CARRIZOZO AGAIN WINS IN SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court of the Territory handed down a decision Saturday in the county seat case, in this county, and adhered to its former decision, awarding the county seat to Carrizozo. The following is the opinion:

“ON REHEARING.

“This case was decided at the last term of court. A rehearing was had at the present term and the cause re-submitted to all the Justices qualified to sit in the case, including Associate Justice Roberts, who has since the former hearing come upon the bench.

“In the former opinion a quere was thrown out by the court as to whether the procedure by injunction was proper in cases of the kind and calling attention to the case of Torres vs. Board of County Commissioners decided at the last term. In the argument on rehearing counsel on both sides admit that injunction is a proper remedy in a case of this kind, and for that reason the court withdrew the intimation contained in the former opinion and assumes, for the purposes of the case, that the procedure is proper.

“In the former decision the court divided upon the question as to whether the petition for the election was in accordance with the act under which the county commissioners assumed to proceed. Upon this rehearing the court has carefully re-examined the question and finds no reason to recede from its former position.

“All the other questions in the case were fully examined in a former opinion and have been re-examined by the court on this rehearing and the court adheres to its former decision.”

The opinion was handed down by Associate Justice Parker, and Associate Justices Abbott and Roberts concurred. Chief Justice Pope and Associate Justice Wright dissented. Associate Justices Mechem and McFie did not participate in the decision, the former because he had heard the case below and the latter because he had not heard the argument.

This opinion settles all the law points involved in the case. The quo warranto and the injunction under it are the only features to be adjusted, so far as our courts are concerned. The recent decision, we are told, covers all the points that are presented in the quo warranto proceedings.

A Soldier of Fortune.

According to the most authentic information obtainable, Lincoln county has at least one soldier of fortune in the stirring war game now in operation in Mexico. He is operating a machine gun, so a letter that has been received here states. His name is P. E. Putney, who will be remembered for several years past as a member of the Fort Stanton baseball team. A continuous residence at the Fort becoming monotonous, and learning of the insurrection in Mexico, he got his discharge from Uncle Sam's Marine Hospital Service and hiked for the land of the mañana. He had served in the United States navy, where he was trained to operate quick-firing guns, and had no difficulty in securing a position as gunner at fifteen pesos per. Putney will, therefore, continue tossing balls, but not of the leather-covered variety. He is not a regularly enlisted soldier, which accounts for his high salary. In addition to his salary, he is promised, if his side is successful, a captain's commission, and this alone should sharpen his vision and be productive of an unerring aim.

Soldiers for the Border.

On Tuesday evening of this week a special train passed south bearing 150 United States cavalmen and mounts, bound for Fort Huachuca, Arizona, where they will be used to patrol the border. They came from Fort Mead, South Dakota. Early the next morning the second section passed, with a like number of men and horses; and still later two more sections followed. The men will be stationed, at intervals, from Texas to California, to guard the boundary line and to see that no enthusiastic Americans lend aid and comfort to the combatants.

ONLY ONE CHURCH IN TOWN

Single Place of Worship, Independent and Undenominational, Suffice for People of Proctor, Vt.

In the village of Proctor, Rutland county, Vt., the problem of church unity has been practically solved, says Suburban Life. Previous to its organization there had been no Protestant church in Proctor. There had been a chapel in which had been held Sunday school services for Protestants, but in 1889 the chapel burned and the people faced the question of rebuilding.

They felt that the time had come for a church organization, and the question arose as to whether they should separate and seek to build up Methodist and Congregational churches, those two denominations comprising the larger part of the communicants, or unite organically.

Having worked together harmoniously in the Sunday school they decided to attempt a real union church. That church was organized, has been in existence ever since, has been supplied by clergymen of both denominations and was never so harmonious, united and aggressive as it is today.

There is a modern church edifice built of marble valued at $35,000, and plans are now under way for the building of a parish house, for which a fund has been raised. The church policy is independent and undenominational.

The financial organization is an incorporated body whose membership includes some who are not members of the church. The regular business of the society is done through a board of six stewards, perpetuating a title and an office peculiar to Methodism. Thus there is a perfect blending of Methodist and Congregational methods in the governing board.

Proctor is a cosmopolitan village and there is in consequence a gathering of nationalities like that in Jerusalem on the Day of Pentecost. These people come from the uttermost parts of the earth, and that they are influenced by this model church is seen in the fact that in the membership are to be found English, Welsh, Manxmen, Hungarians, Swedes, Germans and Spanish, besides native born Americans. Yet they live together in unity. The Sunday school enrolls, besides those already mentioned, Italians, Poles and Finlanders; and the parish includes, with this heterogeneous aggregation, Norwegians, Bohemians and doubtless other nationalities.

His Opinion, Too.

The street railroad company in a New England town that is somewhat celebrated for its quietude leases the space on the back of its transfer slips for advertising purposes.

A New Yorker, who had made a visit to the town somewhat against his will and was much disgusted with the absolute lack of amusement, decided in desperation to take a car ride with his wife. On receiving his transfers he turned them over and read the advertisement in idle curiosity, then a smile spread over his face.

"There," he said, turning to his wife, "I told you this was the deadest town I ever saw, but I didn't suppose that the townsfolk knew it themselves. Just look at that!"

The advertisement for the current month happened to be that of a local undertaker.

FOR FRICASEE OF FOWL

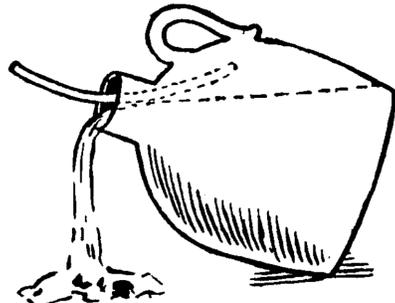

Directions by Which You Can Produce Dish That Will Make Hit With Father.

Take a fowl as plump and tender as you can get, clean it thoroughly and wash inside and out in saleratus water. Wipe dry, rub inside and out with dry saleratus, not too much, and let lay over night. The next morning wash off the soda, cut up, taking pains to disjoint it properly, put into a kettle and nearly cover with cold water. Rub first with salt, pepper and a little sage. Bring to a boil, then set back, closely covered, where it will just simmer until it is done. When it is very tender remove the chicken from the broth, keeping hot. Skim off all the fat from the liquor, set it where it will boil up well. Season more if needed, and add one pint of cream if possible, or rich milk. Let come to a boil, then draw to back of the stove and stir in quickly the well beaten yolk of an egg and a tablespoon of chopped parsley. Have the chicken arranged upon a platter, leaving a hollow in the center. Take hot cream of tartar biscuits, split and lay in the hollow upon the platter, and then pour the cream and egg gravy over chicken and biscuits and serve at once. A little rice may be added to the gravy, cooking well in the liquor before adding cream and egg. When this is done make crisp delicately browned triangles of toast and serve in place of the biscuits. Sometimes, when using the toast in place of the biscuits, fry thin, lean slices of bacon until they are crisp and golden brown, then arrange the toast upon the serving dish, place the bacon upon the toast and the chicken upon that, then pour the gravy over all, as usual.

WHEN THE FLOW IS SLOW

Method of Overcoming One Difficulty in Handling Liquids in Cold Weather.

In cold weather when liquids, such as molasses, syrups, boiled cider, etc., flow irregularly and slowly and one is in haste, insert a bent metal, rubber or glass tube in the receptacle above the liquid and half the time is needed to get the desired supply.

With Red Peppers.

Sweet red peppers are an improvement to the meat stew, pie or rag-out, to creamed fish dishes and to other entrees. Some persons use them with the canned corn which one must go back to for the winter. The peppers should be divested of their seeds and be shredded fine. They do not need long cooking. Some persons who use them in salads shred them in salted water for three or four minutes to make them a little more tender than if they are used uncooked. With cabbage salad they are delicious chopped fine without cooking. Stuffed with seasoned bread crumbs or rice and meat and baked they are at their best.

Apple Sauce Cake.

Cream one cup sugar, one-half cup shortening, and one-quarter teaspoon of salt, one-half teaspoon of cloves, one teaspoon of cassia, one-third teaspoon of nutmeg. Dissolve one teaspoon soda in a little hot water, add one cup sour apple sauce to it, letting it foam over ingredients. Add one and three-quarter cups flour, one cup raisins. Bake 45 minutes.

BABY'S HAIR ALL CAME OUT

"When my first baby was six months old he broke out on his head with little bumps. They would dry up and leave a scale. Then it would break out again and it spread all over his head. All the hair came out and his head was scaly all over. Then his face broke out all over in red bumps and it kept spreading until it was on his hands and arms. I bought several boxes of ointment, gave him blood medicine, and had two doctors to treat him, but he got worse all the time. He had it about six months when a friend told me about Cuticura. I sent and got a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. In three days after using them he began to improve. He began to take long naps and to stop scratching his head. After taking two bottles of Resolvent, two boxes of Ointment and three cakes of Soap he was sound and well, and never had any breaking out of any kind. His hair came out in little curls all over his head. I don't think anything else would have cured him except Cuticura."

"I have bought Cuticura Ointment and Soap several times since to use for cuts and sores and have never known them to fail to cure what I put them on. I think Cuticura is a great remedy and would advise any one to use it. Cuticura Soap is the best that I have ever used for toilet purposes." (Signed) Mrs. F. E. Harmon, R. F. AN OLD COLONIAL CAKE

Recipe for Yellow Loaf Said to Have Come From Family of Washington.

An old colonial recipe for yellow loaf cake, said to come originally from the family of George Washington, calls for one cupful of butter, two and a half cupfuls of granulated sugar, six eggs, a cupful of cream or rich milk, one even teaspoonful of soda, two of cream of tartar, four cupfuls of pastry flour and one cupful of seeded raisins. Cream the butter and sugar, then stir in the yolks of the eggs. Add the cream of tartar to the flour and sift them together several times. Add the soda to the milk and stir the mixture into the butter, sugar and yolks. Then beat the whole into the flour and cream of tartar. When smooth add the raisins and finally fold the whites of the eggs, whipped to a very stiff froth, through the batter. Do not stir the cake after the whites are added. Butter a large tube pan and fill it half full. After it has baked and become cold, ice it with a heavy snow white icing that will contrast prettily with the yellow of the cake. Citron sliced in thin strips may be used instead of raisins or in combinations with them.

This confection may be used as a birthday cake and is very attractive for the purpose.

TURPENTINE MOST USEFUL

All Sorts of Ways in Which It Can Be Used About the House.

Turpentine can be used in all sorts of ways. Here are some:

Spirits of turpentine will restore the brilliancy to patent leather. Bags and boots rubbed with a rag moistened with it look almost like new.

A few drops in boxes and cupboards will keep moths away.

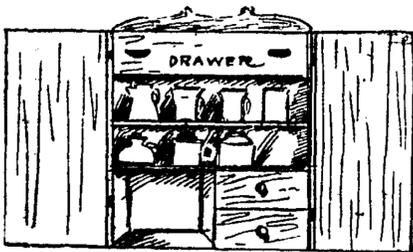

If a few drops are added to starch, it will prevent the iron from sticking.

A flannel dipped in hot water sprinkled with turpentine and laid on the part affected will often relieve lumbago and rheumatism.

Turpentine mixed with beeswax makes a good floor polish.

A little added to the steeping water (a tablespoonful to a gallon) makes clothes beautifully white.

HANDY KITCHEN CABINET

Pie Crust.

Put one pint of pastry flour, a little salt and a level teaspoon of baking powder into the sieve and sift. Then add two heaping tablespoons of lard and chop up with the spoon into chunks about the size of a nutmeg. The lard should be cold enough to be firm and the spoon heaped pretty high. Then add water by the spoonful until the flour is all taken up. It should be stiff enough to stay in shape. I consider pie crust more wholesome with a little raising in it. Common causes of tough pie crust are the use of bread flour, too little shortening, too much water and too hot a fire. The heat should be about the same as for cake.

Hard Sauce.

Beat less than one-quarter of a pound of butter with seven or eight tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, adding by degrees one wineglass of sherry. It should be white and light. When serving pie on a plate and dust nutmeg over the top.

MORPHINE RELIEVED PAIN--THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY RESTORES TO HEALTH

For the past few years I suffered greatly from what three physicians called neuralgia of the stomach. The doctors treated me without any success and I called in a fourth doctor, who pronounced my disease gall stones. I suffered intense pain and the only relief the doctor could give me was by injections of morphine. I was so completely discouraged that I had almost given up hope when a neighbor told me about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I decided to try it and began its use at once and after taking nine bottles was completely cured, not having a spell of sickness in over two years.

I have so much confidence in Swamp-Root that I never fail to recommend it to my friends who may have kidney trouble of any kind. I feel certain that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root saved my life, why should it not do likewise for others who take it in time?

Left Both Satisfied.

It all happened on one of those few surviving pay-after-you-enter cars.

"Oh, I insist on paying, Gladys," said the brunette. "You paid coming down."

"No. I shall pay," declared Gladys with equal firmness. "What if I did pay coming down—didn't you buy that last package of gum?"

"Let me settle the quarrel, ladies," suggested the diplomatic conductor. "Why not use the denatured form of Dutch treat?"

"What's that?"

"Well, you each pay the other's fare."

And that was the way they solved it.—Cleveland Leader.

His Ruling Passion.

The young man waited for the millionaire's reply.

"I don't blame you for wanting to marry my daughter," said the latter. "And now how much do you suppose you and she can worry along on?"

The youth brightened up.

"I—I think," he cheerfully stammered, "that $200,000 well invested, would produce a sufficient income."

The millionaire turned back to his papers.

"Very well," he said, "I will give you $100,000, providing you raise a similar amount."

And the young man went away sorrowing.

A Discouraging View.

"We must investigate this affair," said the rural official.

"What's the use?" responded Farmer Corntossel. "I never saw an investigation that changed anybody's personal likes and dislikes."

SLIGHT DIFFERENCE.

"Me mudder t'ought I'd be a cap'n of industry."

"You missed it, eh?"

"Yep; I became a major general of indolence!"

Ended the Controversy.

On the steeple of an old Universalist church in Bath, Me., there is a wooden figure of an angel. It is not a remarkably fine specimen of art, and has always been somewhat laughed about, especially because of its high-heeled shoes. The Bath Enquirer recalls the story that a former pastor of the North Congregational church once accosted a devoted Universalist with the question: "Mr. Raymond, did you ever see an angel with high-heeled shoes on its feet?" "Why, no," answered Mr. Raymond, "I can't say that I ever did; but did you ever see one without them?"

Proposed Auto Line.

It is reported that the post office department is seriously considering the question of establishing an auto mail line from Tularosa to Roswell. The proposed line is to run by way of the Mescalero agency, and down the Ruidoso and Hondo valleys. It is also stated that the department is considering establishing a branch auto service in this direction.

This is a matter in which the people of Lincoln county are vitally interested, and all should pull together to accomplish this much desired end. The establishment of these two lines would mean much better mail facilities, as well as a quicker means of transportation to a large part of the population of Lincoln county. The postoffices along the proposed routes would receive mail from two to three days earlier than they now do, and the convenience that would accrue to our citizens is apparent at first glance.

For a number of years the government has maintained an auto mail service between Torrance and Roswell, and later between Vaughn and Roswell, both longer routes than from Carrizozo to Roswell, with practically no intermediate postoffices to serve.

On the proposed new routes, something like eighteen or twenty postoffices could be served, giving a vast number of people their mail the same day it left the railroad, from either the east or west end of the line.

By the establishment of these lines a letter mailed here in the morning would reach any postoffice in the county on the day it was mailed. Residents at postoffices along the line could get their daily papers on the date they were published. It would mean more than that. It would mean bringing the people of the county together—a closer association—all to the good for a union of thought and action, a stimulus for better action and a better understanding, so essential to the advancement of the interests of all parts of the county. Let us get together and work for the establishment of these lines.

Ed. Othfer of White Oaks is doing his annual assessment work in this camp.

M. McBrayer is working on the Wisconsin company's claims near Ancho canyon.

Joe Ross is getting even with his work of assessments on his many claims here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper made a trip to White Oaks, also to Ancho, this week.

Ed. Wilson went to Carrizozo Saturday for a load of lumber to build a derrick over his well.

Mrs. Margaret R. Norton, who has been battling with la grippe for several weeks, is again enjoying good health.

Ted Reasoner has quit the "coal diggin' brigade" at the Old Abe, and is now working at the Gold Stain in Jicarilla.

Several sheepmen have moved their live stock from the vicinity of Picacho to the excellent grazing land east of Jack's Peak, where both grass and water is plenty.

It is reported that Merchant Deal, of Ancho, is preparing to move his stock of goods to the building lately occupied by Geo. Thorp, as a saloon, in Jicarilla. It is known here whether Mr. Deal intends to add a line of wet goods to his general stock.

There is some excellent ore being taken out of the Hawkeye. For a bona fide mining proposition the Hawkeye would be hard to beat in any locality. The owners are getting in shape to do some extensive developing in the next few weeks. Results tell.

There is a rumour that there is to be a mill put in, near the Wisconsin company's property, in the near future, for the reduction of the ores taken from the Gold Stain and other mines belonging to that company. It is hoped it may not prove to be a dumb mill entirely. The ores are of known values, and if the mill is of the kind best adapted to extracting the "yellow stuff," there will be something doing in the Jicarillas this year.

Government Still Holds Juarez.

Despite reports a week ago that the insurrectos had captured Juarez, the city is still in possession of the Mexican government. The city, however, is surrounded by the insurrecto forces, several slight skirmishes have occurred and an early assault on the city is anticipated.

A Mother Party.

On Friday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Ulrich gave a "Mother Party" for the young matrons and their husbands of the Whist Club. The ladies were gowned in evening toilets, and the house en fete to receive them. Whist was the diversion, intermingled with anecdotes and story telling. Mirth-inspiring experiences and original recitals kept the rooms resounding with laughter throughout the entire evening. The score cards were frontispiced by a picture of some beautiful and famous woman, the inside folio containing selected poems about "Mother," the last page being left blank for the tally sheet.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kimbell won the first prize, a volume of Opie Read's works. Mrs. Roland won the ladies booby prize, a silver-handled darning egg. Mr. John Bell, the gentlemen's booby, a silver shoehorn.

After refreshments were served "like mother used to make," a draw for a consolation prize was given, Mr. Art Rolland drawing the ace, entitling him to the trophy, a home-made newspaper and magazine rack.

The personnel of the party included Mr. and Mrs. Whittingham, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Kimbell, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Art Rolland, Mr. Albert Ziegler, and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Ulrich.

The young ladies and their escorts of the club will be entertained at a "laugh-a-minute" party by Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich this evening.

Leslie Read, who has been teaching school at Richardson, came through Carrizozo Wednesday night on his way to Mesa, Arizona. He was in receipt of a wire which stated that his father was dangerously sick.

Daniel Grigsby, a business man of Duran and who has a partial acquaintance in this section, lost a foot Tuesday night. He was crossing the track in front of No. 4 passenger train, and in some way was caught and the wheel cut off one of his feet.

John Y. Hewitt, one of the directors of the White Oaks school, at the beginning of the term offered a premium of five dollars for perfect attendance. Aileen Wells, Florence Current, and Edward Towleron received the prize, in presenting which Mr. Hewitt gave the pupils a pleasant and encouraging talk.

— CAPITAN, N. M. —

On the Firing Line.

W. M. Reilly and A. T. Roberts went to El Paso Saturday and returned Monday night. They wanted to get some war information at first hand. Sunday they went across the river in autos, in company with Ex-Governor Curry, Tom Tucker, Ira O. Wetmore and a number of others. They proceeded down the railroad to Bauche, fifteen miles below Juarez, to the position occupied by the insurrectos. This brought them near the scene of battle where the train bearing federal troops had been derailed—in fact, so near that the federal troops began pumping lead at them. Seeking shelter as best they could, behind rocks and in ditches, they finally reached the camp of the insurrectos. Not being prepared for war and having no desire to stop a bullet intended for an insurrecto, they made a hasty retreat, in good order, without the loss of a man, and returned to the protecting folds of "Old Glory."

Former Lincoln County Man Killed.

The El Paso Herald contains the following account of the killing of John Lathem, who formerly lived at Nogal: "Magdalena, N. M., Feb. 5.—Eighteen miles northwest of Magdalena Saturday John Lathem was shot and killed by Joseph Jones and C. A. Hodges, foresters. Lathem, it is claimed, had killed a yearling the day before and burned the hide, offal, etc., returning the following morning to see that all evidences of his deed were destroyed.

"Jones and Hodges discovered the fire late in the afternoon. They returned to the scene at an early hour in the morning and kept watch. Lathem returned later and when ordered to throw up his hands he hesitated and reashed for his gun, when the foresters fired.

"The verdict of the coroner's jury was self-defense. The deceased was about 60 years of age and leaves a family at Nogal, Lincoln county."

With reference to the above, we desire to state that the deceased, while a resident of this county, bore the reputation of an honest, hard-working citizen, and his death, under the circumstances, is a matter of sincere regret to his friends in this section.

Mrs. Jesse Dawson, who has been very ill, is reported much better.

Attorney A. H. Hudspeth was down from White Oaks the early part of the week.

I. M. Harkey had a serious attack of the stomach this week, but is much improved.

Robt. Haynie, who has been visiting his mother and sister, returned to Capitan yesterday, accompanied by his niece.

John B. Baird went to El Paso Wednesday. He went to take the civil service examination as an applicant for a position as a mounted guard along the international line.

A cattle buyer by the name of Smith, from east Texas, came in yesterday and went out today to the Gilmore ranch, near Alto.

Miss Lella Laws was slightly indisposed the early part of the week, but is again at her desk in the schoolroom.

The weather is spring-like, and the buds are swelling on the fruit trees, which is generally believed to forecast disaster to the fruit crop.

White Oaks will give a Masquerade Ball on Washington's Birthday, February 22. Refreshments will be served. Everybody invited.

Frank Goodin and J. O. Nabours were up from Three Rivers Monday, witnesses in a homestead proof before U. S. Commissioner Harvey.

C. A. Peterson, freight man at the depot, left yesterday for Clifton, Kansas. A wire from his old home announced sickness in his family.

George Paxon and family left yesterday evening for California, where they will in future reside. The continued illness of Mrs. Paxon necessitated a change of climate.

S. R. Moss was down from Parsons Monday. He reported the completion of the schoolhouse at Parsons and the beginning of school last week, with Mrs. Moss as teacher.

The unusual warm weather in January has caused an epidemic of severe colds throughout the county, some developing into la grippe and some into pneumonia. A large number of people in this vicinity are on the doctor's list.

George A. Montgomery came over from Capitan Monday, and left that night for Lake Benton, Minnesota. The latter place is where Mr. Montgomery's mother lives, and notification of her serious illness takes him there at this time.

Clark Hust returned last week from Oklahoma, where he had gone some months ago with two carloads of horses. Clark says he didn't fatten his pockets materially on the trip, but he had lots of good things to eat, and he appears to be in good physical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. White and children and Mrs. N. B. Taylor are traveling in Texas. Mrs. White, who has been ill for many months and who has been in the hospital in El Paso, is slightly improved, and it is thought a trip to a lower altitude will benefit her health.

S. M. Johnson and daughter, Catherine, came over from their Ruidoso home and left for Charlotte, North Carolina, Wednesday. Mr. Johnson expects to be absent about three weeks, looking after property interests, and his daughter will remain with her aunt and attend school.

A Mennonite Custom.

When a young man reaches the marriageable age and shows those well-known symptoms the elders of the church hold a meeting. They decide if he is honest and reliable to buy him a farm, usually an eighty. Into the farm he puts his savings, and then members of the congregation raise the rest of the funds to pay for the land.

This amount the young man must pay back with a small rate of interest. Thus by example and material assistance they bind him by the strongest bonds, that of debtor to the church. They know full well that nothing can be lost, for the land is always worth what it will cost. After the young people are located on their farm the elders assist with advice and help. Do you wonder that this thrifty people are gradually buying the best of all Kansas land and the best part of the richest little city within the borders of that great state?—Seneca Tribune.

An Awful Warning.

To those students of English literature who like to write of le d'ernier cri when they mean the latest craze, and generally to pepper their pages with tags of Latin and French, the following authentic composition is presented as an "awful warning," says the University Correspondent. It is the letter of an Indian subpostmaster who is anxious to be promoted: "Sir: I have the honor to request you that I did not receive any answer to my petition as yet. Though I am flagrante delicto, fiat justitia aut ruat soelum. My younger Fra has gone articula mortis. Ipso facto O! tempora O! mores. Does the life of a man go out like a candle? Sic transit gloria mundi that veni, vidi, vici. It is an outrage afaire d'honneur which is agenda for your pertinently consider."

London's Standards of Length.

Londoners have access to authoritative standards for comparison purposes. These are fixed on the outside of the wall of Greenwich observatory, and the various lengths are decided by passing the measure to be tested between raised points inserted in metal plates. At the Royal observatory also is a pound balance, by which any pound weight may be verified. Standards of 100 feet and one chain (66 feet), with subdivisions accurately engraved on them, marked on brass plates, are available for public purposes in Trafalgar square, being let into the granite steps on the north side of the square. Where rigid accuracy is desired recourse must be had to the Standards office in Old Palace Yard, where the tests are carried out under the scientific conditions as regards temperature, etc., prescribed by act of parliament.—Dundee Advertiser.

Her Little Game.

The medium had impressed her landlady with her wonderful powers of vision. Finally she offered to tell the worthy woman's own fortune.

"Huh!" she exclaimed, as soon as she had gone into a trance, "I can see you finding a large sum of money!"

"How and where?" cried the landlady.

"In this very house!" announced the seeress. "While you are sweeping and cleaning some morning."

When the medium told us about this prediction of hers, she confessed that she had never lived in a better cared for home than the one she was occupying.—Cleveland Leader.

Their Happy Time.

Caroline—Are Emily and her husband happy?

Carl—Well, part of the time.

Caroline—Part of the time?

Carl—Yes, when she's at home and he's at the office.

A Retraction.

"You shouldn't have called that man a pig," said the conciliatory man.

"That's right," replied the vindictive person. "There is no sense in implying that he's worth 40 cents a pound to anybody."

When Publicity is Desired.

"X Y. Z. this office," was the way the woman usually wound up the numerous lost article advertisements necessitated by her absent-mindedness. The other day she tired of anonymity and returned in about ten minutes with the request that her name be substituted for the initials.

"I attended to that in the first place, madame," said the clerk.

"You did?" she exclaimed. "How did you know I wanted to use my own name?"

He pointed to the words "Metropolitan opera house" in her advertisement. "Because that is where you lost your bracelet," he said. "I never yet met a person who wished to keep his identity secret when advertising for anything lost at the opera house. People who lose things any place else in New York often resort to initials when advertising, but if it happened at the opera house the more publicity they can get the better."

Hypnotizing Lobsters.

Here is a curious and little known experiment that can be made with live lobsters. It is quite impossible to stand a lobster up "on end" unless it is first put to sleep.

This is done by slowly stroking its tail downward with the hand two or three times, when the fish is at once thrown into a state of coma, or deep sleep, and remains in that position, without a movement of any kind, for about ten minutes. Even its eyes are fixed, and it has every appearance of being dead.

Another curious thing is that when one lobster wakes up the noise it makes in falling down rouses all the others; and the effect of one or more waking up is very strange.

British Saints.

December 1 appears from old calendars to have been a notable anniversary for Cambro-British worthies about whom we know little beyond their names. It is the Feast of St. Deiniol, an interesting personage to all Liberals because he is the "patron" of Hawarden and gave his name to the library which Mr. Gladstone established there. This date is also the "memorial" of the saints of the Isle of Bardsey, which was the lion of Wales, and formerly a favorite place of pilgrimage. A farm on the opposite mainland still remains till the free because anciently charged with the expense of supplying rest and refreshment to weary pilgrims bound for Bardsey.—Westminster Gazette.

A Shame to Spend the Money.

"Pianissimo, pianissimo," said the vocal teacher to the student, "your voice is too loud. Learn to shade your tones."

And the student worked hard to carry out instructions.

When she went to her next lesson the teacher said: "Better—but still too loud. Try again—you will get it after a while."

Again the student returned to her room and tried for a softer tone. Again the teacher told her it was still too loud.

Now William, the colored butler, without whom the house would never have gone on properly, had heard and wondered at this gradual diminishing of tone. It did seem a shame to spend the money. He would interview the lady who occupied the room below that of the vocal pupil.

"What does you think about de voice above?" he asked, pointing to the ceiling. "Hit strikes me hit's growin' weakah ev'ry day."

"Expert" Testimony.

A Marselles "medical expert" has just distinguished himself by declaring that a young woman found dying on the pavement of one of the streets had been assassinated. His expert knowledge enabled him to state that the causes of death was a dagger stab in the back. It has been proved that death was really due to a fall from the fourth floor of a house on to the pavement below. The "dagger wound" was a bruise caused by the fall.

Now About Clean Food

Another Splendid Opportunity to Bring Out Facts

When the "Weekly" which sued us for libel (because we publicly denounced them for an editorial attack on our claims) was searching for some "weak spot," they thought best to send a N. Y. Atty. to Battle Creek, summoned 25 of our workmen and took their sworn statements before a Commissioner.

Did we object? No. On the contrary, we helped all we could, for the opportunity was too good to be lost.

Geo. Haines testified he inspected the wheat and barley, also floors and every part of the factories to know things were kept clean. That every 30 minutes a sample of the products was taken and inspected to keep the food up to standard and keep out any impurities, also that it is the duty of every man in the factories to see that anything not right is immediately reported. Has been with the Co. 10 years.

Edward Young testified had been with Co. 15 years. Inspector, he and his men examined every sack and car of wheat and barley to see they were up to standard and rejected many cars.

H. E. Burt, Supt., testified has been with Co. over 13 years. Bought only the best grain obtainable. That the Co. kept a corps of men who do nothing but keep things clean, bright and polished.

Testified that no ingredient went into Grape-Nuts and Postum except those printed in the advertising. No possibility of any foreign things getting into the foods as most of the machinery is kept closed. Asked if the factory is open to the public, said "yes" and "it took from two to three guides constantly to show visitors through the works." Said none of the processes were carried on behind closed doors.

At this point attys. for the "Weekly" tried to show the water used was from some outside source. Testified the water came from Co.'s own artesian wells and was pure.

He testified the workmen were first-class, high-grade and inspected by the Co.'s physician to be sure they were all in proper physical condition; also testified that state reports showed that Co. pays better wages than the average and he thought higher than any in the state.

F. B. Martin, Asst. Supt., testified Grape-Nuts made of wheat, barley, yeast and water. Anything else? "No, sir." Postum made of Wheat, Wheat Bran and New Orleans Molasses. Statements made on his experience of about 10 years with Co.

Testified bakers are required to wear fresh white suits, changed every other day. Said had never known any of the products being sent out that were below the high standard of inspection. Asked if any one connected with the Postum Co. had instructed him how to testify. Said, "No, sir."

Horace Brown testified has been with Co. 8 years. Worked in Grape-Nuts bake shop. Testified the whole of the flour is composed of Wheat and Barley. Attys. tried to confuse him, but he insisted that any casual visitor could see that nothing else went into the flour. Said machinery and floors always kept clean.

So these men were examined by the "Weekly" lawyers hoping to find at least one who would say that some under-grade grain was put in or some unclean condition was found somewhere.

But it was no use. Each and every man testified to the purity and cleanliness.

As a sample, take the testimony of Luther W. Mayo.

Testified been with Company about 10 years. Now working in the bakery department making Grape-Nuts. Testified that the ovens and floors are kept clean and the raw products as they go in are kept clean. Also that the wearing apparel of the employes has to be changed three times a week.

Q. Do you use Postum or Grape-Nuts yourself at all?

A. Yes, I use them at home.

Q. If from your knowledge of the factory which you have gained in your ten years at the factory you believed that they were dirty or impure in any way, would you use them?

A. I do not think I would. No.

Asked if any one on behalf of the Company had asked him to testify in any particular manner. Stated "No."

All these sworn depositions were carefully excluded from the testimony at the trial, for they wouldn't sound well for the "Weekly."

Think of the fact that every man swore to the purity and cleanliness so that the Atty. for the "Weekly" was forced to say in open court that the food was pure and good.

What a disappointment for the "Weekly!"

But the testimony showed:

All of the grain used in Grape-Nuts, Postum and Post Toasties is the highest standard possible to obtain.

All parts of the factory are kept scrupulously clean.

None of the workmen had been told how to testify.

Most of them have been from 10 to 15 years with the Co. and use the products on their tables at home.

Why do their families use the products, Grape-Nuts, Postum and Post Toasties, that they, themselves, make?

Young Age Pensions.

Young-age pensions! Why not? Titles, honors, riches, pensions and most other good things are, as a rule, postponed to a period of life when the capacity for enjoying them has been blunted. Australia was one of the first countries to adopt old-age pensions, and now a Labor member of the commonwealth parliament proposes a complementary scheme of young-age pensions. He would start by pensioning the fourth child at birth. The fact that three had previously been born showed that the parents were doing their duty and deserving well of the state. The young-age pension would "reward industry and encourage the birth rate."—London Chronicle.

The Patient Townsmen.

"So you got to work in spite of the snow drifts?"

"Yes. But I don't see why the city folks should not follow the example of country people and put up a strong kick for good roads."

GOT IT.

Get Something Else, Too.

"I liked my coffee strong and I drank it strong," says a Pennsylvania woman, telling a good story, "and although I had headaches nearly every day I just would not believe there was any connection between the two. I had weak and heavy spells and palpitation of the heart, too, and although husband told me he thought it was the coffee that made me so poorly, and did not drink it himself for he said it did not agree with him, yet I loved my coffee and thought I just couldn't do without it.

"One day a friend called at my home—that was a year ago. I spoke about how well she was looking and she said:

"Yes, and I feel well, too. It's because I am drinking Postum in place of ordinary coffee."

"I said, 'What is Postum?'"

"Then she told me how it was a food-drink and how much better she felt since using it in place of coffee or tea, so I went to the store and bought a package and when it was made according to directions it was so good I have never bought a pound of coffee since. I began to improve immediately.

"I cannot begin to tell you how much better I feel since using Postum and leaving coffee alone. My health is better than it has been for years and I cannot say enough in praise of this delicious food-drink."

Take away the destroyer and put a re-builder to work and Nature will do the rest. That's what you do when Postum takes coffee's place in your diet. "There's a Reason."

STYLE IN SANDWICHES

JUST NOW THE ROLL SEEMS TO BE IN VOGUE.

Triangles and Narrow Oblongs Also Are Much Favored—Nice Discrimination Called for on Part of the Hostess.

The modern sandwich is small and shapely. The favorite form just now is round, though triangles and narrow oblongs are also good. A rather novel form is the roll. The thin slice is spread as for a sandwich, then rolled in on itself until about the thickness of two fingers. Sharp biscuit cutters are used for round shapes after the slices of bread are put together with the filling.

Too great care cannot be taken in shaping, as sandwiches of uneven size are not appetizing and reflect upon the social knowledge of the hostess.

If made several hours before they are used, sandwiches are packed closely together and wrapped in a linen cloth wrung from ice water, then in a dry cloth.

Pass on silver sandwich plates, with lace dolly underneath, or neatly heaped on a flat china or glass plate covered with a dolly. Where many sandwiches are served a small chop plate is often utilized. Where there is a muffin stand the sandwich plate is set on one of the shelves, with a plate of crackers and a basket of small cakes on the other two.

Sandwich fillings are of three orders—meat, in which is included fish and egg sandwiches; cheese mixtures, and sweet sandwiches.

There are also various greens, though lettuce is so much used with all forms that it can scarcely be classed by itself. In this class may be put celery or endive run through a fine meat chopper and mixed with mayonnaise; cress and nasturtium tendrils and pods mixed with French dressing, and parsley chopped fine and mixed with shredded peppers or shredded onion.

For tea purposes decided onion mixtures are better omitted, though finely chopped white onion is relished with capers and anchovy fillings.

For ordinary purposes cold meat or poultry run through a fine chopper and mixed to a paste, with rich cream and seasoning of salt and paprika, are delicious and not so rich as the mayonnaise fillings. Chicken and tongue mixed in equal parts are a pleasing novelty; so is shredded bacon and ground chicken, with strips of pimientos.

Most of the meat and fish salad leftovers can be used as sandwich filling. Hot lobster Newburg makes a delicious sandwich; so does creamed crab with red peppers, and finely chopped shrimps with capers masked in mayonnaise.

Green or red peppers chopped fine and mixed with mayonnaise make a favorite filling, the latter being especially artistic.

Coffee Custard Minus Eggs.

Make a strong cup of coffee, or that left from breakfast will do; strain through cheesecloth into a pint of milk; put milk into double boiler with one-half cup sugar, three tablespoons corn starch dissolved in cold milk, pinch of salt and small piece of butter; cook 20 minutes. Remove from fire, flavor with vanilla and pour into molds; chill and serve with whipped cream. Delicious—just like coffee ice-cream. Cocoa or chocolate can be used in place of coffee.

An Economy.

When boiling new milk, to prevent a "skin" from forming on the top as it cools add two tablespoonfuls of cold milk to every pint when at the boiling point; stir briskly for a minute, and the so-called skin will be reabsorbed and the milk will not be impoverished.

Rip Van Winkle Makes Some Suggestions.

Rip Van Winkle had just brushed the last of the cobwebs out of his eyes.

"I suppose somebody will werry likely make a play about me," he said in his Catskill stage dialect.

"No doubt about it," replied a bystander.

Rip yawned heavily, the spell of his long nap being still strong upon him.

"Vell," he said, "I hope if dey do write such a play dey von't try to revive it after it has been asleep for dwenty years."

And then he smiled, and they filed into the tavern and imbibed another one of the kind that didn't count.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Road to Fame.

It was Mme. Highnote's first appearance, and she was on her trial thrill. The audience sat spellbound, says the San Francisco Star. First came a cadenza, and then the high C. Would she do it? Mme. Highnote thought she wouldn't.

She was just about to attempt the note when a little brown mouse ran across the footlights. The diva shrieked, gathered up her skirts and ran.

Once in her dressing room she buried her face in her hands and sobbed.

"My prospects are forever blighted," she moaned.

At that moment there came a feverish knocking at the door. It was the manager's assistant.

"The manager," he exclaimed, "wants to know whether you ran away from the curtain because you were ill?"

"No. I am well. It was only—"

"And he wants me to tell you that high C you let out at the last was the finest he had heard in years, and the audience is crazy over you. You must give an encore."

"I can't—I can't," wailed the prima donna, "not unless you can get another mouse."
