WHY GO TO CHURCH?

Men ought to attend church because there, more and better than anywhere else, they are brought face to face with the ideal side of life by those whose position frees them from the suspicion of ulterior and selfish purposes. Our time is absorbingly secular and commercial. It is occupied with the things that are seen. It has little interest in anything that cannot be written in an inventory. But there is another sphere, and one which has most to do with moulding human affairs. Largeness and nobility of character and mankind—ability to rise above losses and to be brave in the face of suffering and disappointment—require that the lines of communication between ourselves and that higher sphere which concerns things not seen and ideal should be kept open.

The church, with all its mistakes, its occasional narrowness, its controversies over unimportant questions, constantly and consistently insist that character is more than fame or wealth; that he who gets riches, but is not righteous, is a failure; and it never allows a man to forget that he must reckon with the unseen. The church compells men to face the moral order of the world, which is as evident and as remorseless as the physical order. If they say they believe neither in God, Christ nor the Bible it still remains true that righteousness is the loftiest of ideals; that all are in a moral order from which none can escape, and that those who do right may be happy, while those who do wrong will surely suffer. It is the part of wisdom to consider these facts. After all qualifications have been made, it is beyond reasonable question that the church is the best interpreter of the ideal character and of the moral order, and the only institution which must keep them in the forefront or be false to itself.

I should say, therefore: "Attend church that you may worship God; that you may learn of the things of the spirit; that you may be brought face to face with "the doctrine of grace, which in hours of deepest need alone can satisfy either the mind or the heart." If you answer, I believe in none of these things, then I reply, "Attend church that you may hear the loftiest ideals presented by those who have no selfish end to subserve, and that you may be kept sensitive to the moral order of the world in which all men are included, the violation of which means ruin and misery, the harmony with which is followed with benefit and blessing."—Amory H. Bradford, in Ladies' Home Journal.

WITHOUT BOND.

Hillsboro, N. M., June 13,—Oliver Lee and James Gilliland, yesterday acquitted of the murder of the young son of Col. Fountain remain in the Otero county jail indefinitely. Otero county, which until two months ago was a part of Dona Ana county, is the stronghold of their bitterest enimies. The defendants are held to answer at the next term of court for the the murder of deputy sheriff Kearney, who was killed in a fight at Lee's Wildy Well last summer. Pat Garrett, who led the posse at that time in attacking Lee and Gililand, admitted that Kearney fired first, but the court refused bail. The defendants started this afternoon in charge of Capt. Geo. Curry, sheriff of Otero county, and to whom they surrendered before, to there new place of confinement. The greatest indignation prevails and remarks uncomplimentary to the court are frequent.—Journal Democrat.

Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Cobb and little daughter Janet, and Miss Jessie Lowman, of Detroit, passed through Alamogordo Thursday, on their way to Ft. Stanton, where the sanitarium is now almost ready to receive patients. Mrs. Cobb and daughter and Miss Lowman were met in El Paso by the Doctor, who has been at the old fort for sometime superintending the work of preparing that place for the use to which it has been turned.—Alamogordo News.

Would Not Suffer so Again for Fifty Times its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I got down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work I went to Miller & Mocurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlains Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me alright. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home here after, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by M. G. Paden.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the docter then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa It is for sale by M. G. Paden.

While other sections of the country are being visited by damaging storms and cyclones, New Mexico is getting frequent and refreshing showers of rain accompanied by none of these disagreeable features.

The greatest anti-trust power in the United States is the Democratic party. If opposed to trusts and trust combinations, and imperialistic plutocracy got into the Democratic party where you can do somegood for your country.

The man who puts his trust in trusts need have no fear of the devil for that old serpent would not disgrace the seventh degree of hell with an advocate of so powerful an agent for the enslaving of mankind. O, land of liberty! Thou art surrendered for cash.

Republican newspapers throughout the country are urging the necessity of a call for an extra session of congress to give the administration a chance to determine upon a Philippine policy. The fact that the administration has never had any policy in the Philippines has at last dawned upon the loyals and they hasten to bring about this method of aiding Mr. McKinley to determine where he is at.

CARNEGIE DEFENDS THE FILIPINO.

The Scotch millionaire, who has accumulated his great wealth in this country and retired from further efforts to lay up treasures on earth, makes the following forceful argument against expansion:

"Abraham Lincoln said that God never made any one man good enough to rule over another man. Much less has he made any nation good enough to rule over another nation. Admiral Dewey has stated three times that he knows the Filipinos to be far superior in intelligence and much better qualified to govern themselves than the Cubans. I believe that a people which fights as heroically as the Filipinos have fought for independence should be given a trial. We are pledged to give the inferior Cubans this. It is not possible for the United States to civilize the people of the Philippines, because the American cannot live in the Philippines. Your civilizers will be soldiers only; no homes, no women and children, only soldiers, who require civilizing themselves. Forty six per cent of the British army in India is continually diseased. So will ours be abroad. There is nothing but mutual injury to the subject and to the superior race when it is a matter of conquest in the tropics. For these and many other reasons I oppose a departure from the principles upon which the American republic was founded. There is no room under our flag for class distinction. We cannot be Americans and hold subject races under the flag contrary to their will."

The road law and also a law regulating the fees of constables, both of which passed the house and council of the last legislature, fail to show up in the copy of the acts just published. This is probably a mistake of the public printer, as our Executive would never overlook an opportunity to serve the interests of the territory, and both of these bills were acknowledged by a majority of both Republicans and Democrats to be a necessity. Of course there may have been other more important bills before the law makers of the last legislature- for instance the coal oil bill, which was gotten up for the purpose of reimbursing Mr. Clark, who like our governor is ever watchful of the interests of our territory—but we hardly think the time occupied in placing the gubernatorial sig on these more important measures excluded it from those seemingly lost in the shuffle acts of the Assembly. The old law which allows a constable $1.00 a day for the custody of any kind of property is still in force and there is no road law at all.

We have just received a copy of the acts of the last legislature for which we are grateful to Secretary Wallace. After looking through this valuable compilation we necessarily must differ from the suggestion of our contemporary, the Deming Headlight, who a few issues back said in substance, that the greatest good that could possible come from the New Mexican legislature would be to suspend its sessions for 20 years. At least his suggestion might be amended to read; Suspension for ten years and then to meet in Las Vegas.

Governor Otero has just returned from Washington where he has been for some time laboring for the interests of New Mexico, says an exchange. Poor Old New Mexico. But for the great influence wielded over the powers that be at Washington by our worthy Executive, our interests in far off New Mexico would some times—unintentionaly, however—suffer neglect at the hands of our wards. Through the united efforts of our trust President and our coal oil Governor New Mexico is wonderfully prosperous, and Statehood is coming in the sweet by-and-never.

ANOTHER CALL FOR HELP.

Commander Ford, fleet engineer of the Asiatic Squadron, now just returned from Manila, earnestly emphasizes the need of more troops in the Philippines if the insurrection led by Aguinaldo is to be subdued within a reasonable time and order established and mantained in those islands.

It is impossible for the United States Government either to conquer the people or to gain control of the islands without additional forces, says this naval officer. He adds further that the Filipinos are skillful strategists in a defensive warfare, that they are "an intelligent, liberty-loving people, full of courage and determination," and that at present Uncle Sam's soldiers are hard pressed to hold their own, the men at the front being subjected to "great mental and physical work

The words of Commander Ford should not go unheeded at Washington. National prestige and the proper performance of our duty to the world at large demands that order be established in the Philippines and that the lives and property of all foreign residents be duly safeguarded. Humanity to our own soldiers demands that this be done at the least possible sacrifice of the brave men serving their flag and country in the Far East. A short, sharp and decisive campaign with adequate force of numbers can alone accomplish this result. It should be forthcoming.

The appalling short-sightedness and incompetency that have prevailed in the Philippines and led up to the present unsatisfactory conditions have had their legitimate effect upon public sentiment in this country. The people clamor for the end of bungling. They call for definite results—for victory that means peace—Republic.

Las Vegas made the hit of her existence when she secured the Rough Riders Reunion. Hundreds of people will visit the meadow city during the reunion of Roosevelt's men, who probably never would under any other circumstances. Las Vegas in particular and New Mexico in general have been advertised all over the country, and we will reap the benefits from it for years to come, because every body who visits that city on this occasion will confirm the often repeated language of the territorial press that New Mexico is the best country in the west.

U. S. Volunteer in Cuba.

A young volunteer in a letter home from Cuba says:

"Two months ago I left Tampa for this blasted land, which we were trying to liberate. For forty-five days I never saw a woman. Fellow citizens, if you want to appreciate a woman get away from her. You don't know what the Creator, when he performed the first surgical operation on Adam, did in making out glorious woman. If you want to know what a grand, glorious and sugar-coated thing a woman is, just join the army and loaf with men, eat with men, help men, carry men, walk over men, men, men, and nothing but men. Life is a perpetual atmosphere of suppressed profanity and boot smell, and at the end of three weeks you would be passionately enamored with the mummy of an Egyptian servant girl and give her an electrical kiss that would burn three thousand years of dried hides into flushed and velvety animation."

Admiral Dewey will not accept a home built by private subscription but requests that the amount of money already subscribed be used toward the building of a soldiers' and sailors' home. The hero of Manila does not care to be considered an object of charity.

A Card of Thanks.

I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. Doty, Des Moines, Iowa. William Lane is now running his hack line to Tularosa. He leaves White Oaks Mondays and Thursdays and Tularosa Wednesdays and Saturdays. Lane has good teams and makes the quickest trips of any one who has ever run a passenger line from the rail road to the White Oaks country. He is a careful driver and is acquainted with every section of the country which passengers may want to visit. His hack will meet trains daily as soon as the road reaches Three Rivers.

More genuine prospecting is now going on in the Jicarillas than ever before since the camp was discovered. The placer idea of mining is being gradually displaced by the location and development of lead claims, and a number of very promising quartz leads have been uncovered.

Children's Day Exercises at the Congregational Church Sunday night were witnessed by the largest audience that has ever assembled at that church. The program was excellent and perfectly rendered, assuring us again that White Oaks has the cleverest set of youngsters of any town in the country.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has Lame Back and Weak Kidneys, Malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to Liver and Kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures Constipation, Headache, Fainting Spells, Sleeplessness and Melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. a bottle at Dr. M. G. Paden's Drug Store.

The Arkansaw Cyclone merchant is getting ready to go to San Mercial where he will meet a large stock of goods he says he has ordered shippid to that place. The Traveler has sold nearly every thing brought to White Oaks. He remarked to us yesterday that never since he has been in business has he reaped such a reward from a few dollars invested in advertising as resulted from his last week's ad in the Eagle. People came from Nogal and from all over the surrounding country telling him that they had come to take advantage of his advertised prices. There are ways to advertise profitably and there are other ways of advertising.

NOTICE.

To all whom it may concern, Greeting:

Notice is hereby given that the regular session of the Hon. Probate Court for the County of Lincoln Territory of New Mexico will be held at Lincoln N. M. on the 10th day of July A. D. 1899 at 10 a. m. of said day; all parties having business before the court at that time, or persons as administrators or guardians in said court, can at said time come and appear before said court at such date.

By order of the Court.

I. L. Analla,
Probate Clerk:
Per Geo. Sena,
Deputy.

No trustee election was held here the first Monday in this month. The reasons were that Dr. M. G. Paden and Mr. Wm. Watson, two of the board were absent and the third, J. H. Canning could not conduct the election alone. Under the law this board will hold over, until their successors are appointed and qualified, which means that they will have control of the public schools for another year at least. This is as it should have been, these gentlemen have proven themselves efficient school directors and their retention in office will meet the approval of the entire community.

FIFTY DOLLARS WILL DO IT.

How does this strike you? Citizens of the town could by the donation of $50.00 build a wagon road to Water Canyon in Carrizo mountain and thereby reach the coolest and most desirable spot in New Mexico to spend a summer afternoon with their families, in the dense shade of the tall pines.

A mountain resort as near as should be enjoyed by everybody who cares to share its advantages. A day or two in a week or a month, for that matter, in the pure air and cool shades that envelop Carrizo would add ten years to the existence of our busy wives. Why not do this? The Eagle is sure there is not a woman in White Oaks who would not like to spend an occational summer afternoon in Water Canyon.

A Fourth of July picnic at this place would be just about the nicest thing we can think of. No ice would be needed for the purpose of making lemonade or any kind of refreshing drinks, there being plenty of cold spring water in the Canyon. Should the road be built little else would remain to be done in order to have a Fourth of July basket picnic. The women of this community already have a pretty general reputation of never having been excelled in getting up a great quantity of good things to eat in a very short time, and to get ready for a basket dinner Fourth of July would be an easy matter. An oration or two to be followed by the reading of the Declaration of Independence and supplemented by a half dozen cases of lemons would add the finishing touches.

Fourth of July only gets around once a year and finds each of us a year older than the one before. Don't let us cheat ourselves out of this one. Never before since its celebration has been observed have we had greater cause to observe it than we have on the 4th day of next month.

The new hoist at the Old Abe is now in operation. Everything is in apple pie order around the mine, and now you fellows down the line who are making so much noise about mines and mineral can get some idea of the meaning of the term by visiting the Old Abe. A mine that is actually working; not like many of these paper and ink properties, which are being prospected by promoters, pending a hoped for sale—most of which will continue to pend until the promoters are pennyless—but a genuine gold mine that is intelligently developed, and producing the actual yellow gold in quantities that pay its operators. A mine splendidly equipped by modern machinery, running day and night keeping a twenty stamp mill and a 150 ton capacity cyanide plant busy, and employing 50 men who are well paid for their services. This is the way mining is carried on in White Oaks and is what makes this the best country in New Mexico.

If a little of the Las Vegan spirit of enterprise were inducted into the citizenship of other towns in New Mexico what a difference would be noticed in the industrial progress of our territory. So long as a play-even policy is pursued by the business men of a town little progress is possible, and if he speaks disparagingly of the community in which he lives, how can he expect other people to have confidence? A man who is doing business in a community for himself and wife and his son John and his wife those four and no more will soon find public patronage drifting to the other fellow; for the average man will not walk out of his way to place a dollar into a selfish hand which he knows is going to hold it in duress with a giant grip until the eagle dies of strangulation. An injection of a quantity of get-a-move-on-you would help out wonderfully in this section of the moral grape orchard.

CLIMATE and CROP SERVICE.
U. S. Department of Agriculture N. M. Sec.
(Santa Fe, N. M., June 13, 1899.)

Light showers have been general over the territory during the past week and, combined with the warmer weather and moderating winds, have brought about decidedly more favorable conditions. Still, there are many sections where the drouth has not been broken, and where growing crops and grass are drying up and irrigation water becoming scarce. Over the country extending from Santa Fe south along the Rio Grande there has been but a few drops of rain, and the water in that river is getting so low that from Bernalillo south it is becoming difficult to fill some of the ditches. In the vicinity of Las Vegas, and to the east and north east, where the drouth was probably the severest, fair rains have occurred, but not early enough to prevent a serious setback to crops and much loss to stockmen. The rains of the 10th over this section were accompanied by severe hail, which greatly damaged crops in the path of the storm, and proved destructive to many sheep and lambs.

Growing crops have been greatly revived, and, with few exceptions, are reported as doing fairly well. The first cutting of alfalfa is completed in the south, and is begun as far north as Las Vegas. Throughout the central part of the territory the crop is hardly half as large as that of last year's first cutting, and in some localities is much less. Farther north the crop is coming in bloom, and is more promising. Corn planting is about finished in the north; spring and winter wheat, and barley and oats, are growing fairly well, although in central sections wheat is heading quite small. Transplanting tomatoes and sowing beans is still under way in the north. Gardens are growing well; strawberries are ripe as far north as Santa Fe. While strawberries are of good quality, the crop is not as large as usual. Prospects for grapes have bettered somewhat, but they will be very scarce in the vineyard districts of Albuquerque and Bernalillo. Small fruits are abundant in the markets of the Lower Pecos and Rio Grande, and the prospects for peaches and apples are quite fair. Throughout all central sections, while all fruits will be very scarce, it seems that the few trees bearing will have a fine quality of fruit. Ranges have hardly had time to show much improvement from the rains, but no doubt the bulletin for next week will show a decided change for the better among stock interests.

The following remarks are extracted from the reports of correspondents:

Eddy—L. O. Fullen: Slight rains, and crops growing nicely. About 2,500 acres planted in beets; bugs have appeared, but no serious damage anticipated. Small fruits abundant on the market. Indications are for heavy rains.

Elk—Virgil H. York: Frost May 29 killed some garden plants. West winds, cool nights. Cattle getting very weak. The only food for the stock is brush, and that is covered with web worms.

Fort Stanton—F. B. Coe:—Weather continues very dry, but crops looking well, and stock holding their own.

Richardson—Edward McTigue: Winds greatly moderated. Hot days and no rains, but growing corn is quite satisfactory.

Socorro—Prof. F. A. Jones: Very dry; crops are all suffering; water in the river is getting low. Highest temperature, 95; lowest, 42; no rain.

DEATH OF MRS. FLEMING.

Mrs. Llula Virginia Fleming died at her home in Weed, Saturday, June 3, after an illness of 11 days, death resulting from quick consumption. The deceased was born in Mississippi August 22, 1860, and when 8 years of age moved with her parents to San Saba county Texas August 17, 1876, she was married to Thomas F. Fleming and in 1888 came to New Mexico, where she has since resided. She leaves a husband and eight children to mourn her loss. Mrs. Fleming was a consistent member of the Baptist church and much beloved by all who knew her. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. A. McElroy and the remains were followed to their last resting place by a large number of friends and acquaintances.—Alamogordo News.

WHY "COMMENCEMENT?"

This being the season of commencement of most institutions of learning in New Mexico makes the following of more or less interest. The New York World under the above heading says:

An answer to this question was once suggested by Dr. Hopkins, of Williams.

The term is used only in American institutions. Our academies and colleges in earlier times gave their long vacations not in summer as now but in winter. The purpose was to admit their students—mostly poor young men—to earn money for college expenses by teaching in winter schools. In order to do this there was no summer vacation.

The new college year began with the ending of the old one, and the time was properly called "commencement."

Not until recent years did some of the older colleges, Williams among them, completely abandon the winter vacation.
