A THOUSAND MILLIONS PAID.

The balance of trade in favor of the United States for the two fiscal years ending June 30, 1899, $999,352,839, or in round numbers a thousand million dollars. In no other two years has this balance ever been half so large and yet so stupendous as the sum is, Europe has already paid it to us in full and now we are paying our debts to her by exporting an average of over half a million in gold every day.

This is not a rash statement of the case by the wild and wooly west. It is the summing up of the Financial Chronicle, the highest authority upon the subject in the country. Therefore all superior people fresh from the East may well pause before curling their lips in scorn.

We have paid the bulk of this vast sum by buying back from Europe at high prices our own securities which we sold at low prices. In doing so we are like the farmer, the Chronicle contends, who sacrifices his seed wheat and his live stock in order to pay his mortgage and get out of debt.

Meantime we have been getting flush we have been slowly relaxing our pinching retrenchment and quietly increasing our living expenses, with the result that our imports are commencing to increase. This inevitably means a decline in our favorable balance of trade. At the same time the tribe of rich Americans flocking to Europe has been vastly increased and will next year reach alarming proportions. They are the people whose surplus cash has absorbed the thousand millions of our securities which Europe has sold back to us. The income from these securities will be largely spent in Europe and thus the pendulum will swing back.

It is all very fine to boast of our amazing wealth. But it is not wise to deceive ourselves as to the ebb and flow of the golden tide.—Denver Republican.

The political prophets of Berlin predict that Prince Bismark, son of the Iron Chancellor, will be chosen premier of Prussia, the position his father held before the confederation of the German Empire.

The Colorado regiment of volunteers, which has been in the Philippine service for the past year are now en route to San Francisco to be mustered out.

Oklahoma has an immense wheat crop this year. The yield is estimated to be between 30 and 40 million bushels.

HOGG OF TEXAS BEFORE TAMMANY JULY 4TH.

Although the leaders of New York Democracy had planned to avoid mentioning the name of Bryan, Hill and Cleveland in their celebration on the Fourth at Tammany Hall in order to throw a cold wave on the free silver champion's possible nomination for the presidency next year; the big ex-governor of Texas let the cat out of the water and fairly brought down the house by bringing the names of Bryan and Democracy squarely before the big audience. A dispatch from Tammany on July 4th, says:

When Gov. Hogg arose he received a hearty welcome and he indulged a few remarks that seemed to please the Tammany men immensely.

After a few moments, which he used in outlining the well established and time-worn principles of Democracy, Gov. Hogg began a phillipic which set the house in an uproar. The applause began when he asserted that next year the Democratic party would declare for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

Men who appeared to be half asleep woke up with a start and joined in the applause. When the speaker promised a plank in platform next year in which the imperialism would be denounced, applause broke forth anew.

It was evident that these utterances were not only astounding to the Tammany leaders, but displeasing, and the displeasure became more apparant when the speaker, in his speech, exclaimed:

In this great contest we want the aid of united Tammany—the greatest local political organization on earth. We want you to close up ranks, to settle your local differences, if they exist, and to go arm in arm with the stalwart bread winner of the South and the West to victory next year, under the leadership of the chivalrous, the dauntless: the matchless great American, William J. Bryan.

As the last words fell from the lips of the speaker the audience was carried away in an outburst of enthusiastic applause. Cheer after cheer arose from what had started out as a Tammany love feast became a howling silver demonstration.

The Spanish residents of the island of Cuba are opposed to the forming of a Cuban republic. They compose about one fourth of the population and own at least three fourths of the wealth, and do not like to trust it to the disposition of a Cuban republican form of government.

IS IT RIGHT.

For An Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brebard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do no believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by M. G. Paden.

RUSSIA WILL INSIST ON PEACE.

Philadelphia Times.

Russia wants universial peace, and appears to be getting ready to secure peace on the plan of the old farmer who wanted to make his boys religious: "I orders them down on their knees to pray every morning," said he, "and if they don't get down double quick I knocks'em down." At Russia's instigation a sort of a religious peace conference is being held at The Hague, and in order to be ready to insure peace, if the conference fails to do it Russia is building warships by the dozen, and is about to invest $80,000,000 in modern field artillery and ammunition. This is an old-fashioned peace method, of course, and its adoption by the Czar indicates that he pins his faith to the old-fashioned methods after all.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea.

Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cocoanut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by M. G. Paden.

We have had extremely warm weather for this section of New Mexico, for several days previous to Friday of last week, when relief came as the result of a soaking rain.

Central and southern Texas has been visited by terrible rain storms recently and incalculable damage has been done to crops. The Brazos river near Houston has been six feet higher than ever known before; and has inundated the country for several miles on either side.

Official Paper of Lincoln County

Headquarters of the E. P. & N. E. at Alamogordo are about ready for occupancy.

General Joseph Wheeler has received orders to report to Gen. Otis at Manila for service in the Philippine islands.

A rich placer strike is reported in the Jarillas. The discovery was made by Messrs. Bates and Bruce who report that $5 in nuggets and dust was taken from 50 pounds of dirt.

Ex Governor W. T. Thornton has sued the estate of A. J. DeMules, Otero county, for $25,000, the defendant claiming an interest in the turquoise properties sold by the administrator and heirs.

Riot is king in the coal regions of Illinois. At Carbondale a few days ago non-union negros fired on the union miners and afterwards set fire to the town. A thousand were rendered homeless and continuous war was kept up for hours.

HOGG ORATES,

Stampedes Tammany Hall for Bryan on the Fourth.

New York, July 5.—Ex Gov. James S. Hogg, of Texas, who stampeded the Tammany Hall Fourth of July mass meeting for Bryan, said today:

"I did not know there was a Van Wyck boom on. I did not expect to attend the meeting at all much less to speak. You know what those five minutes extemporaneous speeches are. A fellow never gets to say all he wants to say, and what he does say is more than he ought to. I don't want any body to think I was anxious to get an opportunity to spoil the Tammany meeting. Nobody told me anything about Van Wyck, and how could I be expected to know? What tickled me was the way the boys hollered when I said Bryan. I tell you there is no use talking, Bryan and Stone are the men for 1900.

TEN NEW REGIMENTS.

An order has been issued for the enlistment of ten new regiments for the Philippine service.

Enlistments will be made for a period ending June 30, 1901, unless sooner discharged. Applicants for commissions must have seen service in the Spanish-American war.

The regiments will be organized as follows: 26th, Plattsburk Barracks, N. Y.; 27th, Camp Meade, Pa.; 28th, Camp Meade Pa.; 29th, Ft. McPherson, Ga.; 30th, Fort Sheridan Ill.; 31st, Fort Thomas, Ky.; 32nd, Fort Leavenworth, Kan.; 33rd, Fort Sam Houston, Tex.; 34th, Fort Logan, Colo.; 35th, Vancouver Barracks, Wash.

In the district for recruiting the 34th regiment, at Ft. Logan, are Colorado Wyoming, Utah, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Arizona and New Mexico.

INCREASED TAXATION.

The territorial rate of taxation has been raised 1.6 mills on the dollar making it now slightly below one half of all the taxes for 1899. That is to say, all the country and court and nearly all the school expenses for the year are to be paid out of the taxes raised in the country. We notice also that the general school levy has been reduced by territorial authorities from 2½ mills for last year to 1½ for this. Cutting the levy is a hard blow to the school interests of the county not only of this county but of the greater part of New Mexico. With only nominal assistance from the territory for the schools it is not fair, it is not patriotic and it is not good sense to reduce the limit of taxation allowed for school purposes and increase the amount given to the territory for territorial institutions to blow in. If the conditions are as bad as they now seem to be a cyclone of condemnation and execration will surely strike the legislators or others responsible.—Aztec Index.

OF INTEREST TO MINERS.

Judge C. A. Leland has handed down a decision in the case of Hon. T. B. Catron vs. H. J. Abernathy et al., involving the title to the Juanita mining claim in the Kelly district, says the New Mexican. The case is an interesting one, and involves some nice points of law. Mr. Catron had made application for patent on this claim, which was rejected by the United States land office, after which the defendants jumped the claim. Mr. Catron brought suit at law in ejectment, damages, etc., and also in equity to quiet title. The defendants entered a demurrer, asking that the suits be consolidated. The question as to the legal duty of a locator as held in this case is of great interest to the miner and prospector. Judge Leland based his decision on a ruling of the supreme court of the United States, which holds that where a party has made application for patent and the application is rejected, the locator is not obliged to do his assessment work on the claim before January 1 of the year following.—Journal-Democrat.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Whereas by authority of a writ of Venditioni Exponas issued out of the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of New Mexico, for the County of Lincoln, and to me directed, in a cause therein pending, wherein William B. Puckett is plaintiff and the Vanderbilt Gold Mining Company is defendant, I will on Saturday, August 12th, 1899, at One o'clock p. m. of said day, and at the American Mine in Nogal Mining District, in said Lincoln County, expose for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, all the round mining timbers belonging to defendant, at and near to said American Mine estimated to be about fifty thousand linear feet, and also about forty cords of wood at said mine, to satisfy the judgement of plaintiff against defendant amounting on the day of sale to One Hundred and Fifty Two and 50—100 Dollars together with all costs of suit of execution of said writ and of said sale. This June 30th, 1899.

Demetrio Peron, Sheriff of Lincoln Co.
By J. W. Owen, Deputy.

Klondike Gold.

The stories of the tremendous riches of the Klondike placers read like magic; and could they be accepted at 50 per cent discount would make them the promised land of the gold hunters of the earth. The following dispatch sent out from Tacoma Wash. on July 8, if true is indeed wonderful:

TACOMA, Wash., July 8—Dr. L. O. Wilcoxson, of Chicago, who arrived from Dawson, brings authentic news of the enormous clean up that took place in the Klondike during June. During the first half of June pack trains arrived at Dawson daily from Bonanza, Eldorado, Hunker and Sulphur creeks, each bringing $500,000 to $1,500,000 in dust. One big pack train made several trips from Prof. Lippey's claim on Eldorado, which produced over two tons of gold dust.

The largest nuggets yet found in Klondike were discovered during the clean up. One found on Gold hill weighed 106 ounces and is valued at $1,804.

The steamer Robert Kerr, leaving Dawson, June 20, carried over $3,000,000.

Dr. Wilcoxson thinks $5,000,000 will arrive on the first steamer from St. Michaels. Coming out Wilcoxson learned of two important new discoveries, one on Thirty-Mile river, where $2 per pan was found, and the other on Big Salmon, where the winter's dumps averaged $38 per day per man.

GOVERNMET TIMBER.

How Much May be Cut For the Use of a Settler.

Much doubt exists in the minds of settlers, miners and others as to the limitation of their priveleges to the use of timber from public lands. Special Agent Max Pradt has had a wide range of correspondence bearing upon the subject. To condence the matter and provide an official ruling which could be easily understood, Mr. Pracht submitted a number of cases to the commissioner of the general land office, and the following letter has been received from Commissioner Binger Hermann. Mr. Pracht asks the courtesy of the Journal-Democrat and other newspapers in publishing this for general information:

"I have your letter of June 9, 1899, enclosing letter from Mr. Estevan Flores inquiring as to the law relating to the cutting of public timber.

My letter of May 23, 1899, replying to inquiries of a similar nature from H. O. Bursum, seems to contain all the information desired by Mr. Flores. If the lands are non-mineral in character he will be permitted to cut timber therefrom free of charge for firewood, fencing or other domestic purposes, or developing his own mining claims, to an extent not exceeding a stumpage valuation of $100 in any one year. This privilege is given for his own use, and does not carry with it the right to sell or dispose of it to other persons.

Where the land is strictly mineral in character timber may be cut there from under the act of June 3, 1878 (20 Stat., 88), for building, agricultural, mining or other domestic purposes for use within the state where cut."—Journal-Democrat.

Winter Losses of Sheep.

The following information concerning the loss of sheep during last winter is given in a recent issue of the National Live Stock Bulletin from Denver, Colo.:

"Reports as to winter losses on sheep are rather more definite than on cattle and indicate a loss of from 12 to 30 per cent. Probably 15 per cent would be a conservative estimate. Cold nights were bad on lambing in nearly every section and losses have been heavy, few sections reporting over 50 per cent of a crop and some as low as 40 per cent. Idaho, Wyoming and Montana report most successful lamb crop; Utah only fair; New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and the extreme western Texas very bad. In the southwest the drought left so little feed for the ewes that in many sections the lambs were killed to save the mothers; and the herds are kept alive only by cutting down brush and young trees along dry creeks or the foothills for them to browse upon. A heavy loss will result to the Utah sheep men by the action of the government in excluding them from forest reservations, where heretofore they have found summer range. They are now thrown upon the desert which, at this season of the year, will cause the destruction of thousands of animals from heat and lack of water. Reports from Arizona and New Mexico indicate less than half a lamb crop and heavy losses in ewes. Movement of lambs to feed lots from the south will be late and lambs will be poor. Western lambs will be in better damand for the feed lots than southern stuff owing to the fact that there has been better feed in the northwest.

The El Paso Herald says: News comes that Sheriff Beck has captured one of the outlaws who held up the Alamogordo Lumber company's office last April and that the other one has been traced to California. The man located in California is the one who carried off the scrip and other papers taken from the safe by the two bold bandits.

Two gentlemen, Knights of the Green Cloth, from the Nogal country were here Saturday. The boys were looking for big game and had no sooner made their business known than accomodations were found. They played 'em high, but its the same old story, the papers were agin'em and they soon disappeared as though the big earth had swallowed them up.

Al Highal and Lee Hurst left yesterday for the Gallinas Mountains to begin development work on a copper property belonging to Jones Taliaferro. The boys are going to sink on the shaft, which is now down about 90 feet. A. H. Hudspeth was a caller at the EAGLE office last Thursday. Mr. Hudspeth is bookkeeper for the V. V. ranch.

Several good soaking rains have fallen here during the last two weeks. Grass is coming nicely and stock men are happy.

Augustus Schinzing is taking the lumber from the gallery of the old saloon building on the Avenue for use elsewhere.

John Smith is having some neat sign painting done on the windows of his new saloon. A Mr. Gaylord of Nogal is doing the work.

The Taliaferro Merc. & T. Co., has a large sign painted over the old Young and Taliaferro building which reads; "Hay and Grain."

RYE FLOUR,
RALSON'S
Whole Wheat Flour, Graham Flour and the finest quality of Sioux City Corn meal just received at Ziegler's.

Phil Blanchard was in the city Tuesday from his Tuson ranch. Phil has sold out his coal properties at the Salado and is buying cattle with the dust obtained thereby.

WE HAVE
still quite a number of small pieces of Lawns, Dimities, Percales and other light weight summer goods on hand, which we are closing out regardless of cost.—Ziegler Bros.

The Mexican people began a Camp Meeting at Texas Park yesterday. The Reverends Bustamantes, Campa and Corbin will conduct it. The EAGLE has been requested to announce that every body is invited.

R. Michaelis, treasurer, it seems since so many are after the treasurership, has decided that it is a pretty good thing, and when the time came for him to hand in his resignation, as he had declared his intention to do, backed out and will hold over. European travel is alright, but there is money in the treasurer and collectors office.

Grand Sweepstake Races.

To be pulled off at Nogal, Tuesday, August, 1st. Tularosa last week made Nogal a proposition to run a Sweepstake race between Tularosa and Nogal horses and proposed to come for a purse of $100. The money was raised in a little while and Tuesday, August 1st, set for the race. While the race has been matched between Nogal and Tularosa nobody will be barred from putting in horses from any section of this locality; and White Oaks, Lincoln, Raventon, Jicarillas, Richardson, Fort Stanton and Gray are requested to put horses in the race should they desire to do so. There will be a purse of $100 for the first horse in the sweepstake race and no entrance fees will be charged the second. A number of single races will follow the sweepstake.

A grand Ball and Supper will be given in the city at night and a good time is promised everybody who can find time to take a day off with Nogal people.

Spent a Good Farm Doctoring.

Mr. A. N. Noell of Asherville, Kansas, says he spent a good farm doctoring himself for chronic diarrhoea but got no relief and was afraid that he must die. He chanced to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was permanently cured by it. For sale by M. G. Paden.

Next Sunday evening the pastor of the Congregational Church will give a "practical talk" to men. Singing a special feature. You are cordially invited to attend.

"We have sold many different cough remedies, but none has given better satisfaction than Chamberlain's," says Mr. Charles Holzhauer, Druggist, Newark, N. J. "It is perfectly safe and can be relied upon in all cases of coughs, colds or hoarseness." Sold by M. G. Paden.

GRAY GLEANINGS.

Gray N. M., July 11, 1899.

Correspondence.

The tie inspector, Mr. Turner, has been over the route from the head of Indian Canyon to the Salado inspecting the ties, preparatory to laying them on the road before very long.

Mrs. F. S. Earle and her two little girls have returned to their home in Alabama after an extended visit with Mrs. Earle's mother and sister at Gray.

Mrs. Lesnet and son Milton, and little daughters, Bessie and Georgie of Lincoln, spent the Fourth at the Salado.

Mr. John A. Haley and wife came in on Sunday and are making a short stay in this place.

In spite of various picnics in the vicinity, the celebration of the Fourth at the Salado was pleasant and successful. A pretty, picturesque arbor had been erected on the side of a hill, the view from which was charming in every direction. Close to the arbor, a beautiful flag waved its stars and stripes in the breeze and gave to the scene a patriotic and commanding appearance. Nature smiled on the day's pleasures, for the weather was perfect, not one drop of rain falling to interfere with the festivities. A bountiful and toothsome dinner was served from the different baskets and from the goodly store of barbecued meat and coffee prepared on the grounds. And not only dinner, but supper also, was spread for all. One of the most interesting features of the day was an appropriate and entertaining address which was delivered by Mr. Thomas Law of Pennsylvania and interpreted in Spanish by Acasio Gallegos. At the close of the address, three cheers were given for the Star Spangled banner. Dancing began in the morning and continued until a late hour at night or rather an early hour next morning to the great delight of the young people. The crowd assembled was remarkable for its quietness and genteel behavior, and Gray's first celebration is an event to be long remembered by those who have the best intersest of the place at heart.

We take plersure in inserting the following original poem which formed a part of Mr. Law's address.

Written for 4th of July Celebration
Held Near Camp Salado, Gray
New Mexico in 1899.

In my old loved Keystone state,
In grand old Independence Hall,
This day that we now celebrate
Was instituted, for there, all
The colonies, by their votes did say,
Through their own chosen delegate,
Let this be Independence day—
The echo rang through every state.

There they threw off the British yoke,
And then declared, that we were free,
Our Independence, as they spoke
Was that day bought, for you and me,
'Twas paid for, by our fathers' blood
Poured out in many a bloody fray,
We have good reason to be proud,
Of that first Independence day—

It cost them blood, it cost them tears,
The blood of brave men, tears of mothers,
Sisters wives, and sweetheart dears,
For husbands, lovers, sons and brothers,
Who shed their blood, that we might be
Endowed, with glorious liberty
Our flag of freedom, floats to day
Above us, in this town of Gray.

Now let us every mother's son,
And daughter too, yes every one,
Take off our hat, and wave it high,
To our Starry flag of Liberty,
It waved o'er Dewey and his crew,
O'er Schley in Cuban waters too,
On Santiago's bloody field,
The Spanish hosts were forced to yield.

There Blue and Gray, together stood,
And freely shed their precious blood,
Wheeler and Lawton, side by side,
In valor with each other vied,
Hurray, then for the Stripes and Stars,
Our Country's flag, whoever mars
One stripe or Star, on its fair face,
His name be spoken in disgrace.

HEAVEN.

Rev. Jno. A. Rollars from the Congregational Pulpit, Sunday, 9th.

The following is an extract of the excellent sermon preached by him on the above subject.

Text; Heb. 11:-16.

"But now they look for a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city."

"We meet one another," as some one has said, "salute one another, pass on and are gone." "It is just an inch of time, and then eternal ages roll on." The text speaks of a city which God has prepared for his people: we are lead to believe that the city spoken of in the text is an eternal city. It took two millions of men several years to build the city of Babylon; it is nothing but dust now.

Historians say that the ruins of Nebuchadnezzar's palace are still standing but men are afraid to go near them because they are full of scorpions and snakes. The towers and bastions of Nineveh have long since fallen; there is not much left of Carthage; Corinth is only a shapeless mass; Athens once the pride of Greece is now gone. So we see that cities made with hands soon pass away—the strongest city ever built will soon crumble to dust.

When Paul preached in Antioch it was one of the most beautiful cities in the world. The wide streets of Antioch were filled with rows of columns and beautiful galleries. Men then as now, tried to enshrine their names and records in perishable clay. We are constantly planning for beautiful homes and cities here on earth; we build as though we expected to live here forever; but history teaches that cities, houses and all temporal things shall perish.

It seems to be the desire of every person to have a home—a permanent place to be called our own. None of us can ever forget the home of our childhood; how well do I remember the place of my birth, I can recall at least one incident for every year that I spent working and playing upon the beautiful hills of old Kentucky Sometimes in this busy life we stop and meditate; we think of the beautiful land beyond the gates, where there are no sorrows, no tears, no more grief.

"Tell me my secret soul,
O, tell me, hope and faith, is there no resting place from sin, sorrow and death? Is there no happy spot where mortals may be blest, where grief may find a balm, and weariness a rest?

Faith, hope and love—best boons to mortals given—waved their bright wings, and whispered: yes, in heaven!"

J. C. Lacey of the Park, was in for supplies Monday. He was caught in the rain storm Friday between Gray and the Park and came near being drowned. He was crossing a mountain arroyo and was caught by a torrent of water, coming on him with such rapidity that he could not escape it. His horse was thrown by the current and the buggy badly damaged; himself thrown into the water and would in all probability have drowned but for the aid of a cowboy who happened to be near and reached the scene in time to rescue him.

Billie Lane came in from the Malagra yesterday bringing Miss Pearl Keith from the rail road. She is returning from a two months visit to relatives in Texas. Mr. Lane says the rail road Co. has moved the station from Three Rivers to Malagra, and freight and passengers will be put off there until the road reaches the White Oaks junction.

Tularosa and Clouderoft were the centers of attraction for visitors from southern New Mexico and El Paso, Texas, the Fourth. Next year White Oaks will be in position to entertain them all; that substantial mining activity of which the EAGLE has been incessantly talking has already well begun; two gold mines and two cyanide plants in operation—not only in operation but making money—and when that White Oaks rail road reaches that White Oaks Junction between Aug. 1st and 15th, this little city will begin to don her Sunday clothes, and while it has always been the chief business center for a wide scope of country, it will then be the supply point for 300 square miles of territory. All the cattle that have been going to Roswell for shipment; provided the right kind of rates can be made over the E. P. & N. E. will be loaded at this point; and when it is remembered that Lincoln county is the cattle country of New Mexico, this is no small item. The El Capitan Co., alone, last year, shipped between 18 and 20 thousand head of cattle to the Kansas markets. The sheepmen of this county will have a market at home for their wool—White Oaks merchants will handle it all, as soon as we have rail road facilities. The 15 to 20 carloads of freight which comes in here every month on wagons, will be doubled, yes, quadrupled, when we can get it by rail. There are a hundred new enterprises now a "chorain" which will begin operations when cheap transportation for machinery and supplies are available. Brick yards, quarries of building stone, marbel quarries etc., etc., are among the contemplated new branches of industry: a smelter to work the refractory ores of this section is very probable, and the immense ledges of iron ore in Lone Mountain will almost be hanging over this junction; and by bringing the force of gravity into play a few workmen could mine these ledges and send the ore down an incline, prepared for the purpose, right on top of this place where in case arrangements are not made to work it there, it can be loaded onto cars and shipped to El Paso. Talk about mineral these mountains around White Oaks contain enough of it to profitably employ hundreds; yes, thousands of men. Many of these resources have been sleeping and useless without rail road facilities. Some local prospectors have recently uncovered an immensely rich copper vein at no great distance from this contemplated White Oaks junction, that when assayed ran 60 per cent pure copper. Locations are being made, and arrangements are under way to begin developing it, and while we are not at liberty to say more of it at present, we will speak of it hereafter. The only turquoise mine so far known in this district is not far from this Junction, just over the mountain on this side toward White Oaks. The smoke from the mines and the mills and the cyanide plants now in operation can be seen from where this Junction is to be located, curling above the peaks of Baxter and Lone Mountains, but for the tops of which, the mines themselves would be visible. When this Junction is reached and the whistle of the iron horse is added to those now heard from the mines, mills, and the pumps around White Oaks the stranger, who visits here will think he is coming into a city, and if he delays his coming very long he will not be disappointed, he will find it.

NEW TAX LAW.

Provisions of the Law Enacted by the Last Legislature for the Enforcement of Collection of Taxes.

Section 1 provides that the probate clerk shall at once notify the assessor of conveyances of property recorded in his office, give full description of same and the names of grantor and grantee, and the assessor shall keep same on file in his office. Failure or neglect by the clerk or assessor to comply with this section constitutes a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $500

Section 2 provides that the assessor must file with the lists of each precinct his affidavit, stating the time he spent in each precinct on official duties.

Section 3 provides for a penalty for failure upon the part of any county officer to amend and conform the tax roll to the valuation finally fixed in certificate

Section 4 provides that the character of all lands shall be designated upon the assessment lists separately.

Section 5 provides that under no circumstances shall the assessed value or levy or amount to be paid in taxes, as fixed by the board of county commissioners sitting as a board of equalization, or as finally determined and certified by the territorial board of equalization and by the auditor, be altered, abated, rebated or changed by any other means or device except by direction of a competent court.

Section 6 makes some corrections to section 4057 of the compiled laws of 1897

Section 7 provides that the 50th fiscal year shall begin on the first Monday of March, 1899, and end on the 31st day of August, 1900, and thereafter each fiscal year shall commence on the first day of September of each year.

Section 8 provides that there shall be exempt from taxation a family homestead to the value of $300, provided such homestead is actually occupied by the head of the family, or in the event the head of the family is not the owner of real estate then $200 in value of the following property Farming implements, wagons, teams, oxen, milch cows goats or household furniture.

Section 9 amends certain portions of section 4062 of the compiled laws of 1897

Section 10 provides that on the first day of January of each year half of the unpaid taxes for the year last past, and on the 1st day of July in each year the remaining half of the unpaid taxes for the year last past shall become delinquent, and THERE SHALL BE ADDED ON THE 2ND DAY OF JANUARY AND JULY one per cent of the amount of such delinquent taxes as a penalty Unless the taxes are paid on or before the first day of the following month an additional penalty of four per cent will be added. Upon the first delinquency above provided for the collector shall immediately notify, in writing, the tax payer and of the fact that one per cent has been added and that an additional penalty of four per cent will be added if not paid on or before the first day of the following month Such penalty shall have the full force and effect of the original tax and in no case shall it be abated or reduced Any failure on the part of the collector to add such penalty and collect the same shall subject him to removal from his office and to pay double the amount of such penalty

Section 11 provides that at the word "interest" in section 4067 of the compiled laws be stricken out and the word "penalty" be substituted therefor.

Section 12 relates to the credit of taxes between the territory and the counties.

Section 13 provides for the manner of settlement between the collector and the county

Section 14 repeals a number of the sections of the compiled laws of 1897.

Section 15 provides that within 90 days after any tax shall become delinquent the collector shall prepare and cause to be printed a list of the names of the owners of all property upon which the taxes, amounting to not less than $25, have become delinquent, together with a description of the property, amount of taxes, penalty and costs due opposite each name A separate statement shall be made for personal property The collector must append and publish with the delinquent tax list a notice that he will apply to the district court for said county, upon the next return day, which date shall be specified and occuring not less than 30 days after the last publication of said notice, for judgment against said property for the full amount due and for an order to sell the same to satisfy such judgment. The collector shall also give notice in such advertisement that he will within 30 days after the rendition of judgment and after having given notice by a hand bill posted at the front door of the court house at least ten days prior to the day of sale, offer for sale at public auction in front of the said building the property described in said notice against which judgment was rendered for taxes, penalties and costs. The advertisement herein provided for shall be sufficient notice to the persons, firm or corporations mentioned as owners of such property. The said delinquent tax list and notice shall be published not less than once a week for a period of four consecutive weeks.

Section 16 provides that if by neglect of the officers to make returns or from any other cause real estate cannot be duly advertised an offered for sale within the prescribed time such sale may be had at any other time, the officer so doing shall set out in such advertisement the reason for such delay.

Section 17 prescribes the manner in which the district attorney and other officers shall enforce and carry out the provisions above described.

Section 18 further prescribes the manner of procedure in the district court.

Section 19 provides that taxes levied thereon shall be a lien against real estate or personal property until the taxes shall have been paid. In all cases taxes against real or personal property shall be deemed a personal obligation of the person in whose name the property was assessed and personal judgment shall be rendered against him therefor.

Section 20 provides that in entering up judgment the clerk shall add to the amount of taxes, penalties and costs, as shown by delinquent tax list, 10 per cent, which shall be the court costs of such proceedings.

Section 21 provides that appeal may be taken from the judgment of the court to the Supreme Court of the Territory.

Section 22 provides that the collector, in person or by deputy, shall attend at the court house door on the day specified in notice of sale of property for taxes and shall, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 4 in the afternoon, offer for sale separately and in consecutive order each parcel of property included in the list attached to the order for sale, or so much thereof as may be necessary to realize the respective amounts due. The sale shall be continued from day to day until all the property is sold or until the amounts due shall be realized. Provided the sale must be completed within sixty days of the commencement thereof. In case any property ordered to be sold is in too large a tract to be conveniently sold the collector shall offer same in smallest tract in acres for which any one shall bid the amount of taxes and penalty. Such tracts to be nearly as may be a square body. Where property sold shall realize more than enough to pay the amount due the surplus shall be paid over by the collector to the owner of such property. The property shall be struck off to the highest bidder for cash. When a property is put up a second time and there be no purchaser in good faith bidding upon same the property shall be struck off to the county as the purchaser.

Section 23 prescribes the manner in which conveyance of property sold as above described shall be made and provides that the former owner of such property shall have the right to redeem same within 2 years from the date of sale by paying to the purchaser the amount paid therefor with interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent per month from date of of sale.

Section 24 provides that in case of sale of personal property under this act the title shall immediately vest in the purchaser without any right of redemption to the former owner.

Section 25 prescribes the duties of persons, firms and corporations in making returns as to proper description of property, etc.

Section 26 provides that where property shall be bid in by the county the duplicate certificate of such sale shall be sold by the collector to any person who shall pay the face value thereof with accrued interest and if the same cannot be sold at private sale within one year the same shall be offered at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, when making delinquent tax sales for the next succeeding year.

Sections 27 and 28 provide for the manner in which property sold under this act shall be subsequently assessed or transferred.

Section 29 provides that the property of unknown owners the proceedings shall be the same as provided against the property of known owners.

Section 30 provides that live stock or personal property brought into the territory after the 1st day of March of any year and before the first day of June of such year shall be subject to taxation in this territory

Section 31 provides that where delinquent taxes are less than $25 it shall not be necessary to include in the publication the notice of application to the district court for judgment, but shall be the duty of the collector upon such taxes becoming delinquent on the 2nd day of January of each year to advertise the property in some newspaper of general circulation to be sold on the first Monday in May thereafter in the manner heretofore provided and upon all the taxes becoming due and delinquent on the 2nd day of July of each year the property on which tax is levied shall be advertised to be sold in the same manner on the 1st day of November thereafter. The collector shall issue certificates under this section the same as provided wherein judgments and execution are issued and shall have the same force and effect.

Section 32 provides that sheep owned by residents of this territory shall be listed and assessed in the county wherein the owners reside, and further provides against false returns.

Section 33 provides that any officer referred to in this act who shall fail or omit to perform any of the official duties herein prescribed shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, for which he may be presented before the judge of the district court upon the affidavit of any tax-payer. The district judge shall proceed, after five days after citation shall have been served on the accused, to hear the proof and if the accusation shall be found by the judge to be true and sustained by sufficent proof he shall render judgment against the accused removing him from office The judgment so rendered shall in no event be appealed form, and the vacancy thus caused shall be filled by the board of county commissioners, except where a county commissioner or district attorney may be removed, when only the governor shall fill the vacancy.

Section 34 provides that all acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, Provided, that the provisions of this act shall not be applicable to property heretofore assessed.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE

THE delights of an evening spent around a well-lighted reading table are not half understood. An illustrated magazine with its wealth of illustrations, its stories of adventure and love, its descriptions of travel which carry you to the remotest ends of the earth, and its instructive articles for young and old—these are the first requisites for your own enjoyment and the entertainment and proper education of your children.

To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal,

Both Together One Year for Only $ 2.10

In this way you secure your own home paper and an illustrated magazine at a price that is only about a fourth of what some of the illustrated magazines sell for. For three years The Cosmopolitan has undisputedly claimed that it reached the largest clientele possessed by any periodical, daily, weekly or monthly, in the world. It was The Cosmopolitan which sent Julian Hawthorne to India to let the world know the real horrors of famine and plague. It was The Cosmopolitan which established at its own cost a great Free Correspondence University which now has over 20,000 students on its rolls. It was The Cosmopolitan which offered a prize of $5,000 for the best horseless carriage and prizes for best plans for public baths, and best arrangement of sewer and pipe systems for cities. It was The Cosmopolitan which set the presidents of great schools and universities seriously discussing the defects of existing educational systems. It is The Cosmopolitan whose enterprise is always in the lead in advancing the world's civilization.
