Mining and Prospecting.

The Iowa and New Mexico Mining and Milling Company.

On Monday June 30th., a special meeting of the stockholders of the Iowa, & New Mexico Mining and Milling company was held at Nogal. Nearly six-seventhes of all stock issued was represented either in person or by proxy; the purpose of the meeting was the amending of the articles of incorporation, as per public notice in this paper during the past four weeks.

A number of the stockholders of this company have been here for several days examining the property of the company and making arrangements for future oporations. After a thorough examination of the property they are all highly pleased with its prospects The Iowa and New Mexico M&M company own a group of valuable gold mines on Turkey Creek, fifteen in number, and fourteen mining claims at Sheelerville, five miles west of Nogal.

Both properties have reached that stage of development where they can be safely placed among our best and most permanent mining enterprises.

The Turkey Creek property of the company consists of large bodies of ore carrying free gold in paying quantities, as the saying goes, from the grass roots.

The Sheelerville property is a copper, gold and silver proposition that is now down to a sufficient depth to prove its value as a paying producer.

New and up to date machinery will be purchased and both properties will soon be adding to the rapidly increasing wealth of the Nogal district.

Words of praise are certainly due the management of this company, and it is just and appropriate for us to add here that the property for the last year in its development stage has been systematically managed by H.B. White and S. S. Doak. Both gentlemen have shown themselves to be thorough, competent and very careful business men, moving along with the work in an exceptionally continuous manner.

With its careful business like management and its splendid prospects, the Iowa and New Mexico M. & M. company may safely be placed upon the list of Nogal's best and safest mining enterprises

We could wish the camp no better luck than for all of our best undeveloped mining properties to fall into the hands of such people.

Some big mining deals are on foot in the Nogal district. Look out for big surprises.

A rich body of ore has been encountered in the Rockford tunnel.

Two hundred thousand pounds of machinery is now on the road for the American and Eagle mines.

J. W. Salmon, G. B. McIntire and Nute Kemp have recently made locations on Eagle Creek that gave assay returns of $6,50 and $6,00 per ton in gold from the surface.

The Free Gold Mining Company are waiting for a screen to arrive from Chicago when they expect to start up in first class shape.

Did you ever stop to consider that Cecil Rhodes, the Collosus of South Africa, Senator Clark, the richest man in America and Best, the wealthiest man in England, all made their fortunes out of mining All starting out poor men.

W. A. McIvers has been out to Round Top mountain where the New Mexico Oil and Development company is prospecting for oil. The company's well is now down nearly two hundred feet and the prospects for striking oil is said to be good. The surface indications for oil are said to be excellent.

A party of eight mining men from Boston, St. Louis and Chicago have been camping on the head of Nogal canyon for several days looking after some mining property. They are so far highly pleased and Mr. Hall, their expert has gone to Chicago with about fifty samples of ore from the property on which he will make a test run and if satisfactory another big mining company will be added to Nogal's list. The company is said to be a wealthy one. Among the party is Dr. E C Knight of Chicago, Ill., and Hon. F. W. Ganse, a prominent Chicago attorney.

Announcement.

FOR PROBATE CLERK.

We are authorized to announce the name of I. L. ANALLA for re nomination to the office of Probate Clerk of Lincoln County, subject to the choice of the Republican County Convention.

FOR TREASURER AND COLLECTOR.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate before the Republican County Convention of this county for nomination to the office of Treasurer & Ex Officio Collector. E. W. HOLLAND.

Well done, Mr. Rody. You have made a most gallant fight for New Mexico. Your reward will come with statehood when the people will send you to the United States Senate.

We note that some of the 2x4 Republican candidates are putting their announcement in Democratic papers. This is due, in part, to the fact that this paper will not announce a candidate in its columns that we can not heartly support after the convention has nominated him; another reason is that we have no space to sell for such announcements at $1.00 each, which is a high price to them, chances for nomination being considered.

The condition of the labor situation in the Pennsylvania and West Virginia coal mines are exemplified to a certain degree in the coal mines at North Capitan. The only difference, at Capitan the management have not succeeded in securing a surplus of labor. The Capitan company seems to have a desire to pursue the same course as the eastern concerns. One of the greatest causes of misery and trouble in the coal mines of the east is the infernal company store and the payment of laborers in scrip. This, the Capitan company has adopted and if a miner shows any disposition to want cash for his labor he it ordered out of the camp and is made to go by special officers of the company. It is a shame that one of Lincoln county's chief industries should fall into such grasping, inhumane, hands as the New Mexico Coal company and the Southwestern Mercantile company. We can not conceive how men who profess to be humane could even think of absorbing all of the sweat from a laborer's brow.

Grains of Thought

A pure man running for office is pretty lonesome sometimes.

Many persons talk twice to one think.

When a man feels mean that's his "church" to keep still.

Many people who get into the church to hide their meaness may fool the Lord but the cant fool their neighbours.

Some men are such big hypocrits as to talk about a man to his back and then call him around the corner just to ask him for the loan of a quarter.

One divorce case out of 479 marriages in the United States is not so bad after all. It shows the patience of the other 478 women.

It's not the loudest prayer that accomplishes the most. Some of the smallest steamboats carry the largest fog horns.

There are some men in this town so lazy that they ought to be treated to a dose of epsom salts daily, so that if they will not work the salts will.

Some people will read an article in a newspaper, pronounce the editor a collossal liar and then turn around and repeat the same article for original facts. There is a vast difference with some people who tells the story first.

Dr. F. M. Isom and J. Emmett and wife of Waterloo, Iowa, came down this morning from Carrizozo where they had been for the past week, and are stopping at the Plaza. Messrs Isom and Emmett are large stockholders in the Iowa New Mexico Mining and Milling company, which has extensive gold and copper properties near Carrizozo and they came down to see how work was progressing.

"It has been development work principally so far," said Dr. Isom this morning. "but we are going to put in modern machinery now at once and mine the property extensively. The prospects are very fine and we are highly pleased with our investment. The Eagle and American companies, on either side of us, have been working on quite large scales for some time and quite profitably. The dry desert country hereabouts is something new to us and is a source of much interest on each trip."—El Paso Times.

Next.

"These stories of New Mexico volcanoes that have been appearing lately are all bosh," said Gus Holland, of White Oaks, to a reporter of the El Paso Herald, "and they are doing the territory considerable harm.

"It is true enough that New Mexico has more extinct craters than any other state or territory in the union. Up near White Oaks we have got the largest crater in the United States. It is in the valley of the Gran Quivera, fourteen miles from town, and about 175 miles from El Paso. Of course no one knows, when it was last in eruption. The funny thing about this crater is that it is in a valley and not on a mountain peak as most people suppose craters are.

"Indications are that the earth suddenly opened and threw out a mass of molton lava which ran down the valley seventy five miles, and spreading out on an average of about four miles.

A pretty thrifty people must have lived in the valley then, becausa excavations have disclosed timbers carved and mounted in a wonderful fashion. People have supposed that they were an offshoot of the Aztecs.

"The end of this lava bed is near the White Sands, and it is thought that perhaps these are due indirectly to some volcanic action.

"The crater is bell shaped, about 300 feet across the top, and no one knows how deep. The lava beds are full of wild animals; but no water is found anywhere in them, though wells have been sunk as far as 200 feet.

"Every night flocks of ducks come to the crator and go down in it and come up at sunrise. I have often thought perhaps they got water there. The beds would be a splendid range if their was only water. There is considerable iron ore in the lave beds, too."

The story will pass, except that the crater is only about twenty feet wide, full of lava ashes and as dry as a bone, the supposed ducks were perhaps bats and there is a scarcity of both animals and grass on the lava beds. Holland must have taken an overdose of El Paso "enthusiasm."

It is reported that Col. Geo. W. Pritchard will soon move his residence from White Oaks to Socorro. The latter place being the headquarters of the Eifth Judicial district, this would make it much more convenient for his court work as district attorney.

Our Public Schools.

If you want to keep posted on Lincoln county mining news, subscribe for THE REPUBLICAN.

We wish to call your attention to matters pertaining to the education interests of our community.

It is a self evident fact that, "we must educate or we must perish." But how much time or thought do we give to this vital issue.

If we had a plant that we wished to grow and flourish we would most certainly place it where it would receive the proper heat, moisture and all other things that we thought necessary for its growth and development. But are we as careful about the places the conditions and the surroundings that contribute to the mental and moral growth and education of our children?

When a mechanic is called upon to build a house for us he is supposed to be supplied with every piece of material and every tool needed to complete his work. But what do we supply our teachers with when they come to teach our schools for us! A house with broken doors, an open floor, broken windows and window panes, a poor partition, a blackboard with the paint most worn off, no eracers no maps, no globe, no charts and no seats, and out of this material supplied we expect a perfect whole.

We say no seats because they are not suitable for children to sit upon. They are so high that the feet of the smaller children must dangle down without touching the floor and when the child does be-bome so tired that he slips down to the front of his seat and lets his toes touch the floor he must bendforward so much that there is danger of developing spinal curviture, which always weakens the lungs and aids in breaking down the physical being which is so essential to mental development.

We, the most of us at least, wish our children to be taught to write but with the desks and seats they have it is almost an impossibility.

If any patron doubts this statement in regards to the seats and desks let them visit the school and sit for eight hours upon one of them and be as mute as a mouse as he expects his children to be and see if he doesn't think the recesses and noon much too far apart and if the next day the teacher doesn't have to mark him up as an absentee.

There is nothing that builds up a community and holds it together more than a good school.

One of the first questions asked by people when they wish to move into a community is in regards to the condition of the schools.

If people will move away to send to other good schools they certainly would move in to send to one. It must be cheaper and more satisfactory for parents to build up good schools at home, where they can have their children under their own parental care, than to send them off to school

Our school rooms must be pleasant and comfortable if we expect the children to obtain the proper development.

This being the case, it behoves the patrons to fall in line and create a better stimulus towards the educational interests of our community, as we can not make the envoirment of too great an importance for our children. When this is done they will take inspiration from the atmosphere which they breath and awake from the slumbering sleep that has so long been slept.

They are flowers given us. Too much care can not be taken in their culture.

And the first step to be taken is to get our school building in a more comfortable condition and then good teachers may be more easily secured, who will be the first to act in this great work.—
