FEDERAL RULING MADE IN FAVOR OF SENATOR W. H. ANDREWS

Comptroller of Treasury Decided That Territory Must Pay the Expenses af Gentleman as Statehood Lobbyist, Also Salary as Senator.

A special from Washington, says: The comptroller of the treasury rendered a decision yesterday which is in effect that when a citizen of a territory comes to Washington as the representative of that territory and lobbies for a bill whose passage will benefit the territory, the territorial government must pay his expenses. This decision was rendered by the comptroller in the case of William H. Andrews of New Mexico, who came to Washington at the last session of congress and lobbied for the omnibus statehood bill.

Mr. Andrews was formerly a Pennsylvanian. He was for many years the chief lieutenant of Senator Quay in Pennsylvania politics and served in the Keystone state legislature and held other state offices. A few years ago he went to New Mexico and began the construction of a railroad through the territory. Later he entered politics and last year was elected a member of the New Mexico senate. When the statehood agitation was started he joined Delegate Rodey here and with him planned New Mexico's campaign. It was generally understood that if the statehood bill was passed Mr. Rodey and Mr. Andrews would be the new state's first senators. Mr. Andrews however, based his support of the statehood project on higher and more impersonal ground. He did much effective work for the statehood bill. He was personally acquainted with nearly all of the eastern senators and camped on the trail of the doubtful ones, finally bringing some of them off the fence into the statehood ranks. He returned to New Mexico grievously disappointed over the defeat of the statehood bill.

Arriving in Santa Fe, Mr. Andrews filed with the treasurer of the territory a bill for his expenses during his stay in Washington. He had been living at the New Willard, where the rates are high, and his expenses were large. The treasurer refused to pay the bill for the reason that he had no authority to do so. He passed it on up to the comptroller of the treasury for a decision. It was admitted that Andrews had come to Washington as the representative of New Mexico. The comptroller decided that the expense account was a vslid one and that it must be paid. The torritorial treasurer also had refused to pay Andrews his salary as a member of the New Mexico senate for the time he was absent, and in this he was sustained by the comptroller.

VETERANS

Annual Encampment of New Nexico Department of Grand Army to be Held

DURING PRESIDENT'S VISIT

The Grand Army of the Republic, New Mexico department, is going to help Albuquerque celebrate the visit of President Roosevelt as well as assist in the entertainment of the distinguished guest. This was decided at a meeting of the council of administration last night in the office of Department Commander J. W. Edwards. The purpose of the meeting was to name the place of meeting for the next annual camp fire and as Raton was the only city in the territory outside of Albuquerque that had put in a bid for the encampment it was decided to hold the annual event here and to make it on May 5 and 6 on one of which days President Roosevelt will be in the city for a brief visit. The arrangements made by the council last night will be of advantage all around as it will give the veterans the advantage of the low rates that the railroads are going to make on account of the visit of the president and at the same time bring the encampment here when the city is particularly lively.

Delinquent Taxes.

Council bill No. 88, passed by the Thirty-fifth legislative assembly, and approved by the governor, provides that all delinquent taxes prior to 1902 shall be paid into the general county and general school funds. Section 2, of chapter 52, of the laws of 1899, provided that the delinquent taxes of 1896 and 1897 be distributed one-half into the general county and one-half into the general school funds.

Stupendous Task.

Secretary of War Root has embarked in a new work. It is generous, patriotic work. By his direction the war department has begun the compiling and publishing of a complete roster of the efficers and enlisted men of the union and confederate armies. This is the secretary's own project, and he succeeded in impressing congress with the idea that it would be only just and fair to the south to place on the official lists the names of the confederate soldiers, in order that their descendants may trace their family history with accuracy.

The publication will be enormous in size, including no less than thirty volumes as large as the rebellion records. The northern names will be published with the southern because it is desired to have all of these data in one compilation instead of being scattered through various state books. Moreover it is felt to be a graceful thing to bracket the names of the men who wore the blue and the gray. In order to carry out this purpose Secretary Root has asked the governors of the states which furnished confederate soldiers to transmit to him authentic records in order that the list may be accurate.

An Immence Cave.

Willard Taylor recently discovered an immense cave on the right bank of the Frisco river which contains a vast deposit of guano, says the Copper Era. In prospecting in the cave, Mr. Taylor discovered many interesting relics of prehistoric races, such as bows, arrows, utensils, baskets woven from bark, cotton twine and knitted cloth from both cotton and grass. He also found a large amount of corn cobs, which would indicate that the aborigines who once inhabited these caves were somewhat familiar with the art of agriculture.

Killing At Tucumcari.

J. E. Wharton, who was employed to prosecute the men who killed Carroll, Huffman and Woodard at Tucumcari, last week returned home from there Sunday morning. From him we get the following facts regarding that affair.

The men who did the killing were Jack Meyers, deputy Sheriff and Constable at Tucumcari, Lou Keeper who had been in the Saloon business upon the Dawson railroad, John Young, son of a ranchman near Clayton, New Mexico, and who had been Keeper's bartender, and Val Kearnes, an ex-United States Soldier in the Philippines, and whose father is principal of the high School at Clayton, New Mexico.

The proof deduced at the preliminary trial, showed that Jack Meyers and Curly Carroll had had a difficulty some time ago, that on the afternoon before the killing that night, this old trouble between Carroll and Meyers had been renewed; and that by reason of that trouble, Meyers made repeated threats against Carroll; or repeatedly to his (Meyer's) friends that he or Carroll must die within the next ten days and it would not be him.

The killing occurred at Carroll's saloon and dance hall at about 12 o'clock at night. Before the killing Lou Keeper, John Young, Val Kearnes and Jack Meyers visited Carroll's saloon and were drinking considerably at the time. Kenneth Woodard, who afterwards was killed, was dancing with a girl called Grace O'Neil, with whom, Young, as the proof showed, was infatuated. Young had not known Woodard before, but became offended at the woman for dancing with him and declared repeatedly that he would kill Woodard, trying at the time to borrow a pistol. Keeper also, as proved at the preliminary hearing, because Carroll would not cash a check for him which he presented, became angry and somewhat vile and abusive on account of it. Carroll trying to allay his anger by telling him he hadn't enough money to cash his check, but that he would loan him what money he had.

These men, Meyers, Keeper, Young and Kearnes, then left Carroll's saloon and went to town. They next showed up at Street's saloon, where Keeper went behind the bar and got three pistols, taking them over the protests of the barkeeper who did not know to whom they belonged. When they were armed they stated that they were going down to Carroll's place and that the "big thing would come off.

In a few minutes they appeared at Carroll's saloon, rushing into the house, drawing and flourishing their pistols and violently abusing Carroll. There were twelve or fifteen persons present who immediately rushed from the building in various directions in expectation that shooting would result. One of the women did not leave the building, however, but took refuge behind the piano and saw the shooting.

Carroll and Huffman who were present begged these men to be quiet and to go on and dance and not to raise any disturbance, repeatedly saying that they did not want trouble. While they were thus talking the house was cleared and the shooting commenced, Carroll being shot by Young and Keeper. When they began shooting, Carroll ran towards the back door, trying to draw his pistol, as he ran, but did not succeed until just before he fell mortally wounded about fifteen feet from the back door of the building.

When Carrol had been killed, some or all of these men turned their weapons on Huffman, who shot to death fell near the back door, and next on Woodard who came down mortally wounded near the front door. A Mexican musician at the piano was also shot through both hands while trying to get away from the scene of the fight.

These men were given a preliminary hearing before Dr. Pearson, Justice of the Peace, the territory being represented by J. E. Wharton and F. C. Matteson and the defendants by Orin E. Smith of Clayton. After a thorough investigation of the charges made the defendants were held without bail to wait the action of the grand jury.

The new county of Quay having no jail the prisoners were sent to the penetentiary at Santa Fe, for safe keeping.

W. S. Hopewell Looking For Coal For Santa Fe Central.

W. S. Hopewell, of the Santa Fe Central, was a north bound passenger yesterday morning after a night in the city. Mr. Hopewell is going to inspect the coal field along the line of the Central and he has with him an expert Dr. Charles R. Keyes, of the New Mexico school of mines at Socorro. The railroad man and the expert will drive from Las Cerrillos to the coal field where they will spend several days. Dr. Keyes is recognized as a competent mining expert and his decisions are expected to have considerable influence on railroad construction in these parts.

Mr. Hopewell has nothing to say at present concerning track laying on the new line. It is understood that he contemplates a survey of the proposed line to Roswell from Torrance to be begun in the near future.—Citizen.

The Eagle charges nothing for saying to Mr. Hopewell, that if he builds on to Roswell, his company may obtain all the coal wanted near the line in Lincoln county. And for that matter the White Oaks field is nearer Torrance than any other coal in reach of them.

Rebels of Mindanao Slaughter Americans.

The War is Not Over in the Philippine Islands.

The town of Suriago in the Northeastern part of the island of Mindanao, was captured yesterday by ladrones, who killed Constabulary Inspector Clark and several others. A detachment of thirty men, belonging to the Tenth infantry, under the command of Lieutenants Patterson and Brown, is hurrying from Ilogan, on the northwest coast of Mindanao, to Suriago, on the transport Riley, with orders to re-capture that place. Brig. General Sumner, commanding the department of Mindanao, has been ordered to send two additional companies of troops to Suriago. It is reported that the ladrones are holding the town, but details of the fight have not been received. The fate of the white officials and other foreigners, is not known. If they have been captured vigorous measures will be taken to rescue them.

This is the first time American troops have been used since peace with the Moros was declared.

Governor Taft and General Davis are going to Jolo for a conference with the sultan and leading Mores of Jolo in the hope of averting trouble. They will leave here Wednesday. No advices have been received from Jolo since Saturday. The situation there is regarded as being critical.

One of the many factors contributing to the remarkably rapid and solid growth of St. Louis is the marvelous development of the Southwest and other territory tributary to that city in all lines of trade. In 1904 there will be held the greatest World's Fair in the world. The presidential campaign will also take place. To keep informed with the whole world you should subscribe at once for that peer of newspapers, the Twice-a-week St. Louis Republic. It is indispensable to the farmer, merchant or professional man. Its telegraphic and cable service excels that of any other paper. It prints the news fully, not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and worldwide facts. It is Democratic in politics, but distinctly a national newspaper and family journal. The subscription price of $1.00 gives you two papers each week, 104 papers a year.

THURSDAYS $1.50

THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1903.

The United States treasury has to its credit $645,000,000.

The legislative session just ended enacted one hundred and twenty two laws.

Castro has withdrawn his resignation of the presidency of Venezuela.

It is now predicted that Beaumont oil will go up to $1.00 per barrel this summer.

H. F. M. Bear has purchased C. E. Mason's interest in the Roswell Record. Mr. Mason has bought the Roswell Register and is editor and proprietor.

Many new rich gold strikes are reported from the Coeur D'Alane district of Idaho. There is a considerable rush of investors to that district.

William McCarthy is buying horses for the North Dakota market. He is shipping 1,000 head from Roswell, Chaves county, this week.

The strike commission awards an increase of about 10 per cent to coal miners. The labors of the commission are ended and the result is considered a victory for organized labor.

Juaraz Mexico, following the example of her neighbor on the American side of the Rio Grande has purged herself of the hoodlum element on the main streets of the city and has closed up the saloons and dance halls on Sundays.

C. E. Mason has purchased the Roswell Register. The chief attraction in the first issue under the new management is the extended biography of the retiring veteran of the quill. Most republican papers are long on biography, but the Register, under Mr. Mason, should be awarded the ribbon.

An Eight Hour Day.

The Arizona Legislature has passed a law making 8 hours a day's work for miners working under ground. This has been the rule in Arizona union camps for some time and only smaller camps will really be affected by the law. We notice some Arizona papers kicking they allege this is going to seriously retard foreign investment. Such argument appears to us as moonshine what is the difference whether the law is enforced by the state or by the unions.

Prosperous Republic.

The neighboring republic of Mexico is just now enjoying a great boom. Capital is pouring in for the development of her industries, and prosperity and enterprise is the order of the day, says the Albuquerque Citizen. Is it possible? And Mexico is doing business on a silver basis too. The Citizen says further

As a silver-producing country Mexico has a prestig equaled by none. In the fiscal year of 1900-1901 her output of silver was equivalent to 74,000,000 silver dollars. Her total output of silver to date is estimated at 3,000,000,000, an enormous sum. Much of that was produced when silver was high, and it went to enrich the coffers of Spain and other European countries.

Now Mexico is turning hopefully to her unknown and unexplored stores of gold and other valuable minerals. The flow of American capital Mexicanward is steadily increasing and if the government is careful to give honest encouragement to American miners and capitalists the country will be developed for her without trouble and without cost, but with great resultant advantage.

In ten years Mexico's output of gold has steadily increased from about a half million dollars to nine million and a quarter in 1900-1901. Last year's figures are not as yet made public, but it is believed they will show an increase.

Cost of Anthracite Strike.

The cost of the anthracite coal miners' strike is estimated to be as follows: To the mine owners, $40,000,000; to the mine employes in wages, $25,000,000; to the transportation companies, $25,000,000; a total of nearly $100,000,000. This is an enormous loss. But the loss to the public in general, who were, in fact, the principal sufferers, as is always the case, was vastly greater.

A Ruse.

It is now newspaper talk that Standard Oil magnates are planning the defeat of the boom for Roosevelt's re-nomination. The Rockefeller, Gould, Harriman interests are alleged to be against him.

It is unreasonable to suppose that these interests oppose the president's re-nomination, just as unreasonable in fact, as it is to presume that Roosevelt is an enemy to trusts which every Body in this country knows to be a hoax.

Of course it is not impossible that these interests may be better served by some one else than by Mr. Roosevelt, but we would rather believe that this little bit of newspaper athletics has been started for the purpose of aiding instead of injuring the president's chances for a re-nomination.

Utilization of Slack Coal.

A man in Gallup has about solved the problem of utilizing the slack coal for fuel, compressing it into blocks and thus rendering it susceptible of handling. Completed, this new process will be of considerable benefit to the country and will bring about a great saving in fuel.

Corpse of a Giant

Considerable excitement and curiosity was created at the depot last Thursday evening when No. 10 of the Southern Pacific arrived. The express agent at this point had been notified beforehand that a corpse fifteen feet long, four feet wide and the same number of feet in width, weighing 500 pounds, was coming on the train and would have to be transferred to the Santa Fe, being billed to Omaha, says the Herald-light. The train came and the corpse, after some heavy lifting, was got off the express car on to the truck. A crowd gathered and tried to look through the many holes in the side of the box to see the corpse. Finally Officer King flashed his lantern into the box and all saw the petrified corpse of a shark. It was dug out of the old river bed at Yuma.

Would Steal The President.

A negro in South Dakota unfolds a plan of kidnappers to purloin Roosevelt and a part of his cabinet, as they cross the continent on their much advertised tour to the Pacific coast.

An aged negro orator, J. C. Fremont, of Watertown, S. D., a well known representative of the colored race, who, at the close of the civil war, was president of a society that sent many negros back to Africa, lectured in Winona Minn. last week on the "Race Problem," and while there called on Congressman Tawney and asked for a private interview.

He stated that he had a communication which he desired the congressman to convey to the President, to the effect that he had come into possession of information that a plan had been made to attempt the life of President Roosevelt on his western trip but this had been abandoned and instead the plotters were planning at some favorable point in Montana or Colorado to kidnap the President, Secretary of Treasury Shaw, Secretary of War Root and Attorney General Knox and carry them to the mountains to be held for suitable ransom.

Look's Good.

It now appears reasonably certain that the 25,000 shares of Comrey Oil stock on the market will be taken in a block by one purchaser. The purchaser has been on the ground and is buying from his own knowledge of the prospects. This sale if consumated, will probably give the company sufficient funds to purchase machinery and finish the well.

To day's sand storm is the worst in the history of the county. Wind not so furious as at other times, but more sand.

Lincoln County Ranch Sold.

El Capitan Land and Cattle Company Have Sold Ranch and Cattle.

A special dispatch to the Denver News from Kansas City says:

Negotiations for the sale of the El Capitan Land and Cattle company's ranches near Richardson, N. M., to a syndicate headed by W. A. Johnson of Buckner, Mo., have been concluded in this city. The purchase price is $100,000 cash. The transaction has been pending for some time. For the purpose of completing the deal Henry Arlington of New York, president of the El Capitan company and Thomas J. Pridemore, resident manager of the ranches, were in Kansas City all of last week conferring with Mr. Johnson and his associates. While no formal deeds have been given to the property the sale is considered completed.

The sale includes ranch property, leases, equipment, a general store at Richardson, N. M., and a guarantee of 25,000 cattle. The contract provides a stated price for cattle exceeding 25,000 and a forfeit for each head falling below that number. The brand of the El Capitan company is known as three boxes on the side.

Went Away Drunk.

Allen Chalk, an old resident of Alamogordo, met death near that place Friday night in a tragic manner. He with a number of friends were riding horseback from La Luz to Alamogordo. Chalk had been drinking freely and was spurring his horse about in a very ridiculous manner. His horse stumbled and fell, throwing its unfortunate rider to the ground. He struck on his head and was dead when his friends reached him a few moments later. The fall broke his neck. The body was taken to Alamagordo and buried.

Going to Parrall.

Henry Bitsch, who has been engaged with Chris. Yaeger in the Lone mountain copper claims for the past two years, has finished his assessments and is going to Parrall, Mexico, where he has leased a silver mine. Mr. Bitsch says his property runs 50 ozs. silver and near the railroad, so he intends cleaning up some money during the next twelve months.

Estey, the chief promoter of the Estey Mining & Milling Co., and founder of Estey City, and builder of the big copper leaching plant at that place, is going to return there and aid the managers to successfully operate the company's plant, which has been idle for several month's because of the scarcity of water with which to operate the leaching process.

Mr. Estey is now negotiating through H. C. Crory of White Oaks to secure competent drillers, and machinery of sufficient capacity to sink for water. He intends to begin drilling near the Mocking Bird group as soon as it is possible to do so.

Glencoe Notes.

Regular Correspondence.

B. J. Bonnell of this place is going to farm Frank Coe's place this year.

J. F. Allison of this place has gone to Alamogordo with a load of fruit for his father in law.

John Grayson and Axel Jargensen came over from Fort Stanton last Sunday on a visit.

Willie T. Coe of this place left for Saturday for the mountains where he will work for a few months.

Misses Annie and Winnie Coe are expecting to attend the grand ball at Fort Stanton on the 3rd of April.

Born. To Mr. and Mrs. Minter, of this place, a fine boy. Mother and babe are getting along fine but I think we will have to send for the doctor for him.

There is a scarcity of news in Glencoe at present, but what there is will be appreciated perhaps by the readers of the EXPOSITOR.

Harry Wright who has been working for the Glencoe Fruit Farm, left Friday for Fort Stanton. We all miss him very much in Glencoe.

Miss Pearl Burditt will leave here Monday for her home in Tularosa. We regret to see Miss Burditt leave, as she is one half the life of Glencoe.

The farmers are getting their grounds ready for planting. They think the early fruit is killed, but if there is no more cold weather the late varieties will be abundant.

The Glencoe school will be out on the 27th of this month. There was a good school here this winter. The children are all pleased with their school and teacher, Miss Pearl Burditt, and would like to have her teach next winter and spring.

J. N. Coe is on a business trip to Roswell. He expects to return as soon as possible and bring his daughter, Mrs. H. A. Jargensen, who has been visiting with her sister for several months past, back with him.

Jicarilla News.

Regular Correspondence.

E. H. Talbot has completed his new hotel, which insures visitors good accommodations. It was badly needed.

Pankey, Curtis and Parker are sinking on their contract, which they have from Mr. Hatfield.

The Free Gold Mining and Milling company are sinking a shaft to cut a pay streak which they encountered in sinking a well. They expect to cut the vein with twenty feet more of work.

Mr. Ellis has bonded for one year the Prospect mining claim, which has a very good showing. Some rich ore has been taken out and milled at the old Glass mill which netted good returns. The price to be paid is $5,000.

Brotherton, Haviland and Knight have sold their placer claims to the Free Gold Mining and Milling company. The property consists of thirteen claims on Rico gulch and adjoining the Birch claims.

Hatfield, Talbot and others are contemplating putting in a telephone line from here to the pump in Ancho gulch, which is owned by the railroad company. They will then have a line to the station.

W. A. McIvers is expected here any day to begin work on the claims which he recently bonded from different parties. The principal claims are Five from Frost & Winston and two from W. W. Fitzpatrick. All the claims are promising.

Mr. Chinn is doing some work on the west side of Monument Peak. He is liable to strike a bonanza, as that side of the Peak is believed to be rich in gold, silver and copper, and has been prospected but very little. He is also looking out for more ground on the east side.

There is a good outlook for this camp the coming summer and fall, with the prospect of it developing into a second Cripple Creek, for with development I believe it can be done. That there has been considerable work done there, is very true, but it has not been of the kind to develop at any depth, but now that capital is taking hold depth will be reached when the treasure vaults believed to exist will be opened, and the Cripple Creek miners cry will be heard of the world over.

E. Fox, manager of the Hawkeye, has bonded some claims from George Weisher at the head of Rico gulch. Did not learn how many or the amount of the consideration, but Mr. Fox intends to spend about $5,000 on development work. A great many think the flour gold in Rico gulch came from that vicinity.

Alto.

Regular Correspondence.

E. W. Peebles has gone, with several teams, to work on the railroad.

Matt Gilmore has gone to his father's ranch in Dona Ana county on a ten days visit.

Dr. Lawrence, a dentist of Roswell, was doing dental work in the vicinity the past week.

The people in this part of the woods have commenced work in earnest, some have had corn planted for ten days past.

Messrs. Seay and Dunn, of Roswell, stopped over night in Alto this week enroute to their ranch in Otero county.

A fine rain yesterday that insures a good stand of corn, and all kinds of seeds that have been planted will be sure to come up.

The Capitan Progress in its write up of Lincoln county, overlooked Alto. Alto is improving all the same. Two shingle mills, two grist mills, one saw mill and two physicians.

The Dangers of Knocking.

Secretary Shaw detests "knockers," who constantly rail against men and measures, and he tells a story to illustrate the danger of doing that sort of thing. It happened out in Iowa that a lawyer was trying a case before a jury, and a young man was called to the witness stand. The lawyer started out to show that the young man belonged to a worthless family. He asked the usual question as to name, residence etc., and then asked

"What does your father do?"

"Oh, nothing much."

"Isn't it a fact that your father is commonly known as a loafer?"

"I don't know," replied the young man. "Maybe you better ask him. He is on the jury in this case." Washington Post

Stock Talk

From Deming Headlight

The Lyons & Campbell Commission Co., are in the maket for four or five thousand head of steers. The prices they are buying at are a little low for this section, being $14, $17 and $20.00.

M. D. Roberts of Separ sold his output to Lyons & Campbell, of Silver City, last Wednesday $15, $18 and $21, no cheap cattle nor cattlemen in this section. Mr. Roberts will have a large delivery to make this year as he did not sell last year.

Quite a number of remarks are heard occasionally to the effect that scrub cattle can be made to gain as much per day on feed as blooded cattle. That may be possible, but it does not amount to any thing. The plain, every day, ordinary steers, 1,400 pounds average, sold in Chicago at $4.40 per 100 pounds, or $61.60 per head, whereas high-grade cattle no fatter and of the same weight sold on the same market at $5.45 per 100 pounds or $79.30 per head. It would appear that fifteen dollars is not a bad premium to get for a little quality. Had the lower-grade cattle been actual scrubs the difference would have been greater. Scrub cattle don't often get the chance to live long enough to weigh 1,400 pounds per head.

February 23, 1903.

Notice is hereby given that William S.
