VOLUME 3 WHITE OAKS NEW MEXICO, THURSDAY. NOVEMBER, 1, 1906. NUMBER 9

LOCAL ROUNDUPS,

Mrs. John Y. Hewitt has been seriously ill for several days past, and it is with regret we have to chronicle she is not yet on the mend.

Mrs. Jones Taliaferro returned Monday from Utah and points in Colorado, where she has been on an extended visit, and Jones is not looking so lonesome as he did.

Mrs. Jennie O. Parker went to Alamogordo last Thursday for an extended visit with Sidney M. and his family, as well as with friends at the city of cottonwoods.

Our Bellflower apples are fine. 50 lb boxes $2.00.
TALIAFERRO'S.

H. C. Crary left Tuesday morning for the lower Pecos country and will sample the climate down there through the winter months. Mrs. Crary will follow later if the tests are satisfactory.

John Lindsey and his best friend, Tom Benson, left Tuesday evening for El Paso, but were rather noncommittal as to their mission or ultimate destination, but these young men will be heard from again wherever they "buck in".

Beef by the quarter 5 cents per pound—AT TREAT'S.

The Democratic candidates raided the town the latter part of last week, corralled all the voters that did not make their escape to the hills, dehorned themselves of all dangerous weapons, drank, danced and decamped, as all good democrats should, leaving a few Sena men on their trail.

J. H. Skinner, an old timer in this country was a sojourner in White Oaks for a day during the week, the first time in over three years, Mr. Skinner has lately disposed of his fine fruit ranch on the Bonito at a good figure and appears to be taking life easy at present.

TALIAFERRO'S.

Eugene Stewart and wife, after a very pleasant visit with old-time friends of Eugene here, left yesterday for their new home at Gladstone, Colorado, where Mrs. Stewart's father is running a very extensive mercantile and mining business, in which they are all interested. On the eve of their departure some of the old crowd gathered at the family residence to give them a good send-off and their adieux.

Mrs. H. F. Brown and Mrs. W. A. McIvers, two Nogal matrons let loose from home duties and cares, were here Tuesday sampling White Oaks hotel fare, and looking at laces and lingarie displayed by our merchants. They left home with a fair supply of jolly good nature but had much of it shaken out of them over the horrible roads between here and our neighboring town.

A. H. Hudspeth, Democratic candidate for member of the Territorial Legislature has been hunting mavericks down in the Pecos valley for the past two weeks, leaving the Lincoln county ranges to be worked by his Republican opponent, Mr. Tully. These two gentlemen are keeping the irons hot about all the time, and it looks as if the roundup would be about Herefords to Polled Angus, with odds in favor of—the one that wins.

Comrey Bros., of Ancho, were doing the town on business during the week.

D. L. Jackson returned Tuesday from a visit to his mother and friends in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. W. J. Littell Sen. reached here yesterday morning from El Paso and will remain at the home of her son Atwood for some time.

Mrs. T. A. Whitmore, of Swanton, Neb. a niece of Mrs. John Y. Hewitt, whom she has not met for many years, has come for an extended visit.

CARRIZOZO CULLINGS.

Work started on the new Bank building Saturday last, and dust is now flying in all directions under the management of chief engineer White. This building will be erected by home people and the labor pay roll will be distributed among Lincoln county folks, and help materially in putting money in circulation.

Ira O. Wetmore is putting up a small building to be used as a Chinese restaurant.

Mr. J. B. Burrell, of Angus, has let the contract for a fine building near the lumber yard which, we understand, is to be used for a fruit and notion store.

The school board has accepted a block of land in McDonald's addition for a school house site, and an election will be held to vote $10,000 00 bonds to build a modern school house.

The new well has been tested, and an abundant supply of water assured. Workmen are busy laying pipes from the well to the shops and round house.

Judge Wm. Burns, of El Paso, spent a few days here this week and reports that a contract has been let for a 32 room addition to the hotel, work to be started by Mr. Pelfry, of Alamogordo, at once.

P. M. Johnson, of Nogal who has been on the sick list at Carrizozo ranch for a few days, is up and out again, and shaking hands with his friends.

The Carrizozo Trading Co. unloaded three cars of merchandise this week, the lumber Co. four cars of building material; M. B Murphy one car of cement, and S. A. Nied one car of lime with more coming. Business is good at Carrizozo, and the people do not have time to entertain the candidates when they drop in, so they pike out to other fields muy pronto.

The registration of this precinct amounts to 87, and it is [illegible] that [illegible] number [illegible] on certificates [illegible] at least 70 votes will be polled here, this place will likely be the banner democratic precinct of the county, as Republicans are scarcer than hen's teeth.

Additional Editorial.

It is announced that J. B. French, of Ancho has been placed on the Sena octopus ticket as a candidate for county commissioner from this, 2d district. Mr. French is a good and capable man and if elected would help manage the county affairs in a very creditable and satisfactory manner. But like Sodom, of old, that ticket is doomed, and one good man will not have power to avert the shower of brimstone that will be justly rained upon it election day, even though his wife should consent to furnish the pillar of salt, or the saltpeter in an effort to save it.

It is reported that both the candidates for sheriff have pledged themselves that, if elected, they will wear a starched collar.

It is only a dwarfed and pitiful soul that cannot see any thing more vital and comprehensive in the fight the editor of this paper is making against the machinations of a political gang, than chagrin and disappointment over the loss of an office that has never adequately paid for the discharge of its duties when faithfully performed.

It should be an easy matter for the people of this Territory to decide as to which of the candidates for Delegate to Congress can do the most good. Whether Mr. Larrazolo, who would be opposed to the majority in that body, and totally inexperienced in matters of legislation, or Mr. Andrews, who is perfectly familiar with all the outs and ins at the Capital of the Nation and in perfect accord with the party in power.

Tally again for Gov. Hagerman and reform. The Supreme Court of the Territory has denied the writ of prohibition lately issued by Judge Mann, which virtually nullified the action of the Governor in removing Leandro Baca, the crooked sheriff of Socorro county, and appointing another man in his place. The Governor's appointee has now taken charge of the office. Let the axe continue to fall even if it does make a racket among the rotten chips.

Mr. Bursum's convention over at Socorro the other day, through Billy Martin, his former assistant and book keeper at the Territorial penitentiary, again endorsed him for honesty, integrity and a lot of other things he is supposed to have hid away somewhere in his anatomy. This kind of thing must be about as satisfying to Mr. Bursum as the return of that $4,000 shortage is to the people of the territory.

Our Angus correspondent this week states some very pertinent facts in regard to the record of Lincoln county patriots who are seeking office. What has that precinct No. 1 crowd ever done for the county that they should ask to run all its affairs

English View of America and England

The new Bank of England is America! If we propose to build a railway we have to go to the United States for the necessary capital. If we wish to develop some industrial concern we apply to an American financier for assistance. If we have to sell a large property, a valuable picture, a rare work of art or a celebrated racehorse, we offer it to an American millionaire. If any well-known bachelor among us is in pecuniary difficulties it is to the United States that he hurries to find a bride with a fortune. If a more obscure Englishman is unable to earn a living in this country it is to the United States that he generally crosses to obtain employment. It is probable that at the very least America will have twice as much wealth and power in 20 years hence as she has acquired in the last 20 years, says London Truth. If so, what country will then be her equal? "The Future of the United States" would be a useful subject for some essay writer to deal with, for an America that is twice as rich, as powerful and as populous that has double the fleet of men-of-war and merchantmen and that does double the trade with the outside world that the America of to-day has and does will be a monster among the nations.

Uncle Sam is a great admirer of health, youth and beauty, but he has no use for fraudulent preparations sold on the deceptive promise to produce such results. The post office authorities have barred from the mails an "elixir" which the government chemists found to contain six per cent of alcohol and a small proportion of peppermint, the remainder being plain, ordinary water. Of course the gulls who were buying this worthless concoction in the belief that it would make them strong, young and beautiful were paying fancy prices for it, and the sellers were reaping snug fortunes. When the truth becomes fully appreciated that the surest and lest expensive method of acquiring health, strength and such measure of good looks as nature allots is to cultivate good habits, eat proper food and indulge in ample exercise, the charlatans who get rich by preying on human vanity will go out of business.

A world without mistakes and without suffering would be a world without real men and women, without literature, without music, without painting or sculpture and without love, and even without history, for history is a record of struggles toward better and higher things. Without obstacles to overcome and errors to correct, remarks the Louisville Courier-Journal, men and women would lapse to a level with beasts in mentality. Intellectual and spiritual development would cease and souls not refined by the fire of ordeals would die of something akin to fatty degeneration. The races would perish of ennui or inanity. After all it's a pretty fair sort of world as it stands. Much advice might have been offered at the world's making if a few experienced old ladies had been standing by, but the odds are that it would not have been so good a world as it is.

If the women of the United States who go shopping in their carriages think they are models of exclusiveness they should visit Mexico. Not so many years ago when a Mexican woman went shopping she remained in her carriage in the street and sent her servant into the store to call one of the clerks to wait upon her. He came out and received her orders and brought the goods to her for examination. This peculiar method of shopping was due to the old Mexican idea that a lady of good family should shield herself from the gaze of the public, and, in fact, from every one except her immediate relatives and most intimate friends. This idea has been dying hard for over a century, and it is still far from being completely buried in some parts of the republic.

The Spanish minister of public instruction is to introduce in the Cortes a bill providing for the expenditure of $10,000,000 for the construction of 5,000 primary schools during the next five years. This means a departure in the way of encouraging education that promises the highest benefit to the nation. The enlightened statesmanship of Spain is learning that ignorance is the greatest handicap to progress and prosperity.

It is a good idea in the training of wives to send a wife to the country when a farmer's wife is cooking for threshers. After the town woman has watched the farmer's wife a day she never complains if she has washing, ironing company, a fire and her bread burns all in the same day.

Another American girl would sever the tie that binds her to a foreign fortune hunter. Far too often the marriage service is nothing but a bill of sale.

Governor Hagerman, on the 17th inst., pardoned Clarence Moore of Chaves county, who was serving a sentence of one year in the Territorial Penitentiary for assault with a deadly weapon. The pardon was granted to enable Moore to be at the bedside of his wife, who was about to undergo a critical operation at Roswell.

"The oil well machinery at Durango has been purchased and paid for and the work of taking down and packing for shipment has now been under way for several days. The work is being done under the direction of Superintendent A. R. Messick. It is expected that it will be on the ground here by November 1st, and about two weeks will be occupied in getting it in shape to start to drill," says the Farmington Times-Hustler.

Ramon Sanoval, who a few days ago shot up the settlement of Rosa, was to-day lodged in jail at Tierra Amarillo, says a Santa Fe dispatch of the 19th inst. He is reputed to be an all-around bad man who has been terrorizing San Juan and Rio Arriba counties in this territory and Archuleta county, Colorado, for years. Sandoval is under indictment for shooting up a dance recently. It took the deputy sheriff and a posse of six citizens to arrest him.

Messrs. Hall and Reed of the government reclamation service have opened the bids for the building of the Leesburg dam, says an Albuquerque dispatch, and sent a telegram relative to their recommendations to Washington authorities. Messrs. Hall and Reed have assured the people of Las Cruces and the lower Rio Grande valley farmers that the future of the big Elephant Butte project, known as the Leesburg dam, is assured, and they hope work will be ordered commenced by the government in a few weeks, and certainly not later than Januaray 1, 1907.

An Albuquerque dispatch of October 22d says: The storm which raged here last Saturday night, all day yesterday and last night, closed to-day. It started with one of the worst sandstorms for years, then rain, hail and snow. Limbs from trees were scattered hither and thither and many tents on the high land occupied by consumptives were blown down. Snow has all disappeared, leaving the streets and surrounding valley soaking wet and muddy. Stockmen here do not believe the storm caused losses among sheep and cattle. The storm was general throughout central and southern New Mexico.

Newkirk, Oklahoma, and the contiguous country will be practically depopulated within a short time if the exodus of residents of that community to the Estancia valley continues. Another large delegation of homeseekers, the majority of whom were from Newkirk, arrived in Santa Fe last night, en route to McIntosh, Moriarty, Estancia, and other points in the fertile valley south of the capital. The party numbered about thirty and was headed by J. C. Maxwell of the immigration firm of J. C. Maxwell & Co. Quite a colony of Newkirk people are now located or intend to settle in the Estancia valley.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Colfax County Wool Growers.

The prominent stockmen of Colfax county met recently at Springer and formed the Wool Growers' Association of Colfax County, New Mexico. It was decided to work for three things: For the enactment by the Legislature of a law providing for road supervisors in each precinct in a county; to stamp out scab among sheep, and for the killing off of all wild animals preying on live stock.

Following is the executive committee selected for a year's term: Oscar Troy, H. C. Abbott, Amador Montoya, Severino Martinez and Rocendo Gonzales.

Eighteen members were enrolled, and the following officers were elected to serve for one year each:

Jerome Troy, president; Teodosio Gonzales, secretary, and D. J. Devine, treasurer. It was agreed that a membership fee of $1 and annual dues of 50 cents be required; also that applications for membership be made to the president or secretary or any member of the executive committee.

Jail Taken by Force.

An Albuquerque dispatch of October 22d says: Several weeks ago Governor Hagerman removed Leandro Baca as sheriff for Socorro county and appointed in his stead Misais Baca, a relative. The sheriff refused to give up his office and a few days ago his attorney, E. W. Dobson of this city, swore out a writ of prohibition to prevent Misais Baca from interfering, returnable before Judge Parker October 27th.

To-day the new appointee took possession of the office, but when he called at the jail to take possession it was refused, whereupon he broke off the locks and took forcible possession.

Governor Hagerman had apprehended trouble and had Captain Fornoff and Sergeant Lewis of the territorial mounted police present to avoid clash of the friends of the two factions.

A telephone message to-night from Socorro reports all quiet, but fears are entertained that a personal encounter between the two claimants may occur at any moment.

Carlsbad Editor Enjoined.

The Denver Republican prints the following special from Roswell, New Mexico, of the 17th inst.: For the first time in the history of New Mexico an injunction was granted enjoining a newspaper man from interfering with another newspaper man.

Capt. E. P. Bujac, the well known politician and lawyer from Carlsbad and nominee of the Democratic party for the constitutional convention from Eddy county, took exception to an editorial in the Carlsbad Argus entitled: "A Pig and a Pup."

Although the editorial did not mention his name, Bujac went into the Argus office and compelled W. T Reed, owner of the paper, to sign a written statement as to the authorship of the article and another to the effect that he would never use Bujac's name in the Argus again under any circumstances.

Reed in praying for the injunction says that a revolver was plainly visible and he signed the papers, as he was in fear of his life. Bujac is the president of the Carlsbad Printing Company, which publishes the Carlsbad Current, a Democratic newspaper.

Judge Pope granted the injunction restraining Bujac from interfering with Reed. The article in the Argus was written by Judge A. A. Freeman, dean of the territorial bar and nominee of the Republicans for the constitutional convention from Eddy county. Bujjac is wealthy and a southerner His last bid for public notice was when he recently wrote the mayor of Brownwood, Texas, after the race riots there, saying he would come down there with a hundred cowboys and kill every negro thereabouts. This attracted the attention of President Roosevelt, who wrote a biting letter to Governor Hagerman, who in turn wrote a letter to Carlsbad, urging the citizens to hold a meeting repudiating Bujac is wealthy and a southerner distinction in the Spanish-American war.

Knights Templar Convention.

The grand commandery Knights Templar of New Mexico at its sixth annual convention at Albuquerque on the 18th inst. installed the following officers:

Grand commander, Arthur Everitt Albuquerque; deputy grand commander, J. C. Slack, Clayton; grand generalissimo, O. L. Gregory, Las Vegas; grand captain general, J. H Wroth, Albuquerque; grand senior warden, George Shepard, Deming; grand junior warden, Frank Henning, Raton; grand prelate, C. D. Stevens Raton; grand treasurer, A. J. Maloy Albuquerque; grand secretary, A. A Keen, Albuquerque; grand standard bearer, W. P. Fox, Albuquerque; grand captain of the guard, A. N. Whitcomb, Albuquerque.

The next annual conclave will be held at Carlsbad, New Mexico, the day following the close of the grand royal arch chapter of New Mexico.

Past Grand Commander E. A. Cahoon, on behalf of the grand commandery, presented Past Grand Commander Stevens the past grand commander's jewel. The grand commandery delegated Sir Knight Shepard to present a similar jewel to Past Grand Commander J. P. McGrorty, Deming, and C. D. Stevens to present one to Past Grand Commander C. N. Blackwell, Raton.

Land Fraud Cases Continued.

A Roswell dispatch of October 19th says: Judge Pope to-day at noon sustained the motion of the United States for continuance of the land fraud cases against B. H. Tallmadge of Denver, C. L. and E. R. Tallmadge of Chicago, and John R. McKinstry and C. C. Young of Kansas City.

The motion was bitterly fought by the defense, who demanded an immediate hearing. The principal reason given by the government for asking the continuance was that the old cases that were taken up to the Supreme Court by the government on appeal had not been disposed of.

Already over $125,000 has been spent on these cases by the defendants and the government.

The bonds of the defendants were reduced from $50,000 to $30,000.

Royal Arch Masons.

The newly elected officers of the Royal Arch grand chapter, A. F. and A. M., installed at Albuquerque on the 17th inst., immediately after the election, are: Grand high priest, J. Fitch, Socorro; grand king, C. D. Boucher, Las Vegas; grand scribe, J. J. Kelly, Silver City; grand treasurer, A. J. Malloy, Albuquerque; grand secretary, A. A. Keen, Albuquerque; grand lecturer, Robert Kellahin, Roswell; grand chaplain, E. S. Stover, Albuquerque; grand captain of the host, Frank Henning, Raton; grand principal sojourner, J. C. Slack, Clayton.

Before adjournment the grand chapter decided to hold its next annual session at Carlsbad, in Rio Pecos county, in October, 1907.

NEWSPAPERS HIT

NO MORE TRANSPORTATION FOR ADVERTISING.

SUCH IS THE NEW RULING

InterState Commerce Commission So Interprets the Law—Railroad Tickets Must Be Paid for in Cash—Not Subject to Trade Like Merchandise.

Washington.—Under a ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission, transportation over railroad lines no longer may be given to newspaper publishers or editors in exchange for advertising space.

A protest against this ruling has been received from the Massachusetts Press Association, which says the association has voted to enter its protest against the reported ruling in holding that the payment for railroad transportation at full rates in advertising shall be treated on any other basis than that of transportation paid for in cash.

In response to the protest Chairman Knapp of the commission says:

"You are, of course, aware that all tariffs filed in compliance with the regulating statute names rates in dollars and cents and do not in any case provide that transportation can be paid for with property. It seems plain to the commission that the law above quoted, coupled with the fact stated, permits the payment for services of interstate carriers only in money.

"A contrary rule would sanction unequal compensation by different persons and involve ordinarily some degree of discrimination in favor of those permitted to exchange their commodities for the transportation they desire or secure. It is the aim of the law to prevent every sort of favoritism and secure equality of treatment in all cases.

"This ruling of the commission in no way interferes or abridges the rights of private contracts. Newspapers and their advertising space may be freely exchanged for any species of property upon such terms as may be acceptable to the parties to the transaction. But the facilities of the public are not private property, nor are they subject to bargain and sale like merchandise. The right to travel or have property carried by railway, like the right to common highway, is not a contract right, but a political right, the very essence of which is equality.

"Conceding that the advertising arrangements in question are ordinarily made and carried out in good faith, it seems plain to me that these arrangements must involve some measure of discrimination, and it is not easy for me to see how an honest newspaper can seriously object to a ruling of the commission which appears to be in obvious accord with the provisions and the purposes of the regulating statute."

POSTOFFICE ESTIMATES.

Submitted to Congress by Postmaster General Cortelyou.

Washington. — Postmaster General Cortelyou has submitted to the secretary of the treasury for transmission to Congress estimates for the Postoffice Department and the postal service for the coming fiscal year. The amount asked for salaries in the Postoffice Department is $1,528,920, being a net increase of $121,530 over the appropriation for the current year, while the amount asked for the maintenance of the postal service is $206,662,190, net increase over the present appropriation of $15,000,000.

The estimates last year were about $12,000,000 of the appropriations for the year before. The apparently large increase in expenditures contemplated by the present estimates, according to the department, represents but a normal advance over the expenditures of last year, made necessary to meet the constantly growing needs of the service and the public demand for improved facilities.

The principle items for which increased appropriations were submitted are as follows:

Compensations of postmasters, an increase of $1,500,000; compensation to clerks in first and second-class postoffices, an increase of $3,000,000; pay of letter carriers, an increase of $1,156,700; pneumatic tube service, an increase of $250,000; railroad transportation of mails, an increase of $4,600,000; pay of railway mail clerks, an increase of $978,360; foreign mail service, an increase of $268,000; rural delivery, an increase of $1,475,000.

A new item of $300,000 for freight and expressage on supplies is incorporated to meet the requirements of the law passed at the last session of Congress, which it is expected will result in a considerable saving to the government.

WOMEN FOR LOCAL OPTION.

Resolution of Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Colorado Springs.—An active part in politics will be taken by the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Colorado conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which concluded its fourteenth annual convention here to-day.

The convention decided to issue to all members of the Colorado conference the names of the candidate for the Sixteenth General Assembly, together with advices as to whether or not each candidate has pledged himself to vote for the local option bill, to be introduced during the next session of the Legislature. There are several thousand members of the conference in Colorado, and their vote in favor of the local option candidates for the Legislature will be an important factor in the campaign.

The state officers, all of Denver, were re-elected, as follows:

President, Mrs. A. C. Peck; vice president, Mrs. W. D. Phifer; recording secretary, Mrs. C. M. Kellogg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. E. Warner, and treasurer, Mrs. D. K. Lee.

Officers were also elected by the various districts comprising the Colorado conference.

Trinity church, Denver, was chosen for the 1907 convention place.

THEY CURE ANÆMIA

Anæmia, whether it results from actual loss of blood, from lack of nutrition due to stomach trouble, or whatever its cause, is simply a deficiency of the vital fluid. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood. They do that one thing and they do it well.

"As a girl," says Mrs. Jessie Fink, of 180 East Mill street, Akron, Ohio, "I suffered from nervous indigestion and when I was eighteen years old I was reduced in weight to 93 pounds. I was anæmic, nervous, couldn't eat or sleep, was short of breath after the least exertion and had headaches almost constantly. I had a doctor, of course, but I might as well have taken so much water for all the good his medicine did me. Finally my vitality and strength were so reduced that I had to take to my bed for several weeks at a time. I could not digest any solid food and for weeks I did not take any other nourishment than a cup of tea or beef broth.

"While I was sick in bed I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I stopped all other medicine and began to take the pills. Soon my improvement was very noticeable. My strength began to return, my stomach gave me no pain and just as soon as I began to take solid food I gained in weight. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills certainly saved my life. I am now perfectly well, have regained my normal weight of 120 pounds and I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a wonderful medicine."

These celebrated pills are recommended for stubborn stomach trouble, for all cases of weakness and debility, such as result from fevers and other acute diseases. All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or they will be sent by mail postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

CASTE IDEA CARRIED FAR.

Illustration of Bitterness Between Followers of Mohammed.

Here is a tale from O'Donovan's "Merv" illustrating the bitterness of feeling between the various sects of the followers of Mohammed: O'Donovan had offered his Mohammedan attendant, who happened to be a Shilte, some of his cold chicken, which the man took at first and chewed ruminantly. Suddenly, however, he spat the mouthful out, exclaiming: "Who cooked this?" since it is a sin for a Moslem to eat food cooked by an infidel. "Oh, it's all right," replied O'Donovan, "it was cooked by your coreligionists down there," pointing to a city of Sunnites. "What!" exclaimed Shilte, furiously, "by those infernal Sunnites! I shouldn't have minded much if it had been cooked by you or any other giaour; but by a Sunnite! Pah!" and he spat again in his disgust. "But what is the difference between Shilte and Sunnite? Aren't both good Moslems?" "What is the difference between us! Don't you know that when a Shilte washes his hands he lets the water drip from the wrist; but when those Sunnites wash their hands they let the water drip from the elbow?"

Worry Postal Authorities.

Because the postal administration has imposed a duty of five pfennigs instead of two on postal cards intended for urban delivery, the citizens of Hanover have inaugurated a singular strike against the postal authorities. Instead of writing postal cards, they all write letters, and, not satisfied with sending their effusions in an envelope, they fill it with newspaper so as to bring the weight of the letter to the maximum of 250 grams. As the envelopes they now use are of the maximum size tolerated it is easy to obstruct a letter box with only a dozen of such missives. The postal authorities are alarmed at this obstruction of the postal service, and it is probable that the former tariff of two pfennigs on postal cards will have to be reestablished.

A FOOD CONVERT.

Good Food the True Road to Health

The pernicious habit some persons still have of relying on nauseous drugs to relieve dyspepsia, keeps up the patent medicine business and helps keep up the army of dyspeptics.

Indigestion — dyspepsia — is caused by what is put into the stomach in the way of improper food, the kind that so taxes the strength of the digestive organs they are actually crippled.

When this state is reached, to resort to stimulants is like whipping a tired horse with a big load. Every additional effort he makes under the lash increases his loss of power to move the load.

Try helping the stomach by leaving off heavy, greasy, indigestible food and take on Grape-Nuts—light, easily digested, full of strength for nerves and brain, in every grain of it. There's no waste of time nor energy when Grape-Nuts is the food.

"I am an enthusiastic user of Grape-Nuts and consider it an ideal food," writes a Maine man:

"I had nervous dyspepsia and was all run down and my food seemed to do me but little good. From reading an adv. I tried Grape-Nuts food, and after a few weeks' steady use of it, felt greatly improved.

"Am much stronger, not nervous now, and can do more work without feeling so tired, and am better every way.

"I relish Grape-Nuts best with cream and use four heaping teaspoonfuls at a meal. I am sure there are thousands of persons with stomach trouble who would be benefited by using Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Plant Memory.

Plant memory is a problem for the inquisitive botanist. In 1901 a plant allied to the squash and pumpkin was brought to New York from the desert of Sonora, in Mexico, and since then it has been kept—without watering—in a strange climate, 3,000 miles from home. During the six weeks of rain in the desert the plant grows its leaves and flowers and perfects its seeds. Then it dries up and leaves only a water-filled gourd, which a thick, hard shell seals against animals and evaporation. The transplanted specimen still remembers the rainy season of six weeks. It wakes, sends out rootlets, stems and leaves, and then dries up again until the following year.

The Spot on Jupiter.

Perhaps no more singular feature of any planet is known than the great red spot that appeared on Jupiter in 1878. Round at first, this soon became elliptical, with a length of 5,000 miles and a breadth of 6,400, and the original deep red color has faded out in recent years. While the oval form has been kept the spot has not been stationary. With the late breaking out of a conspicuous double belt on Jupiter, the drift has been greatly accelerated, and the spot has moved westward 11,000 miles in three months.

Explorer Likes Sailors.

Dr. Nansen is fond of sailors. He says that there is a brotherhood of the sea which stamps sailors and singles them out from all other callings. He has found more thoughtful earnestness among sailors and a better spirit than among any other profession. Sailors, he believes, bear all their hardships and sufferings with calmness and fortitude.

The World's Longest Fence.

The longest fence in the world, it is thought, is one of wire netting in Australia, 1,236 miles long. Its object is to keep rabbits from the cultivated fields.

Had Church Roof Fixed.

Miles Finlen, the rich Montana copper miner, visited some relatives in Bay City, Mich., recently. He attended services in an old wooden church and while there a rainstorm came up. The roof leaked, and some water fell on Finlen's neck. After the services had ended he asked one of the church officials: "Why in blazes don't you give people a decent place to worship in?" "I suspect it's because we haven't the money," was the suggestive reply. Next afternoon material for a new roof began to arrive in front of the church and Finlen walked into the pastor's study with a check for $750. "Fix up your old roof," is all he said.—Indianapolis News.

Dyspepsia Is Often Caused By Catarrh of the Stomach—Peruna Relieves Catarrh of the Stomach and Is Therefore a Remedy For Dyspepsia.

Hon. M. C. Butler, Ex-U. S. Senator from South Carolina for two terms, in a letter from Washington, D. C., writes to the Peruna Medicine Co., as follows:

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine, besides a good tonic."

CATARRH of the stomach is the correct name for most cases of dyspepsia. In order to cure catarrh of the stomach the catarrh must be eradicated. Only an internal catarrh remedy, such as Peruna, is available.

Peruna exactly meets the indications.

THE OTHER SIDE.

Smelter Manager Talks of Company's Good Work.

At the session of the mining congress, held in Denver Thursday of last week, Franklin Guiterman, general manager of the Colorado department of the American Smelting and Refining Company, which is operated by the Guggenheims, spoke before the delegates regarding the criticisms that those not well informed some time pass upon the management of the smelting company, with which he is connected.

Mr. Guiterman's remarks brought forth words of warmest praise and approval from the delegates, who said they regretted that more publicity was not given to the merits of the American Smelting and Refining Company, which is doing so much to build up the mining industry of the West. Mr. Guiterman was made the victim of a misstatement in the Denver papers to the effect that he had retired from the mining congress after making his speech to avoid being asked questions. After this statement was published, a delegate arose and offered a resolution to the effect that the congress knew that Mr. Guiterman sought rather than retired to avoid the issue presented, and that the congress requested the press of the city to correct the erroneous idea that there had been any attempt on his part to evade debate.

Among the more striking of the statements made by Mr. Guiterman, during the reading of his paper, were the following: "The senator has stated that in Colorado there is practically no competition. I wish to gainsay that statement of his and to declare that in every field in Colorado to-day, no matter whether it be Lake county, or San Juan, Teller county or Mineral county, we have competition on all sides, and that we have at all times been ready to meet such competition in a spirit of fairness and equity to the producer.

"With particular reference to the Cripple Creek district, I desire to say to you that the formation of the so-called trust, when the American Smelting and Refining Company absorbed the last remaining great smelter in Colorado, namely, the Philadelphia plant owned by M. Guggenheim's sons, that since that time instead of there being an advance in treatment charges there has been a steady reduction of the same, with the result that there has been more paid to the miner than when individual smelters were operating.

"The miner to-day has the privilege of supervision of the sampling at the smelter by his own representative, as he had it before, and he has the privilege of making his own assays. He can resort to the arbitrament of umpire assays as he did before. There is nothing that I know of, that has been taken away from him, but what has been done has been done in the interests of decency and self-protection to ourselves, to which we hold we are entitled.

"In Cripple Creek in 1902, and the Guggenheim smelter was taken in 1901, our average margin was $8.69 per ton, the gross value of the ore being $44.41 per ton. In 1905 our average margin had been greatly reduced, so that we were receiving only $7.72 a ton, while the values had increased to the generous sum of $50.47 per ton. In other words, the Cripple Creek producer was receiving $7 per ton more three years after this combination had come into existence. It does not look, consequently, as if we were trying to exterminate that industry.

"We found, however, one thing, and that was that in the purchase of these ores grave abuses were being practiced, much to the detriment of ourselves, so that we could not continue the policy of making reductions in treatment charges on that account. We found on the part of the miner that he could utilize the sampler, the smelter, and utilize his own appliances to sample the ores, and that he was insistent on getting the very highest returns on his ores which could possibly be procured by any means. And we also found that in pursuance of these methods the smelters were suffering great damage on account of metal contents which they paid for but which did not exist.

"Hence, the circular was issued which the senator has mentioned in his paper read before you, namely, that we would adopt such means as to fairly ascertain the value of the ore, and, having adopted it, we would come together on an agreement as might be to the interest of all parties concerned. There is nothing in the circular mentioned which can possibly be taken exception to by any fair-minded individual.

"It may interest you to know, since the senator has mentioned it, and compared us to railways, that our position is entirely dissimilar. Railways are common carriers for public convenience. We are not common receivers. We must exercise the doctrine of selection in the class of material we can utilize. We must exercise with the shipper this doctrine of selection and must determine for ourselves to what extent we can go to the aid and development of this important industry. And thus it appears that to aid them we are called upon very frequently to give to certain shippers facilities to assist them in their development in a manner which could not be universally applied. It is a well-known fact that men will not delve in the ground unless they receive their just reward."

Mr. Guiterman then cited figures for nearly all of the prominent mining camps of the state, to show the reductions which had been made on the price of ore treatment in the past few years.

HAD CONSIDERED THE POINT.

Juryman's Explanation Somewhat of a Joke on Judge.

A lawyer in the western part of Massachusetts having a rather desperate case to defend, called the court's attention to the wording of the statute, empowering the jury to "judge of the law as well as of the facts," and requested him to instruct accordingly. The judge somewhat reluctantly did so, adding, however, that the jurymen should accept his interpretation of the prinicples involved unless they were fully satisfied that they knew more law than he did.

In spite of this, an outrageous verdict was brought in, utterly contrary to the instructions of the judge, who severely rebuked the jurors.

The foreman, a horny-handed farmer, rose to reply. "Jedge," said he, "weren't we to jedge the law as well as the facts?"

"Certainly," was the response, "but I told you not to judge the law unless you were satisfied that you knew the law better than I did."

"Well, jedge," answered the farmer, as he shifted his quid, "we considered that p'int."

TERRIBLE SCALP HUMOR.

Badly Affected with Sores and Crusts—Extended Down Behind the Ears—Another Cure by Cuticura.

"About ten years ago my scalp became badly affected with sore and itching humors, crusts, etc., and extended down behind the ears. My hair came out in places, also. I was greatly troubled; understood it was eczema. Tried various remedies so called, without effect. Saw your Cuticura advertisement, and got the Cuticura Remedies at once. Applied them as to directions, etc., and after two weeks I think, of use, was clear as a whistle. I have to state also that late last fall, October and November, 1904, I was suddenly afflicted with a bad eruption, painful and itching pustules over the lower part of the body. I suffered dreadfully. In two months, under the skillful treatment of my doctor, conjoined with Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, I found myself cured. H. M. F. Weiss, Rosemond, Christian Co., Ill., Aug. 31, 1905."

Could Take His Choice.

At a recent inquest in a Pennsylvania town, one of the jurors, after the usual swearing in, arose and with much dignity protested against service, alleging that he was the general manager of an important concern and was wasting valuable time by sitting as a juror at an inquest.

The coroner, turning to his clerk, said: "Mr. Morgan, kindly hand me 'Jervis' (the authority on juries)." Then, after consulting the book, the coroner observed to the unwilling juror:

"Upon reference to 'Jervis,' I find, sir, that no persons are exempt from service as jurors except idiots, imbeciles and lunatics. Now, under which heading do you claim exemption?"—Success Magazine.

German Life Insurance.

Acocrding to the Cologne Gazette, there are in Germany more insurance policies than inhabitants—80,000,000 policies, as against a population of under 60,000,000; which shows that a large proportion are insured in two or more companies. The indemnities paid by German insurance companies amount to about $24,000,000 a month.

Gasoline and Alcohol.

The greater safety of alcohol, as compared with gasoline for commercial uses, is due to the fact that it will not ignite from pure radiated heat, as gasoline does; that water will extinguish burning alcohol while it will only spread a fire of gasoline, and that the flames of burning alcohol radiates very little heat while that of gasoline radiates heat very rapidly.

New York Fond of Amusement.

There is more money, per capita, spent in New York city every year for amusements than in any other part of the world. The people spend 12 per cent. more than those in the metropolis of any other state or county, 18 per cent. more than those in the next largest cities, 36 per cent. more than those in smaller towns, and 57 per cent. more than those in the rural districts.

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

Novelist Avenged Dog's Death.

Gabriele d'Annunzio has erected a monument to his dog. The inscription is long, beginning: "Sacred to the imperishable memory of my greatest and most faithful friend." The dog was killed by a peasant some months ago. The novelist prosecuted the man, who, at the trial, at Florence, said that he killed the dog because it worried his hens. The author had engaged the services of two notable councilors, at an expense of $1,000, to prosecute. He won, and the peasant was sentenced to ten days' imprisonment.

Round and Square Balls.

A few years ago there was started in Chelsea, Mass., a semi-secret political organization, and after a few meetings it was decided that a ballot box and ballots were needed. A brother made a motion that a committee be appointed by the chair to procure the same. A brother who was always suggesting amendments moved an amendment that the committee be instructed to procure round white balls and square black balls. Another brother asked him to describe a square ball, which brought the house down and caused the mover of the amendment to ejaculate: "You think you are d—d smart, don't you?"

OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Two Grateful Letters from Women Who Avoided Serious Operations.—Many Women Suffering from Like Conditions Will Be Interested.

When a physician tells a woman, suffering from female trouble, that an operation is necessary it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart. As one woman expressed it, when told by her physician that she must undergo an operation, she felt that her death knell had sounded.

Our hospitals are full of women who are there for just such operations!

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but such cases are much rarer than is generally supposed, because a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after the doctors had said an operation must be performed. In fact, up to the point where the knife must be used to secure instant relief, this medicine is certain to help.

The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, have escaped serious operations.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I cannot find words to express my thanks for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me. The doctor said I could not get well unless I had an operation for the trouble from which I suffered. I knew I could not stand the strain of an operation and made up my mind I would be an invalid for life. Hearing how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had saved other women from serious operations I decided to try it, and in less than four months I was entirely cured; and words fail to express my thankfulness."

Miss Margret Merkley, of 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, severe shooting pains through the pelvic organs, cramps, bearing-down pains, and an irritable disposition compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said that I had a serious female trouble and ulceration, and advised an operation as my only hope. To this I strongly objected—and I decided as a last resort to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"To my surprise the ulceration healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared, and I am once more strong, vigorous and well; and I cannot express my thanks for what it has done for me."

Serious feminine troubles are steadily on the increase among women—and before submitting to an operation every woman should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. for advice.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been curing the worst forms of female complaints, all functional troubles, inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement, weakness, irregularities, indigestion and nervous prostration. Any woman who could read the many grateful letters on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office would be convinced of the efficiency of her advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Precinct No. 5.—nominated by precinct No. 1.

This paper and its friends are not making any fight against the Republican party. Its fight is for an honest, capable administration of county affairs and against a crowd of leaches and incompetents who infest the county seat and its vicinity—persons who come up year after year for any office they may single out and demand that they be placed on the ticket because they "gave way" at some other time to aid some decent man whom they saw had a clear majority in the convention. This year by combining they have prevented the nomination of a ticket that any self-respecting voter would care to support. They are simply cormorants and the party is compelled to snow them under. In this day of grace, when the decent people of the country, from the head of this great nation down to the humblest citizen, who tills a few honest acres on some rocky hillside or wields a pick in a mine, are demanding reform in business as well as in political matters, let not the people of Lincoln county be found wanting. It is easier to keep the rascals out than to turn them out.

Next Tuesday the people will decide wheather or not they want to put a lot of incompetents and hangers-on in office who are dominated by a corrupt political boss who was once removed for cause.

Editor Outlook.

I am glad to see that you have the independence to come out and show up the Lincoln county Republican ring in its true light. The outrageous way the late county convention was manipulated by a few selfish and designing office seekers, is enough to bring a blush of shame to the cheek of any good republican who is a believer in the party founded by Lincoln, and perpetuated by Blaine, McKinley and Roosevelt. Right at this time when the great man who is now at the head of the Nation is asking and demanding "a square deal" for every one, a little band of two by four politicians at Lincoln have banded themselves together and handed us Republicans a ticket for the most part made up of men who are out only for what there is in it for themselves. Ignoring and insulting the west end of the county entirely, they have nominated the entire ticket from the immediate vicinity of the town of Lincoln, if we are to except the political nondescript they have put up for one of the most important offices, who was properly snowed under four years ago, when he was also foisted onto the intelligent people of the west end as a representative of that section.

Another would-be politician and one of a family of perpetual office seekers, has been nominated for an important office that comes directly into every home that has growing young men and women in its midst, a man who is proud of the fact that he has not paid his lawful taxes for a number of years, and who today has a suit in court against the present Collector, because he enforced the law against him, and sold his property and compelled him to pay his taxes, and now this man has the temerity to come before the people of the county and ask them to elect him to an office. Another gentleman honored by the convention was found openly fighting the ticket two years ago, because he was not nominated for the office of sheriff, and we presume he was given a sop this time to "keep him in line" over the heads of men who have always voted and supported the ticket. For an office requiring good sound business judgment and experience we have a youth that no business man would entrust his affairs to for twenty four hours, still the people of Lincoln county are asked to trust their financial affairs in part to him absolutely for the next four ears. No wonder Mr. editor you are asking what we are going to do about it. The most of us have made up our minds what we will do, and when that ticket with the flag goes into the box it will look as if some old hen had been scratching it pretty badly. What we want in this county is men in office that the people have confidence in, and who do not fix up jobs and slates for their own personal interests to the detriment of the general public; men who are here to stay and not birds of passage who expect to feather their nests at the expense of the taxpayers of this county and then fly to other and foreign lands; not men who refuse to pay their taxes, or do not own sufficient to pay taxes on, and last but not least, men who are clean and honest, and not men who, having once been tried were found wanting and unable under the law to serve out the time to which the people foolishly elected them. And by the time we have cut out this class of men from our tickets this year, there will not be much left to vote for but the flag, but to prove that we are still Republicans we will vote for that anyhow.

Yours very truly,
One of the Old Guard.

By the re-election of Delegate Andrews New Mexico will have this advantage. Instead of a voteless delegate the Territory will have the vote of the entire Pensylvania delegation in all legitimate legislation Mr. Andrews may propose.

The octopus did not come to White Oaks after all. It merely settled down on the adjoining precinct of Rabenton and sent out some of its sleekest tentacles, or suckers, this way to feel for votes, but finally drew them in before they had secured many victims for its rapacious maw, and straddled off down the public highway toward Capitan.

FOUND IT WAS LOADED.

This paper is reliably informed by one of our merchants, who is willing to vouch for the fact, that the candidate for probate judge on the Sena octopus ticket, sold him some wool a few months ago and not liking the appearance of the bundles as it was being delivered, he opened one and found inside an assorted collection of stones, pieces of old pelts and other matter more suitable for fuel or building purposes than for clothing.

"O, righteous judge! O, most wise and upright judge! How do I honor thee?"

There is no reason why any Republican should fail to support J. V. Tully for Representative of this 18th Legislative District. Mr. Tully is in every way worthy of the office for which he has been nominated, is honest and capable and opposed to all kinds of graft in the way of legislation. He would look after the interests of the people of this section, and lend his support only to the enactment of good and wholesome measures for the people of the whole territory. Besides he is in no way responsible for the ticket the Sena octopus has attempted to force upon the voters of Lincoln county.

W. E. Lindsey, candidate for the Territorial House of Representatives, Nineteenth District, is a man universally respected by the people of Portales where he has been a pioneer in the upbuilding of that place and Roosevelt county. He was born in Ohio about 41 years ago, taught school there as a young man, graduated at the Michigan University Law School, practiced his profession in Chicago for about ten years and then came to New Mexico, and at once interested himself in the progress of the region where he lives. He is a representative man, and will get a large vote in the county where he is best known and should carry the full strength of his ticket in Lincoln, Chaves and Eddy counties as well.

OH, THE MEAN THING!

This paper has been informed that a certain party who blows an Instrument down at Capitan has been making Unseemly remarks about its editor in a Foreign Tongue. If the report be really true, it would appear as if this Instrument man had taken undue Advantage of a citizen of the United States who only understands the Language of the Country straight up. But then this Party is probably Excusable from the fact that he has hardly yet recovered his Equilibrium after a severe Setback received from the Department of the Interior over a matter of forest Superintendency, the incident being yet Fresh in the mind of every one in this immediate vicinity.

Then too, this Disgruntled person, out of a governmental Job, may have a further Grievance over his failure to receive the nomination to one of the Numerous official positions he was seeking at the hands of the late Cabal at Lincoln, and is only trying to rid himself of a little surplus bile, rather than Vituperation, either of which is harmless, and in certain emergencies gives surcease from sorrow and chagrin?

If this party or any candidate for office with an Unsavory record, wishes to let the bars down of their own accord into pastures where there is good Picking, they can be reasonably sure THE OUTLOOK will go in and graze.

J. B. French, who has been selected by the Republicans of this commissioner district for that office, is a good business man, a number one book keeper, is active and energetic and in fact has just the qualifications to fit him for transacting the county business.
