up along the embankment. The engine remained half on the track, and the four cars in the rear of the train did not leave the rails.

"The only loss of life was the death of a negro tramp, who was riding between the first two baggage cars. He was caught between the ends of the cars as they came together and his body mashed to a pulp. It was impossible to secure his name this morning, and it was only after much work that his body was extricated from between the cars.

"The derailed cars were badly smashed up, the baggage and mail cars especially being splintered and torn.

"The most miraculous part of the whole accident is the fact that the crews of the engine, baggage cars and the mail car escaped almost without a scratch. They did not have time to jump, as the accident came entirely without warning and the cars were bowled over down the embankment before the men knew that anything was wrong."

The Journal of the 29th says:

"The officials of the Santa Fe Company in this city made the statement yesterday that they are certain that the disastrous wreck of passenger train No. 7 yesterday morning early was the result of the work of criminals who removed spikes and joints from the track at the place where the big train was ditched.

The company has accordingly offered a handsome reward for the apprehension of the guilty parties. The following notice was issued:

"'Five Hundred Dollars Reward—The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company hereby offers a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction, or information leading to the arrest and conviction, of each and every person who tampered with or removed spikes and bolts from the company's track on the night of September 27, 1904, near Abajo, New Mexico, (about four miles south of the city of Albuquerque), by reason of which passenger train No. 7 was derailed and wrecked about 1:40 a. m., September 28, 1904.—Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company; by A. G. Wells, General Manager.'

"Experts who examined the rails and the joints immediately after the accident say that they are absolutely positive that the track had been tampered with.

"The escapes of Postal Clerk W. L. Wade of this city and M. S. Harris, the Wells Fargo messenger, were most remarkable. Wade saved himself by hanging on to the metal rack on the side of the car. Harris was knocked around in a mix-up of trunks and boxes but was only slightly bruised. Both men were released by Engineer Rehder who came running back as soon as his engine stopped and broke open the doors. The porter of the Filipino sleeper was also busy helping liberate the imprisoned men when he plunged head first into the pool of mud and water which had escaped from the overturned engine tank, and was literally plastered from head to foot with mud.

"The Filipino soldiers were members of the first battalion of native scouts under the command of Lieutenant McCue and were returning to the islands after a visit of several months at the World's Fair, where they were among the objects of interest to visitors. They were a bunch of bright, agile little fellows who seemed to relish the excitement of the wreck and they swarmed in and out of the windows of the derailed sleeper like so many monkeys. None of them were injured, though they were thrown around pretty forcibly in the berths.

Flood at Roswell.

A Roswell dispatch of the 3d inst., to the Denver Republican says: "Roswell is a scene of desolation. The flood that started Thursday night has receded. The damage will be over $100,000 For three days it was impossible getting telegraphic communication with outside points. The electric light plant was flooded and the city was in darkness. Water was three feet deep in the main part of the city and ran in streams through residences and business houses. So far as known no lives were lost. The banks suspended business.

It was reported Saturday night that a wall of water ten feet high would reach the city at midnight and hundreds of people fled to the hills south and north of town. The report proved false. The Roswell opera house fell Saturday night at 11 o'clock. About fifteen business and residence houses collapsed.

The dyke that was erected by the city was washed out in ten minutes after the flood struck it. The Hondu reservoir, which will be created by the government at a cost of $240,000, will save the city from any more floods. This was the worst flood in the history of the city.

There have been no trains either north or south since Thursday. The railroad bridges over the Pecos have been washed away.

Word reached the city to-night from Carlsbad, New Mexico, that the railroad bridge over the Pecos river there was swept away last night. Two road bridges were washed away. The headgates on the Six Mile dam burst and in less than ten minutes there was a wheel of water in the Pecos river twelve feet high.

The cotton gin mill and electric light plant were swept down the Pecos by the flood.

The Seborne McMillan dam was not damaged and the town of Carlsbad and

Report of Flood Damage.

An Albuquerque dispatch of October 3d gives further particulars of the damages by flood:

"The dyke at Alameda which last June a year ago saved the city from a disastrous flood, withstood the waters without a break, but the smaller towns of Barelas, Los Cerrillos, Alameda, Peralta and Tome caught the force of the big rice and hundreds of adobe houses crumbled to the ground.

"Many had narrow escapes from drowning, but no lives are reported lost.

"Above the city as far north as Las Vegas the Santa Fe has an army of men at work repairing the breaks and it will be several days, probably another week, before any trains will reach this city direct from the East. Several big bridges, besides half a dozen smaller bridges, have gone out between here and Lamy Junction. At this place a pasenger train of several hundred passengers is held and food is reported running scarce.

"Several pasengers stranded at Lamy drove overland to this city, a distance of nearly sixty miles, and they report the country for many miles off the railroad and far from the streams, completely covered with water, showing that the rain must have come down in torrents north of here last Friday and Sunday.

"Yardmaster Teneyck, who had a gang of men at work at the Alameda washout, came in to-day and reports a sad case. One of his workmen, Ricardo Arias, fell to the ground in a faint and when he was lifted up to be carried out of the water he was found to be dead."

The Scenic Route Road.

Under the supervision of Superintendent H. O. Bursum of the Territorial Penitentiary, convicts are now constructing the Scenic Route road between this city and Las Vegas across the beautiful Pecos Forest Reserve. The work is being done in a most thorough, substantial and painstaking manner, and when completed it will be one of the finest mountain roads, not only in the United States, but also in Europe, where they have had hundreds of years of experience in the Alps, Apennines and Pyrenees and other mountain ranges on that continent. The scenic attractions which will be opened by this road are of the grandest and most sublime character. Tourists, pleasure seekers and those who want health, rest and recreation, will be able to reach this city or the city of Las Vegas from the head waters of the beautiful Pecos River, within a very few hours and that in a comfortable manner by vehicles and on horseback, riding bicycles or in automobiles. The cost of the construction is comparatively speaking insignificant, but were this done by private undertaking it would run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. The territorial administration, which is doing this for the benefit of central New Mexico, is certainly to be commended, and that highly for its course in the matter. This territory cannot have too many attractions for tourists, and the Scenic Route Road when completed next year will prove one of the best drawing cards and efficient advertising measures for the territory and will draw crowds by the hundreds to the Pecos Forest Reserve and to the two towns most interested, namely Santa Fe and Las Vegas.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Indians Making Money.

The general impression among the eastern people who regard the Indian as a spendthrift and idler, and one who seeks only repose and comfort, will undergo a radical change if the doubters will pay a visit to the Indian school at the World's Fair. The New Mexico Indians have proven themselves to be the most industrious careful and thrifty of all the Indian tribes. As a further tribute Superintendent McCowan states that experience and a close study of their habits justifies the assertion made by the United States Indian bureau that these tribes will and are rapidly developing into the most intelligent of all the tribes, and are daily becoming less and less dependent upon the government. As an evidence of their thrift and industry the following is cited:

In the three months that the Pueblos have been at the World's Fair Pedro Cajeto has saved $130 from the sales of pottery and bows and arrows. Other members of the tribe have saved from $90 to $120, after paying their way into various places of amusement at the Fair, purchasing keepsakes and sending money to their kinsmen to pay for their winter supplies and labor around their farms.

The Navajos, practicing their art of silversmithing, have averaged from $5 to $7 per day from the sale of their wares, the greater portion of which they have saved. Mr. McCowan, who is their banker, receives almost every day a portion of their earnings which he is instructed to keep for them until their return.—Albuquerque Journal.

Suicide at Albuquerque.

Archie O. Sweetland, a well known citizen of Albuquerque, committed suicide September 20th. He left home early in the morning, telling his wife that he wished to look at some plumbing being done in a storeroom where he intended opening a restaurant. His dead body was found in the rear of the storeroom by a plumber who chanced to look in the window in the afternoon. An investigation showed that two shots were fired, the second bullet passing into the left breast and through the heart. He was sixty-one years of age. Mrs. Sweetland can give no reason why her husband committed the rash act.

The deceased was born at South Thomaston, Maine, and came to New Mexico twenty-three years ago. For years he was in the restaurant business here, then a trader and merchant among the Navajo Indians, then in the general merchandise business at Mitchell, Nebraska, and finally in the Railway Wreck Near Albuquerque.

An Albuquerque dispatch of September 28th says: This morning at 3 o'clock, south of this city, Santa Fe passenger train No. 7, bound for California, was ditched. The spreading of rails caused the engine, mail car, combination baggage and express car, extra baggage car and a tourist sleeper to jump the track and roll down a ten-foot embankment.

Mail Clerk W. L. Wade of this city and Express Messenger S. M. Harris of Los Angeles were both slightly injured.

The first battalion of Philippine scouts in command of Second Lieutenant McCue, occupied the tourist sleeper, which went over the embankment, and several of the scouts received scalp wounds and bruises, but none serious injury. All the scouts were thrown from their berths.

The mutilated body of an unknown white tramp was dug from under the wreckage this afternoon. At first it was thought to be a negro, so black and dirty were the face and hands, but investigation proved him to be a white man. A negro tramp was with him at the time of the crash, but escaped injury.

The track, which was badly torn up, was cleared of wreckage and repaired late this afternoon, when five delayed trains here proceeded. It is presumed heavy rains in the past few days are responsible for the accident.

Investigating Judge Barker.

An Albuquerque dispatch says: Some time ago the Good Government League drew up several columns of charges against Hon. Benjamin S. Baker, associate justice of the territorial supreme court and judge of this judicial district, and sent then to the attorney general at Washington.

The complaint was signed by J. F. Sulzer, chairman, and Thomas J. Curran, secretary, and the charges are to the effect that the judge wilfully decided cases which affected the personal or political fortunes of friends in accordance with their wishes, whether right or wrong. He is accused of resorting to the public press to show friendship for corrupt officials and of shielding and protecting alleged dishonest office holders.

As soon as Judge Baker heard of these charges he at once requested an investigation at the hands of the government, and G. E. Husted, a special agent for the attorney general, has been here the past few days investigating. Judge Baker denies the truth of all the charges made by the so-called Good Government League.

Rodey Will Not Run.

An Albuquerque dispatch of September 28th says: It is given out to-night that Hon. B. S. Rodey, delegate to Congress, will not make the race for delegate to Congress as an independent Republican candidate, although he virtually announced yesterday that he would. Friends to-day assured him that it would be impossible to elect him, but that his running would be disastrous to the Republican party. The cause of the independent ticket was his defeat for a renomination, the successful candidate being Hon. W. H. Andrews.

The Santa Fe Railway Company has filed a declaration of intention to build a branch line in McKinley county connecting with the main line near Gallup. The line will be three and a quarter miles long and will connect a coal mine with the Thatcher spur.

Funds full sufficient to discharge and liquidate all obligations of the American Consolidated Copper Company have been raised, in addition to funds for the erection of a treating plant at Lordsburg. This means the immediate resumption on the company's mines in Grant county.

The Monero Coal Company has filed papers changing its principal place of business from Colorado Springs, Colorado, to Monero, Rio Arriba county, and appointing Patrick Fischer as its New Mexico agent. A Mexican boy named Cerilio Montoya was arrested at the Albuquerque postoffice charged with opening some of the boxes and purloining letters. He opened the box of the Hudson Bill Posting Company, and, taking a letter containing a check, attempted to have the check cashed. The Lawrence Plaster Company has filed incorporation papers at Santa Fe, the incorporators being Charles Hall, Wheeler Morris, P. Brewer and Walter H. Wheeler. The capitalization is $1,200,000 and the principal place of business in Roswell, Chaves county. A business office will be maintained at Minneapolis, Minnesota. The directors are: Norris P. Brewer, Charles Hall Wheeler, Walter H. Wheeler, David M. Scribner of Minneapolis; Fred Hunt and Wendel V. M. Reed of Roswell.

Prof. Van Wijk of Java, for months has been making geological charts of the northern part of Java, cables the Academy of Sciences at Amsterdam that he feels certain that he has discovered the long-looked-for missing link. He does not claim the honor of the discovery himself, but says that some weeks ago he was informed by a Dutch merchant, Van Neuren, that he had discovered a new species of monkeys in a dense forest in which he had lost his way.

The professor started out to look into the discovery of the merchant, and while watching for the animals to appear he heard a peculiar half human voice. Looking up, he saw an enormous nest and two ape-like animals looking down upon him.

The natives of that part of the island have long known the presence of these apes, which they call "Ash Penrizi." Unlike any other apes, they bathe frequently and the females wear strange necklaces of twigs and red berries and nurse their young, singing half-articulated words. They have, in fact, a language, but it consists of very few words.

A wise man doesn't encourage indolence in others by doing their work.

The ladder's top isn't easily attained, but the view is worth the effort.

THOUGHT SHE WOULD DIE.

Mrs. S. W. Marine, of Colorado Springs, Began to Fear the Worst. Doan's Kidney Pills Saved Her.

Mrs. Sarah Marine, of 428 St. Urain St., Colorado Springs, Colo., President of the Glen Eyrie Club, writes:

"I suffered for three years with severe backache. The doctors told me my kidneys were affected and prescribed medicines for me, but I found it was only a waste of time and money to take them, and began to fear that I would never get well. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. Within a week after I began using them I was so much better that I decided to keep up the treatment, and when I had used a little over two boxes I was entirely well. I have now enjoyed the best of health for more than four months, and words can but poorly express my gratitude."

A Wonderful Tracklayer.

A new railway track layer, with a crew of forty men, will lay two miles of track a day. The track layer has a huge crane sixty feet long, which projects forward over the road and hauls behind it a train of sixteen flat cars loaded with ties and rails. A continuous double line of the latter move constantly over rollers and carry the ties with it. Both rails and ties are seized at the proper time by the machinery and placed on the road in front of the train, where they shortly form part of the track over which it passes. This device is said to be the most expeditions as well as economical track layer in the world.

IN GREAT DISTRESS

VOMITING SPELLS LONG RESISTED EVERY EFFORT TO CHECK.

Mrs. Brooks Became So Weak She Thinks She Would Have Died But For Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. Sarah L. Brooks, of No. 45 Lincoln Park, Chicago, Illinois, gives the following account of her cure from distressing spells of vomiting:

"For five years off and on I was treated in vain by different doctors for relief from a stomach trouble which showed itself in frequent and trying spells of vomiting. Part of the time I was able to work, and again I would be confined to bed for three or four days in succession.

"My stomach was at times so delicate that it would not retain even plain water. The spells would sometimes occur at intervals of half an hour, and would leave me so weak that I would be compelled to lie down between them. I would have several of them during the night following a day of such attacks. Finally I became so weakened that I had to give up working altogether. I weighed only ninety-four pounds.

"Last January I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in one of the Chicago daily papers and bought a box and began to use them. After I had used half a box I found that I could keep on my stomach the food I ate. I was encouraged by this and kept on using the pills for four months. At the end of that time the vomiting spells had ceased altogether and my weight went up to 142 pounds and is still growing.

"I think I surely would have died if it had not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, for I sometimes vomited clear blood, and for three or four days at a time I could not eat a bite of anything. One doctor said I had chronic inflammation of the stomach, and another said my difficulty was a cancer, but none of their medicines did me any good at all. Finally I concluded that I did not have blood enough to digest my food, and I began the treatment that has cured me. I can eat anything now and have strength for all kinds of work. I always keep Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on hand, and I recommend them to my friends because I know they cured me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills agree with the most delicate stomachs and strengthen the digestive organs until they do their work perfectly. They are sold by all druggists.

People would meet with fewer disappointments if they didn't expect more than they deserve.

The five of the various domestic or domesticated animals. Among the larger species there is some uniformity. For the horse and the ass the extreme limit is thirty-five years, and for the horned cattle about thirty. For the dog it is given at twenty-five, while sheep, goats, pigs and cats are grouped at fifteen. But there are stranger disparities among the birds. While a goose may live thirty years and a sparrow twenty-five, a crow as many as a hundred; ducks, poultry and turkeys die of old age at twelve. Duke Would Seek the Pole.

The Duke of Orleans has asked permission of the government of Norway to hire the Arctic steamer Fram, in which Dr. Nansen made his voyage to the Arctic regions, for the purpose of an Arctic expedition in 1905.

It is understood the admiralty will require that Captain Otto Sverdrup, former commander of the Fram, shall command the vessel if the government agrees to the proposition of the duke. The plan of the expedition has been submitted for the approval of the Norwegian authorities, and the University of Christiana will reap the benefit of at least a part of the scientific results of the expedition.

Don't Propose on Slight Acquaintance.

It is a bad plan for a man to ask a girl to be his wife on a very slight acquaintance, and a still worse plan for her to accept him under these circumstances. If they keep their heads it is surely not a very hard thing for them to conclude to wait until they know one another a trifle better before they decide that they are the two persons out of the whole world who are best fitted to live each with the other. When they have made this perfectly clear to their own minds, and not until then, should they become engaged, and announce the fact to the world at large; and, when they are engaged, they should understand the responsibilities of their position and not seek to evade them.—Success.

CAN DRINK TROUBLE.

That's one way to get it.

Although they won't admit it many people who suffer from sick headaches and other ills get them straight from the coffee they drink, and it is easily proved if they're not afraid to leave it to a test as in the case of a lady in Connellsville.

"I had been a sufferer from sick headaches for twenty-five years and anyone who has ever had a bad sick headache knows what I suffered. Sometimes three days in the week I would have to remain in bed, at other times I couldn't lie down the pain would be so great. My life was a torture and if I went away from home for a day I always came back more dead than alive.

"One day I was telling a woman my troubles and she told me she knew that it was probably coffee caused it. She said she had been cured by stopping coffee and using Postum Food Coffee and urged me to try this food drink.

"That's how I came to send out and get some Postum and from that time I've never been without it for it suits my taste and has entirely cured all of my old troubles. All I did was to leave off the coffee and tea and drink well-made Postum in its place. This change has done me more good than everything else put together.

"Our house was like a drug store for my husband bought everything he heard of to help me without doing any good, but when I began on the Postum my headaches ceased and the other troubles quickly disappeared. I have a friend who had an experience just like mine and Postum cured her just as it did me.

"Postum not only cured the headaches, but my general health has been improved, and I am much stronger than before. I now enjoy delicious Postum more than I ever did coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Many women are denied the happiness of children through derangement of the generative organs. Mrs. Beyer advises women to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The last time I became pregnant, my husband got me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the first bottle I was relieved of the sickness of stomach, and began to feel better in every way. I continued its use and was enabled to carry my baby to maturity. I now have a nice baby girl, and can work better than I ever could before. I am like a new woman."—MRS. FRANK BEYER, 22 S. Second St., Meriden, Conn.

R. C Reynard and wife came in Sunday evening from Hillsboro, this territory to visit their home people, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crumb. They are both old time residents of White Oaks, Mrs. Reynard having spent about all the fore part of her life here, and her husband was an operator in the mines here for several years before their marriage. Their visit will probably be extended through the winter.

It is a safe estimate to say that fully ninety-five per cent of the children of school age in White Oaks are attending the public schools this present term. Prof. Stephenson and Miss Covington seem to be having the work thoroughly in hand and the pupils are making very rapid advancement in their studies. One thing is particularly noticable and that is the almost entire absence of hoodlum predisposition so conspicuous in former years. Teachers as well as the board of directors deserve great credit for the present large attendance and the good decipline in our schools.

The republican candidates who have been making a tour of the county, getting acquainted with the people, numbering the voters and naming all the babies who had thus far gone without names, reached White Oaks Tuesday evening. Being somewhat tired they decided to lay over here yesterday for a rest. Last evening a rally and ball was given at the town hall. A large gathering was there to receive them. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Wm. Watson, who made a short preliminary talk and then introduced each candidate present, who in turn made his bow, a few timely and appropriate remarks and then retired in good order and as full of fight as a Japanese batillion before an overwhelming Russian advance. The persons composing the party were: Henry Lutz, Robert Hurt, Remaldo Montano, John H. Canning, P. L. Krouse and William Brady—the latter as interpreter. After the business meeting was over the hall was cleared and one of the most enjoyable dances of the season was put in full swing which lasted until a late, or rather an early hour. There was no doubt in the minds of those present that republicans know how to do things and do them well.

Colonel and Mrs. George W. Prichard left Tuesday morning. Mrs. Prichard goes to make an extended visit with friends in California and the Colonel business in El Paso and elsewhere.
