CARRIZOZO, LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, AUGUST 20, 1909.

NUMBER 28

CARRIZOZO WINS BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY.

In last Tuesday's election, on the question of the removal of the county seat from Lincoln to Carrizozo, 1513 votes were cast, of which Lincoln received 614 and Carrizozo 899, giving Carrizozo a majority of 285. The official canvass of the vote will be made by the commissioners next Monday; and, as there were only two candidates and little room for confusion, it is believed the official count will correspond with the figures given.

The following table shows the precincts, the number of votes cast and how they were divided:

| No. | Name. | Lincoln. | Carrizozo. |
|---------|---------------|----------|------------|
| 1. | Lincoln, | 150 | 16 |

FOR CARRIZOZO.

The people of White Oaks were the first to send a report of an election held that day, and as they had already spoken had but little to say; so they called up central and this was the message they sent: "Tell the boys we're coming, we've quit the county seat below, though 5 wanted to travel the beaten trail, just 65 said no; We've traveled that weary trail too long, we're going to Carrizozo."

The next to respond was Nogal, whose sons are loyal and true, and they never stuttered as they said: "We're all for you! with the exception of 4 who were enchanted with a distant view; but gently bear with the four who strayed from the fold that day; they wanted to travel the well worn trail, but fifty-seven said no; too long have we gone to Lincoln, now we go to Carrizozo." Then the wires brought a gentle whisper, from precinct thirteen, where the town of Corona thrives and sturdy men are seen: it was not a lengthy message, but the news it conveyed, recompensed for shortness, it said: "only 2 have strayed; these 2 wanted to travel the trail that they had off traveled before; yet 135 said no: that trail is too long and tortuous, we'll go to Carrizozo." Then came the news from Bonito, where fruit and alfalfa grows, where the pure mountain water on its destiny flows; the people there sent a message, full of comfort and cheer; it told us 15 wanted Lincoln, but 65 said no: "the place to market our produce is at Carrizozo." Ancho and Jicarilla had a word to say, as to the result of an election held in precinct 7 that day; the faithful boys in mountain and on plain did their duty and did it well, for the work that was done and the ballots cast let the figures tell. Only 14 were wedded to the old Lincoln trail, while 83 said no; "the court house in Lincoln is only a dream—we're going to Carrizozo."

The report from Oscuro—that's precinct fifteen—was late in arriving because of a terrible storm; for you know Oscuro is in the "bad lands" and all were prepared for harm: but when at last the returns came in and the lava had ceased to flow, it was found that 65 had voted; but had voted for Carrizozo. Lincoln had been given something with a rim 'round the outside, which for the sake of euphony we'll call a single O; and the joyful news came silently Carrizozo-zozo-zo.

There was another precinct busy when the returns were coming in so, it was the "big 14," Carrizozo. The count was long and tedious, the judges called them slow; for they all read Carrizozo but those that read zozo-zo. No, we must confess another error—and it is only from goodness of heart—one vote was cast against us—we knew that from the start—but don't think for a moment that one from Carrizozo came; it was by an outsider, yet it counted just the same. Still when the vote was counted and 299 were found—some said "golly, how they grow!" for 298 of them were in favor of Carrizozo.

There were other precincts heard from on the day that Carrizozo won, but most wanted to go to the town toward the SUIT AGAINST THE REMOVAL OF THE COUNTY SEAT DISMISSED.

The citizens of Lincoln county having by a large majority vote made it apparent that they desire the county seat to be located in the town of Carrizozo, we, the Lincoln Committee, while still believing that the best interests of the people will not be subserved by such county seat removal, nevertheless we have no desire to further continue this fight against the wishes of a majority of the people of the county, hence we have instructed our attorney to dismiss the suit filed by us to determine the validity of the proceedings had and done to accomplish the result of the county seat removal election, and to test the legality of the law under which said election was held.

Lincoln Tax Payers Committee,

J. J. ARAGON, President.

J. W. LAWS, Secretary.

Lincoln, N. M. August 19, 1909.

NOTICE OF THANKS.

We take this method and opportunity to thank most sincerely all our friends who aided us in our endeavors to make Carrizozo the county seat; and we recognize that the untiring efforts of our friends made possible the magnificent majority Carrizozo received. The overwhelming vote cast for Carrizozo last Tuesday shows that the people desired a change, and with the change would come progress, population and wealth.

Let us, therefore, while enjoying the victory, not forget that unity of purpose and concerted action produce satisfactory results under every ordinary condition. Then let us be up and doing, and join in the upbuilding of our county; in the development of our rich natural resources, and forget the late unpleasantness—turn over a new leaf and begin over, and make Lincoln county what it should be—one of the best counties in the territory.

For our opponents who opposed us from convictions, we exercise the same charity towards them that we would ask for ourselves, and are willing to forget the past as only an unpleasant dream. To those who want to keep up the fight, we can only say the crushing defeat administered is punishment enough.

Again, thanking our friends and inviting the co-operation of all good men, we remain, very respectfully; rising sun: yet even in those precincts with ideas and actions so, a few cast their ballots for the town that boasts, for the town of Carrizozo. Old precinct 6, Richardson, made good on that day, and Los Pallos, at the point of the mountains, was there for 23, and precinct 10, where the river's on a spree—the noisy Ru-i-do-so—fought them high and low, and conveyed to us this message: "We gave you 25—25 for Carrizozo."

CARRIZOZO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

So its N-o-gal, Jicarill-o and Anth-o, White O-aks, Co-ro-no and Bo-ni-to, O-scur-o and every O did nobly on the 17th for Carrizo-zo—zo-zo—zo.

Adios! Peter.

Thomas W. Henley of Nogal was in Carrizozo this week, and before leaving for his mountain home, handed in the following poetical effusion, with a request to publish it:

Three cheers for Carrizozo,
The future County Seat;
For in spite of all Pete Schmidt could do
Good people have him beat.

We know him now too well,
And how he practised fraud;
If we meet again this side of — Well,
He'd best be on his guard.

Now what will become of his fellows
Since Pete has taken to the road;
I think they will try to follow,
Hopping along like a toad.

Good-bye to Pete Schmidt, voters,
We will build a new courthouse,
And a jail for Lincoln rosters
Down in Carrizozo.

IN SUMMER STYLES

COSTUMES FOR THE MOTHER AND DAUGHTER.

Cool and Useful Walking Dress That Will Be Found Most Comfortable—Soft-Finished Linen for Pinafore Dress.

For a cool, useful dress that will not require repeated visits to the wash-tub, the dress shown in the illustration on the left will be found most comfortable, made in navy blue alpaca. The sides of the front breadth are turned in, and laid over the edges of the circular side, and are machine-stitched down about half an inch from the edge. Buttons form the only ornamentation.

The bodice is made up like a blouse without lining, a vest of tucked silk muslin being let in at the fronts. The

The Continental Hat.

Last autumn the world of fashion underwent a complete revolution. The styles of the directoire period were revived and received with open arms by smart women.

There seems to be no real reason why some day we should not return to the styles of revolutionary days, with state brocaded gowns, flowered panniers, and powdered hair.

Among the hats at a recent millinery opening was a smart, tailored model of stiff straw, the brim rolled back to make the hat triangular in shape. It was simply trimmed with broad black velvet ribbon and flat bows and had two quills caught at the left side.

It was exceedingly good looking and reminded one of the blue and buff hats worn by Gen. Washington's continental soldiery, in the war of independence.

small revers are fixed down by buttons.

Panama hat, trimmed with wide navy blue ribbon.

Materials required: 7 yards 46 inches wide, ten buttons, one-half yard muslin.

One of the soft-finished linens in a pretty shade of blue is used for the dress shown on the right.

The over-bodice is slightly short-waisted at the back; it is mounted to a band, which, with the rest of bodice, fastens at the left side. A simple embroidered galloon forms the trimming of both bodice and short over-sleeve. The blouse worn beneath is of white lawn. The skirt is trimmed down the left side with galloon, it is sewn to the lower edges of bodice band.

Materials required: 6 yards 40 inches wide, 4 yards galloon.

THE SERVICEABLE COAT SUIT

Many Points Which It Will Be Well to Remember When Making Your Selection.

The girl who is choosing a serviceable coat suit for everyday wear from now until October should regard these points:

It is as old fashioned to cut off a coat half way between the knees and hips as between knees and ankles.

Coats are single-breasted, rarely double-breasted.

New models still show straight panel backs, which hang for several inches lower than the sides. These panels are also pointed as well as straight.

Sleeves are still small and reach to the wrist, and many of them show flat, fitted cuffs.

Three-button cutaway coats are made in all materials.

Revers are often omitted. Flat trimming is put around the neck and a Dutch collar of baby Irish lace is added at the back.

Sleeveless coats are being made up in summer materials, and they will prove quite comfortable in hot weather. The sides should be joined at the hips, if not above.

A PARISIAN STYLE.

WHAT WERE THEY THERE FOR

Reporter's Seemingly Superfluous Question as to Happenings at Cabinet Meetings.

Postmaster General Meyer is of a serious turn of mind, but he has a bit of humor in his makeup, nevertheless. Being looked upon as the shrewdest politician in the president's cabinet, he is the objective point for newspaper correspondents on cabinet days.

Last week as Mr. Meyer emerged from the White House a newspaper man asked:

"Mr. Postmaster General, can't you give us some news about the cabinet meetings?"

"There really is nothing to say," replied the cabinet officer. "We discussed nothing of especial importance."

"Do you mean to say you did not discuss politics?" the newspaper man queried.

The postmaster general burst into laughter. When he recovered his usual serenity he said:

"Do you suppose we were all muzzled?"

"An itching humor covered both my hands and got up over my wrists and even up to the elbows. The itching and burning were terrible. My hands got all scaly and when I scratched, the surface would be covered with blisters and then get raw. The eczema got so bad that I could not move my thumbs without deep cracks appearing. I went to my doctor, but his medicine could only stop the itching. At night I suffered so fearfully that I could not sleep. I could not bear to touch my hands with water. This went on for three months and I was fairly worn out. At last I got the Cuticura Remedies and in a month I was cured. Walter H. Cox, 16 Somerset St., Boston, Mass., Sept. 25, 1908."

Objection to Women Golfers.

"Farmers don't mind renting their fields to golfers, but they are strongly opposed to women."

"Why?"

"Because woman golfers are always losing hairpins and hatpins and stickpins in the grass. Follow the trail of a woman's foursome with a pincushion and I'll guarantee you a cushionful of pins at the end of the ninth hole."

"But why does the farmer mind that?"

"Because afterward when his sheep and cattle graze in those fields they swallow pins. Pins, I needn't tell you, are injurious to the health."

HOW TO MAKE FINE BISCUITS

Only Ordinary Ingredients and a Little Time and Trouble Requisite.

These biscuits are delicious, the tops and bottoms being crisp and delicately brown. Take one pint of milk, one teaspoonful of lard, two teaspoonfuls of butter, two teaspoonfuls of sugar, one heaping teaspoonful of salt, half a yeast cake, one egg, six cupfuls of flour. Put the milk on the stove in a double boiler, together with the butter, lard, salt and sugar. When milk has become scalded let it cool to blood heat, dissolve the yeast in a little cool milk and add to the milk in the boiler. Into the bucket or bowl in which the biscuits are to rise sift two cupfuls of flour. Mix to a stiff batter with the milk that has been prepared, beat the egg light and add it to the mixture, then beat the batter as beating for a cake and cover closely; let it rise in a warm place. For six o'clock tea put the sponge to rise about ten o'clock in the morning, at three o'clock in the afternoon have a mold of sifted flour on the breadboard—about three cupfuls—and knead as for ordinary bread until the dough is soft enough to handle easily, then roll out about half an inch in thickness; cut with a small cutter. Brush the tops of the biscuit with melted butter and lard; do not let them touch each other. Set in a warm place and let rise about two hours. Bake from 15 to 20 minutes in hot oven.

To "fluff" a pillow catch it by one corner and drop it down hard upon the other.

The best fluid to use in washing muslin dresses of delicate color is rice water.

Silver may be cleaned and brightened by letting it stand half an hour in sour milk.

One housekeeper advises the use of half a lemon for removing match marks from paint.

To clean steel use emery powder and oil mixed into a paste. Polish with a clean duster.

If your paint has been marred by careless scratching of matches, try rubbing it with the finest sandpaper.

It is said that grass stains will come out if the spots are rubbed with a little fresh lard awhile before they are washed.

The housekeeper who goes to market rather than order by telephone will find she gets better things for less money.

Saratoga Chips.

Select potatoes of rather large size, pare them, and, with a cutter or slicer, cut into thin slices. Drop as soon as sliced in cold water. Drain a few at a time and dry thoroughly on a cloth. Have ready a kettle of smoking hot fat. Drop in a handful at a time, stir with a fork to separate them and skim out on unglazed paper as fast as colored. Use a frying basket and the process is quicker. Put away the chips in a tin box lined with waxed paper. Sprinkle with salt the last thing before serving. To freshen, set them spread out in a pan with a moderately hot oven.

Rugs for Bathroom.

Beautiful rugs can be made by tearing into strips as for carpet rags old white muslin, sewing them together and winding into carpet balls.

Allow two pounds for each yard square, have the center of the rugs all white, with a border on each end of blue, or any desired color, make a dye the color of the border and stencil a pattern of a conventional design on either side of it, and a group in the center and the effect will be satisfactory as well as durable. These rugs will stand frequent washings without fading.

Alcohol and Tuberculosis.

The most prominent tuberculosis specialists in the country agree that alcohol will not cure consumption. Dr. S. A. Knopf says: "Alcohol has never cured and never will cure tuberculosis. It will either prevent or retard recovery." Dr. Frank Billings of Chicago and Dr. Vincent Y. Bowditch, ex-presidents of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis; Dr. Lawrence F. Flick of Philadelphia and Dr. Edward L. Trudeau of Saranac Lake, the founder of the anti-tuberculosis movement in this country, are all of the same opinion.

Lazy Men Power Generators.

Learned Justice Betts of Kingston, N. Y., says: "Lazy men have a right to live." Our lazy men are our most potent. History shows that as a rule, with a rule's exceptions, our greatest men had either indolent or shiftless fathers, as fathers of Shakespeare, Lincoln, Napoleon, Bismarck and other worthies indicate. On the other hand, great men's children are few and far between. Power in a lazy man is accumulating, as in a coiled spring, but the great man has little or nothing left for offspring.—New York Times.

No Romance About It.

The stricken man constantly moaned the name of the young woman who had jilted him.

"Tell her," he said to the medical man, "that her cruelty killed me. Tell her I am dying from a broken heart."

The medical man shook his head.

"Aw, go on," he said. "That would be shamelessly unprofessional. Your heart's all right. It's your liver that's the trouble."

Placing the Bother.

"They say we are not to be bothered by the big hats much longer."

But, really, we don't care how much longer they are—it's the height and width that bother us.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Its Cause.

"Ella's new dress is in shocking taste."

"Possibly on account of its color."

"How is that?"

"You know, it is electric blue."

He who speaks honestly cares not, needs not care, if his words be preserved to the remotest time.—Carlyle.

The Marital Grasshopper.

What is a grasshopper? The latest definition comes from western Australia. Domestic servants are almost unprocurable there, and wives have to do nearly all their own household work. The consequence is that they are compelled to recuperate at the seaside in summer. In their absence the husbands have to prepare their own meals and do domestic duty generally. Husbands so engaged have come to be locally known as "grasshoppers." No doubt the word is the husband of the more familiar "grass widow."—London Chronicle.

Cheering Him Up.

"Bill," said the invalid's friend, "I've come to cheer you up a bit like. I've brought yer a few flahrs, Bill. I fought if I was too late they'd come in 'andy for a wreat, yer know. Don't get down-hearted, Bill. Lummy, don't you look gashly! But there, keep up yer spirts, ole sport; I've come to see yer an' cheer yer up a bit. Nice little room you 'ave 'ere, but as I sez to meself when I was a-comin' up: 'Wot orkard staircase to get a coffin dahn!'"—London Globe.

The Earth and the Moon.

That the earth must shine on the moon even as the moon shines on the earth is obvious. To detect this light from the earth on the lunar surface and scientifically prove its existence is another matter. It is interesting to find that a recent number of a French astronomical paper contains two photographs of parts of the moon illuminated by earth light. They were taken by M. Quenisset at the Juvisy observatory.

Leave It to Him.

A Wichita man was fussing because of his aching teeth. "Why don't you go to a dentist?" asked one of his friends:

"Oh, I haven't got the nerve," was the reply.

"Never mind that," replied the friend, "the dentist will find the nerve all right."—Kansas City Journal.

W. A. HALEY, Editor.

A special election was held in this county Tuesday for the purpose of deciding whether the county seat should remain at Lincoln for at least another ten years or be transferred to Carrizozo. The result proved that a majority of the voters favored the change. Strong feeling was manifested on both sides. The returns from the different precincts proved that the people outside of Carrizozo could have almost carried the election without the assistance of Carrizozo. Nothing remains now but to throw away the hammer, bury the hatchet, and all fall into line and help for the general good of Lincoln county. The town of Lincoln will lose little or nothing by the change, while the county, generally speaking, will gain much. This statement may seem doubtful to some who strenuously opposed the removal; but the fact remains, nevertheless, that the county of Lincoln will go ahead and prosper as never before. The county seat will be on the R. I. & S. W. railroad, within easy reach of any point in the county. A person looking for a mine or a mining claim, a ranch or farming lands, can go and examine the property in a day, or at most two days, and on his return to Carrizozo look up the title and close the deal without being forced to spend several days on a trip to the inland town of Lincoln for that purpose. The fact of the courthouse and jail being located at this point is of small moment when compared with the benefits that will redound to the county at large. Within easy reach of Carrizozo there are gold, copper, coal and iron mines of unquestioned value, and prospects that would well repay the expenditure of a little money. All that is needed to attain results is enterprise and capital, and Carrizozo has at least the enterprise and the knack of enlisting capital. We believe that the town of Lincoln will not miss the county seat, while the county of Lincoln will go ahead in leaps and bounds as it never has before, and within a very few years we expect to see Carrizozo an incorporated city with a mayor and board of aldermen. Buildings will spring up in a night, so to speak, like Jonah's gourd; business will improve, a smelter and reduction works we expect to see established here, and an open market for anything that the people may have to sell or trade. We venture the assertion that two years hence there will not be a man in the county who will regret the removal of the county seat. The election very naturally engendered a little ill feeling, culminating in heated arguments, which, however, will pass away and be forgotten before the snow flies. Nothing is left to be done now but for everybody to put their shoulders to the wheel and work like one man for the general good of Carrizozo and the development of the resources of Lincoln county, until Carrizozo assumes the same relation to Lincoln county that Roswell does to Chaves county—an enterprising city that built up a wealthy county.

Mr. G. A. Bush, of Ancho, left Wednesday night for El Paso on business.

Chas. Williams and daughter, of Ancho, are quite sick with typhoid fever.

Will Craig, of Capitan represented Lincoln in this precinct on election day.

A big dance will be given in Wetmore hall tomorrow evening, 21st inst.

See the new fall clothing Ziegler Bros. are receiving now.

John Y. Hewitt, of White Oaks visited Carrizozo Wednesday and Thursday.

Paul Foster, known here and in Capitan, returned this week from Oklahoma.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lindsey, of White Oaks Tuesday.

A full new stock of Children's, misses and boys school shoes, the celebrated "Blue Ribbon" brand, just received.—Ziegler Bros.

Mrs. Albert Ziegler and daughters who have been visiting here the past month returned to Trinidad, Colo., last Saturday.

FOUND—A bracelet on a street in Carrizozo this morning. The owner may recover same by describing property and paying for this notice.

On Monday morning August 16, a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Whittingham of this town.

We are still selling some choice 15 and 20c light gingham at 10c as long as they last.—Ziegler Bros.

Rich Hust was down from his mountain ranch Wednesday on business and to find out how the election went.

J. O. Nabors, of Oscuro, dropped in town Wednesday to congratulate the citizens on their popular victory.

L. R. Lamay was down from the Mesa Wednesday to get the final result of the election, and to take a look at the new county seat of Lincoln county.

The Fort Stanton base ball team will cross bats with the local boys on the Carrizozo diamond Sunday afternoon. This team has been strengthened considerably, and a good game is assured.

The past week has been considered one of the hottest we have had this summer. A cool wave passed over the eastern part of the county on the 17th, which relieved the situation.

Mr. Albert Ziegler, of Ziegler Bros., expects to leave tomorrow evening for the eastern markets, where he will purchase a full stock of fall and winter goods. He would have left a week ago, but decided to remain for the election and cast his vote for the best town in Lincoln county.

Peter A. Schmidt, of Lincoln, left Wednesday for Pomona, Cal. to recuperate from the effects of the nervous strain caused by the strenuous exertions he put forth during the county seat campaign. The trouble has been diagnosed as a mild form of lincolnititis, and is not considered serious.

On Tuesday evening after the polls were closed and the ballots counted, the doors of Wetmore hall were thrown open and a big dance followed. A large crowd was present, and the good music kept the dancer's feet busy until early hours Wednesday morning. A number of people from outside points were present, and a general good time was enjoyed.

Geo. Braun, of Bonito, was in town Wednesday. When asked what he thought of the result of the special election, he said "It pleases me all right. Lincoln is not the place for a county seat, and Carrizozo is the place, and the only proper and convenient place in the county for its location. All I have spoken to on the result agree with me.

A Dry Farm Near the Mal Pais.

M. B. Foreman and wife drove in from their ranch near the mal pais, about four miles northeast, Tuesday morning. They brought a mixed load of watermelons, cucumbers, squashes, onions, and other vegetables, which they quickly disposed of. The melons were exceptionally large averaging about 30 pounds each, and, considering they were grown on a dry farm, were well flavored and delicious, and would compare favorably with the celebrated Rocky Ford article; while the onions, both for size and flavor, equaled anything of their kind raised in Texas, and Texas is considered a world-beater when it comes to raising fine onions.

The above were raised on a "dry" farm, the only water there being that pumped from a well by means of a windmill, which goes to show the possibilities of dry farming with the help of windmill. Mr. Foreman, while superintending the work on the farm in a general way, leaves the scientific part of the work entirely in the hands of his gardner, W. A. Hammonds, who is an expert in soil culture. A drive out to the Foreman ranch will well repay any one who wishes to see a well cultivated farm.

IDEAS ESPECIALLY ADAPTED TO BAKING DAY.

Recipe for Oatmeal and Fine Brown Bread—Cream Puffs and Cream Filling to Be Made in the Home.

Delicious Oatmeal Bread.—Into your bread pan put three cupfuls of uncooked rolled oats, two tablespoonfuls lard, two-thirds cupful of brown sugar, one-third cupful of molasses and a little salt, then pour over all three cupfuls of hot water, and let stand until lukewarm. Have ready one yeast cake dissolved in one cupful of warm water. Put this into the mixture when ready, then add white flour and mix the same as for white bread. It takes about a quart of flour. Let it rise like white bread, and bake very slowly three-quarters of an hour. This is very healthful and nutritious.

Fine Brown Bread.—One bowlful of Indian meal, one bowlful of rye meal, one bowlful of sour milk, one large cupful of molasses, one teaspoonful of soda dissolved in the sour milk and one tablespoonful of salt are the ingredients called for.

Grease a two-quart lard pail, turn in the mixture, put the cover on, and set it in a ten-pound lard pail, with a little hot water in it. Then put the cover on this and place it in the oven. I usually mix mine about noon, and don't look at it until five p. m., when I take it from the pail of water and let it dry off in the oven until supper is ready. If you cleanse and dress a squab, just splitting it down the back and place in the center of your bean pot when the beans are half done, you will have together with this brown bread a supper fit for a king.

Cream Puffs.—These are much nicer than the baker's product. Get together one cupful of water, one-half cupful of butter, boiling these together, stir in one cupful of flour while boiling, take from the fire, and when cool, stir in three eggs not beaten. Bake in a hot oven 25 minutes, avoid opening the oven door, and drop in large spoonfuls on tin.

Cream Filling.—Five even teaspoonfuls of flour, one cupful of milk, one-half cupful of sugar and one egg. Beat the egg and sugar together, also the flour. Stir all into the milk while it is boiling. Open cakes with knife and fill.

Pound Cake.

Is a useful standby, and as it not only keeps but improves by keeping, it can be made now, when butter and eggs are cheap, and will be a useful cake to have by one. Required: Half a pound each of butter, caster sugar, mixed currants and sultanas, half a teaspoonful each of ground ginger and cinnamon, one tablespoonful each of brandy and rosewater, five eggs.

Beat the eggs till they are pale, and stir into them the sugar and butter. Then add slowly the fruit and spices, lastly the brandy and rosewater. Beat well for 15 minutes. Grease a tin, line it with two thicknesses of buttered paper. Pour in the cake and bake in the slow oven for two to two hours and a half. Double quantity of this cake can be made and will keep well.

Newport Cakes for Tea.

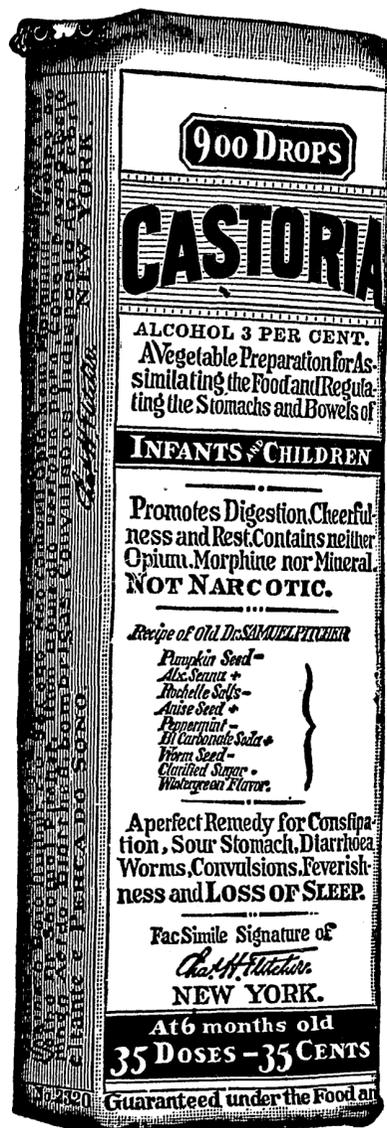

Take a pint and a half of flour, a half cup of sugar, a half cup of butter and a cup of milk. Having mingled with the flour two heaping teaspoons of baking powder, add the other ingredients, into which have been stirred two eggs beaten very light. Bake in tins for 20 minutes. This recipe is the American substitute for Scotch scones used at afternoon tea abroad.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twentytwo per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirtyseven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. A. F. Peeler, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy."

Dr. E. Down, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in my practice for many years with great satisfaction to myself and benefit to my patients."

Dr. Edward Parrish, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild laxative effect and freedom from harm."

Dr. J. B. Elliott, of New York City, says: "Having during the past six years prescribed your Castoria for infantile stomach disorders, I most heartily commend its use. The formula contains nothing deleterious to the most delicate of children."

Dr. C. G. Sprague, of Omaha, Neb., says: "Your Castoria is an ideal medicine for children, and I frequently prescribe it. While I do not advocate the indiscriminate use of proprietary medicines, yet Castoria is an exception for conditions which arise in the care of children."

Dr. J. A. Parker, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact, it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."

Dr. H. F. Merrill, of Augusta, Me., says: "Castoria is one of the very finest and most remarkable remedies for infants and children. In my opinion your Castoria has saved thousands from an early grave. I can furnish hundreds of testimonials from this locality as to its efficiency and merits."

Dr. Norman M. Geer, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "During the last twelve years I have frequently recommended your Castoria as one of the best preparations of the kind, being safe in the hands of parents and very effective in relieving children's disorders, while the ease with which such a pleasant preparation can be administered is a great advantage."

In the matter of protest of Sidney Wilcox vs. M. B. May the board of water commissioners at Santa Fe, last week upheld the decision of Territorial Engineer, Vernon L. Sullivan, giving May the right to construct irrigation works on Tortolite creek, near Nogal, subject to whatever rights Wilcox may have. May has used the waters of the creek the past twenty years for irrigation and recently decided to make some improvements making formal application for the water right which brought the protest from Wilcox.

A Moderan Brigham Young.

An important arrest was made at Capitan last Monday, when a man named Lee Luttrell, of Oklahoma, who has been traveling over the country picking up wives was captured. Deputy sheriff Littleton, of Yukon, Oklahoma, whose daughter he married and deserted, has been trailing him for two months. He came to Carrizozo Sunday, and enlisted the services of Deputy Leo Oswald, to whom he described the man wanted. Both went to Capitan Monday; Littleton remaining under cover while Oswald scouted around looking for a man filling the description. He located him in the livery barn, placed him under arrest, and turned him over to Littleton, who took him to Amarillo that evening, where he is under indictment for bigamy and where he will have his first trial. It is alleged the accused has four wives, and mabe more, among whom are Bernice Shaff, of Dallas County, Texas; Miss Prescott, of Amarillo, Texas, and Grace Littleton, of Yukon Oklahoma, daughter of the deputy who trailed him. Previous to coming to this county he is said to have been engaged to three girls at one time in Tucumcari. and although but a short time in this county he is said to have had five prospective victims on his string, but his arrest Monday put a halt to his matrimonial career, for a time at least.

[A telegram received this afternoon by Leo Oswald from Amarillo stated that the much-married young man had just been sentenced to three years imprisonment.]

THE PRIVILEGED CLASS.

"But, Minna, you shouldn't flirt with all the men as you are doing! Remember—you're not married!"

Here's a Good One.

A friend of mine told me of a curious experience. He was carefully stalking a big bull elephant in a large herd, when they got his wind, and a big cow elephant charged him. He jumped behind a large tree as the elephant reached him, and, being unable to stop herself in time, the elephant drove her tusks with such force into the tree that they snapped off close to her head. The elephant was stunned for a moment, but lickily turned and galloped after the fast retreating herd, leaving him the possessor of some 80 pounds of ivory, valued at about $250.—Circle Magazine.

A Youthful Idea.

"See, my son," said an enthusiastic parent, anxious to impress the beauties and resources of nature, "what beautiful green dresses of leaves the trees have now, when in winter they are quite bare."

"I guess," said the youngster, thoughtfully, "that when winter comes they pack these pretty green dresses in their trunks, don't they?"

Why Actors Wear Long Hair.

Why do actors so often wear long hair? Perhaps this is the reason: There once was a statute in England under which actors found wandering were liable to be branded through the right ear. The long hair concealed the decoration and thus the custom was started.

AN OLD TIMER Has Had Experiences.

A woman who has used Postum since it came upon the market knows from experience the wisdom of using Postum in place of coffee if one values health and a clear brain. She says:

"At the time Postum was first put on the market I was suffering from nervous dyspepsia, and my physician had repeatedly told me not to use tea or coffee. Finally I decided to take his advice and try Postum. I got a package and had it carefully prepared, finding it delicious to the taste. So I continued its use and very soon its beneficial effects convinced me of its value, for I got well of my nervousness and dyspepsia.

"My husband had been drinking coffee all his life until it had affected his nerves terribly, and I persuaded him to shift to Postum. It was easy to get him to make the change for the Postum is so delicious. It certainly worked wonders for him.

"We soon learned that Postum does not exhilarate nor depress and does not stimulate, but steadily and honestly strengthens the nerves and the stomach.

"To make a long story short, our entire family continued to use Postum with satisfying results, as shown in our fine condition of health and we have noticed a rather unexpected improvement in brain and nerve power."

Increased brain and nerve power always follow the use of Postum in place of coffee, sometimes in a very marked manner. "There's a Reason."

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

DEWEY'S AIDE GOES BLIND

Rear-Admiral Benjamin Peffer Lamberton, who served as chief of staff to Dewey at the battle of Manila Bay, has gone blind. The trouble started within a few months of the great fight and the admiral's physician attributes the origin of the malady to the strain of that trying occasion. His sight is now irrecoverably gone, but, surrounded by his family, he is rounding out his days in his pretty Washington home and interesting himself in church work, keeping up his cheerful attitude toward the world, beloved by everybody and, except for his one affliction, in perfect health and in possession of all his faculties.

Admiral Lamberton held the rank of commander when, in the early part of 1898, he was ordered to take command of the Olympia, relieving Capt. Gridley. He arrived at Hong Kong just after the declaration of hostilities, but did not assume immediate command, owing to Gridley's request that he be permitted to round out his career with a fight.

Realizing that Lamberton, too, would want a chance at the "Dons," Dewey created the position of chief of staff for his new flag captain and in that capacity Lamberton took part in the famous "May party," witnessing the engagement from the bridge of the flagship, where he stood with his commander throughout the fight. He commanded the Olympia on her long journey home and at the Dewey celebration a year after the fight.

The Navy Register honors the old fighter with italics and a note which states that he was "advanced for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle during the war with Spain." His appointment as captain came to him 11 days after the Manila battle. He was made a rear-admiral in 1903.

GREAT REFORMER MUST DIE

The most picturesque of all forms of execution has been revived in the Chinese capital and its first victim is to be the great ex-vice-roy, successor to Li Hung Chang as the leading politician of China, Yuan Shih Kai.

Yuan has been in disfavor with the present regime from its beginning. Organizer of the modern Chinese army, he was growing too powerful and popular to please the governing powers. They ordered his execution at the time he was removed from the office of viceroy, but it was reported that at the intervention of Prince Ching and Chang Chih Tung the order was withdrawn.

Now it is reported that five messengers have taken the ex-vice-roy the yellow cord. Sent to an official by the emperor or, as in this case, the regent, the cord is an order for self-destruction.

The victim is expected to use the cord to strangle himself. It is said that Yuan is to have two months to put his house in order and he is then to pass out by his own hands.

At the time of the deaths of the emperor and dowager empress of China Yuan Shih Kai was accused of having poisoned the emperor, in a dispatch received from Shanghai at the New York branch of the Chinese Reform association. The communication is said to be as follows:

"Yuan Shih Kai poisoned the emperor.
"Please cable to Peking to attack him."

It was declared at the Mott street headquarters of the association that identical dispatches had been sent to branches of the Reform association in all sections of the world and that demands would be made on Prince Chun, the new regent, to depose Yuan Shih Kai from power and "do away with him." It was asserted further that Prince Chun's failure to act upon these requests would make the prince himself the object of the association's attacks.

WOULD APPOINT JUDGES

Judge James G. Jenkins, former chief justice of the United States circuit court of appeals, declares that the judicial system of this country can never rise to a reasonable level until the whole method of naming our judges is changed.

Judge Jenkins would have no judges elected. From the highest national tribunal to the lowest local court all judges should be appointed. As he explained it in the address he has just delivered to a professional gathering in Chicago, all federal judges should be appointed by the president, all judges of state courts by the governor. Politics should cut no figure in the selections and all judges, after serving a long term, should be retired upon a pension. This plan would to a very great extent take the courts out of politics, although there would still be a possibility that a governor, for instance, with political ambitions of his own would probably see the importance of naming expert politicians from doubtful sections for fat judicial positions or in payment, sometimes, of political indebtedness.

Judge Jenkins is a Milwaukee resident, knows something about politics himself and was thrust into world prominence in 1893, when he issued the first of the sweeping labor union injunctions which restrained Northern Pacific employes of all grades from striking against a cut in wages. The order was appealed and sustained. The labor leaders threatened to impeach the judge, but the threat was not carried into effect.

HER FRIENDS WONDER

How Mrs. Kessler Was Rescued from Almost Certain Death.

Few have lived through such trials and suffering from kidney disease as were endured by Mrs. Caroline Kessler of W. Main St., Paw Paw, Mich. Well and strong again, her case is thought a miracle by her friends. What Mrs. Kessler went through makes a long story—backache, rheumatism, dizzy and fainting spells, urinary disorders, dreadful bloating of dropsy and finally a complete prostration that defied medical skill and caused her to be given up. Through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills Mrs. Kessler is a well woman and is willing to tell about her case to anyone who cares to inquire.

Unexpected Prize.

With a deftness acquired by long and patient practice the pickpocket extracted an old but well-filled wallet from the hip pocket of the unsuspecting old gentleman with the beaming countenance against whom he had carelessly brushed when leaving the street car, and on reaching a secluded place he opened it.

The contents had been wrapped with great care in numerous thicknesses of blank paper. Removing the wrappings one by one, he found in the center of the package a card with this inscription upon it: "Young Man, Give Up Your Career of Crime! Nothing In It!"

Monday's Excursion.

Between eighty and ninety Carrizozo "boosters" at 8:30 Monday morning boarded the train for Capitan. All wore neat badges inscribed "Vote for Carrizozo for the County Seat." The trip over the Indian Divide is a beautiful one, especially at this season. The scenery enroute is grand, towering mountains above and deep chasms beneath. The train winds its tortuous way through narrow gorges, over steep trestles and around sharp curves; then, at a snail's pace, climbing high grades as it slowly works its way towards the summit; then, with brakes set, sliding down the steep mountain until it reaches its terminus at Capitan. On the occasion referred to, however, the train was too heavy for the powerful compound locomotive, and it was unable to haul it over the summit. The train was cut in two, the engine taking one-half of it over the hill, and then returning for the other half. In the meantime the passengers had alighted and amused themselves according to taste—the ladies gathering wild flowers and geological specimens, the kids scampering over rocks and chasing squirrels, and the men enjoying the soothing effects of the fragrant weed.

A large, jolly and good-natured crowd awaited the arrival of the train at Capitan, and accorded the "boosters" a right hearty welcome. Although the people of that town were about evenly divided on the county seat issue, the feeling was of the friendliest and happiest kind. Quite a large number were present from Lincoln and vicinity, but if a hostile thought had a place in their minds their happy faces did not reflect it as they warmly shook the hands of "their friends the enemy."

At about two o'clock all repaired to the spacious school building, where the question at issue was debated pro and con—W. C. McDonald representing Carrizozo and Peter A. Schmidt Lincoln. The debate lasted about three hours and was attentively listened to. At about six o'clock all got aboard the train for Carrizozo, having had a pleasant and entertaining time in the picturesque little town of Capitan.

Echoes of the Election.

By a "Booster."

We have seen the light and so have the other fellows. Where was Peter when it was turned on?

How about that deal between Lincoln and Capitan. Was Wetmore in it?

Carrizozo lost only three votes in the railroad town precincts out of five hundred and one.

Oscuro gets the banner—sixty-five to nothing. We got a lot of good people besides the lava beds from Socorro county.

We have the greatest respect for honorable opponents, but only contempt for grafters and double dealers.

We wonder if any one tried to play a little politics?

The Townsite company spent their own money. What did Carrizozo get out of that $1,000 sack of gold?

What do you think of the "Carrizozo Boosters" now?

All honor to the men who did the work. No room for spite-workers and blood-suckers. They must be eliminated.

That was a pretty good committee even if the "wise man" was left off. They took us to victory, and that was what we wanted.

Figure it out and see whether Haley did not tell you the truth about the population and disces.

With malice toward none, with charity for all, we finish the county seat campaign.
