Lovaletts and Stilleto Jobs.
We are informed of the sale of the Lusk well, south of the Spence ranch, to the Gallacher brothers, who are to move their sheep to the good range around the well. Mr. Lusk will return to San Juan, his old home.

It displays great tact to know when to be silent, and it is a revelation of our true natures to know just what to say.

The Cox brothers came out from White Oaks looking up a job, and returned next morning. It isn't expedient to try too closely with a two edged sword. A malicious decoys to entrap an enemy, lures the perpetrator into the game bag.

Mr. H. H. Talbert arried the men of last week from Colorado Springs where she made a long stay with home-folks.

Hubert Handy returned to camp the last of the week after a protracted stay in White Oaks.

It is not wise to resort to dissembling when the object is transparent enough to see through. False impressions hide only temporarily the great power of facts in the issue.

A wagon-load of apples from Lincoln came in the latter end of the week, which were excellent in flavor.

W. A. Franklin arrived from Chicago a few days since, to take up the line of work which has the greatest attraction for him.

Our efficient butcher was around with the fattest beef of the season Saturday. Mr. Dale has some fine butcher stock on hand and is buying only this quality.

Miss Rosemond Wilson left for home Monday, after a two week sojourn in the Jicarillas.

There is no act so highly appreciated as a cordial welcome to the stranger within our midst, and none which so surely returns to the giver who has thus cast his bread upon the water.

Mr. Franklin has gone to El Paso on business.

We were pained and shocked to hear of the accidental shooting of Mrs. S. C. Burnett, which occurred Saturday at Ancho. From reports it is a very serious shot. Mrs. Burnett is well and favorably know here, and we greatly sympathize with her in her misfortune. The more pathetic seems the affair since her husband is away from home.

Commanding Officer Dr. F. C. Smith returned Friday from a week's hunting trip up around the Indian Agency.

Number 4 will tender an elaborate banquet in their dining hall next Saturday evening in honor of Dr. Lanza who departs next week for Nashville, Tenn. where he will be married to Miss Laura Thomas.

The Sitton family accompanied by the Chaplain motored to Capitol last Wednesday afternoon.

Special Non-Sectarian services in Library hall next Sunday evening by the Rev. Chaplain of the Post presiding.

The regular first Friday services were held in Sacred Heart Chapel last Friday morning.

Mr. Jos. Gentry, local postmaster now enjoying a few weeks visit at his home in Tennessee, is expected back in a few days.

Chaplain Frund and Mr. Thos. Keough spent Tuesday in Lincoln.

Mr. Herrman of Santa Cruz has returned to the Post owing to the return of his illness.

Mr. T. Carr, local tailor, spent the last ten days on a hunting trip up and around the Indian Agency, reporting the wild turkey hunt a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach gave a turkey dinner to a few select friends last Sunday at their home in No. 3.

Mrs. Coleman of Alto who has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. John Able, leaves Sunday for her home.

Mr. Thos. Keough anticipates a few days visit to El Paso in the near future.

Mr. Chas. Babbs is in charge of the decorations in the banquet hall for Lanza celebration next Saturday evening.

The following reels are being run at the Post theater this week: The teacher at Rockville, Pathe Weekly, The Bank's Messenger, The Spring of life, and Tightwad's Predicament.

Hunting is the leading sport these days, and many wild turkey and mountain quail are coming in to the Post.

Special Thanksgiving services and celebrations will be had at the Post this year.

Last Saturday the Chaplain received through Mrs. J. Ralph of Washington, D. C. a beautiful purple vestment donated by the Rev. Sister Julia of St. Rose Technical and Industrial School, Washington, D. C. It is a most costly vestment and will be used on the First Sunday of Advent in the local chapel.

Mr. Walter Scott of No. 4 received last Friday from his friend, Mr. Joseph Gentry of Memphis, a little fox-terrier. Mr. Gentry, the local postmaster is at his home near Memphis for a two month's vacation.

BANQUET DR. LANZA
The departure of Dr. A. Lanza, one of the most popular officers, every stationed at Ft. Stanton for the east where he will be married on the 18th, was marked with a grand banquet at No. 4 dining hall Saturday evening. Promptly at 7 p. m. the Scott Orchestra struck up the wedding march while the guests marched into the dining hall. The affair proved the best celebration held here for years for a friend and doctor. Doctor C. L. Lincoln acquitted himself as a genuine toastmaster for his usual pleasant smiles and popularity worked well in his duty as presiding man of the occasion. The following is taken from the beautifully arranged Menu Card: Oyster cocktail, crisp crackers, consommé a la Royal, olives, celery, salted almonds, Post turkey, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, creamed onions, French peas, fruit salad, cheese crackers, lemon water ice, assorted cakes, crackers, cheese, and cafe noir.

TOASTS
Dr. Lanza, Dr. F. C. Smith, "Officer to Officer," Solo Selected, Thos. P. Keough, Dr. Lanza, Dr. F. H. McKeon, "Friend to Friend," "High Balls roll on the ground" Impromptu. "Papa of the Mess" "Burlesque" "The Mid-night fire alarm" "O You Surgeon General" "Is life worth living," Response, Dr. A. J. Lanza, Solo Selected, Thos. Keough. Other toasts were given by Mr. Henry O'Bannon, Mr. M. Hanna, W. Scott, Chaplain Frund, Dr. Currie, Chas. U. Babbs, A. E. Lovett, Mr. McElhone, and Mr. W. Johnson.

The decoration were equal to any large city banquet hall. This can be readily understood when it is said that Mr. C. U. Babbs, our faithful co-operator in everything for the betterment of a sanatorium was in full charge. The committee deserves great praise for their ardent spirit of good taste, etc.

The following names appeared on the "Menu Card" as the regular members of the "Mess": Messrs. H. C. O'Bannon, P. McCostly, Elhone, P. J. Duffy, J. B. Rudolph, T. P. Keough, Dr. Allison Brown, J. H. Gentry, Dr. C. L. Lincoln, Dr. B. F. Currie, J. D. Hanna, C. C. Cannon, C. W. Martin, R. G. McCorkle, R. P. Ferguson, A. B. Lovett, and Chaplain G. G. Frund. The Specially invited guests of the evening, who's names also appeared on the Menu Card were Hon. Dr. F. C. Smith, Dr. F. H. McKeon, Dr. A. J. Lanza, W. A. Nenha, H. D. Leach, and J. L. Van Zant. Committee: W. C. Johnson, C. U. Babbs, and W. G. Scott.

Doctor Lanza left Sunday afternoon on the mail car for Carrizozo later bound for Nashville, Tennessee where on November 18th he will be married to Miss Laura Thomas, the ceremony to take place at the Episcopal Residence of Bishop Byrne of the Roman Catholic Church.

Fort Stanton although glad to hear of their devoted friend Doctor Lanza entering the Holy State of Matrimony is much worried as to whether or no the Surgeon General will send him back to New Mexico. Everybody at the Post is living in strong hope of the joyful news soon that Dr. and Mrs. Lanza will reside here.

At the Non-Sectarian services conducted by Chaplain Frund in Library hall, Sunday evening the following programme was carried out in full, the sermon being a strong appeal for less words and more thinking:

PROGRAMME

WHAT SHALL IT BE?
"There comes a time in the lives of all careless and indifferent people when they must honestly ask themselves the question: What shall it be?—light and peace or doubt and darkness? faith and practice or impiety and unbelief? There comes a time when the choice must be made. Sometimes, alas, it comes with the coming of the Savior, like a thief in the night. Sometimes it comes as God's last call to repentance. Sometimes it comes out of the abundance of His mercy in response to prayers of sainted men and women. But come it will,

Carrizozo Shuts out Capitan

WHEN the news reached here, by phone, from Capitan Saturday evening that the result of the basket ball game there that day was 28 for the Carrizozo girls and a gooseegg for the Capitan girls there was general rejoicing. True, there was one little fly in the ointment, and that was that our girls, not satisfied with handing their opponents a "whitewash," piled on the agony by running up such an outrageous score—a score that was merciless. The result, however, was no surprise, but the immensity of the victory almost took our breath away.

Capitan had won a number of victories during the season and, no doubt, was badly surprised—surprised at the whirlwind playing of the Carrizozo girls, which was practically free of fouls, and the team work exhibited by the visitors. It was a magnificent victory—a victory that extracted the sting from all former defeats—an evening up of all old scores—a wiping off the plate for a new start. The players and their positions were:

Capitan	Carrizozo
Tresie West	Lola Highfill
Pearl Thompson	Mildred Peters
Jennie Parker	Patsy Johnson
Myrtle McDaniel	Iona Stevens
Helen Plingsten	Lena Highfill
Jennie Boone	Johnnie Spiller
Forwards
Guards
Batting Center
Running Center

Rival boys' teams from the same towns played a game after the girls' game, in which Capitan was victorious. No report has been obtained of score in the boys' game. But its result failed to dampen the ardor of the attending Carrizozans—several of whom motored over to witness the sports—in fact, the enormity of the girls' victory so completely overshadowed everything else that they scarcely considered the defeat of the boys even an unpleasant incident.

It had been generally supposed that this would be the last game of the season, but since the Capitans have had time to recover their breath they have again shown their mettle and ask for a return game, which will probably be played here next Saturday week. We wish them a pleasant visit when they come, but we don't feel discourteous in saying that their chances to defeat the Carrizozo contingent are slender since the latter have struck their stride.

and then the choice must be made, and made perhaps for ever.

What shall it be? Ask yourself the question, dear reader, if you be a careless man or woman, before it is too late. Remember, too, that prayer is the first step in the prodigal's return. There is always hope so long as the knee is bent in prayer."

White Mountain.

Max Benkendorf visited relatives in Alamogordo Sunday. Messrs. Kelley and Squiers spent a couple of days in our region on a hunting expedition. H. S. Scheffly is away for a few days' work with Frank Smith at White Tail Spring. J. M. Fall was up from the Fall ranch this week, hunting stray cattle.

Capitan

Capitan witnessed a good game of basket ball Saturday, between Carrizozo and Capitan. Carrizozo winning by a score of 28 to nothing. We believe Capitan wasn't feeling very well before the game began; but we think it fair anyway, for Capitan has won enough games for the season.

The Capitan boys won the basket ball game the same day over the 'zozo boys. T. J. Grafton was in town from Parsons. Messrs. Titsworth and Rentfrow and Mrs. Boone have moved their cattle down to the east end of the Capitan mountains. We are told the change has not resulted as well as was expected; for Mrs. Boone, alone, has lost 28 head up to date.

The school is progressing nicely. Capitan is enjoying a splendid Sunday School and has had some enjoyable meetings, as well.

A Dreadful Accident

A dreadful accident at Ancho last Saturday resulted in Mrs. S. C. Burnett losing an arm. It seems she was moving from one house to another—her husband was at Fort Sumner at the time—and had placed a shot gun in the wagon with other articles. In pulling out the gun she grasped it by the muzzle and it was discharged, the charge of shot entering the right arm between the elbow and shoulder.

Dr. E. B. Walker was called from here and reached Ancho as soon as he could rush his car to that point. Upon reaching the wounded woman an examination was made and it was found that the bone in the upper arm was crushed and broken into little bits and the arm was a mass of shreds. Amputation was, therefore, the only alternative and the arm was severed from the body about an inch from the shoulder.

McCant Buys Car

MR. AND MRS. ECK McCANT passed through Monday on their return from El Paso to Corona, their home, driving a new 1914 Buick. The hurricane deck of a bronco is no longer the means of travel for the cowman and Eck didn't try to resist the change.

Stevens Sells Car

CHAS. A. STEVENS, who has the agency for the Studebaker, sold a six-cylinder car to Clarence Spence this week. The car is equipped with all the latest attachments; electrically lighted and started and is a seven-passenger car. A similar make, but a four-cylinder, is common here.

SCIENCE AND INVENTION

EXPERIMENTS IN TELEPATHY

English Psychologist Holds That Thoughts Are Things and Have Physiological Existence.

H. Spencer Lewis, a practical psychologist of Great Britain, is experimenting in telepathy. He holds that thoughts are things, that they have a physiological or material existence as well as a psychological structure. He also finds it demonstrated that thinking is a process of varying vibrations, actual, physical vibrations, and that a thought is the direct result of a number of such vibrations.

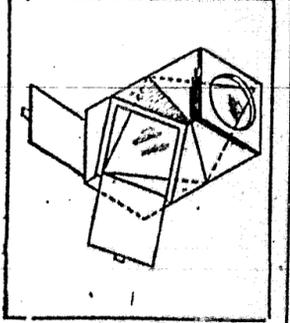

How far it has been proved that these thought vibrations emanate beyond our conscious being Mr. Lewis does not pretend to know. But an hypothesis he assumes that thoughts produce physical vibrations which emanate in all directions, as do the vibrations or waves from Marconi's wireless telegraph. If this is granted it must be granted also that in order for another mind to receive such vibrations that mind must be constructed physically upon the same principle as a Marconi receiving station.

If thought waves are vibrations constantly emanating promiscuously it is apparent that only certain brains or minds can be so physically attuned as to receive those purely physical vibrations. This explains why those who form a psychological point of view are constantly attuned to another cannot at all times and under all circumstances receive mental messages, pictures or words directed to them by the agent. Atmospheric conditions, bodily illa, vitality and its lack, and numerous other physical conditions would tend to prevent an agent from properly emanating or directing thought waves and to prohibit their reception at any other point.

COLOR PHOTOGRAPHY IS NEW

Only a short time ago color photography was unknown, while now there are improvements in its methods and additions to its mechanism almost continually. One of the newest of these has been patented by an Englishman. In the rear of an oblong camera box in a plate holder, designed to contain the usual sensitive plate. In front of the plate, about midway between it and the lens of the camera, is a reflection device that first catches the image to be reproduced and then filters it through and casts it upon the plate. This colored reflecting element is inclined to the longitudinal axis of the camera box and to both of the transverse axes and the effect is the same as if the image was received on the sensitive plate direct through the lens.

TO OBTAIN CHIMES EFFECT

Hand Formerly Restricted to Stage—Now Taken Care of by Plan—Worked by Electricity.

In the theater the old method of obtaining the chimes effect was to entrust to a "grip" or stage hand the duty of striking steel bars with any tool to hand, and the deep tones of the cathedral's chimes were frequently represented by the irregular strokes of an unskilled laborer, to the detriment of a scene in point of beauty and frequently in point of accuracy, as midnight in the old church tower was as apt to strike eleven or thirteen.

The Yerkes temple bells and chimes have changed this, placing the pianist

Theatrical Bells and Chimes.

In charge of this feature, says the Popular Electricity. A miniature piano keyboard, in which the pressing of a key closes an electric circuit, operates the chimes and bells. Twenty resonator bells ranging in chromatic intervals from low C to high G, are employed, these bells being mounted on felt covered oak circles, equipped with specially constructed vibrating magnets to which are attached hammers. The chimes consist of 18 highly polished tubes of bell metal brass, mounted upon a stationary stand to which single stroke magnets are attached.

ODD EXPERIMENT IN OXYGEN

Used In Storage for Preservation of Aquarium Specimens Across Atlantic With Success.

The oxygen tank for the prolongation of human life is no novelty, though the average reader seems disposed to consign the human patient to the undertaker the moment the oxygen tank is suggested. That the same chemical oxygen has been used in storage for preservation of aquarium specimens across the Atlantic, and without change of water, however, has opened up a probable commercial proposition in shipping.

The New York aquarium contracted to send some American specimens of fishes and crustaceans to Emil Gundelach of Gohlberg, Germany, proposing to put the fishes and the shell fish in partially filled jars of water, which later were subjected to oxygen pressure and sealed in air-tight condition. Four varieties of fishes and ten varieties of crustaceans were packed in 16 jars two-thirds filled with water and one-third with oxygen at pressure. The manner of packing was a novelty, in that the jars were inverted in a trough of water, the specimens introduced, and the oxygen then pumped into the inverted jars until one-third the water content had been displaced by the oxygen.

Some of these specimens were of minnow size and others so large that they had not room to turn in the jars. Yet in a voyage of nine days every specimen arrived alive, although two of the largest fishes appeared benumbed and died the next day. It may have been that in the case of the large, crowded specimens the oxygen ran short. But the shipment seems to prove that exchange of such specimens is easy between distant countries, and without any necessity for caretakers, changes of the water or aerating it by means of costly machinery.

burning or not, says the Popular Mechanic. The device consists of a pair of small mirrors, one of which, mounted on the dashboard, catches the reflection from the rear glass.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children, "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

NEWS and GOSSIP OF WASHINGTON

Was Determined to Hold Some Kind of a Job

WASHINGTON.—Bryan F. Mahan, who as representative from the Second Connecticut district is serving his first term in the lower house of congress, is the only man in that body who is also and simultaneously mayor of a city as well. Mahan got re-elected mayor of New London, Conn., last year, for about the 11th time, and when he was put up for congress last fall on the Democratic ticket he thoughtfully held on to what he already had.

Of course, with the Republican party split wide open in the district it looked like a cinch for the Democrat, but you never can tell in politics, and Mahan was bound and determined to hold some kind of a job whichever way the cat jumped.

After he was elected the question arose: What was he going to do with the majority? Local politics in New London was in such a fluid state that Mahan didn't know of any available man who would or could maintain the true Jeffersonian principles of the fathers as mayor except himself.

"This being thus," suggested a friend, "why not keep on with the job?"

It listened good to Mahan. He looked up the law and found that while it was forbidden to hold two federal jobs at the same time, nobody was enjoined against mixing federal, state and local offices to suit, provided he could get them. So Mahan stuck.

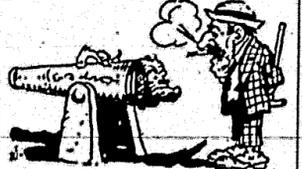

Now he "week-ends" at New London, where he is mayor. The rest of the time he spends in Washington legislating for the whole people. It's a great combination.

Mahan's salary as mayor is only $1,000 a year, and as his railroad fares must total up nearly that much in the course of a twelvemonth, it may be assumed that he is either plugging for glory or immolating himself upon the altar of principle. Or, again, maybe he is cannily keeping his grip on the organization that sent him to congress. To a representative 1914 is nearer than the calendar would have him believe.

Remarkable Ornament on an Old Trophy Cannon

MANY persons stop to examine more or less closely or more or less carelessly the handsome gray-green bronze trophy guns at the foot of the stairway at the north entrance to the state, war and navy department building. It is surprising, or it is not surprising, according to one's caste-of-thought, how many spectators fall to see the remarkable and unusual feature of the gun on the east side of the entrance—the gun which is the younger and the more ornate of the pair.

The east gun bears among various inscriptions the words Le Farouche, which may be translated "The Fierce," "The Savage" or "The Wild." On the cascabel or the base of the breech of this venerable smooth-bore muzzle-loading cannon, cast by Jean Maritz at Douy, France, in July, 1748, is the face of an angry lion with the butt of a thorned stake or war club protruding from its mouth. Whether the name of the fierce image on its base or whether the image was cast there because the gun was to be called "The Fierce" neither the writer nor the superintendent of the state, war and navy building, who is the custodian of this and other trophy guns, knows. But the face is there.

Thousands of tourists gaze on the art handles of the gun. They are bronze dolphins. The tourists puzzle over or study the coat-of-arms of France, the crown of France, the battle emblems, sabers, cannon, drums, flags and trumpets, the circle of fleur-de-lis of the house of Bourbon and the face of Pallas surrounded by the rays of a blazing sun. But few of the pilgrims ever stoop to study the remarkable face and club at the butt of the historic gun, which, by the way, though French, was taken by Americans from one of the forts, either the Morro or Sacopa, at the mouth of Santiago harbor in 1898 and mounted in Washington in the spring of 1899.

What Would You Do if You Had This Queer Bill?

IF you were handed a yellow-back bill with $50 marked on one side and $100 on the other side would you think that you had been the victim of the "money changers," or would you think that an error had been made and you had been given just double the amount that you should have received?

Inquiries made by a reporter the other night as to the value of such a note brought forth varied answers.

"Why, I should say that the bill is worth $50," asserted one man.

"It is good for $75," said a youth who had evidently been learning something about the mean proportion in mathematics.

Still another declared that $100 was its value, while others declared that it was worthless and would cause the owner trouble if he attempted to exchange it. All doubts as to the value of the bill were laid at rest when Joseph E. Ralph, director of the bureau of engraving and printing, stated that it was worth $50 and explained how the note originated.

Just two of these bills are in circulation, according to H. O. Granberg—the owner, of one—a wealthy mine owner of Colorado, who brought his collection of "freak" money to an exhibit held recently in Detroit. Both bills were printed in the bureau of engraving and printing.

"The error can be accounted for," said Director Ralph, "in only one way. The upper end of the plate prints $100 bills while the lower end prints $50 bills. The paper is then turned over and another impression is taken for the other side. In some manner the plate was turned the wrong way for the second impression, and the two bills issued. Although they passed through the hands of fifty people before they left the building, they were eventually put into circulation."

The Senator From New Mexico Had to Explain

IT was during the discussion of the Indian bill in the senate that Senator Gallinger asked:

"What is peyote?"

"The senator from New Mexico can explain," replied Chairman Stone.

"But I would prefer to have the senator from Missouri explain," persisted Gallinger, who saw a little fun in it.

But Stone turned to Senator Fall, who told the senate that Peyote was a drink which the Indians made from cactus, which was not so intoxicating as whiskey, but a fair substitute.

It was Senator Gallinger who replied to Senator Owens' sneering remarks about men from the east who go out west and "nose around among the Indians." It was Senator Gallinger who called attention to men from the east who had always given the best in them to the Indian service. He first mentioned Senator Dawes of Massachusetts, who devoted his ser-ate service to the red men. Then came Senator Platt of Connecticut, whose long service on the Indian committee made him known as a friend of the Indian. Then he alluded to Senator Quay, "whose last speech in the senate was about the Indians and brought tears to the eyes of many senators."

Probably no three men ever gave more unselfish devotion to any cause than these three men to the Indians. And there are few western men who will not agree with that statement.

Grayville, Ill.—"I was a great sufferer of female complaints for a year and I got nothing that helped me until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Chicago, Ill.—"I take pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with such awful periodic pains, and had a displacement, and received no benefit from the doctors. I was advised to take Lydia E. ## Boys Prefer the Farm.

The farm boy has a tremendous advantage in the world. "Early he is trained to self-reliance, to performance of duties, to regular labor. He has a sound body. He is eminently fitted to do the greatest things done in the world. He recognizes that the farm is the best place in the world in which to live. Ten chances to one he would prefer to stay on his father's farm—if the father can learn to make the farm pay well. If he can make it progressive, with hope of fine achievement at the end of the struggle, then most boys will stay. It is when the farm is stagnant, unprogressive, dead, almost hopeless, that the young man sets his face resolutely away from the farm."—Breeder's Gazette.

Funeral at Lincoln

ON Friday afternoon, November 6th, the body of John Freeman Laws was interred in the cemetery at Lincoln. The child was born to Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Laws on Oct. 17th but suffering from heart trouble, his brief life on this earth ended November 5th. Quite a number of friends from Fort Stanton and other parts of the county came to express their sympathy with the bereaved parents, who feel the loss very keenly. The service was conducted by Rev. Herbert Haywood, of Carrizozo, who spoke on the Immortality of Humanity.

Special Railroad Rates

ALL railroads will grant a special rate of a fare and one-fifth for the round trip from all points in New Mexico to Deming. The rate is granted at the request of the State Corporation Commission to give a low fare to those desiring to attend the state sale of 18,000 acres of land in the shallow water belt, which sale takes place at Deming, New Mexico on the 8th day of December 1913.

Instructions have come from the postoffice department at Washington to have the Carrizozo-Roswell auto leave here from tomorrow at 6 o'clock in the morning. This certainly means early moving on the part of the local postmaster and assistants to get the mail off, and really means, in addition to the inconvenience, poor service to postoffices along the route.

A Night of Terror.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers.

Methodist Church Services

Rev. John Witt Hendrix, the new Methodist pastor, will arrive tomorrow, and will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all.

The Tax Levy

The regular state and county tax rate for this year, exclusive of special levies, is .0446. A special school levy of from 3 to 15 mills is to be added, according to the levy in the several school districts, and there are also special levies on stock, viz: cattle, 3 1/2 mills; sheep, 8 mills. This rate is on a one-third valuation.

Cause of Insomnia.

The most common cause of insomnia is disorders of the stomach and constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders and enable you to sleep. For sale by all dealers.

Base Ball Dance Postponed

THE baseball management wishes to announce that the dance to be given at the Bank Hall tomorrow night has been postponed. Owing to the prevalence of diphtheria in the town and the danger of its spreading at a public gathering, the management deemed it the better plan to call off the dance.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the colds:

- "Don't sit in a draughty car."
- "Don't sleep in hot rooms."
- "Don't avoid the fresh air."
- "Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance."
- To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.

Huerta to Quit

ADVICES at noon today indicate, that General Huerta will resign the presidency of Mexico, at the urgent and repeated solicitation of the United States. The pressure that has been brought to bear on the provisional president by foreign powers—especially on financial affairs—is responsible, so it is announced, for this action on the part of the Mexican president.

And, whether the report as to his resignation be true or not, it is evident that a decided change in the Mexican situation is at hand. The foreign powers are standing solidly behind the Washington authorities, and unquestionably something will be doing in the near future.

If the aims of the United States can be accomplished without intervention the results will produce a better effect on all Latin America and prove conclusively to all the western hemisphere that the United States has no desire to enlarge her domains by conquest. It is too early, however, to say, even with Huerta out of the way, what the eventual outcome will be. Another revolution, many predict, will follow the seating of any man in the executive chair of the Mexican republic.

Brickbats and Boquets

WE have borrowed the above headline from Colliers', as it best expresses what follows. The writer was a subscriber to the Lincoln County Year Book, and after receiving the work comments as follows:

"Inclosed herewith I send you some of the rags of the realm representing in amount the stipend due you as per bill rendered. Personally, the write up and the cartoons are all satisfactory, but if I were one of the others would kick the cartoonist all over the town and suburbs. Mechanically, the work is beyond criticism, and much better than I could have done myself; only the covers need trimming down a couple of inches to add to their neatness, according to my way of thinking, seeing the present style of correct dressing is to lop off all superfluous trappings and leave the outside unwieldiness exposed as much as possible.

Congratulations, however, on the good work of your brain and hand."

Another writes: "I would like to have three or four extra copies of your Year Book. Despite the fact that there is very small mention of our vicinity, it is quite an interesting book."

Still another says: "I am well pleased with the Year Book. It is well printed and contains much valuable information."

Thanks, Neighbor

THE Lincoln County Year Book has been issued by John A. Haley from News press at Carrizozo and the publication is very nicely gotten out and is replete with information, history and biography. Numerous halftones adorn the pages and the citizens of the county can lay the book away after its perusal and have it as a token and criterion of the present time in the times to come. The average layman does not realize the amount of work which the compilation of a work of this kind requires and the fact that most of the citizens did not have even photographs of themselves for reproduction, which necessitated the use of snap shots in many instances is a serious draw back in such work. We appreciate the book and extend congratulations to its Editor on the typographical and editorial contents.—Carrizozo Outlook.

For the Gander as well as the Goose

WHY should a man that is engaged in business send to some other town to have his printing done when he can get it done in his own town? Yes, even at his own doors, and have it done just as he wants it done, then complain because people send money out of town to the mail order houses for their goods. Haven't the people just as much right to send to the mail order houses for what they want as the merchant has to send to some other town for his job work. The business man that sends away for his printing is a knocker against the business of his own town. He may be able to get some jobs a little bit cheaper by sending it out of town, but is it not a fact that there is a spirit of rivalry going on between the business men of all towns and in order to draw trade they will give out prices to customers of other towns that they will not give to their home trade?—Pecos Times.

Change in Train Schedule

A change in train schedules will take place Sunday, the 10th. Not only will there be a change in the arrival and departure of the trains, but two of the trains change numbers, as well, viz: No. 33 becomes No. 7 and No. 34 becomes No. 8.

SCHEDULE

No.	Arrive	Depart
1	2:35 a. m.	2:40 a. m.
2	8:52 p. m.	8:57 p. m.
3	10:52 a. m.	10:57 p. m.
4	7:05 p. m.	7:10 p. m.
7	1:45 p. m.	2:10 p. m.
8	12:05 p. m.	12:30 p. m.

For the information of the public we will say that odd numbers go west, even numbers go east.

Sold Apple Crop

GEORGE W. COE returned from El Paso Friday night and went to his home on the "Doso" the following evening. He had been to El Paso to dispose of the remainder of his apple crop, having already sold a portion to W. L. Gunn. He had just shipped the last car—making five cars he has gathered and sold this season. A number of different varieties were in the shipment, but the principal varieties were Black Twig and Jeniton. A neat sum was realized from the crop.

Travis Shooting Affair

A BOUT 10:30 Wednesday night A. A. Highfill shot and seriously wounded Fred Burleson, the shooting occurring near the hotel run by the former. In view of the fact that no preliminary hearing has been given, the authorities awaiting the result of the wound, and further that domestic affairs are involved that make it difficult to define—and, indeed, probably should not be dealt with at this time, we feel constrained to confine ourselves to a mere statement of the physical facts.

At the hour mentioned those in the immediate neighborhood of the altercation heard three shots, and shortly afterward it developed that Highfill had done the shooting and that young Burleson was the person shot. The wounded man made his way to Dr. E. B. Walker's office and the doctor made an examination of the wound. The bullet—one shot only having taken effect—had entered the back near the spine and had lodged in front of the abdomen, on the side. An anesthetic was administered and the ball extracted. The young man rested well yesterday, notwithstanding the serious nature of his wound, and, if complications do not arise, his chances for recovery are considered good. He was taken to El Paso on No. 1 this morning where an examination will be made and an operation may follow.

As soon as Deputy Roberts was informed of the affair, he arrested Highfill and the latter is now in jail awaiting the result of the wound. The accused is reticent, says little and the public awaits the preliminary hearing which it is thought will bring out all the facts in the case.

Young Burleson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burleson, arrived from their home at Lincoln early yesterday morning and gave every attention to their wounded son. Their many friends sincerely hope their son may recover. There is much sympathy, also, for the family of the man who did the shooting.

LATER: A message reached here at noon from El Paso to the effect that the young man had undergone an operation and that he was getting along remarkably well. To the grief-stricken parents, sister and brother this assurance is comforting, and the recovery of the wounded boy will not only lift a weight of sorrow from the other family involved but will remove the dark shadow that has been hanging like a pall over the community since the shooting.

Carrizozo School Notes

At this writing, practically fifty per cent of the pupils have stopped school on account of diphtheria.

The girls' basket ball team went to Capitan last Saturday to play a return game. Although the game played between these two teams in Carrizozo three weeks ago was hotly contested and won by Capitan 8 to 10, the Carrizozo girls took Saturday's game by storm.

Nothing seemed to be able to stop the scoring of the Carrizozo girls or make the wayward ball enter the basket for "the best team in the county." A feature of the game which deserves "honorable mention" was the good feeling of the true sportsman exhibited by the losing team.

The Carrizozo teachers have voted to attend the convention of the New Mexico Educational Association which meets at Albuquerque Nov. 24, 25, and 28.

hundred fifty two. Come to see us at work. You are always welcome.

Respectfully, ANDREW McCURDY. [NOTE: Since the above was written and set up the school has closed, owing to the discovery of additional cases of diphtheria.]

New Mexico Mineral Production

UNTIL 1912 New Mexico was one of the two States in the Rocky Mountain region, Wyoming being the other, which lay more claim to recognition as mining States by reason of their production of coal than by their output of precious and semiprecious metals.

The coal production increased from 3,148,158 short tons, valued at $4,525,925, to 3,536,824 short tons, valued at $5,037,051.

The other commercial mineral products of the state are gold, lead, silver, zinc, stone, clay products, fluor spar, gypsum, iron ore, lime, mica, mineral waters, salt, sand and gravel, gems and vanadium minerals.

The Carrizozo teachers have voted to attend the convention of the New Mexico Educational Association which meets at Albuquerque Nov. 24, 25, and 28.
