FROM ANGUS.

(Bonito Valley Items.)

Correspondence.

Since the McIvers Co. have completed the road to their claims they have reduced their working force to fifteen men who are doing assessment work principally.

P. G. Peters has burned several pits of charcoal this winter and spring and he now is digging a small kiln in a bluff preparatory to burning lime. It seems to be difficult to get good rock for the purpose. The best lime is made from the mountain limestone of the subcarboniferous formation which is free of magnesium which as I understand it is an inert substance that interferes with best results. In a section like these mountains where nearly all the formations are exposed we ought to be able to secure the best of rock for lime. This mountain limestone is the formation that has the principal rayes of the world.

A small select party from the post Capitan and up the Bonito met by agreement last Sunday at the Clifts just above the brewery, learn they had an enjoyable basket picknic.

J. M. Rice expects to go to Chicago shortly, and his two daughters will remain in the camp while he is away.

This is the time of the year when the gardener wishes for some automatic appliance to attach to the festive hen which will automobile hen out of the garden when she commences to scratch.

Most of the pears, plums and peaches are now in bloom. The cherry and crab are just commencing to bloom. Not a bloom is to be seen in the apple orchards.

BASE BALL.

The White Oaks Base Ball Club was organized, by the lovers of the great national game in this city, last Saturday night. John Gallacher was chosen President of the club and Phil Flint Sec. & Treas, Jas Lee Captain of the team. The first practice game will be played Sunday, beginning at 2:00 o'clock. Lee has not yet selected permanently all the members of his crack team, but will do so as soon as possible after the club begins its practice games.

EAGLE CREEK NEWS,

Correspondence.

Our vicinity was blessed with a good rain this week, which is greatly appreciated by the farmer and will be a great help to planted crops and early grass.

Green brothers lost about 50 head of goats in the snow storm the 17th inst. John Hightower also lost quite a number. They had just finished shearing and the animals had almost no protection at all from a ten inch snow and its consequent cold.

The weather is fine now and there is an abundance of water for irrigation purposes.

A number of our people are attending court this week.

Jack Lacey's horse fell with him in a chase after a steer in the White Mountains Sunday and bruised him considerably.

The farmers are most of them through planting corn. There is a large acreage of oats and barley this year, and both promise a splendid yield.

Five families came in to this neighborhood last week from Brown County, Texas, and intend settling in the White Mountains, near here. There is plenty of room and thousands of acres of good land in these mountains for the homeseeker, and homes may be had for the homesteaders fee which is almost for the asking. What we need just at present is more people, that is, the right kind of people to open a new country populating it with schools and churches backed up by permanent homes occupied by the successful farmer and ranchman.

Road Supervisor Rarie made an attempt to work the road between Angus and Eagle Creek; 15 men were warned and only 3 including warner answered the roll call. People are too busy planting to work the roads at this time. Your scribe would suggest that the boys pay the supervisor $3.00 and allow him to hire his own labor.

NO MORE OLD FASHIONED APPLES

HOT HOUSE PRICES OF FRUITS WOULD MAKE OUR GRANDFATHERS STARE.

From the New York Sun.

"If you want a rare fruit and don't mind expense, buy apples," said the proprietor of a retail fruit store that caters to New York's most exclusive trade. Hot house grapes and winter strawberries are common enough, but I give you my word, half the time we can't get first class apples at any price.

"I don't know what's wrong. The old orchards are played out and new ones haven't been planted to take their place, and the trees that are bearing don't get the proper care.

"Why, I can remember when delicious, juicy, sound apples were a drug on the market. Every one kept a few barrels of apples in his cellar; and, with a little sorting, the fruit was good all winter.

"The only good apples we get come from Oregon. They are packed in small quantities in boxes, and they keep fairly well. We've handled 1,000 boxes of them this winter, and we get from 50¢ to $1.60 a dozen. What would our great grandfathers have thought if they had been asked to pay $1.60 a dozen for apples?

"It's a pity for more reasons than one that apples are getting scarce. A physician was talking about it in here just the other day. He will have apples no matter what he has to pay for them, and he says they are the most wholesome fruit any one can eat. His children are allowed to have all the apples they want, and he says that if all children were allowed to eat apples whenever they felt like it, there wouldn't be half so much sickness among them.

"Maybe that's one of the reasons children used to be healthier than they are now. I remember when I was a youngster I always had apples in my pockets, and so did every other boy, but we didn't often see candy. Then in the evening at home there was always a big silver bowl of shiny apples on the sitting room table, and everybody in the family ate at least one or two during the evening. That sort of thing would bankrupt a millionaire nowadays.

Complaints presented by [illegible] stating that the census Enumerator in Precinct No 2 was not correct and asking that a new census be taken. The action of the Court sustained of the Enumerator's report.

Whereas it is common experience that the granting of saloon licenses to carry on business for the purpose of selling liquors to traders and other employees along the right of way of railroads being constructed is productive of great crime and heavy costs to taxpayers far in excess of revenues derived therefrom

Now therefore, be it resolved by this Board sitting in and for the County of Lincoln, Territory of New Mexico that no license shall be granted to carry on the saloon business within four miles of the right of way of any railroad being constructed in this county during the construction thereof, and that every person applying for license to sell intoxicating liquors shall state accurately in his application the section of land upon which he desires to conduct such business. This to apply to the [illegible] north of the town of Carrizozo
