Official Paper of Lincoln County

Legislature Convenes.

Chaves, President; Luna, Speaker.

The 33rd legislative assembly of New Mexico met and organized Monday 16th inst.

Secretary Wallace administered the oath to the 12 councilmen, and that body elected J. Francisco Chavez, of Valencia county, president. The council proceeded to the completion of its organization by chosing the following subordinate officers: Chief clerk, W. E. Martin, Socorro; sergeant at arms, A. B. Laird, Grant; chaplain, J. L. Gay, Santa Fe; engrossing and enrolling clerk, R. T. Mees, Moro; messenger and guard, Apolonio Gutierres, of Bernalillo.

All 24 members of the lower house were present, and the oath was administered by Secretary Wallace to each one. Maximiliano Luna of Valencia county was elected speaker and the following were elected to the minor offices: chief clerk, R. L. Baca, Santa Fe; Interpreter Eugene Van Patten, Dona Ana.

Immediately following the organizations both houses adjourned to meet in joint session to hear the governor's message.

The EAGLE acknowledges the receipt of a copy of Gov. M. A. Otero's annual report.

Joseph H. Choate, one of the most prominent and successful attorneys of the state of New York, has been appointed ambassador to St James, succeeding Col. Hay.

The treaty of peace is having a hard tussle in the senate. It has such men as Hoar, Vest, Allen, Caffery, Hale and others fighting its adoption.

The "embalmed" beef controversy has taken a serious turn. Generals Miles and Eagan have made a personal affair of it, and Eagan, giving in his testimony before the war commission, said that Miles had lied—just simply lied. The commission returned Eagan's statements, and advised him to "holl" it down, leaving out the billingsgate and vituperation.

The Bonds Are Sold.

Contract for Salado Extension Let.

From the El Paso Times, Tuesday, the announcement is made that the bonds of the E. P. & N. E. have been sold and the contract let to to the Salado coal fields. The Times has quite an interesting article concerning the country through which the road will pass and the mineral districts which will be aided by its construction; and while the article is slightly off on geography, condition and designation of mines, it is, nevertheless entertaining, and is herewith presented to our readers.

"When President Eddy left for New York some weeks ago it was reported he had gone there to organize a company to take hold of El Paso's electric street railway franchise; but it seems that the hustling young financier and manager had other strings to his bow. The first object of his mission was to sell $1,000,000 worth of his extension bonds for his railroad line and awarding of the contract for the construction of the road from La Luz to Salado. The bonds were placed and the contract let and Mr Eddy can turn his attention to the matter of the El Paso street railway.

But there is more to tell about the Salado extension. The distance from Alamogordo to the Salado coal fields is about 75 miles and will pass directly through some of the richest old mining camps in New Mexico. They are all old established camps and not claims of unknown value. They have been worked successfully under disadvantages that will be removed by the cheap and excellent facilities for marketing the ore the railroad will afford. Nogal, an old established and prosperous mining camp will be touched by the Salado extension, and it also touches the mining districts of Bonito, Three Rivers, and San Andres, and goes within ten or twelve miles of White Oaks.

At the white Oaks are such famous old producers as Old Abe, North Homestead and South Homestead. These mines are money makers and yet they have to haul their ore over 100 miles to San Antonio to reach the Santa Fe rail-road. As soon as the Salado extension is completed to White Oaks miners will only have to haul their ore ten miles and there is no doubt but that road will be built into White Oaks before midsummer. A few miles above White Oaks there is the westerly mining district of Jicarilla.

The Salado fields contain the largest deposit of coal both bituminous and anthracite, to be found in New Mexico. Gas therefrom men are to be employed in taking out this coal and the railroad will begin shipping it into El Paso next June.

On the line of the Salado extension is also the Mescalero Indian reservation, embracing 450,000 acres of as fine land as can be found in the territory of New Mexico and it is more than probable that next summer 432,000 acres of this land will be opened to settlement by homesteaders. A bill providing for the opening of the reservation is now before congress and will no doubt pass as it is recommended by commissioner general land office and the commissioner of Indian affairs and is approved by the secretary of the interior.

The bill provides that when opened the land of the reservation can only be taken by homesteaders. Of course the allotment of lands to the Indians will be made before the reservation is opened to settlement. There are near 450 Indians on the reservation and their allotment of land will be about 18,000 acres, leaving about 432,000 acres for settlement by homesteaders. The fine mineral, timber and agricultural lands thus opened up will attract a rush of homeseekers and instantly the El Paso & Northeastern road will become a great artery of commerce connecting this city with a new country rich in natural resources and populated by a thrifty people.

On to Salado."

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and la grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by M. G. Paden.

Rev. Moody Evangelist, who has been conducting a revival in Albuquerque recently, has been solicited by the churches here to visit them at White Oaks—but for lack of time on his tour through New Mexico and the distance from the rail road he has informed the committee that it is impossible for him to make the trip at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley and Mrs. Haley's little sister, Georgie Loenet, stayed in Gray the night of the 7th. They were en route for White Oaks, where they intend to reside permanently.

Mr. John Smith of Nogal was in this place last week with his prarie dog extinguishers. He sold an extinguisher together with a right to use it on 2,000 acres of land, to Mr. S. T. Gray. When the barking of the little prarie dogs is silenced in all the country round about us, we hope more welcome sounds will fall upon the ear, such as the ringing of car bells the whistle of the locomotive etc.

Public school opened on monday the 16th with Miss Mary Skehan, as teacher.

Mr. Harvey Bonnell, formerly of White Oaks passed through Gray, Monday, on his way home from Oklahoma where he and his family have been for some weeks, visiting his wife's parents.

Mr. Frank Tatti was in Gray, the first of the week. He had started to the south side of the Capitans to begin shearing his fine Angora goats.

Wm. Reily made a business trip to Lincoln, the first of the week.

Some strangers, evidently waiting for work to begin, have been seen in Gray the past week. One is prepared to do grading, as he has teams for that purpose; the other is an experienced Colorado miner.

So far, Gray has been free from La Grippe, for which exemption all are very thankful.

Nogal Nuggets.

Editor EAGLE:

Thinking it might be of interest to some of your many readers, to hear about Nogal, and its prospects for the New Year, I will write you a few items, and continue to do so, as often as something of interest may transpire.

For many reasons, Nogal, in the opinion of those qualified to judge, will yet be the most important town in Lincoln county. Situated as it is in the foothills of the White Mountains, rich in precious minerals and covered with the finest timber in the west, Nogal will be the natural outlet to this magnificent country. With an elevation of 6,500 ft. situated in a beautiful rincon, well protected from the prevailing south west winds, Nogal enjoys the advantages of climate and scenery seldom equaled and not excelled in the territory. The old timers are looking forward to the coming of the rail road into this section with a longing eye. There are many old timers here, who when they first came, secured valuable prospects, and have been slowly developing for years; hoping that some future day, capitalists would recognize the vast and rich resources of this country, and build a rail road in to tap this great wealth. At last this long looked for event seems assured, and the horny handed miner is anxiously listening for whistle of the El Paso & North Eastern, which will carry the precious mineral, for which they have been working for years, to the smelters at El Paso. This insures a boom for Nogal, for it is the gateway city. Nogal is the natural outfitting point for the rich Nogal and Bonito mining districts, and the products of the entire White Mountain region, the Bonito, Eagle Creek and Ruidoso, must come to Nogal to find an outlet to the consuming world.

These facts cannot be disputed and to the faithful few, who have stood the old town through good times and bad, we would say; be of good cheer for ye shall have your reward.

The El Paso and North Eastern engineering party are camped about ½ mile from town, and are engaged in surveying the line of road up the mountain to the east of town, to the head of Indian Canon. The principal topic of conversation now is rail road, and every one is anxious to know what his neighbor has learned in regard to when work will commence. We are all dead anxious to know, but of course would not ask Mr. Eddy anything about it; But if that Gentleman will tell the Eagle, when he will commence work and about how long it will be before we can expect to to see his magnificent private car up at this end of the line, we will guarantee him some of Rockey's best when he does come and that ought to be some inducement even to a rail road man, to open up; any way, we would but if we could get a few drinks under his belt, he would open up, and tell us all he knows and possibly something he didn't know.

On Monday last the citizens of Nogal elected T. G. Boone Justice of the Peace of this precinct and John B. Eakers Constable. This insures the people of Nogal a quiet and orderly town for the year.

At present Nogal has no public school, much to the detriment of the town, but we are assured by the board of directors that a teacher will be employed and school opened as soon as the county school fund is apportioned.

D. N. Tinnen, of White Oaks, is out this week looking after the interests of the Robertson, Dolph Co. Mr. Tinnen is having some assessment work done on some of the group of mines owned by this company.

Mr. Wm. Cluto, Supt. of schools for Lincoln Co. and resident of Nogal, left on the 12th Inst. for Santa Fe. Mr. Cluto goes to the ancient city to attend the assembling of the territorial Legislature.

Miss Mattie P. Dillard returned home last week from El Paso, after an absence of some months. Miss Dillard has a host of friends here who welcome her return.

On the 3rd day of January, the saloon of Gray and Russell of this place was closed. Mr. R. C. Russell, who has been managing the business, has been appointed and accepted the position of inspector for this District for the Territorial Cattle Sanitary Board.

Mr. Pollock business agent for C. B. Eddy, has been circulating around in our midst quite a good bit lately. What's his business? Quin Sabe.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at M. G. Paden's Drug Store.

NEWSPAPER LAWS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscription.

2. If the subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice; with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest anyone for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for sometime unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster mark it "refused" and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine, the same as for theft.

IS COL. FOUNTAIN ALIVE.

In an article in the El Paso Herald of the 11th we find the following information imparted to a reporter of that paper by W. T. Alston, who resided in Lincoln, N. M., prior to 1888:

"Last Friday I was at a small American Post office in Mexico to get my mail. The letters and papers were all piled together and Americans went in and picked out their mail. In going through the pile I noticed a letter addressed to A. J. Fountain. The name was familiar to me and I immediately inquired to know where I could find Fountain. The postmaster said he did not know Fountain, but that a mexican boy was in the habit of coming to the postoffice for letters addressed to him. I am very much inclined to believe that Fountain of Las Cruces, with whom murder Oliver Lee is charged, is now living less than a hundred miles distant from that postoffice.

J. D. Lee, who established the Roswell Record in 1891, and worked it up to one of the very best weekly papers in the territory, has sold out to Creighton & Burnett. Lucius Dills, who has edited the Record for some time past is one of the strongest editorial writers in New Mexico, and without an exception every democratic editor in the territory will regret to see him retire from the field of journalism. Under the new management the Record will continue to be the democratic organ of Chaves county, and will it is hoped keep up the reputation it has merited as the most representative paper of the section of New Mexico.
