Faure, President of France, Dead.

Loubet Elected President.

Paris, Feb. 16.—M. Felix Faure, president of the republic of France, died at 10 o'clock to-night of an illness of three hours. President Faure died from apoplexy.

It has been known for some time that his heart was weak, but the first intimation that he was sick was given at half past 6 this afternoon, when a message was dispatched to the premier, M. Dupuy, announcing that the president was ill. M. Dupuy immediately repaired to the Elysee. All medical efforts proved futile and the president died on the stroke of 10.

The flag on the Elysee was immediately lowered to half mast and the news was dispatched to all the officers and members of the Cabinet. Gen. Zurlinden, military governor of Paris, the grand chancellor of the Legion of Honor, the prefect of the Seine, the prefect of the police of Paris and the presidents of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies promptly arrived at the Elysee.

The report spread rapidly through the city and large crowds soon assembled in the vicinity of the palace.

Paris, Feb. 17.—The Cabinet will meet this morning (Friday) after the embalming of the remains, which will take place at 6 o'clock, to fix the date for convening the national assembly at Versailles to elect M. Faure's successor.

The national assembly, consisting of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, united in Congress, will probably meet to morrow (Saturday). Emile Loubet, as president of the Senate, becomes president of the congress.

It is expected that the struggle for the presidency will be keen. M. Dupuy, the premier, is supposed to have the best chance and the contest is regarded as lying between him, M. Henri Brisson and M. Loubet.

Other possible candidates are M. De Freycinet, minister for war; and Godfrey Cavaignac, former minister for war, and Quesnay de Beaurepaire. It is reported that the recently formed league, known as La Patrie Francaise, will actively push M. de Beaurepaire's candidature.

Under the present exceptionally exciting conditions anything may be expected to happen. Much depends upon what Gen. Zurlinden, military governor of Paris, as head of the military element, may decide to do.

So far, Paris remains tranquil.

By a curious coincidence, M. Dupuy occupies the same position which he held when the President Carnot was assassinated on June 24, 1894.

M. De Freycinet has ordered the troops confined to barracks to-day.

Paris, Feb. 18.—The National assembly met at Versailles this afternoon to elect a president. It is unofficially announced that Loubet received 483 votes against 270 for Meline and was elected.

Paul De Roulede attempted to speak from the tribune. Loubet forbade him to do so. De Roulede repulsed the ushers who rushed up to expel him from the tribune. He shouted "the president of the republic ought to be elected by the people. I will not vote here." Then turning to Loubet De Roulede cried: "Do you deny what De Bautepaire has written?"

To this Loubet replied, "I am not called on to answer you."

De Roulede reiterated, "I know what you are." Apart from the De Roulede incident the voting passed off quietly.

The Progressists insisted on voting for Meline although he had withdrawn in favor of Loubet. The votes not given to Loubet or Meline were divided between Cavaignac, Gen. Jamont, Gen. Saussier and others. Meline received an ovation when he voted for Loubet.

The duke of Orleans seems to be going away from France. He arrived last night at Turin from San Remo.

When the sitting of the assembly was resumed the public galleries were crowded. The announcement of the election was greeted with prolonged applause, mingled with violent protests from the rightists and leftists shouting "Vive la Republique."

The squadron of curissiers which arrived in the palace to escort the new president was greeted by the crowd outside with cries of "Vive L'Armee!" Calm prevailed, although the crowds were increasing.

Anti-Loubet demonstrations are commencing in the streets. Cries of "Down with Panamaists," are prominent. The agitation was caused by De Roulede Drumont and their party. The authorities say measures have been taken to maintain order. President Loubet asked M. Dupuy to retain the premiership and present cabinet.

The newly elected president has promised to devote his best efforts to fulfilling the wishes of the country and to "re-unite the republicans who have drifted asunder by the current of unhappy events."

M. Loubet left the palace in a carriage accompanied by M. Dupuy and followed by the ministers, crowds along the route acclaimed President Loubet with cries of "Vive la republique!" "Vive l' armee!" "Vive Loubet!"

The M'Enery Resolution.

Denver Republican.

The McEnery resolution passed the Senate at Washington yesterday by a vote of 26 to 22. While the result is gratifying it would have been more so had the majority been larger. The resolution read as follows:

That by the ratification of the treaty of peace with Spain it is not intended to incorporate the inhabitants of the Philippines into citizenship of the United States, nor is it intended to permanently annex said islands as an integral part of the territory of the United States. But it is the intention of the United States to establish on said islands a government suitable to the wants and conditions of the inhabitants of said islands, to prepare them for local selfgovernment and in due time make such disposition of said islands as will best promote the interests of the citizens of the United States and the inhabitants of said islands.

Senator Bacon offered an amendment which is an improvement of the original resolution. The vote on the amendment was a tie. The vice president voted on the wrong side and it was lost. The amendment reads:

That the United States hereby disclaim any disposition or intention to exercise permanent sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said islands, and assert their determination, when a stable and independant government shall have been erected there, entitled, in the judgment of the United States, to recognition as such, to transfer to said government upon terms which shall be reasonable and just, all rights secured under the cessation by Spain, and to thereupon leave the government and control of the islands to their people.

If that is not exactly in accord with the avowed purpose of the United States in declarnig war against Spain a waiting world would like to know it. The speeches made by members of all parties who favored war were for weeks heard in the halls of Congress. Not one of them even hinted at a proposal to subdue the insurgents. On the contrary, the valor, patriotism and heroism of the rebels was extolled to the skies. They were pictured as a people fighting for freedom, fighting as the American colonies had fought to throw off the yoke of tyranny and oppression. The parallel was almost daily referred to.

The cry was "down with Spain." That was the slogan used to lure the young men of the country from workshop and farm and they nobly responded. They believed and the country had a right to believe, that when Spain had been driven out the controversy would be ended and the people who had struggled for liberty would be permitted to establish a government of their own making. Had France undertaken to interfere with our affairs after the valiant service of Lafayette the war of the Revolution would not have ended at Yorktown. The heroes of '76 were not fighting to change sovereigns, they fought for independance. They battled for seven years. These Spanish subjects have been fighting for centuries.

The senators who voted against the Bacon amendment and against the original resolulution have broken faith. They abandoned their professions of a desire to spread liberty throughout the world and have placed themselves on record as being ready, not cruelly and tyranically like Spain but nevertheless ready to govern a people who have earned a right to govern themselves.

The
TOLEDO WEEKLY BLADE
Every intelligent family needs in addition to their local paper, a good national weekly. The greatest and most widely known general family newspaper is the Toledo Weekly Blade. For thirty years it has been a regular visitor in every part of the Union and is well known in almost every one of the 70,000 post offices in the country. It is edited with reference to a national circulation. It is a Republican paper, but people of all politics take it, because of its honesty and fairness in the discussion of all public questions. It is the favorite family paper, with something for every member of the household. Serial stories, poetry, wit and humor; the Household department, [best in the world]. Young Folks, Sunday School Lessons, Talmage's Sermons, the Farmstead, the Question Bureau [which answers questions for subscribers], the News of the Week in complete form, and other special features. Specimen copies gladly sent on application, and if you will send us a list of addresses, we will mail a copy to each. Only $1 a year. If you wish to raise a club, write for terms.

Official Paper of Lincoln County

Gen. Miles is to take his congé, providing the department is able to give it.

Two men who are making history in the Philippines bear the same name—Otis—a major-general and a brigadier-general.

The government is having some difficulty in making ends meet, the receipts for the year are about $150,000,000 short of the expenditures.

Spain is going to court martial all her captains and commanders who got so eternally licked at Manila Bay and Santiago. Some will be shot, probably, some sent to penal settlements, while others will lose their rank.

Gen. Palmer, the Gold Democratic candidate for president in 1890, and who has been in public life the last forty years, is in destitute circumstances and a special pension bill was passed by Congress granting him $50.00 per month.

The Nicaragua canal bill is likely to strike a snag in the lower house of congress. The senate measure carries with it an appropriation of $115,000,000 and should the scheme be adopted, instead of a $150,000,000 deficiency, there would be one of $265,000,000.

McKinley says it is now the duty of Congress to dispose of the Philippine question. The president has his eye on the gun and does not say positively whether or not he favors expansion, intimating, however, that he is opposed to the retention of the Philippines—a position on the top rail from which he will have no difficulty in falling on either side when the occasion presents itself.

DIVISION NOT DESIRED.

San Antonio Express

"It is not probable that the people of Texas will ever consent to a division of the state or to the surrender of any part of its territory for the formation of a new state or for the enrichment of another commonwealth. Certainly there is no considerable sentiment in favor of such a project now, unless it may be within a very limited circle on the border of New Mexico.

Several years ago when it was suggested for political reasons that Texas be cut up into four states, thereby quadrupling the representation from the state in the United States senate, the people of Texas repudiated the suggestion almost as one man and it was regarded as little less than seditious to even discuss the proposition. Hardly anyone has ventured to agitate the dismemberment of the state in any manner since.

The proposition to form a new state by lopping of a portion of west Texas to be added to territory taken from New Mexico and Arizona is a scheme which would naturally have the support of a certain contingent of interested individuals who would profit by the change which would locate a state capital nearer to their land holdings. It would certainly be more convenient to a number of people living close to the border of New Mexico and far removed from Austin to have a state capital located at their very doors. The same thing would be true of every other corner of the state, but to accommodate all of them it would be necessary to divide Texas into a multiplicity of states and create such burdens of taxation as could not reasonably be borne. But even in El Paso, where it is proposed to locate the capital of the new state, there is a sentimental opposition to the scheme to dismember Texas on the part of native Texans. It is the new comers only who are at all favorable to it.

One hundred and sixty-seven years ago yesterday George Washington was born in Westmoreland county, Virginia. Febuary 22 is one of the most popular national holidays, bank and other business houses closing their doors out of respect to the memory of the "Father of our country."

The governor and his staff, accompanied by various members of the legislature, supreme court and other officials, visited Alamogordo Sunday and had a great time.

The city of pork and beans yelled "heel! heel!" at Secretary Alger when he visited with the president last week.

IN CONGRESS' HANDS.

Republic.

In his speech before the Home Market Club the President has spoken more definetely than in any of his previous oral or written deliverances on the Philippines. His presentation of the facts which caused American authority to arise in the Philippines, and the complex conditions which make it a moral obligation upon the Government to retain them until peace and order and stability have been secured to their inhabitants, was clear and cogent.

There was no alterative, the President contends, between returning the islands to the tyranny of Spain and retaining them. Their cession by the treaty was the only way to put the seal of authority upon this retention. As he puts it: "Had we refused to accept the cession of them we would have had no power over them, even for our own good. We could not discharge the responsibilities upon us until these islands became ours either by conquest or treaty There was but one alterative, and that was either Spain or the United States in the Philippines. The other suggestions—first, that they were to be tossed into the arena for the strife of nations; or, second, be lost to the anarchy and chaos of no protectorate at all—were too shameful to be considered."

Answering the question, "What shall be done with the islands?" Mr. McKinley says that their future, now that the treaty has been ratified, is in the hands of the American people. The whole subject, he declares, is now with Congress, and Congress is the voice, the judgement and the conscience of the American people.

Until Congress shall direct otherwise, he expresses his intention to give the people of the Philippines, as far as in his power, peace and beneficent government, affording them every opportunity to follow their lawful pursuits, encouraging them in thrift and industry and making them know who are their friends and who their enemies.

This is as far as the executive within the limitations of his power can go. He denies all intention of imperialism. "Our priceless principles undergo no change under a tropical sun."

Mr. McKinley has justified himself, but not the imperialists, by his Home Market speech.

The royalists missed a great opportunity in France when the sudden death of the president was announced. That, of all the moments, would have been a favorable time for a coup d'etat and a coup de grace.

BRYAN ON THE ARMY.

Grand Rapids Mich., Feb. 17.—Col. Bryan spoke here to-night under the auspices of the Kent county Democratic club.

In denouncing the proposition to increase the army he asked why it was and said it certainly could not be on account of any disaster that had occured under the Republican rule, because we are told that the people are peaceable, prosperous and happy. Continuing he said:

"Do you want a new policy that makes it necessary for you to have three times as many soldiers to take care of 8[illegible],000,000 people as it took to take care of 70,000,000 people? Do you think, my friends that it ought to take twice as many soldiers to bring the blessings of beneficent assimilation to 10,000,000 alliens as it required to do the work among 70,000,000 people?

"I have not said anything as bad against the Republican policy as that. The President is more severe in condemning his own policy than I have been; when he says it will take 60,000 soldiers to make the people accept and enjoy the kind of government he is going to give them, he condemns his policy more than I do.

"I read his speech made last night at Boston, and he said the only thing they ever thought of was the happiness and welfare of these people who by chance have been thrown into our keeping, nothing to be thought of except their welfare. Well, my friends, it seems to me that we ought not to so disguise our good intentions as to hold those good intentions upon them by quite so much force."

J. R. DeMier, chief owner of the guano caves near Lava, was in town Wednesday, his business in this vicinity being connected with another shipment of the fertilizer from Pope siding. He informed the Bee that an important discovery of high grade nitrate, similar to the great Chilian deposits, whose market value is $56 per ton, was made in the cave beneath the guano. The exact value and extent of this new item of commerce will not be known until chemical experts have passed upon it, and further investigations of the cave have been made. These caves are located on the Waddington land grant.—San Marcial Bee.

The revolution in Nicaragua is coming along all right and if Aguinaldo gets out of a job in the Philippines he will only have to come to Central America, where revolutions, insurrections, innuendoes, proclamations, etc., perennially thrive.

Who is to be our new commissioner? By an act of the legislature B. Cleve has been legislated out of office and the governor will have to fill his place by appointment.

Chas. H. Thomas, post-office inspector whose headquarters are in Denver, was in the city Monday, looking into the conditions of the office here. That he found everything all O. K. under John A. Brown goes without saying.

Elbert T. Collier's stock of groceries has arrived and he has opened them up today, and invited the public to call and examine his new goods. His stock is new, his goods are cheap and by calling at the Fauvet building today or every day, for that matter, you will be convinced. See his ad and locals in the EAGLE.

It is the fakirs in every avocation that lowers that calling in the estimation of the public. If all frauds in every department of science and art, religious frauds not excepted, were only dead, or the devil had them, there would be fewer people misled as to the true merits of the science or doctrine purported to be taught. By many phrenology is regarded as a fake, because its principles are misunderstood, and in many instances brought about by frauds perpetrated by imposters. We are free to acknowledge that our faith in phrenology would not have removed mountains, but our local phrenologist told us a number of things that were true in regard to disposition, aspirations etc., that compel us to confess that phrenology is a science; and Prof. Barber gave many valuable suggestions, calculated to keep body and mind in a healthful condition. We wish him all the success that is merited by an honest man in his chosen life pathway.

Frank Phillips and Jose Sanchez met with an accident at the Old Abe cyanide plant Tuesday morning that came very near crushing the life out of them. They were shoveling out "slum" at the lower end of the tailings' dam and had cleared a passage about 8 feet wide and 10 or 12 feet long, the depth of the dump being 10 feet; they had just entered the gap and had begun to fill the car when the mass of slime gave way and slid down into the space which had been opened, covering up Phillips and Sanchez in its descent; but at the same time pushing them near the entrance. A number of employees were near at hand and they hastened to the relief of those imperiled. Sanchez was extricated immediately, practically unhurt; but Phillips could not be reached so easily and some 10 or 15 minutes elapsed before he could be pulled from under the mud and slime. Dr. Lane arrived just after the last man was taken out and after examining him found no bones broken, but the injured man's breast was quite severely bruised and some of his limbs also. Phillips is now resting easy and will, no doubt, be able to be about soon.

When Out of Sorts

He Takes Hood's Sarsaparilla and It Sets Him Right—Whole System Strengthened by This Medicine.

"I was in such a condition that whenever I took a little cold it would settle on my chest and lungs. I was troubled in this way for several years. I tried many kinds of medicines but did not get any relief, and seeing Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised I thought I would try it. I took about four bottles of this medicine, and I began to improve after the first bottle. When I had finished the fourth, I was entirely relieved. I have kept Hood's Sarsaparilla on hand since that time as a family medicine, and whenever I feel out of sorts I resort to it, and in a short time it sets me right." W. B. WOODS, 538 S. West Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah.

HE NIPPED THEM.

S. A. Shyer, or the man who called himself that, the man who came up from Lincoln last week with Sheriff Perea, said he was a sheep man of Chaves county and wasn't, said he was after a thief and wasn't, when not finding him here, said he would go on to the Pecos after him and didn't, said he did his banking in Roswell and didn't, gave a check to Paul Mayer for $40.00 who cashed it, and another to Ziegler Bros. for $20.00 who also honored his fist, hired Fred Smith to take him to Alamogordo, employed Smith to take care of his sheep, and said he would pay him when he returned but hasn't; went on to El Paso and drew two more checks, this time on the Exchange Bank of this place which, of course upon their arrival, were returned endorsed on the back "no funds," and we understand that Sheriff Perea got on his trail and probably by this time has him behind the bars at Lincoln. We must, however, give the gentleman credit for one thing; for while he evidently misrepresented himself to others did not do so with us, but said that he was going to move to Lincoln, subscribed for the EAGLE and paid for it, and it will go to him regularly there—at least until court convenes.

GRAY GLEANINGS.

Gray, N. M. Feb. 13 1899.

H. Marx. and Robt. Fiesoher were in Gray on the 1st. Robt. Liles of Roswell was taking them round to the different mountain towns where they would represent their respective houses.

Dept. J. P. Meadors visited old friends in this place the first of the month.

J. B. Gillespie was in Gray last week soliciting orders for his firm, Brown and Manzanares Co.

Mr. Pollock and Mr. S. T. Gray made a short visit to the Raidosa on the 5th.

Cupid, on account of unusual pressure of business elsewhere, (it is supposed) was not seen once during Valentine's day.
Feb. 20, 1899.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Reily on Monday, February 15, a daughter. Gray extends a very hearty welcome to this wee, young lady.

Milton and Bessie Lesnet came up from Lincoln last Thursday. Bessie went on to White Oaks the next day, but Milton remained to stay for some time with his sister, Mrs. W. J. Gray. He is improving his time and opportunity by attending our public school.

Mr. L. M. M. McReynolds has returned from Roswell, his special work there being ended. He will make Gray his headquarters for the present.

Fleming Bingham met with misfortune a few days ago in the loss of a fine horse. The animal dropped dead, on the road between Nogal and the —W ranch.

Mr. Henry Walker is adding a variety of fruit trees to his present promising little orchard.

Mr. Dave Tinnon staid in Gray one night last week.

Mr. S. T. Gray is justly proud of a fine Holstein cow which he has recently purchased from A. M. Richardson of the Block Ranch.

Mr. Blackwell, the foreman of Joyce and Pruit, is in the vicinity of Gray with a large flock of sheep.

Dr. Skipwith of Lincoln, visited in Gray the first of the week.

The Post-Office Inspector was in this place on Sunday and found everything in good order at the office.

This is not the only region which has had an unusually cold winter. A letter from Alabama states that on the 18 inst. the mercury fell to 5 degrees below zero. Such a record for the Sunny South is almost, if not quite, unparalleled.

OLD ABE CYANIDE PLANT COMPLETED.

Through the courtesy of John Y. Hewitt, President of the Old Abe Company, the EAGLE man visited the company's plant Tuesday morning, and went through the cyanide plant that is just now completed.

The main building that contains the six tanks is 165 feet long, and other sheds, covering the tanks and machinery adjoin it. Each of the six tanks has a capacity of 50 tons, the six can be worked in a week, averaging one tank a day. Thus 300 tons of dirt will be handled every week.

The company constructed a dam in the gulch, below the mill, one year ago, at the time they began running on ore from the new workings, and this dam held the tailings as they came from the mill. Heretofore the management has made no effort to preserve the tailings, and thousands of dollars have been washed down the gulch: but since the ore has become more base, and a less per cent saved in the mill, arrangements were made to hold the tailings in a compact body and the cyanide plant erected to save what passed over the plates in the mill.

There are now between six and ten thousand tons of tailings on the dump, and to that is being added about 50 tons from the mill every 24 hours, which will hereafter be caught in large settling tanks.

It is believed that the dump will run from $5.00 to $10.00 per ton, and as the cost of handling it will be only about $1.00 per ton, an immense profit will accrue to the company.

The mine is in first class condition. The shaft is going down right along and will soon reach 1100 feet. The station has been cut at 1050 and the drift is in about 110 feet, and an assay at this depth gave $48.00 to the ton.

The first station in the new shaft was cut at 800 feet, and each succeeding station is 50 feet; so that now there are six stations, each showing a good body of ore.

Some very rich ore has been discovered, and of forty-six assays, taken foom different places, the average was $175.00 per ton, ranging from $1.24 to $2083.00 per ton.

A full stock of the well known Shillings goods—Coffee, Baking Powder, Teas, spices and flavoring Extracts, just received. Every article guaranteed to be as represented, or your money gladly returned. Ziegler Bros.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill. makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well; now does her own house work and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at M. G. Paden's drugstore. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

NOTICE.

To all whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given, that an act passed by the Legislative assembly of New Mexico, approved Feb. 18th, 1897, regarding the unlawful carrying of arms in any of the settlements in this Territory, will be enforced to the letter of said act in this county, against any person or persons whomsoever; and all of my deputies are instructed to enforce and carry out the provisions of said act.

Witness my official hand this 4th day of Feb. 1899.

Words of praise bestowed upon Hood's Sarsaparilla by those who have taken it indicate that it is restoring health to thousands of people, and that it will help you also.

The E. P. & N. E. dirt movers will be in the vicinity of Nogal Friday with their tools and teams, preparatory to begin work next week on the cut up Indian canyon and over to the Salado. This sounds well, and we are glad work is going to be pushed, but what we would like to know is when a move is to be made in this direction.

Prepare For Spring.

Don't let this season overtake you before you have attended to the important duty of purifying your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla. By taking this medicine now you may have sickness that will mean time and money as well as suffering later on. Hood's Sarsaparilla will give you rich, red blood, good appetite good digestion and a sound healthy body. It is the greatest spring medicine because it is the One True Blood Purifier. Its unequalled record of marvelous cures has won for it the confidence of the whole people.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in my back and sides, no appetite, gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts. per bottle at M. G. Paden's.

The Skeleton Removed.

El Paso Times.

Further reports of the alleged discovery of the bones of little Harry Fountain at the mouth of Owl Tank canyon related in the Times some time ago, all go to confirm the report and show that the alleged discovery was a fact. Nothing, however, has been learned that would tend to throw any further light upon the mystery. On the contrary the matter seems to be shrouded in as much mystery as ever. Where the hunter first discovered the bones he hurried back to the nearest ranch, that of Mr. Fletcher, and notified them of his find. A party at once went to the scene. They found the skeleton bleaching in the sun. Everything showed it to have been that of a child. several pieces of clothing were found which indicated that it was a boy.

The party made no effort to remove or preserve the skeleton, and leaving it just as it was returned. The news spread and when another party visited the scene a few days later the bones and everything had disappered. Nearby were the ashes of a recent fire which would seem to indicate that the ghastly relics had been cremated by unknown parties.

A determined effort seems to have been made to keep the matter quiet and suppress all information A party from Alamogordo admits having heard the report prior to its publication in the Times, and was asked to keep it quiet. Others denied all knowledge of it.

The report of the disappearance of the skeleton was brought to La Luz by a member of the second party a few days ago.

The news reached Las Cruces, Sheriff Garrett went at once to to that section. When seen in Alamogordo a few days ago he said there were no further developments in the matter. He has been in that part of the country sometime, however, and is believed to be looking into the matter.

"There seems to be an entirely mistaken idea on one point concerned with the new county," said a prominent citizen of Otero county last night. "That is that the Fountain case is now removed from the jurisdiction of Dona Ana county. That is not so. The bill creating Otero county contained several compromises, and among them was one providing that all crimes committed before the passage of the act were to remain under the jurisdiction of Dona Ana county and be tried at Las Cruces. Thus although the place where Fountain is alleged to have been murdered is within the limits of Otero county, the matter is still under the control of the officials of Dona Ana county."

HUNTING SEASON.

The season for hunting deer began September 1, and remains open during the months of September, October and November, during which the killing of deer with horns only will be allowed. The season for the killing of quail, grouse, prairie chicken, pheasant, partridge and turkey, "with gun only," is during the months of September, October, November, December, January and February. The trout fishing season ends on the last day of October, and remains closed until May 21.

NEWSPAPER LAWS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscription.

2. If the subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subcribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to contiune taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice; with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest anyone for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for sometime unpaid and then orders it dicontinued. ororders the postmaster mark it "refused" and have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine, the same as for theft.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE

THE delights of an evening spent around a well-lighted reading table are not half understood. An illustrated magazine with its wealth of illustrations, its stories of adventure and love, its descriptions of travel which carry you to the remotest ends of the earth, and its instructive articles for young and old—these are the first requisites for your own enjoyment and the entertainment and proper education of your children.

To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal,

Both Together One Year for Only $2.10

In this way you secure your own home paper and an illustrated magazine at a price that is only about a fourth of what some of the illustrated magazines sell for. For three years The Cosmopolitan has undisputedly claimed that it reached the largest clientele possessed by any periodical, daily, weekly or monthly, in the world. It was The Cosmopolitan which sent Julian Hawthorne to India to let the world know the real horrors of famine and plague. It was The Cosmopolitan which established at its own cost a great Free Correspondence University which now has over 20,000 students on its rolls. It was The Cosmopolitan which offered a prize of $5,000 for the best horseless carriage and prizes for best plans for public baths, and best arrangement of sewer and pipe systems for cities. It was The Cosmopolitan which set the presidents of great schools and universities seriously discussing the defects of existing educational systems. It is The Cosmopolitan whose enterprise is always in the lead in advancing the world's civilization.
