VOLUME 12.

CARRIZOZO, LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, DECEMBER 29, 1911.

NUMBER 48

State Officers Equally Divided.

The final count in the new state of New Mexico gives the Democrats and progressives eight of the state officers and the Republicans the other eight. The following is the distribution:

DEMOCRATS.

Governor, W. C. McDonald;
Lieut. Governor, E. C. de Baca;
Sec. of State, Antonio Lucero;
Treasurer, O. N. Marron;
Supt. of P. Instruction Alvin N. White;
Congressman, H. B. Fergusson;
Supreme Judge, R. H. Hanna;
Corporation Commissioner, G. H. Van Stone.

REPUBLICANS

Auditor, W. G. Sargent;
Attorney General, F. W. Clancy;
Land Commissioner, R. P. Ervien;
Two Supreme Judges, F. W. Parker and C. J. Roberts;
Two corporation commissioners, H. H. Williams, M. S. Groves;
Congressman, George Curry.

Clayton Precinct Unsettled.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec 27.—In the matter of the refusal of the election judges and clerks of the Clayton precinct to sign the certificate of the election, which was certified to Judge John R. McFie for action no progress was made today.

When the case came up in chambers this morning Judge McFie announced that he was not certain that he had jurisdiction in the premises and for personal reasons did not care to take it up.

This leaves the matter no nearer a solution than before and delays the canvassing board in making its report, it is believed until such time as another judge can be secured to decide whether or not the election judges shall be ordered to sign the certificates.

Judge C. J. Roberts, in whose district Union county is located, has been communicated with, and it is believed that he will at once take steps to hear the matter himself or request another judge to act in the premises. It is understood that Judge Roberts hesitated to act in the matter because of the fact that he was a candidate on the Republican ticket although his election would not be affected by the decision in the Clayton case, regardless of which way it was decided. Counsel for both sides of the controversy, it is understood, have agreed that Judge Roberts is the proper man to decide the case.

The failure of Judge McFie to act this morning dissipates the last hope held out that the statehood proclamation may be issued in time to hold the inauguration on January 1.

Carrizozo Public School Crowded.

The Carrizozo public schools which were closed for the Christmas holidays last Friday will be reopened Tuesday, Jan. 2, 1912.

Patrons should note that the new state constitution raises the minimum school age from five years to six years. Only pupils six years of age or over can be admitted into the schools after the inauguration of the new state governor.

Owing to the fact that the primary rooms are very much crowded at the present time and that the school may not continue in session more than two or perhaps three months longer it is thought best not to organize a beginner's class at this time. It is recommended that children not prepared to take up the work with the beginners class of last September do not enter school until the opening of the fall term next September.

The following statement will show the crowded condition of the lower rooms at the present time:

First Primary—Mrs. Gumm, teacher: seating capacity, 40; present enrollment 50.

Second Primary—Miss Laws, teacher: seating capacity, 40; present enrollment 54.

Intermediate—Mrs. Massie, teacher: seating capacity, 40; present enrollment 45.

Total seating capacity in lower rooms, - - - 120
Total present enrollment in lower rooms, - - - 154

CHAS. L. SCHRECK,
Principal.

The final count shows the election of two republican judges to the supreme bench. This is a disappointment, and gives the Old Guard a foothold where it was most desired.

Prejudice Is a Serious Menace

Prejudice is a hard thing to overcome, but where health is at stake and the opinion of thousands of reliable people differs from yours, prejudice then becomes your menace and you ought to lay it aside. This is said in the interest of people suffering from chronic constipation, and it is worthy of their attention.

In the opinion of legions of reliable American people the most stubborn constipation imaginable can be cured by a brief use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You may not have heard of it before, but do not doubt its merits on that account, or because it has not been blatantly advertised. It has sold very successfully on word of mouth recommendation. Parents are giving it to their children today who were given it by their parents, and it has been truthfully said that more druggists use it personally in their families than any other laxative.

Letters recently received from Mr. Frank Adams, 1413 E. 9th St., Wichita, Kas., and Carrie Nichol, Ashland, Kas., are but a few of thousands showing the esteem in which Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is held. It is mild, gentle, non-gripping—not violent, like salts or cathartics. It cures gradually and pleasantly so that in time nature again does its own work without outside aid. Constipated people owe it to themselves to use this grand bowel specific.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

He that does good to another does good also to himself, not only in the consequence, but in the very act; for the consciousness of well doing is in itself ample reward.—Seneca.

Smile on wash day. That's when you use Red Cross Bag Blue. Clothes whiter than snow. All grocers.

Wisdom, like flowers, requires culture.—Ballou.

TO KEEP OUT THE DUST

Veil-Like Cloth That Will Relieve Housekeeper of Much Worry and Labor.

There is a perennial joke about the dust gathering on a mantle where the mistress calls the attention of the fact that she "can write her name in it," getting an answer, with the inherent wit, of "how great it must be to have the advantage of an education."

If one were to look further into this it will also be seen that it is necessary for one to become educated to the requirement or remedy that the fact of the dust's presence indicates and that requirement is the excluding of the dust to the best of one's knowledge and ability.

As the wire screen is manufactured to exclude the fly, so is there a veil-like cloth texture of net, though slightly rougher and much cheaper, which can be applied to the use of keeping out the ever present dust to a very great extent.

The low price of this article, which can be purchased at almost any dry-goods store or counter, places it within the reach of practically everyone, and when one thinks of the fearful toll of human life that dust-carried germs are wont to take, there will be no hesitation in applying this as well as any other remedy that may come to our notice during our daily routine. This material can be tacked on the inside of screens and if one resides on a very dusty street it can be doubled for better effect. As it does not exclude the light or air but is effective where the dust is concerned, it will be availed of all the more quickly when it is known that it also precludes the entering of the much-hated malarial mosquito.

Where the dust is extremely heavy in the street it is the best plan to do all the ventilating only from the back of the house and it is seldom that draughts cannot be caused to clean out the air in the veriest cranny-like closet or wardrobe.

Boiled Rice Custard.

To about two cupfuls of boiling salted water add three tablespoonfuls of well washed rice and let boil for about twenty-five minutes; when it is done remove from fire, add cold water and drain off.

Put a large cup of milk in double boiler, beat the yolks of two eggs, add three teaspoons of sugar, then stir these into the warm milk and add rice and stir until it thickens; remove from the fire and let stand while you beat your two whites of eggs, then one teaspoon of either lemon or vanilla to custard and just mix the whites through lightly right in your serving dish.

Cocoanut Cream Candy.

Melt in a saucepan two tablespoonfuls of butter, then turn in one-half of a cup of milk and a half cupful of sugar. Bring to a boil and cook twelve minutes, being careful to prevent it scorching. Push to the back of the fire, add a third of a cupful of shredded cocoanut and a half teaspoonful of vanilla and beat until the mixture is creamy. Pour or drop by spoonfuls onto a buttered pan.

To Clean Flat Irons.

When starch sticks to the flatiron use a piece of fine wire screening. Place screening upon a paper on the ironing board and pass iron over it. It is much better than scraping iron with a knife. The wax-coated boxes in which crackers are packed make excellent polishers—better than the little blocks of paraffin so generally used.

To Whip Thin Cream.

If the cream is too thin to whip, place the dish containing it in another dish of cold water, leaving it there until it is well chilled. Then put into a pan of hot water. It will whip without difficulty.—The Housekeeper.

stomach and there was no cure. I almost thought the same, for my breath was offensive and I could not eat anything without great misery, and I gradually grew worse.

"Finally I concluded to try Peruna, and I found relief and a cure for that dreadful disease, catarrh. I took five bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin, and I now feel like a new man. There is nothing better than Peruna, and I keep a bottle of it in my house all the time."

VARIETY IN PEACHES

SOME NEW WAYS OF SERVING DELICIOUS FRUIT.

Housewife Will Find These Recipes Simple and the Results Will Amply Repay Her for Her Trouble.

Spiced Peaches—Peel seven pounds of fruit, but do not remove the stones; to one pint of cider vinegar add three and one-half pounds of sugar, one tablespoon of ground cinnamon, and one of mace, and one teaspoon of cloves. Tie the spices in a bag. Cook the vinegar, spices and sugar for fifteen minutes, then add the peaches, a few at a time, and cook until tender; pack in jars, pour over them the scalding sirup and cover closely. Let them stand twenty-four hours, then drain, cook the sirup ten minutes, and again pour over the fruit. Put a plate over the fruit in the jar and tie a cloth over the top and keep in a cool place.

Peach Marmalade—Peel, stone, and cut ripe peaches in small pieces, take three-quarters of a pound of sugar to each pound of fruit, and one cup of water to each pound of sugar. Place on fire, boil and skim; then put in the peaches and let them boil hard, stir and mash them until the whole is a thick mass. Then put in glass jars and seal.

Peach Catsup—Pare and quarter eight quarts of ripe peaches. Simmer the parings for thirty minutes in one pint of water. Then strain, add the peaches, and simmer thirty minutes longer. Add one and one-half cups of best cider vinegar and one-half cup of sugar, two teaspoons of ground cinnamon, and one-half teaspoon each of cloves, mace and pepper. Simmer slowly until quite thick and seal hot in pint jars.

Preserved Peaches—Allow three-quarters of a pound of sugar and one cupful of water to every pound of fruit. Peel the peaches, cut them in half if the fruit is large. Cook the sugar and water and skim, then drop in the fruit and cook until tender. Take out carefully and pack in heated glass jars, boil the sirup until thick and clear, then strain over the fruit and seal at once.

Stuffed Peaches—These are a delicious accompaniment for roast turkey at Thanksgiving time. Select medium sized peaches, wash and take out the stones, cover with salt water, and let them stand over night. In the morning fill the centers with grated horse-radish mixed with a little celery seed and a small piece of ginger root, tie each peach with string and pack in jars. Turn over them hot vinegar with sugar and spices to taste. Seal the jars.

Smothered Eggs
Poach four eggs by breaking into a saucepan half-filled with boiling salted water; let them remain until yolks are hard, then remove with perforated skimmer; cut each egg in half with a sharp knife, keep on hot platter while you prepare the following sauce:

One pint of gravy from roast or boiled meat, or one pint of soup; add one chopped onion, salt and pepper to season, two tablespoons of butter in which has been well mixed one even tablespoon of flour; bring all to boiling point, simmer five minutes and pour over eggs; serve hot.

This is a delicious way to serve eggs, as four eggs will make a good breakfast dish for five or six people. It is cheap as well.

Leaving "Ring" When Cleaning.
When removing spots from woolen or silk material first brush the dust from the garment, then place the material to be cleaned over a bag made of cheesecloth filled with powdered magnesia, then rub well with rag saturated with gasoline. The magnesia absorbs the gasoline, thus preventing the "ring."—Harper's Bazar.

JUST MAKING OUT A CASE

Uncle Jeth Had Deep Reason for Occupation That Was Seemingly Unprofitable.

John Collier, the secretary of New York's board of moving picture censors, said the other day:

"It's no good getting up objectionable picture plays. We never pass them. In fact, we turn them down so invariably that it seems to me the composers of such plays are animated by a spirit of perversity. They remind me of old Uncle Jethro Husk.

"Uncle Jethro sat fishing on the bank of a tiny rivulet when a stranger stopped beside him and said:

"Is it possible that there are any fish in such a small stream as that?"

"No, there ain't none," Uncle Jethro grunted.

"But you're fishing!"

"Yep," said Uncle Jethro.

"What, then, is your object?"

"My object," said Uncle Jethro, "is to show my wife I ain't got no time to sift the ashes."

Incurable.

"You say you are your wife's third husband?" said one man to another during a talk.

"No, I am her fourth husband," was the reply.

"Heavens, man!" said the first speaker. "You are not a husband—you're a habit."

A BRAIN WORKER.

Must Have the Kind of Food That Nourishes Brain.

"I am a literary man whose nervous energy is a great part of my stock in trade, and ordinarily I have little patience with breakfast foods and the extravagant claims made of them. But I cannot withhold my acknowledgment of the debt that I owe to Grape-Nuts food.

"I discovered long ago that the very bulkiness of the ordinary diet was not calculated to give one a clear head, the power of sustained, accurate thinking. I always felt heavy and sluggish in mind as well as body after eating the ordinary meal, which diverted the blood from the brain to the digestive apparatus.

"I tried foods easy of digestion, but found them usually deficient in nutriment. I experimented with many breakfast foods and they, too, proved unsatisfactory, till I reached Grape-Nuts. And then the problem was solved.

"Grape-Nuts agreed with me perfectly from the beginning, satisfying my hunger and supplying the nutriment that so many other prepared foods lack.

"I had not been using it very long before I found that I was turning out an unusual quantity and quality of work. Continued use has demonstrated to my entire satisfaction that Grape-Nuts food contains the elements needed by the brain and nervous system of the hard working public writer." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

His Exact Location.

"Wombat was at the opera last night."

"Ah, you saw him drinking in the melody."

"No; when I saw him he was drinking in the bar."—Courier-Journal.

His Honeyed Manner.

"I notice Mr. Comeup has such a honeyed manner and way of talking lately."

"Oh, that's because running for office is now the bee in his bonnet."

Quack! Quack!

Gyer—Dr. Cubeb's wife wanted to raise ducks this summer, but he wouldn't stand for it.

Myer—Why not?

Gyer—He objects to ducks because of the personal remarks they make.

Shipwreck Today.

"Captain, is there much danger?"

"Not a particle. A moving picture outfit will soon be along and rescue us after they have taken a few films."

Not to Mention Motors.

"Since I'm married I realize how money is kept in circulation."

"Well, let's have your chunk of wisdom."

"There's the spring hat, the summer vacation, the fall gown and the holiday shopping."—Washington Herald.

Couldn't Wait.

Tom—Did her last husband die?

Jack—No; he resigned. — Boston Transcript.

Leary.

Mrs. A.—Now, Mrs. B., will you come and see our apary?

Mrs. B. (who has been putting it off all the afternoon)—Well, Mrs. A., the truth is, you know, I—I'm rather afraid of monkeys."—Christian Intelligencer.

A Long Face.

The pessimist is never gay:
His face is long and grave.
He really ought to have to pay
A quarter for a shave.

On the Wrong Train.

She—Did you ever get on a train when it was moving?

He—Yes—once.

She—What was the sensation?

He—Ripping—for the woman.—Woman's Home Companion.

Wise Ma.

"Ma, why don't you keep out of the parlor? Things are running smoothly now."

"You ain't engaged yet, daughter, and your ma knows that a young man who finds things running smoothly is apt to get bored and quit."

Good News.

"What did ma say to you when you came in?" inquired Johnny to his friend who had come to tea.

"She said she was very pleased to see me."

"I'm glad," said Johnny in a relieved tone. "Cos she said this morning she hoped you wouldn't come!"

The time for New Year resolutions is at hand. Make some good ones and keep them.

Do not fail to exercise the same charity towards others that you would ask for yourself.

A due consideration for the shortcomings of others is a good resolution to be adopted by all.

Roosevelt says he is not in politics, but, notwithstanding the statement, he is a nightmare to the Taft boomers.

Let your new year resolutions be good ones. Then, when you have resolved and resolved, close with the resolution that you will keep inviolate everyone you have made; and if you do so the last will be your best.

Italy and Turkey are still at war, with results, so far, lacking in seriousness together. Wait until Italy attempts to cross the African sands, and the Abyssinian campaign is likely to be repeated.

The president vetoed the wool bill passed by the special session of congress. His reason for doing so was that the tariff commission had not reported. The tariff commission has not yet reported, but now the president says the duties on wool should be reduced. The democratic house will certainly grant his request in this respect.

The duty on wool and woolen goods is so high that foreign productions cannot pay the rate and compete in our market. The government is thus deprived of a revenue from this source, and the American consumer is forced to pay just what American manufacturers desire to charge. The tariff is a tax, but the government often fails to become a recipient.

Who are to be our first two United States Senators? Will they be two standpat republicans, a standpat and progressive republican, a progressive republican and a democrat, or two progressives? The standpatters claim a majority of the legislature, but, as a matter of fact, many so-called standpat members may develop into progressives. The situation is full of possibilities.

Rurales Meet Defeat.

Tenancingo, State of Mexico, Mexico, Dec. 27.—Thirteen out of a detachment of 20 rurales were killed in a fight with Zapatistas at Santa Maria, southwest of here, Sunday, according to details that have just reached here. In addition, two women and a child were killed and their bodies mutilated.

The rurales were spied on a hill by 300 Zapatistas. They cut their way through the enemy, but, not knowing the country, were trapped in ravine. The government force was overwhelmed and almost cut to pieces with machetes. Several badly wounded escaped.

The women, wives of rurales, witnessed the butchery and when they shouted for mercy for the men, they also were attacked.

A body of troops, consisting of nearly 100 rurales, has been ordered from the provinces of Nuevo Leon and Tamaulipas to the province of Morelos to cooperate in the campaign against general Emiliano Zapata. In the opinion of government officials, the releasing of troops in the northern districts through the collapse of the Reyes movement will lead to the speedy elimination of general Zapata.

Wilson is the slogan of progressive Democracy for 1912. The New Jersey governor has not only shown a keen knowledge of executive affairs but has proven beyond a doubt, that he stands for liberal, progressive ideas, and a government in which the people should have a share. The corporations do not fear he will be destructive of their interests, except that they know that they will be compelled to obey the law when he sits in the White House.

The two Christmas trees Monday night, at the Baptist and Methodist Churches, were well attended, and all the little folks made happy with presents. The program by the little ones at each place produced merited applause, and was a delight to old and young.

A Close Call.

A man was run over by No. 3 last Friday night, near Fort Bliss. The crew, however, did not know any one had been hit, but subsequent events indicated the man must have been riding on the pilot of No. 3's engine. A freight train coming after No. 3, by its headlight, disclosed the man on the track to a passer-by. He was pulled off the track in time to save being run over by the second train, and conveyed to a hospital. One arm was cut off, shoulder crushed and head badly bruised: Name unknown.

More continuous cold weather has been experienced the past two months in this section than has been known to the oldest inhabitant, before the first of the year. No heavy snows have fallen here, but a number of small snows, have succeeded one another in rapid succession. Colder weather has existed here, but, as a rule, it was only of short duration. While in the present instance very little warm weather has been our lot since winter came on us.

"Marse" Henry on 1912.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 25.—Hon. Herry Watterson, veteran editor of the Louisville Courier Journal said to day that the republican party was hopelessly split over the 1912 nomination, and gave as his opinion that Taft could not win. Watterson in his 72nd year is in fine health and as vigorous as a man at 50.

"The republican party is hopelessly split over the nomination at the 1912 convention," said the editor. "Taft cannot be elected; Roosevelt may be called on at the last moment to save the party. Roosevelt would never leave the White House, except feet foremost."

ACHIEVEMENTS IN IGNORANCE.

General Barry's report concerning the deficient education of many candidates examined for admission to West Point Military Academy is interesting from more than one point of view. These young men were not taken at hazard from the mass of their fellows, nor were they merely young men of average ability. Each of them had been selected and chosen as a nominee for a cadetship. Each of them had presumably prepared for the examination he knew awaited him, says the New York World. Yet many of them disclosed a degree of ignorance concerning history and literature that could hardly be surpassed among illiterates. One of these aspirants for West Point stated that Lee and Stonewall Jackson had fought at Princeton and Trenton, another that the battle of Waterloo was fought between "Nepolican" and "Wellingford." Of Mason and Dixon's line it was said it "divides Maryland from Georgia." Among the "most important writers of the nineteenth century" were included "Eller Wheeler Wilcox, Elbert Huggard, Jack London and Dorothy Dix." These young men are graduates of American schools. To them have been open from their boyhood all the advantages of public libraries and an incessant and well-nigh countless stream of magazines and newspapers. They surely are not dull boys nor unambitious. Their ignorance, therefore, is as discreditable to their teachers as to themselves.

The idea of reclaiming Russian swamp lands is not new. Like many other valuable ideas it sprang up in the fertile mind of Peter the Great, who built his capital in a swamp, because it was the only place he could find affording access to the sea. Peter selected the Holmogori district in the province of Archangel for raising Dutch cattle because he noticed the resemblance between the grass of Holland and that of the Holmogori district. It is now pointed out that at small expense the vast swamps in the province of Archangel can be turned into lands covered with the Holmogori grass, and that after a few years a large portion of it will be fit for raising cereals and vegetables. A systematic reclamation movement is now planned by the Russian department of agriculture.

Germany is fast becoming Americanized, according to the reports of the British consul at Munich, who notes the symptoms in altered trade methods, the greater use of advertising by business houses and the growth of luxury and restlessness in private life, says the New York World. But what will strike Americans themselves as the best evidence of American tendencies in Germany is contained in the mounting cost of living in Germany and in the imperial chancellor's suggestion that it must be accepted as part of the new conditions.

Geologists are claiming that the greatest underground river in the world flows from the Rocky mountains underneath New Mexico and Texas, emptying itself in the Gulf of Mexico. This river is thought to be in places several miles wide, and it is believed that it feeds rivers that flow upon the surface. The artesian well belt of Texas is pointed to as the uplifting of the water from this river, often from eight hundred feet below.

UNDEFEATED CHAMPION OF THE NORTHWEST.

T. A. Ireland, Rifle Shot of Colfax, Wash., Tells a Story.

Mr. Ireland is the holder of four world records and has yet to lose his first match—says he: "Kidney trouble so affected my vision as to interfere with my shooting I became so nervous I could hardly hold a gun. There was severe pain in my back and head and my kidneys were terribly disordered. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me after I had doctored and, taken nearly every remedy imaginable without relief. I will give further details of my case to anyone enclosing stamp."

Business Instinct Strong.

A photographer tells as a joke on himself that a woman, accompanied by a little boy, come into his studio the other day. "I want my pickcher took," she said. "I see that you take pickchers for four dollars a dozen this week, so I come for mine. And I want this little boy took in the same pickchers with me." "Yes, madam—but, of course, we make an extra charge outside this special rate when two pictures are taken at once." "Oh," says the lady, "but I'll keep the boy in my lap. That's the way I do in the street cars, and nobody ever says anything."

PHYSICIAN ADVISES CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Four years ago I had places break out on my wrist and on my shin which would itch and burn by spells, and scratching them would not seem to give any relief. When the trouble first began, my wrist and shin itched like poison. I would scratch those places until they would bleed before I could get any relief. Afterwards the places would scale over, and the flesh underneath would look red and feverish. Sometimes it would begin to itch until it would waken me from my sleep, and I would have to go through the scratching ordeal again.

Our physician pronounced it "dry eczema." I used an ointment which the doctor gave me, but it did no good. Then he advised me to try the Cuticura Remedies. As this trouble has been in our family for years, and is considered hereditary, I felt anxious to try to head it off. I got the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills, and they seemed to be just what I needed.

"The disease was making great headway on my system until I got the Cuticura Remedies which have cleared my skin of the great pest. From the time the eczema healed four years ago, until now, I have never felt any of its pest, and I am thankful to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment which certainly cured me. I always use the Cuticura Soap for toilet, and I hope other sufferers from skin diseases will use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Irven Hutchison, Three Rivers, Mich., Mar. 16, 1911. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 17 K, Boston.

Surprised.

"Do you mean to tell me you really live in Chicago?"

"Yes. You speak as if you thought it remarkable for me to do so."

"Why, I supposed people merely stayed in Chicago until they got money enough to live in New York."

No man will have any trouble about understanding as much of the Bible as he needs to live.

TAPIOCA AND RICE PUDDINGS

Two Ways of Preparing Each of These Wholesome and Easily Digested Desserts.

Taploca Cream.—Two level teaspoons taploca, three eggs, three tablespoons sugar, one quart milk, and salt to taste. Soak taploca in one-half cup cold water over night. Put milk and taploca in double boiler. When taploca rises to the top of milk add the yolks, sugar and salt beaten together, and cook till it thickens. When cool flavor with vanilla. Beat the whites to a stiff froth, add three tablespoons confectioners' sugar, frost and place in slow oven to brown slightly. Serve cold.

Indian Taploca.—Soak one pint taploca in one pint of cold water over night. In the morning bring one quart milk to the boiling point, then stir in slowly seven tablespoons Indian meal and add one cup molasses. Then add taploca and a small piece of butter. When well mixed stir in 1 pint of cold milk and bake about 2 hours in moderate oven.

Rice Pudding.—This recipe for rice pudding was sent in by some one signing herself Mrs. D., and I've never found any that suited my taste any better. Take three-fourths cup of cooked rice, one quart milk, one-half cup sugar, three eggs, reserving whites of two for frosting, grated rind of one lemon, pinch of salt. If the rice is lumpy separate with a fork and stir well, then bake as you would a custard. When done beat the whites of remaining eggs to a stiff froth, add one-half cup of confectioners' sugar and juice of lemon, pour over top and return to oven to brown.

Another recipe we like much is, one quart of milk, two tablespoons of rice, three tablespoons sugar, butter size of walnut, salt and nutmeg to taste. Bake slowly for two hours, or until thick and creamy. You can, if you wish, add raisins and reserve the whites of two eggs and frost.

Just Succotash.

No man living ever said a word against succotash, says a western paper. He may discard chicken pie, sweet potatoes, tomato bisque, or clam chowder, but succotash he never turns from. There is a romance in the name. It dwells in the smile of the great spirit, and is, too, the lovely relic of Indian life. A man who eats succotash revels in the chase and the sunlit joys of the prairie. Succotash is made up of dreams and good things—beans and corn romping together and teasing you with a banter to join the mele. Of course, you will

Swiss Eggs.

Cut quarter of a pound of rich cheese in thin shavings. Butter an egg dish or a small stone china platter and spread the cheese on it; upon the cheese distribute a little butter broken into bits, a little salt, cayenne, mustard and cream. Break eggs into a dish and stir together until mixed; then pour over the other materials and place in the oven. Bake eight minutes.

In putting down linoleum or oil cloth have strips of molding nailed on the edges next to the baseboard. This prevents dust from getting under and preserves the edges.

Holding tomatoes over the gas flame will cause skin to burst and come off easier than when scalded, and the tomato will be less mushy than when scalded.

MRS. GOLDE NOT IMPRESSED

Agent's Talk of the Efficacy of "Touch" Merely Amused Old Man's Darling.

Laurence A. Tanzer of the Citizens' union, was condemning in Albany certain features of the proposed New York charter.

"I don't want to see the city in the power of the bosses," he said. "I don't want to see the city placed in the position of old Gobsa Golde.

"Gobsa Golde, you know, married in his old age a beautiful young actress—a very regrettable thing.

"The fair young Mrs. Gobsa Golde was examining the royal suite in a 30-story hotel of cream-colored stone one day, and the hotel manager was pointing out the suite's manifold conveniences.

"You touch a button," he said, "and this opyx bath fills automatically. You touch a button, and the temperature of each room rises or falls. You touch a button, and a motor car is at the door. You touch a button—"

"But Mrs. Gobsa Golde, nodding mischievously toward her aged husband, said:

"Oh, I have no use for your silly little buttons. I only need to touch my husband, and diamond necklaces, yachts, ropes of pearls—anything I want—appear.

Revised Version.

Representative Henry of Texas, in an eloquent and witty attack on international marriages, said the other day in Waco:

"The Honorable Maude Laclands, the little daughter of the Earl of Laclands and a Chicago pork queen, once asked her mother:

"Mamma, how long does a honeymoon last?"

"Lady Laclands with a bitter smile made answer.

"The honeymoon may be said to last, my dear, until your husband begins to pester you for money."

Ready for More Sacrifice.

Frank McIntyre, after a recent performance of "Snobs," fell into a story-telling mood and recalled the vaccination of the six-year-old son of one of his friends. The boy was given 50 cents for undergoing the ordeal. The following day he said to his father:

"Daddy, isn't there anything else you can have done to me? I need the money."

CARE IN MEASURING

SUCCESS OF MANY COOKS DUE TO ACCURACY.

Very Difficult to Measure Foods With the Eyes, and it Can Only Be Done After Long Experience.

Much of the success attained by good cooks can readily be traced to their accurate measuring. Many housekeepers will say without thinking: "I never measure anything." You may not actually have a measuring cup and measure materials as girls are taught to do in the cooking schools. You have become so accustomed to cooking and making certain dishes that you always know the amount to use; in other words, you measure with your eyes. This is very difficult to do and can only be done after long experience. Try and keep a couple of measuring cups, either glass or tin, in your home. They do not cost very much and will save you a great deal of trouble in teaching your girls to cook.

Directions for Measuring.

Sift or shake up lightly with a spoon all dry material (flour, baking powder, etc.) before measuring. All measures are to be taken at a level unless otherwise stated. To measure a cupful of dry material fill the cup with spoon or scoop and level off with a case knife. To measure a teaspoon or tablespoon fill full and then level off by holding a caseknife erect and passing over the top. To measure one-half spoonful divide a spoon lengthwise with a knife, crosswise for quarters. A cupful of liquid is all the cup will hold.

Handy Equivalents.

Three teaspoonfuls make one tablespoonful.
Sixteen tablespoonfuls of any dry material make one cupful.
Twelve tablespoonfuls of liquid make one cupful.
Four cupfuls make one quart.
A half pint cup is the standard.
Table of comparison between weights and measures:
Two cups of butter (packed solidly) is equal to one pound.
Two cups finely chopped meat (packed solidly) is equal to one pound.
Two cupfuls of granulated sugar, one pound.
Two and two-thirds cupfuls powdered sugar is equal to one pound.
Two and two-thirds cupfuls brown sugar is equal to one pound.
Two and two-thirds cupfuls oatmeal is equal to one pound.
Four and three-fourths cupfuls of rolled oats is equal to one pound.
Four cupfuls of flour is equal to one pound.
Nine or ten eggs is equal to one pound.
Two tablespoonfuls of butter is equal to one ounce.
Four tablespoonfuls flour is equal to one ounce.
Juice of one lemon is equal to three tablespoonfuls.—Mrs. Hazel L. Dunford, Utah Agricultural College.

Roly-Poly.

Roll half a pound of short pastry into a round about a quarter of an inch thick. Spread over it a layer of jam, leaving a margin all around. Wet this edge slightly and then roll the pudding up. Press the edges tightly. Then place the roly-poly in a floured baking tin and bake thirty minutes. Serve hot with a hard sauce seasoned with sherry or brandy.

Butterscotch Pie.

Melt thoroughly together two cupfuls of light brown sugar and one large tablespoonful of butter, to this add one cupful hot water or milk and yolks of two or three eggs, four tablespoonfuls of flour and a pinch of salt. Beat the whites of the eggs with a little powdered sugar and spread over the tops.

Banking Plan Trust Plan.

Much has been said concerning a central banking plan, and Ex-Senator Aldrich has come forward with a commission plan that has elicited much comment. About the clearest exposition of the matter we have seen comes from a Washington correspondent, and, according to the views therein expressed, the plan is far from what the people want. Here is the article: "That the monetary scheme by the Aldrich commission is designed to strengthen the hold of the trusts on the people has been demonstrated by testimony brought out in the hearings before the Senate committee which is now investigating the trust question.

The men who now control the big industrial trusts are apparently convinced that the people are at last determined to break up those monopolies, which have brought on increased prices of the commodities in which they deal without anything like a proportionate increase in the wages of the workingmen in these trust-dominated industries. The trust heads have been looking about for a way to escape the mandate of the people, and that they have settled upon the Aldrich scheme as the best method of retaining their present control of the industrial situation is indicated in the testimony developed from witnesses by the Democratic and Progressive Senators of the Senate Trust Investigating Committee.

These Senators, by much questioning of witnesses, clearly showed that the industrial and financial magnates are all of one brotherhood. The industrial magnates, including Judge Gary and George W. Perkins, who within the last six months, testified before Congressional committees that they were ready to submit to a federal law fixing prices, were more or less generally regarded as having become converted to the idea that it would be a good policy for the trusts to cease their autocratic methods. From their own statements they apparently were willing to make concessions.

Testimony adduced by the Senate committee shows very clearly, however that these men entertained no such ideas. Mr. Brandeis pointed out that while these trust magnates were willing, according to their own statements, to submit to price fixing, they were at the same time working hard to bring about the passage of the Aldrich plan, the effect of which will be to give these same men control of the monetary commission which in turn, will dominate the corporations.

While Mr. Gary and Mr. Perkins subscribe to the proposal to allow the government to fix prices, regulate methods of production, and send violators of the law to jail, they would maintain the present condition of centralized control. These men, witnesses before the committee showed, do not care how business is conducted, just as long as there is a centralized power in which control is vested. Under the Aldrich plan such power will lie with a commission, and it is with this proposed commission that the trust magnates are mostly concerned.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.
