CRONJE'S SURRENDER.

Its Effect On The Continuance Of The War.

While it would be idle to question the subjective importance of Lord Roberts' victory in forcing the surrender of Gen. Cronje and his army at Paardeberg, it would be rash to estimate hastily the effect which the achievement may have in contributing toward future British success. The delay caused to Roberts' campaign by the siege of the Boer position may more than compensate the allied burghers for the loss of Cronje and his command.

It is possible that the captured Boer leader may have foreseen and accepted the result of his forlorn hope fight when he entrenched his little force in the bed of Modder river. His remarkably brave defence of this untenable stronghold for nearly two weeks, against odds of ten to one, was not, perhaps, wholly due to a spirit of desperate stubbornness. Cronje's previous record in warfare shows him to be a cautious strategist as well as a valorous fighter. His conduct in facing about and confronting the victorious British 40,000 with his own retreating column of 4,000, instead of abandoning artillery and baggage and continuing his fight, must not be unqualifiedly accepted as out of keeping with this record.

Before passing judgment it would be well to consider all the circumstances and possibillities of the Boer situation. When Gen Roberts succeeded so brilliantly in turning the army which had defeated Lord Methuen's force, and had started Gen. French with a flying column to the relief of Kimberley, Cronje's army was left without an immediate occupation. It also stood in imminent danger of being caught between the armies of Roberts and Methuen.

No time was lost by the Boer leader in trying to avoid the latter contingency. By a rapid night march he passed his forces safely between French's rear guard and Roberts van. Then came the discovery of his retreat followed promptly by a rapid pursuit by the British. For several days Gens. Kitchener and Kelly-Keny were held in check by the Boer rear guard before Cronje finally entrenched and was surrounded.

In the meantime the dispatches told of Boer troops being hurried from all directions toward Bloemfontein, the capital of Orange Free State. These reports still continue and no doubt they are true. The deduction is that while Cronje, at the risk of comparatively small loss in the event of total defeat, held back the invading army, the burghers were massing all their available strengh to meet Lord Roberts when his legions were finally turned loose upon Bloemfontein. Time was everything to the defenders of the Free State capital, and the sacrifice of Cronje and his little command may have been what the old adage calls "casting a sprat to catch a mackerel."

There is, besides, the possibility that Cronje's entire army was not captured. When he faced Methuen the Boer general was credited with having a force of from 15,000 to 20,000. The bulk of these may now be near Bloemfontein, having continued their march when Cronje elected to remain behind and fight. It is significant, too, that but four guns were found in possession of the troops taken at Paardeburg.—Denver Republican.

LARRAZOLO FOR CONGRESS.

Mention was made recently in The Optic of O. A. Larrazolo, intending later to speak more at length. He was born and educated in Texas, and his democracy is of that tenacious manly quality, which is reliable as well in defeat as in victory. It is based on the conscientious beliefs that the continued existence of his party is essential to the highest and best development of this country and to the happiness and welfare of the people.

Mr. Larrazolo while living in El Paso was elected to several important offices, which he filled with satisfaction to his constituents, and honor and distinction to himself. Coming some years ago to Las Vegas, he has lived a plain, quiet, dignified life, free from all complications, which has made him many warm friends, not only among the native people, but as well with the population coming to New Mexico in more recent years. He is in close touch with the masses and thoroughly believes in the rights of the common people.

Mr. Larrazolo is a Lawyer of excellent attainments and commands the respect and confidence of both bench and bar. Understanding most thoroughly both the English and Spanish languages, and speaking equally well in each, he is able to draw friends from all quarters. As a speaker he is recognized as being both able, sound and eloquent. Commanding easily a vocabulary, he is eloquent, but never sacrifices the strength of his argument for ornamentation in speech.

Social and dignified, good-hearted and most thoroughly honest, Mr. Larrazolo would make a representative in congress who would at once command attention. Perhaps his most prominent characteristic is his love of open, manly ways. He despises hypocrisy and double-dealing and is an excellent type of a manly man.

Should the democratic party place the old flag in his hands, he will lead the battle with great energy and power.—Optic.

How to Save Doctor Bills.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEARKLE, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by M. G. Paden.

What to Do Until the Doctor Arrives.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The drug gist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by M. G. Paden Druggist.

Official Paper of Lincoln County

El Paso seems to have abandoned the idea of a Union Depot for the present.

Our friends, the Boers, have met with several serious reverses in rapid succession of late at the hands of our English cousins. However, the struggle is not yet ended, and ere the soldiers of Oom Paul cease to do battle, many titled English officers and loyal subjects of the Queen will shuffle off to the happy hunting grounds, prepared for those who wield the aggressor's sword.

New Mexico politicians are donning their war paint and soon they will be abroad in the land each proclaiming the commendable features of his own party and the disreputable conduct of the other. The commendable qualities of each will speak for themselves, if they have any, and the populace may accept as gospel truth the accusations of both, as there is nothing in the political calendar too dirty for a New Mexico politician. Of course there are exceptions, though the rule should apply first in this instance. It is generally true in New Mexico that the fellow who makes politics his business is either an incompetent, or is looking for something whereby he can advance his personal interests.

The readers of this paper are requested to take notice of the clubbing rate offer elsewhere in these columns in which the INTERNATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RECORD, published at El Paso, and the WHITE OAKS EAGLE are offered to new subscribers one year for $2.00. The regular subscription price of the RECORD is $2.00 and that of the EAGLE $1.50, making $3.50 for regular subscription of the two papers, which are now offered for $2.00.

The Industrial Record since its debut into the field of Industrial Journalism has done more to show up the unlimited resources of the White Oaks country, as well as all other sections of the stock and mining regions of the southwest, than any other agency offered to the people. The paper has been absolutely fair and impartial, and always truthful in its news service from the White Oaks country. The publication deserves the patronage of every man who is interested in the stock and mining industry of this section of New Mexico. Do not wait too long to take advantage of the offer as the EAGLE has secured this rate to subscribers for six months only.

Going After a Rail Road.

White Oaks business men are now considering the advisability of opening up the immense coal fields that surround White Oaks.

The plan under consideration is as follows: For every man in this community who feels an interest in the future of White Oaks and that includes them all to contribute to a fund to employ men to open up properties sufficiently to show the quality and quantity of the deposits. The work is to be conducted on three sides of White Oaks, so as to show that we not only have the best coal in Southern New Mexico but to determine beyond question that the quantity is inexhaustible. The Old Abe Coal mine and the Parker mine have already demonstrated that that locality has coal enough to insure operating the mines for years to come, but those who have examined the country west of these mines say that the deposit extends to the mouth of White Oaks canyon two miles west of town. Nobody in White Oaks doubts the statements, and steps will be taken to verify them.

A shaft of a few feet on the mesa 4 miles east of White Oaks will show coal at many points, and some of the best coal ever opened in New Mexico has been shown up by Morris and Ramsdale in a 7 foot vein 3 miles northeast of here. These lands are to be prospected to an extent that the deposit will be definitely known, and that it can be done to show to the entire satisfaction of any rail road company that it is worth coming for, is not doubted by any who are ready to spend some money to show it up.

When the work is finished the individuals who have contributed to the enterprise will send a committee to the stock holders of the Rock Island or the Santa Fe rail road and show them in black and white just what the conditions are, and when it has been shown them that White Oaks needs a rail road to aid in the development of the immense resources surrounding the town, and should they consider the proposition favorably of giving us a road, here are these coal fields which have been shown up by the people of the town and community, which will be turned over to them without any other consideration than that a rail road is to be built to us, they may come in and take them by the usual process of entry.

This new life among White Oaks people means that they are going to have railway connections with the outside world, the lack of which has retarded the growth of the country for years past. This theory has been developing for some time past, and now since it has been clearly demonstrated that the Northeastern Ry. to Capitan is not going to do anything for this field, for an indefinite period at least, the EAGLE has heard a number of men who have money say that they will put money into this enterprise immediately- in fact it is the general topic of conversation on the streets to day.

White Oaks has always since the town started in 1880, and is now the business center of the entire White Oaks country, and the people are now becoming aroused over the great business possibilities tied up around us waiting the advent of a rail road for development.

Here is gold, coal, mountains of iron and marble, building stone etc., at White Oaks. The Jicarillas contain, gold, iron and copper. The Gallina district has gold, lead, copper, silver and galena, with fine timber, and all these places are surrounded by the very best sheep and cattle country in New Mexico. It is useless—yes even senseless—to presume for a minute, that when these conditions are known to a rail road Co. like the Santa Fe or the Rock Island, both of which have already been considering the building of a road into this section—that a decision to do so at once will not be reached.

Let White Oaks people stand together for mutual interests and an early consumation of the greatly needed advantages will come—come open and above board, and in a manner that will be calculated to bring capital here for investment, and insure its lasting operation in this community.

GLORIOUS NEWS.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved.—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. Chas. Stevens is working at the Godiva. This is indicative that that property is getting ready for business.

Mrs. W. C. McDonald, and daughters, Francis and Margie were visiting here this week from the the Carrizozo ranch.

R. Michaelis, Ex-Treasurer and Collector of this county and prominent business man of Lincoln, returned last week from a six months visit to Germany.

Lincoln county will, it is thought have no court in April. The funds will be pretty well exhausted by the trial of the Coe case at Roswell, which will be tried there on a change of venue.

Mrs. J. H. Steele and children, Mrs. Ed McTeague and baby, and Miss Abrana Lucero all of Richardson, are visiting in the city, guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gumm.

Mrs. E W. Parker, who had been visiting at El Paso Texas, and San Pedro, Mexico. came up on last Friday's train. She was met at Carrizozo by her husband, E. W. Parker.

G. D. Tarbell returned Friday from an extended visit to San Pedro, Mexico. Mr. Tarbell speaks very highly of that part of Nexico, and thinks of returning to San-Pedro to live.

Ramon and Modesto Ulibarri have purchased the Palace Saloon fixtures from Pete Thompson for the purpose of putting them in a saloon in the Jicarillas. They will open up near the head of Rico Gulch.

The Jicarilla district is enjoying a boom. Several new placers, which are reported to be very rich have been opened recently and an era of good feeling has accordingly been developed among the old inhabitants. A right respectable little village has sprung up in the center of which is a post office, two stores and a saloon.

The Telephone Line is a Go.

All the stock in the telephone line to Carrizozo has been taken, and as soon as the stock holders—some of which are absent—can be gotten together the contract for its construction will be let.

OUR ADVERTISERS.

The readers of the EAGLE are courteously requested to notice the cards of our advertisers. The advertisers who hold space in this paper are prepared to supply at prices as reasonable as can be expected any where, any class of merchandise brought to this section of New Mexico.

The custom practiced by many people of sending money earned in the community where they live to Montgomery Ward & Co., and other like establishments, is a great injury to the general prosperity of the town or locality where the nefarious system is practiced, and there is no question that the same classes of goods can be supplied at the same prices by home merchants. If you want to buy any thing handled by advertisers of your home paper first confer with them for prices before going to some body else.

Should you be in the market for any thing from a paper of pins to mining and milling machinery, you can buy it from the EAGLE's advertisers who are seeking business in your locality. Home first, then Havana, Porto Rico and Manila.

Going Out of The Sheep Business.

Spence Bros., the wealthiest sheep men in this part of New Mexico, are selling off their sheep with the view of going out of the business alltogether. They sold 30,000 head some time ago, and have this week negotiated a sale with buyers to close out the remaining ten or twelve thousand head. Everything has been agreed on provided the sheep come up to the average of the buyers' estimate, of which there is little doubt, as the sheep have been graded up for several years.

The EAGLE has not learned the price agreed on, neither do we know whether the two ranches on which the sheep have been ranging are included in the deal.

Struck It Rich.

After an absence of six weeks in the Oscura mining fields Dr. Lane has returned to White Oaks, having discovered and located a deposit of red oxide of copper (88 per cent copper) for George E Sligh and Allen Lane. This ore is identical with Neimyer's of the San Andres Mts., so says Capt. Roberts and C. B. Moore of Nogal (who have seen both ores.) We are informed Neimyer has refused a cash offer of thirty thousand dollars for an 18 inch vein of this ore and that he is clearing one thousand dollars per car on same shipped to El Paso via E. P. & N. E. R. Road.

Two For One.

Here is an offer that should be accepted by every reader of the EAGLE. For $2 00 we will send the INTERNATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RECORD, of El Paso, Texas, and the EAGLE, 12 months. This offer is open to all new subscribers and all old ones who renew. To those who have recently paid dues to the EAGLE, the RECORD will be sent on receipt of $1.00. This is a saving of $1.50 by taking the two papers together. The RECORD is a 16 page paper, full of industrial matter, especially of mining and live stock news. All interested in either of these industries should take advantage of this liberal offer, which stands good for six months. March 8, 1900.

CAPITAN CORRESPONDENCE.

Capitan, New Mexico, March 6 1900

Editor EAGLE:

The expected big day, consequent upon the public opening of the new town, has come and gone, and from most every standpoint it was a "fizzle." Only about one dozen lots were sold, and several of those were purchased by members of the town company. The day's sales were a disappointment, even to outsiders, who expected to see a large crowd present. The special train and reduced fare only brought four intending purchasers from El Paso and only one of these invested. Several things combined serve to check the growth of the new town:

First:—The coal company want to (and have) so arranged it that they will get every cent the miners earn, by the "script method," they having every branch of business represented. Leaving the outsider to take what they do not want, which will be precious little.

Second: The location of the townsite at the junction of Oso and McGow canons, is a veritable water trap and overflows every season and with most every rain in the mountains. From a sanitary standpoint the location could not be worse in New Mexico.

Third: The water is rank and not suitable for even stock to drink and the smell of it would run a polecat out of a hen house on a dark night.

Fourth:—The new townsite is located more than a mile from the nearest coal mines and practically, impassable barriers are placed between the new town and the mines. The sale of liquors are prohibited in the new town, the company reserving that right for themselves, and as they already have a saloon located near the mines, it is natural to suppose that a majority of the miners will go where they can get at least a glass of beer to improve the taste in their mouth after drinking saleratus alkaline waters all day. The situation reminds one of the story of Lazarus, the rich man and the impassable gulf.

Fifth:—The contracts for deeds given by the company are drawn on "the hog plan," with everything in favor of the hog. The purchaser of a town lot is forbidden to do most everything whereby he could make any money, that right being reserved for themselves. What under other circumstances might have made a fairly good town in Lincoln county, has been killed a borning by the grasping greed of a monopoly that is fast drawing the entire county into its vice like devil fish claws. The only good so far visible is a good market for the ranchmen's products, and the evils of its presence will be very perceptable in the near future. "All is not gold that glitters."

The eight hour shift at the mines has been abolished and the miners are now working ten hours at $3.00 per day. This is not satisfactory with the men as it reduces the rate per hour, and gives work to a less number of men.

A large per cent of the miners here are union men and a charter has been applied for to organize a union at Capitan.

The Red Men have a lodge here with a membership of 103 and they expect as many more members within the next month.

The slope in No 4 has come up against a solid stone wall but it is probable it will not be far through it and the vein will be caught on the other side of the dyke, but may be it will prove as No 2 has, that the coal is too far on the opposite side to find it. The original No. has been abandoned and a new slope has been christened No. 2.

The post office called Gray will soon be a thing of the past. The office will be moved to the new town and called Capitan. The coal camp will be called North Capitan. The two towns are about two miles apart.

The Baptists have organized a church here and services will be held each month.

P. G. Peters has returned home from Santa Rosalia, Mexico, where he has been recuperating his health.

Jim Brent was present at the Capitan lot sale Saturday, but we believe he did not invest.

A Project is well under way to put in a telephone line from Capitan to Lincoln.—"Old Timer."

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says; "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at M. G. Paden's Drug Store.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.

With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

GONE TO HIS REST.

W. M. Wharton, of Three Rivers, brother of J. E. and S. M Wharton, of this place, died of abscess of the liver, at the residence of J. E. Wharton, Friday morning, the 2nd inst. at 2 o'clock.

The deceased was brought here a very sick man, from his home at Three Rivers, by J. E. Wharton, six weeks ago, where every comfort possible was given him by relatives and friends. Dr. M G Paden, who has been the family physician for a number of years, was untiring in his efforts to give every attention his profession offered. He stood his long suffering with patience and fortitude, and when the hour of dissolution came he passed to his final rest peacefully, accepting the will of the Great Jehovah, which called him from the trials and vexations of this life to everlasting peace and rest where sorrow, pain and disappointments are known no more.

He leaves a wife and three children who were around his bed side when his spirit departed. They will feel heavily the absence of a husband's loving kindness and a father's tender caresses when they are again in the home so recently happy with loving ties of the home circle yet unbroken.

The funeral service took place from the residence of J. E Wharton at 3:30 p. m. Friday. The body was followed to its last resting place in White Oaks cemetery by a large assemblage of friends and sympathizers.

PASSED THE HOUSE.

Had a Majority of Eleven.

Washington, Feb. 28. The last day of the struggle over the Porto Rican tariff bill opened in the house with nearly every member in his seat, and a large attendance in the galleries. Leaders were actively engaged in rallying their forces and making computations upon the final vote to be taken under the order for 3 o,clock. Mr. Underwood (Ala.) democratic whip, said the result would be very close, and would turn upon the votes of two or three democrats. Tawney, republican whip, said the bill would have votes to spare. The clerk began reading the bill for amendment under the five minute rule. When section three was reached Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee, offered a substitute fixing the duties at 15 per cent. Berry (Ky.) said that the amendment proposed was petty, instead of grand larceny of the people of Porto Rico.

Payne explained that the substitute reduced the duty from 25 to 15 per cent and also removed some confusion regarding double taxation. The amended bill would raise about $1,250,000 a year.

The bill was opposed in short speeches by DeArmond, (Mo.) Fitzgerald (Mass.) Otey (Va. and defended by Grow, (Pa.) Graff (Ill.) Bromwell, (O.) who hitherto had opposed the measure, and Grosvenor, (O.) The Payne amendment was adopted without division.

The substitute for the Porto Rican bill was defeated, 159 yeas to 175 nays. This indicates the passage of the bill. Richardson (Tenn.) moved to recommit the bill.

The motion to recommit the Porto Rican bill to the ways and means committee was lost, 162 to 172.

Payne offered the additional section agreed on by the republicans, providing that the act shall not continue in force after March 1 next. Agreed to without division.

Payne offered a preamble to the bill, reciting the serious condition of affairs in the island. Adopted on a rising vote, 163 to 151.

Cummings (N. Y.) described how he believed it to be the duty of every man in a great crisis to rise above party and support the government as he had done during the Spanish war. "I believe now we should follow the lead of the president," said he emphatically, "and I will vote for this bill."

The republicans arose en masse and cheered, while the democrats sat dazed. Cummings stood with his arms upraised, until republican applause ceased. "I will vote for this bill," he continued, addressing the republican side, "provided it is amended in accordance with the advice of the president for absolute free trade with Porto Rico." The democrats made the rafters ring with cheers.

McCall (Mass.) offered a substitute bill for trade with Porto Rico, originally introduced by Payne. Yeas and nays were ordered.

The republicans who voted for the adoption of the substitute were Heatwole, (Minn.) Littlefield, (Me.) Lorimer, (Ill.) McCall, (Mass.) Crumpacker, (Ind.) Democrats who voted with the republicans against the substitute were Davey and Meyer, (La.) Sibley, (Pa.) Deyries, (Cal.).

The Porto Rican bill passed—172 to 161.

THE GREAT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN OF 1900.

The wars of America have, heretofore, settled affairs of state. Great questions of policy, of national motives and national conclusions have been answered as soon as the battle smoke cleared away, and the victor realized his victory. The war with Spain is unlike its predecessors. It has not answered questions, but has created problems which may not be solved lightly. These problems are being formulated by the political parties, and before they can be definitely settled at the ballot box it is necessary that the people be informed in regard to the situation. The result of the campaign of 1900 will make a broad mark upon the page of history; it will doubtless establish the policy of the great Republic of America for a quarter of a century. It is vastly important, therefore, that every citizen shall study the situation through that best of mediums, a great news paper. The Semi Weekly Republic which affords a comprehensive view of political situation in all its bearings. It publishes the new news. The Semi Weekly Rebublic is a Democratic paper, but it offers to its readers the news regarding all the political parties, and this without prejudice. It is a fair newspaper. Its telegraph and cable news service has been proved to be the very best employed by a modern paper. Its special features are unsurpassed. It is the newspaper for the reader who has not access to a daily paper.

News features, art, and literature combine to make The Republic's Sunday Magazine a specially attractive weekly magazine The half tone illustrations printed in this magazine surpass anything ever attempted by a newspaper. These products of photography are worth the price of the paper. Special articles by trained writers on the news and the subjects engaging the public attention are prepared for The Republic's Sunday Magazine. A distinctly useful and attractive feature of this magazine is the fashion department. Always reliable and up with the times, the ladies find the fashion page a delight. Indeed, The Republic's Sunday Magazine appeals to every member of the family.

The subscription price of the Semi Weekly Republic is $1.00 per year. The Republic Sunday Magazine $1 25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the very low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time.

Address all orders to THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.
